PLANTERS IN EVERY PART OF COUNTY RALLY STRONG SUPPORT TO COTTON PACT

Production Limit Cut Along With Extension In Which Contracts Be Signed

Mitchell county is going "over the top" in drive to curtail cotton acreage during this and next year. Ben J. Baskin, county farm agent, announced Thursday morning after making a check of cotton production in all parts of the county. A total of 530 contracts, affecting 25,404 acres, had been received and a large number of the conclusion forms were still in hands of community committees.

"The drive is going over almost one hundred percent in some communities," Baskin declared. "Our commitment at Westbrook reported Wednesday afternoon they had 25 contracts in the office there affecting 1,383 acres and along with that information predicted that Westbrook area would align with the administration from 98 to 99 percent." The agent stated that Lorraine community had accepted the acreage control pact practically as universally as reported from Westbrook.

Several additional contracts would have been concluded here and other communities of the county but for the fact Baskin and his co-workers ran out of blank forms Tuesday. A van was sent to College Station requesting an additional supply.

Cutting minimum acreage average from 100 to 75 pounds lint will induce even more farmers of the county to enter into contract with the government to curtail acreage. Baskin stated. Along with the minimum acreage announcement from Washington that time in which the contracts may be concluded had been extended to February 15.

"Another demonstration that Mitchell county is to continue loyal to the government, and at the same time take advantage of a program out of which general benefit to all our people will accrue," Baskin said in announcing the results of the drive.

CONAWAY PRINCIPAL ASKS VOTERS' SUPPORT ON HIS QUALIFICATIONS FOR 'JOB'

H. C. (Jimmy) Beal Hopes To Win Nomination As County School Superintendent

H. C. (Jimmy) Beal, principal of Conaway school, who Wednesday afternoon made formal announcement of his candidacy for county school superintendent, is member of a pioneer Mitchell county family. The son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Beal and grandson of the late H. C. (Guff) Beal, who came to this section in 1882, taking up permanent residence in 1885, his people have been identified with the ranching business for half a century in this section.

For several years his father, now manager of the White Elephant ranch, was identified with the commercial interests of Colorado. In all these generations the Beals have been outstanding as progressive citizens, giving liberally of their best endeavor for the advancement of this county.

Beal attended school at Spade and Colorado, graduating from the former high school. He later entered Texas Christian University, Fort Worth, among the outstanding educational institutions of the Southwest, and received his A. B. and M. A. degrees there. While taking his master's work Beal was elected as member of the faculty at T. C. U., and occupied positions of leadership throughout his residence in the school.

Under his supervision as principal the Conaway school has been advanced by the State department of education to distinction of the first rural junior high school in the State. However, his work has not been confined to the field of education. He has been employed in other public enterprises, meeting the public in them all.

In speaking of his candidacy Mr. Beal said:

"If elected to the office of county superintendent I pledge myself to give an administration which will be economical, sound in business principles, and in all cases devoted to the betterment of the school system of this county. I shall cooperate with the people to the best of my ability. I am fully acquainted with the problems of the rural school, and assure you that they shall be met in a sane and capable manner.

"No better qualifications than those I have outlined can be offered to the voters of the county, and those who know me will attest to the truthfulness of the statements. I shall greatly appreciate the earnest and sincere consideration of every voter, and I am sure none will have cause to regret marking the ballot in my favor."

News of Club Girls And Women

In the interest of helping the club girls make their bedrooms more attractive, comfortable and meet the needs of the girl, Mrs. J. W. Shepherd and Miss Emma Gunter, scored three club girls rooms Friday after school. The girls visited were Mildred Feaster of Buford, Novalee Groom of Lone Star and Katha Lee Harrell of Loraine. Tuesday afternoon three more will be scored. Jarce Burford of Rogers, Melba Ruth Adams of Carr and Opal Leach of Conaway. Friday the room of Florice Andrews of Hyman will be scored by Miss Gunter. Pictures will be made of the rooms before and after improvement. These girls are to work until the last of May on the improving of their rooms then a county elimination will be held and the winners announced.

Early in June the winning room will be scored by a District Agent who will decide upon the winners in District No. 3. Soon afterward a State committee will visit the district winners to decide upon the State winners, and the State prize winners will be announced at the A. & M. Short Course in July at A. & M. College. Progress stories of the girls in the contest will be printed from time to time.

All of the demonstrators in the girls and womens clubs have been selected, making a total of 36. These demonstrators are to be visited once per month by the agent in the interest of their demonstration. Each organized club must have three demonstrators, one in clothing, bedroom improvement and garden and food preservation. Stories of the work of these demonstrators will be published each week. The following girls have been enrolled as clothing demonstrators in their respective clubs:

Doris Hammond, Buford; Esther Schuster, Hyman; Eunice Walker, Lone Star; Lola Mearse, Loraine; Leona Moon, Conaway; Jewel Smith, Silver; Lois Bynum, Rogers; and Nita Bess Daniel, Carr.

All cooperators and demonstrators are completing their school slip by the 17th of February and the three best ones are to be exhibited. Then the three best ones selected from the 24 will be judged for prizes. The next lesson in clothing will be on one machine attachment. Each girl will be expected to make something using an attachment they select to learn to use, such as the binder, tucker, or hemmer.

A very enthusiastic club girl, Novalee Groom, president of the Lone Star club and bedroom improvement demonstrator promises to work hard on her room so that she too can be present at the club girls banquet to be held for bedroom improvement demonstrators at A. & M. College this coming July. Novalee realizes she has much to do but seems to be eager to work. She has the following listed improvements to make: Papering of walls, refinishing of floors, building a clothes closet, making a vanity dresser, braiding a rug, working on bedding and upholstering a rocker. It would not be possible for Novalee to undertake such a big task were it not for the encouragement and backing her mother is giving her.

