The YOAKUM COUNTY REVIEW

VOLUME 27

PLAINS, YOAKUM COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, MAY 30, 1957

NUMBER 22

WORK on the educational building at First Baptist Church has resumed in earnest this week after being held up due to a shortage of material. Pastor C. J. Coffman said he expected the roof to go on next week, and that unless there are unforeseen delays, the building should be ready for use by the first of August. Vacation Bible School will be one of the first activities in the new building. The structure will have the latest in heating and cooling installations, the pastor said. REVIEW Photo

Work to Start on Revamping Electric Distribution System

Work on revamping and completing the electrical distribution system for the City of Plains will begin within the next two or three weeks, according to information received from the city hall this week.

The city council is now waiting for the time required by law for advertising the notice of intent to issue warrants before work will resume.

It has become a necessity, according to Mayor W. R. Curry, to issue warrants for the completion of the system for two reasons. They are, (1) the original plans for the distribution system were not designed by the engineer who planned the system to provide services throughout the city and (2) conflicts with the present electric system caused some changes to be made which will require the removal of some of the lines built for the city into new positions. New plans and specifications have been prepared that will provide complete service for the entire city and eliminate all conflicts in the distribution systems.

Issuing of all warrants has not jeopardized the city's financial condition, Mayor Curry said. Although the warrants will of necessity have to be issued as tax warrants, they will be immediately refunded into bonds, and paid out of the revenues of the three combined systems, gas, electrical and sewer. It was pointed out that the present tax rate is sufficient to issue the warrants, with no change in that portion of the tax that is now allocated to the sinking fund for retirement of general obligation tax bonds.

At the time that the voters of the City of Plains authorized the issuance of the revenue bonds for the purpose of installing a gas system and constructing the electrical system, the issue was a combination of the three, each dependent on the other for the retiring of the bonds. For the period of almost two years that the city has operated the gas system, it has enjoyed a nice return on the investment. The sewer system has had the desired effect, in correcting a sanitation problem, and aiding the financing of homes and building the town in general.

It is felt that the electrical system, when completed, will aid in retiring the bonded indebtedness, and give the city financial aid in acquiring other services and benefits.

Three Are Indicted In Grand Jury Action

Indictments were returned against three individuals by the grand jury of district court, meeting Monday morning at Plains.

Linda Nickerbocker was indicted on three separate counts for forgery, with $1500 bond set for each. She is charged with passing forged checks at three Denver City business places, each for $30. She is currently being held at the county jail at Plains. No setting has been made as yet as to the date for the case to be tried.

Also indicted were Jack

Wheeler, for defrauding with worthless check over $50; and Bob Lackey for rape, both of whom are being sought by county authorities. Bond for Wheeler was set at $750 and for Lackey, $2500.

Serving on the grand jury were Roy Akin, Mrs. F. W. Glass, J. C. Buckhalter, Mrs. T. J. Frank, Mrs. Everett Puckett, Mrs. Homer Sudderth, Mrs. V. L. Earls, M. F. Duffy, James Warren, John Bednarz, Barfield Forehand, and Ty Field. Serving as foreman was James Warren.

Call Meeting Monday to Plan Golden Jubilee for County

Christian Church To Hold Special Services June 4-14

Evangelist and Mrs. L. C. Reece, national evangelists of the Christian Church with headquarters in Ft. Worth, will lead the local Christian Church in an evangelistic meeting June 4 to 14.

James Todd, minister, made this statement concerning the Reeces:

"We cordially invite the community at large to attend all of these services with us as regularly as is possible. We have experienced considerable difficulty in arranging a date for the meeting that would be acceptable to the Reeces. They are in demand throughout the southern and mid-central states particularly, and are planning to accept dates for an evangelistic tour in Canada.

