"Good Will" Campaign Ends; Winners Named

Mrs. G. R. "Bud" Newman of Denver City was presented a check for $1,000 Saturday afternoon, as winner of first prize in the Good Will Subscription Campaign conducted by the Denver City Press and Yoakum County Review.

Mrs. Newman, and her co-worker, Mrs. Katherine Gayle, who will share in the prize money, topped all other workers in the six weeks drive. The campaign added over 1100 new subscribers to the Press' and Review's lists, in addition to resubscribing hundreds of others. Total circulation of both newspapers now stand at all time highs.

David Coats, also of Denver City, received a check for $500 as second prize winner. Mrs. Clyde Coke of Plains was presented with $300 as third place winner; and Mrs. M. C. O'Neal, Denver City received $200 for fourth place. In fifth place in the contest was Mrs. Dorothy Lowe of Plains, while sixth place went to Mrs. Vance Brown who resides on a farm east of here. The latter two each chose to receive 20 per cent commission which exceeded the prizes offered.

The publishers are happy over the excellent results of the campaign, which exceeded all expectations, particularly since practically all the new subscribers are from the immediate trade territory.

Thanks are due to the hundreds of subscribers for their splendid support and to the contestants who worked early and late for their prizes and commissions.

Judges who certified the votes Saturday afternoon before the prizes were awarded included Paul New and Stanley Duvall of Denver City, and Rogers Curry and G. W. Cleveland of Plains. Judges and workers met at the

The league this year could shape up to the most exciting in the history of its existence. There will be two teams each from Plains, Denver City and Seagraves. The teams will play a minimum of two games each week. Tentative arrangements have been made with Plains Little League President, Roy Stockstill, to use the Plains baseball park two nights each week during the summer.

A group of local men including, Bill Loyd, Dick McGinty, Rusty McGinty and Wyatt Lipscomb, attended a meeting of Bankers, Businessmen and Soil Conservation District Supervisors in Tulia last Wednesday.

Purpose of this meeting was to discuss the inter-relationship between soil conservation, agriculture and business and banking.

The group heard Bill Schmeer, vice-president Texas Bank and Trust Company of Dallas, sponsor of the meeting, discuss "Agriculture in Texas." "Agri-Business" is composed of farmers and ranchers and industry which supplies them with fuel, equipment and other needed supplies and the industries which process farm and ranch products. He pointed out that even though only 12 per cent of the population of the United States are farmers and ranchers that almost 40 per cent of the population depend on agriculture for their existence. Some 19 per cent of the population is employed in supplying goods and services to farmers and ranchers and some 17 per cent of the population is employed in processing and distributing farm and ranch products. He also pointed out that

Extensive Paving Project Outlined By Commissioners

A $30,000 paving program, to include needed paving of streets in both Denver City and Plains as well as improvement on several miles of rural roads, is expected to get underway in the near future.

H. C. Cotton, commissioner of precinct 2, said Wednesday that a total of 17 blocks in Denver City and seven in Plains, all within his precinct, would be included in the project.

Of that amount, 10 blocks are in the south part of Denver City, and seven in the extreme north section of town, including three blocks on 14th street and four on 13th street.

In Precinct 2, of which Vance Brown is commissioner, 11 blocks will be paved in Plains and 17 in Denver City. In the Denver City area, the paving will include three blocks in Shell Addition No. 1, plus the street back of the area which extends east to the highway. In addition, the street by D. C. Motors will be paved south to the last east-west street in the city limits. This street will also be paved west to where it meets the highway, and one block east.

In Precinct 4, some 10-11 blocks within Plains, will be included as well as the sealcoating of 10 miles of rural road. Clyde Trout is commissioner of that precinct.

Bids on the construction work will be received by the commissioners court up to 10 o'clock Monday, May 19.

C of C Directors Discuss Important Items Monday

Directors of the Plains Chamber of Commerce met Monday night in the district courtroom of the old courthouse to attend to several items of business, and to talk to a doctor who was in town to attend the meeting.

The doctor interested in coming to Plains and occupying the new clinic when completed was Dr. Davis, from Hamilton, Texas. He spent Monday in Plains looking around before meeting with the chamber of commerce directors. No decision on the part of the doctor or the C of C group was announced regarding his coming to Plains.

The committee in charge of the plans for the clinic met with Stiles, Roberts, Gee and Messersmith, architects and engineers, who were hired by the commissioners court to draw the plans for the clinic. Recommendations by this committee will be incorporated in the plans, and the first drawing will be presented to the commissioners for approval within a few days.

