SEED LOAN OFFICE OPENED IN COLORADO WITH COUNTY AGENT DIRECTING DETAILS

Emergency Crop Loans From $25 To $250 Available On Contracts

The Record has just received word that an emergency crop loan office has been opened at the county agent's office in Colorado, and farmers desiring loans should apply between the hours of 8 A. M. and 5 P. M.

According to the regulations under which the crop loans are to be made this year, any farmer who secures a loan must obtain a statement from the county production council, where one exists, that he does not intend to increase his acreage or production in violation of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration program.

In counties where a county production council has not been set up, before any application for a loan will be considered the farmer who is applying will have to give satisfactory evidence that he is co-operating with the production control program of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

The maximum amount of an emergency crop loan that may be obtained by any one individual is $250, the minimum is $25.

Applications for loans in any amount from $25 to $150 may be accepted by the emergency crop loan office provided the farmer does not have sufficient security to obtain a loan elsewhere.

A farmer applying for $150 or more must first make application to the Production Credit Association for a loan from it. Rejection of this application by the Production Credit Association will be considered sufficient evidence that other credit is not available and the applicant may then make application to the emergency crop loan office.

Week Of Prayer Is Observed By Ladies Of Christian Church

The Woman's Auxiliary of the First Christian Church observed three days of Holy Week with prayer and self-denial services.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. Ed Jones led the lesson on the Triumphal Entry. After her sculpture lesson and a song, three speakers presented various phases. "Into the City," talk and prayer by Mrs. Wigley. "Into our Homes," talk and prayer, Mrs. Anderson. "Into our Hearts," talk and prayer by Mrs. Stewart. Closed with song and offering.

Tuesday night the subject was "Fellowship With Him," with Mrs. Porter, leader. She gave the opening devotional then presented two beautiful pictures. The first, Rock of Ages, was depicted by Mrs. Anderson while Mrs. Wilkins sang "Rock of Ages." The next showed the meeting of Jesus with Mary and Martha after Lazarus' death. Rev. Jones, Mrs. Paul Miller and Memphis Porter, in costumes of the times, took these parts while Mrs. Wilkins sang "Nothing Between."

Prayers for the Easter offering and the general missionary work concluded the program.

Wednesday evening the program was continued at the prayer meeting hour. Bro. Jones was the leader. He talked on "Public, Private and Answered Prayer," closing a very helpful week of prayer series.

The self denial offering was not reported as to its amount.

Legion Auxiliary Has New High Membership

For the first time in several years the Auxiliary to Oran C. Hooker Post has more members than the quota assigned by headquarters. The women are very proud of this but attribute it not their own efforts but to that of the post commander in getting the men interested and in the fact that they have been asked to bring their wives and when they have come and heard the needs and enjoyed the feeds and good times, they have been glad to be a part of such a live organization.

The April program is to be upon Child Welfare and this unit will remain to the children of our country, view health conditions as they pertain. Also in April we went to war—April 6, 1917, and in 1934 the State Auxiliary will go on the air for National Defense, April 21st. Texas Centennial Plans will be broadcast. The units of Texas are asked to "sing and like it." They are urged to learn patriotic songs, use more music at unit meetings—use war songs, patriotic songs and poppy songs.

The Legion health center needs used clothing. The closet is almost empty. The need is for large sized women's clothing and for shoes and underwear for children in all sizes. This used clothing gift closet is kept supplied by the various units of the State.

Egg Hunt Enjoyed By Methodist Children

Wednesday afternoon at the home of the leader, Mrs. Evans, the Baby division had an Easter Egg Hunt. There were 21 babies and 5 mothers present.

The children sang "We are a Missionary band," Mrs. Gregory led in prayer. Mrs. Evans told stories of Denmark and Poland, the countries they are studying this quarter.

Next the Easter egg hunt was enjoyed. This had been arranged by Madeline Williamson and Betty Wright. The eggs were placed in a pretty nest on the table which had been decorated with chickens and bunnies. Candy was served the children.

The mite box money amounted to $2.61.

Brother Mrs. Ralph Lee Marries At Childress

Ephraim L. Biggerstaff, brother of Mrs. Ralph Lee, and Miss Louise Krohne were married Sunday morning in Childress. The Lee family were present for the ceremony which took place in the Baptist church in the presence of a few relatives and friends. The brides pastor being out of town, Rev. Ferguson of the Christian church, performed the marriage rites.

Mr. and Mrs. Biggerstaff left immediately for a wedding trip to East Texas and the Lee's who had gone over Saturday, returned to Colorado.

Mr. Biggerstaff has visited here and is known to a number who will wish for both he and his bride a happy and prosperous married life.

RED AND WHITE OBSERVES 13TH ANNIVERSARY DURING EVENTS ATTENDING EASTER

Great Food Organization Is Proud of Progress Made Since Its Beginning

Thirteenth anniversary of the Red and White food stores is being observed in Colorado during the Easter season by each of the local member units. The stores, out of gratitude of the material progress that public patronage has made possible, announce attractive food prices during this anniversary observance.

From a small beginning in 1921, the Red and White organization has grown into a cooperative group of thousands of retail grocers, hundreds of large wholesale grocers and affiliated manufacturers packing Red and White merchandise, including over one thousand different items. The cooperative plan of producing, manufacturing, wholesaling and retailing foods has proven successful beyond all expectations.

So extensive is the Red and White organization that merchandise carrying its trade-mark brand is distributed from the Hudson Bay district in Canada to the Gulf of Mexico, and from the California Coast to the rock-ribbed shores of Maine. This tremendous organization is supplying food requirements to millions of families throughout the United States and Whites.

Red and White stores in Colorado are Pritchett & Rose, J. A. Pickett, Sam Bedford and B. M. Moore. At Westbrook, Coker & Hull are the dealers and Pink Fuller operates a Red and White store at Cuthbert. There are two of the stores in Lorraine, operated by George & Narrell and H. E. Thomas.

UNDER THE DOME AT AUSTIN

By Gordon K. Shearer
United Press Staff Correspondent
AUSTIN, Tex. (UP).—Radio announcement that John Charles Thomas, metropolitan warbler, received a commission in the Texas Rangers from President Roosevelt is correct but misleading.

President Roosevelt with all his emergency powers to aid recovery has not yet been given authority to appoint Texas Rangers. The commission, honorary only, was issued by Gov. Ferguson and mailed to the president who delivered it to the singer.

Reports that the "commission" had been withdrawn for a fancied slight to Dallas are denied at State Ranger headquarters here.

WOMEN, GIRLS' CLUB NEWS

By MISS EMMA GUNTER, Home Demonstration Agent

The Hyman home demonstration club met at the home of Mrs. Carl Lowry Friday, March 23rd with nine women present.

Mrs. W. G. McAlpine, Mrs. J. R. Harkins and Mrs. John Scott were appointed as a committee to help with the Quilt Show to be held April 28th in Colorado. Mrs. McAlpine gave a talk on "a well dressed bed." The club adjourned to meet April 6th with Mrs. Hood Parker, Mrs. Walter Averitt, reporter.

Taking advantage of an opportunity to get her father to help her build her clothes closet, Opal Leach, bedroom improvement demonstrator of the Conway girls club had the frame built ready to cover with cardboard boxes when the agent visited her room. Opal is building it like the plan sent out from A. & M. College by the clothing specialist. Her closet will be 6 feet long, 2 feet wide and extend to the ceiling. She has shelves at one end and a long shelf that extends the entire length of the closet. Her rod space will be sufficient to hold all of her clothing and room for another person that might occupy the room. She has direct light in her closet since a East window affords light.

Mrs. W. A. Webb, bedroom improvement demonstrator of the Looney home demonstration club has shown cooperative extension work, when she got her husband to build her a rug frame on a standard. Mrs. Webb used the blueprint plan sent out by A. & M. College. She is using her quilt clamps to hold her four pieces of frame together. In the construction of her rug Mrs. Webb will use woolen garments that have been laid aside and discarded. Her design will be tailored and simple. The colors will be tan, brown, red and Copenhagen blue.

Not only will Mrs. Webb make a rug for her bedroom but she has collected paste board cartons to cover the walls of her clothes closet that she is to build to make her room more efficient. She will also use her cooperative spirit in getting this constructed.

The club girls of Shepherd met Monday, March 19th. The county demonstrator, Miss Gunter, criticized the slips which the girls had made. She also showed the girls how to recover an old chair. The class agreed to bring three old chairs to be re-

CANDIDATE FOR MITCHELL ATTORNEY OUTLINES CODE HE PLANS AS PROSECUTOR

W. H. Garrett, Recently Put In Campaign By Voters Offers Statement

To the people of Mitchell County: By personal requests and written petition I am a candidate for County attorney.

I served you in this office for 62½ months. During this time I was in Colorado some part of every day except three. I never went fishing, took a vacation nor pursued business elsewhere.

Every person that came to the office with a claim or complaint had it considered on its merits, in a sincere, friendly manner. If some action was required, needed or advisable there was no delay.

I worked with and maintained perfect harmony with the courts, the county attorney, the grandjurers, all county, precinct and city officers. If elected I shall again pursue the duties of the office in a fair, friendly and democratic spirit. Whatever strength, time and ability I possess will be at your service.

In these days so many boys, girls and mere youths are brought into court under the delinquent child law the county attorney needs to be a father, a friend, an advisor, a counselor and an administrator of the office. And in addition thereto a prosecutor with justice, judgment and fair dealing. This course I shall pursue.

I can make no campaign. I have lived among you for 14 years. I have met you in my office, in the court room, in and about the court house and elsewhere in public.

In and with this democratic spirit I seek your votes, support and influence, subject to the Democratic Primary July 28, 1934.

W. H. GARRETT, Candidate for County Attorney.

Panthers Of West Texas Stalk Colts As Favorite Menu

MIDLAND.—Panthers stalk colts, their favorite food, with patience and cunning.

