GEORGE MAHON CLUB FOR CONGRESS WAS LAUNCHED AT RALLY MONDAY NIGHT

Local Democrats Will Carry Campaign To All Parts Of 19th District

Organization of a "George Mahon For Congress Club of Mitchell County" was perfected at an enthusiastic rally of local Democrats at the Colorado Hotel Monday night. Judge Chas. C. Thompson, a life-long personal friend of the candidate, was elected president and Joe H. Smoot, vice president of the City National bank, vice president. G. B. Slaton, assistant vice president of the City National, was named treasurer, and Lloyd Crodin, member of high school faculty and organizer of the Young Democrats Club here a few weeks ago, was elected secretary.

The meeting was called to order by Smoot in absence of J. J. Billingsley, designated temporary chairman at a previous caucus of Mahon admirers. Thompson was elected to head the club without opposition after those attending a rally determined to effect permanent organization and launch an aggressive campaign in support of the well known West Texas district attorney. Thompson, who grew up on a farm in same neighborhood of Mr. Mahon, went through Loraine school as a class mate of the candidate and through most of his life-time has been intimately associated with him, paid strong tribute to the man.

"I know George Mahon probably more intimately than any man in this meeting tonight, and I cannot speak too highly of his sterling qualities, his ability and his integrity," Thompson declared. "We people of this home county and of the 32nd judicial district who know George Mahon will support him at the polls and it is to remote sections of the large district that we must go in his behalf. I do not believe that in all of West Texas is to be found a man with stronger qualifications to adequately fill the important office in our National congress to which he aspires."

Other leading democrats present joined in paying tribute to Mahon, including Thos. R. Smith, well known West Texas attorney; John E. Watson, superintendent of the Colorado city schools; Smoot; Del Barber, county attorney; Joe B. Mills, local business man; W. W. Whiskey, Colorado publisher; B. L. Templeton, county clerk, and others.

By vote of the meeting President Thompson was authorized to appoint five executive officials. These in conjunction with the president, vice president, treasurer and secretary are to constitute a governing board of nine members. The five executives were announced by Thompson Wednesday, as follows:

Advantages of Hygiene And Sciences of Food Preparation Told To CWA Women

Among the most worthy projects authorized by the CWA administration is the special class in home economics being taught in high school under supervision of Miss Evelyn Jennings, director of the department. The class, composed of CWA women of this and other communities of the county, meet from 2 to 4 o'clock each Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoon.

These women are being taught the proper diet and functions of food, with economy in keeping the family budget within their incomes stressed. They, too, study the sciences of hygiene and other problems that enter into the life of the average housewife and mother. Miss Emily Dulaney is teacher.

During the class periods children of the mothers are left to enjoy themselves in a special nursery provided in the economics store room, with Mrs. Merle Ford in charge. Here tots from the ages of 2 to 6 years are cared for, taught to play one with another and given examination by Mrs. W. L. Hester, county health nurse. A light lunch is served the kiddies in mid-afternoon and usually a story is told them.

When weather conditions are favorable the children have an outdoor exercise. Toys for their pleasure are being supplied by girls attending regular classes of the department.

REDUCED FIRE LOSSES TO RESULT IN EFFICIENCY, IS BANQUET SPEAKERS CLAIM

Annual Firemen's Banquet Is Given Monday Night With 44 In Attendance

Listed among the greater requisites that any community might claim is an efficient and alert fire department, members of the Colorado Volunteer Fire Department were told Monday evening by speakers addressing annual banquet given by these men and their wives. The Rev. Cal C. Wright of First Methodist church, functioned as master of ceremonies. E. M. Major, city fire commissioner and an active member of the department for a number of years, stated Wednesday morning the banquet was the most successful ever held.

"We have never enjoyed a finer fellowship among our own group and our wives than was evident throughout the program Monday night," Majors said. Majors stated that among the feature numbers given on entertainment program was vocal solo by Percy Bond.

The day before he had lost an eye while cutting wood, but the member destroyed had little use. Its power of vision had vanished some time before.

"Now don't you agree with me I was in luck when that stick of mesquite wood flew into my face, smashing my hump eye?" he ejaculated. "I shudder to think of what might have been my fate had the wooden slug veered a bit and crashed into my one good eye."

HALF OF TAX ACCOUNT TO BE CARRIED 6 MONTHS IS CITY COUNCIL'S PROPOSAL

Fifty Percent, However, To Be Paid On Or Before January 31st

Mr. Citizen who happens to be registered as a property taxpayer within corporate limits of the city is to have opportunity of settling the account on the installment plan. Fifty percent paid now and the remainder due after six months.

Such a proposal was announced Thursday morning by J. Lee Jones, city secretary and tax collector. Jones stated that recent order passed by the city council provides that the initial payment of fifty percent must be made on or before January 31, with the remainder due at any time prior to June 30. The liberalized policy will entail no added penalty or cost to the property owner.

Such a plan had its inception here a few years after members of the council in conjunction with Mayor H. L. Hutchison, found that to impose the customary yoke of calling for payment of all taxes due in lump sum might bring financial embarrassment to a part of the citizenship. It was adopted, largely as an experiment and proved satisfactory to both the city and the property owner.

The initial payment called for under terms of the plan must be credited to account of the taxpayer within the time prescribed, Jones outlined. Those defaulting will not be eligible to claim the deferred remittance offer. To the contrary full amount charged in tax assessment for the current fiscal year will become due and payable, entailing the usual penalty as prescribed by law after delinquency.

Cooperation of property owners who have not as yet made payment on their tax accounts is invited by the city. Prompt attention to payments now falling due would tend to encourage to extend the plan hereafter. By paying taxes now the citizen would be doing his part to relieve the usual rush at office of the collector during last one or two days of the month.

BADLY SPRAINED ANKLE EXPECTED TAKE ROGERS OFF TEAM FOR SEASON

Omer Rogers, forward on the Cantrill quintet and an outstanding star throughout the recent invitation tournament at Colorado, is probably on the shelf for remainder of the basketball season. While engaged in practice work at the high gym Monday afternoon he turned his left foot, badly spraining the ankle.

Cantrill stated shortly following the accident that he felt sure that Rogers would not be able to play any more this season. An X-Ray examination of the injured member disclosed a bad sprain, so it was stated.

Rogers was catalogued by scores of fans as the outstanding player seen in action during the tourney last week. He is remembered with strong admiration especially for the accounting given in game with the Abilene Eagles Saturday afternoon.

The coach stated Tuesday morning that he had not definitely determined who would take Rogers' place on the first team.

COACHES UNITE TO GIVE DISTINCTION TO CAGERS COMPETING IN TOURNEY

Obie Bristow and Tiny Reed of Big Spring, officials during annual invitation basketball tournament closing here Saturday night, along with other coaches attending the meet, gave the unanimous opinion this was the most successful of such contests ever staged in West Texas. These officials were especially impressed with fact competing teams played a better brand of basketball than ever before.

Fine sportsmanship evidenced by the boys did not fail to elicit comment among both coaches and fans. The usual quota of personal fouls were assessed, but as a rule the boys impressed that they wanted to be good sports and fight fairly.

CLAIM FORTY PERCENT OF PLANTERS PRODUCED LESS THAN MINIMUM IS DENIED

Baskin Had No Part In Call For Anson Meeting, He Says In Interview

Statement credited to certain West Texas county judges and farm agents to effect that the 1934-35 cotton acreage reduction drive was facing collapse in this section of the State due to eligibility minimum requirement of 100 pounds average production of lint, will not apply to conditions in Mitchell county, J. W. Watson, chairman of the county control board, and Ben J. Baskin, county farm agent, declared Thursday morning after having been shown an Abilene newspaper carrying the statement.

The article recited that at a caucus in Abilene Wednesday night attended by West Texas county judges and farm agents, concern was expressed due to the production minimum. That forty percent of farmers within an acre covering much of West Texas would be unable to enter the acreage control pact due to fact they produced less than stipulated minimum during the five years ending with 1932 was asserted. Baskin was listed as among farm agents in West Texas county in Anson Saturday to discuss the problem.

