

MITCHELL COUNTY WILL SUPPORT FARM RECOVERY DRIVE

MAN CHARGED WITH AUTO THEFT HERE ARRESTED AT ROSWELL FRIDAY MORNING

Brennand Sedan Driven Ten Thousand Miles Since It Was Taken Oct. 5

A man who gave the name of C. S. Harvey to arresting officers is being held in jail at Roswell, New Mexico, charged with the theft of a Chevrolet sedan from R. S. Brennand on the night of October 5, last year. Harvey was arrested in Roswell Friday morning and the machine recovered.

In company with R. S. Brennand, Jr., Deputy Sheriff H. A. Cook drove to Roswell Friday afternoon to receive the machine. Motor and serial numbers had been changed and another registration license number given the car, but its identity was established by Brennand through small letters stenciled with a sharp instrument on rear of the body. These had been partially obliterated. Harvey maintained his innocence of any connection with theft of the car here. He represented to officers that he had purchased the machine and had a bill of sale to sustain the transfer. Cook stated, however, that he failed to see the purported transfer papers. The man is being held in Roswell pending questioning by Federal operatives.

The accused man was accosted a few hours before his arrest by members of the Dickens county sheriff's department. As they sought to arrest him, he dashed out of town and outdistanced the officers, who fired several shots at the fleeing fugitive. Three of the bullets struck the machine.

Cook and Brennand returned to Colorado Sunday with the stolen car. Brennand stated Monday that the machine had been driven 10,000 miles since having been stolen.

Local officers Monday expressed belief that apprehension of Harvey would lead to additional arrests of members of what is believed to be a well organized car theft ring operating in West Texas and Eastern New Mexico.

COLORADO MERCHANTS AT END OF SUCCESSFUL YEAR WITH 1934 OUTLOOK GOOD

Trade Volume Larger Than During Several Years Is Record For 1933

Business with Colorado merchants during the year recently coming to a close was better than during any twelve month period since beginning of the depression and these business men are merging into 1934 with a greater optimism than has obtained in several seasons.

Business at Colorado has registered steady upward trend for the past several months and even through the few days of slow buying, trade demands continue active. Among some of the more optimistic store and shop keepers the prophecy is advanced that conditions affecting every industry here are to portray continued return to a more stable business structure.

Colorado merchants have enjoyed an enlarged trade volume during the past several months due to routing of depression among farmers of the territory and an expanse of the city's trade territory. More new faces, coming from an area extending several miles in every direction from town, are being seen among regular shoppers.

"One of the best years we have ever experienced in Colorado and the future certainly looks bright," was comment of owner and manager of one of Colorado's largest department stores the other day. He went on to say that patronage was coming to his place from communities located several miles from the city.

Manager of another of the larger department stores made the declaration that business with him had registered a material increase every year during the time he had been in charge. "And 1933 was no exception to that rule. Last year is remembered as the best our company has ever had in Colorado," he stated.

So well grounded is faith of another Colorado merchant in possibilities of the future, based upon the steady growing trade volume coming to town from this section, that this week he announced a complete modernization program for his store. Interior of the building is to be rebuilt and new fixtures installed, "because business conditions in Colorado are looking ahead and our trade territory continues to expand."

COTTON PRODUCERS SHOW INTEREST IN PROGRAM TO CURTAIL ACREAGE TOTALS

529 'Dirt Farmers' Attend Meetings In County To Hear About Plan

Cotton producers of Mitchell county are manifesting keen interest in program of the Federal government to curtail acreage during this and next year, according to Ben J. Baskin, county farm agent, who with J. W. Watson, chairman of county cotton control board, has this week attended several farmer "group" meetings, called to consider conditions of the contract.

"Fact that the producers of this county are interested in the objective is manifest when it is shown that a total of 529 actual 'dirt farmers' have attended the meetings already held," Baskin stated Thursday morning. "The number given by Baskin did not include women and children nor retired farmers who had been present at the several community gatherings held during Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Last of the scheduled eleven meetings were held Thursday afternoon, one at Payne at 1:30 and the other at McKenzie at 4.

Opening the county-wide drive Monday morning meetings were held through Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at Guthbert, Colorado, Buford, Bauman, Valley View, Loraine, Westbrook, Hyman and Spade. Baskin addressed the groups on results expected to accrue cotton planters in event the contracts were accepted.

Watson explains details of the contract and during some of his talks answered questions propounded by the farmers.

"The present world carry-over, coupled with normal production this and next year, in event acreage is not reduced can mean nothing more than a market of from five to six cents for the commodity, Baskin declared. On the other hand, with acreage materially cut, assuring a lesser production in the South, a price of approximately double that amount should reasonably be expected.

Commitment to represent the government in all principal farm communities were announced here Thursday morning by the central or county control board, as follows:

Guthbert, C. C. Barry; Westbrook, Albert Young and W. T. Brooks; Hyman, H. H. VanZandt; Spade, E. Barby and Jim McCullough; Buford, E. Blasingame; Valley View, Earl Brown; Loraine, Frank Beights and J. M. Bruce; Bauman, S. E. Meadows; Payne, R. Buchner; McKenzie, C. N. Stubbfield, and Colorado, John Hale and B. H. Cook.

