Chamber of Commerce Organized for Plains

A group of Plains business men met last Thursday night in the Community Room in the old Courthouse to organize a Chamber of Commerce.

The men were assisted in the organization by several Brownfield Chamber of Commerce officials. Attending from Brownfield were J. L. (Dusty) Kemper, president; Joe Satterwhite, manager; Morgan Copeland, legislative chairman and Dennis Lilly, agriculture chairman.

Mr. Satterwhite spoke briefly to the group, telling the advantages of a Chamber of Commerce. He pointed out that as Plains grows everyone will prosper. He stated that a Chamber of Commerce is a salesman, to sell our community to people who are interested in making Plains their home, and to sell something, it must be constantly improved.

Officers elected were Bill Loyd, President, who is president of the Plains State Bank. Mr. Loyd stated that 'We've done a lot of growing in the past few years, and we feel that now is the time for a chamber to step in and make us get ever bigger.'

Rod Duff, city secretary, was elected as vice president and Dave Levens, Cashier at the Plains State Bank was elected as secretary.

Directors named Thursday night were D. C. Newsom, for agriculture; Pete St. Romain, highways and roads; George Burke, housing; Allen Wagley, industry; Pete Sampson, trade promotion; Joe Curry, health; and Dick McGinty, finance and membership.

Dick McGinty immediately appointed a committee to work with him. The committee is composed of J. W. Moore, W. B. Scott, Ford Hawkins, J. S. Wagley and D. N. Taylor. They had their first meeting and are now ready to go to work soliciting members.

An unsuccessful attempt was made in 1953 to organize a Chamber but Plains has grown considerably since then and it is believed by the majority of the business men that Plains needs a Chamber of Commerce.

Others taking part in the meeting were Sonny Brantley, Virgil Short, Allen Wagley, Roy D. Burke, B. C. Sisco, J. W. Moore, Jr., Vance Glover, Johnnie Keith, M. S. Weed, Archie Whitaker, W. B. Scott, John R. Morgan, Rod Duff, Rogers Curry, Leo White, Johnnie Fitzgerald and Mrs. Allen Wagley.

Mr. Raymond Bookout returned home Tuesday after receiving medical treatment at the Yoakum County Hospital.

A. T. Bandy and family of Lubbock, D. L. Bandy and family of Meadow visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Bandy Sunday.

Postmaster Asks Mailing of Cards, Packages Now

"The time has passed to talk about mailing early for Christmas," Postmaster Watson said. "Our local patrons still can help us avoid a last-minute pile-up of Christmas mail by sending the rest of their packages and cards now."

The Postmaster said the mail volume this year, no doubt, will break last year's all-time Christmas record. He expects to keep local mail moving without serious difficulty, but explained that many large transportation terminals and large post office terminals will be swamped with mail that will exceed their physical capacity in the last days before Christmas.

To avoid any such congestion, he urged that all out-of-town mail be placed in the post office this week-end so that it will be assured of delivery next week—the last week before Christmas. He recommended three-cent stamps for Christmas cards and air mail postage to those going to distant places.

To aid postal workers, the postmaster asked patrons to divide local and out-of-town mail into separate bundles.

He also asked that all letters and cards be turned facing the same direction with stamps in the same position to speed cancellation. Division by size of envelopes also will help.

"The cooperation of our patrons has been excellent," Watson said, "and I believe that when the rush is over our community will have done its part to prevent mail-handling problems that usually plague the postal service at Christmas time."

County Cotton Farmers Vote in Favor of Quotas

Yoakum county cotton farmers balloting in the 1958 cotton quota referendum Tuesday voted along with the other cotton farmers over the nation in favor of quotas on the 1958 crop of cotton.

The vote in Yoakum county are as follows. Plains 82 for and 10 against; Sligo 39 for and 0 against making a total of 121 for and 10 against.