Members of the State Highway Department were present to discuss with the C of C committee the widening of highway 380 through town. P. W. St. Romain is in charge of this committee. The highway department officials told the committee that the money for the curbs and gutters would have to be available around the first of August if the project is to be included in the contract on the highway east of town.

Plans are now being made to contact all property owners along the highway in regard to furnishing their portion of the funds for the curbs and gutters.

The directors of the Yoakum County Livestock and Agriculture Improvement Association met in a called meeting last Monday night with Gene Bennett presiding. Other directors present were: R. M. McGinty, Pat Henard, G. W. Cleveland, Earl Bryson, Bill Harris, Powell and H. R. Stotts. Also present for the meeting were G. D. Kennedy, D. N. Taylor and Jay Booth all representing the Plains High School and Leo L. White, County Agent.

The directors were interested in seeing a Vocational Agriculture Department in the Plains School and they made their wishes known to the school officials who stated that they also were striving to get an agriculture department and that they would get one as soon as the required number of boys became interested in taking the course. Superintendent Kennedy stated that there was a possibility that a course of General Agriculture would be offered at the beginning of the next school term and the directors pledged their cooperation with any livestock which might come about because of this course.

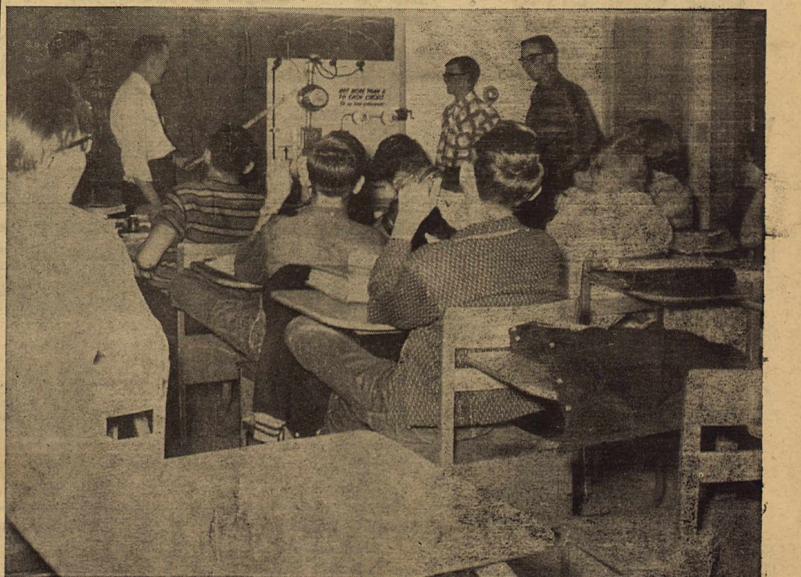

Another important item was discussed by the directors who agreed to sponsor some beef cattle breeding classes in the 1959 show to be held during the latter part of February. The details of this new division were turned over to a committee composed of Pat Henard, Pete Bryson and Bob Loe. It was felt by the directors that this new division would encourage breeders of beef cattle to improve the quality of their livestock and it was expressed that the Junior Show had played a definite part in causing some people to become interested in producing purebred cattle.

Band Wins Top Ratings at Contest

Last Friday the Plains Cowboy Band won a First Division rating in the Interscholastic League Band Contest in Lubbock. According to available records, this was the first such rating ever received by a Plains band in this contest.

The group received the rating of I in the sight-reading contest in which the bands play two numbers that they have never seen before. In the concert playing contest, which consisted of playing the three contest pieces, the Plains band received a rating of II, or "excellent." In the Interscholastic League rating system, a rating of I denotes a "perfect" performance, while a

ACROSS THE Cattle Guard

by LEO W. WHITE
County Agent

Last Saturday afternoon seven 4-H Club members brought their calves to the Exhibit Building to be weighed. These calves are animals that are being fed for the State Fair in Dallas in October. Eight calves are on feed for this show but Jay Bryson was unable to be present with his calf. If all these calves go through the summer feeding period in good shape and make the show at Dallas, it will be the second time that 4-H Club members have gone to the Dallas show with eight head of steers. Every year since 1953 there has been some Yoakum County calves in the Dallas Fair. In 1955 there were eight 4-H Club calves down there and all other years the number has been under five.