Mildred Feaster, of Buford club, bedroom improvement demonstrator has a north-west room, size 13x11 ft. which promises to give Mildred plenty of work to do from now until the end of the contest. Upon scoring Mildred's room the following work will be planned: Paper walls, finish floor, paint congolem rug, make a storage place for bed linens and bed covers, upholster a chair and add some bathing equipment. The main thing to start on in February is the problem of upholstering a chair and each club girl is supposed to refinish a chair or upholster a chair for their bedroom. Mildred should be able to accomplish much for her mother is interested in her work and will be counted upon in lending aid when needed.

"Mr. Berger told me that he had lived on his home place more than twenty years and never failed during any year to realize a good profit from his efforts. Roosevelt anniversary balls given in Colorado and more than 5,000 other communities throughout the nation Tuesday evening, Sunday night were attacked by Rev. H. Virgil Reynolds, pastor of Trinity Baptist church, Abilene.

COMPULSION FOR CURBING COTTON PRODUCTION SEEN IN OFFICIAL WASHINGTON

Plan Is Intended For Chislers, And Would Exact Excess Production Tax

Announcement coming from Capitol Hill, Washington, Monday that the farm administration had on that day faced its first major change in policy as it awaited reaction from cotton planters to a plan for compulsory government restriction on production was received with considerable interest in Colorado.

It appeared to be a foregone conclusion, however, that the compulsory plan, as contracted with the voluntary restriction now in force, would be instituted. Officials of the cotton section predicted that sentiment of cotton farmers would be overwhelmingly in support of the move.

Such control would mean a complete reversal of action in the cotton belt. The cotton program to date, both in the 1933 plow-up campaign and the present year's acreage reduction activities, has been voluntary, although the opportunity of increased income through rental and benefit payments, cotton loans, and profits on options in most cases has made it highly profitable for farmers to cooperate.

Aimed at what farm officials termed, "a small minority of chislers," the compulsory restrictions would prohibit the marketing of cotton in excess of demand. Either a prohibitive tax on the excess or actual prohibition of ginnings would be employed.

Such a program, officials declared, would be supplemental to the voluntary acreage reduction program now under way which they claimed, was as good as fully accomplished.

Such a voluntary effort to increase prices by eliminating 16,585,000 cotton acres from production this year can only fail, the administration declared, through lack of cooperation of a few farmers, in each community who would not sign acreage reduction contracts. But, instead, would seek to increase their acreage and, by intensive cultivation, stimulate output of their acres.

Sentiment has been rising in southern communities against such endangering of the program, officials said.

To ascertain the strength of this feeling the cotton section of the farm administration mailed questionnaires last week at the suggestion of President Roosevelt to about 52,000 farmers asking if they approved of such a compulsory plan and inquiring which method of achieving results they favored—the tax or the quota system.

The administration favors the taxation scheme in the belief that it would stand a better chance of being upheld in the courts and would be easier to administer.

HUGE SUM IS SOUGHT IN ROOSEVELT RELIEF DRIVE AS ANNOUNCED SATURDAY

President Asks Congress To Finance Emergency Bill To Stay Employment

President Roosevelt Saturday asked congress for $950,000,000 to continue the emergency relief program. That was $100,000,000 more than the $850,000,000 for direct relief and $350,000,000 for civil works the president, originally, contemplated asking.

Speculation as to whether the increased figure was Mr. Roosevelt's answer to the nation-wide cry against demobilization of the civil works army by May 1 at the latest brought a repetition at the White House of the president's statement that he still wants civil works and employs transferred to public works and private industry's payroll by late spring.

The president, by his message, however, would be free to continue the program beyond the deadline he wants, and Rainey said today that civil works would have to continue at least the rest of the fiscal year.

Meanwhile, as a part of his intensive drive to keep civil works free from graft and politics, Harry L. Hopkins, administrator, Saturday ordered all state administrators to make their records available for public inspection.

"I want to make it perfectly clear that all civil works records and records of purchases of supplies are public records and therefore open to inspection," Hopkins telegraphed to all state administrators.

The administrator's move followed by a day his order placing army engineers in charge of civil works in Chicago and Los Angeles. Charges of politics in CWA have come from Los Angeles but no hints of such have reached here from Chicago.

JOBLESS POPULATION IN PROSPECT OF TRANSFER TO DIFFERENT CENTERS

Movement to rehabilitate hundreds of thousands of unemployed in communities where industry has become stagnated was criticized by the administration at Washington Monday in plans to start moving these stranded people into other communities where land and other new labor opportunities lie.

The plan is to operate first in connection with the purchase of agricultural lands for which the public works administration has allotted $25,000,000 as a starter.

The movement eventually will involve districts where coal, copper and other mines have closed leaving a stranded population and large industrial centers where industries have closed leaving thousands of work who may never hope to return to the jobs they once had.

It has been estimated that there are at least 1,600,000 people in this situation.

Sudden Defense Move Bobs Up Monday In Washington For Bigger Naval Force

Additional plans for the navy and a method for training youthful pilots for the Nation's air force were put forward in the House at Washington Monday as separate phases of the sudden drive to build up the country's defensive works.

The House Naval Committee took the first step toward doubling the Navy's number of fighting planes at the same time that Speaker Rainey was telling an anti-war delegation that he hoped there would be no war this Spring between Russia and Japan but that both countries were building up their armament.

Chairman McSwain of the House Military Committee, meanwhile, introduced a bill to authorize creation of a junior air corps reserve as a civilian component of the Army. In it, all physically sound youths between 18 and 21 could obtain army training to qualify them as pilots.