Mack Holt Enters Name as Candidate For Commissioner

Mack Holt, county commissioner of precinct No. 1, Wednesday afternoon authorized the announcement that he would be a candidate to succeed himself in office. The commissioner is seeking election subject to the Democratic primary election in July.

Holt was appointed commissioner to serve out the unexpired term of Joe R. Shepperd, who died in office. His appointment was given unanimous endorsement of the commissioners court and members of the county Democratic executive committee.

"I believe that I have so conducted affairs of the office as to warrant my solicitation of support of the voters of this precinct for election," Holt said. "Certainly, I have devoted myself sincerely to duties of the office, with interests of the county and her citizens ever in mind. My record will sustain that I have stood for strict economy in every transaction in which finances were considered."

Mr. Holt hopes to see all voters of the precinct during the ensuing campaign. In the meantime he invites rigid investigation of his record as a member of the county's legislative body.

'BUILD MITCHELL SCHOOLS TO HIGHER EFFICIENCY' IS SLOGAN OFFERED BY HOOD

Spade Principal Seeks Office Of County Superintendent On Progress Plea

Announcing that his platform shall be the building of Mitchell county schools to a higher efficiency standard, through cooperation with board and faculty members, R. B. Hood, principal of the Spade school, Wednesday afternoon formally entered his candidacy for county superintendent. Hood is placing his name before voters of the county subject to their verdict at the polls in the July primary election.

Hood has spent the greater portion of his life in Mitchell county. He was educated in State Teachers colleges at Alpine and Canyon, later attending Simmons University at Abilene. He started his career as a teacher in the Spade school several years ago and was associated with the institution five years before resigning to accept a more lucrative position in Central Texas.

With outbreak of the World War Hood resigned principalship of his school and volunteered for services with the American Expeditionary Forces. He saw 18 months of active service on the front in France and in Germany. Returning to West Texas after close of the war he was elected superintendent of the Combona schools and filled this position six years with distinction. It was during his tenure there that the modern school plant at Coahoma was erected.

His home community of Spade called for him to return and assume charge of the school and he has been in that position through the past five years. During his leadership of the school Spade has been rated a standard rural school by the department of education. Courses are offered through the tenth grade and graduates are admitted to Colorado high and other affiliated schools as seniors without examination.

The candidate, along with his technical and practical training, is recognized as a man of high integrity. He has been an active leader in civic, social and religious affairs of his home community and section.

"I am asking the voters of this county to grant me a promotion that I believe I can fill with satisfaction to them and with credit to myself," Hood stated. "I feel that my several years as a school official has fitted me for the duties this office carries and pledge to devote my best effort to the interest of every school child concerned. Your vote and influence will be appreciated."

News of Club Girls And Women

The club girls of Lorraine have elected the following officers for 1934: President, Louise Ohlenbusch and Food President demonstrator, Vice-President, Jimmie Ruth Class, Secretary-Treasurer, Lola Mearse and clothing demonstrator; Reporter, Lella June Harrell; Bedroom demonstrator, Katha Lee Harrell. They are to meet every 1st and 2nd Wednesday at 11:30 A. M.

Hyman 4-H Girls club elected their officers this past week as follows: President, Esther Schuster; Vice-president, Edna Schuster; Secretary, Willie Maud Noack; Reporter, Louise Fowler.

These girls meet every first and third Friday each month. The girls are taking up their clothing work this month and will make school clips as their first garment.

The women's clubs have been taking up for their study this week better bedding and for their demonstration they have had quilts, and tufted bedspreads. This week the Plainview Club met at Mrs. John Bruton's for their meeting. The Iatan club met with Mrs. Mina Mitchell. The following demonstrators were elected: Bedroom improvement, Mrs. Dewey Phillips; Food preservation, Mrs. Jeff Hillhouse; Wardrobe, Mrs. J. M. Hahn and Mrs. Dewey Phillips was elected reporter and will compile the club scrap book for the year.

The Hyman club met with Mrs. Frank Andrews for their first meeting. Mrs. Harkins and Mrs. Hohertz were appointed food preservation and garden demonstrators. The club meets next with Mrs. Hohertz.

Each club will have a club librarian who sees that the women get the club articles that have been assigned for study and discussion.

The Spade club will meet this week and elect their demonstrators, at the teacherage with Mrs. Perry Vanzandt as hostess.

Not only are the women studying more comfortable homes but they too are to study the Live-at-Home program along with the Agricultural Adjustment program. At their second meeting of this month they are to have on program a woman who will explain the 1934 program of Agriculture as proposed by various government agencies. Women have a big part to play unobserved in helping to carry out their own self preservation program. At least 50 percent of the food supply for the farm must be made at home so it is a cooperative undertaking and the first program for 1934 is being planned by the men "the filling of the farm storehouse" and the second by the women "the filling of the pantry." It has been estimated the 90 percent of the family food can be provided directly from the farm. Therefore less than $100.00 need be spent yearly for food for the average family of five, if they plan accordingly.