The big cats range the wildest mountains between here and the Rio Grande. Their screams are heard at night but many cattlemen who have lived in the mountainous sections for years have never seen one of the animals, John Hill, foreman of an Eagle Mountains ranch for 15 years, said. Hill has found considerable evidence of their depredations but professes to have seen only their tracks and these only occasionally. Panthers, he said, seldom travel in country where marks of their passing might be left but keep to rock floors or crags where hunters and dogs would have difficulty in following.

Fred Moore, who makes a business of hunting the cats with his dogs killed 11 last year. He said the cats like big horn sheep, of which there are many in the mountains of south-west Texas, but prefer colts to other food.

When ready for the kill a panther creeps as near the colt as the sparse screen of vegetation allows, stretches taut against the ground, sticks its tail up and lazily waves it back and forth to attract the attention of the colt. With the curiosity of its kind, the colt eventually reaches the hiding place of the panther and suddenly is caught in the nose by a powerful forefoot of the panther which twists over on its back and tears the colt's under body with a single sweep of knife-like rear claws.

Moore told T. D. Mize, Midland man who recently shot a panther five feet, eight inches long, that the cats when hunted seldom move away from dogs more than three times. They eventually leap in great bounds to a high recess where they look down at dogs and huntsmen. Moore shot one recently that fell 75 feet. It weighed 216 pounds.

STATE HEALTH OFFICER IN WARNING AGAINST DANGER OF LOCKJAW OR 'TETANUS'

Slight Injury Might Result In Agonizing Death, Dr. John Brown States

Every year there are about one hundred and fifty deaths in Texas from lockjaw, according to Dr. John W. Brown of Austin, State Health officer, in an article contributed to The Record this week. Most of these deaths have resulted from the most trivial or minor wounds or injury. Only recently a small child died from a small wound caused by a splinter being stuck in the toe, he notes.

Lockjaw or tetanus patients die an agonizing death following frequent convulsions, which are set forth by the slightest stimulation to the central nervous system. The slamming of a door or the slightest noise may cause a patient to have violent convulsions. Stiffening of the muscles in the jaw is one of the first symptoms, and it is from this fact that the disease gets its name of lockjaw.

Puncture wounds, such as those resulting from sticking a nail or thorn in the foot or hand, are the most dangerous. The reason for this is that the tetanus germs can thrive only in a wound that is closed or in the presence of other germs that wipe up the air present. Tetanus germs do not thrive in the open air.

The prevention of lockjaw depends upon the proper care of all minor injuries. Closed wounds should be made open wounds and kept thoroughly clean. Anti-tetanus serum should be given after a puncture wound; gun powder wounds are infrequently followed by lockjaw. The period of time for the disease to develop in man is usually from six to fourteen days, according to the amount of infection. In man, with a short period of incubation, six days or less, the disease is almost always fatal. With a longer period, the disease is usually milder and the chances for recovery greater.

Prices On Farmer Commodities Rush To Higher Levels

AUSTIN.—Average prices paid for Texas agricultural products Feb. 15, were higher with two exceptions, than during the two preceding months and the same time in 1933, the United States Department of Agriculture announced Sunday. The two exceptions were milk and eggs.

Cotton prices increased from an average of 5.3c a pound in February, 1933, to 11.6c last Feb. 15; corn from 27c a bushel to 62 c; wheat from 22c a bushel to 72c; oats from 16c a bushel to 45c; and barley from 18c a bushel to 52c.

Chickens advanced from 7.2c a pound to 8.4c, and turkeys from 7c to 9.1c. A top of 20c a pound for butter was equalled Dec. 15, but exceeded by 3c the average price Feb. 15, 1933. Butterfat prices rose from 13c to 18c a pound.

A high for retail milk prices was attained Dec. 15 with an average of 9.6c a quart, but dropped to 9.4c by February. A year ago the average was 7.9c. Egg prices averaged 8.4c a dozen a year ago, rose to a peak of 22.2c Dec. 15 and dropped to 12.3c by Feb. 15.

Feb. 15 live stock prices were, by hundredweight: Hogs, $3.40; beef cattle $3.10, veal calves $3.80, sheep $3.45 and lambs $5.50. The average price per head was for horses $50, mules $78 and milch cows $25.

The average wool price was 26c a pound as compared to 10c a year earlier. For the two preceding months the average was 25c.

Average planted to principal crops in Texas, excluding cotton and wheat will be 5 per cent more than last year's harvest, the department estimated.

Texas farmers have reported intentions to plant 12,681,000 acres in crops other than cotton and wheat as compared to 12,110,000 acres harvested last year. Decrease of 5 per cent in corn acreage and 10 per cent in rice acreage were indicated.

The indicated 127,000 acres to be planted in rice will be the smallest acreage sown in Texas during the last decade, the department said. Farmers' intentions indicate 5,151,000 acres will be sown to corn.

Increases indicated for other crops were oats 26 per cent, barley 29 per cent, grain sorghums 8 per cent, Irish potatoes 2 per cent, sweet potatoes 2 per cent, peanuts 6 per cent and tame hay 10 per cent.

Grapefruit harvest in the four producing States this season was estimated at 18,028,000 boxes as compared to 15,326,000 boxes for the preceding season. The estimate was by States: Texas 1,035,000 boxes, Florida 9,800,000 (commercial 7,000,000), California 1,563,000 and Arizona 700,000. Orange production for seven States was estimated at 49,603,000 boxes as compared to 50,654,000 boxes for the previous season. Texas production was estimated at 385,000 boxes.

Hubert Thomas of the Thomas Grocery here spent the week end visiting his parents at Dublin.

Mrs. Bud Reichberg visited her sister, Mrs. Clifton Hodges at Roscoe, Friday.

Charlie Meek returned on Sunday from a visit with relatives at Longview, Kemp and Ft. Worth.

"The Big Drive"

Thursday and Friday

"The Big Drive," is a powerful gripping insight into the actualities of the great war being the unvarnished scenes of historic battles in various sections, as recorded by the cameras of official photographers for the different participating governments. It is the real thing, filmed on the scenes of combat, often at the expense of the life of the cameraman. Here is a record of fact, no fiction, with scenes so startling in the light of grim reality behind them that they beggar description.

The cast with its background of millions of soldiers of every nation that participated in this greatest of all wars, has names known to every man, woman and child. German Kaiser and his son, the Crown Prince, are shown directing the German troops. Foch of France, Haig of England, Pershing of the United States, commanders of nation's forces directing Allied strategy. Highlights that include the funeral of Richtofen, German flying ace; the funeral of the first American soldier killed in action and countless other important events are recorded in this great film. As a historical record, it is a picture that you shouldn't miss.

"The Fiddling Buckaroo"

Saturday—March 31

"The Fiddling Buckaroo" is a fast moving western picture starring that ace western hero, Ken Maynard. Of course, Tarzan, the wonder horse is featured with him. When Ken is featured in a show, you may be sure of plenty of action from start to finish. This picture is no exception. Ken also has a chance to introduce several cowboy songs. Gloris Shea has the feminine lead. This picture represents western drama at its best, and it should prove a rare treat for the fans.

"Eskimo"

Sunday and Monday
"Eskimo" is one of the finest pictures of its kind. A subtle blending of scenic photography of extravagant beauty with a story theme based on the native morals of the Arctic dwellers, will thrill and hold you spellbound. The innate innocence of the Eskimo and the utter simplicity of his existence, as pictured, give a wistful turn to his attitude toward marital relations that is gently amusing. The story itself treats of the entry into the Eskimo lives of the white hunters and explorers and the resulting problems to be faced by Mala, chief of the tribe. This is adventure melodrama at its best.

"Cross Country Cruise"

Tuesday and Wednesday
"Cross Country Cruise." This is a new idea in pictures—Lew Ayres and June Knight in a swift moving romance-adventure-mystery drama whose plot involves every passenger on a transcontinental bus trip. There is speed and snap in every scene, with scenes changing as rapidly as the bus flashes from city to city... and a climax featuring a smashup between the bus and a pursuing plane.

The lady pictured above has filed suit for divorce in San Antonio, saying that she is Mrs. Wm. D. Welburn, Jr., that she was married July 25, 1933, and gave birth to a son on November 18, 1933. The Rev. Welburn, Jr., former pastor of the Government Hill Methodist Church in San Antonio, denies that he is married to her and that he is the father of her child. The plaintiff declared that the Rev. Welburn denied the marriage before his congregation on December 17, 1933, this act constituting extreme cruelty and cause for divorce. (Texas News Photos.)

Bankhead Bill Gets Further Attention At National Capitol

WASHINGTON.—The House voted Monday to co-ordinate the Bankhead cotton control bill with crop reduction programs ordered under the Farm Adjustment Act.
Chairman Jones, Democrat, Texas, acting for the Agriculture Committee, offered an amendment under which a producer could not receive certificates allotting him a portion of the total cotton production unless he "agrees to comply with such conditions and limitations on the production of agricultural commodities by him as the Secretary of Agriculture may prescribe to assure the co-operation of such producer in the reduction program of" the Farm Admin-

Representative Rankin, Democrat of Mississippi, said the amendment was drafted by Representative Boileau, a Republican of Wisconsin, and added that Boileau's purpose was "to put our dairies down South out of business."
Boileau replied that reducing the cotton crop would do no good if the farmers were allowed to produce more wheat, for example, without participating in the wheat control program.

He denied that his amendment was directed at Southern dairying.
Meanwhile, the first benefit payments to Southern cotton producers under the 1934-35 reduction program were mailed by the Farm Administration to 38 farmers in Tallahassee County, Georgia.
Thirty-eight checks totaling $1,509 were sent as the first installment of a total of $4,136 which will be paid to these 38 producers in return for reducing their acreage this year.
Approximately $100,000,000 will be distributed to Southern farmers under this year's program.
In addition to these rental payments, a parity payment of between $25,000,000 and $30,000,000 will be distributed next December.

