Curry Drug and Variety Store To Open Here Soon

The brand new building, to house Curry's Drug and Variety Store, has recently been completed. The building is located just north of the Hotel Frances.

Joe Curry, owner, announced this week that merchandise is arriving most every day but that he is unable as yet to set the date when he will be able to open his doors for business. However, announcement will be made soon concerning his formal opening.

Mr. and Mrs. Curry, residents of Yoakum County the past twelve years, will operate the business and will be assisted by Mrs. Fred Cooper.

Mr. Curry had previously been engaged in farming, west of Plains.

The store owners are parents of two sons, Rev. Billy Joe Curry of Lazbuddie and Shirley Curry of Seminole.

4-H'ers To Attend Encampment

The district encampment for 4-H Club boys and girls will be held at Lubbock next week beginning on July 17 and extending through July 19.

Each county in the 20-county district is allowed to send three boys, three girls, and two adults to the three day camp. Attending from Yoakum County are: Jeanine St. Romain, Joyce Lowe, Darlene Snodgrass, Ross Stotts, Jimmy Taylor, and Cordell Huddleston. Those boys and girls will be accompanied by the two agents, Claudia Chapman and Leo White.

The 1957 District Camp is sponsored by Southwestern Public Service Company and, it will be an electric camp. Each delegate attending the camp will enroll in some type of electrical crafts. They will make table lamps, wall lamps, and chicken brooders. In addition to the crafts, they will make a study of electrical equipment on the farm and in the home.

Farmers Union Holds Meeting Tuesday Night

The Farmers Union met Tuesday night, July 9, in the District Courtroom. J. L. Taylor, temporary president, presided at the meeting.