This nation vote means that cotton marketing quotas will be in effect for the 1958 cotton crop and a farmer who exceeds his farms upland cotton allotment and who does not adjust the acreage within the permitted time must pay a penalty on all his excess cotton.

According to Mr. W. M. Overton, office manager of the local ASC office, funds are available for 1957 approved practices at this time. Any farmer interested in any of the approved practices are urged to file request at this time as the county committee would like to use all funds issued to the county before the years ends. As in the past, all requests must be filed before the practice is started to be eligible for payment. The most popular approved practices at this time is deep plowing sandy cropland and spreading cotton burs.

February 21, 1958 has been established as the final date to file applications for 1958 new grower cotton allotments.

Mr. Overton stated that due to heavy work load in the county office, payments on the CR Soil Bank Contracts have been delayed some. However, it is hoped to have all payments made soon.

The regular monthly meeting date for the county committee is the 2nd Monday night in each month. Farmers are invited to meet with them at any meeting

Farmers Request Gas Connection to City Lines

The Plains City Council held a regular meeting at the city hall last Thursday night, with the number one item of discussion being the possible increasing in size of the gas main from the city to the El Paso Natural Gas line east of here. The possibility of laying a larger main line has presented itself following an application by a group of farmers southwest of town for a gas connection to the city's system.

Only the ground work of the project has been started, with the prices of gas, quantities to be used, etc., yet to be worked out. The group of farmers and the pipe company involved will furnish the financing and the city will furnish the supervision of the lines and read the meters.

A firm of gas engineers from Plainview have been employed to figure the needs of the city at present, its future requirements, and the amount of gas to be used by the some 22 irrigation wells expected to use the gas. They will also advise of the size of the main required to the El Paso line.

Employees of the El Paso Natural Gas Co. have been working this week to install larger regulators at the connecting point in order to increase the flow of gas in the present line.

Other business attended to included approving the bills by the council.

Members of the council present were J. S. Wagley, Amos Smith, Johnnie Fitzgerald, Pete Sampson, Mayor W. R. Curry, City Secretary Rod Duff, and Tom Warren who met in connection with the gas line.

New Management For Sunshine Inn

The Sunshine Inn is now under new management. Mrs. Ola Webber, former owner, sold the cafe to W. W. Brumley because of ill health. Mr. Brumley's daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lee Brumley, will manage the cafe. The cafe business is not new to Mrs. Brumley, as she has worked in cafes for the past several years.

Mrs. Brumley moved to Plains with her husband, Earl Brumley, about two years ago. Mr. Brumley was forced to retire a year ago when he was seriously injured in an oil field accident.

Mrs. Brumley will be assisted in the cafe by her daughter Mrs. Lola Milam. Mrs. Brumley stated that the personnel will be about the same as it was when Mrs. Webber was manager.

Local Delegates Attend Farmers Union Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Hickman, Mrs. Jim Pharr, Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Williams, and H. L. Walsler, were delegates to the Texas Farmers Union convention held December 6-7 at the Windsor Hotel in Abilene. Texas Farmers Union is an organization of family farmers representing 6,600 families in the state.

During the two-day meeting delegates heard Senators Ralph Yarborough and Lyndon Johnson discuss farm and international problems; elected new officers; voted on a six-point program for improving farm income and met in committees which studies farm problems.

Senator Yarborough addressing the convention Friday, called abandoned farms and deserted small towns in Texas "Secretary of Agriculture Benson's brand," and added that the Secretary of Agriculture was "systematically killing the family farm in America by trying to replace it with big corporate-type farming operation."

Speaking at the Saturday meeting, Senator Lyndon Johnson traced the recent history of falling farm income. He urged delegates to consider promoting understanding of farm problems among the general population as a possible method of correction for falling farm income.

Turning to international relations, Johnson called the Sputnik emergency "extremely grave," and likened it to the domestic crisis in 1932.

