He requested that applicants for employment consider these requirements: Selection is being made primarily from physically fit unemployed and unmarried men between the ages of 18 and 25 (both inclusive), who are citizens of the United States, who have dependents and who wish to allot to these dependents a substantial portion of the $35 monthly cash allowance.

CHANGES IN COURT DATES AND JUDICIAL BOUNDARIES PROVIDED IN COLLIE BILL

Lower House Had Taken No Action On Measure Up To Wednesday Night

Following closely on heels of the State redistricting bill, passed by the legislature recently, and under the provisions of which Mitchell county was taken out of the old 16th congressional district and annexed onto a new one known as the 19th, it is apparent that this county is up for changes in its judicial aspect.

The Collie bill authorizing radical changes in both boundary lines and court dates for the 32nd and other West Texas judicial districts, has passed the senate. Up to Wednesday night the House had taken no action on the bill and it remains to be seen whether the measure will be made a law. Reports from Austin indicate that the bill will receive favorable consideration in lower branch of the legislature.

Under provisions of the bill, as passed first by the senate Monday night of last week, changes in both the judicial boundaries and stipulated dates for court terms are changed in this the 32nd, the 70th and 109th districts. Howard county, originally in the 32nd judicial district, is placed in the 70th with Midland, Ector, Martin and Glasscock counties.

Under the redistricting bill Mitchell county will have thirteen weeks of court annually, divided into three terms. One of the terms will be of five weeks duration and other two of four weeks each.

The bill provides that the Special 32nd district court of which Judge Jas. T. Brooks of Big Spring is judge, will cease to exist on August first and the other provisions of the bill will take effect on that date. The bill was introduced by Senator W. B. Collie of Eastland.

Terms of court for the 32nd judicial district are provided for as follows:

Nolan County: 8 weeks term beginning first Monday in January of each year; 8 weeks term beginning on the seventeenth Monday after the first Monday in January of each year; 6 weeks term beginning first Monday in September of each year.

Mitchell County: 5 weeks term beginning on eighth Monday after the first Monday in January each year; 4 weeks term beginning on twenty-fifth Monday after first Monday in January of each year; 4 weeks term beginning on the sixth Monday after the first Monday in September each year.

Scurry County: 3 weeks term beginning on thirteenth Monday after first Monday in January of each year; 4 weeks term beginning on twenty-ninth Monday after first Monday in January each year; and 4 weeks term beginning on tenth Monday after first Monday in September of each year.

Borden County: 1 week term beginning on sixteenth Monday after first Monday in January; and 1 week term beginning on the fourteenth Monday after first Monday in September of each year.

MRS. M. M. BETTIS, AGED TEXAN, DIED SATURDAY AT HOME OF DAUGHTER

Deceased Was Mother Mrs. R. A. Hood of Spade And C. H. Hudson, Colorado

Mrs. M. M. Bettis, 78, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. A. Hood of Spade community Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock following a lingering illness.

Funeral rites were held Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Spade Baptist church with Rev. G. W. Parks of Roscoe officiating. Burial was in the Spade cemetery.

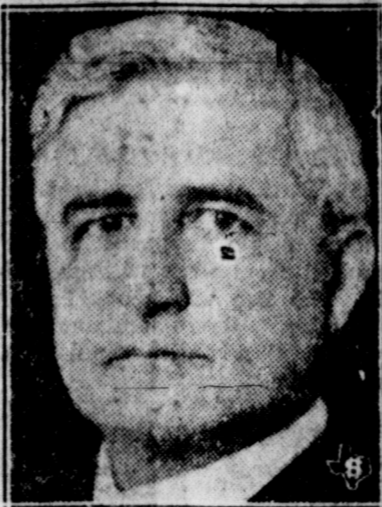

Mrs. Bettis had resided in West Texas fourteen years, making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Hood during most of the time. During the past several days preceding her death her sons, C. H. Hudson of Colorado, W. W. Hudson of Sweetwater, had spent much time at her bedside.

Mrs. Bettis was a native Texan, having been born in Titus county. She had made her home in Mitchell county during the past fourteen years. She had been a consistent member of the Baptist church through sixty five years.

Six grandsons of deceased, Claude, R. F., C. H., E. B. and George Hudson and Floyd Poole, were active pall bearers.

Surviving Mrs. Bettis are seven children all of whom were present for the funeral rites and burial excepting a daughter, Tilly Hudson of Biloxi, Miss., who was unable to attend. Besides the two sons mentioned above the other survivors are Mrs. Hood; Mrs. Riley Poole of Moran; Mrs. Ada Vann of Yuma, Ariz.; and Gene Hudson of DeLeon, Kiker & Son of Colorado directed funeral arrangements.

Jesse Jones Honored

All Texas should be proud of the fact that Uncle Sam called upon the Lone Star State to furnish a man to head the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, the largest financial organization in the world. Jesse Jones of Houston, who has been a director of the R. F. C. since its organization, has been elected chairman of the board of directors, which makes him head of this immense institution.

Lone Star Twinklings

By Etta Lee Martin.

Lone Star school closed Friday, May 5th with an all day picnic. The day was well enjoyed by all those present. There were visitors from all near communities. Two real interesting ball games were played in the afternoon. Lone Star won both games. The outsiders were China Grove and schoolboys played Valley View. A nice dinner was spread at noon and if anyone went away hungry it was their fault.

There was only a small attendance at church Sunday due to so many people of this community attending the singing convention at Colorado. A large crowd was present Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Nix and children are visiting in the home of W. H. Nix and family this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Compton spent Monday visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Lee of Bauman.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. W. L. Swofford gave a bridal shower honoring Mrs. Ray Boyd, who before her marriage was Miss Leola Scisson. A number of visitors were present. The contest was the person who could work the jig-saw puzzle first would be awarded the prize. Mrs. Boyd was the winner and was awarded many beautiful and useful gifts. Refreshments of pie, doughnuts and iced lemonade were served to about twenty visitors. All returned home wishing them many happy years of married life.

Mrs. Jimmie Black is spending this week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Mearse.

Arthur Smith spent a few days last week visiting in the home of Richard Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarice Woods have returned home from South Texas to make their home with Mr. and Mrs. Will Cranfill.

Several young people of this community attended the Musical given by Miss Rebecca and Mr. Hoyt Britton Saturday night.

Rogers Ramblings

Everyone is invited to attend the recital and mock wedding at the schoolhouse Friday night, May 12. This program will be quite different from those of the past and you should come and ascertain some idea of the accomplishments of the students in the department of music. The people of Rogers should be justly proud of the progress made by the music pupils.