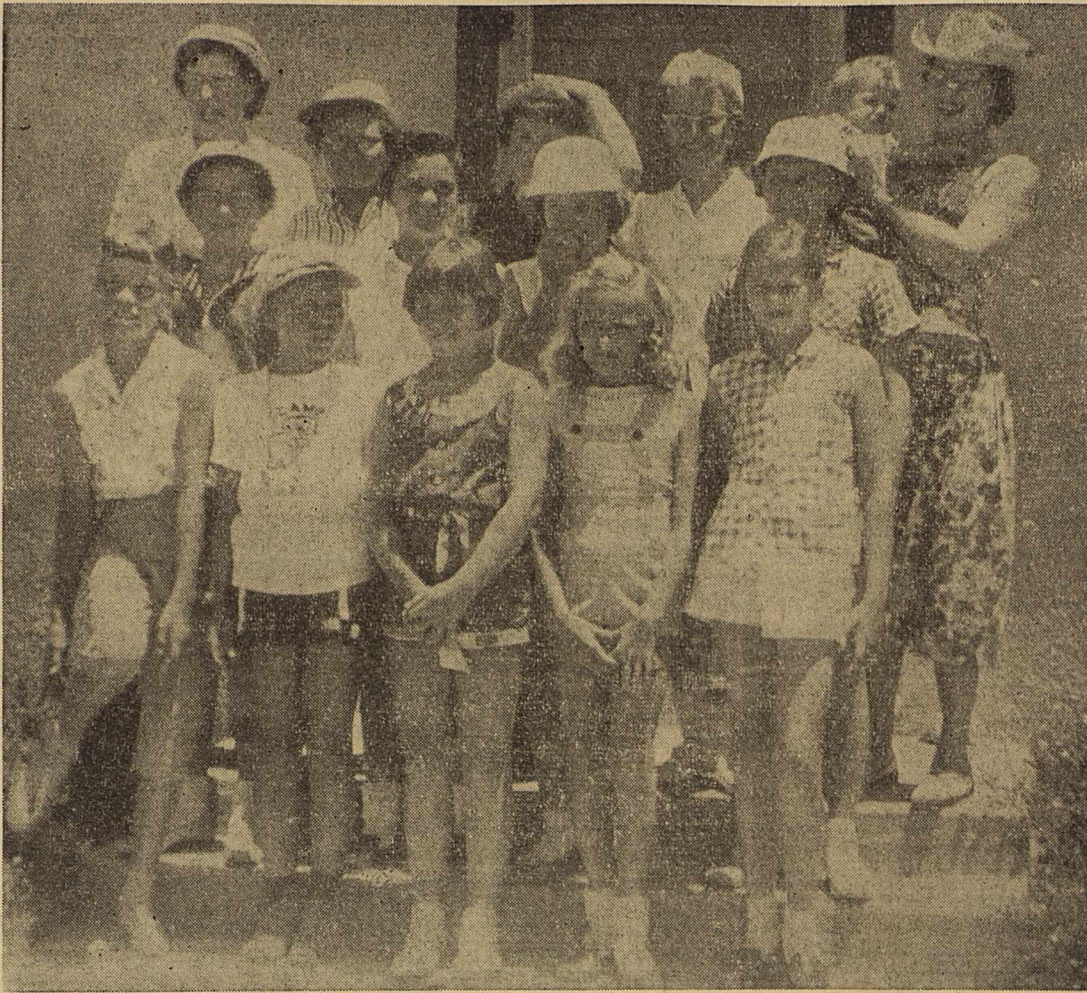

Alec Dickie, of Denton, was guest speaker. Mr. Dickie pointed out that the Yoakum County Farmers Union would be organized for the benefit of Yoakum County Farmers and would serve as their voice in local, state and national farm affairs. He stated that the National Farmers Union is the only one of the three major national farm organizations that has never backed Ezra Benson and the Republican flexible "sliding scale" price supports. The Farmers Union stands for 100 per cent parity of income for the family farmers of this county.

The next meeting will be held July 23 and officers will be elected. July 23, a membership drive will begin and an effort will be made to contact every farmer so they will have the opportunity to be a charter member. The day will begin with a kick-off breakfast at 7 o'clock.

Christian Church Conducts Election

Cotton Measurements Underway

Four reporters are in the field measuring the 1957 cotton acreage on the 360 cotton farms in the county, according to W. M. Overton, ASC County Office Manager.

The acreage is measured in the field and plotted on the aerial photographs by the reporters. The papers and maps are returned to the county office where the acreage is computed and official notices mailed to the farm operators.

Farmers are urged to go to the field with the reporter when he calls and direct him to the cotton fields and point out deductions within a cotton field that needs to be deducted. After a farmer has received his planted acre notice, and he believes an error has been made, he is urged to visit the local ASC office and check measurements made by the reporter with any measurements that the farmer may have.

Under the cotton marketing regulations a producer may, if he believes the measurements to be incorrect, have his farm remeasured by filing a request in writing and depositing the cost of remeasurement with the ASC office within twenty (20) days from the date of the notice. If for circumstances beyond the control of producers on the farm the excess acreage is not disposed of within such 20-day period and a request by any producer thereon is filed in writing with the ASC County Committee within such 20-day period showing the reason for not disposing of the excess acreage. See COTTON on Page 8

Extend Deadline in Miss Jubilee Contest

A new deadline has been set for entering the contest to be held to name a "Miss Golden Jubilee of Yoakum County", it was announced this week.

According to Mrs. Sherm Henard, general chairman of the contest, contestants now have until Thursday, July 18, to signify their desire to compete by signing up with Miss Ozella Hunt in Denver City, or Mrs. James Warren or Mrs. Henard in Plains.

According to plans of the contest, tickets will be sold by the candidates for "Miss Golden Jubilee" for $1 each. The ticket will entitle the holder to cast 100 votes for the candidate of their choice, and at the same time will give them an opportunity to win a dual control electric blanket which will be given away during the Golden Jubilee celebration August 22, 23 and 24.

The contestant receiving the most votes will be crowned "Miss Golden Jubilee" during impressive ceremonies the closing night of the celebration, and will in addition receive a cash prize of $25. Second place winner will be awarded $20, with a $15 prize going to the third place candidate. All other entrants in the contest will be awarded $10, according to the chairman.

The contestants in the contest have until 5 p.m. Saturday, August 24, to turn in their votes. Identification banners for all entrants will be furnished by the Tsamoga Club of Plains, sponsors of the contest.

SERVICES HELD

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday, July 10, at Santa Rosa for Karen Hurley, 10-month-old niece of Mrs. L. O. Free, Plains. She had suffered a heart ailment since birth. She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hurley.