Taut nerves mean tired tomorrows

"Did you hear that noise...?"

How many times have husbands been awakened in the middle of the night by that tense question? How many times have wives been rudely reminded... "It's your imagination...!"

But, fear is something real. Taut nerves cause sleepless nights and tired tomorrows. A woman is afraid... and a man fails to make an out-of-town trip essential to his business. Serious illness often is traceable to fear.

May we suggest a simple remedy?

Have a telephone installed within easy reach of the bed. It's a comfort to know that police, firemen, physicians, await your call. And, wouldn't it be a pleasure to have a willing servant ready to run your errands, help you to visit with friends... 24 hours a day?

You can have a telephone for less than a dime a day. Call the Business Office. Say: "I want a telephone."

Southwestern Life Operates Under Reserve Deposit Law

The Southwestern Life Insurance Company is a "Legal Reserve" Company operating under laws which require that it set aside out of every premium collected a portion thereof as a Reserve or sinking fund; so that, when a policy matures, the Company will have funds on hand sufficient to pay the amount due.

The Southwestern Life not only maintains this Reserve, but places the ACTUAL approved securities equal to this "Legal Reserve" on deposit with the Insurance Commissioner of the State of Texas; and, as evidence this has been done, the Insurance Commissioner is required to sign the following Certificate on every Southwestern Life Policy:

"THIS POLICY IS REGISTERED, AND APPROVED SECURITIES EQUAL IN VALUE TO THE LEGAL RESERVE HEREON ARE HELD IN TRUST BY THE COMMISSIONER OF INSURANCE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS."

Over and above this REGISTERED protection, the Southwestern Life has Capital and Surplus amounting to $6,597,248.40, which serve as further protection to Policyholders. And the Southwestern Life does not owe a dollar to any bank nor government agency.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

Last Lordsday was a fine day with us. Many new ones in the Bible classes. Large audiences for both the morning and evening services and two added, one restored and one confession and baptism. We rejoice in the way the series of sermons on the Bible books are being received. Many bringing their notes and taking notes to have the outline on the entire Bible when the series have been preached.

The Books for next Sunday, "Mark" for the morning at 11 A. M. and "Leviticus" for the evening at 7 P. M. The Bible is one of our unpossessed possessions. Yes we own one but we don't own in our hearts and act in our life what it says. Come and let us study these Books. Not what we believe them to teach, not what we think they mean, not our opinion but just what they say. That is the manner in which these lessons are presented.

We welcome your presence.
J. D. HARVEY, Minister.

JIM GREENE NAMED LIONS DEPUTY GOVERNOR WITHIN LARGE WEST TEXAS AREA

Colorado Man Commissioned By Governor Harrington Of District 2-T

Jim Greene, a charter member of the Colorado Lions Club and an outstanding member of the service organization since its beginning eleven years ago, has been commissioned by District Governor Del W. Harrington of El Paso as deputy governor for District 2-T, among the largest Lions International sub-divisions in the country.

The commission was issued at El Paso Wednesday of last week but fact that the Colorado man had been named to this important post was not publicly announced here until Friday during meeting of the club.

John Summers, local merchant, was received back into the club at the meeting Friday. The former Lion was presented in an address by W. W. Whipkey, J. F. Morris, local market operator, another former Lion to be re-instated, was presented by C. L. Gray.

Three additional former Lions, two of them at one time holding membership here, were voted into the club. They were the Rev. Wallace Jones, pastor of First Christian church, W. L. Boss, Sr., Colorado druggist, and Minister Jim Harvey of the Church of Christ.

Two inspirational addresses were featured on the entertainment program, directed by Rev. Cal C. Wright. Jim Greene spoke from the subject, 'Lionism Looking Backward,' and J. E. Watson, addressed the group on 'Lionism Looking Forward.'

Greene drew a vivid mental picture of the founding of Lionism, the first club of which was organized in Texas, at San Antonio, in 1917, and following growth of the international service organization until today there are more than 1,000 Lions in four of leading republics.

Looking ahead, Mr. Watson outlined, there is much that every individual Lion in Colorado should feel impelled to do. He stressed importance of giving the president and other leaders unified support and to determine now that the district convention to be held here later this year shall be outstanding in West Texas.

T. B. Wood of Bryan, district agent representing the Extension Service at College Station, was a guest speaker. He outlined that he was in Colorado to confer with County Agent Baslin and members of the county committee as to the government cotton acreage control program for this and next year.

COLORADO CAGERS WIN IN DOUBLE-HEADER CONTEST WITH ROBY BOYS, LASSELS

Wolves Open District Card On Home Court Friday With Fine Showing

Big Jim Cantrell's Wolves Friday night stepped into first rank in annual interscholastic League basketball by drubbing the powerful Roby Lions 28-21. The opening contest was staged at the local gym.

First half of the Wolf-Lion bout was decisively a one-sided affair with the Wolves outplaying their opponents in every feature.

Beene of the Lions was high point man with a total of 14. Stagner of Colorado came in for second honors with a total of 11 points.

Coach Coffman's good looking lasses proved to be as formidable a foe as the Roby girls have met in several seasons. The defeat given the visitors was the first time that Colorado girls had won over Roby.