Mrs. Thomas Hostess To Shakespeare Club

The Shakespeare Club met Friday with Mrs. Thomas with Mrs. Stonerod as leader. Roll call was answered with Current Events. The subject was Southern Fiction Concerning the Negro in South Carolina. Mrs. Motley gave an interesting review of "Black April" by Julia Peterkin.

Mrs. Pearson talked on "Travels in South Carolina," being taken from Faris "Seing the Sunny South."

Shakespears quotations were given and the last lesson in Henry VIII studied. The general questions will be taken.

At the social hour Mrs. Thomas assisted by Enid June served pressed chicken, buttered rolls, wafers, creamed potatoes, coffee, cinnamon rolls and candy.

The meeting this week is with Mrs. Brennan.

Mrs. Coleman Hostess To Standard Club

The Standard Club met Friday with Mrs. Coleman with the president Mrs. McMurry in the chair. No meeting was held January 5, because of the death of a beloved member, Mrs. K. N. Gary. The roll call of both January 5th and January 12th was given. In the minutes was registered the history of the Standard Club given by Mrs. Sherwin. This was a most interesting and informational history. The committee reported flowers sent to the hospital to Mrs. Gary.

Mrs. J. A. Buchanan and Mrs. Terrell were appointed year book committee.

The lesson, Early History of Maryland, was led by Mrs. Coleman. Early History of Virginia, by Mrs. Terrell, both most interesting. Mrs. Coleman read a poem, Martha's vineyard which was much enjoyed.

daughter of the house, Miss Coleman. The meeting this week is with Mrs. Sherwin at the home of Miss Riordan. Bill Renewing RFC Sweeps Thru Both Senate And House

An administration measure extending life of the reconstruction corporation for a year and increasing its borrowing power by $850,000,000 was swept quickly through both branches of congress Monday and was sent to the White House for presidential signature.

It received senate approval after brief debate and two hours later went through the house by a standing vote of 186 to 1. There were no amendments.

House democratic leaders, fearful a bipartisan group would force a vote on an amendment to authorize the corporation to make direct loans to industry, invoked procedure barring amendments.

The bill was passed under suspension of the rules requiring a two-thirds majority. In the senate, Chairman Fletcher (Dem., Fla.) briefly explained the measure continued the lending authority of the corporation to February 1, 1935. Under existing law this expires on January 22.

Senator Hastings (Rep., Del.), asked if it was not true that the corporation was evading the law in that it was making direct loans to industry when direct loans were prohibited.

Fletcher replied that some loans had been made to mortgage loan companies but not for industrial purposes.

Chairman Steagall, (Dem., Ala.), of the banking committee, told the house the corporation had committed ments for loans to closed banks in excess of $500,000,000, with only $15,000,000 available on January 1. It is the plan of the corporation, he said, to seek to release more than $1,400,000,000 in frozen deposits, and $850,000,000 was the minimum capital needed.

Lay Powell, injured when run down by a cow on his Glascock county ranch several days ago, was downtown Friday afternoon for first time since the accident.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH

There will be no church or Sunday school due to the Twenty-fourth Annual Church Convocation being held in Lubbock Sunday and Monday.

ALEX. B. HANSON,
Minister-in-charge.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

We enjoyed another increase in attendance last Sunday over the Sunday before, and have every reason to expect that we shall make another gain next Sunday. The spirit of our folks was never better, and there seems to be a growing interest in every phase of our program. Our Wednesday evening services are being attended better than any other time since we came here as pastor. There is probably no better indication of a churches general interest in its work than the attendance at the mid-week services.

Since the pastor is to be away for the four day meeting at Cisco next week, we expect to have a meeting of all teachers and officers of the Sunday school at 6:15 Sunday evening to discuss the lesson for January

28. We are delighted at the response of both teachers and pupils in this new study.

The regular schedule of services will be held next Sunday, with a sermon at Rogers at 3 in the afternoon.

DICK O'BRIEN, Pastor.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

A very fine day was the expression for the last Sunday. Good attendance for every service. One fine young man made the confession of Christ to be baptized at our mid-week meeting.

We welcome your presence.

Hundredth Anniversary Of Father Of Extension Work Came On December 16

The cotton plow-up campaign of 1933 which is estimated to have brought well over 100 million dollars into Texas this fall was made possible through work done in 1903 by the greatest agricultural statesman America has yet produced, Dr. Seaman A. Knapp. This is the declaration of O. B. Martin, director of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, who calls attention to the fact that December 16th was the hundredth anniversary of the birth of this man who is the father of the Extension Service in the United States.

"It was Dr. Knapp," says Mr. Martin, "who seized the opportunity presented by the invasion of Texas by the boll weevil in 1903 to establish the first farm demonstration on Walter Porter's farm near Morrell. Secretary Wilson became interested in the Texas 'experiment' and supplied funds for its development which was so rapid that by 1912 the South had county farm and some demonstration agents in every State. It was this work, supported in its early stages by the General Education Board, that led directly to the Smith-Lever Act of 1913 which extended the work into every State of the Union.

"The essence of Dr. Knapp's philosophy was that people learn by doing and that advances in education of rural people may be greatly speeded by starting them on demonstrations of better ways of farming and home making. In contributing this idea of beginning education at the greatest point of interest in an individual's life and stimulating his development through self-help demonstrations Dr. Knapp became a pioneer in adult education," says Mr. Martin.

Dr. Knapp was born in New York

State in 1833, received a classical education, overcame great physical handicaps in order to teach school and culminated his classroom teaching as president of Iowa State College at Ames. While there he wrote the bill creating the state agricultural experiment stations. He later led a colonization movement to Southwestern Louisiana and founded the rice industry of the Southwest. At 70 years of age he introduced the demonstration idea into Texas and spent the remaining seven years of his life in guiding its development throughout the South.

Mr. Martin when state superintendent of education in South Carolina became acquainted with Dr. Knapp, in the early days and was associated with him in Washington in his last years.

SAFEGWAY STORES, INC., ENJOYING GOOD TRADE—DIST MANAGER STATES

"We are enjoying a fine business out of our Colorado store, and certainly the immediate future strongly suggests optimism," was comment of M. V. Witbeck, district manager for Safeway Stores, Inc., who was a Colorado visitor Tuesday. The business outlook is encouraging throughout his district, Mr. Witbeck stated.

The corporation executive was here to confer with T. M. Marsh, resident manager, as to plans for the following months.

George Sauer of Nebraska scored more points than any other player in the Big Six in the past football season—a total of 52 counting the 12 he tallied in the all-star game at San Francisco.

Alexander Legge Endows Fund For Aiding Agriculture

CHICAGO, (UP)—Formation of a large permanent trust fund to be used for the general welfare of the rural population of the United States was revealed today by Frank O. Lowden, former Illinois governor and agricultural leader.

The fund, to be known as the "Farm Foundation," will be administered by 21 trustees for agricultural research and experimental work, education and encouragement of cooperation among farmers.

Amount of the endowment was withheld pending completion of organization.

Announcement of the foundation's formation was forced in advance of the planned date by the death of Alexander Legge, president of the International Harvester Company and former chairman of the Federal Farm Board under President Hoover.

Legge, said Lowden, already had contributed $400,000 to the foundation and in his will, to be probated soon, left an additional half million dollars to the fund. Several other organizers of the project, Lowden said, have contributed like amounts.

Sets Tarpon Record

When a lady sets her heart on anything—well, a poor fish might as well give up. Witness above, pretty Miss Kyle Browder, "five feet two," pictured with the huge tarpon, "six feet three," which she caught in the Gulf near Brownsville, Texas, in an all-time record for the catch of a tarpon caught in the state. The weather was so mild in Texas' lower valley this year that the tarpon did not migrate.

Property Deeded To The Lord Held For Taxes In Arkansas

HARDY, Ark.—County officials want the world to know that it will require slightly more than $13.42 to redeem a 160-acre tract of land here in the name of the Lord.

Scores of letters are deluging offices of county officials asking information concerning the tract of typical hill, timbered land which twice has reverted to the State of Arkansas for taxes after being deeded to the "Lord and Savior Jesus Christ."

Writers of the letters, principally from Texas, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Missouri, mostly inquire as to the cost of redeeming the land, some for themselves. After answering the first few letters, officials bolted as queries continued to block in.