GOOD STARTING MASH FOR BABY CHICKS GIVEN

For the first six weeks baby chicks should be fed a "starting mash." Some farmers prefer to purchase this from the many commercially prepared starting mashes on the market, and others prefer to make their own starting mash. Below is given the formula for a good starting mash that may be prepared on the farm:
Yellow corn meal 55 pounds.
Wheat grey shorts 20 pounds.
Meat and bone scrap 6 pounds.
Dried buttermilk or skim milk 6 pounds.
Cottonseed meal 6 pounds.
Alfalfa leaf meal 5 pounds.
Oyster shell 1 pound.
Salt 1 pound.

Do not juggle the above formula around very much except the following substitutions may be made:
Fresh skim milk or fresh buttermilk may be substituted for the dried milk; Or a 6 pound increase in the bone and meat scraps may replace the dried milk; Or if plenty of fresh, tender, green feed is available the alfalfa leaf-meal may be dropped; Or ground milo may be used instead of yellow corn meal—but the corn meal is much more desirable than the milo meal.
In case you intend to use codliver oil DO NOT USE it in quantities greater than 2 per cent of the ration. In case you use meat and bone scraps in starting mash do not use any bone meal.
After six weeks change ration to a growing mash, and a good home-mixed mash would be like this:
Yellow corn meal 36 pounds
Wheat bran 20 pounds
Wheat grey shorts 20 pounds
Meat and bone scrap 5 pounds
Cottonseed meal 10 pounds

Alfalfa leaf meal 5 pounds
Oyster shell 2 pounds
Bone meal 1 pound
Salt 1 pound.

In changing from the starting to growing mash do so gradually—spend about three or four days in switching from one to another. Gradually substitute one for the other.

Austin was startled this week to read in a locally circulated paper that a Texas governor once had been horsewhipped on the streets of Austin. The statement was in a history of Ben Thompson, published on the anniversary of Thompson's death, 50 years before. In it, Thompson was said to have been angry at remarks about him and to have retaliated by administering a "dose of cowhide" to Gov. Bell.

A search of State library archives revealed an account of the horse-whipping of a "Judge" Bell by Thompson. The "judge" apparently was too well known to need initials in the story. Gov. Bell at that time, 1872, was living in North Carolina, after distinguished service in the Confederate army.

The recent special session of the Texas legislature did not, apparently, think well enough of its own acts to make an appropriation for their printing. As a result the Secretary of State's office will not issue the usual printed and certified volume. Attorneys wanting copies of an act for court use will have to go individual certified copies. Several un-official publications of the acts are put out but these are not accepted by the courts.

Adjutant General Henry Hutchings, former 36th Division Brigadier General, is about again after a serious back injury suffered when he was thrown from the seat of his automobile when it struck a road obstruction. Like Gordon Johnson, killed at San Antonio by a fall from a polo pony, Gen. Hutchings had been through many campaigns only to meet with a serious accident in peacetime.

Income Payments Approaching Goal
WASHINGTON, March 27.—Income tax payments today lacked only $15,000,000 of the treasury's goal of $250,000,000 for the month of March.

On March 24, the latest day available, collections were $235,227,394 as compared with $172,618,507 last year.

County Committees Authorized Outline Acreage To Be Planted In Cotton Crop

In some few cases farmers have signed contracts on one or more farms that are eligible to be leased under the 1934-35 cotton contracts and have had one or more farms that are not eligible, or else someone controlling such farm refuses to sign a contract with the party. The interpretation on such cases is that such party or parties must now sign a supplementary agreement on such farm or farms.

This agreement sets forth that in such cases that one of three alternatives be selected in the planting of cotton on farms not covered by a contract that is controlled by a contract signer. The three alternatives are given below:

1. Seventy-five per cent of base acreage—an acreage of cotton not exceeding 75 per cent of the average acreage planted to cotton in 1928 to 1933 inclusive as cotton was grown, provided however, that if cotton was grown in 1933 and the acreage was less than 75 per cent as thus determined, then the assigned acreage shall not exceed the 1933 acreage; and in no case shall the acreage on such farm exceed one-third of the total cultivated acres in 1934.
2. Five acres per plow. An acreage not to exceed five acres per work animal (horse or mule) used in cultivation of cotton on the farm in 1933, provided however, that the assigned acreage shall not exceed that planted in 1933.
3. Twenty-five per cent of Cultivated Acreage. An acreage not to exceed 25 per cent of the cultivated acreage planted to cultivated crops in 1934. This plan of assigning an acreage to be planted to cotton shall be used only in those cases in which neither Plan 1 nor Plan 2 is applicable, and a statement to that effect shall be made to the county committee and shall be attached to the agreement.

ready made on other lands.

These supplementary agreements are subject to approval by the county committee and the Secretary of Agriculture, and in no case does the producer draw rentals or parity payments on such agreements. It is only an agreement that he will not cultivate more than a given number of acres in cotton on the farm not covered by a contract, because of some technicality it could not qualify for 1934-35 contract and other lands did qualify and he is now preparing to operate them under a 1934-35 contract.

To make all of this clear will give an example. Mr. A is operating three farms in 1934. Farms No. 1 and No. 2 are under a 1934-35 contract but Farm No. 3 is not because it would not make 75 pounds per acre, or it did not have cotton on it during the base years, etc. Mr. A will have to sign "1934 Non-Participating Cotton Acreage Adjustment Agreement" covering Farm No. 3. Such signing is necessary or else his contracts on Farms No. 1 and No. 2 will be disapproved.

With all the oil regulation that has been piled up in recent years, it is somewhat astonishing to learn that no permit is needed to drill an oil well in Texas, unless the driller proposes to put the well within prohibited proximity to another well or too near his own property line. The general rule is that a well may not be nearer than 150 feet to the property line, nor within 300 feet of another well. Distances are greater in some fields where special rules have been made. Until a field develops 10,000 barrels production daily, it also is free from proration limitations.

Attorney General James V. Allred has placed Mrs. Bessie Allred, a sister-in-law, temporarily in charge of Austin headquarters of his campaign for governor. She is the wife of Ben Allred, brother of the attorney general, who lives in Austin.

The Texas Press Full-House Special, the new deal train, will leave Dallas on its Pilgrimage of Appreciation at 11 P. M. Thursday, April 5, it was announced Sunday by Lowry Marin of Corsicana, general chairman of the executive committee, following a conference with railroad officials.

The complete itinerary consists of visits to Kansas City, St. Louis, Chicago, Pittsburgh, Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York City. The train will arrive in New York City on Friday, April 13.

Overnight stops will be made in Kansas City, Washington, Philadelphia and New York. The train will spend Sunday and Monday, April 8 and 9 in Chicago.

The 125 Texans on their pilgrimage to Washington to commend President Franklin D. Roosevelt on his leadership in guiding the Nation back to prosperity will arrive at the Nation's capital at 10:30 A. M. Wednesday, April 9. President Roosevelt is expected to be on hand to greet the pilgrims upon their arrival. A full day's program has been arranged for Washington by a committee headed by Jesse H. Jones of Houston, chairman of the RFC, and Silliman Evans, Fourth Assistant Postmaster General. The party will leave Washington Thursday noon.

The Capital-to-Capital Special carrying the 125 Texas newspaper men, professional and business men, and executives will start from Austin at 3:15 P. M. Thursday, April 5. Railroad agents in all eleven points of concentration for the train have been notified as to the time of departure from each of their respective points. All members of the party will meet in Dallas and leave there at the time set.

"Reservations from the train are being received from all parts of the State," Mr. Martin said. "We are very enthusiastic over the response the train has received. We expect to have a full train, and are now receiving invitations from all parts of the Nation asking us to stop in their respective towns.

"Because of the fact that space on the train is so limited, the committee in charge of arrangements is asking that checks be sent with each reservation. We do not figure a reservation made until we have received the check for same.

'What Can I Plant On Acres Rented To The Government?' Answered By Baskin

BY BEN BASKIN
County Farm Agent

Can I plant feed on my rented acres in 1934? Yes—IF you have not been raising feed on your farm, or if you have, you have been raising enough feed to furnish the farm livestock with plenty of feed.

Can I raise maize on my rented acres? NO. You have shown on your contract that in 1932 and 1933 that you had a certain stated number of acres planted to maize. You agree in Section b of Paragraph 4 of the contract that you "will not increase the total acres planted to such crops in 1934 over that planted in 1932 and 1933." In other words you state that you have been planting about 20 acres or 30 acres or 40 acres, or whatever the number might be in maize in 1932 and 1933. This year you will again plant the stated number of acres in maize on the regular feed land, and you will not increase this number of acres.

Can I sell the maize I raise this year on land not rented to the AAA? The answer would be NO. By such action you would be selling the feed raised on the rented acres "indirectly." The contract states that feed raised on the rented acres shall not be sold "either directly or indirectly."

What can I do with anything I might produce on my farm in 1934 that is covered by a contract? You may continue the usual farm practices and sales in 1934 and 1935 that you have always followed, but you can not increase any operation or sales over the years in which your land was not covered by a contract. Your usual sales of usual farm products will not be curtailed except in the case of cotton, but you can not substitute products of the rented acres for those raised on other acres and sell such products.

Why can't I sell the feed raised

Thompson Advised That Federal Land Bank Loans To Be Made Through Bonds

C. C. Thompson, secretary-treasurer of the Colorado National Farm Loan Association, received word today from Wm. I. Myers, Governor of the Farm Credit Administration, Washington, D. C., that Federal land bank loans and land bank commissioner's loans will be made in the future through the Federal Land Bank in bonds of the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation, which bonds are guaranteed by the United States government both as to principal and interest. These bonds will take the place of the cash distribution in the disbursement of the unclosed loans, previously approved by the Federal land banks.

The bonds of the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation, according to the statement by Governor Myers, will have behind them not only the unconditional guarantee of the Federal government as to both principal and interest, and the capital of the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation amounting to about $200,000,000, but also the consolidated bonds of the Federal land banks issued in exchange for the bonds of the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation and the mortgages accepted by the land bank commissioner as security for loans.