Especially was the contest tense during the last few minutes of play. Colorado moved steadily ahead of her opponents through the first half, registering 24 points to 16 for Roby.

With the score 30-29 in favor of the locals, both teams gave all that they had in determined effort to win. The marginal score remained unchanged until within the final three minutes of play when Colorado made five points and Roby two.

The girls are playing on two division courts, rather than only one as in other years. The chance makes for a much faster game and calls for more team work from individuals on the court.

Waddell for the Roby girls led the field in scoring with 9 field goals and 7 gratis tosses for a total of 25 points. Christine Bolin of the Colorado quintet came in for second place with 15 points.

'Colorado has at the present time the greatest girls' basketball team it has ever possessed,' said C. A. Wil-

GLEANERS S. S. CLASS

The Gleaners S. S. Class met Tuesday, January 4th, in the home of Mrs. T. R. Bennett, with Mrs. Art Davis and Mrs. Cora Hall, assistant hostesses. After a short business session the meeting was turned over to the hostess.

New year thoughts and resolutions were exchanged. Fruit salad, cake and chocolate was served.

All departed to make this year the best Gleaner year they have had.

WOMENS MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS

The ladies of the Baptist W. M. S. met in the home of Mrs. Nick Narrell Monday afternoon for their monthly Mission program. After singing "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name," Mrs. Reeder read as devisional the first nine verses of the first chapter Joshua which includes our watchword for the new year. Mrs. Pratt offered prayer then a number of subjects on Missions were discussed by the following women: Mrs. Jarratt, Mrs. Norman, Mrs. Troit, Mrs. Jack Martin, Mrs. Miller.

Immediately after the program a short business session was held. This being the month to contribute to aged ministerial relief, a collection was taken for that cause.

After closing prayer a delicious plate lunch and hot chocolate was served by Mrs. Narrell and Mrs. Clyde Wilson to a large number of members.

We were made to look on the New Year with more courage because of the presence of Mrs. Jesse Pratt and Mrs. Woodrow Pratt. We feel that our coming together is time well spent for the Master's cause.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Jimmie Ferguson son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Ferguson entertained with a party Saturday afternoon celebrating his 8th birthday. Games were enjoyed and refreshments were served to eleven friends.

WILLING WORKERS

The Willing Workers Sunday school class of the Methodist church met with Mrs. Harold Martin, Friday, January 4th, in a business session.

The devotional was led by the hostess. The president, Mrs. Martin, called the house to order for election of officers for incoming year.

Mrs. Edd Williams was elected president; Mrs. Homer Richards, vice president; Mrs. Kirk-Taylor, secretary and treasurer. Other officers are to be appointed.

After all business was transacted the hostess served chicken salad, crackers, cookies and hot chocolate to eleven members.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday school attendance rose again Sunday but can still be better. Why not have 200 Sunday?

Mr. Leggett's class made the highest grade Sunday and Mrs. Fain's class was second. Mr. Brame's class continues to lead the adult department. Rev. A. C. Hardin's class was first in giving Sunday and the Dorcas class was second. The Budget went over the top Sunday. Mrs. Dan Butler will teach in the Junior department taking Mrs. Ray's class of 10-year-olds. We are greatly missing Mrs. Ben Shultz and Mr. Shultz from our midst. Mrs. Shultz teaches in the Junior department.

A very enjoyable teachers and officers meeting was held in interest of the Sunday school last Wednesday evening. Three very interesting discussions were given by Rev. A. C. Hardin, J. C. Hall and Mrs. Lester Jarratt. Reports were heard from all classes present. The next meeting will be on Wednesday before the first Sunday in February.

Rev. Geo. Britton preached a powerful sermon at the morning hour Sunday using for his subject "And God Was Made Flesh." We greatly appreciate having Bro. Britton with us.

Sunday evening the pastor brought an unusually inspiring message from Psalm 37:5: "Commit thy way unto the Lord, trust also in Him, and He shall bring it to pass."

B. T. S. attendance was about 50 per cent Sunday evening. We hope that other members and new members may come. The Primary union was the banner union with a grade of 82. The Intermediates were second. The primaries had 7 present and 7 who had heard the Bible read daily. We don't believe any other union in Mitchell or Scurry county can beat that.

We urge more Adults and Seniors to come back.

The State B. T. S. goal for 1934 is every member of every Baptist church a member of B. T. S. Why not Lorainé.

This is the month to Promote your Home to Vented Heat

The inducement? A stock reduction of Payne Floor Furnace and Estate Heatrola floor models which offers the opportunity of installing 'furnace-type' heat at a saving. They give more warmth than the older type equipment. Won't you investigate their advantages, and the savings?

No Wall-Sweating---No Drafts

These units provide a continuous flow of warm air in to all corners eliminating cold spots. Floor Furnace requires no room space. It is swung beneath floor. The flame of this unit never touches the air you breathe. Heatrolas come in smart cabinet models. Both are vented to eliminate wall-sweating.

Either of these units quickly installed on terms that will fit your monthly budget.