Rainey, who has visited Russia and advocated recognition of the Soviet for years, said that he thought the new relations between the United States and that country "contributed more to world peace than any other development in recent years."

He told the "anti-war" delegation flatly that he was not for a program which would "disband our army and navy and turn over the CCC to civilians."

"To do so," he added, "would greatly encourage Japan, in her moves toward Russia. I hope there won't be a war between Japan and Russia this Spring, but Russia has 800,000 men in her standing army and is turning out 25 airplanes a day, while Japan has refused to accept any non-aggression pact."

He predicted that the House would pass the Vinson Treaty Navy Bill with an authorization for the President to order the construction of all

CANTRILL BACK TO STAGE HALF THEIR CONTESTS ON HOME COURT THIS SEASON

Football Schedule Is Mapped At Meeting Of Chiefs In Big Spring Monday

One-half the scheduled games in Conference A football to be played by the Wolves next season will be staged at Cantrell Field, under terms of annual playing schedule as mapped by District 3 chiefs at Big Spring Monday night. Colorado was represented at the meeting by Principal C. A. Wilkins and Coach R. H. Cantrell.

Colorado will open the season at home on October 12 in battle with the McCamey Badgers. The following week, October 19, the San Angelo Bobcats are to engage the local squad at Cantrell Field. This will be the first time Colorado has ever staged the San Angelo club on the Wolf gridiron.

For the two National holiday games, Armistice and Thanksgiving, however, Coach Cantrell and his team will be away from home. On the former date they are to engage the Sweetwater Mustangs at Sweetwater and on the latter they will go to Big Spring to tilt with the Steers.

Local fans are confident the Wolves are to give a creditable accounting of themselves during the next season, Wilkins stated Tuesday afternoon. An experienced backfield will be on hand and a number of linemen, first and reserve, are to return to take up their places in the Wolf organization. "We are expecting Cantrell to give opposing teams something to worry over before close of the season," Wilkins said.

DEAN OF WOOL BUYERS DIES FRIDAY NIGHT AT FREDERICKSBURG HOTEL

Calwell Palmer, 86, dean of the wool buyers of the State, died in Fredericksburg Friday night at the Nimble hotel where he had been staying and his body will be taken to Boston.

Mr. Palmer used to buy wool at the Alamo Plaza in San Antonio when ranchmen brought the fleeces there in ox carts. He came to Texas in 1881 for the first time, and had bought here continuously since, a matter of 53 years. For 30 years he was with Jeremiah Williams and Company.

In the old horse and buggy days he used to drive out to such ranches as that of Joe Pierce, Sr., in Crockett County and make purchases. Once Sam Oglesby took 300,000 pounds to Abilene for sale in 1884 where Mr. Palmer was the chief buyer. He dealt with the veteran wool firms of the city, bought from the late George Richardson, from C. W. Hobbs, and in later years from the houses that succeeded them. He also bought from Sol Mayer, from the late M. S. Wilhelm of Menard, mother of Jack and Fritz Wilhelm, from March Brothers and from Schreiner's of Kerrville.

C. D. Stokes of Lamasas takes his place as the veteran buyer of the State. A. S. Baker, now with the Wool Growers Central Storage Co., of San Angelo is perhaps next in seniority.

MOVIES. "Sitting Pretty" Sunday and Monday. "Sitting Pretty." Musical Comedy-Drama. A combination musical comedy, light romance-drama that steps out of the current backstage cycle and builds its story in a motion picture studio. Following the girl-glamour spectacle trend, the finale is an elaborate interpretation of the Sally Rand fan dance. Mirrors are used to accentuate the illusion that the set is filled with hundreds of girls and to heighten the kaleidoscopic effect of the romantically patterned dance arrangements. The idea is novel and eye-filling and proves quite in contrast with current climax spectacles. Song numbers of which "Mendening With Miranda," "Good Morning Glory," "Lazy Liza," and "Did You Ever See a Dream Walking" are outstanding, assume more importance as entertainment than the basic story. They are put across with a rhythmic click by an excellent cast which includes such names as Jack Oakie, Ginger Rogers, Thelma Todd, Gregory Ratoff, and the broadening Dickens Sisters. In Jack Oakie, who shares the lead with Thelma Todd, there is a new personality to talk about. It is a picture that offers new and different entertainment. "Elmer the Great" Tuesday and Wednesday. "Elmer the Great." Comedy. "Elmer the Great" is a baseball comedy yarn of a swinging rookie phenom with the Chicago Cubs. Oddly for a comedy, it contains a lot of human interest which should make it appealing to both men and women. As for the youngsters, it rights down their alley. Clean, full of action, wildly exciting at times, it rings in a little romance. It is a world's "serious" of fun. Remember that these are bargain nights also—prices 5c and 15c. BILLBOARD GIRLS MUST DON CLOTHING OR STAY OFF THESE PUBLIC ADS. The city of Fayetteville, N. C., is not going to stand for nudity, and that goes for pictures of girls on the billboard, according to information coming out of that city Saturday. A musical show headed toward Fayetteville plastered picture of a girl without clothing on a board in the heart of town. The clergy drew up formal protest and the board of aldermen decided such a sight was not fit for public eyes. Meanwhile a theatre in Fayetteville, fearing public sentiment, got out the paste pot and gowned the girl in a paper dress. Patsy, a five-year old police dog, was convicted in county court at Frankfort, Ky., Friday and sentenced to die for that crime of the bluegrass—sheep killing. But Hotcha, her two-year old son, went free. A jury of six farmers after hearing evidence before a crowded courtroom that the dogs had killed five sheep and maimed four, first voted five to one that both must be shot, but compromised by acquitting the younger dog. The two dogs lay quietly on the

TRAGEDY CLAIMS LIFE OF PLAINVIEW YOUTH IN CAR ACCIDENT TUESDAY NIGHT

Accidental death today nipped in the bud a young man's desire to become a minister.