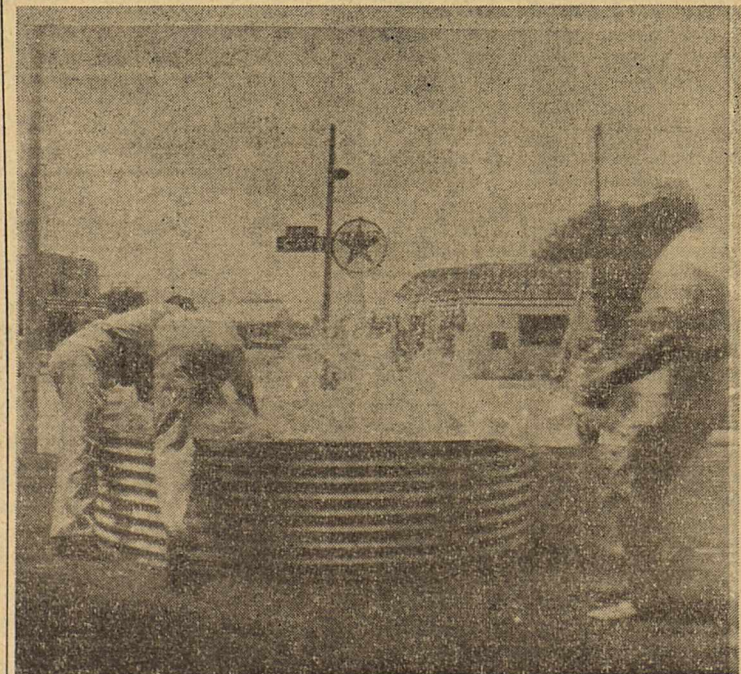

Hope To Improve Long Distance Phone Situation

Considerable difficulty is being experienced by local residents in the placing of long distance calls, which are channeled through the Brownfield office of General Telephone Co.

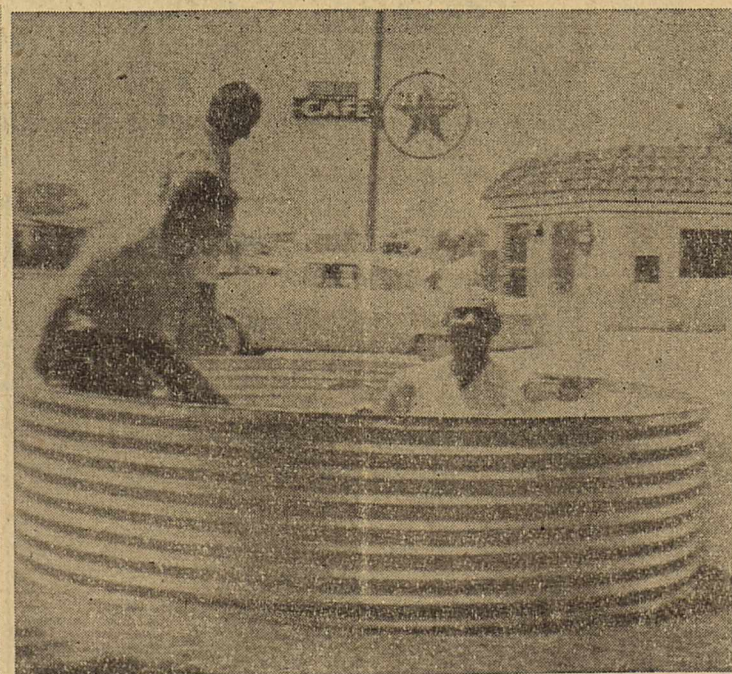

P. W. St. Romain, of the Romain Telephone Company here, told The Review this week that he has been doing everything possible to improve the long distance service through Brownfield.

He explained that as of July 7, several towns in the area have been converted to the dial system, with Brownfield telephone office serving as their long distance center. The office there, Romain said, is currently very short handed, with many of their operators being trainees. They are looking for additional experienced operators, he added.