Governor Myers assured Secretary Thompson that the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation bonds will be an attractive investment. "They will be as readily marketable as bonds of the United States government and they will be quoted in all of the principal markets," he continued. "Holders who have to dispose of these bonds, should not sell them without first ascertaining their real market value."

The governor particularly stressed the fact that country bankers probably will be large investors in these securities since the creditors of farmers who are being refinanced may not all be in the position where they can hold the bonds so acquired and will find it necessary to sell them. Secretary Thompson states that these bonds, which will be tendered to farmers' creditors in payment of the refinanced indebtedness, are "exempt from all Federal, State, municipal and local taxation, except surtaxes and estate, inheritance and gift taxes. They are lawful security for fifteen-day borrowings by members banks of the Federal Reserve system. They are also lawful investments for all trust, public and fiduciary funds of which the deposit or investment is under the authority or control of the government. The payments of the interest on these bonds and the repayment of their principal are guaranteed by the United States, which means that if the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation should ever be unable to meet the payments on the bonds, the treasury will assume such payments.

"These bonds will be issued in denominations of $100, $500, and $1,000. However, amounts less than $100 will be disbursed in cash. For example, a loan of $965 would be made in a $500 bond, four $100 bonds and the rest in cash. In addition, to provide for certain debts, such as taxes which cannot be paid in bonds, cash covering the required amounts will be provided.

"Loans which have been applied for and approved, but on which the cash has not been paid out, as well as those approved by the bank in the future, will be financed on the above basis. This arrangement in no way disturbs or alters the other provisions of the loans. The interest rate on new loans will continue to be 4 1/2 per cent, for the emergency period when made through a national farm loan association and 5 per cent when made directly by the bank."

New Ways Outlined For Preparation Of Cheaper Meat Cuts

The cheaper cuts of meat can be prepared as attractively as the expensive cuts, with a little more work, Miss Alma E. White of the home economics faculty of the Oklahoma A. & M. College says. She also suggests several ways by which housewives may cook meat.

It is usually the meat bill that is the despair of the housekeeper, especially if she is trying to keep within her food budget. Miss White

Another aid in securing tenderness is cutting across the fibers several times, or by pounding in flour with a meat hammer, causing the flour to be saturated with the meat juices. Then, when the meat is seared, the juices thicken and keep the fibers separated.

Miss White lists pork as usually being much cheaper than beef. Spareribs, neck, hams and shoulders are cheapest. In buying beef, it is to be remembered that the neck is the cheapest, the fore Shank for soups and stews, the brisket for corned beef, the flank, which can be fixed in many ways, and the second cut of round for chopped steak.

"The cheapest cuts of veal are the shoulder, breast, flank and shank. Mutton, besides being cheaper than lamb, has a pleasing flavor when properly cooked. The chuck, or shoulder, for pot roasts, stews, casseroles or dishes or steaks, and the breast usually are cheaper than other cuts.

Miss White suggests the addition of vegetables to those dishes to increase their flavor. But in cooking vegetables with meat, it is best to keep the vegetables in large pieces, or cook them separately; but don't throw away the water in which they are cooked; add it to the meat.

The flavor of many stuffings will enhance cheap cuts of meat. There is such a variety of stuffings that the housewife should use her judgment in applying them to meat dishes.

At the meet Friday there were several places won. Beeman Dockery won second place in extemporaneous speaking. Myrtle Henderson won third place in declamation in senior girls. Osta Dockery won third place in declamation. There have been several places we haven't found out about. All students receiving first, second and third place received a certificate this year instead of a ribbon.

Rogers won first in the junior high jump; Alton Jones, third in shot put and the relay team, composed of Beeman Dockery, R. B. Sweatt, Alton Jones and E. G. Rogers, won second place. We feel that we have made a very creditable showing in the interschoolastic events this year.

Steady Rainfall

ideal season for Spring land preparation and planting. The range, becoming dry in most sections, will now be rapidly transformed into a luxuriant verdant of green as wild rye and native grasses spring up and begin to grow. "Certainly looks good for the cow man," was comment Sunday afternoon by D. H. Snyder, local cattleman.

The rain fell slowly, resulting in little if any damage to plowed farms by washouts and overflows. Temperatures dropped during Saturday and the weather remained cold until Tuesday but no losses to livestock were reported. Ranchers in the sheep and goat country south of Colorado, however, lost heavily in scattered localities, when recently shorn sheep and goats died from effects of the cold rain.

In the North Texas Panhandle a heavy snow blanket averaging 21 inches fell Sunday but warm sunshine caused the frozen moisture to soon melt away. Amarillo reported the heaviest snow in twenty years. Wheat farmers of that territory were especially benefitted. It is estimated that a crop of 15,000,000 bushels will be harvested there this season.

The rain gradually grew lighter west from Colorado. At Coahoma and Vincent one and one-half inches fell. Big Spring and Lamesa received about the same amount of moisture. At Midland only half inch fell. Sweetwater, Abilene and other points east reported good rains. Eastland received four inches. 1.95 inches fell at San Angelo.

Ruebelle will appreciate your vote for County Clerk.

MIDLAND VISITORS PRAISE COLORADO LIONS FOR FINE LEADERSHIP RECORD HELD

Three Additional Cubs Voted Into Service Organization At Meeting Friday

"I have been impressed after visiting with this club here today that in Colorado is one of the greatest service club organizations of which our State can boast, out from the influences of which surely is radiating effective and lasting leadership for all that is desirable in community progress."

That, along with other complimentary remarks, featured address delivered at the Lions Club Friday by Paul T. Vickers, manager of the Midland chamber of commerce, who with other citizens of that city were guests of the club.

Marion F. Peters, past president of the Midland club and a candidate for governor of District 2-T, Texas, spoke feelingly of his appreciation of Lionism and the many demonstrations of its influence in Colorado. Mr. Peters presented a key emblem to John Summers, giving the Lion an impressive lecture on tenets of the organization and urging him to go still further in rendering good as a Lion.

Frank Stubbeman, president of the Midland club, and Joe D. Chambers, another member of the club there, were others to address the meeting. They mentioned candidacy of Lion Peters for district governor and promised to have a representative delegation here for the convention next month.

Three additional Colorado citizens were unanimously voted membership in the club Friday. They were G. E. Womack, C. E. Harris and Sam J. Smith. Applications from two prospective Lions were passed after the first reading and their applications will be voted on today.

John A. Thompson and W. S. Stoneham, voted into the club a week before, were received into active membership in presentation address by Rev. Wallace Jones. Thompson was formerly a member of the club.

Rev. Dick O'Brien, pastor of First Baptist church, called attention to fact that on the following Sunday revival meetings were to open at First Methodist and First Presbyterian churches, with the respective pastors doing the preaching. "I appeal to the men in this Lions Club to extend every cooperation in this campaign," he said.

Motion that the club wire members of the girls basketball club at Celeste that the club were backing them one hundred percent and would expect them to win the A. A. U. tournament, carried unanimously. Jim Greene spoke to the motion, praising the local team for splendid showing made up to that time in the contest. They had met and defeated teams representing Pike and Dimmitt. The latter has twice been State champions in recent years.

Doyle Williams spoke of FFA Chapter barbecue to be given at Ruddick Park that evening, urging the Lions to be present. Williams became one of the club's official goats after the medal formerly in possession of Jack Helton was passed to the congenial director of vocational agriculture at high school.

ADDITIONAL HONOR PAID LEADER FOR HIS SERVICE TO COLORADO LIONS CLUB

Jim Greene, charter member of the Colorado Lions club and active in affairs of the service organization since its inception almost twelve years ago, has received additional recognition from Lions International.

A few weeks ago Greene was announced as a deputy district governor of District 2-T, Texas. Shortly thereafter he was awarded the emblem of a key Lion to be followed by announcement that he would be made a master key Lion during the convention here in April.

Monday morning Secretary Grantland was advised by Lions International in Chicago that a master key emblem plaque had been awarded to Greene. This token is to be formally presented Lion Greene at the regular meeting Friday.

COLORADO GIRLS STOPPED AFTER TAKING VICTORY IN TWO CONSECUTIVE ROUNDS

Winsboro Misses Run Over Locals At Celeste Last Friday, 40 to 20

After winning two consecutive victories in annual State A. A. U. tournament at Celeste last week, Colorado met defeat Friday night and for the second time within a week returned home after having lost the right to compete in basketball contests.

Entering first round of play at Celeste Tuesday night Colorado defeated Pike 49 to 11. Wednesday night the local lassies were pitted against Dimmitt, State champion girls in 1931 and 1932. The locals won 26 to 23, leaving impression here and over the State they would prove formidable contenders for the pennant of victory.

But Colorado sustained a crushing defeat at hands of the Winsboro girls Friday night. The score was 40 to 20, with the charges of Red Coffman playing a defensive game in all four periods.

EVENTS THAT GAVE TEXAS AND THE NATION COLORFUL HISTORY STAGED IN APRIL

Month To Open With Easter Anniversary of Opening Civil, World Wars

The month of April, to open this year with Easter Sunday, brings with its advent the anniversary of several great events that served to make history for Texas and the United States. Readers of The Record might find interest to note that it was during this month, April 21, 1846, that the battle of San Jacinto was fought, a victory for Texans, that definitely changed destiny of this great commonwealth.

Two of the world's important conflicts had their origin during the month of April. On April 6, 1917, the United States congress, acting on recommendation personally delivered by President Woodrow Wilson, passed declaration of war against the Imperial German government, bringing this country into the World War.

April 12, 1861, the bombardment of Fort Sumner was begun, firing opening gun of the Civil War and one of the most destructive conflicts the Western Hemisphere has ever known.

April 13 is the anniversary date of Thomas Jefferson and April 19 is Patriot's Day, due to fact the battle of Lexington was fought on that date in 1775. April 22, 1889, Oklahoma was opened to settlement and April 27, 1822, U. S. Grant was born.