Erts Robinson, 22, left his Plainview home for Abilene and Simmons university yesterday to continue his ministerial studies. Attached to his light car was a trailer carrying two cows which he hoped would provide necessary funds for his education. The milk, he thought, would sell well.

The trailer became disconnected northwest of Roscoe on State highway No. 7 last night and Robinson started to repair it. As he worked, another automobile struck the trailer from the rear and Robinson was crushed between the trailer and his car.

Dr. J. W. Young of Roscoe rushed the youth to a sanitarium here for medical attention but he died in a short time.

Drivers of the second automobile said the trailer had no tail light and they were blinded by the lights of another machine moving in the opposite direction. Judge L. W. Brasher in justice court began inquest proceedings. Charges were not likely it was said.

Robinson was identified by his name in a new Bible found in his car and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Robinson, were notified. They arrived here today and the body was sent to Plainview for burial.

Robinson graduated from Wayland college at Plainview shortly after Thanksgiving and had been working in cotton fields and at odd jobs supplementing the benevolences of small, rural congregations for whom he preached.

COFFMAN CAGERS TO 'GO PLACES' IN CONTESTS, BELIEF

'GREATEST CLUB TO EVER REPRESENT COLORADO' IS DISTINCTION GIVEN GIRLS

Record Of No Defeats Is To Be Maintained, Promise From Their Coach

Coach Robert Coffman's basketball girls Friday night annexed another victory to their record of undefeated for the season by drubbing the Blackwell sextet in what sideline customers describe as the best demonstration of technique ever seen in Colorado by a girls team. That the players are registering marked improvement with each succeeding contest is claimed by school officials who are keeping in close touch with their progress.

Colorado walked away with the show from opening of the first period. At end of the half the local girls were leading Blackwell 25 to 5. Through all of the third period and three minutes of the fourth, Coffman played his second string against the visitors. As the first line re-entered Blackwell had rallied to hold Colorado to a lead of 29 to 19. The ten point margin was held and the game ended 37 to 27 in favor of Colorado.

Christine Bolin was high scorer for Colorado with a total of 10 points. Iva Lee Pennington came in for second place with 9 points, Iva Lee Pennington made 7 points, Ila Ruth Kelley 6 and Elzie VanZandt 5 points.

That Coffman and his fighting lasses are going places in district and State Interscholastic League contests is being maintained by local fans who are becoming enthused over fine record made by them. In speaking of the game with Blackwell Principal C. A. Wilkins said: "This was the best game that Colorado girls ever played. They are showing marked improvement with each successive contest."

"In establishing for themselves the best record in basketball ever made by a girls team representing Colorado high school, these players have won a total of nine games during this season, with not a single encounter going over to their opponents. They have played against some of the best teams in this section of the State, running a combined score of 257 to 152 for their opposing teams."

Thursday night of next week will find Coffman and his girls in Roby to contest in fifth annual invitation tournament sponsored by the school there. Several of the stronger teams of West Texas have been entered. Roby was winner of this tournament last year. Due to fact Colorado girls have defeated Roby twice during the present season, the Colorado club will enter as tournament favorites. A victory in this tourney will mean much to Colorado, Wilkins suggested.

The squad consists of the following: Christine Bolin, Iva Lee Pennington, Ila Ruth Kelley, Grace Callan and Elzie VanZandt, forwards; Cleo Shepherd, Mirl Garner, Helen Andrews, Sarah Melton, Opal Alexander, and Claudine Fowler, guards.

Below is given score of the games to date:

Colorado	Opponent	Score
28	Loraine	19
33	Roscoe	10
35	Roby	31
35	Westbrook	22
36	Ira	12
23	Roscoe	13
30	Roby	18
37	Blackwell	27

BREAD THROWING ALONG WITH OTHER FORMS OF ROUGH STUFF ATTACKED

It may be alright for members of the Lions Club to toss a bun across the banquet hall at another's head, but hereafter the Lion so conducting himself will pay a fine of ten cents, with no recourse considered. Such a mandate was prescribed in no uncertain tone Friday by Col. C. M. Adams, highest authority recognized by the local service organization.

"It is a shame for members of this club to be throwing bread about this hall when there are people within our community who right now are in need of food," the Colony stated. "Hereafter, certain officials of this club are going to back Tail Twister Chapman and his assistant, Henry Vaught, to the limit in seeing to it that you pay ten cents a throw."

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Kueck were in Colorado Saturday afternoon from their farm home near Loraine.

BUY STUFFED ANIMALS AS MEANS OF PLACING CLOTHING ON INDIGENT

True tenets of Lionism was effectively portrayed Friday in an address before the club membership by Jim Greene, county CWA administrator. He directed attention of his auditors to several stuffed animals on display in the banquet hall as he spoke.

"These stuffed animals were made by women employed in CWA sewing room and the appeal is made to you men to consider the purchase of one or more of them as a means of assisting us in providing clothing for indigent children of this county," he said. "Fifty cents paid for one of the animals will buy enough materials to make a dress for some deserving child." Every one of the toys were sold.

Any citizen desiring to have part in this program should confer with Mr. Greene or Chas. Kyle at the CWA office.