EDITORIAL

This week should be considered as a hard week for many students. With shows, basketball games in the afternoon and night, and the basketball tournament starting Thursday, they just do not know what to do for six weeks exams have to come some time, but when—no one knows.

Just a hint to the wise—take advantage of study hall, do not sit idle and read books or talk, but study for the next days work so that you may be able to go to the basketball games at night.

This last six weeks reports will probably "tell the tale" for a good many pupils in the way of exemptions or exams, passing or failing.

The teachers will probably not give extra hard exams for reviews and mid-terms will cover everything, so with just a little studying in that spare time, you might be able to mix pleasure and work.

GLEE CLUB

As a result of the extremely great success of the musical cantata given at Christmas by the choral club, under the direction of Mrs. Virginia Peden Deter, boys are to be admitted into the group of songsters. Anyone who wishes to take up this work is requested to see Mrs. Deter at school or at her studio in the home of Mrs. T. J. Ratliff. This club has done wonderful things past months and intends to do more in the future.

BASKETBALL NOTES

The thriller of the year was enacted in the gymnasium Friday night when Colorado girls' and boys' teams met those from Roby. The boys' game was exciting enough, with a score of 28-21 in favor of the local quintet. The Wolves seem to be shaping up pretty well, but still look fairly weak in follow-up shots. Stagner was high point man for the Wolves, with 11 points, Cox second with 9. A good many personal fouls were called on both teams—most of them due to awkwardness of early season play. Church left the game on personals.

But the real excitement came with the girls' game. Boy! that was a game. Roby has been rather a jinx for the local girls for a number of years, but this time the spell broke wide open. The score was close throughout, and the girls on both squads were putting up quite a battle. The half ended with the local girls one point ahead, and the margin stayed about that way throughout the last half. One of the surprises of the evening was the excellent game of Iva Lee Rankin at guard where she was shifted from her customary forward position when Merle Garner went out on fouls. Good work was done also by Grace Callan and Ila Ruth Kelly when they scored several points in the last and crucial stages of the game. Christine Bolin did good work on crup shots. All the girls played well.

The Jackrabbits got their revenge Friday when they defeated the second string Wolves 23-21. Now the Wolves are after a second chance and are determined to make the Jackrabbits backtrack a bit.

A number of the players went to Big Spring Saturday night to see the Steers play the bearded boys from the House of David, who gave them some pointers in the efficiency of passing the ball. They were so proficient that the high school boys had difficulty in keeping up with the location of the ball. An apparent pass in one direction left a man in the opposite side of the room in possession of the ball. They certainly gave the fans good entertainment.

LA TERTULIA

By Polly Bellomy

La Tertulia gave the old year of '33 a fond farewell with an interesting program and Christmas tree, Friday, Dec. 22, 1933. We did not enjoy this holiday celebration alone, however, for we were honored to have with us Misses Mildred Whitaker, Mary Venable and Lillian Bean, former members of La Tertulia. Cleo Shepherd and Grace Callan contributed several beautiful numbers to the program and the entire club meeting was an immense treat to all of us.

Then on Jan. 2, 1934, we ushered the new year in with a spirit equally as enthusiastic as our farewell to the old year. Harvey Baker and Anna Smith gave contributions which made up this program, but the most interesting feature of all, was our Profesaona Mabel Smith's discussion of her trip into the interior of Mexico, made during the holidays, while the Mexicans were celebrating Christmas in their own Mexican way.

La Tertulia met again Monday, January 8. The meeting was presided over by our president, Louis Taylor. Two discussions were rendered. "The Ritual for a Little Angel," a story of how the small children of Spain, called "angelitos," by them, are buried. The discussion covered two funerals, the differences in each were pointed out. This was given by Polly Bellomy. Vaynelle Erwin gave a very interesting and educational discussion of the "Spanish Inquisition," dealing with the causes and results of it.

THE BEST TEACHER

The best teacher I ever had was one who had a pleasant classroom manner that made the class very interesting. There was no studying one day not the next. She made you work, and there was no hard feeling nor friction. The regular classroom routine was broken by sarcasm, mixed with wit. Her sarcasm was used as a lash to create some inspiration in the ones that were slumping and lazy, not the timid ones. Her complete mastery of her subject inspired the student to learn more.

THE WORST TEACHER

The worst teacher in any school is one who makes his class boresome by straying from the discussion of the lesson. He goes through the lesson by doing all the talking and not questioning the students, but if a pupil, who doesn't know what it's all about asks him to explain something, this teacher makes fun of him and embarrasses him in front of the class. Frequently rambles are made from the lesson to lectures. He also lets personal references enter class discussion. He doesn't make the pupil study hard nor does he keep his class interesting enough to make the pupil want to study.

FRESHMAN NEWS

The freshmen in History for the past week have been studying "The Civilization of the Roman Empire." They also did a lot of reviewing for the six-weeks test which they had Thursday.

In English, both the A and B class have been, during the week, studying transitive, intransitive, passive and active verbs.

The algebra class, at the first of the week were reviewing for a six-weeks test which they had Tuesday.