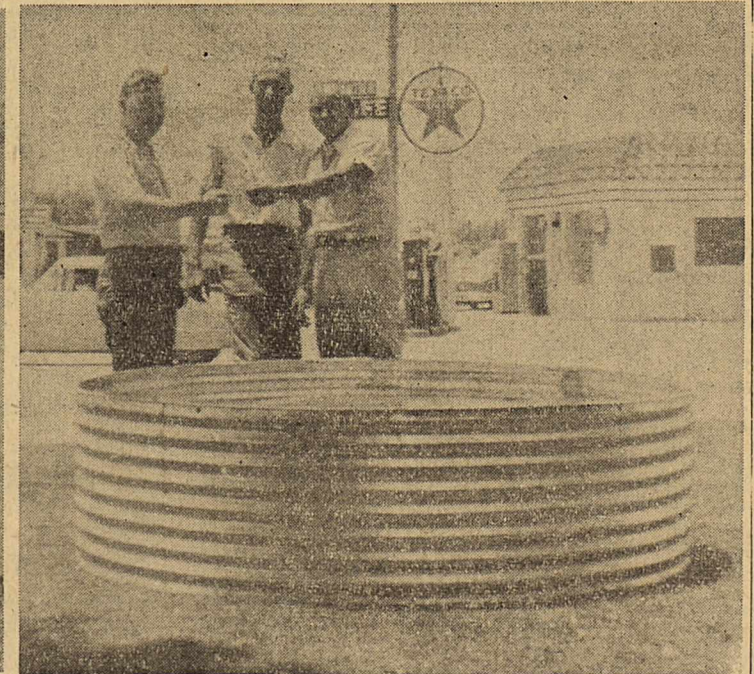

A recent study, Romain said, shows that Plains needs another long distance circuit in addition to the five now in operation out of Plains. General Telephone, Romain reported, has promised an additional circuit within the next three weeks. "The equipment", said Romain, "is very hard to get, it seems, and it just takes time."

WITH THE DEADLINE WEDNESDAY for starting those whiskers in the beard growing contest, Bill Loyd, president of Plains State Bank, was the first to suffer the consequences for not complying and was dunked in the tank on the corner of the court house lawn. Doing the "honors" were Wyatt Lipscomb, Amos Smith and Roy Stockstill. However . . .

. . . THE DUNKING BACK-FIRED just a little when Wyatt also went head over heels into the tank, despite the fact that he started early in the game to grow that beard. The two found the whole procedure somewhat disconcerting, as well as rather wet, and Loyd decided that the best way to make sure it didn't happen again was to buy a shaving permit, so . . .

. . . THE BANK PRESIDENT purchased one of the permits from Amos Smith, with Wyatt as witness. The permits may be bought from any Lions Club member, in case the combination of hot weather and whiskers proves too much. Deputy Sheriff Olan Heath holds Permit Card No. 1, with Gene Payne being a close second in securing the permit to shave.

SMALL MEASURE

Of all things—a man measuring his religion with an eye-dropper. An eye-dropper is used to administer small doses of medicine but it is not proper in the realm of religion. The mercy of God is an ocean divine, a boundless and fathomless deep. An eye-dropper is much too small to convey riches so abundant. How unfortunate is that life that will attempt to take the bounties of God with an eye-dropper. Yet, there are those among us who are satisfied with second-hand religion... the kind a man gets when he attempts to let his wife do his church-going for him. God seeks to talk to all of us direct. Mister, He doesn't want your wife delivering yours via the eye-dropper. Go to church... listen to the Divine voice of God as He seeks to pour His infinite grace and goodness into your soul. Don't be satisfied with such small measure... an eye-dropper full.

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

Weight for age is a relatively new term but almost every breeder of beef cattle has heard about it and many of them have formed their own opinion of the weight for age improvement program. Most breeders agree that weight for age is the thing that beef cattle producers are looking for. Since the calf crop is sold by the pound, the man that sends the most pounds to market usually brings home the biggest check.

The common way of expressing weight for age in beef cattle is by using a figure like 1.47 or 2.10. This figure is obtained by dividing the age of the animal in days into the weight of the animal at the time of weighing. Since it is too much trouble to weigh each animal on the day that it is six months old or seven months old, they have some charts that are useful in adjusting the weight up or down so that all the animals that are weighed will have an equal age. Then by dividing their age into their weight, you will come out with a separate figure for each animal. This figure will be the animals weight per day of age.