METHODISTS OF WESTERN TEXAS TO ASSEMBLE FOR CONFERENCE ON PROGRAM

Four Bishops To Attend The Meeting In Sweetwater Monday Next Week

SWEETWATER.—Sweetwater is to be host on Feb. 5 to a distinguished and outstanding group of Methodist leaders, who are bringing the missionary message of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to Texas soil for members of the northwest Texas conference.

The group is to be led by Bishop H. A. Boaz of Dallas, though he is but one of the four bishops in the party of seven outstanding church leaders coming here.

Dr. Thomas S. Barcus, pastor of the First Methodist church here, is slated at being given the opportunity to entertain the distinguished group of church leaders as is the Rev. C. A. Long, presiding elder.

In addition Bishop Boaz, who is to preside, members of the Methodist College of Bishops who are to be present include Bishop Arthur J. Moore, former Texas pastor, who is directing the coast-to-coast series of missionary rallies; Bishop U. V. W. Darlington, of Virginia, whose Episcopal area lies in European mission fields, and Bishop John M. Moore, also a Texas native son, who makes his episcopal residence in Dallas.

Other distinguished religious leaders in the team include Dr. W. G. Cram, of Nashville, general secretary of the denomination's board of missions; G. L. Morelock, Nashville, general secretary of the board of lay activities; and Dr. Elmer T. Clark, Nashville, assistant secretary of the board of missions.

The all-day program here Feb. 5 is to be featured by sessions of brief missionary addresses; conferences and discussion of evangelistic themes, as well as a public mass meeting at which one of the visitors is to deliver an inspirational evangelistic address.

Methodist pastors and lay leaders from all parts of the northwest Texas conference are expected here for the day's meeting.

THE GREATEST ADVANCE IN RECENT YEARS, SAID OF 1934 MODEL AUTOS

Features built into the new 1934 model Chevrolet automobiles represent the greatest improvement since the day four-wheel brakes were introduced, J. A. Turpin of Dallas, district sales manager for the Chevrolet Motor Company, declared while visiting in Colorado Saturday. The Dallas official was here to confer with J. B. Mills, local dealer.

"Chevrolet expects 1934 to bring the greatest volume within history of the corporation," Turpin said. "The numerous improved features of our cars will account for such a record." Dealers in this area should be receiving shipments regularly now, he said, but demand for the new models is expected to tax capacity of the factory.

GOSS WOULD ANNOUNCE HE IS NOT CANDIDATE

Tom Goss called at The Record office Friday morning to inquire what the charges might be for him to announce he would not be a candidate for any political office. "I am not going to run for anything and might publish formal announcement setting out that fact," he said.

ELUSIVE WOLVES WIN FOR SECOND TIME OVER EAGLE BASKET CLUB OF ABILENE

Stagner Stars With Record Of 22 Points; Rogers In Action Once More

For the second time within two weeks the Abilene Eagles have met defeat at the hands of Big Jim Cantrell's basketball club. With both teams fighting to the last resort here Friday night the locals took off for a marginal lead from the beginning and never for one time surrendered that position. In first three minutes of play the Wolves were leading 10 to nothing. Final score was 31 to 23.

Omer Rodgers, one of the best men Cantrell has ever coached in basketball at Colorado, was back in the game. He went out of uniform two weeks before with a sprained ankle. The injured member gave him some trouble during the contest but he was there with his characteristic fighting spirit. Stagner was high scorer, accounting for 22 points by the Wolves. He came within one point of tying the opponents.

Walk-away lead by the Cantrell-men as registered during first few minutes of play did not last long. The Eagles revived their old traditional fighting spirit and at end of the quarter the score was 16-10. The half ended with Colorado leading 17-14 and the third quarter was closed with Colorado leading 24-20.

Berman Buyer Goes To Dallas Markets, Spring Style Show

Mrs. H. P. Ragan, buyer for the Max Berman department store, left Sunday for Dallas where during this week she is attending initial opening of the Southwestern Spring Style Show and buying new stocks of ladies ready-to-wear and piece goods for the store.

"Information received from Mrs. Ragan suggests that our buyers have never found more pleasing style, quality and price offerings than are being shown in the Dallas wholesale markets," Mr. Berman stated Thursday. "We are taking advantage of an unusual opportunity to stock heavily in several lines featured and it will be of interest for the public to know the prices will be attractive."

The 1934 Spring Market Season, considered an annual event of strong interest among merchants of the Southwest, was formally opened in Dallas Monday.

FRUIT CROP IN DANGER OF DAMAGE WITH WARM WEATHER STILL VOGUE

That the county fruit crop is in danger of damage later unless the weather man elects to mete out some severe cold now was opinion voiced by several farmers here Saturday. Some of them stated the trees had begun to show evidences of budding and blooms would be in-sight with a few more days of warm weather.

"Looks like another short fruit crop for this county," stated Nowl Boatler, principal of Fairview school, after suggesting that in all probability some belated cold weather would arrive probably during February and March to nip the tender fruitage now forming on the trees.

MILDEST WINTER, FALL IN TWENTY-TWO YEARS

"I have lived in Mitchell county 22 years and this has been the mildest fall and winter season I have ever seen here," stated H. Ohlenbusch of Loraine, who Saturday afternoon was a visitor in Colorado. Mr. and Mrs. Ohlenbusch left Monday for Edinburg to spend a month or six weeks looking after their property holdings there.

College Artists To Appear Here Feb'y Seventh In Recital

The Acapella Choral Club of Abilene Christian College is scheduled to give three programs in Colorado Wednesday of next week. The club consists of twenty voices all of whom have been well trained under direction of Leonard Burford, talented blind musician.

The visitors are to give their first musical program at junior high auditorium at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning. That afternoon they are to appear in auditorium of high school and the concluding program is to be given at the Church of Christ at 7:30 P. M.