The tract is located several miles northeast of Hardy. It was deeded to the Lord in 1924 by Clarence Powell of Greene county, Iowa, to the State for unpaid taxes, but was redeemed once after reverting now is again on the State books.

Late San Angeloan Was Relative Mrs. S. T. Smith, City

SAN ANGELO—Mrs. May Willie Salter, 78, one of the early settlers of the West, a resident here 35 years ago, was buried at Alpine, Monday afternoon. Mrs. Salter died here at 12:20 o'clock Wednesday morning at the home of a daughter, Mrs. A. P. Yates, at 123 North Jefferson Street.

She was taken in a Johnson casket coach to Alpine, leaving here at 7 o'clock. The Rev. L. W. Bridges officiated at funeral services conducted at the graveside.

Mrs. Salter was a member of the Baptist Church since childhood. Surviving her are two sons, Frank B. of Amarillo and Will L. of Phoenix, and two daughters, Mrs. E. H. Cooper and Mrs. Yates of San Angelo. There are also six grandchildren and two sisters, Mrs. Dave Carnes of Lubbock and Mrs. S. T. Smith of Colorado.

Mrs. Salter had been with her daughter here for the last three months.

"Lady For A Day." The picture that takes its place among the greatest pictures ever produced. A picture that has won the universal approval of critics everywhere—and that's a rare tribute! "Extraordinary! A grand picture. What a story! What acting! What directing!"—says Liberty in awarding it four stars. "An emotion-stirring sock which would appeal to all types of fans. Packed with down-to-earth entertainment. Inspired continual laughter and long applause"—says Hollywood Herald. "For downright undistorted enjoyment it presents possibilities seldom seen on the screen"—says Screen Book.

Modern metropolitan in atmosphere, the story is packed with down-to-earth entertainment. From its intriguing opening to the surprisingly hectic finale it is rife with novelty and punch. Gamblers, gangsters, pool-sharks, apple sellers, tough guys, sweet, demure girls and a hard-boiled one, tit'd European grandees, mayors, governors, cops and newspapermen romp through the story. Folks, you have a real treat in store for you. We give this picture our personal endorsement. In addition to being a grand picture for the grownups, it is the kind of entertainment that the youngsters should appreciate. The cast includes Warren William, May Robson, Guy Kibbee, Glenda Farrell, Ned Sparks, Jean Parker, Barry Norton, and Ho Bart Bosworth.

"Police Car No. 17"

a tough gang of bank robbers in the real McCoy fashion.

If you are looking for real honest-to-goodness entertainment, you shouldn't miss the opportunity to see this picture.

H. L. May Requests Support His Claim For Commissioner

H. L. May of Westbrook announced while in Colorado Monday afternoon that he had entered his candidacy for election to the office of county commissioner of precinct No. 2, subject to action of the Democratic primary election in July. The candidate has been a resident citizen of Mitchell county for twenty seven years, practically all of which time he has lived at Westbrook.

"I have no political promises to offer the voters of my precinct, except that if elected I shall honestly devote my best efforts to duties of the office, ever demanding that of the people of my own precinct and of the county-at-large receive an administration of economy and progress," he said. "There shall be no partisan favoritism indulged and I shall unite with other progressive citizens to induce a saving of our tax money, thus reducing the burdens of government to the masses."

Mr. May plans taking his candidacy to every voter in the precinct. He called attention to fact his life is known to a larger number of the citizens within the district and believes that his record will merit his claims for support at the polls.

Huge Telescope To Be Installed Soon At Mt. Locke, Texas

CHICAGO.—The second largest telescope mirror in the world, so large a six-foot man easily could lie full length on it, has just been successfully cast.

The mirror which will gather the light of stars millions of miles away and concentrate it on photographic plates, will be installed in the 80-inch telescope of the new astronomical observatory which is being built by the University of Texas on Mt. Locke, near Alpine, Texas. The staff of the observatory will be supplied by the University of Chicago.

Only one other telescope mirror larger than this ever has been successfully manufactured. It has been in use for many years in the 100-inch telescope of Mount Wilson observatory, Calif. Efforts are underway, however, to make a 200-inch mirror, 16 feet, eight inches across, designed for a new telescope also to be built at Mount Wilson.

The glass for the 80-inch mirror was poured at a temperature of 1,300 degrees and then quickly cooled to about 500 degrees. Then the temperature entered a very gradual cooling process in a special annealing oven over a period of about three months. This slow cooling was necessary to prevent internal strains, being built up that would spoil the glass.

Once cooled, the mirror undergoes the most delicate operation in the whole process of manufacturing—drilling of a hole in the center of the glass. There always is danger that the drilling operation may split the huge disc.

In preparation for drilling the outer edge of the mirror first is cut off, bringing it down to the exact diameter of 80 inches. Then it is tested with light that reveals whether the glass has an unsymmetrical pattern, which in turn indicates where there are internal strains in the disc that would make drilling and grinding impossible.

The grinding operation will give the disc a curved surface on one side. When the grinding by machinery is completed, the mirror will be tested with light from an artificial star. Every point of the mirror must concentrate this light on one point, the focus, where the star image is reproduced for photographing. Hand grinding will be used to correct any slight errors in curvature found by this process.

CANTRILL HOOPERS COP INVITATION CHAMPIONSHIP

COLORADO CAGERS WIN IN FINAL CLASH WITH WYLIE TO CLAIM AREA PENNANT

Abilene Eagles Routed After Fighting To Semi-Finals Saturday Morning

The Colorado Wolves Saturday night became champions of their own invitation basketball tournament after having eliminated Loraine, Ira, Dunn, Abilene and Wylie, hooper quintets opposing the local team in the brace of four brackets, opening Thursday afternoon. The final contest, staged Saturday night between the Wolves and Wylie, was won by Colorado 38-32.

The Big Spring Steers, winner of the tournament trophy in 1933 and 1932, were eliminated by Wylie Saturday morning by a lead of 19 points. The first game by the Steers was played with Divide and with only two seconds to go the score was tied 19-19. Cook of Divide and Hare of Big Spring double fouled. The Divide player missed from the free throw line and Hare won, taking victory for his team.

Last two contests engaged in by the Cantrillmen were sprinkled with thrills and players on both the Abilene and Wylie clubs shared honors with Colorado in staging some great basketball. Omer Rogers and other members of the Cantrill club played their best game during contest with Abilene Saturday afternoon. The score was 37-28.

In the final with Wylie Colorado had the game cinched in third period with a lead of twelve points but this margin was whittled in half before sound of the final whistle. Wylie was tagging 19-17 at the half.

Jack Cox, center for the Wolves, rang up twenty points during the pennant winning game. These laurels were split between three players on the Wylie team with Gordon Wood leading with ten points. Waldrop and Salyers each accounted for nine points. Ability of the latter player to shoot and pass with either his left or right hand attracted considerable comment among fans and visiting coaches.

In the semi-final argument Saturday afternoon Abilene got off to a 6-0 lead as the game opened but the Wolves came up and for the fourth time in rapid fire order the score was tied. At end of the half, however, Colorado was leading 25-17. The Abilene cagers did not threaten in the last half. Close defense of the Eagles around the basket did not account for much, the Wolves being most accurate in tosses from medium distances. Street of Abilene led in scoring with 13, with Rogers of Colorado second with twelve points.

Wylie qualified to dispute with Colorado for tourney pennant after having defeated Forsan 34-17 in semi-final melee. The teams were tied 13-13 after two quarters but Wylie forged ahead through final periods.

The consolation title went to Loraine for the third successive year, Loraine winning the final from Rotan, 33 to 16. In the semi-finals, Loraine ousted Sylvester, 22 to 13, and Rotan beat Anson, 25 to 20. Completing the second round in the consolation Saturday morning Loraine won from Trent, and Sylvester vanquished Fluvanna, 30 to 22.

Trophies, the gift of Colorado business men, were awarded at the conclusion of play Saturday. The Colorado team received a three-quarter.

Wolves To Hamlin Friday For Entry In District Meet

Big Jim Cantrill will lead his champion cage organization to Hamlin Friday morning for competition in annual invitation tournament to open there for two days. It is natural to accept that the Wolves will enter the Hamlin tourney as a favorite to win, due to their showing here last week.