At the Saturday meeting delegates adopted a six-point program for the preservation of the family farm. The program includes:

1. Stronger bargaining power for legislation.
2. Farm income improvement through legislation.
3. A parity income plan for cotton, wheat, forage crops, dairy products, and beef cattle which would assure farmers a fair return for labor and investment.
4. Continued strong support of the Rural Electrification Administration.
5. An expanded national economy and opposition of the "tight money" policy.
6. A recommendation for "immediate dismissal of the present Secretary of Agriculture and his replacement with a competent and friendly Secretary.

Decorations of candles in holly clusters and kerosene lamps carried out the old-fashioned Christmas theme. The Christmas tree came off the Yeso river in New Mexico and was trimmed in strands of popcorn and tinsel reminiscent of 1907.
The dinner of turkey and dressing, gravy, cranberry salad, baked potatoes, relishes french bread and old fashioned pound cake and boiled custard was enjoyed by seventy-six people.
After dinner entertainment was furnished by Mike Field, Don Field, Robert Field, Sarah Kay Field and Joyce Warren. Sarah Kay Field read "The Night Before Christmas" and the group sang Christmas carols accompanied by Robert Field at the piano.

Mrs. George Cleveland gave a very interesting paper on how the county celebrated Christmas in 1907.
Lacking most of the dressing, we give Christmas nowdays and especially minus scotch tape for wrapping. Mrs. Cleveland said Christmas meant just as much when gifts came from under a mesquite tree decorated with popcorn, paper chains or gum drops.
Gifts were exchanged and an hour of visiting was enjoyed by everyone present.

The FHA girls put up the Christmas tree in the homemaking department Tuesday, and they plan to have their Christmas party Monday night, December 16, at 7:30 P. M.

The Annual Staff reports that the retakes and football pictures have been received. The staff is now working on the second deadline. A date for taking basketball and favorite pictures has not yet been scheduled.

The Plains High School Band and Choir will present a musical program to the Plains student body. The program will be at 9:30 A. M., and the public is invited to attend.

The Senior class will have a party Friday night after the basketball game with Eida.

The fifth grade is going caroling December 16, 1957.

The sixth grade will go caroling December 17, accompanied by Mr. Belk, a tenor and Mr. Stockstill, who is a bass.

Christmas Spirit . . .

The same thought is probably running through everyone's head, students, teachers, principals and superintendent. Yes, everyone is preparing for the holidays ahead with the same sparkling spirit that causes everyone to work so hard every year at this holiday time. The idea of giving and receiving never seems to subside; although the whole purpose of Christmas is forgotten a lot times in the merry flurries of the holiday whirl.

Added to this other hum and bustle is a more spontaneous spirit which is found at the basketball games. This is a fine combination because all of the boys on the basketball team have the merry ol' Christmas spirit of its better to give than to receive. Therefore after the game, each player leaves feeling fine because actually he's done a good deed by giving to the opponents their score.

Yes, the Christmas spirit is high around the campus of Plains High School.

Additions to School Buildings Make More Facilities

The addition to Plains Public School is an Industrial Arts Building which consists of a Mechanical Drawing room office, shop area, project storage room, paint room, glue room, wood storage room, tool storage room, boys rest room and girls rest room.

The old cafeteria was connected into a Junior High School library and science laboratory.

The old wood shop was converted into a field house for boys and a school laundry.

The additions to the primary building include a cafeteria, public school music department, and three primary class rooms. All new space has been occupied except one class room. This extra classroom would be filled also if a teacher were available.

Dear Seniors,

Because Monday comes on Friday this Tuesday, you are invited to a Christmas party on the afternoon of Easter, Thursday September 32. The party is to begin at 12 below 0, providing the sun shines bright that night. The admission is free for all children 60 years of age. All orphans have to bring their parents.

Dinner will consist of cocktails at 50 cent a pail and spaghetti at 10 cent a yard.

The boat will leave the airport at 13 o'clock PDQ. If you miss the train, wait, we don't charge anything for waiting.