Minister J. D. Harvey in announcing the program extended cordial invitation to the public to hear the musicians. No charge will be made at any one of the three appearances.

COLORADO PUBLIC SHOULD BE ON ALERT FOR THUGS, WARNING FROM OFFICIALS

Robberies Becoming Frequent In West Texas; Indicating Thieves Infest Area

The pace with which robbery attacks increased in West Texas during the past few days should serve to cause local citizens to be on the alert for these thugs, suggested warning coming from local authorities Wednesday. A series of bank, store and personal robberies were reported from Stephenville, Midlothian and other places.

Since Federal and State authorities have united in determined drive to rout desperadoes in sections of the country previously infested by the outlaw, many of them have scattered seeking refuge in more sparsely settled communities, it is pointed out. Capture of a desperate gang in Tucson, Arizona, the other day sustains that opinion.

Cars should not be left unlocked and other precautionary measures to defeat aims of the thief and hijacker should be taken, it was pointed out. Any citizen seeing suspicious persons about premises of themselves or their neighbor should telephone the authorities.

Gray, manager of the Rockwell Bros. lumber yard here now, was manager for Burton-Lingo at Colorado back in those days.

How The Government is Fighting The Depression In Our Community

Under the present administration the great depression is beginning to disappear. People are getting jobs and good pay. President Roosevelt's CWA is responsible for this. CWA means Civil Works Administration. About seventy-five men and women are at work in this community due to the CWA. The men are employed on road projects, sanitary improvements, and public buildings. These men receive thirty-five cents an hour for regular labor. Skilled workmen receive standard "Union Labor" wages. When trucks are hired the man and truck receive eighty-five cents an hour.

The CWA is working in cooperation with the State Sanitary Commission in sanitary improvement of the community. The CWA furnishes the labor and plans for the sanitary projects. The individual furnishes the material.

The women are employed in a sewing circle. They make over old garments and give them to the needy. They receive forty cents an hour and work seven hours a day.

There is also a direct relief project. The government supplies canned meats, bacon, and butter to people who really need them. They also supply clothes that have been worked over by the CWA workers. The government supplies wheat, oats, barley, or rye to people who want to plant them for stock pasture. If anyone does not have feed to feed their horses the government will let them have it.

The men who seek work are divided into four classes: (1) Ex-soldiers from any war who have dependents; (2) Married men with dependents; (3) Ex-soldiers with no dependents; (4) Single men.

The CWA is paying the teacher of a night school. Anyone in the community can take typing, bookkeeping, accounting, or any business course free. The Cotton Acreage Reduction Committee has a secretary that is paid by the CWA. She takes care of all the stenographic work of the committee.

All projects that come under the CWA must be approved before February 15. After this date no more projects will be approved. Relief after February 15 will be in form of direct relief such as giving food and clothing to the needy. All projects that are in progress will be financed until they are finished.

BY HERMAN MAY.

HUMOR

Miss Ott was trying her best to show an English pupil how to read with some expression. Johnny reading the sentence, "Where-are-you-going?" in the same even voice, without any accent.

"Try that again," said the teacher. "Read just as if you were talking. Notice that mark at the end." Johnny studied the question mark a while and an idea seemed to dawn on him. Then he read out triumphantly: "Where are you going 'little buttonhook?'"

Clothing salesman: "Here's a nice feature in this suit—a change pocket provided with a patent snap to prevent losses."

Coach Lauderdale: "Haven't you got one with a combination lock? Snaps mean nothing to my wife."

Willie, when compelled to wash his face: "Boo, hoo! I don't want to. Boo, hoo!"

Mother: "What's the matter darling?"

Willie: "I don't see why I can't cover my face with paint and powder when it's dirty, the same as you do, instead of havin' to wash it."

Interesting And Healthful Diversion For Babies Offered By Nursery In Colorado

As more homes are visited, more ladies express interest in the nursery and nutrition classes which meet at the High school. Several ladies have been wanting to know more about the work, but did not know whom to ask. Ladies of Colorado, these classes belong to you and your children. Take advantage of them. Call us or come as soon as you can. The sooner you enroll, the more benefit you will derive from them. Do not wait for an invitation. The classes are always open to you. In answer to a few of the questions asked: You do not have to have children to bring to the nursery for you to attend the nutrition class. You do not have to attend that class to send your children to the nursery. These children learn independence and develop individuality under able supervision, so that it is not all necessary that the mother come with her children. Mothers who are sick or at work send your children to the nursery where they get good care, wholesome food, supervised play, and simple instructions.

The men are enthusiastic over the projects also. They appreciate their wives learning new, appetizing as well as wholesome menus. One wholehearted supporter expressed himself concerning the nursery: "Why, I think that's the most wonderful thing I ever heard of. Call on us any time we can help you."

The call for surplus of discarded toys is still open. With 26 children enrolled to date, it takes many different toys to keep their eager hands and minds amused. The Sunday school superintendents are asked to remind your Sunday school groups of this appeal. If you have broken or discarded Sunday school chairs, we certainly do need them.

Rural children, you have enjoyed the papers and magazines which Mr. Glover brings to you. Here is an opportunity for you to do something too. Make a drive and send us a box to town on Saturday. You may send things to the relief office in town, put "Nursery" on the box and ask that they notify us, if you cannot send them out to the high school.

Among the things we need are toys, colored paper and pictures, crayolas, blunt scissors, pencils, small buckets and pans, spoons, spoons, rag rugs, clean rags, towels, and boxes and nails. People in Colorado may bring their things or call Miss Jennings any time.