The singing school closed Friday night with a large crowd in attendance. Rev. John Fields conducted the school each Sunday night and all are invited to be present. We appreciate the good singers from other communities to come and help us out.

Sunday school was well attended but several were absent on account of sickness. Everybody come back Sunday and bring somebody with you.

School will close May 19 with a program that night. This will complete another full nine months term. This is evidence of the interest the patrons of the school take in their school as their tax payments have been such that the school be maintained the full term.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Stricklin are the proud parents of twin boys born Tuesday, May 9, and all are doing nicely.

Horns Chapel girls ball team defeated Rogers at Rogers Tuesday. The game will be returned Thursday.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

"Does nobody care, does nobody care, That souls drift downward to hell? Will no heart be moved with woe or distress, The love of the Savior to tell?"

Leaders and workers of the Baptist Sunday school must have felt something like this poet last Sunday. Especially of the adult department. We hope and pray for more whole families to come to S. S. and church.

Rev. A. C. Hardin brought a message on "Starting Somewhere and Getting There," at the eleven o'clock hour using the life of Abraham as an example. Abraham's goal was a distant, difficult, expensive, worthy and heaven appointed goal and he accomplished his goal.

Sunday evening the pastor brought an evangelistic message from the book of Amos, "Prepare to Meet Thy God."

The adult group of B. B. S. gave the program Sunday evening on "Lives Open Doors." Every adult should have heard this program and joined B.T.S. Junior B.Y.P.U. also enjoyed a fine program Sunday evening.

The officers of B.T.S. met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Martin Monday evening for regular monthly business meeting. "Work For the Night is Coming," was sung, a number of prayers offered and regular business attended. The officers agreed to ask the B.T.S. to help reach an A-1 standard as soon as possible. All officers except two committee members were present.

BAPTIST W.M.S.

W.M.S. met in the home of Mrs. Lester Jarrett Monday afternoon with Mrs. C. B. Reeder as joint hostess. "Jesus Calls Us" was sung, devotional led by Mrs. Martin and prayer offered by Mrs. Ray. The topics of "Home Missions Translating the Word" were discussed by Mesdames Reeder, Fain, Wilson, Richburg, Norman and Ray. The meeting was beautifully dismissed by Mrs. Richburg.

We were so glad to have Mesdames Ferguson, Troit and Callahan back with us and Mrs. Roberts and Velma Conner as visitors. The hostesses served ice cream and devils food cake to fourteen women.

Industry As Next Move To Better Days Chief Executive Plans Partnership With

A government "partnership" with industry to improve wages, shorten working hours and control surplus production will be President Roosevelt's next move in attacking economic adversity. He revealed this Sunday night in giving the nation a full exposition of his policies, past and future, for domestic and international recovery from the depression.

Seated at a desk in the White House, Mr. Roosevelt also gave notice that he would use the powers about to be given him by congress to provide inflation "when, as, and if it may be necessary to accomplish the purpose."

Mr. Chas Duke is confined to his bed from painful burns received last Thursday at the H. K. Sadler Filling station while operating an electric pump. He was reported resting Tuesday but his injuries were worse than first thought to be. Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Porter who have been visiting her for the past few days returned on Tuesday to their home at Las Cruces, New Mexico. His mother Mrs. T. B. Porter, who accompanied them here remained for an indefinite visit with her daughter Mrs. Pat Mayes of Roscoe and her son Forest Porter and wife.

J. A. Crosby and wife returned from Mansfield, Arkansas, Wednesday where they spent a week visiting Mr. Crosby's mother.

Mrs. H. Ohlenbusch returned from Inadale Monday where she had been visiting her newly arrived granddaughter Hattie May, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Ohlenbusch, Sunday, May 7th.

now pending in the house. An unofficial committee, headed by Senator Wagner (D-NY), has virtually completed the drafting of a plan for self regulation by industry through a relaxation of the anti-trust laws and is expected to file it before the president this week.

Industry has been described by J. H. Rand, Jr., prominent manufacturer and a member of the Wagner committee, as considering a proposal to put 3,000,000 men back to work on a specified date as a part of the program.

Mr. Roosevelt, speaking of the authority about to be given him over agriculture, to improve commodity prices and prevent over production, said "the extent of its use will depend entirely upon what the future has in store."

The president reviewed in detail the steps he has taken since March 4 and asserted that congress has not surrendered its power but rather delegated him as its agent to carry out the emergency program.

He mentioned neither the banking reform legislation still in dispute in committee on Capitol Hill nor the controversial war debts issue. Fresh doubt arose as to whether he would seek action on either at this special session.

In the international field he outlined a four-fold objective — disarmament and security, reduction of "trade barriers," stabilization of currencies, and reestablishment of "friendly relations and greater confidence between all nations."

Chapel Exercises

The student body assembled Monday morning, May 8, for chapel exercises. Several songs were sung and Mr. Ed Clifton led in prayer. A short health play was given by the students in the second grade under the direction of Mrs. Lauderdale. Mr. Patterson made an interesting talk on patriotism.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton and Ardith Byrd were visitors in chapel.

"Girl Shy" Presented— "Girl Shy" was presented Friday night, May 5, by the Junior-Senior classes, under the direction of Miss Ott.

A large crowd attended the play and all reported it well worth their money.

We were glad to have Miss Irene Parker, a former student of Westbrook visit our school.

Chapel— Brother J. D. Harvey who is holding a revival here, made an interesting talk last Wednesday morning in chapel. His subject was "Opportunity." He illustrated his talk by telling a short story to the primary grades. Everyone enjoyed his visit.

Guess Who?— Answer to last week's Guess Who was Herbert Currie.

I wonder if you can guess who this sophomore boy is. He is about five feet, six inches tall, and weighs about 125 pounds. He has black hair and blue eyes. His hobby is riding a bicycle and he sometimes sees how stubborn he can be.

Humor— Herb: Does Miss Ott talk to herself in your class? Keet: Yes, but she thinks we are listening.

Mrs. Leach: Have you said your prayers, Dennis? Dennis: Of course. Mrs. Leach: And did you ask to be made a better boy? Dennis: Yes, and I put in a good word for you and father too.

Evelyn: Did you tell the reporter in confidence that your engagement was a secret? Mary Florence: Yes, and the man thing, he never put it in the paper at all.

Herbert: Say, old fellow, what makes you so skinny? Woodrow: I worry.