We were well satisfied with the way the calves looked and handled last Saturday except it would be better if some of them were a little heavier. All of the boys and girls had their calves named and they are getting them broken to lead pretty well. Following are the names of the 4-H clubbers along with the names and weights of their calves: Margaret Henard, Jigsaw 730; Marsha White, Feller, 631; D'Lois McGinty, Coffee, 585; D'Lynn McGinty, Tea, 535; Harold Lee Swan, Shorty, 513; Rex Swann, Tar Baby, 476; Kenneth McGinty, Buster, 462. These calves will be on a full fattening ration for the next six months and some of them could gain as much as 400 pounds during that time. They will be weighed again on the third Saturday afternoon of each month from now until October.

On the third Saturday on May will be the beginning of the gain contest for calves that will be in the 1959 Yoakum County Show. There is a possibility that we will have as many as 40 of these younger calves at the barn next month and most of the Dallas calves will be there too. The public is invited to come to the barns and look over the animals at any of these monthly weigh days. To me, the gain contest is very fascinating. We are still looking for the calf that will gain 700 pounds between the third Saturday in May and the February show. We are also looking for the calf that will win the gain contest and also win the show.

Most of the beef calves that have been selected and started on feed for the county show are dry lot calves. Some of them are not old enough to wean and they will have to be on pasture for a while after the May weigh day but some of the older calves have been weaned for more than a month. The number of calves on feed in April of this year is about the same as we had a year ago. We would like for a higher percentage of them to do well enough to get to the show than we had last year. Last year only 32 head got to enter of the show out of 47 that were on feed at one time during the latter part of the summer.

The other day I was out at Sherm Henard's place and I saw the heifer that he is planning to give to the exhibitor of the grand champion calf next February. She is just a small calf now but by next year at show time she will be a good sized animal. They say she is going to get some extra feed and they plan for her to be in fairly good show condition by the time she is ready to give away.

I have heard a little talk about setting up some breeder classes for our show and allowing the local breeders to exhibit some of the breeding stock. I personally feel that it would be an asset to our show and a help to our local livestock if we had a way for the breeders to compete against one another. Anyone interested in taking part in that kind of a show should mention the fact to one of the directors of the local Livestock Association and they could discuss it at the next meeting.

HOMESTEAD SUBJECT TO SALE FOR TAXES

Many Texans have the mistaken impression that their homestead cannot be seized and sold for delinquent taxes. In many cases, this idea has led to considerable grief and monetary loss which could have been avoided. A homestead should be rendered to tax assessors like any other property, and taxes assessed against it should be paid as faithfully as those on any other taxable property.

The deadline for rendering property for taxation is April 1, so far as most city taxing agencies are concerned. The last date for rendering real and personal property for state and county taxes is April 30. State taxes are collected by the County Tax Collector.

Under the Texas Constitution, each family is entitled to claim one piece of real property as their homestead. This claim must be established by an affidavit filed with the county tax assessor on or before April 30, each and every year. This affidavit must be filed by the owner himself. A lending agency cannot do so, even though it may actually pay the annual taxes thereon from a fund created by the owner's monthly installments.

When the homestead affidavit is properly filed, the owner becomes entitled to an exemption of State taxes up to the value of $3,000 or 200-acres in the case of farm lands. This is an exemption from payment, not a complete exemption from rendition and assessment. There is no similar exemption with reference to county or city taxes, except in certain counties levying a special 30 cent farm-to-market and lateral road tax.

The homestead claimed for tax purposes need not be the property which is actually occupied by the owner as his residence.

When the homestead affidavit is not filed by April 30, the taxpayer loses his right to the $3,000 or 200-acres exemption, and consequently becomes liable for more taxes than he would otherwise be required to pay.

Property taxes are assessed against the person who is the record owner of each piece of real and personal property on the first day of January of each year. Individuals purchasing property during the year should make sure that the taxes for all previous years have been paid. Otherwise, the purchaser may be forced to pay hundreds of dollars in delinquent taxes to protect his property. Unpaid taxes create a lien against the property which can be enforced regardless of change of ownership.

One should also keep in mind to make some arrangement for the previous owner to pay his pro-rata share of taxes for the current year. Otherwise, the buyer may find it necessary to pay the entire taxes for that year.

When taxes are not paid by the deadline prescribed for the particular taxing unit (city, county, State or district), monetary penalties and interest are added from month to month. In addition, the property becomes subject to seizure and sale to satisfy the tax lien. This lien applies to all property, whether homestead or not.