When you come to the corner in the middle of the street, you will know you have gone the wrong way, so jump in the red boat painted green and back up the street. Our address is above. We won't be at home because we don't live there anymore. We now live at 56 W. E. Street. It's the house in the vacant lot. Please be on time because we don't expect you at all. We won't be surprised if you insist on coming, but it will be alright with us, because we don't live there anymore either. Oh Yes! I forgot to tell you, two shots will be fired at the guests, and the one found dead will be tried for murder.

As the sun rises going down, two dead men will run a foot race for a cup of carbon monoxide.

Never yours.

"Take my hand"

"Take My Hand!" Thus has spoken our true Leader. As He Journeys in the service of God, He calls women and men and children to walk with Him. He has led youth and age to peace and victory. He has been the 'Christ of the Indian Road.' He is the Christ of every road where God's children must walk.

What a privilege! Ordinary people may have high company. What a blessed invitation. As they enter upon the serious tasks of life, they may have royal fellowship. Especially to those who leave the home fireside, to face a lonely way, He calls... "Take My Hand." Not one of us is equal to meeting the world in our own strength. But we can be conquerors, if divine strength and wisdom flows in upon our souls.

To every one of us, He is repeating the gracious invitation of the centuries, "Take My Hand." Wonderful things have been done by those who hearkened to the call! We do not need to walk alone. We must not walk alone. He will be our Teacher, our Friend, our Comforter, our Lord, our divine Comrade. Attend His Church! Take His Hand!

Court House to Be Closed for Holidays Dec. 24-28

Christmas holidays for the county employees at the courthouse have been determined by the commissioners' court, as they set December 24 through 28, both dates inclusive as the dates the courthouse at Plains would be closed.

In other action, the court ordered King Roofing Co. be paid $300 for repairs to the hospital roof, and that Buford Dulin, county welfare and service officer, be authorized to purchase a wheel chair for the county. The court also voted to advertise for the purchase of one 2-ton truck, paid bills as presented by the auditor, approved officers' reports, transferred $1199.54 from the road and bridge fund to the R&B fund, precinct 2, transferred $5000 from the officers salary fund to the general fund, and approved hospital bills as presented by the hospital board.

Don't Take a 'Slay' Ride at Christmas, Sheriff Warns

"Don't spoil your Christmas with a 'slay ride!'" This plea was made today by Sheriff Robert Chambliss in an effort to bring to the hazards of holiday traffic to the public's attention.

"Police and safety groups throughout the state need your cooperation to cut down on the potential holiday traffic toll," Chambliss said.

He pointed out that last December brought death to 252 Texans on our streets and highways. "Every decent citizen is shocked by these needless and tragic auto accidents," Chambliss said. "If we begin now in fighting the holiday hazards, we'll be well on our way toward winning the war on the waste of human life. Speed too fast for conditions, alcohol, darkness and pedestrian errors are the biggest contributors to the December toll."

An unusually high degree of drinking-drivers and holiday excitement was also listed as being strong accident factors, as well as a volume of heavy traffic and inclement weather.

Mrs. H. W. Culwell and son Vaughn spent the weekend in Stamford visiting Mr. and Mrs. Culwell. They also attended the funeral of J. L. Watts in Anson.

ACROSS THE CATTLE GUARD

by LEO W. WHITE
County Agent

By Leo L. White, County Agent

Three or four years ago we were wondering how to get a few of our best cows through the drouth on a limited amount of feed. The situation is a little different now. As you travel around to the farms and ranches where they carry mother cows through the winter you will find a large supply of feed than most of these people are accustomed to keeping. The number of trench silos in Yoakum County have increased at a very healthy pace. The way the people have taken to trench silos is very pleasing to me.

I would not be so well satisfied if a large number of farmers would dig trench silos all at the same time. All of them would not be able to make a paying proposition out of it at the same time. When a few people break the ice and others come into it gradually, then the chances of everyone being successful is much better. Everyone is not a livestock feeder but they can become a good feeder by eliminating some of the mistakes that are made by the beginners.