Herbert: What about? Woodrow: About getting so skinny.

'BUSINESS MEN' CONTINUE ON TOP IN LEAGUE FIGHT; MASONS DROP TO CELLAR

Fireman and Col-Tex Oilers Tied For Second Place With 500 Rating

Dick Pearson and his "Business Men" continue to lead other clubs in city leagues but things are changing up considerably and it is probable that by next week either of the other three teams may be in their berth. The Business Men were defeated for their first time in title with the Masons Thursday afternoon, the fraternalists taking over hand of the scoring 9-6. The Business Men, however, accounted for two home runs, to but one credited to their opponents.

There is a big scramble on just now for second berth in league standing, with the Fire Boys and Col-Tex Oilers furnishing the scene. Col-Tex, after losing its first two games of the season, mustered up considerably during the past week and won a couple of bouts. Friday afternoon the Oilers defeated the fire department 8-4 and Monday shot the Masons out, taking a score of 4-0.

Game between the Business Men and Fire Boys Tuesday afternoon was dished out to bench customers in a variety of concoctions, excepting playing ball. The teams did exert some energy during first one or two innings, after which they evidently elected to quit. From then out wrangling and errors were plentiful. The Business Men won, 8-1. Effective Thursday afternoon of this week the games are to be called at 5:30 p. m., rather than 5:15 as heretofore.

STANDING OF TEAMS

Team	G	W	L	Pct.
Business Men	5	4	1	.800
Fire Boys	4	2	2	.500

"Well, I'll be darned," said the man on the porch, "probably the one who put it there have robbed our smokehouse."

Comedy; sometimes subtle, sometimes of the slapstick variety, then depending on Eddie Cantor's wisecracking and song numbers; Comedy that is always laugh-provoking is the high-light of the "Kid From Spain," at the Palace Theatre for a three day run, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. This is the first picture to run at the Palace Theatre for three days in many, many months. It is the first picture that has warranted a three day run, and if you don't want to miss the best thing that has come this way in the way of screen entertainment don't miss the "Kid From Spain" featuring Eddie Cantor and the Metro Goldwyn Mayer Boys and Girls. The story hazily follows the plot of an extravaganza of a stage musical comedy. Dances!

speedy comedy melodrama of New York life, showing at the Palace Theatre Sunday and Monday. How a bright young detective chases and captures a murderer and his gang and at the same time pursues and finally wins a pretty girl. Romance and exciting adventure are skillfully blended with hilarious comedy in a picture that lacks nothing in the way of perfect entertainment. Spencer Tracy and Joan Bennett are supported by a cast par excellence too large to name here.

As a special attraction the Palace Theatre has booked a vaudeville show for the stage Monday night. "The Northwest Mounted Police Company" will be on the stage in person. Mirth, Music, Melody and Fun Galore. Be there!

"Laughter in Hell," the latest novel of that great realist, Jim Tully, who understands human emotions and passions and describes them so vividly has been filmed and will show at the Palace Theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday. This picture has set a nation talking. It is a picture that sounds the very depth of humanity. You'll never forget the man who loved a girl with all his heart, Irish soul, and through her faithfulness found—laughter in Hell—and another kind of Hell in the prison camps in the swamps beside. Pat O'Brien, Merna Kennedy, Gloria Stuart, Bertin Churchill, and Tom Brown are all superbly cast in this great human story of mining riots and chain gangs. See the picture, and then you will see and realize why loving such women makes "Laughter in Hell." Remember this picture shows on regular Bargain Nights 5c and 15c.

For some time our friend George Raft has been absent from the Palace screen. He returns Thursday and Friday, May 18 and 19 in "Under Cover Man." Yes, it is a gangster picture, but why not. We haven't had a gangster picture in a long time, but we are breaking our record in a big way by this picture which is more than a mere story in picture form. The plot is good and the acting is good; the directing was excellent and the casting is superb. Altogether the picture is one we have been waiting for. Nancy Carroll has the leading female role. The rest of the cast is of the best. Watch this paper for more about this picture and more about the cast next week.

WEST TEXAS MOURNS DR. COLEMAN, PIONEER CIVIC LEADER WHO HAS PASSED

Big Spring Herald Features Story On Late Coloradoan In WTCC Edition

The Record has received copy of the West Texas chamber of commerce edition of the Big Spring Daily Herald, issued Sunday morning in five sections. The edition is replete with interesting historical data connected with development in this area and news features relative to Fifteenth Annual meeting of the West Texas chamber, to be convened in that city Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

Among the interesting feature stories is one reflecting the life of Dr. P. C. Coleman, pioneer physician and civic leader who died at Colorado a few months ago. The following excerpts are reprinted from the article:—
Delegates attending Fifteenth Annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will miss a leader who through many years gave liberally of his best effort and means in the building of a great civilization in the area and executive officials will find in their council chamber a vacant chair where formerly sat a man whose prestige and judgment was ever recognized. Dr. P. C. Coleman will not be present.

In passing of this pioneer who for forty-nine years was active in pushing initiative, development and ultimate success of civic, educational and religious advancement, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and citizens electing to call this great domain home lost a noble character. Though he be gone in so far as life is concerned the influences he wielded shall never pass. The church and the school especially have developed stronger and stronger because the high ideals that were his have taken deep root within those institutions.

Dr. Coleman died at a Colorado hospital on afternoon of October 29, 1932, following a lingering illness. Men prominent in religion, medicine and education turned their faces toward Colorado in that they might come to the bier of an outstanding leader in all three and pay tribute to his life. Rites conducted from First Presbyterian church, Colorado, on October 31, are remembered as among the truly representative recalled in West Texas.

"A great oak has fallen," a phrase coined by his pastor, the Rev. W. M. Elliott, in his sermon address that day, might be properly accepted by all West Texans when passing reflection upon the life of Dr. Coleman. He was a great man—made great through a sincere desire to be of service to others, and lend encouragement to such ideals as would tend to build strong Christian character.

One should not attempt to chronicle a true history of West Texas—nor of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce—without incorporating a series of chapters having to do with the life of the late Colorado physician. His name has attended progress of many major achievements blended into the traditions of West Texas.

Turning back through those pages, every one of which would unfold traditions to be cherished by each loyal West Texan, we will find ourselves one day in Sweetwater looking in upon a group of men. The date is April 16, 1916, and it is a conference called to launch campaign looking to establishment of a West Texas A. & M. College.