LETTERS ON DANIEL BOONE
The 5th graders have written letters to Miss Crosthwaite, telling her what they like best about Daniel Boone. Two of them follow:

705 Vine Street
Colorado, Texas
March 14, 1934
Dear Miss Crosthwaite,

I want to tell you what I like best about Daniel Boone. He is because he was so courageous, unafraid, a big hunter, explorer, and because he liked room.

There is one story, though, that I like better than others about Boone. It was when his daughter, Jimima, was captured, he knew just exactly what and how to do. That is what I like about people and what I like about you. He took, on his way to rescue his daughter, three of his best "trailers" and comrades. Then, when the Indians were asleep, he recaptured the girls.

I know you have read the story, but it is so interesting and so brave of Boone, I had to tell it again.
Your loving pupil,
NANCY PRICE.

229 East 4th St.
Colorado, Texas
March 14, 1934
Dear Miss Crosthwaite,

What I like most about Daniel Boone is that he was a great Indian fighter, a great hunter and trapper. He was a master in going through unbroken forests. He could go through a forest he never heard of and not get lost. He was loyal to the last drop of his blood.

These are the reasons why I like Daniel Boone.
Your pupil,
GEORGE HYATT.

Rutherford, 58, retired business man of Ralls and the father of Douglas Rutherford of Colorado, died at the Terry Hotel Friday morning at 2:05 o'clock from a heart ailment and complications. He had suffered from Bright's disease for some time. Mr. Rutherford had come to Colorado two weeks before for a visit with his son.

The body was taken by a Kiker & Son funeral coach to Ralls Friday, arriving there at 3 in the afternoon and lay in state at the family residence until 4, when rites were observed at the Ralls Methodist church with Rev. J. D. Crosby, pastor, assisted by Rev. R. L. Travis of Ralls, officiating. Burial was in a Ralls cemetery.

In addition to the Colorado man, deceased is survived by his widow and one other son, Henry Rutherford of Tatum, New Mexico. All three were present when the end came and attended the services in Ralls.

Five brothers and two sisters survive. The brothers are Wayne Rutherford of Brownfield, Will Rutherford of Tulsa, Robert Rutherford of Tulsa, Oklahoma, Joe Rutherford of Amarillo, and Clint Rutherford of Long Beach, California. The sisters are Mimes, Minnie Barkley of Billings, Montana and Alice Hardwick of Fort Smith, Arkansas.

Dick Delaney and Jim White were among Coloradans attending the services at Ralls. The Roy Dozier barber shop, where Douglas Rutherford is employed, was closed during Friday.

Relatives of the family attending the services from Colorado included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Terry and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Terry.
Pall bearers were A. T. Reed, R. J. Belcher, I. D. Moore, L. A. Wicks and Jimmie Rankin of Ralls and B. W. Mitchell of Crosbyton.

Clare Meskimen, 1st place.
The 5th grade picture memory team was composed of the following pupils:
Catherine Slagel, 95; Bobbie Lou Cooper, 94; Harvey Hicks, 94; Louis Bodzin, 94; Nancy Price, 93; Alice Womack, 93; Freddie Watson, 93; Mildred Fannin, 91; Lucille Doekery, 90; Edwin Pickens, 90; Harriett Ann Pritchett, 89.

This gave us an average score of 92.36, which our teacher, Miss Crosthwaite, considers a good score for such a large team. We won third place among the eight teams who entered this contest.
We are very glad to have such honors as these.

JOKES
Sam Richardson was interested in the zoo. Upon hearing that a truck load of monkeys was to be delivered to the zoo he started to the zoo. On the way he passed a slightly intoxicated man and said, "Have you seen a truck load of monkeys pass here?" The man looked at him and said: "What's a matter? Did you fall off?"

Mr. Holman says he knows all about Fat Tuesday, Ash Wednesday and Good Friday but he would like to know what the heck is Nut Sunday.

Miss Davidson: "Robert, go see what that odor coming from the library is."
Robert K.: "Oh, that is the dead silence they keep in there."

Mr. Cline: "Can you give an example of wasted energy?"
Grover W.: "Yes, telling a hair raising story to a baldheaded man."

Harold Cawthorn handed in a paper that said: "See Louise Doekery's paper for my answers."
Miss Greene: "Name three collective nouns."
Ted Hale: "Waste paper basket, garbage can, and fly paper."

The other day Miss Crosthwaite said that a mosquito could fly 14 hours without settling. Just about that time Weddon Hunt who was rubbing his arm said: "Then why doesn't it?"

Van H. (after choral club): "I don't think that vocalizing does me any good."
Ernest S.: "I don't like to be vulcanized either."

Requirements For Teaching Outlined In Communication Received Here This Week
Practically all teachers in Mitchell County Rural schools will be interested in a communication received this week by Mrs. Ruby McGill Dodge, county superintendent, concerning the State Board of Education's recent ruling on qualifications of teachers in rural aid schools.
The ruling is as follows: "Teachers employed in state aid schools shall be required to have a minimum of two years' college training or the equivalent thereof and shall be required to have a Texas State Teachers' Certificate of no lower standing than a six-year elementary or a four-year high school grade, provided that those teachers now in State aid schools not measuring up to this standard may continue their work in State aid schools if they attend a standard State Teachers' college or other standard college or university each summer until such standard shall have been attained. In so far as it is possible, teachers in state aid schools shall secure special preparation in the subjects or grades where-in they are employed to teach."
The following interpretation of the ruling as given by Dr. L. A. Woods, State superintendent of public instruction:
1. A minimum of two years' college training must be had by all beginning teachers in 1934-35. A beginning teacher is one who has not taught before regularly under contract.
2. The equivalent of two years' training is the completion of the sophomore year in college either by correspondence, extension, or resident work.
3. Teachers now employed in state aid school may continue in service even though they do not have two years' college credit, provided they will complete work toward a degree each summer until two years of college work has been completed. Teachers now employed in schools other than state aid schools may contract to teach in state aid schools even though they do not have two years' college credit, provided they will complete work toward a degree each summer until two years' college work has been completed. If the state aid school is also a first-class affiliated school, the rules for teachers in such affiliated schools must be applied to the teachers of the state aid schools also.
4. Teachers not measuring up to the certificate requirement may continue to teach, provided their certificates legally entitle them to teach in the grades wherein they are employed, and provided further that the holder of a second class certificate shall not be eligible to teach in rural aid schools.
5. In applying for work teachers should ask to teach in subjects in which they have had special training.

Kennedy Announces Unique Radio Card Wednesday Evening

A thrilling, true story from the Indianapolis Speedway—the voices of Dan Moran, president of Continental Oil Company, and John B. Kennedy, nationally known author and radio announcer—as well as special music by the Rondoliers quartet and Irving Talbot's 22-piece orchestra, will be blended into a coast-to-coast Conoco radio party Wednesday night, April 4, over 27 NBC stations.

This all-star program, known as the "Conoco Family" broadcast, will dramatize a recent major event, hitherto kept secret, but now making history in the automotive world.

Special guests for the evening will be 25,000 Conoco dealers, jobbers and employees in all parts of the country. Since the facts to be presented are endorsed by the American Automobile Association, however, and will prove valuable to motorists everywhere, a cordial invitation to listen in is also being extended to the general public.

Local radio owners who wish to listen in may do so by dialing their nearest NBC, Blue network station, Wednesday night at 9:30 Central time.

The third round or quarter finals the Wolves received their second defeat of the season. Winsboro ousted the Wolves by the decisive score of 40 to 20.

LA TERTULIA

By Polly Bellow

La Tertulia met March 26 at the usual class period with President Taylor presiding. Secretary Mabel Majors read the minutes and Frances Price, the treasurer, read to the club a letter from the executive secretary of the Pan American Students Forum concerning the furthering of our membership in the Forum.

The Spanish students who make up the Mitchell county chapter of the Forum received the certificate of membership last week. The first meeting will be held April 13th, with a program honoring Pan-American day. The chapter has forty nine active members, and eighty associate members. The work of this chapter is expected to be very interesting and any person who is interested in Spanish may become members.

Miss Smith showed tiny handmade figures of the participants of a bull fight to the club. After discussing the part each one played the reading of "Zaraguetta" was resumed.

FUTURE FARMER NEWS

The Future Farmer barbeque was not as great a success as was expected due to unfavorable weather conditions but we did very well under the circumstances.

We wish to express our thanks to the people who braved the storm and say that we'll do better next time.

The Future Farmer Livestock and Dairy judging teams will go to Lubbock, April 2, this will be their first trip of the year.

We wish the best of luck to these two teams.

SENIOR NEWS

The seniors in English IV are now writing one act plays. The best seven plays will be presented in assembly by the seniors. Also the seven best plays that are dramatized by the seniors.

Last week the seniors finished their short stories and each week one will be printed.

Wonder what the girl basketballers found so interesting about the referee of the tournament at the girls tag dance?

Along with being such a beautiful brunette, Cleo S. seems to have a rather enticing personality. At least that's what the gold basketball is to represent.

Chuck Wiggly evidently believes in that quotation, "Never Give Up." Frances gives the guy a break, and see how it feels to have the attentions of "a school boy."

JUNIOR NEWS

It is said by two certain freshman girls that all Joe Cooper needs to look like Clark Gable is a moustache. George Kiker hasn't been the same since Annetta Lacy has been sick with the measles. John Morgan Hale says he will never drive his dad's Ford anymore. Wonder why?

The Junior-Senior banquet will be given May 18 because all the week-ends during April are filled. Lenn Morrison is rushing one of the Jenkins twins, but most of us can't tell which, and we wonder how Lenn tells.

FRESHMAN NEWS

Nina Lara Smith has been doing a lot of bicycling lately. Everyone wonders who she is trying to get that beautiful figure for.

Virginia Reese says she shows Thursday night and Sunday were good. She won't tell who her escort was except that his first name was Cobb and his last name Merritt.