Sixteen of the stronger teams in this part of the State have been invited. Colorado will meet some of the quintets defeated at Colorado last week-end.

STAGNER AND COX PLACED ON ALL-STAR HOOPERS BY COACHES ATTENDING MEET

Cox Also Stars As High Point Player During Tourney At Colorado Last Week

Colorado placed two members of her champion hoopers on the all-star quintet as announced Saturday night following close of annual invitation basketball tournament opening at high school gym Thursday afternoon for three days. Elvie Stagner, an outstanding star on the Cantrill squad during recent football contests, was named all-tourney forward and Jack Cox another Wolf star in football, was placed on the quintet as all-star center. Cox also won prize offered high point man of the tournament with a record of 68. Thomas Horton of Loraine won high point place in the consolation round.

Other members of the all-star quintet include Gordon Wood of Wylie, forward; Pickett Hare of Big Spring, guard, and Morris Ashley of Dunn, forward. Wood came nearer unanimous selection than any other player and Stagner was second in the balloting. Selection of the team was by vote of visiting coaches. George Neal of Big Spring won the sportsmanship award and Barnhart, located south of San Angelo, received a cup for having traveled the greatest distance to attend the meet.

SCHOOL AUTHORITIES IN APPRECIATION OF HELP GIVEN TO CAGE MEETING

Authorities of the Colorado schools are desirous of expressing their sincere appreciation to business men and other citizens who cooperated in any way toward making the basketball tournament successful. Principal C. A. Wilkins stated Monday morning. Visitors were accorded every courtesy and the three-day meet had every encouragement from among local people, he said.

Wilkins stated that the directing school officials especially wished to thank those Colorado citizens who opened their homes for entertainment of the boys and their coaches during the tournament.

EL PASO HOOPERS, WINNER OF STATE PENNANT, WILL ENGAGE LOCALS THURSDAY

Two Of West Texas' Greatest Teams, Slated For Tilt At Colorado Gym

Two of West Texas' outstanding cage organizations, the Colorado Wolves and El Paso high, are to do battle at the Colorado gym Thursday night of this week in what gives strong promise of developing into one of the most interesting school-boy contests of the season.

El Paso has won State championship pennant twice and reports from the Gateway city indicate that another formidable team has been developed this year. Colorado, by having won pennant at tourney here Saturday night, is being reckoned as a strong contender for the distinction claimed by El Paso. Local school officials stated Monday that Colorado was fortunate in having booked the contest.

With six lettermen back from last year about which to build his team Coach Cantrill has welded together an organization that so far during the season has lost only one high school game. This was an early season contest played with Forsan, a school that did not enter football and naturally started basketball practice early. Colorado lost by a marginal score. Cosden Refinery at Big Spring, having a team made up of ex-college players, won over the Wolves in an early season bout.

Starting line-up for the Colorado-El Paso game will be Elvie Stagner and Omer Rodgers, forwards; Jack Cox, center; Red Church and M. C. Lowry, guards. Substitutes are Durwood McCright, Joe Cooper, Louis Taylor, J. M. Kirby and Donald Adrian.

During a total of 13 games, including contests engaged during the tourney last week, the Wolves have turned a total of 537 points to 412 by their opponents, as follows:

44	Loraine All Stars	42
62	Iatan All Stars	53
45	Dunn	27

Bronte Takes San Angelo Pennant In Final Cage Battle

The Bronte Longhorns copped the San Angelo invitation basketball tournament Saturday night by sinking the Water Valley cagers 43-24. The Coke county hoopers entered the playing card with odds against them but swept all competition aside in uninterrupted parade to tourney pennant.

Harry Taylor's Bobcats were routed in match with team from Crews in second round of the tournament. The score was 27-22.

Along with copping the tournament championship, Bronte placed two men on the all-tourney team. They were B. Spoons, center, and Parish, guard. San Angelo placed T. Gregg, forward, on the team, and Jennings, Lake View forward, and White, Water Valley guard, were other men named.

Cattlemen Request Relief For Industry At National Confab

Cattlemen of this section of West Texas attending sessions of the American National Livestock association in Albuquerque, New Mexico, last week, returned during the week-end believing that cattlemen are headed for better times.

In a final last-minute move, the convention endorsed the plan of Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, asking congress for $200,000,000 for relief of the cattle industry as the logical means of getting the industry out of the present slump.

Approval of the Wallace plan, it was pointed out, was a substitution on the part of the convention for the recently-rejected proposal to include cattle under the Agriculture Adjustment Administration program as a basic commodity.

LOWER VALLEY REGION COMING BACK EAST IS BELIEF OF SAM SMITH

The Lower Rio Grande Valley region in vicinity of McAllen and Mission where several former citizens of Mitchell county are operating citrus farms is making rapid progress toward recovery from damage done orchards and other property a few months ago by a severe storm. Sam J. Smith stated Monday morning. In company with members of his family Mr. Smith returned recently from a motor car trip into that part of the State to look after property holdings.

Reports coming into Colorado to effect that many of the orchards had been practically ruined are unfounded, according to Smith. There was considerable damage to these properties but the trees are fast assuming normal condition and good crops of oranges and grapefruit were produced.

HONORING MRS. T. B. COKER

As a courtesy to Mrs. T. B. Coker a recent bride, a miscellaneous shower and party, of attractive appointments was held Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Van Boston.

Mrs. F. H. Patterson, Mrs. W. E. Rucker, Mrs. Burr Brown, and Mrs. Van Boston were hostesses for the party, presenting a program and serving refreshments.

Mrs. F. H. Patterson presided over the bride's book, where forty-seven guests registered and then each guest was asked to write her favorite recipe for the bride's cook book.

Mrs. Lee Brown sang, "The Sunshine of Your Smile." Mrs. Witt Hines read two numbers, "In the Usual Way," and "Husbands—Thirty Cents a Bunch." Mrs. Brown then played "The Flower Song."

A loud knock was heard at the back door, and the hostess announced that the Red & White delivery wagon was there with a load of Red & White packages for the bride. The little red express wagon, with double decked side-boards, decorated in red and white streamers and driven by a big doll, was drawn in by little Miss Alda Ray Rucker, who was appropriately dressed for the occasion.

The bride received many beautiful and useful gifts, and after they had all been admired, she expressed her gratitude in a very charming manner.

The hostesses served Red & White bride's cake and tea. After the tea was poured they drank the following toast to the bride:

A fair young maid, with eyes of brown,
Came to teach in Westbrook town
The first thing you know—to her delight,

She met a grocer—Red & White,
Said she, "Why endure the toil and strife
That goes with an old maid teacher's life
Why I can dine, with Tom so grand
On dainty dishes—the Red & White brand.
And so she decided, as a grocer's wife
She would cast her lot, for the rest of her life.
Not for a minute would she trade
Her fortune for that of a single maid,
So here's to fair Nita, our bonny bride
May you look to the future with joy and pride
May you have happiness—May you have health
May you have good fortune—May you have wealth
May you live in peace the rest of your life
Free from care and toil and strife
Cooking, and feasting with much delight
On fancy groceries—Red & White.

FLOYD QUINNEY ASKS FOR NOMINATION AS MITCHELL COUNTY CLERK NEXT JULY

Colorado Man Pledges Sincere Devotion To Duties; Well Qualified For Office

Floyd Quinney, among the popularly known citizens of the county, Tuesday morning issued statement for publication by The Record that he had formally entered his candidacy for nomination to the office of Mitchell county clerk. Quinney, a life-long democrat, is placing his candidacy subject to will of voters in the party primary election July 28.

Quinney has been a resident citizen in Mitchell county for twenty years, excepting several months spent in France during the world war and a short residence in California. He was a member of the Famous Rainbow Division of the American Expeditionary Forces and for 18 months saw active service along the front lines in France.

The candidate was engaged in the drug business at Westbrook during four years, after which the business was moved to Colorado. The store was sold to Chas. R. Farris. In these enterprises he was associated with his brother, Gilbert Quinney, at present manager of the Colorado Drug Company. Mr. Quinney is now associated with the Max Berman department store.