Dr. Coleman issued call for that meeting and was elected chairman as temporary organization was formed. Later as the group went into permanent organization the Colorado man was continued in leadership. From that day until Texas Technological College at Lubbock came into being Dr. Coleman never lessened his determination that his adopted State should provide educational facilities for the youth of West Texas equaling those offered in other parts of Texas. He was known as "The Father of Texas Tech."

Creation of the Lubbock school and the West Texas Chamber of Commerce were realized because of initiative of Dr. Coleman and other leaders of his type. Organization of the latter was perfected shortly after Dr. Coleman and colleagues had launched organized campaign for the school and he was until death an active official of the regional organization. During recent years Dr. Coleman was an honorary vice president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce for life, a distinction executive officials deemed proper to confer upon but few men.

If there are a number of tunnels, the others may be given a treatment two or three weeks after the first treatment.

WILLIAM THOMAS CLIFTON, FORMER MEMBER RANGER FORCE, CALLED IN DEATH

Rites Conducted On Thursday Afternoon At Kiker And Son Funeral Chapel

William Thomas Clifton, 77, former member of the Texas ranger force, died Thursday morning of last week at 4:30 o'clock at a local hospital. Funeral rites were conducted from the Kiker & Son Chapel Thursday afternoon at 3:30 with Minister J. D. Harvey of the Church of Christ officiating. Burial was in I.O.O.F. cemetery.

A native of Missouri, Mr. Clifton came to West Texas in 1878 and established a home in Callahan county. There he and family lived until 1909 when they moved to Oklahoma. From that State they came to Mitchell county twelve years ago. He was making his home on a farm two miles north from Colorado at the time of his death.

All of the children excepting Grover and E. L. were present for the funeral rites. Forty seven grandchildren and seventeen great grandchildren also survive.

Kiker & Son were in charge of funeral plans.

FARM FACTS

Borers causing damage to shade trees may be controlled with ordinary "high life" (Carbon disulphide) according to R. R. Reppert of the A. & M. Extension Service.

He said, "The 'high life' which is injurious to plant growth is best applied with a medicine dropper putting two or three drops in each hole or tunnel and immediately sealing with putty, chewing gum or waxing."

Not more than five or six cavities in a tree should be treated at the same time. Trees less than four inches in diameter should have not more than three tunnels treated at one time.

Only the cavities showing signs of borers such as "bleeding" or sawdust should be treated.

The borers may also be controlled by running a flexible steel wire into each tunnel to destroy the borer.

LOCAL MUSICIANS WILL JOIN SIMMONS U. BAND

O. D. Wiley, director of the Simmons University Cow Boy band, is so impressed with the Colorado school band that he has agreed to offer places in his band to six of these musicians after graduation. Announcement that the Abilene band leader would extend this offer was made here Tuesday.

We Have Made A Complete Turn Around And Facing Toward The Future, --Ford

NEW YORK.—Henry Ford, in an open letter to the American public which will form the first advertisement of a new advertising campaign, will declare that "we have made a complete turn-around and at last America's face is toward the future."

The campaign will present the first advertising done by the Ford Motor Company since March 21, 1932, it was announced, and will make use of daily and weekly newspapers throughout the country.

The letter—over the motor magnate's signature, dated May 9 at Dearborn, Mich., will say:

"A great thing has occurred among us. We have made a complete turn-around and at last America's face is toward the future.

"Three years—1929 to 1932—was Americans looked backward. All our old financial and political machinery was geared to pull us out of the depression by the same door through which we entered. We thought it simply a case of going back the way we came. It failed. We now realize that the way out is forward through it.

"Thanks for that belongs to President Roosevelt. Inauguration day he turned the ship of State around. Having observed the failure of sincere efforts to haul us back the way we came, he designed a new method, new political and financial machinery to pull us out the way we are going, forward. He is clearing international obstacles out of the way; he does not stand in awe of tariffs. The people begin to feel that he does not take advice from the interests, that he has courage and loyalty to work for one supreme interest only—the welfare of the American people. That is a big achievement for two months in office.

"And now we all look to what is coming; we grow less and less concerned with what is behind. We are looking for a handhold on the haul rope. Every man wants to do what he can and all he can.

"The best thing I can do for the country is to create industry by building good motor cars. If I knew anything better to do, I would do it. Industry must be my contribution. Motor cars must face ahead to the future, like everything else. They are so much a part of the Nation's daily life that if they lag behind, they hold the country back."

HOW TO AVOID CALF SCOURS

Slow growth and death losses in calves because of scours can be overcome readily by proper feeding methods. That has been definitely proven by nearly three years of investigation at the Purina Mills Experiment Farm, in which no trouble from scours was experienced after the milk was removed and the calves placed entirely on a calf meal pressed into cubes or checkers.

Dairymen do not need to be told that calves which run with their dams do better than those who are fed from the bucket. One of the main reasons for this, dairy specialists say, is that the calf prefers to feed itself many times a day. Its stomach is never overloaded and it is never hungry for long periods of time.

In feeding calf checkers this preference for frequent eating is satisfied.

HOW TO AVOID CALF SCOURS

The cubes or checkers are left before the calf constantly. The calf helps itself whenever it feels hungry, so that the method is much the same as letting it suck the cow. Of course, the checkers must be made of the right ingredients in the proper proportions to meet the requirements of the growing calf.

The checkers, in which are concentrated all needed nutrients, are hard so that the calves can crunch and chew on them, a practice they seem thoroughly to enjoy. Dry feeding also eliminates buckets, which frequently spread diseases and scours. Temperature differences, which are one of the principal causes of scours in bucket-fed calves, are avoided. Most dairymen have found that even extreme care and cleanliness will not prevent scours when liquids are fed. Nor do these calf meal checkers cause scours by becoming soggy, caked or sour, as powdered milk and loose rations often do.

"There are scientific reasons why the new way of calf feeding develops better young stock," says Dr. Smith, head of the Research Division at Purina Experiment Farms. "Chewing the hard calf checkers starts the flow of saliva in the mouth, mixes it with the food, and lessens the work of the stomach."

COSTS LESS NOW TO GROW CHICKS

The saving that is possible in feeding chicks during the first six weeks of their life is most clearly shown by recent tabulations. Where formerly ingredients were mixed together to form a certain per cent of protein, modern research proves that such mixing may prove costly to the owner.