The weight per day of age figure will not have much meaning unless everyone who uses it will use the same adjusted age. A five months old calf will have a higher figure than a twelve months old animal even when the young animal is inferior to the older one. This comes about because of the birth weight. A three day old calf that weighed 60 pounds would have 20 pounds a day for each day of age so before this figure is used with much meaning, those who are working with beef cattle improvement should establish some recognized weighing ages.

For weighing calves, most of the charts are made to adjust the age to 10 days. This is about the time that the animals are weaned and the one weighing will take care of everything that is between six and eight months of age. A calf that weighed 525 pounds at 210 days of age would have a weight per day of age of 2.50. If that is the highest figure among all of the calves, then the owner knows that the calf's mother was his best producer of pounds of beef for that year and she needs to be kept in the herd.

If a registered breeder is selling bulls, I would think that his bull calves should be weighed at 4 months, 7 months, 10 months and 12 months of age. That information would give the buyer something to look at besides the bull. If every breeder would weigh on certain dates as mentioned above, the buyer could make comparisons and pick out the animals that suited his needs. It is my thinking that bull buyers are going to quit paying high prices for bulls on outward appearance alone. They will pay more money for a good performance record than for a good conformation. An animal that has a good conformation along with a good performance record is the one that is going to sell up in the top bracket.

The registered breeder who has developed his cattle for high weight for age is in a position to cash in on his work. All that he needs is some weight records to go with each animal that he has for sale. The breeder who has neglected weight for age for the past few years is the one who had better buy some progeny tested bulls and try to raise him a set of cows that will not be obsolete. When he buys a twelve months old bull that weighs 1,100 pounds and saves about three crops of his heifers for mother cows he is back in the cow business.

Two Cases Filed In District Court

Two cases, one for compensation and the other for damages, have been filed the past week in district court.

Guy R. Buckhalter is asking for compensation in the amount of $10,025 from Traders and General Insurance Company for injuries he allegedly received last October while in the employ of Tri-Service Drilling Co., Midland.

According to the suit on record, Burkhalter asserts that he was employed by Tri-Service Drilling as a truck driver, and that while in the course of employment was injured in Yoakum County. The plaintiff charges that he was loading drill collars on a float or trailer connected to his truck with the use of a wench line, when one of the collars missed the float. While he was attempting to balance the collar by lifting the lower end of it, he felt a sudden, sharp pain in the lower back.

Because of the intense pain, the plaintiff asserts, he was unable to continue work and was taken to doctors in Midland for treatment. The doctors required the plaintiff to be off work until November 9, he further sets forth, when he returned to his employment until February 20, 1957. During that time he suffered pain in his back which grew constantly worse, and the plaintiff asserts he has not been able to work since that time.

W. C. Wilmeth and Mack Wilmeth, doing business as Wilmeth Brothers in Plains, are being sued for $41,000 for damages by Karl Drake, also of Plains. The plaintiff sets forth that while he was employed by the defendants, he was injured in an accident two miles west of Tokio.

Drake sets forth that he was lifting a butane tank with chain hoist, and through negligence of the defendant, the tank fell, striking the plaintiff on the right shoulder and leg and causing permanent injuries to the leg. The plaintiff charges that he was required to handle heavy equipment with a hoist incapable of handling such a heavy load, and that he was not furnished with a safe place to work nor with proper assistance in handling such a large and heavy object.

The damage suit includes $30,000 for past and future disabilities; $10,000 for past and future mental and physical pain and suffering; and $1,000 for past and future doctor and medical bills.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Stapleton and daughters, Paula and Sharlott, recently returned from a two week vacation in California. While there they visited in the home of her brother, J. R. Ashmore and family at Hawthorne, Calif.

Borland, a member of the 33rd Air Rescue Squadron, entered the Air Force in June 1956 and completed basic at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio. He was also stationed at Sheppard Air Base in Wichita Falls for a short time before being shipped overseas.

The 19-year-old airman graduated from Plains High School in 1956. Among activities at Plains High School were football, basketball, track, and F. F. A.

AUSTIN, Tex.—"Summer-time . . . and the livin' is easy" says the song. But under the State Capitol dome there's quite a bit to keep folks uneasy, even in this summer lull.