Annetta Lacey has recovered from her bout with the measles. Hazel Grubbs won third place in declamation Friday.

Rebecca Smoot has another rival over her new beau. Catherine Delaney seems very interested.

Rhudean Ballard also had the measles. The Freshman girls gave Ruby Lee James a shower Friday afternoon. Ice cream and cake was served.

Elna Womack's intellect is trying at times, says Mrs. Cantrill. When told that Columbus discovered America in 1492, she said: "You must be pretty old to remember that far back."

Alyne Moore gets letters from a boy in Coahoma but we won't mention his name.

Catherine Delaney spent all last week in Mineral Wells.

Ewing Lee seems to have lots of trouble with his new car.

Wonder why Conor M. is so attentive to Estelle H.?

Noel L. isn't absent much lately. Funny isn't it. Ask Noel about it.

John McC. sees that Doris isn't lonesome.

We hear June Cox is going to take up tennis.

Ewing Lee has found a remedy for chalk squeaking on the board. He says: "Grease it."

Wonder why Mason S. and Muszette H. don't clock now.

Johnny Mac P. actually smiled today.

Earnest Burdine has picked up in his English and History lesson lately. Reasons unknown.

Joe C. was seen flirting with the librarian yesterday.

S. L. Davis, alias Peroxide, alias Cotton, was seen eating the leaves of an English book.

HOME EC. I B

By Doris Wayne O'Brien
The girls of our Home Ec. class have been working on their pajamas very hard. Miss Jennings puts on the board each day what we are to have finished at the end of that class period and most of the girls are keeping up with their projects nicely.

Nearly all of the girls have turned in their home projects and will soon start on another because we are required to have 30 hours on them.

Miss Jennings is giving permission to some of the girls to work on their pajamas during conference periods because for some reason they are behind with their work.

We will be very glad to finish our pajamas and model them.

SECOND YEAR H. E. NEWS

The second year Home Economics girls have been studying about the high school girl's wardrobe. They studied about the accessories of costumes and the dress itself. The girls have said that this study has already helped them in their own wardrobe.

The girls have also studied about the layette and what it takes to make a layette for the baby. Their next class project will be a child's garment but before they can make the garment they must first of all consider the characteristics of children's clothing.

The class discussed the self-helps for the garment so that the child may dress and undress himself without help from an elder person.

THIRD YEAR H. E. NEWS

The members of the third year Home Ec. class have been planning menus and preparing special diets for pre-school children. Finding the food values and amount of calories needed each day. These diets will be given to the mothers of the children they have been prepared for.

HUMOR

Frank Smith: "I'm scared to death. I just got a letter from a man who says that if I don't leave his wife alone he'll shoot me."
Chuck W.: "That's nothing to get scared about, just leave his wife alone."
Frank Smith: "I know but, he didn't sign his name."

Saint Peter: "How did you get up here?"
Newly arrived spirit: "Flu."
She: "Don't you think that the way to true happiness is to forget yourself, to bury yourself completely in your work?"

He: "Sorry I don't. I'm a concrete worker."

Mr. Coffman: "Tell us what you can about the manners and customs of the people of India, Marybel."
M. C.: "They ain't got no manners and they don't wear no costumes."

Ma and Pa had a terrible time getting married. She wouldn't marry him when he was drunk and he wouldn't marry her when he was sober.

Hubby: "You can't make biscuits as my mother used to make them."
Wife: "You can't make dough as my father used to make it."

Sorry, old man, he said as he got out of the taxi, I haven't a cent. That's a fact. You can't get blood out of a stone you know.

"No?" said the driver as he rolled up his sleeves. What makes you think you are a stone?"

"Look here waiter, I found a hair in the ice cream, a hair in the honey and a hair in the applesauce."
Waiter: "Well I can understand how the hair got into the ice cream. It came from shaving the ice. I know how the hair got into the honey. It came from the comb. But I will be darned if I know how that hair got into the applesauce. My boss keeps nothing but baldwins."

Wife: "I wish I were a man."
Husband: "Why?"
Wife: "I could make my little wife so happy by getting her that hat I saw in the window yesterday."

Bob King: "My girls divine."
Paul K.: "Your girl may be divine by my girls de berries."

TEACHERS HOBBIES

Wise men say that the character of people is sometimes best revealed by the occupation or hobby they have outside of their regular work. Below is a list of the teachers of this school and their hobbies, so we'll let you judge for yourself.

1. Mr. Cantrill's pet hobby is bowling and firing up a nauseating pipe loaded with Edgeworth.
2. Mrs. Cantrill's pet hobbies are looks and dogs.
3. Miss Cooper's is baby typing.
4. Mr. Foster says his is wood-work.
5. Miss Smith's hobbies are books, poetry and travel.
6. Mr. Coffman's is collecting.
7. Mr. Croslin's is politics and study of ancient history.
8. Miss Barrett's is hiking by herself in the mountains.
9. Miss Jennings says her pet delight or hobby is "to go places and see things."
10. Mr. Wilkins says outside of teaching school he likes to fish.

The sophomores are still proud of Wilburn Henderson even if Loraine did beat him in declamation.

The following people were absent from school some of the past week: Tom Hughes, Ruby G. Coe, Wilburn Henderson and Lois Smith. We hope these people were not too ill (maybe they didn't have their lesson, that being the cause of absence.)

Mildred Montgomery, who has just been here about a week has withdrawn again. She has moved back to Fluvanna.

FOODS I

The members of the Foods class are divided into groups, with 6 girls to a group. Each group served a simple breakfast. At each meal a girl serves as the host, hostess, son, daughter, lady guest, and gentleman guest, thus learning the duties of each.

The tables were very attractive. We made a number of errors in preparing and serving the simple breakfast and each group criticized themselves, then Miss Jennings added to these criticisms and offered helpful suggestion. When we prepared and served the medium breakfast everyone could see the improvements made.

We are studying different dishes that may be served for a heavy breakfast and then each group will plan a menu and serve a heavy breakfast.

We have missed the girls who have been absent and are glad they are back in class.

TRIP TO CELESTE

We left the high school at about 1:45 Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. Reid and Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins accompanied us girls and Coach Coffman.

We spent the first night in Stephenville. That night they took us all to the theater, which we enjoyed very much.

We ate breakfast in the Tarleton College dining room and they showed us all the interesting things around the campus. We watched the boys drill for awhile and then got in the cars and started for Celeste.

We arrived at Celeste about 2:00 o'clock and were assigned rooms. Six girls stayed at one place and the other five at another which pleased us very much. Then we went to bed so we would feel well for the game that we played at 8 o'clock, and won.

We went to Greenville Tuesday and went to the show. "Jimmy the Gent" was showing and during the show a long drawn out kiss, was shown. Grace Callan, looking at coach, said: "Whew! I never could hold my breath that long!" And then was her face red!

Friday we went to Greenville and were given passes to the show which was an unusually good one. That night we lost to Winsboro and the girls took it pretty hard. Coach couldn't find some of the girls and searched until he finally located them out in the rain crying as loud as they could. And what do you suppose he did? Cried too, of course. Afterwards he went to the dance they gave the girls in the gym.

Saturday we left for Colorado, and stopped at Dallas to visit the zoo, which we found very interesting. Just out of Ft. Worth we had an accident when some man ran into Mr. Hughes' car. We had lunch in Ft. Worth and went to the show, starting for home about five o'clock. We reached here after midnight, having had a grand time.

DEBATE BOYS WIN MIDLAND CONTEST

The boys' debate team met a team from Midland high school in Big Spring on Tuesday afternoon and defeated them by a decision of 3-0. The Colorado boys had the negative side of the Interscholastic League subject, Resolved, That the United States should adopt the essential features of the British system of Radio control and operation.

A debate with the Loraine girls, winners in this county, has been matched for Thursday afternoon. The match is to be held in Loraine, and will be followed by a return match in our school some time next week.

The boys are working hard in preparation for the district meet which is to be held in Sweetwater April 6. The team consists of Joe Alford and Harvey Baker.

BUSINESS BETTER, SAYS GAS UTILITY MANAGER

Business is getting better without interruption, strongly indicating that West Texas is gradually returning to stable condition, stated L. M. Scholl of Sweetwater, district manager for the Community Natural Gas Company, while in Colorado Tuesday afternoon.

USE OF RENTED ACRES

Mitchell county is renting over 43,500 acres of cotton land to the AAA in 1934. These acres are leased and controlled by the AAA for the period of the contract, and cannot be re-rented or re-leased to anyone else.

There are two points to bear in mind in retiring these acres. The first point is to get the acres out of competitive production. A mere shift to other crops or other livestock production is against the interests of the farmers as a whole, and also just as illegal as contract-writing lawyers can possibly make it.

On the other hand, there are perfectly sound and legitimate uses this land may be put to. The chief of these in the case of cotton land is to use the land for making the home living and feeding the farm work-stock. And this can be done under two conditions. One of these is that the farmer has not produced his own food and feed in the past, and the other that the farmer has produced only a part of his food and feed at home and needs the rented acres to complete the job.

TAXPAYERS GET A BREAK A bill has been introduced in Congress authorizing payment of Federal and local taxes on government property utilized for purely commercial business purposes in competition with private interests of citizens of the United States.

type of unfair competition with private citizens destroys highly taxed private business with the result that remaining private property is forced to carry a heavier tax load to offset the deficits thus created.

Without a doubt supporters of tax-exempt, socialized government competition with private citizens, will strenuously oppose this bill. If it is passed, the tremendous subsidies which political business enterprises now enjoy, will be wiped out and a foundation of tax equality and justice established, which will offer tremendous encouragement to private initiative and enterprise.

IS LIFE WORTH THE CANDLE

King Solomon, the wisest of Kings says:

"Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labor that I had labored to do, and behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun."

Here we have the testimony of an expert on human life. It would be hard to select out of the famous and brilliant characters that have adorned human history and helped to make history, a man so well equipped to give evidence about life, its gain and its loss, its value or its lack of value than Solomon.