From a series of records involving the weighing of thousands of chicks from one day out of the shell to six weeks of age, accurate computation is now available on what to expect in the way of returns from every dollar expended in feed. Research files of Purina Mills Experiment Farm yield the interesting chart here reproduced. Three groups of chicks tested on three separate mash, all having the same values according to old methods of analysis, but differing in the manner in which the ingredients were proportioned, show a wide range of costs. Group X, with the best scientific proportioning, is within a few cents of being worth double the old style ration represented by Group Z. Group Y was mixed according to some of the better practices of feeders. Group X was mixed according to the exclusive data developed by the Research Division of Purina Mills, the result of years of analytical, biological and practical farm tests.

The difference between paying a feed cost of forty cents for ten pounds of chick growth and paying seventy-one cents is obviously so great that no poultry raiser can afford not to take warning. He should examine carefully his methods and his cost sheets. The feed consumed as against the weight developed by the chicks in a given period of time will soon tell him where his profits have gone.

Do not allow birds to become crowded in houses. When weather permits, get chicks out in the sunshine. Provide shade. Separate pullets from cockerels as soon as sex is distinguished. By following a definite program in management, the poultryman is most certain of excellent results.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK PROGRAM TO OPEN SUNDAY

LARGEST SENIOR CLASS IN HISTORY OF SCHOOLS WILL GRADUATE FRIDAY, MAY 19

Dr. C. C. Klingman To Make Religious Address Next Sunday Evening

After this week students attending the Colorado schools will divert their thoughts to commencement and the ever attendant traditions centered about the closing days of school. Beginning Sunday evening, when the senior class baccalaureate address is to be delivered by Dr. C. C. Klingman, pastor of First Christian church, activities will buzz through to Friday evening, date for the concluding commencement program, with Ollie B. Webb of New Orleans, assistant to the president, Texas & Pacific railway, delivering the principal address.

The Colorado high school will graduate seventy two young women and young men in the class of 1933, largest number within history of the school. There are forty one young women and thirty one young men in the class. Both of the programs are to be given at high school auditorium.

The Sunday evening service is to be opened by the school orchestra, playing the processional. Members of the senior class, faculty members and those having part on the program will march through the aisles to their places—the class to reserved section in center of auditorium near the stage, and the others to the stage.

"Holy, Holy, Holy," by Dykes, will be sung by the congregation, after which Minister J. D. Harvey of the Church of Christ will offer the invocation. Special music will be given by a ladies quartet composed of Mmes. Wilkins, White and Barber and Miss Peden. They will sing "Son of My Soul," by Scott.

The Rev. Dick O'Brien, pastor of First Baptist church, will read the Scripture lesson, to be followed by the sermon address by Dr. Klingman. "Now the Day is Over," by Barnby, will be sung by members of the Colorado Music club. The Rev. L. A. Webb will pronounce the benediction and the honor guard march from the building as recessional is offered by the orchestra.

Friday evening the commencement exercises will be opened by the school orchestra, playing processional. Invocation will be said by the Rev. L. A. Webb, pastor of First Methodist Episcopal church. Addresses of George Otis Witten, class salutatorian, and Miss Mattie Beth Payne, valedictorian, will next be delivered. Mr. Webb will then deliver the annual class address.

Presentation of diplomas to the seventy two graduates will next be in order with J. W. Watson, president of the school board, in charge. Award of special honors, offered by local civic clubs and individuals, will follow with C. A. Wilkins, principal of high school, directing. The Rev. W. M. Elliott will pronounce benediction.

Each of the programs will begin at 8:15 o'clock. A section in the auditorium will be reserved for parents and other immediate relatives of the senior class membership.

Roster of the seventy two graduates was published last week in "The Howl," school section in this newspaper.

Ten Seniors Awarded Diplomas at School Commencement Of Twenty One Years Ago

It was commencement week in Colorado twenty one years ago this week, The Record for Friday, May 10, 1912, will recall. The Baccalaureate sermon was delivered to the ten graduates at First Baptist church the Sunday evening before by Rev. Mr. Broome, pastor. A select choir from the several churches in town sang and Lee and Edd Jones gave special musical selections on the violin and cornet. Miss Stoneroad was at the piano.

Members of that graduating class, several of whom are still making their home in Colorado, were Miss Fannie Farmer, Jessie Pearson, Annie Gardner, Grace Williams, Ruby McGill, Lala Farmer, Irene Whipkey, Pauline Pritchett, and Milburn Doss and Homer Simpson.

Awarding of diplomas was featured in an elaborate program given at the Opera House. Quoting from The Record of that week, we have the following interesting impression of that program:

"Never before has Colorado felt more pride in its graduating class than in the eight lovely girls and two handsome young men who last Monday evening received their diplomas from hands of the president of the school board, Mr. J. P. Majors."

Annual convention of the Mitchell County Singing association had been held here the Sunday before with President W. L. Doss in charge. The address of welcome was delivered at the tabernacle at 11 o'clock by Dr. T. W. Weston, editor of The Record to a large crowd of visitors.

S. K. Gregory, Mitchell county pioneer, had died at his home in Carr community the Saturday before. He was buried at Westbrook the next day with masonic honors.

Colorado people aboard a special train enroute from Texas to annual meeting of Confederate Veterans at Macon, Ga., were not hurt, when the train was wrecked near Hattisburg, Miss., Tuesday of that week, according to a telegram received here from Judge J. E. Hooper, member of the Colorado party. Ten people were killed.

SEVENTH GRADE STUDENTS TO HAVE COMMENCEMENT PROGRAM THURSDAY NIGHT

Total Of 65 Boys And Girls Slated For Diplomas At Annual School Fete

Sixty five boys and girls are slated to receive diplomas of graduation from the seventh grade when commencement exercises for junior high school senior class are given at the high school auditorium Thursday evening of next week. Girls lead with forty one to twenty four graduates among the boys.

W. H. Holman, principal of the school stated Wednesday morning that it was not definite that all of the sixty five class members listed would pass final exams and qualify for graduation honors. It was assumed, however, that few, if any, would fail to pass.

The Rev. Dick O'Brien, pastor of First Baptist church, is to deliver the commencement address. Presentation of special awards will be made by Jno. E. Watson, superintendent of the city schools. Mr. Holman is to deliver diplomas to the students. Judge C. C. Thompson, representing the American Legion, will present special awards offered by Oran C. Hooker Post to the girl and boy making highest grades in scholarship, deportment, and other requisites during the school year. Identity of the two honor students has not been made public.

COLORADO LIONS TO NAME OFFICIALS AT MEETING TO BE HELD FRIDAY, MAY 19

Administration Of Joe Pond Among Most Progressive In Club's History

Friday, May 19, is annual election day in so far as Lionism in this city is concerned. On that day a president and his corps of directing officials for the ensuing fiscal year are to be named by members of the local service organization. All members are urged to attend the meeting.