House Speaker Waggoner Carr stirred things up by saying he was afraid the state couldn't afford the possible half-million-dollar tab for a special session in the fall. It might mean new taxes, said Carr, since the last Legislature appropriated nearly every cent now in sight for the next two years.

Gov. Price Daniel, who is considering the special session, hastened to say that he had "no idea" of submitting a new tax request. He pointed to his recent effort to get foreign oil imports limited so Texas production could be increased. Much of Texas' tax revenue comes from oil production, so this move if successful, could improve the state's financial outlook.

Another source of uneasiness is the Travis County grand jury—hard at work, despite the heat. Insiders predict six or seven indictments resulting from the ICT and bribery investigations begun by the Legislature.

If true, this means more people are in trouble than outsiders can as yet account for. Others are critical of the State Water Board's inaction. Plagued by internal disagreements, the board has delayed a year in ruling on the Canyon Dam squabble. In this case the City of San Antonio and the Guadalupe-Blanco River Authority locked horns over whether San Antonio could get water from the proposed dam.

Governor Daniel will be able to make a new appointment to this board in August.

COX TRIAL DUE—Trial of Ex-Rep. James E. Cox of Comroe is set to open Monday (July 15), but there are good indications it'll be delayed.

Cox was indicted last spring on charges of consenting to accept a bribe. Dist. Atty. Les Procter says the state is "ready to go." But defense attorneys admit they'd rather wait until publicity dies out and the weather cools off. They spoke of probable postponement moves.

Reporters, recalling the sweltering weeks spent covering the trial of Former Land Commissioner Bascom Giles two summers ago, admit they're not eager to see this one start now.

INSURANCE STUDY ON—An overall survey of the Texas Insurance Commission's operations by a private outside agency is going forward with official approval from all sides.

First action of the new Insurance Board was to request a Texas Research League study of the department. Actually, the League already had begun the task after requests last spring by then Comm. Chmn. John Osorio and by a House investigating committee.

Reorganized board took the reins after swearing-in of new member David B. Irons and Joe P. Gibbs, who had served "temporarily" for the past few months. Former Dist. Judge Penn Jackson was installed earlier.

Governor Daniel express confidence the board would soon get rid of the few "rotten apples" still remaining in the insurance industry. None of the men sought the jobs, said the governor; they were "drafted."

50-50 PLAN LAUNCHED—A new era in Texas highway building opened when the state executed its first contracts to help counties with right of way costs.

Until now, law required local governments to buy the land and the State Highway Department to pay construction costs. A new law passed last spring allows the state to share 50-50 in land costs.

Highway Engineer D. C. Greer says that the highway department is working ahead of the effective date of the bill (Aug. 22), "in order to get the program under way." Counties with which contracts were negotiated are Jefferson, Falls, Cherokee, Wood and Hill.

SCHOOL STANDARDS UPPEP—More money and more study are in prospect for Texas public school children.

State Board of Education voted to hike state aid to schools by $4 per pupil. It means $82 per pupil for roughly two million pupils in the 1957-58 year.

Board also gave final confirmation to a plan to raise accreditation requirements for high schools. Future graduates will have to have 16 units of study, one more than before. Health and physical education won't count, but credits must include four in English, two in math, two in laboratory science.

Beginning in 1959 accredited high schools must have four, instead of three, full time teachers. UT SALARIES RAISED—Teachers in the University of Texas system can look forward to raises averaging $800 a year for the coming school year.

Due to bigger Legislative appropriations, new budget adopted by UT regents is 16 per cent higher than this year's. Faculty members will get $500 to $2,500 raises, depending on rank. For the average prof, it means a jump from $6,009 to $6,815 per year.

RAIN NEEDED AGAIN—Almost a month of dry sunny weather has many Texas farmers returning to an old refrain—"more rain." U. S. Department of Agriculture reports that most of the state, except that touched by the hurricane, needs showers.

Range growth has slowed, said USDA, and cotton is running very late. But it predicted good feed crops, possibly one of the largest sorghum harvests on record.