"Evangelist Reece will direct the congregational singing in addition to doing the preaching each night, and Mrs. Reece will direct the personal evangelism and visitation. Both are highly commended by ministers and other church leaders in the states in which they have worked. The Reeces travel in their own mobile home which will be parked adjacent to the church building throughout the days of the evangelistic meeting and will become a part of our community."

"We are very fortunate also in having at the piano throughout the meeting Mr. Rufus Aylesworth of Muleshoe. Mr. Aylesworth is director of the Muleshoe Community Choir, and presented two members of the choir with him twice on Sunday evenings with him here. He is an artist at both the piano and the organ and has conducted choirs in various churches in Texas, New Mexico, and California.

"We cordially invite everyone in and around Plains to worship with us each evening from June 4 to 14th".

BIBLE SCHOOL AT METHODIST CHURCH TO OPEN MONDAY

The annual vacation Bible school to be held by the First Methodist church will open Monday, June 3 and continue through June 7, with commencement exercises to be held at the church Sunday evening June 9, at 7:30 o'clock.

Class work will be displayed in all departments and program presented at the commencement.

Classes will begin at 8:30 each morning and continue through 11:00 with refreshments being served at class recess time.

The school will be directed by Mrs. Glen Cleveland, who will also teach the intermediate class. Mrs. Leo White will teach the Junior department. Mrs. Charles Williams and Mrs. Kenneth Hale will be in charge of the Primary department. The Kindergarten class will be taught by Mrs. Guy Harrod and Mrs. R. H. Meixner.

More Boys Needed For Little League

All boys between the ages of 9 and 13 are urged to report at the local ball diamond each week-day afternoon at 4 o'clock to participate in Little League baseball.

In order to obtain a franchise, at least 60 boys must sign up for the season, it was pointed out. The players will be assigned to teams as soon as possible, and it is hoped to have uniforms for them soon.

The Lea County Co-Op and the IOOF lodge have already agreed to each sponsor a team. Two additional sponsors are needed.

NEARLY COMPLETE is the Curry Building, just east of the courthouse, which will open in about three weeks as a variety and drug store. The modern brick structure, built by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Curry, is one of which they may well be proud, as well as being an asset to the entire town. REVIEW Photo

Time Short for Farmers to Protect Acreage History

Yoakum County farmers have until June 1 to protect the acreage history of their farms and the county allotment, reported W. M. Overton, ASC office manager.

Overton said MQ-31 forms "Request to Preserve Acreage History," have been mailed to every farm operator or owner and must be signed and returned by mail to the ASC office by June 1, to retain the 1957 cotton history for the farm. "Otherwise, we are likely to lose more acreage history this year," Overton explained. This form could be very important to farmers if for any reason beyond their control it is impossible to plant the 1957 cotton allotment.

Under the law revised in 1956, the farmer can sign Form MQ-31 and receive credit for 100 percent of the farm's allotment, regardless of the amount planted.

"A few minutes spent to sign and mail the form now may save Yoakum County farmers a lot of money in the future," Overton said.

An open meeting to discuss plans and preparations for the 50th anniversary of Yoakum County has been called for next Monday night, June 3, at the Court House here, it has been announced and anyone interested is urged to be present.

The meeting will be opened at 8 o'clock, and reports are expected to be given on tentative plans and proposals for the county-wide observance.

The Tsa-Mo-Ga Club and the Plains Roping Club are spearheading the holding of the observance, and have already held preliminary meetings to map out suggested ideas. It is tentatively planned to hold the Jubilee in conjunction with the annual Roping Club Rodeo August 22, 23 and 24.

Feature events which have been suggested for the Jubilee include a Grand Parade in the form of a pageant, a program dedicated to the pioneers, a barbeque dinner, an old photograph exhibit, and a rodeo each night.

All attending will be urged to dress in the "My Fair Lady" styles of 1907, and business houses as well as individuals will be invited to enter a float in the parade.

A contest, to elect the Queen of Yoakum County, has also been suggested, and if staged, the Tsa Mo Ga Club has elected to sponsor Miss Jeanine St. Romain as a candidate. Miss St. Romain, on the maternal side, is a fourth generation Yoakum County citizen.