Administration of Joe Pond, soon to retire as president, is accepted as among the most progressive in history of the organization. Membership in the club has gradually increased and benevolences have gone ahead under full swing, even during times of economical stress. Election of Colorado as host for the 1934 district 2-T convention was among the high spots of Pond's administration.

Other officials whose terms in office are to expire with installation of the new roster are Joe B. Mills, vice president; Dr. D. G. Bridgford, second vice president; George Matton, third vice president; B. L. Templeton, secretary; Max Berman, Lion tamer; Joe H. Smoot, assistant Lion tamer; M. O. Chapman, tail twister; A. C. Connell, assistant tail twister, and Jno. E. Watson and T. W. Stoneroad, members of the executive board. Judge C. H. Earnest, G. W. Whitaker and R. H. Cantrell are members of the board whose terms are not to expire until end of another year.

Templeton stated Monday that nominations would be made from the floor and officials elected as heretofore.

Editorial—

With the coming of summer days school draws rapidly to a close. It is with feelings of mingled joy and regret that the student body faces the end of this year's work. The Seniors, though elated over the completion of their course, yet feel a touch of sorrow at the ending of a very definite and happy period of their lives. To them we extend congratulations and best wishes for their future. May they carve out for themselves careers which will be a source of pride and satisfaction to the town and school.

The undergraduates face the commencement season in a different mood. It is to them an interval, a vacation, not an ending. They are glad to be through with notebooks and examinations, and welcome more time for picnics, riding, and the old swimming hole. So to them we say goodbye, or perhaps, as the poet says, au revoir, but not farewell.

Band Contest—

Colorado should be proud of her high school band. Again the band invaded the enemies territory at Abilene, last Saturday, met her old enemies and returned home again proudly the winner in Class B. for the third consecutive time. The band, in the trophy case at high school, now has four first place cups to its credit. One plaque and three first certificates. The one cup donated by the Simmon's Cowboy Band had to be won three straight times and it took the Colorado boys and girls just three times to place that cup in our high school trophy case permanently. The band loses eight of its present members by graduation this year but from all indications we will start the new school year this Fall with a fifty piece band and perhaps more. Harold Hester, baritone player with the high school band, was designated to play the baritone solo and cadenza in Balfé's Opera "Bohemian Girl" at the massed band concert of two hundred musicians in Abilene last Saturday night.

Home Ec Girls Win Honors At Mineral Wells—

Wednesday afternoon, Arabelle Sorrells, Eleanor Hagler, Fay Moates, Maurine Whitaker, and Helen Fuller accompanied by Miss Jennings left for the State Home Makers Rally at Mineral Wells. They left Colorado in a sandstorm, ran into rain before getting to Loraine and by the time they got to Merkel the rain was falling in sheets. It hailed on them from Baird to Cisco and about three miles out of Cisco the car was drowned. Through the kindness of a couple from California the car with its cargo was pulled into Putnam to a garage and the damages repaired. A tired crowd arrived in Mineral Wells at 10:00 P. M. There they lost no time getting to a place of rest. Thursday morning they were up early and had their group exhibits in place in the pavilion of the Baker Hotel. The next thing was to register and then explore the city. At 2:30 P. M. cars were furnished by the citizens of Mineral Wells to take the 450 girls on a sight seeing tour. They say everything from the wells where the mineral waters are obtained to the zoo in the city park. It was too cold for the swimming party planned that afternoon so the officials entertained the girls with a tea, in the governor's suite, from 5 to 7.

Thursday night an evening of play on the roof of the Baker Hotel was conducted by the mayor of the city, for the girls entertainment.

Friday morning the contests started at 9:00 and the last one was over at 4:00 P. M. The girls were started on a treasure hunt and several received prizes for their efforts. At 7:00 everyone attended the banquet served on the roof. Balloons were given as souvenirs and slips of paper were passed and each one present drew one. The girl fortunate enough to draw a number was given a gift. Each firm in Mineral Wells donated something that could be used by a Home Economics girl, for prizes.

Saturday morning the Colorado girls packed and checked out. Then they attended the style show that was held on the roof of the hotel. Each girl who entered a dress in the contest modeled her costume. After the style show the awards were presented.

Arabelle Sorrells placed second in "Selection of Toys," Eleanor Hagler won fourth place in "Caring for Food in the Home," and Helen Fuller placed fourth in two events—"Judgment of Meal Service" and "Planning a Company Dinner." The girls returned to Colorado Saturday night tired but happy.

Typing Contest—

Lovena Wren went to Austin the latter part of last week to compete in the State Typing meet. She had won in District 14 to enter that contest. Because of delays on the road, there was insufficient time to have her machine examined by a mechanic; therefore, a bar on her machine became loose and fell off during the contest and she was forced to stop and replace it. However, even with her misfortunes she made a creditable showing at the meet.

The trip to Austin, meeting the different excellent typists, typewriting teachers, University teachers, and seeing the public buildings, was an educational feature that Lovena will not forget. Miss Wren gave a short talk on this trip in assembly Tuesday morning.

Miss Cooper also took Martha Jane Watson to give a demonstration of what typing can be done by children under the age of seven. Martha Jane typed before several professors, but the outstanding work she did was when she typed before Dr. McGinnis. She typed four lines of sentences on four different pages, using the coma, on which she had been drilled but had never used, and made no errors, although several people were standing over her watching. She types on an upright machine at home, but had to use a portable at Austin. This handicap she overcame with ease and made no errors in her typing. Dr. McGinnis seemed pleased with her work and wanted to know if she had given this demonstration before the typing teachers and students at the Inter-scholastic League.

As a whole, the trip was an enjoyable one for all its members.

Guest Artists at Monday Assembly—

A double musical treat was given the student body Monday morning when the band made its report of the contest in Abilene, and Mrs. Meskimen presented two young Abilene pianists.

The Colorado band, winner for the third consecutive year, with a grade of 93, and a sight reading grade of 96, opened the assembly program with a spirited rendition of the school song in which the student body joined. Then Mr. Hester made a report of the contest and the band played the contest selections, first, "Magnolia Blossoms" and the selections from "The Bohemian Girl" by Balfé.

Mrs. Meskimen then presented Jack Moates and Thurman Morrison, two students of Abilene High school, who are extremely talented pianists. Their selections were from classical music, and called for expert technique, which the boys had. The student body showed its appreciation by its hearty applause, calling the boys back for a number of encores.