Most of our silage was put in the trench with the intentions of feeding it to mother cows and early spring when pasture is not available. Some of it was intended for lot feeding of purchased livestock that would be sold again as soon as the silage was all gone. The amount of feed varies with the size of the animals and with the individual feeders. Some ranchers want their cows to have as much as they will eat while others limit the amount that they feed and try to get by a little cheaper. Some are feeding cottonseed cake age while others are getting by with straight silage.

Our experiment stations have shown us that mother cows will wear heavier calves if they are kept in good condition during the time the calves are sucking. This does not mean that they can eat but it does mean that a cow should not be allowed to lose weight in excessive amounts during the nursing period. Milk is the main thing that makes the calf heavy and silage is one of the better feeds to make a cow give milk. When a cow is getting silage as the only feed, she is not getting a balanced ration and she cannot do her best job of raising a calf. She needs a little protein along with it which is usually supplied in the form of cottonseed meal or cake. One pound of cake or meal a day would greatly improve the ration even though that amount may not fill all the protein requirements.

In the case of feed-lot cattle, it has been found that one pound of ground grain per day added to a ration of silage and cottonseed meal would make the cattle, put on gain more efficiently. Feed-lot cattle usually get two pounds of cottonseed meal daily along with the one pound of grain and all the silage they will eat.

The amount of silage that an animal will eat can be determined by the animals weight. An animal on full feed will eat six pounds of silage for each one hundred pounds of live weight. At that rate a 1,000 pound cow will consume 60 pounds of silage a day. When cattle are running on pasture where they can pick up some dry grass and dead weeds, they can maintain their condition and give enough milk for a small calf if they are getting two pounds of cake and forty pounds of silage a day. This is about the ration that most Yoakum County ranchers have settled on as being necessary for wintering a mother cow.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM Your State CAPITOL

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN, Tex.—Plea for Bascom Giles' release are mounting. Latest activity is a petition signed by 103 Austin citizens, filed with the State Board of Pardons and Paroles. Earle Ed Burkhalter, member of the Travis County Parole Board for the past five years, submitted the request.

Burkhalter said that he is hopeful that Giles can be home for Christmas.

Giles is serving a 6-years sentence, in Huntsville, for his part in the veterans land scandals. He was eligible for parole last April. However the Pardons Board contended that his release "would not meet with community acceptance." Burkhalter's petition is the result of that statement.

Burkhalter said that he knew Giles only casually and had not consulted any of Giles' friends or relatives when he started the petition. He did say, however, that he felt that Giles' wife and family were being punished beyond the intent of the law.

"Mr. Giles has taken his medicine without pursuing the generally accepted course of taking advantage of all the technicalities of the law," Burkhalter commented. "He made restitution in civil procedures of all the money that was asked of him by the state's Attorney General."

In commenting on the petition for release, Rogan Giles, son of the former Land Commissioner, stated that the petition "confirms reports we have been receiving from all over the state, that Dad should be treated just like anyone else and be paroled."

Three of the nine members of the corrections board, the policy-making group for the prison system, recently said that Giles should be paroled. They praised his spotless prison record and termed him an excellent "risk" to society. One member, Lewis Norydke of Amarillo, described Giles as a "political prisoner."

Giles entered the Huntsville prison on Jan 10, 1956. As a trustee he earns double time. Therefore, without parole, he will be discharged Jan. 21, 1959. Also he has made several blood donations, each of which entitles him a 30-day commutation.

In view of these earnings Giles already as completed the three-year sentence given him in his jury trial. The balance of his time is the result of a guilty plea that followed the jury trial.

Prison officials state that he has been a model prisoner. PEACE AND QUIET HERE—Legislators have left, and Christmas decorations are going up in the State Capitol.

But Christmas in the Capitol, as elsewhere, may be a bit blighted this year by thoughts of upcoming bills.

Before adjourning, the lawmakers passed a $325,000 appropriation to pay second session expenses. Four different special funds had to be tapped to scrape it up.