"I have entered my name as a candidate for county clerk after receiving suggestion from a number of Mitchell county voters that I do so," Quinney stated. "I feel that in offering my candidacy for this important political position I must necessarily possess certain qualifications if the people in whose province it is to give me the post are to be assured of an administration of credit to every one concerned."

"It is my ambition to realize nomination as your county clerk because I need the position it carries and in asking consideration of the voters I hold that I am fitted in every respect for making the kind of public servant that every citizen has the right to expect. I pledge my devoted at-of nine members. The fixe executors to no group or individual."

ters size silver basketball for winning the championship, and Wylie, as runner-up, received an ornate cup. Other cups went to the winner and runner-up teams in the consolations.

Miniature gold basketballs were given members of the all-tournament team, selected by vote of the coaches, to the high scorer in championship play, the high scorer in the consolations, and to the player displaying the greatest sportsmanship. Players receiving the greatest number of votes for the all-tournament team, positions disregarded, were Elvie Stagner, Colorado, forward; Gordon Wood, Wylie, forward; Jack Cox, Colorado, center; Bucket Hare, Big Spring, guard; Morris Ashley, Dunn, forward. Wood came nearer unanimous selection than any other player, and Stagner was second in the balloting.

Cox of Colorado, with 68 points, led scoring in the championship division of the tournament. Thomas Horton of Loraine was first in the consolations.

The sportsmanship award was won by George Neel of Big Spring.

Barnhart, located south of San Angelo, received a cup for traveling the greatest distance to attend the meet.

Results of the tournament games were as follows:

EDITORIAL
 It will soon be time to start a new term. Why not wipe the past out and begin anew? This year offers any opportunities for high grades and exemptions and it is possible to use the past grades to passing. Be ambitious enough to study a little and keep a notebook up, then when the end of this school year comes you will not be a rush for preference books to get up past work. Do not let some friend or pal do his years work for you for they will not always be with you when you need them in later life. Begin now and be reliable, honest, and studious.

ADJURY TO BASKETBALL STAR
 Omer Rodgers, an important cog in the Wolf machine, suffered a badly sprained ankle during practice Monday afternoon. This leaves a great gap in the Colorado team as it was a main factor in their winning the basketball tournament. This is an opportunity for someone to show up that has not had a regular position on the team although it still a question who will take his place until he recovers.

BASKETBALL NEWS
 The Colorado Wolves will have an entirely strange team on their own court Thursday night. They go against El Paso High school for the first time in the history of either school. In the history of basketball will be found that El Paso High school has won more State championships than any other school in the State. It has been reported that its team will be no exception. The Wolves have also proven to be a strong team and will be hard to beat. Any team in this section of the state and are depending on the cooperation of the student body to back them up.

The Colorado girls will play the soccer team on the Wolves' court Friday night. The girls have attained the honor of being undefeated and hope to retain that honor Friday night. It has been said that this team is the best girls team to form the Wolf uniform and one of the best looking teams in West Texas. On the same night the Ira girls will go against the Westbrook team. Colorado has defeated both Roscoe and Westbrook in previous engagements.

NOTES FROM THE TOURNAMENT
 The Wolves proved themselves a smooth working quintet when they won the tournament here last Saturday night by defeating Wylie. On the same day they downed the Dunn and Abilene eagles.

 Colorado had a good tournament. Our guests seemed to enjoy themselves and some of them even stayed over an extra night.
 The Wolves placed two men on the all-tournament team, chosen by the coaches attending the meet, and composed of the following men:
 Forwards, Stagner (Colorado), Woods (Wylie); Center, Cox (Colorado); Guards, Hare (Bog Spring), Ashley (Dunn).

MY FELLOW STUDENT—WHOM I'D LIKE TO CHOKE
 1. The nuisance or pest of any school is the student who forgets to take his weekly dip on Saturday night, and the one who doesn't use Listerine. A student in this condition makes it very unpleasant for anyone sitting near him.

2. Another is a boy and girl who have a case of puppy love, and are in the same study hall, but sit on opposite sides of the room and insist on your passing notes for them.

3. Another nuisance is one who asks the teacher if she said so or something knows very well what she said in the first place, and asks that merely to take up time.

4. Another nuisance is one who leaves bits of paper and torn up notes in the desk, which keep falling out while one is sitting there.

5. Another is the pupil or pupils who throw paper wads, erasers, chalk or anything else available, while the teacher is out of the room. This sort of pest is very rare however in this high school.

VOCATIONAL NEWS
 There is not much news to tell you this week but maybe you would like to know how things are carried on up here.

We are never allowed to sit on the desk—But we do.
 We are never allowed to wander around—But we do.

We are never allowed to talk in class—But we do.
 We are never allowed to chew gum in class—But we do.

I mean we do IF we don't get caught.
 New classes have been started for the last semester. CWA classes have been started and are open to every one. Wilma Rogers is going to teach shorthand, typing, and bookkeeping.

WONDERS WILL NEVER CEASE—No one in high school taking shorthand or typing failed the last six weeks.

FRESHMAN NEWS
 There will be quite a few exempt this semester. The exams will come Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week.

The History exams will be Wednesday afternoon at 2:00.
 Those exempt were: Jo Axtell, Lucille Bodine, Myra Brown, Annetta Lacey, Mary Frances Mackey, Mary Elizabeth Pidgeon, Nina Laura Smith, Irene Dossey, De Lou Knief, Carlton Burt, Hiram Duffer and Ewing Lee.

The English exam will be Thursday at 8:00. Those exempt were: Carlton Burt, Hiram Duffer, Ewing Lee, Blanch McCarty, Jo Axtell, Lucille Bodine, Myra Brown, Marybel Crosthwaite, Frances Elliott, Annetta Lacey, Mary Frances Mackey, Alyne Moore, Mary Elizabeth Pidgeon, Nina Laura Smith and Margarette Walding.

The algebra exam will come Friday at 8:00. There were more exemptions in this than any other thing. Among those included were: Lucille Bodine, Vinda Bohannon, Myra Brown, Catherine Delaney, Frances Elliott, Annetta Lacey, Mary Frances Mackey, Alyne Moore, Nina Laura Smith, Rebecca Smoot, Margarette Walding, Raymond Franklin, Hiram Duffer, Ewing Lee, Blanch McCarty, Estell Dunlap, Nadine Hammond, Magdaline Hulce and Carlton Burt.

IB HOME EC. NEWS
 We have now finished our home projects and nearly finished our dresses.

On our dresses for our class projects we are making pinked seams. Most of our patterns are simple so we can finish them in a short time.

Friday morning, Mr. Pierce, representing the Singer Sewing Machine company gave us a demonstration on how to clean machines. A portion of the class modeled their pajamas and each member of the class graded them while they were being modeled.

Tomorrow the remainder of the class will model their home project. A member of our class is moving. Pauline Looney will be missed by all of us.

1ST YEAR FOOD CLASS
 The Home Economics girls are working on low-cost adequate diet for breakfast and supper. Their problem is to plan the breakfast and supper for a family of five for five days. The family lives in a two-room house. The father works three days a week for CWA securing $10 a week. The mother attends the adult class in Home Economics three days a week. The children, Jane, age 2, Jack, age 4, and Mary, age 6 attend the Nursery school 4 days a week.

FRANCES COFFMAN.

THIRD YEAR H. E.
 The infants garments made by the third year class will be used by families on the Relief Roll.

AGRICULTURE CLASSES
 The Agriculture and H. E. classes recently ordered two plays, "The Red-Headed Steppichid," and "Always in Trouble." These plays are to be presented about the first of February, and the proceeds will go to defraying the expenses of the trips which the two classes will take later in the year.

PARENTS AND TEACHERS MEET
 The second meeting of the Junior High P. T. A. was held Tuesday, January 16 in the library of the Junior High building.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. R. S. Hubbard. Mrs. E. L. Grubbs gave the invocation.

This meeting, which was of a purely business nature, had an attendance of thirty-six members.

Miss Durell Davidson, chairman of the Program Committee, stated the plans of the Program Committee for the year, to be based upon material sent from the State organization. The parts are to be given out a month in advance.