Girl Scouts Hold Meeting Tuesday

The Girl Scouts of Plains had their first summer meeting, May 28, with Kaye Spencer presiding.

Members present were Kaye Spencer, Judy Lowe, Jeanine St. Romain, Wanda Anderson, Carolyn Warren, Dana Dyer, Kay Ingram, La Vern Sealy, and Alice Hinkle.

The new leaders for the troop are Mary Jo St. Romain and Mrs. M. W. LUNA.

Plans were made for ordering Girl Scout cookies and peanuts. The girls are very enthusiastic about making enough money for camp this summer and are hoping that the public will help them when their order of Cookies and nuts arrive.

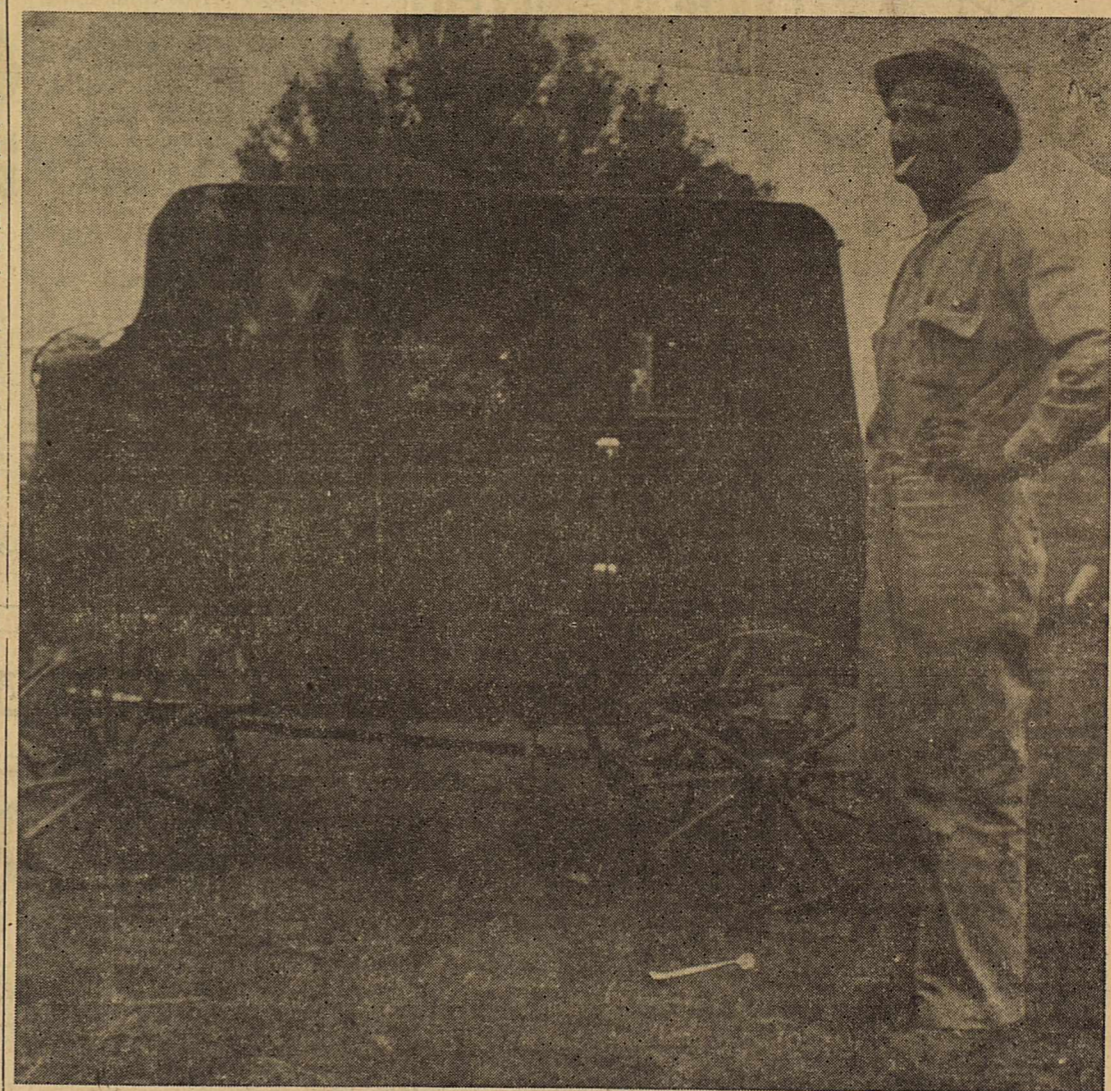

PROGRESS REPORT

P. W. St. Romain, of the Romain Telephone Company, announced this week that all equipment has arrived and work has begun on installing the 35 phones in the state line area to be serviced by the company.

City Secretary to Planning Meeting

Rod Duff, city secretary, attended a meeting Wednesday as a member of the steering committee to complete the agenda and make arrangements for the 2nd quarterly meeting of the South Plains Association of City Secretaries and Clerks.

The meeting will be held in Lubbock June 14 at the Lubbock Hotel. Items for discussion at this meeting will include taxes, financing and public relations.

W. McCellan Builds Stage Coach

Mr. W. L. McCellan, age 70, has a hobby that has grown a little larger each passing year. As a boy, his whittling always turned out to be in the form of something definite. He didn't just whittle away at a stick as most boys do. Among articles he has carved out of wood are a miniature covered wagon, a log wagon and an ox wagon. He has also fashioned a man and woman out of bare grass, carved a little picnic table and bench and mounted them on ply wood. In the past three months he has completely hand made a stage coach with car ball bearings in the wheels. The wheels were carved from a 4 x 4 oak block, were shrunk and have an iron band around the outside just like the old wagon wheels.