We thank Picken's, Pritchett's and B. M. Moore's for the wooden boxes they have so kindly donated for use in the nursery. Other stores have promised to save some for us. Mr. Green and Mr. Sherwin are due our hearty thanks for the 8 nursery tables built for the children. Mr. Doyle Williams, together with some of his students, gave his track, time, and services to handling these things out for us—We thank you, Mr. Williams. Visitors are welcome. Among those who have paid us calls are Dr. Root, Mrs. Whitmore, Mrs. Hettie Taylor, and Miss Alma PPhillips. Also the newspaper reporters.

According to Mrs. Ford, the children are anxious to come to the nursery every day and reluctant to leave. The mothers report that the children beg to come every day, and Friday a small girl cried to stay when her mother came to take her home at 4:30. Four new ones enrolled last week, and cried after supper the very first night to go back to high school.

Of all those most interested are the supervisor, Miss Jennings; the Mother's Home Ec teacher, Miss Dulaney, and the nursery matron, Mrs. Ford. If you will join in helping us, you will become enthusiastic over the work too.

EDITORIAL
 We are living in a time of crisis and change and should feel ourselves fortunate in so doing. Our ideas as to politics and economics are being continually stirred up and changed. We shall probably be less prejudiced and narrowminded than those who grew up in a more settled time. Because of this rapid change we should try to keep in touch with things and keep informed. We should learn the main issues and try to find out how they are worked out.

BASKETBALL GIRLS WIN OVER BLACKWELL

The Colorado girls defeated the Blackwell girls to retain the honor of being undefeated. The girls played good basketball through the entire game. The second team was sent in in the last half and proved to be a good match for the Blackwell first team.
 The Wolves will enter the tourney for girls at Roby on Feb. 1, 2 and 3 and among the teams entered, Colorado is favored to win, having defeated all the strong teams in the section. Lamesa also has reported a strong team and will make a strong bid at the cup.

WOLVES TAKE EAGLES

The Colorado Wolves trounced the Abilene Eagles by a fair margin Friday night. The Eagles sent a better team than they had during the tournament here and showed a great improvement since that time. The Wolves also have improved and led the score during each of the four periods. It was the first time since the tourney that the Wolves have had all their men on the court.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

The Sophomores have straightened out in their classes, and have started out on their new semester of work.
 We have a number of new pupils, whom we are very glad to receive into our class work. There have been so many withdrawing from our class that we haven't a very large class now, but we are still working.
 Mr. Foster: "Now if I subtracted 25 from 37 what's the difference?"
 Maurine Morris: "Yeah! That's what I say. Who cares?"

COMMENT FROM VISITOR

Elmery Phost, expert in matters of etiquette, dropped in on Colorado high school for a casual visit, and, much impressed by our behaviour, made her reactions known in a talk over the local radio.
 After complimenting us on our general good manners and courtesy to a visitor, she mentioned that there were a few minor points—applicable to individuals, not the group as a whole—which should be remedied. Her remarks follow in part:
 "A certain attractive brunette with a voice which made up in volume what it lacked in melody, requested a fountain pen of a friend stationed at the other end of the hall."
 "A diminutive freshman in enormous boots made up for all his class had suffered, when, casually strolling down past the drinking fountain, he gave a vigorous shove on the back of the head of the Senior who was then drinking."
 "The changing attitude toward women was most eloquently expressed by the slender blackhaired, blue-eyed boy who took impartial slaps at the two attractive brunettes in whom he seemed to be interested."
 "The good behaviour of the student body seemed to hold very well until the last bell at noon, at which time, the call of hunger being great several boys made much too great a rate of speed down the hall, were stopped by teachers and had to wait in patience 'till the student body had departed."

LA TERTULIA

For their class projects they will have to make a special occasion dress, and for their home projects they will make anything to wear they want to. These garments will be due about a month from now. Everyone is enjoying planning and making these projects and we expect to accomplish a great deal.

VOCATIONAL NEWS

The Commercial classes continue to grow. Every day new pupils are being enrolled in the several classes. There are three divisions in the Commercial Department: The High School Department, The Vocational Department, The C.W.A. Commercial Department.
 The high school department is beginning the second semester with a vim. The typing classes are full. Every machine is being used. One boy withdrew at the end of the semester, and another rushed to take his place. It is "first come—first served" in these classes.
 Miss Cooper, now has a total of 94 pupils in the Vocational department. These classes, for the employed, are operating under the provisions of the Federal Smith-Hughes Act. These classes are given from 1:00 to 6:30 in the afternoon.
 So many pupils were being enrolled in the CWA Commercial department that a new teacher became necessary. Miss Francis Majors was accepted by the authorities at Austin, and is now working with Miss Rodgers. There is, at present, a total enrollment of 52 pupils. These classes are given from 9:00 to 12:00 in the morning and from 6:45 to 9 in the evening.
 This vocational work is reaching out to neighboring towns. Miss Cooper went to Stamford Saturday, where she helped organize a vocational class. She reports a very large class there. This work will be a sister school to ours.

 John Morgan H.: "What grammar! You mean, can I see wood?"
 Mary E. Pidgeon: "Would you marry a man for his money?"
 Marybel C.: "Not exactly. But I'd want him to have a lovely disposition, and if he didn't have money he'd very likely be worried and ill-natured."
 Lucille Bodine: "That's a snappy looking dress you have on."
 Etta F. Harkins: "Yes, this is the dress I wear out to teas."
 Lucille Bodine: "To tease whom?"
 Bob King: "Last night I dreamed I married the most beautiful woman in the world."
 Elizabeth H.: "Were we happy?"
 Maxine D.: "I'm going to get a divorce. I. W. hasn't spoken to me for six months."
 Layda Mae: "Better be careful. You'll never get another husband like that."