SHORT SNORTS—Texas construction contract awards in June were up $34,000,000 over last year, reports the Texas Contractor magazine. A billion-dollar construction year is foreseen. . . . Truck freight rates will go up five per cent beginning July 10, announced the Railroad Commission. It will cost shippers an estimated $2,500,000 per year. . . . Texas' draft quota for August is down slightly, 547 compared to 661 in July. Col. Morris Schwartz, State Selective Service director, also announced new regulation giving draft exemption to members of Ready Reserve units. . . . C. C. Crutchfield of Austin has been named director of the League of Texas Municipalities. He succeeds E. E. McAdams who served as director for 22 years.

Governor Daniel has asked the federal government to approve flood control projects for Hudson, Bell, Guadalupe, Comal and Hays Counties. Work would be financed jointly by the U. S. government, local water and soil conservation districts and the affected land owners. . . . R. L. Phinney, district director, Internal Revenue Service, has announced that farmers may obtain refunds of federal excise tax on gasoline used for farming purposes during the fiscal year ending June 30. Claims must be filed before Oct. 1 on Form 2240 which may be obtained at county agents' offices.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Powell spent the weekend in Mobettee and Shamrock visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Aldredge of Denver City visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J.W.O. Aldredge over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hale left last week for California on a vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. J.W.O. Aldredge visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Ayers in Plainview over the 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Lipscomb and family spent the weekend visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Lipscomb in Matador.

Phillip J. O'Connell a Hardin-Simmons graduate from Brownwood, has been named superintendent of schools in Wellman Independent School District. Other new appointments include Jerry Shaw of Durant, Okla., girl's coach and assistant boy's coach; Mrs. Jerry Strong, Gulfport, Miss., junior high coach, teacher and seventh grade sponsor.

Hoppers Infesting Some Cotton Fields In Yoakum County

(Information in the following cotton insect situation release is compiled by county agents, vo-ag teachers, USDA and A&M College.)

Cotten has made very satisfactory progress during the past week due to favorable weather conditions. Growth has been rapid and many cotton fields have begun to set squares. Insects have not posed a serious problem in most plantings.

Thrips have been reported in to medium infestations throughout the area. Insecticides have been applied for control of these insects in many of the fields.

Aphids were reported present in scattered cotton fields, but infestations were generally light.

Fleahoppers occurred in many additional plantings of cotton. The insects appeared about the time plants reached the early squaring stage of growth. Although most infestations have been light, cotton should be checked for presence of insects and their damage, especially during the early fruiting period.

Light infestations of cabbage loopers have been observed in many cotton fields. Heavier infestations were reported in Terry County with occasional plantings being treated for control of the loopers. Where infestations appear sufficient to cause severe ragging, control should be effected while the loopers are small. Large loopers are very difficult to control.

Grasshoppers were present in damaging infestations in some fields of cotton in Garza, Scurry, and Yoakum Counties.

For control measures for various insects, consult the 1957 Cotton Insect Control Guide.

James Bandy of Meadow is a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Bandy this week.

Jimmy Williams visited relatives and friends in Plains over the week-end. He is working in Naturita, Colo., this summer.

Tony Baker left the first of the week for Naturita, Colo., where he will spend the summer working.

date shown on the notice. If for circumstances beyond the control of the producers on the farm a request for an extension of time to dispose of the excess acreage if not filed with the county committee within the 20-day period any producer on the farm may file a written request, including justification, with this office for the State Committee to consider an extension of title for disposing of such excess acreage.

If the planted acreage is not adjusted to the farm allotment, a farm marketing excess for the farm will be determined on the basis of the excess acreage and the farm normal yield. The farm marketing excess will be subject to penalty at a rate per pound equal to 50 per cent of the parity price of cotton as of June 15, 1957. Until the penalty of the farm marketing excess is paid a cotton marketing card cannot be issued for the farm and all upland cotton produced on the farm and marketed is subject to the penalty and a lien on the entire crop of upland cotton produced on the farm shall be in effect in favor of the United States. The penalty on the farm marketing excess is required to be paid even though no cotton is marketed from the farm. In addition, the upland cotton producers on this farm, if knowingly overplanted, will be ineligible for price support on the upland cotton produced on this farm. In case a remeasurement is desired or the excess acreage is disposed of the ASC office must be notified at once. The cost of measuring any acreage disposed of must be paid by the producer.

Performance reporters working in the county are Phillip Wilsons, performance supervisor; Kenneth Blount; Jack Pierce; and Foye Flood.