Among the selections given, were "Rondeau in 'A' Major," "Stacatto" by Rubinstein, and "Spanish Caprice" by Tschalkowsky.

Tuesday Assembly Program—

The assembly Tuesday morning was given over to Miss Jennings and Miss Cooper who gave reports of contests entered last week-end.

Miss Jennings' Home Economics classes presented a style show of club dress clothes, which is the last project of the year. The models for the clothes made by the girls were the following children: Iva Heien Lee, C. A. Wilkins Jr., Janice Jones, Donnie Hopkins, Doris Randle, Mary Beth Hardeste, Peggy Sue Bodine, and Betty Robinson. They were accompanied by Elverie Sorrells.

The report on the Mineral Wells contest was then given by Miss Jennings who stated that out of five entries, four placed. Detailed stories of the trip were given by Maurine Whitaker, Fay Moates, Arabelle Sorrells, Eleanor Hagler, and Helen Fuller.

Miss Cooper then reported on the State meet at Austin, and Lovena Wren told of their trip. In this meet Abilene won first and second places and McAllen won third. Colorado did not place, due perhaps, to a technical difficulty Lorena had with the typewriter she was using.

Certificate in National Contest—

Jewel Curtis, sophomore, won honorable mention in a national essay contest on the subject "How My Home Economics Helps at Home." Her theme which won in the local contest, was listed as one of the twenty-worth of honorable mention in the national contest and she received a certificate of award.

How My Home Economics Education Helps At Home—

By Jewell Curtis

I realize now that home economics is one of the most important subjects that can be taught in school. I think that home economics is much more important than history, English and mathematics. It is very well to know all the dates in history and to feel like one is speaking English correctly but these things will not make a living. The things one learns in home economics may not make a living but they aid in making a happier home—such things as preparing food correctly and attractively, selecting the proper clothes for the individual for every occasion, and creating a cheerful atmosphere and home life are the things we need to know in our everyday life—and we cannot get along very well without them. Home economics teaches all of these things.

Before I began taking home economics I knew very little about cooking. If I wanted to cook a cake I would get mother to help me and she would have to stand over me and tell me every thing to be done if I expected anyone to eat the cake after it was made. Mother had rather make the cake herself than to stand by me and tell me what to do next for she could do it much more quickly. Since I have taken home economics I can go into the kitchen and not only cook a cake without mother's help but I can plan and prepare a whole meal without her aid. I think this alone is enough to make a person boast home economics without mentioning the various other ways that it helps in the home.

I always dreaded dish washing and I chose it as a home project to see if my teacher's statement that dishwashing could be an art instead of a drudgery were really true. I not only helped mother a great deal by relieving her of this work but I learned that there was a right and wrong way even in washing dishes. I can do this task in much less time than I ever did it before and instead of dreading the time to wash dishes I make a game out of it.

Before I began taking home economics it did not make any difference to me how the table looked. I thought all that was necessary was to get the things on the table. Now I always set the table correctly and everything is much more attractive and the food is more appetizing.

When I first attempted to cook anything I got my utensils and ingredients one at a time. When I start to bake a cake now I get all my utensils and ingredients together. Thus saving many an unnecessary step and getting through in half the time it used to take me. I have learned the purpose of a cook book and that it is necessary that I follow the recipe and make all measurements carefully instead of guessing.

I used to think that an elaborate meal and service were necessary for entertaining, but we have taken everyday food, served it very simply without much effort and had a great deal better time than when we went to so much extra work.

Since I started home economics I have kept a weight and health chart and through proper diet and exercise my weight is normal. I was not very careful about my personal hygiene until I started my health chart. I mark it up daily and the result is that I am more likely to meet the different requirements. If I fall down one day on certain things I work a little harder the next day so that I may receive credit for it. Since I have been keeping my charts I have had much better health.

I was guilty of being rather slothful not only regarding my personal appearance but my room was never in order. Now I keep my hair washed, bathe more often, keep my clothes cleaned and pressed and my shoes polished and repaired. Instead of hands that were not well cared for I gave myself manicures. I have a place for all my clothes and keep them in place. By straightening by room daily it is not hard to keep and it is much more attractive. I have changed the furniture not only in my room but in every room in the house, placing the large pieces of furniture along the sides of the walls instead of across the corner. Some of the pictures have been taken down and others put in their place and they have all been hung correctly and when possible grouped for space allowed, if they were small pictures.

I never could have clothes like I wanted until I began taking clothing. Now I can make my own clothes to suit my own characteristics as well as plan and make clothes for other members of the family. I never make them "just so they will hang together" but I finish each seam correctly. I can even join bias bindings correctly and can put all fasteners on as they should be.

I am delighted with what I have already accomplished in clothing and I know I shall accomplish a great many more things before I am through with my course.

I have found that I did not know just how much my home economics had meant to me until I began to list the ways it has helped in my home life. I cannot express in words just how much I appreciate home economics.

Band On El Paso Trip—

The Colorado high school band attended the convention of the Broadway of America Association in El Paso and a good time was had by all. The first morning in El Paso was devoted by the band to serenading the various newspaper offices and hotels. At four p. m. the first day the band played a concert in "The Friendship House" of Juarez, Mexico. At 7:30 p. m. to 8:15 p. m. the band broadcasted a concert over station KFSM. That closed the first days program.

Tuesday, the second day, a short concert was played for the members of the motorcade in front of the Chamber of Commerce. At two p. m. the entire motorcade, including the band, were the guests of the International Mexican Fair Commission for an afternoon visit to the Juarez Fair grounds and race track. At four o'clock the band returned to El Paso and visited a Colorado merchant, Mr. Louie Landau, at present in the Homan Sanatorium, and played a short concert.

Then for the final round of enjoyable events, a drive upon and around El Paso's scenic mountain. Back to the hotel to pack and get ready to leave for home.

HONOR HER NEXT SUNDAY

Sunday is Mother's Day. With the special recognition given motherhood on that annual Sabbath occasion may each of us strive to make the day one filled with sunshine and joy for the greatest friend of man—his mother.

In the case of many of us mother will not be within reach on this Mother's Day. She has since come to the end of the way and passed into life beyond the realm of this world. But the influences that she wove about your life continue to remain. Go to church Sunday just for the memory of that mother of yours. Remember anew how pleased she would be to know, if she were yet among the living, that her son or daughter was attending Mother's Day religious services just for her.