Solomon declares that he hates life, and that all is vanity and vexation of spirit, that in human life a wise man is no better than a fool, and that everything changes to ashes. From his testimony we are brought face to face with this fact, that life is worth living to some people, and is without profit to others.

King Solomon represents the vast class of men and women who expect to find life valuable because of what they can get out of it. To them life is a gold mine where they are to constantly dig out the precious treasures. To them life is a storehouse from which they are to receive all precious things. They expect to find happiness and peace of soul by getting. Solomon tried it on the most dignified and glorious scale.

First of all he was a very brilliant man. God had given him great wisdom, so that none of his ancestors and none of the men who came after him were as wise as he. Now, Solomon considered his conditions and made up his mind that he would get out of his wisdom all the joy there was in it. He gave his whole heart and soul up to search out wisdom. He proposed to know more than any man ever had, about the world in which he lived. He thought that in that way he would get peace and happiness, great joy of soul. He says: "I communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, I am come to great estate, and have gotten more wisdom than all they that have been before me in Jerusalem, yea, my heart had great experience of wisdom and knowledge. And I gave my heart to know wisdom."

On the other hand, if we will follow Paul's example, and as the Holy Spirit reveals Christ to us as our Saviour, lift our eyes to Him with reverence and say as Paul did: "Lord what wilt thou have me to do?", and follow on with obedience in the footsteps of Jesus, doing God's will, seeking to bless our fellowmen in the name of our Lord, whether we be sick or poor, whether life be soft with blessed things or hard with severe trials, there shall be an inner peace, there shall be a joy, there shall be hope and faith triumphant that we shall call it a good fight and a glorious victory and acclaim that LIFE IS WORTH THE CANDLE.

the deep things of knowledge, but he would seek the pleasure of the senses. His eye should see beautiful sights, his ear should hear beautiful sonnets, he should know all the sweet and soft caresses of love, everything that vast power, that unlimited wealth, and that his great wisdom could compass to make every drop of blood in his veins tingle with life and make every sensitive nerve quiver with delicate delight should be brought together. With this in view he gathered rare wines from the ends of the earth, and gathered the most beautiful women from the palaces of the world to grace his banquets and give zest to his revelry.

He built great public works, he erected beautiful palaces, and planted vineyards. He laid out gardens and orchards, and from the ends of the earth rare shrubs and trees were brought, yielding every variety of flower and fruit. He built great reservoirs to hold the water to irrigate his gardens and his orchards. He had an army of servants to wait upon him and minister to his comfort. He had great summer palaces, and wide stretching fields, and far reaching pastures filled with flocks of sheep and herds of cattle. He gathered together the greatest collection of silver vessels and gold vessels and rich treasure that had ever been seen in the world. He was a lover of music, and his court became the musical center of the world of his time. Men and women singers from every land were attracted to it, and all the musical instruments together in the great orchestras that made music for Solomon. And he says about it himself: "So I was great, and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem, also my wisdom remained with me. And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy, for my heart rejoiced in all my labor, and this was my portion of all my labor."

And then he gives his final summing up of what all this great search meant to him, this vast struggle for pleasure, and this is what he says:

"Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and all the labor that I had labored to do, and behold all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun."

Solomon, though he was a King, though he had vast power, though he had unlimited wealth, though he had the applause of the world, though he was the most brilliant man of his age, found life not worth the candle, and the reason was because he expected to find happiness and peace simply through getting. His whole theory of life was to get. He was to get money. He was to gather wisdom. He was to collect gold and silver vessels. Musicians were to play to him. Servants were to wait on him. Trees were to bloom and bear their fruit for him. And he was to be a great Kingly sponger that was to absorb the beauty and the fragrance and the glory of the world. Well, he had his chance, and he sucked himself full, and said when he was done:

"Therefore I hated life, because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me, for all is vanity and vexation of spirit."

Evidently life is not worth living to a man who simply lives to get. Another great patriot of the Bible was Paul. Paul says:

"I have finished my course, I have kept the faith, henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day."

Now dear readers if you follow Solomon, and live your life on the principle of getting, indifferent to the claims of God, careless of the claims of your fellow man, seeking only for your own gratification, whether it be for education, or for power, or for wealth, or for sensual pleasure, you will come to Solomon's end. You may laugh now and say, "as people sometimes do: 'I care nothing for religion, I live just to have a good time, and yet I am happy as the day is long.' That is all very well for the moment, but the day will come, and it will come infinitely sooner than you expect, when you will sing a different song."

Any one of a dozen things might happen at any moment, and which are entirely beyond your power to prevent, would still all the laughter on your lips and take all the hope out of your heart and all the lightness out of your step. Hear God's warning, that there is no peace to the soul which gives itself to selfish gratification and refuses obedience to God.

On the other hand, if we will follow Paul's example, and as the Holy Spirit reveals Christ to us as our Saviour, lift our eyes to Him with reverence and say as Paul did: "Lord what wilt thou have me to do?", and follow on with obedience in the footsteps of Jesus, doing God's will, seeking to bless our fellowmen in the name of our Lord, whether we be sick or poor, whether life be soft with blessed things or hard with severe trials, there shall be an inner peace, there shall be a joy, there shall be hope and faith triumphant that we shall call it a good fight and a glorious victory and acclaim that LIFE IS WORTH THE CANDLE.

INCREASED TOURIST TRADE FOR COLORADO THIS YEAR PREDICTED BY CONOCO OIL

Travel Bureau Arrives Here Monday For Brief Visit; Richie In Charge

"More tourists will visit Colorado during 1934, and more money will be spent in local business establishments by visiting motorists than during either of the past two years."

Such was the prediction made here by Chas. S. Ritchie, commander of a roomy red, green and white Conoco Travel Bureau bus which rolled into town Monday, stopping long enough to allow its personnel to inspect local points of scenic and historical interest and check over the touring assistance now being rendered by Conoco service stations here.

Ritchie told The Colorado Record that one reason why an increase in vacation travel to this area seems probable is that 1933 statistics compiled by the Conoco Travel Bureau indicate a decidedly encouraging trend.

In 1932, for example, the Bureau served 143,097 groups of tourists; routed 31,000 of them into or through the State, and 4,300 of them to this part of the State. But in 1933, a total of 196,415 groups, or an increase of 53,318, was served; 59,000 sent to the State, and 8,640 to this area. "Since there is an average of four people in each of these groups, the increase in local income which 1934 is likely to bring appears more than impressive. The trip service goal which the Bureau has set for 1934 is 300,000! People aided by the Bureau last year are found in every State in the Union, as well as Mexico and every province in Canada."

The Conoco Travel Bureau, Ritchie explained, has grown, in four years' time, from a small branch serving a few hundred people to the largest organization of its type in America. It was founded by Continental in response to the demands of motor vacationists and everyday travelers who wish to be certain they are taking direct, trouble-free routes to their destinations and yet see the most interesting sights found in the country they journey through.

The Bureau's second major aim is to increase tourist travel to all of the nation's scenic regions. Through approximately 18,000 Company and dealer service stations and hundreds of newspapers, hotels and chambers of commerce, the Bureau is distributing attractive maps and literature featuring this city and its surroundings as well as numberless other interesting points in America.

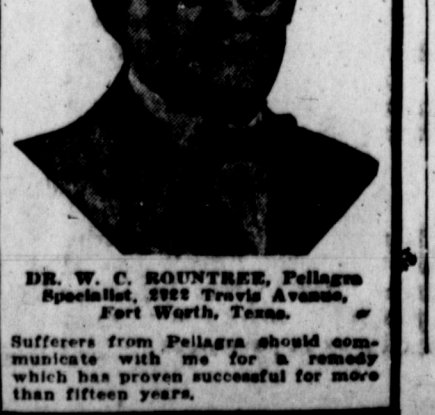

This unusual service, to which every motorist is entitled without spending a cent—even for postage—goes farther than literature distribution. In the Bureau's central offices in Denver, more than a hundred carefully trained employes consult daily road reports from every State in the Union; note even the shortest detours, and incorporate this information into the routes they mark on all maps sent out.

Motorists who apply for free Travel Bureau service also receive a special "Passport" which helps them keep a careful expense record of their trips, identifies them wherever they may be and secures additional privileges for them at all Conoco stations. Each station acts as a field branch of the Bureau and is prepared to furnish valuable information to all tourists. All cottage camps and hotels throughout the country have been catalogued and described in free literature now being sent out by the Bureau.

Conoco division officers accompanying Ritchie were C. L. Oien, assistant Division Manager; H. E. Keim, District Superintendent; W. J. Finnegan, Special Merchandiser, and R. H. Robinson, operator.

The Conoco bus is equipped with special loud speakers which make it possible to broadcast radio and phonograph music, as well as announcements made by the bus commander, for almost a mile in any direction.

Free Conoco Travel Bureau service is available to all readers of The Colorado Record and may be secured by writing direct to the Bureau's offices in Denver, Colorado, or filling out special application cards distributed by all Conoco service stations and dealers.

Legal Codes Affecting Operation School Busses Cited By School Superintendent

"With many more children being transported by school buses in Mitchell county this year than ever before, a bulletin which has just been received by Mrs. Ruby McGill Dodge, county superintendent, from Dr. L. A. Woods, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, concerning the drivers of such buses will be of special interest to rural people of this county."

The bulletin reads as follows: "We are now transporting in Texas as more school children than at any other time in the history of the state. The great hazard of grade crossings demands that drivers of school buses either empty or loaded be required to come to a full stop before crossing the track. Boards of trustees are required to incorporate this regulation in all contracts, and bonds should be given for performance of this requirement."

"Failure to observe this regulation should be sufficient cause to discharge the driver. Observance of this rule will not only protect the children transported in Texas, but it will also have an excellent psychological influence upon the children when they are driving their own cars. They will learn to stop, look and listen. We hope by issuing this warning to prevent serious accidents. So far we have been extremely fortunate, but there have been some horrible accidents in other states and we wish to avoid such mishaps in Texas."