This, added to State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert's forecast of a $29,000,000 deficit by 1959, heightened lawmakers' gloom and dissatisfaction at session's end. Some predicted they would have to come back in January to pass a tax bill.

Gov. Price Daniel said "no" to another session. Even if the comptroller's forecast proves correct, said Daniel, the 1959 session can take care of it. But the governor said he had real hopes that a rise in oil production would bring in more revenue and avoid the deficit.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS QUESTIONED—Seven major bills were passed in the two special sessions called by Governor Daniel this fall.

First session turned out laws on water planning, lobbyist control, crime study and practice before state agencies.

Second session turned out three laws aimed at strengthening local control of schools, particularly in regard to segregation. Last one to pass authorized county judge to require registration of organizations they feel are interfering with school operations.

In reference to the sessions Governor Daniel said he felt "very good" about them. In the first session they completed enactment of the 52-point program he submitted originally, said Daniel. "Old political pros still are fussing," he commented, but "we've never had so much mail from the grass roots voicing approval."

Critics contend, however, that the new laws are an empty victory.

Their view: (1) Measures on water planning, lobbyists, etc. were so riddled with amendments they'll have little effect. (2) Second session school bills won't stand up in court and will, therefore, prove a disappointment to the people who wanted pro-segregation laws. (3) Whole thing cost the Governor support in the Legislature and took nearly $2,000,000 from an already over-strained state treasury.

It's debate that likely will continue until voters have the last say in next summer's primary.

OUT TO CHEAT STATISTICIANS—Give the gift of life for Christmas.

That is the slogan for holiday driving agreed upon by the Texas Safety Council and Governor Daniel. Objective is to prove wrong the usually-right statisticians who say that 115 Texans will die in traffic accidents this holiday season.

To make drivers safety conscious, an all-out program is being launched by the Governor's office, Department of Public Safety, Highway Department, schools and military installations, and the Texas Safety Association.

Last December's traffic accidents took 252 lives 108 of them during the holidays.

APPOINTMENTS DUE—Governor Daniel says he hopes to have some 100 appointive jobs in state government filled by Christmas.

During the session several legislators publicly needed the governor about the pile-up of vacancies in state boards, departments and agencies.

Among those to be named are members of the newlycreated Water Development Board and one member of the new State Board of Water Engineers.

$165,000 Highway Work Set in County

The Texas Highway Department will spend $165,000 for improvements on highways in Yoakum County during 1958. D. C. Greer, State Highway Engineer has announced. This is in addition to the regular construction and maintenance program.

The program will include widening the base and surfacing the shoulders of 13.9 miles of US Highway 380 from Plains east to the Terry County line. Right of way cost is estimated at $5,000 with construction to be $160,000. "We should have this program moving by spring" Greer said.

Tax Man Sam Sez:

There are more people who are getting banged up in car wrecks than you read about in the newspaper. The orthopedic (bone) doctors and physical therapy clinics have their hands full with people who have snapped their neck and banged their backs as well as those who have to be wired and plastered together. The sick pay exclusion provisions in the income tax law are especially kind to salaried people who are excused to go for treatment because of an injury. If you had any extended sick spell and/or injury lost time and your company paid you your regular wages during the year, you ought to read the instructions carefully.

taxes, thus assuring themselves of a vote, was still considerably below expectation this week.

According to a check at the tax assessor-collector's office Tuesday, only 276 poll tax receipts had been issued. Residents have until January 31 to secure the receipts, it was pointed out. They may be purchased at the sheriff's office here in Denver City, or at the court house in Plains.

Voters will be balloting on a county judge, county clerk, county judge county clerk, county treasurer, two county commissioners and a justice of the peace for precinct two. All will be for four year terms. In addition, there will be important district and state offices to fill.

Officials urged that county residents take time now to make sure they pay their poll tax, and avoid the last-minute rush which always develops the latter part of January.