The rear springs are from a set of wagon seat springs, the front springs are old buggy springs. Both set of springs were found in a junk yard near Cloudcroft, New Mexico. The coach is approximately 5 feet long and 5 feet wide, and has caused considerable local interest.

McCellan worked at various jobs before retiring. He has done some farming, worked for the Texas Highway Department seventeen years and has also been a carpenter. He was born in Lamar County near Paris, Texas. Mr. and Mrs. McCellan and one daughter, their eldest, moved to Yoakum County in 1924. They have three children, the daughter, Mrs. John Anderson, Plains, two sons, Dallas, ten grandchildren and Ralph of Plains and Earl of two great grandchildren.

When asked what he planned to do with the stage coach, his reply was that he would probably keep it for the grandchildren to play with. However, several have inquired if he would make one for sale and if this one he has completed would be available for use in parades. The reply was "yes," to both questions.

RISING IN THE PLACE of the structure which was demolished by the tornado, is the new home for the Plains Motor Company. Since the above photo was taken Tuesday, the building has been completed. Owner is Virgil Short, who had just purchased the business a short time before the building was nearly destroyed. REVIEW Photo

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS HELD BY TSA MO GA CLUB MONDAY NIGHT

The Tsa Mo Ga Club met in the last regular session of the year at the club house Monday night, May 27.

The Social committee acted as hostess and served a buffet dinner from a beautiful table laid with a pink lace cloth and centered with candles and gold drift wood decorated with the pink and orchid corsages used in the installation of officers later in the program.

President, Mrs. Eugene Payne called the meeting to order and disposed of all old business before the club.

Two by-law changes were passed and club will convene on the first and third Monday's of each month, also club officers will serve only one year instead of two as in the past.

Two new members, Mrs. David Levens and Mrs. George Gray were welcomed into the club.

The club voted to send a donation of money to the relief fund at Silverton.