The minutes of the last meeting and those of a call meeting of the Executive Committee were read by Mrs. Grubbs, secretary. Both sets of minutes were approved as read and recommendations drawn up by the Executive Committee were voted upon.

These recommendations were as follows:
 That the name of the organization be the Colorado Junior High Parent-Teacher Association.

That the local organization join, and be affiliated with, the national and State organizations.

That dues of fifty cents per year be charged. Of this amount, twenty cents is to go to the State organization and five cents is to go to the national organization.

That the suggested by-laws for local organizations, affiliated with the State and national organization, be adopted, amending them in such a way as to make the president a member of the nominating committee.

That the time of meeting be set as the third Tuesdays of each month. All of the above recommendations were accepted by unanimous vote without change.

Mrs. Dodge was unanimously elected to the office of corresponding secretary of the organization.

The following appointive officers and committees were announced by the president: Mrs. W. L. Doss, Jr., Parliamentarian; Nell Harper Greene, Publicity Chairman.

A motion was made and seconded to send that organization a letter of appreciation for this gift. A membership of 36 paid memberships was reported by Mrs. Scott at the close of the meeting.

Mrs. J. T. Howell, reporting for the Membership committee, gave the results of a membership contest conducted by the Junior High children. The contest was scheduled to close today, but has been extended to close Tuesday of next week. In this contest the room that brought in the greatest percent of paid-up memberships is to receive choice of five prizes. These include a picnic, a moving picture show party, a globe of the world for their room, a picture, or a book.

Mrs. H. G. Whitmore, reporting for the Ways and Means Committee, discussed a proposition made that committee by the Writers' Club. The P.T.A. voted to adopt this proposition, in which the organization agrees to sponsor a play put on by the Writers' Club. This play, "Now and Then," will be presented soon in the High School auditorium.

Mr. Hayes Holman made an appeal for newspapers and magazines to be turned over to the CWA for adult education. This gathering of reading material is to be handled through the school.

Mrs. Hubbard reported that Mrs. Thomas Head, prominent P.T.A. worker in San Angelo would meet with the local organization soon.

POEM
A Happy Boy
 By a small, shadowy, beekering brook,
 Where the water's trickling slow,
 With line, pole and fishing hook,
 A boy with muddy trousers goes.

As he sits with his chin in his hand
 And waits for a nibble or a bit,
 The happiest boy on this land
 Living just as he wishes he might.
 By Blanchie Bess Jones.

TOKENS BETTER THAN GOLD

Cline Taylor of Lorraine visited this office Wednesday afternoon to personally give expression of his appreciation of The Record and the policies it has ever maintained.

To merit the confidence of the people is the first ambition held by the publishers. Such tokens are worth more than silver and gold and serve to cement what our determination to publish a county newspaper reflecting credit to both the men directing its destinies and the public at large.

There are many other citizens of this county from whom similar evidence of confidence and good will have come. We note with grateful appreciation the fact that circulation of The Record is today larger in the Colorado area than at any time during the past three years.

LIVING LIONISM

It is one thing to subscribe to certain tenets or codes and another thing to make such the precept of one's life. In this thought members of the Lions Club at Sweetwater recently portrayed in an impressive light the plan to build individually and collectively into the most useful citizenship opportunity and ability may permit.

After voting unanimously to declare that the business and professional interests of their home town were the equal of any to be found in Texas, those Lions pledged to support Sweetwater grocers, dry goods dealers and other merchants, doctors, lawyers, ministers and other factors going to make up her business and professional life to the preference of all others.

Such a program is not a boycott. It is not even a gesture against similar interests in another community. It is but the demonstration of that kind of loyal citizenship that will build for progress and good will.

THE CITIZENS DUTY

But a few days remain in which citizens of Mitchell county may equip themselves with a poll tax, requisite to exercising their rights of suffrage in the elections due in 1934. The year gives promise of developing one of the outstanding political scenes Texas has witnessed in several years, with scores of important precinct, county, district and State offices to be filled.

The Record hopes that potential voting strength of this county will be registered at the polls. Two of the elections due to take place in the Summer will be most important. The July primary election and the run-off contest to follow after four weeks will directly concern every citizen.

Pay your poll tax today. It is the citizen's duty to exercise voice in the elections out ahead.

The attraction of solitude is as strong for them as the power of sociability, and their lives show it. Our own life after-all shows it too. What we really prefer is solitude with company near at hand, or the reverse. Hence our delight, a deep and primitive satisfaction, in situations where we are at the same time alone and in company, the concert, a reading-room, an out-of-the-way church where vespers are being draped, as we think, on purpose to rest us and give us peace.

Society is here, of course, with all its possibilities, and we cannot do as if we were isolated caverns, but we must make use of society—not surrender to it by making ourselves exaggeratedly dependent upon it. Our first duty to society is to be somebody, that is to say, be ourselves, and we can only be ourselves if we are often enough by ourselves. If we are enough of human beings worth the name to be engrossed by some constructive thought, vision, or resolve, we shall never find ourselves about to succumb to a desperate loneliness. Company will come to us, for a man aglow with some such spiritual flame is magnetic and attracts more than he needs to carry out what he has conceived.

READ GOOD BOOKS

This columnist has a library of a few less than 1000 books. We average reading about 10 hours out of every 24.

By means of books we can march with the war-worn spearman of Alexander the Great beyond the rim of the known world and watch this conqueror as he tears new dynasties amid the wreck of dismantled kingdoms.

We can hear grate on the coast of Britain the keels of the boats of the low Dutch sea thieves whose children's children were to inherit unknown continents. We can travel afar and thrill to the triumphs of Hannibal as he scales the Alps and rushes down their icy adobe into sunny Italy to threaten the Roman Dominion. We can walk with Peary amid the ice floes of Arctic seas, go beyond time centuries and see the banners float above armed hosts and conquerors riding to victories that have changed the course of time, go with Columbus until he touches the shores of a new world, with Magellan as he girdles the globe, with Hugh Miller among the rocks, with Galileo and Newton among star gardens, with Faraday among the universes of atoms and electrons.

We can journey on pathless oceans, listen to prophesies of forgotten seers, to dead poets singing to us the deeds of mighty men and the love of beautiful women, to the war horns King Olaf wail across the floods, to harps sounding high festivals in forgotten hulk. We can sit down with the Kings of Nineveh and Tyre, enter at leisure into the intellectual heritage of centuries, see all the kingdoms of the world with the glories and tragedies thereof, and walk with the noblest spirits through the most sublime and enhancing regions.

Thus we get some conception of the power of a book. And when we use a book we see how the hand pulls back the curtain from the events of a life, and helps us travel to the uttermost parts in time and space. We understand how wars that devastated continents rage, without creating a disturbance in a mirror room. We see how, without moving from cozy nook or swinging hammock or warm fireside, we can travel through jungles with an explorer, fight Indians with Custer, or take a flight into the high realms where Shakespeare's marvelous creations flock to meet us and Milton's choral hymns of paradise peal in our hearts.

A good book is a ship of thought, voyaging to us with precious cargo of truth and beauty. A good book is an artist painting the vision splendid in various colors before the dull eyes, an orator speaking with power, a soloist singing a song that, passing from itself, enters the memory with great transfiguration. A good book is an author, writing the literature of godliness on the fleshy tablets of human hearts, a jeweler adorning the mind with thoughts that give light. A good book is a comrade giving instructions, continuing with us on the intellectual road, in mute fidelity from childhood to the end of life.

A good book is a tailor, keeping the rustle of fine garments in the ear, a musician building before the eyes of the soul rhythmic palaces of melody, a pilot guiding away from the shadows into the deep things of life, of history, of love, of God. A good book is a telescope and microscope in one, showing us God's signature, written sometimes hugely large and sometimes very small, on every page of this universe, God's autograph album.

A lady musician of Colorado writes in to this columnist asking us to express our views on Grand Opera and enters complaint against the poor patronage given grand opera when it comes to Texas and intimates that no much can be expected of people who turn away from grand opera and applaud jazz.

Probably people who are musically inclined could be educated up to the point that would enable them to like grand opera, just as some have been educated up to the point of relishing olives and carrots, but this writer hopes he will not live to see the day

Rotan Man Charged In Robbery Staged Near Sweetwater

SWEETWATER.—Trial of Bill Robertson, well known Sweetwater man charged in connection with the alleged $2,500 robbery of a Rotan farmer, is scheduled to get under way in 32nd district court here next Thursday.