And to those of us who are fortunate in having mother with us on this occasion the memorial anniversary should usher in a deal of joy, both for her and us. Attend church with her, if possible. If she be living elsewhere and you are unable to visit her, remind by some token that you are thinking of her and that your love shall never wane.

Special recognition of mother is to be given in the several churches of Colorado. Pastors will remind their parishioners of the day's significance and of the influence of Christian motherhood in building and maintaining character in these times of economic disorder.

The Record is sincere in its statements as to the true meaning of Mother's Day. This newspaper shall ever remember that out of the influence of the lives of mothers and in answer to their prayers has come much of the religious and moral betterment in this century. And the mothers of men shall continue to march in the front lines when attack is wanted to be made against the diversity of evils that beset on every hand.

Honor your mother every day in the year. She is entitled to that consideration. Especially, with emphasis, impress her during next Sunday that you love her and stand ready to make whatever contribution you may to the end of causing her remaining days to be bright and cheerful.

All this outspoken cry for rain is. The Record believes, unnecessary. We are needing rain, to be sure, but no good can come out of us worrying over the outlook. Some local forecasters inform that rain will come in ample time, while others are not so promising. In the case of either, none know what they are talking about. The faith that has built West Texas into the greatest empire within the republic should continue with us during times such as these. West Texas will come back—it always has.

Fifteenth annual convention of the West Texas chamber of commerce, now in progress at Big Spring, is offering a program of stable and sensible ideals. It is made manifest that the great regional organization is under leadership of men who advance opinions sanely in attempt to restore better days out of economic disorder.

In this day of depression, greed and graft, sandstorms and threatened drought, the people had better turn to God and read the Bible and learn to be grateful.

GRATITUDE

No one virtue so indicates the presence of other virtues as does the golden virtue of gratitude. Of course this exceeds love, which includes all the virtues. It is basic. No sweeter incense is wafted heavenward from the altar of love than is gratitude. It will be found that he who possesses this most resplendent of virtues has the others also. And the converse of this proposition is equally true—if he doesn't possess it, he doesn't possess the others.

Generosity is always present with it. He who appreciates a kindness will confer a kindness. One is generous in proportion to his gratefulness. The heart that does not know how to appreciate favors never thinks of doing them for others. The closed hand can neither give nor receive. The rosebud must unfold its petals, reveal its beauty, and exhale its fragrance if it would receive the dewdrops and the sunshine.

These things being true, there is nothing for which we should be more grateful than for gratitude. Everyone knows in his heart whether or not he is appreciative, and using is as a standard, he may to a degree judge himself by it. He is indeed, was right who said that the most valuable possession he could claim were those he had given to others.

That hour is sure to come to us all when we shall be glad to look back and rejoice that we have given to those in need more than we have kept for ourselves. What comfort or satisfaction shall we be able to find at such a time in material possessions? Impressive indeed are the words of him who said, "There are no pockets in shrouds."

The selfish person is as barren of love as are the burning sands of cool, limpid water. Many are they who like the swine which eat the acorns which fall from the oak—they grunt satisfaction but not gratitude.

A practical and impressive way to reach a better realization that life has more of sunshine than shadow, more of comfort than of pain, more of joy than of sorrow, is to take note just for one average day of things pleasant and displeasing, helpful and harmful, and when the eventide comes quietly to number and contrast them, both in number and nature, and it will surprise you what the Lord has done. Gratitude for talents unused, for opportunities unimproved, for possessions allowed to lie dormant, is not gratitude, for He who gives these counts their possession without use as sin.

no hope and converts the starchy canopy into blackness of despair. Ingratitude is a universal sin. Because of its enormity no one is willing to admit guilt of it. A Catholic priest of St. John's is credited with having said that although he had for fifty years listened to confessions by men and women of all other sins, never had he had anyone to confess the sin of ingratitude.

The miser can not experience real joy because he is not grateful. His satisfaction in the possession of his gold is separate and apart from gratitude for it. If he were grateful he would be generous, and if he were generous he would help make others happy. Selfishness is the root of sorrow and woe. It gets back to itself that which it bestows upon others, and since it bestows nothing it gets back nothing.

READ THE BIBLE

In reading the book "Magnificent Obsession," a Dr. Merrick was the hero, not a religious man, simply a different. One day he was handed a New Testament. He leafed in it for a long time; back and forth, before he came upon the particular thesis which the Sculptor had considered important to a man's quest of a dynamic personality. He read it with as much intensity of concentration as possible.

It was rapidly becoming apparent to him that here was one of the most fascinatingly interesting things he had ever read. Not only was it free of the dullness he had ascribed to it, it kept hinting of secrets—secrets of a tremendous energy to be tapped by any man with sense enough to accept the fact of it as he would any other scientific hypothesis, and accord it the same dignity, the same practical tests he might pursue in a chemical or physical laboratory.

It was astounding to feel that he had in his hand the actual textbook of a science relating to the expansion and development of the human personality. How queer that some people seem upon setting it to music and drawing long faces while they piously intoned it. How ridiculous, and how unfortunate. This wasn't the libretto for grand opera, or epic stuff to meter into maudlin little hymns. This was a profound scientific thesis. The very act of chanting it would be proof you didn't know what it was about.

In this book a balm appears To heal my deepest woe. If he who reads this book in tears, Their tears shall cease to flow. F. B. W.

Production Of Cars And Trucks Made By Chevrolet Gained During Month of April

For the fourth consecutive month this year the number of cars and trucks built by the Chevrolet Motor Company for consumption in the domestic market exceeded the corresponding month last year when April production went 4,000 units ahead of April 1932. W. S. Knudsen, president and general manager announced today.

Total production in the month just ended was 59,953 new cars and trucks, compared with 38,665 in March and 55,433 in April last year. Mr. Knudsen announced. Of this number, all but 5,000 units were shipped to dealers in the United States.

Up to the end of April his company had built 208,000 units this year, compared with 188,000 in the first four months of 1932. Mr. Knudsen announced. This is a gain of eleven per cent. The percentage gain in April over last April was eight per cent and in April over March fifty-five per cent.

Owing to unsettled conditions in the field following the National bank moratorium, his company entered April on a restricted production basis, Mr. Knudsen said. A quick pickup in orders from dealers, Music for the Fiesta will be furnished by the Horned Frog Band, directed by Prof. Claude Sammis.

Identity of the pageant queen—the "Senorita"—will not be revealed until the night of the pageant. She will appear at the Fiesta on the arm of President E. M. Waits.