 Prof.: "You shouldn't abbreviate. Your name is Julius. What is your name next?"
 Boy (a half scared voice): "Billious, sir."

 "I was looking for a job for the groom."

Tribute In Verse Paid Mrs. T. Y. Pool Who Was 84 Years Of Age January 25

The following tribute in verse is offered by Mrs. Sidney J. Watson, a friend of Mrs. T. Y. Pool of Westbrook who on January 25th celebrated her eighty-fourth anniversary:
 Some one has said, "Three of the sweetest words in the English language are Mother, Home and Heaven." I would add "Friends."
 For what would life be without our friends.
 Friendship is a beautiful thing, a blending of love, esteem and understanding.
 When we cannot understand "our friends" we must still believe in them.
 When their ways and words seem strangely out of place, with their claim of friendship,
 Then we must not doubt, we must believe.
 Solomon said, "A friend loveth at all times."
 To have a friend is to have life's richest treasure.
 To be a friend is life's richest contribution to humanity.
 Poets and prophets alike have dipped their pens in the golden liquid of experience, and brought forth sonnets, concerning the finest of life's experiences.
 "The friendship of a friend." How much pride is to be expressed by the oft repeated statement, "He or she is my friend."
 Friendship improves happiness, by doubling our joys, and dividing our sorrows.
 What fellowship to walk with a friend,

 What inspiration to talk with a friend,
 What comfort in time of trouble to have a friend.
 A friendly nod, a cheerful smile, a hearty handshake,
 Often encourages us to go on when the way is dark.
 Friendship, has the power to soothe afflictions, in her darkest hour.
 Am thinking now of the words of a friend, who said, when he lost his beloved wife:
 "Were it not for our friends life would be destitute indeed."
 So much truth, for friendship leads to that better understanding, that helps to bear the strain and the storms of life.
 Friendship turns a deaf ear to evil reports.
 It shares both joy and sorrow.
 There are friends we meet every day,
 There are friends who seldom come our way,
 There are those we have known for many a year,
 Who have eased our burden with cheer,
 There are those like ships in the night, that speak to each other then are lost to sight.
 Into the silent hours of our thoughts, each in turn by memory are brought.
 We measure our wealth by the friends we hold,
 And the worth of life is in friendship's gold.

Mitchell county has realized big dividends from investment made in club activities among her boys and girls. Through the Extension Service, A. & M. college, scores of future citizens have been made to realize that preparation now for meeting life's problems in the days to follow are most essential.

Boys and girls of this county have gone out from the influences of their club work to claim distinction among those who rate high in both technical and practical knowledge of some of the major features about which our basic industries are established and have their being.

Yeggs Rob Bank At Midlothian, Texas, Of $5,000 Monday

The First National Bank of Midlothian was robbed of $5,000 early Monday by a gang of yeggmans who bound and gagged a night watchman and burned their way into the bank's vault.

The yeggs seized R. F. Edwards, night watchman, and after disarming him, forced him to accompany them into the bank. They worked steadily on the bank's vault for four hours, breaking into it at 5 a. m. and escaping with currency estimated at $5,000 by Cashier M. L. Wilemon.

LIFE-THINK

Human life may be aptly compared to an ocean voyage. He who comes into the world takes ship for another land. As the ship moves toward the other shore it encounters surging seas that eventually wreck it.

Whether the voyager is saved or lost depends upon the provision he has made for the voyage. He may have filled his life-ship with gold and pearls, with splendor and finery and worldly honors, but these are worthless luggage when the frail barque is wrecked.

That old Roman philosopher, Marcus Aurelius, wrote many wise things, but none was wiser or of more practical application to everyday life than this admonition: "Be not careless in deeds; not confused in words nor rambling in thought."

Carelessness always is destructive, and careless thinking is the most destructive of all carelessness.

It is for the reason that indifference, thoughtlessness and neglect are the certain results of careless thinking. Indeed it might be said that careless thinking is not thinking.

Francis Bacon is credited with having said that if people could be persuaded to really think, it would not be necessary to get them to do anything else, as they would do what was needful without persuasion.

We read in the Bible that "He that is hasty of spirit exalteth folly." Can you imagine greater folly? Conceive of Dr. Michelson and other physicists undertaking to solve the stupendous problems at which they labor, such as his recent measurement of the speed of light, paying little attention to preparation for his lists and then conducting them in a slipshod or careless manner.

About the most valuable lesson that can be taught a child from boyhood to manhood, is to be careful-THINK. Ignorance is a world-wide and continuous calamity. Thoughtlessness is the result of ignorance, and carelessness, indifference and stupidity are its products.

Twenty years ago a ship left Europe for America, in a way it was the greatest ship that had been built up to that time, and yet in a way it was one of the weakest. It was the richest ship, in the magnificence of its appointments, ever constructed, yet it was one of the poorest. It was the roomiest palace that ever floated on the bosom of the deep, and could have been the safest boat for travel in the ocean service, but it was not.

If all people could focus their eyes on the Bible ordinances and join our church, or even come round to our way of believing we'd all be happy, even though we were in debt and suffering from the depression. And surely we'd all go into rapturous rapture if we could convince everybody in the community that our family doctor knew more than all the other doctors. But to have a real Heaven on earth we must see all the people enjoying an unbending and unshrinking faith in our family remedies. It tears our heart-strings and harrows our souls to see people suffering from cuts, bruises, corns and colds and yet refuse to apply the remedies we know will cure them. There can be no unalloyed joy until we get all people into the habit of curing their ills with our remedies, and its sure enough the dickens to see a fellow get well without using our formulas.