The case was set this week by Judge A. S. Mauzey. Robertson, indicted a few days ago by the current Nolan county grand jury, was in jail Thursday pending making bond. He had previously been at liberty under bail.

Oliver Guess was also charged by complaint in connection with the robbery of W. A. Noles, 59, who is alleged to have been attacked and robbed on the Santa Fe Lake road a short distance from the city on the night of Nov. 15.

Noles was brought into town by a woman companion, and when officers were called Noles said two men had attacked him as he sat in his car, robbing him of $2,500 in currency. He reported he was dragged from his car, sustaining a broken leg and numerous body bruises.

Oliver Guess is at liberty under bond. No report has been made on his case by the grand jury. Jim Watts, Abilene, is at liberty on bond under a complaint charging perjury, as an aftermath of the case. He was charged in connection with testimony made at a habeas corpus hearing for Guess concerning his ability to act as Guess' bondsman.

Uncle Sam Collects $50,000,000 Tax From Delinquents

Upward of $50,000,000 of back tax payments has been paid into the treasury by evaders, internal revenue officers at Washington estimated as the government intensified a drive to obtain the last cent legitimately due in long-pending income tax cases.

Some estimates of the sum were as high as $100,000,000. These payments were credited to a campaign begun last summer by the commissioner of internal revenue.

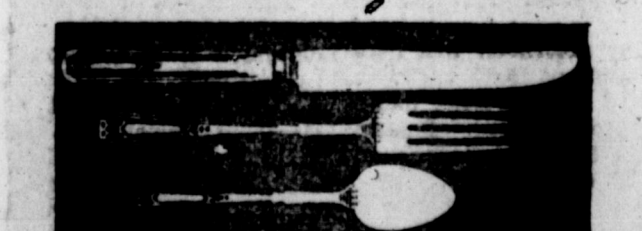

Belief that prosecutions would eventuate from the income tax drive was expressed in high official quarters. There was suspicion that inexcusable laxity in handling tax cases would be revealed in some instances.

POST MEXICAN REPAYS AID GIVEN BY CHARITY

John Herd, chairman of the Garza County Chapter, American Red Cross, and who is well known in Colorado, tells an interesting story of one Felix Ramirez, Post Mexican, who three years ago was in dire circumstances and received $47.50 in groceries for his family.

"Mebbe me some time pay," the Mexican stated as he went away with the provisions. But the case was forgotten until the other day when he breezed into the Red Cross office and counted out $47.50 in cash, requesting that the money be employed to relieve some one in distress.

The following letter was received by Rachel Wood, a Rogers 7th grade pupil, in reply to a letter that she wrote to gain information and make an acquaintance from another State:

Dear Rachel: Our seventh grade class received your letter December fourteenth, just five days after you had mailed it. It was a great puzzle to the class at first, because we did not know how your letter happened to get to our school. When Miss Conlin came into the room Thursday noon she found your letter on her desk. As we were the first hour class she read your letter to us. About seven or eight of the girls in our room wanted to write to you. You will probably receive quite a few letters.

The name of our school is Lincoln School. It is located on the corners of Lincoln and Detroit avenues, and extends back one whole block. There are several grade schools in Toledo which have grades from the first to the eighth. Several junior high schools and about six high schools.

Lincoln school is quite different from your school. We have twelve hundred pupils and about thirty-six teachers. Each teacher has a home-room class. They are as follows:

Miss Conlin teaches history, Mrs. Simmons teaches science, Mrs. Sephor teaches English, Miss Goodall teaches arithmetic, Mrs. Backers teaches art, Mrs. Ellis teaches cooking, Miss Fisher teaches sewing.

My homeroom teacher's name is Miss Goodall. We have Miss Sephor for gym, also you said you love all of your teachers, well I am more than fond of every teacher I have this year, especially Miss Conlin.

My name is Jane Keller. I am twelve years old, about five foot one one half inches tall, weight ninety-three pounds. I have brown hair, blue eyes, and a quite fair complexion.

I don't know as much about Toledo's history as I should, but I do know that it got its name from "Toledo, Spain." I live in Lucas county in Northwestern Ohio.

Do you have an orchestra in your school? We do. I play the piano for our orchestra, and like it very much. I am going on my sixth year in music (piano lessons). I have always liked music and I think I always will. The orchestra is not as big this year as in former years. There are two cellos, one drummer, two clarinets one cornet, and one piano.

Do you know how to cook? I do. I have cooked and baked for almost two years. I am usually the one who bakes the cakes we eat around our house.

I am the oldest child in our family. I have a brother who is ten years old and in the fifth grade, and a sister who is six and in the first. You should hear her read. She follows you all over the house to read to you, until you think you never want to hear anybody read again.

I have enjoyed your letter very much and hope I will hear from you often. I enjoy corresponding with somebody whom I have not seen. If you ever want to write to me my address is at the beginning of this letter. I am sure I will be glad to hear from you often.

Hope you have a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. I am sending you this necklace as a token of friendship.

Love, JANE KELLER.

Taylor, Lorainé, assistant cashier, and present officials of the Lorainé First State Bank were re-elected at a stockholders meeting held in directors room of the bank Tuesday, January 9th.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday school attendance was fine Sunday morning with 166 present and the budget going several dollars above the required amount. We should strive for an attendance of 200 each Sunday.

The pastor brought fine messages Sunday at both services. Sunday night his text was found in 2 Cor. 9:15: "Thanks Be Unto God for His Unspeakable Gift." The quartet sang "Just The Right Savior," Sunday morning.

Fifty-four were present in B. T. S. Sunday evening. Doris Mahoney, a Junior, led in a short prayer service for the beginning of the general assembly. She read Psalm 1st and led the service in her own charming way. The Primary union was the banner union again and the Adults second, Sunday evening. We urge more adults to give their lives for service, then our young people will live better lives.

IV. Special Demonstrations.

6 special poultry demonstrations were given on correct killing of poultry for marketing or canning.

6. cheese demonstrations were given to show how raw milk could be utilized for the use on the farm. Stress has been laid on the use of more cottage cheese by rural people. Some 15 women reported making cooked or processed cheese for their children's school lunches.

A food preparation demonstration on steamed puddings and fruit cakes were given to show how inexpensive Christmas sweets could be made.

The value of the work reported by the women and girls is estimated as follows:

	Women	Girls
Bedroom Imp'vt	$349.00	$131.90
Clothing	1167.75	315.35
Canning	5442.22	1485.32
	$6958.97	$1932.58
Grand Total		$8,891.55

In carrying on Extension Work the following numbers were reached:

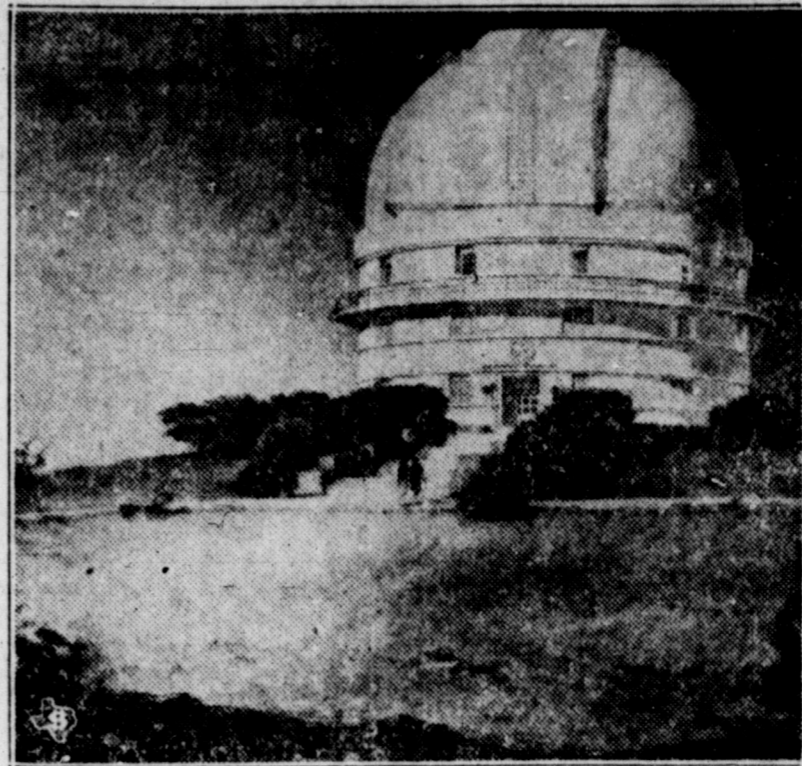

- 199 1/2 days spent in field work.
- 200 home visits.
- 99 1/2 days spent in office work.
- 400 farm visits.
- 250 office calls.
- 463 letters written with 18 circular letters mailed out.