"I respectfully call your attention to the following article relating to transportation of school children passed by the Forty-first Legislature of Texas:—"

"The trustees of any school district, common or independent, making provisions for the transportation of pupils to and from school shall for such purpose employ or contract with a responsible person or firm. No person shall be employed to transport pupils who is not at least twenty-one years of age and a competent driver of motor vehicles, and sound in body and mind. All motor vehicles operated by school districts, directly or by contract, in the transportation of pupils shall be covered and so glassed or curtained at the sides and rear as to protect the pupils from the inclemencies of the weather and shall at all times be equipped with efficient lights and brakes. The drivers of all school transportation vehicles shall be required to give bond for such amount as the Board of Trustees of the district may prescribe, not less than $2,000, payable to the district and conditioned upon the faithful and careful discharge of their duties. . . They shall, before crossing any railroad or interurban tracks bring their vehicles to a dead stop. Failure to do this shall forfeit the driver's contract."

"This department receives information frequently that the law is being utterly disregarded by many drivers of school buses in the state. . . Please see that the drivers are complying with the law. Call the attention of the trustees to this very serious matter and forfeit contracts of drivers who persistently refuse to comply with the law."

Bank Robbers Run Rampant Over Texas As Peace Officers Remain Handicapped

Virtually unmolested by financially-handicapped peace officers, elusive bands of robbers have conducted a widespread series of raids on Texas banks recently, choosing those where the loot was small but the task easy. They have taken a toll of 12 banks in the last month and a half and made attempts at two others. The loot, ranging from $50 to $22,500, totaled $56,000 and in only two cases have officers apprehended suspects. In another instance, however, bank employees killed one of two men who drew pistols on them and brought about the arrest of the other. The robbers have run rampant over the wide expanses of the Lone Star state and their scattered prey indicated no one group, such as the Clyde Barrow crowd, was responsible. Drastic reductions in travel allowances of Texas rangers and other officers have so handicapped them in their pursuit of desperadoes that robbers now find it possible to be safely out of reach of capture in a few hours. One ranger said that, on the basis of his present permitted expenditures, he could drive only a few hours a day, then would have to wait until the next day to resume the chase. Capt. R. W. Aldrich, veteran Texas ranger, expressed the opinion that the business of robbing banks flourished in Texas because the offenders were able to pay for protection. "They get the money and spend it generously for an asylum," he said, "while the county and state officers are helpless to go after them because of lack of finances." Another factor aiding robbers has been the growing reluctance of bank officials to shoot it out with them. In spite of the fact the Texas Bankers' association has a standing reward of $5,000 for each robber killed, the victims in recent forays have chosen to play safe. As a means of stamping out the bold maraudings, E. C. Brand, state banking commissioner, suggested that state banks keep only a small amount of cash in their vaults, removing in the main, the goal of burglars or robbers. In addition, officers of several of the larger cities have put the short-wave radio to greater use. Station KVP of the Dallas police department has extended its range to towns within a radius of more than 100 miles and covers a large part of North Texas. San Antonio plans a similar station and they will work together closely. Sheriffs and constables in the smaller towns and cities then will be in a position to receive quickly bank robbery reports. In some communities, a short wave set always tuned on the Dallas station, has been placed in a central location where someone will hear it 24 hours a day. The latest series of holdups began Jan. 29 with the $5,000 robbery of the First National bank at Midlothian in Dallas county. Four days later, four men obtained $22,500 at the First Coleman National bank in West Texas. The second largest haul was $13,500 from the First National bank at Whitesboro, in north central Texas. The two instances where robbers failed to obtain loot were at Alto in East Texas, where one man was killed, and at Paradise in Wise county, where four men worked several hours early in the morning but were unable to enter the vault or safe. Vote for Rubelle Smartt for County Clerk.

A fine rain fell here last week-end and put the ground in fine shape for planting. Some few have planted corn and gardens. We are very glad to say the fruit crop did not get killed. There will be a good crop if something else doesn't happen to it. Several from here attended the Inter-scholastic League meet at Snyder Friday. Lila and Lucille Pope won second place in senior spelling and Roy Lee Merket won fourth place in Junior declamation. Mr. and Mrs. Doss Maner and son Wayne came by Friday night from Littlefield, spent the night with his sister, Mrs. Jim Merket and family. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brown and family of Valley View visited her parents Sunday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Merket. There has been a few cases of measles in our community. Lois and Alexander Gillis have had them and little Eugene Merket has them now. There are just a few to have them as most everyone that had not had them, had them last year. Arlie Watson, Buster Collins and Stanley Merket, left Monday afternoon for Ft. Worth with a truck load of cattle. From there they are to go to San Antonio for a load of fruit and vegetables for the Red and White stores. There was a party given in the Albert Krop home last Thursday night. Everyone seemed to have a very enjoyable time. The high school students of Dunn came over last Wednesday night with a play, "The Man in the Green Shirt." It was enjoyed by a large crowd. Proceeds went to the China Grove school. Next Sunday is our regular preaching day. The pastor will not be here as he is in a meeting but Rev. Arlie Watson will preach. Come and hear him.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Having noted your efforts to rehabilitate the country I wish to cooperate by crystallizing into words a dominant condition now prevailing.

(1) When the people made a run on the banks, the government stopped it. But—when the banks made a run on the people, nothing is done about it.

(2) A recent Federal court ruling stated there was 300 billion of interest bearing securities, and not over 15 billion in all forms of monies. Notwithstanding the banks openly declare they will not make loans to people who have not paid their debts. It is impossible to make the 15 cover the 300.

(3) Suggestion—The Federal Reserve in 1928 did issue currency to banks, when secured with stocks or bonds.

Why wasn't this money loaned to the industry instead of the Graftor? Then there would have been no stock market crash.

In one stroke the Billion Dollar Sucker list is destroyed, and the producer is rewarded for honest effort.

It forces the accumulation of wealth to come from honest service. Don't trim the business down to fit the money. However, we both know you can't pour a ten gallon business into a one gallon financial jug.

I believe it imperative that the government, by the Act of Congress, establish a credit agency or intermediate credit bank to take care of finances for commercial business, independent of the banks of the country. This will do more to bring back business recovery and establish permanent employment of clerical help than any other one thing.

Very truly yours, J. E. BEASLEY.

ROSCOE ATTORNEY OFFERS PLEA FOR REDUCED STATE TAX BURDEN ON INDUSTRY

Gasoline, Car Registration And Other Items Listed As Being Unfair

E. F. DUNCAN

To the voters of the 117th District I wish to at this time announce my platform. First I wish to state that I am making this race in the special interest of no particular class, but if elected to give to my constituency a fair and impartial representation, to meet each and every problem in an honest and fair manner and to vote on same to where the most people of my district will be benefited. I wish to state that I have been a resident of Nolan county for 20 years that I was educated at the Roscoe public schools and at Baylor University from which institution I took a Bachelor of Laws Degree and a Bachelor of Arts Degree, that since 1928 I have most of the time been engaged in the practice of law.

1. I am in favor of lowering the price of a Poll Tax but am not in favor of abolishing the Poll Tax as a requirement of voting.

2. I am in favor of doing away with all bureaus, agencies and governmental departments that overlap in the nature of work that they perform. This is necessary in order to lower the expense of government.

3. I am in favor of dividing automobiles in two major classes, automobiles of necessity and of luxury, the lighter car composing the car of necessity in most cases, and of lowering the registration fee on the car of necessity by 50 per cent of its present registration fee.

4. I am in favor of amending the present law as regards who is eligible to vote in bond elections. At present most anybody who has a Poll Tax is eligible under the decision of the Supreme court as to who are tax payers. The constitution gives every tax payer the right to vote but does not define what is meant by tax payer. I am in favor of defining it to where only the actual tax payer would be eligible to vote in bond elections.

5. I am in harmony with the Roosevelt administration as regards the rights of labor. I favor the abolition of the sweatshop and am in favor of passing laws to keep child labor out of our industrial enterprises.

6. The Workman's Compensation law should be amended to where it would not be so easy for the insurer to deny liability on the injured employee and force him into an unfair settlement as is the case today with many unscrupulous insurance companies.

7. I am opposed to enlarging the Sales Tax. The sales tax on gasoline is too high, being over 100 per cent of the wholesale price. I would be in favor of lowering the tax on this commodity of necessity to where the man who handles same could make a fair living wage and at the same time the consumer get it at a lower price. Too much of the burden of taxation is upon this one commodity.

8. At the present time too much of the burden of taxation is placed upon land and other real estate. I am in favor of shifting taxes to where every specie of property will share equally in the burden of taxation.

9. I am in favor of maintaining $16.00 appropriation for each school child in actual attendance. I am in favor of amending the present law so that the apportionment will be based on actual average attendance instead of upon the number of scholars in the district. It is unfair to West Texas as the law now is. I am in favor of maintaining the same high standards in higher education but feel that at the present time some of the State Teachers colleges should be consolidated. This would lower the cost of higher education but would not lower the standards of higher education in the least.

10. I think that some of the laws as regards criminal procedure in our courts should be revised and amended. After the felon is indicted there is more protection thrown about him than is necessary.

11. I am in favor of placing a tax upon chain stores. Thousands of well-to-do merchants of other years have been forced out of business by the unfair competition of the chain store. It has contributed very little in the past toward keeping up the burdens of society and if it will not bear its portion of the burdens of society, it should be forced to by taxation.

12. The above are some of the things that I feel are of vital importance to this district at the present time. Of course there are many others but space will not permit me to enlarge upon them but will be glad to discuss any matter at a later date. I want to say that if I am elected, that at all times I am going to face all legislative problems with an open mind, to study each and every problem and to vote on same to what I think is the best interest of the people of my district. If you think I am worthy and capable of the position of representative of your vote. I want to thank you in advance for your courteous treatment I know you are going to give me. Sincerely submitted, E. F. DUNCAN.