HOME ECONOMICS GIRLS LEARN FIRST AID

Some of the most interesting lessons of the year have been the ones on first aid. Each member of the class first learned to make a bed correctly and then changing the sheets with the patient in bed. Some of the girls had to make several attempts before they could move and lift the patient correctly.

One of the hardest things for the members of the class to do was to read the thermometer after removing it from the patient's mouth. The pulse and respiration of a patient carried according to the nurse but each girl improved before the lessons were completed.

Even after practice some of the bandages were anything but a work of art. Each girl learned to use the four-tail bandage for forehead, chin, knee and back of head. The spiral and reverse spiral for the arm, figure eight for leg; recurrent for head; sling; and head bandage, covering the fingers with recurrent bandage and after the thumb had been covered (separately) with figure 8.

The members of the first year clothing class have completed their pajamas. The problem was due Friday but some of the girls had to work Saturday in order to complete them.

Types of school dresses have been discussed; different brands of patterns reviewed; kinds of materials suitable for school dresses and color and design each girl can best wear.

Each girl's partner fitted the pattern and after the name had been written on each piece of pattern, the material straightened and pressed, the pattern was pinned to the material. All dresses have been cut out and each girl has made a working plan for her particular dress in order that she may be able to work more rapidly and with fewer errors.

The lessons on preparation of vegetables have been very beneficial. We have learned the principles involved in cooking the different types of vegetables and have learned to prepare vegetables in interesting ways. We have prepared leaves, tubers, flowers, fruit, and seeds of the different plants. One of the most interesting things we did was to prepare spiced carrots. Several members of the class had never eaten collards until it was prepared in the foods lab.

SECOND YEAR HOME ECONOMICS NEWS

The second year Home Economics girls have been cooking meats for the past week. They have been learning how to use meats that are left over. They found this subject very interesting. Some very delightful dishes were made from the pork and beef roasts. The girls cooked kidney, tongue, brains, heart, sweetbreads and tripe. They didn't like the idea of cooking these meats and eating them, but they found out that these meats made choice dishes.

VOCATIONAL NEWS

Miss Cooper has not been here to teach her classes this week because she has been ill.

They are progressing rapidly in the speed tests since the Christmas holidays. This week those on the first team are Mabel Majors, Estelline Chivers and Claudine Fowler. Those on the second team are Oren Womack, Iva Lee Rankin and Jack Wood.

The vocational classes have improved since Christmas. Mrs. Percy Bond and Miss Sybil Dobbs are new pupils.

Miss Cooper presented Elizabeth Hutchinson a pin last week for making 50 words a minute with less than five mistakes.

He gave Mr. Holman a stick horse, Mr. Cline a B-B gun, Miss Greene, ball and jacks, Miss Swope a wash tub and rub-board, Miss Crosthwaite a saxophone, Miss Locker a little red wagon, and Miss Davidson a story book, "Mickey Mouse." Jane Meskimen, Evelyn Hamer, Doris Wynne, Betty Hodge, and Frances Merle Cooper sang "Wonderful Star." The gifts were then distributed. The teachers gave each child a sack of Christmas candy. Everyone was glad to be dismissed at 2:00 for the Christmas holidays.

Wolves Rout Big Spring Steers In Bout Tuesday Night; Girls Win Over Visitors

The Colorado Wolves staged a successful comeback Tuesday night to overcome a 13 to 12 lead accumulated by the Big Spring Steers in the first half, and won by a score of 34 to 24.

The Wolves are showing rapid improvement in all their games. It is believed by many of the local fans that the Wolves will give the Steers considerable trouble in the invitation tournament this week, and in their try to hold their championship in this district.

Stagner was high point man of the game with a total of 13 points. Rodgers was next with a total of 10 points, and Cox was third with a total of seven points. He was tied with Cordell of Big Spring.

The Wolves were playing a smoother game than they played last Friday night when they had a total of fourteen personals called on them, as they had only four fouls called on them Tuesday night. The Steers collected nine fouls.

The Wolves are scheduled to play the Steers in Big Spring next Tuesday night.

The Colorado girls' basketball team maintained their undefeated record by beating Westbrook 35-21 on Tuesday night.

The girls got off to a very sluggish start and looked very ragged in comparison to the game they played Friday night against Roby. No combination seemed to work as it ought.

Christine Bolin was high scorer with a total of 16 points. Skelton of Westbrook was next high with a total of nine points.

The game was fairly close during the first half, as the period ended with the score 22 to 18 in favor of Colorado.

Colorado girls will play Ira here next Tuesday night at 7:30. Local fans are assured a good game and plenty of seats for this contest.

In a fast and furious game that had many thrills and exciting moments Red Church's fast breaking and hard-fighting Jackrabbits nudged out Coach Cantrill's rag-knots 23 to 21, last Friday afternoon.

At the half the Wolf substitutes were leading by a score of 14 to 8, but the Jackrabbits seemed to gain courage during the rest period and came back with a strong finish the last half. Mutt Hicks seemed to be the individual hero of the game, with the score tied at 21 all and with three seconds to go, Mutt tossed one in from the center of the court, to give the game a story book finish.

High scorer of the game was Joe Cox with fifteen points, next high men were Ed Morrison and Arthur Geff's of the Wolves with six points each.