Committee reports were heard on the Golden Jubilee of Yoakum County. Mrs. R. B. Jones stated that the celebration would be held on August 24, 1957 and that more detailed information will be published.

Mrs. Payne expressed her pleasure in having served as club president and praised the members for their cooperation in making her term successful.

She then turned the meeting to Mrs. Bill Powell, who installed the following officers in an impressive ceremony. President, Mrs. R. K. Field; Vice President, Mrs. Ty Field; Secretary, Mrs. C. F. McCargo; Treasurer, Mrs. Bert Bartlett; Critic, Mrs. Johnnie Fitzgerald; Reporter, Mrs. J. W. Moore, Jr.; Assistant Reporter, Mrs. R. B. Jones; Columnist, Mrs. A. B. Carpenter; Parliamentarian, Mrs. Pat Henard; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Sherm Henard.

Following the installation of officers, President, Mrs. R. K. Field brought new business before the club and appointed committees to serve for the 1957-58 club year.

Mrs. Field is an untiring worker in the club and her charm and enthusiasm spread to the members. We feel she will be a very successful president.

Mrs. Field stated that each member would be asked to contribute time and talent to making the Jubilee Celebration a success.

Senator Preston Smith

Climaxing 136 days of lively session, the 55th Legislature ended its activities on a note very important to most lawmakers.

The ultimate approval of the $399 pay raise for Texas teachers was an enjoyable development for practically every legislator here.

Within the last few years, Texans have begun to look at their school systems with more appraising eyes, and one problem became apparent... that teachers in this state have been underpaid for doing a job that means probably more than any other in helping mold young people into responsible, prosperous and happy citizens.

I can't think of a better way to close the activities of the 55th Legislature than to pass a bill that will furnish our teachers a pay raise... that they certainly deserve.

The close of the 55th Legislature's session also brings this column to an end.

The purpose of the column has been to help keep you informed of what's going on from week to week in state government.

Just as I told the editor of this fine newspaper, this column will never be used for bone-picking reasons, or to blow anyone's horn. We've tried to make it factual, accurate and of value to the people of the 28th Senatorial District.

Your many letters, cards and personal visits have been very much appreciated. Legislators like to hear from the people they represent. Don't ever hesitate to contact them when it seems advisable.

Your State Senator considers this job a full-time position, even if the Legislature is not in session, so if you need to contact me for any reason you can write me at 2808-22nd Street, Lubbock, Texas.

Supporting Your Town

Merchants who do not advertise are invited to read the following from the American Bankers Magazine as it might give you a new slant on business, your own business as well as the matter of building your town.

"No business man in any town should allow a newspaper published in his town to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. This does not mean you should have a whole, half, or even a quarter page ad in each issue of the paper, but your name and business should be mentioned, if you do not use more than a two line space.

"A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a town by looking at the paper. This is the best possible town advertising. The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and the town. The man who insists on sharing the business that comes to town, but refuses to advertise his own, is not a valuable addition to any town. The life of a town depends on the live, wide-awake and liberal advertising man.

45,000 Acres Soil Mapped in County Since January 1st

Since the first of January, there has been 45,000 acres of soils mapped under the new National Cooperative Standard Soil Survey in the Yoakum Soil Conservation District, according to W. H. Dittmore, soil scientist with the SCS. Approximately 8% of the area has been mapped, and 37 different soil types and 17 different soil series have been found.

A soil series is a group of soils that have the same characteristics such as depth and color, and kind of parent material. These soils are given a name of a town or location near where the soil is first found, such as Brownfield, Amarillo, Portales, and Lubbock.

The soil survey that is in progress in the Yoakum SCD is an inventory of the type and the amounts of soils present. These surveys are made on an aerial photograph of a cooperator's farm. With this map and information furnished by the Soil Conservation Service, the farmer can make use of it to plan his farming operations. The survey does not include a fertility analysis. The amount of fertilizer required for a given soil can be determined only by a laboratory analysis. This may be secured by sending a soil sample to Texas A&M College.