The Mitchell County Council met in regular session January 13th with all adult clubs represented. The main business of the meeting was the election of council officers for 1934 as follows: Chairman, Mrs. Frank Andrews of Hyman; Secretary Treasurer, Mrs. Jack Gullett, of Iatan; Assistant Secretary, Mrs. R. C. Sublet of Spade. After the election, Standing Rules were adopted.

Each club reported what they had done their first meeting this year. Special and standing committees will be appointed by the Chairman and read at the February meeting of Council. The Farm Housing Survey being conducted in 25 Texas counties was explained since two neighboring counties are being included, Nolan and Tom Green. The magazines designated for the clubs discussion were given out. After refreshments the Council adjourned at 4:30 P. M. to meet again February 10th at 2 P. M.

The following girls clubs have meetings this week: Buford, Loraine, Hyman, and Conaway and organizations are to be perfected at Lone Star and Carr. All of the clubs have not selected their three demonstrators, Clothing, Bedroom Improvement and Food Preservation, but will do so at their earliest convenience. Miss Gunter with a selected judge

New Picture of Mount Locke Observatory

Here is a new artist's conception of the McDonald Observatory, now under construction on the peak of Mount Locke, 7000 feet high in the Davis mountains of West Texas. The University of Texas and Chicago university are building the observatory with a $1,000,000 endowment given by the late William J. McDonald of Paris, Texas. The observatory will have an 80-inch telescope and rank with Lick and Yerkes among the nation's greatest astronomical institutions.

Protein Should Be Fed Hogs For Home Butchering, College Expert Announces

"Hogs for home killing should not be too big or fat," Paul G. Adams, live stock specialist at the Oklahoma A. & M. College, says, in advising farmers how to fatten hogs for home slaughter.

Good healthy young hogs, weighing 225 to 250 pounds, are ideal for home use, Mr. Adams advises. "A hog of this weight," he says, "will produce moderate-sized cuts, and will have a more desirable proportion of fat and lean. Heavier hogs will produce more lard."

"The condition of finish should be such that the carcasses will cut up firm and with little shrinkage. Most people prefer more lean than fat meat. Very fat hogs usually will produce more lard than is needed by the average family. The weight of lard rendered from a 200-pound hog will range between 7 1/2 and 10 pounds, and lard from a 250 to 300-pound hog between 15 and 18 percent."

"In selecting hogs that are to be fattened for a home meat supply, it is well to remember that good, healthy hogs, free from abnormal conditions or deformities, and that are smooth and moderately well finished, produce the best meat. Young hogs that are full through the hams and loins, with long, deep sides, produce the best meat for a home supply."

In order to get choice hogs that will yield the best carcasses, the feeding of a well-balanced ration is very important. Since a correct mixture of lean and fat is desirable, a ration containing a relatively high per cent of protein is necessary. The feeding of a protein supplement in addition to fattening grain will produce a larger per cent of lean meat. Pigs that receive a balanced ration will grow and fatten 50 to 100 per cent faster, and the meat will be more tender for that reason.

Some of the best grains for fattening hogs for home use this year are corn, barley, kafir, darso and milo. Wheat is good for fattening hogs, but the present price makes its use practically prohibitive.

Wheat and corn have about the same fattening value. Kafir is conceded to be about 92 per cent as efficient as corn in producing pork. Milo maize and feterrita are slightly less valuable than kafir. Darso and kafir in producing pork. Barley has a feeding value slightly greater than that of kafir.

Two of the best protein supplements on the farm are skim milk and buttermilk. Where skim milk is available, a good balanced ration consists of two to three pounds of skim milk to one pound of grain. The same rule applies to use of buttermilk. Tankage is the best commercial protein supplement.

Cottonseed meal is used more now than in the past, but tests indicate it is not as good as tankage when fed as the only protein supplement. The following rations are suggested by Mr. Adams for fattening hogs weighing 150 to 250 pounds, fed for home use in a dry lot:

Ration 1.—Grain one part, consisting of corn, kafir, milo, or other suitable fattening grain; skim milk or buttermilk two to three parts.

Ration 2.—Grain ninety parts, tankage ten parts. If alfalfa meal is available, the ration can be slightly improved by using ninety parts grain, nine parts tankage and one part alfalfa meal.

Ration 3.—Forty parts corn, kafir or milo; twenty parts wheat shorts and one part alfalfa meal.

Another ration, including tankage and alfalfa, is composed of grain eighty-five parts, tankage five parts and alfalfa meal one part. If cottonseed meal costs less than half the price of tankage, it may be substituted for tankage up to two-thirds of the amount of the protein supplement.

Best results in combining cottonseed meal and tankage are obtained by using one part of cottonseed meal and one of tankage. Two parts of tankage to one part of cottonseed meal has proved more satisfactory at the Oklahoma experiment station in fattening hogs than a larger per cent of cottonseed meal in the ration.

Where pasture is available, the daily rate of gain in hogs ordinarily can be increased 30 to 100 per cent, and the amount of grain to produce 100 pounds of pork can be reduced 15 to 50 per cent. Where one has no pasture, the amount of protein supplement required to balance the ration is materially increased.

Those interested in information on killing, curing and canning pork of the farm can secure such information from the extension service of the Oklahoma A. & M. College, from the county agents, or by writing directly to the extension division at Still water.

NRA Violators Will Face Court Trials, Washington States

The Administration gave indications Saturday at Washington that it was preparing, after long delay, to start a major offensive against NRA code violators.

President Roosevelt took personal charge of the troublesome Weirton Steel Corporation fight over collective bargaining, conferring with interested cabinet members and recovery officials.

Two coal companies were cited to the Department of Justice for investigation and possible prosecution. Another was cited to the Federal Trade Commission.

The collective bargaining dispute with the E. C. Budd Company of Philadelphia has been placed in the hands of the National Compliance Board for action.

An undercurrent of feeling has existed in Washington for some time that the recovery program was losing prestige because of the lack of active enforcement policy. These actions appeared to indicate that the administration now shares that viewpoint and intends to put its powers to test.

Meanwhile the Petroleum Administration Board which has been more active than the NRA in prosecuting code cases, announced that prosecutions would be started in Nebraska if oil retailers there continued reported sales at less than cost.

Farm Income For 1933 Double That Of Year Previous

Total income of southern cotton growers from the 1933 crop was estimated by the farm administration as more than twice that received in 1932.

This figure includes rental payments and potential option profits, the crop reporting board of the department of agriculture said.

The farm value of lint cotton for the 1933 season was placed by the board at $617,716,990 as compared with $317,610,000 in 1932.

In addition to the lint cotton value, rental payments totaling $11,528,000 have been distributed and farmers who participated in the plow-up program last summer are now receiving about $48,000,000 in profits on cotton options which they held.

The income from cottonseed in 1933 was estimated at $19,532,000 compared with $53,627,000 in 1932, making the gross income from last year's cotton crop $856,776,000 compared with $25,188,000 in 1932.

You say you don't draw the shades in your show windows. Well, DO you draw the shades in the biggest window of them all, in the window that everyone sees, in the window that sells thousands of dollars worth of merchandise overnight? That window is the advertising pages of The Colorado Record.

A window which doesn't wait for prospective buyers to pass by, but goes right into their homes and demands attention. Give your merchandise the sort of display it deserves. The public won't buy what it doesn't know about, no matter how strong the inducements, or how big the bargain. The Colorado Record show window should be YOUR show window.