An interesting side-light of the game was that the losing team has to sweep out the gymnasium to have it ready for the Colorado-Roby games that night, and Brady Warren and Regal Porter were so enthused and so positive that his own side would win that they agreed that if their side lost they would sweep the gymnasium alone. Consequently the Jackrabbits sat on the sideline and gave Regal many pointers on how a gymnasium should be swept.

Players for the Wolves were as follows: Ed Morrison, Regal Porter, guards; Wilburn Henderson, center; Arthur Geff's, Mardell Feaster, forward.

For the Jackrabbits: Brady Warren, Mason Shelton, Joe Cox, forwards; Glynn Brown, center; Mutt Hicks, Tom Hughes, Charlie Smith, guards.

The second game of the series of three games between the Jackrabbits and the Wolves was played Tuesday afternoon, the Wolves winning by a score of 27 to 24. The score at the half was 13 to 7 for the Wolves and they were able to maintain this lead throughout the game.

Joe Cox was high scorer, again with a total of nine points, and Regal Porter and Wilburn Henderson were tied for second with a total of eight points.

The third game of this season will be played next Tuesday night immediately after the girls game with Ira. Everyone is assured a fast and furious game if they see this one.

SAM SMITHS VISIT WITH FRIENDS IN WACO, TEX.

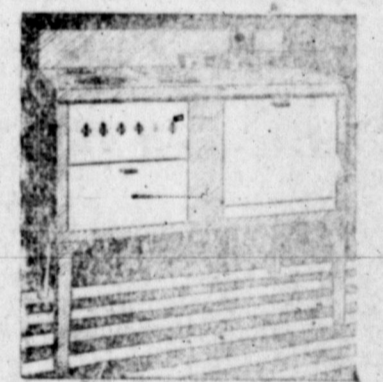

Mr. and Mrs. Sam J. Smith, of Colorado, Texas, and their daughter, Mrs. Dan Blakemore of California, spent a day in Waco, their old home town, this week, guests of their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. Elmer Smith. The daughter came to spend the holidays with the parents and they made a trip to Mr. Smith's fruit farm at McAllen, Texas, returning by Waco to see as many friends as their limited time would permit.

It was good to see them all, for it has been the Journal's pleasure to know them many years and finer people can not be found anywhere. They all looked good, like most all those West Texans out at Fred Whigkey's prosperous city—The Waco Farm and Labor Journal.

LIFE

When you gaze up a railroad track there's always a point in the infinite distance when, just before they vanish, the parallel rails seem to join. If a train were ever to reach that point it would mean death. Life's like that, a track along which we travel on the parallel rails of possibility and desire.

So far as man is concerned "Life" is but a side issue. The paramount issue underlying the issue of Life is the Religion of Christ, and Him crucified, the bedrock of civilization, the source and resource of all that is worth having in the world that is, that gives promise in the world to cease, not as an abstraction, not as a huddle of sects and factions, but as a mighty force and principle of being.

The Kaiser boldly threw down the gauntlet of battle—Infidel Germany against the believing world—"Kultur" against Christianity—The Gospel of hate against the Gospel of Love. This was he Satan personified, "Myself and God," merely his way of proclaiming it, for his "God" is Beelzebub, the angel of destruction.

If the world is to be saved from destruction, it will be saved alone by the Christian religion. That eliminated leaves the earth to eternal war. Life is like that. Let every Christian link in prayer him and his with the Christ-child, the Light of Love, that suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried, that descended into Hell, that the third day he arose from the dead and ascended into Heaven and sat on the right hand of God, the Father Almighty.

It has been said "One half the people do not know how the other half live" and that is true or what they get out of life. In my visit to New York I secured as a guide one of the welfare workers and visited the slums. Mostly apartment houses where poverty and hunger, dirt and filth, ignorance and crime prevailed.

The walls are grimy and discolored. The uneven floors creak and yield underfoot. Staircases and landings are rickety and black. The floor of every room is open. Walk along these corridors. Walk into this room. Here is a sickly boy of five deserted by his mother, underfed, solitary, in the awful solitude of starved, neglected childhood, seldom talks. Strange isn't it? Some many children never prattle like your darlings. They are already old.

In room 24 is Rose, a housemother of ten. Father is in the hospital. Mother is crippled with rheumatism. Rose does all the work. You would love Rose if she came out of Dickens. Well, there she is mothering her Mother in room 24. In room 28, age has been toiling for youth. Grandmother has been taking care of three granddaughters who lost their mother. A brave old woman, but what with rheumatism and heart weakness, three score and ten, can't go out to work anymore. What's going to happen to her and her charges? Thinking of that, she is ill on top of her physical illness. A very interesting house. Decidedly, run sort of place. Come with me into room 30. Simon the doll-maker, but handmade dolls are out, lives, if you call it living, here. Eighty years old, his wife about the same age, their eyesight mostly gone, otherwise they would still be sewing on buttons and earning a scanty livelihood for themselves and two little grandchildren. Life.