The soil survey is intended to help the cooperators of the Yoakum SCD to more effectively control wind erosion by finding the soils that are most susceptible to wind erosion.

It is known that the finer particles of soil and the most fertile part of the soil containing organic matter will blow first. This leaves the heavier, infertile subsoil that is unprofitable to farm.

The supervisors and technicians of the Yoakum SCD stand ready to help in anyway they can, Dittmore pointed out.

ASC HAS DATE ON APPROVED SOIL BANK ACREAGES

W. M. Overton, ASC office manager, stated that farmers who have conservation reserve soil bank contracts have approved permitted acres for soil bank base crops, such crops include cotton, wheat, grain sorghum, sudan for seed and etc. Farmers who do not know their approved permitted soil bank base crop acreage should contact the ASC office for this information.

Farmers who have acreage in the cotton acreage reserve should keep in mind that their cotton permitted is their cotton allotment less the acreage placed in the reserve.

All conservation and acreage reserve will be measured as soon as help is available.

THIS FIELD OF blue panic grass is almost ready to make a crop of seed. Bob Jones, who lives about a mile west of Plains, uses this field of grass to protect his house from the wind and sand. It also furnishes some grazing and seed.

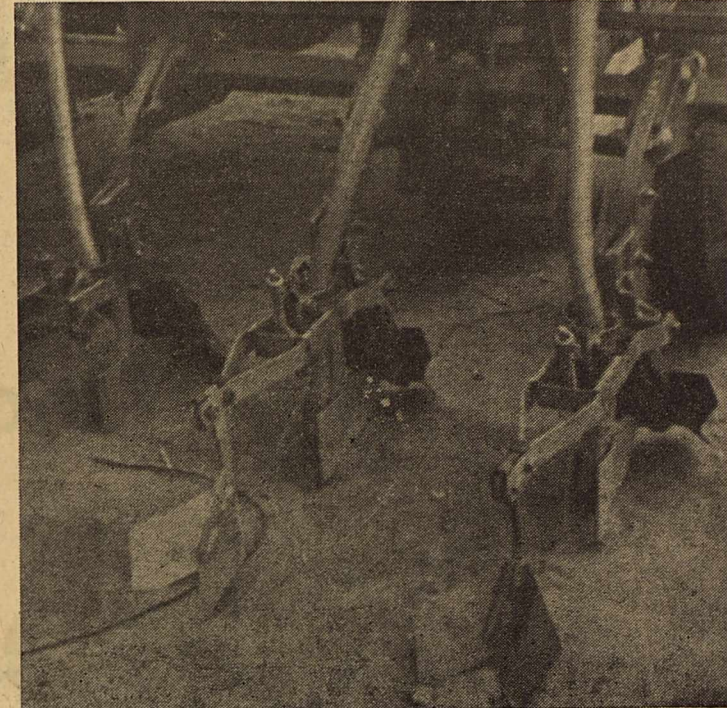

A FIELD OF WHEAT surrounds the rural residence of Tommy Winn, which is an excellent method of using irrigation systems during the winter time. This field of wheat furnished much grazing during the winter months as well as gave protection against the wind and sand during the windy season.

HERE IS A VIEW of a standing field of wheat, which was planted around the Tommy Winn house. The grain harvested from this field this spring, plus the grazing it furnished last winter will amount to a good cash return per acre. In many cases, some type of perennial grass would work as well planted around the farm home for wind erosion protection.

THIS TYPE of 20-inch planter is gaining in popularity. This equipment, owned by Harvest Queen Mills, will be used to plant feed in narrow rows.

HERE IS another view of the 20-inch planter. Grain sorghums planted with this equipment are much more economical to raise. Using this method also offers a greater amount of protection against the weather.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

Much discussion and thought have been given to raising sorghums on irrigated land. With increasing cost of production and low feed prices, most irrigation farmers are looking for another crop or ways of raising production on the present crop.

The Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Amarillo recently came up with some encouraging information on raising grain sorghums. According to Bulletin No. 846, dated January, 1957, hegari drilled in 10 inch rows made 4010 pounds per acre. Hegari planted in 38 inch rows made 3169 pounds per acre. The surprising part of the experiment is that the hegari in 10 rows used 15.3 inches of moisture while that in the 38 inch rows used 18.3 inches of moisture.

Another benefit of this type of cultivation is that the cost of production are much lower than row-cropping. It would seem that this type of farming is ideally suited to the South Plains. Many people have been conscious of the fact that plowing is not sufficient protection to keep the soil from blowing—neither is stubble in 40 inch rows. However, in view of these recent experiments, maybe we could raise more feed, raise it with less expense, and have greater protection for our soil. Next time you're in the County Agent's office, get a copy of Texas Agricultural Experiment Station Bulletin No. 846. There's some good information in it.

as far as cattle numbers are concerned. There is a definite trend in most of the southern states toward a smaller beef carcass. If cattle producers could produce the kind of animals that would put on a desirable finish at an early age and the cattle feeders would market the animals at a smaller size, the number of cattle on ranges and in feed lots would have a hard time of ever building up. Recent research tests have shown that a fast growing weaning calf can make as much profit in the feed lot as a yearling stocker steer.

The whole cattle situation looks good at the present time and cattle producers in Yoakum County could do well by looking into the business of creep feeding the present calf crop. Early calves that have been on a creep might be sold as slaughter animals rather than as stockers. Feed in the calf creep during the summer and fall months can add as much as 75 pounds to the weight of the early calves and the quality of the calf will demand a better price.

Editor, The Review:

Why trust Russia in any kind of a deal? You certainly remember how she supplied the Chinese communists with the means to defeat what we now call the Chinese Nationalists.

Our country saved the Russians from the Hitler advances and gave them seats in the UN, only to have the delegates to turn with hatred upon the country that saved them from destruction — ours, of course.

Why not expose the Yalta papers? We as a nation have suffered enough at the hands of this deceitful nation, and the sooner we put a stop to it the better off we will be.

One disgusting thing about the actions of the Russians is the hypocritical position they are constantly assuming. China left alone would never bother Formosa. China is not able to carry on a big war, but with the help of her neighboring Russia, she will do anything. China has nothing to lose by a bloody war except an army of troops.

No doubt you remember how representatives from Moscow to Washington used to denounce our nation while talking to Mrs. Roosevelt? Nothing was ever said about it except as it was reported by the papers.

AUSTIN, Texas — Officially, Texas' 55th Legislature now is in the history books. But the real story comes within the next few months when hundreds of new laws take effect. They'll change people's lives—a little bit or a lot. Voters reaction to these changes will provide grist for the 56th session and determine how many 55th legislators will survive for the 56th.

Biggest issues of the past five months were water, segregation, reform measures, teacher pay and insurance. Here's what the lawmakers did:

WATER—Passed a proposed constitutional amendment for a

$200,000,000 bond issue to help local governments build dams and reservoirs. Failed, despite frantic last-minute efforts, to pass another amendment for a $100,000,000 bond issue to buy water storage space in federal reservoirs.

SEGREGATION—Passed two of eight segregation bills. One allows local school boards to assign pupils to certain schools; other requires local option election before schools can be integrated.

Another, requiring registration of groups advocating integration or segregation, was declared unconstitutional by the attorney general. He said it would violate freedom of speech and press. Other House-passed bills died on the vine after repeated Senate filibusters made it apparent it would take all summer to get them through.

OFFICIAL REFORM—Passed a code of ethics bill prohibiting state officials and employees from engaging in outside activity "in conflict with the public interest". A sprinkling of officials already have filed statements of their private interest with the secretary of state as stipulated in the law. A lobbyist registration bill died when the House and Senate couldn't iron out differences. A host of others proposed as reforms were ditched earlier.