You must see these twin sisters of sixty-five in room 47. They are making as much as $6.00 per month and the rent being $1.00 per month. They have been so long together they would like to stay so. In room— but you need no guide. Once in the "House of a Hundred Sorrows" you will visit every chamber in it, if your heart is made of penetrable stuff you will do the most you can to bring hope and comfort to its inmates. Life.

"For I was a hungered and ye gave me meat. I was thirsty and ye gave me drink. I was a stranger and ye took me in. Naked and ye clothed me. I was sick and ye visited me. I was in prison and ye came unto me." The natural economy of things makes the Life useful, the Life beautiful. It is beautiful because it possesses and uses all the virtues. This practice of the virtues is effective in the achievement of constructive deeds, because in the virtues is regnant the power resident in wisdom. This practice of the virtues is impelled by Love, and Love exists proportionately to the spirituality of the individual.

The wise and kind have always had to suffer because of their efforts to save the ignorant and brutal. But they had to be saved. Listen at this from the Bible: "There was a little city, and few men within it and there came a great King against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it. Now here was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city, yet no man remembered the same poor man."

The reflections expressed in this article bring us at once to conclude as did that ancient wise man. "Then said I, wisdom is better than a strength." Nevertheless—the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard." The spirit of Christmas still lingers with some of us. If I had been appointed Santa Claus I would not give those gifts that perish with the using but rather those things that last.

To old age I would give the recollection of a well spent life as a light to make brilliant declining years. To youth I would give the ambition to achieve the desire to do things, putting into the heart the rapture of a high resolve.

To the infirm of purpose I would give nerves of iron and dauntless courage. I would visit the prison houses of pain and suffering, unlock the doors, paint upon the checks the roses of health and set the prisoners free, strong and well upon the highways of Life.

To those who sit among the shadows under the spell of some great bereavement I would give the consciousness that earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal, causing them to look up, see the star in the right of death and hear the rustle of angel's wings.

To everyone I would give the ability to appreciate the finer things of Life, an appreciation of letters, of the beauties of nature, of music, the ability to thrill with all the joys of living.

To the lonely I would give companionship, kindling upon the altar of their souls the fires of love, never to die out. To all aspiring, struggling, despairing children of men I would give the light of hope, the most exultant thing that humanity can know.

To everyone I would give that supreme gift of all, the gift of faith, faith in themselves, faith in each other, faith in God, and faith in that one far-off divine event to which the whole creation moves. A constant and somewhat curious reader of this column writes in and wants to know why the crane has such long legs and the goose such short ones? Naturalists say the crane was originally long legged like the crane, both being semiaquatic fowls. Our explanation is that in the ark the two geese were stepped on by one of the elephants and the poor fowl's legs were mashed to the ground, the excess length being taken up in the web which now graces the feet of all geese.

Huge Sum Will Be Distributed Among Farmers Of Texas

The huge sum of near $20,000,000 in Federal benefit payments is going to cotton and wheat farmers of Mitchell and 234 other counties of Texas during the months of last December and January. It was shown in report coming from the National Capital this week.

Of the amount $15,000,000 will go to cotton producers on options at $20 a bale and more than $4,000,000 to wheat growers as the first of two installments to be paid producers who agreed to cut 1934 acreage. Two areas entering around Lubbock and Dallas receive the bulk of these payments.

SILVER AS MONEY

The Administration's recent re-orientation of silver is a definite step toward solving problems that have been talked about for generations. It means immediate benefit to workers, inventors and the public. This is especially true of the West, where American silver mines are located. The mining depression in many states has been more severe than the general depression. Thousands of jobs have been lost, a vast amount of purchasing power has disappeared, and one of the most important sources of governmental revenue has dried up.

As for the economic side of the move and its influence on monetary matters, only experience can supply the answer. But it has long been the opinion of many able economists and industrial leaders, that, in this complicated modern world, gold is not enough. Proof of this is in the fact that cheap-silver has destroyed the purchasing power of half the world's population, and has come close to destroying foreign trade.

The move, it is believed, will be followed by action in other countries. It is a great experiment, with almost limitless possibilities for achievement.

Hundreds Listed On CWA Projects Not Worthy, Is Claim

AUSTIN.—Although the county welfare administration in furnishing $12-per-week salaries for able-bodied men on the relief rolls diminished, temporarily, the number dependent on the state and federal governments for food and clothing, further complications were created.

J. C. Capt, Dallas county relief administrator, told the Texas relief commission incidents of boys 18 and 19 years old getting married after their fathers were put on PWA pay rolls, setting up homes of their own and becoming dependent upon direct relief funds.

Earl P. Adams, member of the commission, said Capt's testimony proved that Texans were becoming "relief conscious" and this development was a sound reason for curtailing funds distributed to the needy. Houston Harte of San Angelo, one of the commissioners concurred in that expression.

Capt said there was no doubt that hundreds of persons not entitled to relief were carried on the rolls, but said the matter of ascertaining the worthiness of the recipients had to be handled in a "mild way." He said it was not desired that "police methods" be employed to eject the unworthy ones but that "case workers" had to conduct investigations to obtain the necessary information to evaluate the ability of a subject to care for himself and his family.