TEACHERS PAY—Legislators, with Gov. Price Daniel's help, found, after raking and scraping, enough money to give each public school teacher a $399 a year raise. It meant recalling two other money bills, one to pay off some old bonds and one to refund taxes paid under an unconstitutional law. Situation was tense when Comptroller Robert S. Calvert first ruled the state's kitty was $13,000,000 short of enough to cover.

INSURANCE—Passed a host of laws bringing a whole new system headed by new men into the battle-scarred Insurance Commission. Deadlock over a full-time or part-time board was finally compromised with a full-time board for one year, part-time thereafter. Policy-making board members will get $15,000 a year when working full time. Added to set-up will be a full-time $30,000-a-year Commissioner of Insurance who will be top administrator.

Stemming mostly from the multi-million-dollar ICT and US Trust failures, several other bills were passed placing stricter requirements and limitations on insurance company officials. However, the Legislators fell flat on their faces when it came to requiring publication of financial statements by insurance companies. The bill never got out of the House Committee on Insurance. So only those companies that want the public to know will print them.

AND THESE, TOO—Aside from the big issues, scores of not-so-major laws will cause Texans to change their way of doing things. Here are a few:

A "Scratched Ballot"—is the only legal way to vote in future elections. No more choice between scratching and checking.

Texas Woman's University—at Denton, once Texas State College for Women and before that CIA, will be the nation's first in that category. Women have a right to change their minds, reasoned solons. Besides, there were hundreds of cute little coeds around, a'lobbin'.

State Judges,—both district and appellate, will get raises of about $3,000 a year apiece.

City Officials,—can be elected for four instead of two years if voters okay a proposed constitutional amendment. Individual cities would then have to adopt the four-year plan.

Flooded Lampasas—and wind-swept Silvertown will get $40,000 to help rebuild public property under an emergency bill.

Price Daniel Family—will get a better roof over its head. Money was authorized to repair the Mansion ceiling that collapsed recently, just missing the governor.

Texas archives—will get a brand new building. Shunting of historical documents from barns to basements to quonset huts in past years had brought a hue and cry from civic groups.

Auto license tags—will cost 10 per cent more. Highway Department is to use the extra funds to share 50-50 with cities and counties, the cost of right-of-way for new roads. Previously cities and counties had had to bear all land costs.

Governor's signature is still pending on many bills, of course, but vetoes are not expected on any of the above.

In addition, this legislation, as others, passed literally hundreds of "local and uncontested" bills. These are ground out in batches, usually without anyone but the author knowing what they do or why.

NEW FORCE—Future office seekers will have a new force to reckon with—the Democrats of Texas.

D.O.T., a new name for the old Liberal-Loyalist wing of the party, has set itself two goals—to gain control of the party machinery in Texas and to put its adherents in control of state government.

Some 1,500 delegates from 106 counties attended the organizing rally in Austin. Mrs. R. D. Randolph of Houston, Texas' liberal minded national committeewoman, was named leader. New U. S. Senator Ralph Yarborough flew down from Washington to speak.

D.O.T. is frowned on by Governor Daniel and Executive Committee Chairman Jim Lindsey. D. O. T. charges them with "usurping" party control at the Fort Worth convention.

Season ticket orders for Texas Tech's six home games are now being taken by the Athletic Department.

Priority will be given last year's season ticket holders, according to Jimmie Wilson, business manager of athletics. Just the same, he advised, new ticket purchasers should send in their orders now, since they will be filled in the order received after former ticket holders are taken care of.

Order blanks have already been sent all of last year's season ticket buyers except Tech faculty members.

Tech's home games are with West Texas State, Sept. 21; Texas A&M, Sept. 28; Louisiana State, Oct. 5; Baylor, Oct. 19; Tulsa, Nov. 9; and Hardin-Simmons, Nov. 16.