Political Announcement

You, the citizens of this County, because of the mushrooming of your needs and the accommodations or services which the County offers, deserve public servants able and willing to understand and to supply those needs; to that end, I am willing to dedicate myself. And, as election to this office would disqualify me from practicing law in the County Court and the Justice of the Peace courts in this county, a substantial part of an attorney's practice, I will be able to fulfill the obligations that I am asking you to place on me. That we may get better acquainted, please call on me to speak at any occasion on any matter of local interest; that you may learn the principles for which I stand, please ask any question and it will be honored by a straight and brief answer. And finally, I want to be your servant, your county judge.

STUDENTS TAKE NATIONAL MERIT SCHOLARSHIP QUALIFYING TESTS

Sixteen students from the Plains High School Junior class took the National merit scholarship qualifying test, Tuesday morning, April 29th, according to D. N. Taylor, High School principal.

Students taking the test were; Jay Bryson, Brenda Sudderth, Joanne Copeland, Elaine Mauk, Karen Shobert, Sheila Smith, Sallie Yarbrough, Jo Ann Bailey, Judy Lowe, Darla Hickerson, Don Edwards, Jimmy Warren, Claude Lee, Bill Lattimore, Donnie Kissinger and Cordell Huddleston.

An estimated $5 million in Merit scholarships and other awards are at stake in the national competition, now beginning its fourth year. Some $12 million in Merit Scholarships have been awarded in the first three years of the program.

Merit Scholarships are provided by some 80 corporations, foundations, professional societies and individuals, as well as by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation itself, which conducts the competition.

The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test is a three hour measure of educational growth and aptitude. Emphasis is on broad intellectual skills, and on understanding and ability to use what has been learned, rather than on sheer knowledge of facts.

A group of 10,000 students—composed of the highest scorers in each state—will advance to the Semi-finals when the results are reported to all participating schools next fall. Semi-finalists will then take a second examination. Those who repeat their high performance on the second examination will become finalists in the program and will indicate their choice of college and course of study. Further evaluation of their grades, citizenship, and extracurricular achievements will follow, and the winners will be announced in the Spring of 1959.

The test results will be available at the beginning of the senior year, in time for use by seniors and their class advisors. The scores may also be used in many high schools to help students make decisions about college and the most appropriate course to major in. Many students throughout the country who do not expect to win have registered for the test, in order to learn more about their individual strengths and weaknesses.

Dr. John M. Stalnaker, President of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, recently cautioned that there are many reasons why test results cannot be used to evaluate school performance. The distribution of the population throughout the state, the size of the school, the native intelligence of its top students, the percentage of students taking the test, the nature of the community where the school is located, the purpose of the school, and many other factors having nothing to do with the total effectiveness of the school can influence its number of finalists.

The test results will however, enable students as individuals, to compare their scores with other students across the nation.

The test has been constructed by Science Research Associates of Chicago, and will also be scored and reported by the testing agency.

Each Merit Scholarship carries a stipend based on the need of each individual winner, and is renewable annually without further competitive examination. The average stipend in past years has been $650 per year. The minimum award in the 1958-59 program will be $100 a year and a maximum will be $1500 a year.

The names of all program Finalists will be sent to colleges and universities and other scholarship organizations throughout the country. In this way many non-winning finalists are helped in winning scholarships awarded directly by colleges and other organizations.

About 1000 Merit Scholars, winners of the 1957-58 competition, will be named on May 1, 1958. They are winners in the third merit program which began last October.

The National Merit Scholarship Corporation directs the annual competition. It was founded in 1955, on grants of $20 million by the Ford Foundation and $500 thousand by the Carnegie Corporation of New York.

Juniors Class Says 'Thanks' For Help In Presenting Play

In the excitement of putting on a play, the junior class failed to thank some of the people who were most helpful.

The whole class is grateful to Mrs. M. W. Luna, who brought in lovely flowers both for the dress rehearsal and the final performance.

Also the class wishes to thank Mrs. P. W. St. Romain, who made a special trip to Lubbock to bring back the five band members in the cast.

Then, too the juniors want to thank Ford Hawkins for giving them the special paint they used on their cars in advertising the play.

Finally, they want to thank their parents, several of the high school teachers, and other friends from whom they borrowed everything from clothes to furniture.

Lea County Co-op Holds Dinner Meeting Thursday

The Lea County Electric Cooperative, Inc., invited fifty-two couples, who are members of the Cooperative to a meeting held at the Cooperative Office, Thursday evening, April 24, 1958. The group present was selected by a lot drawing from the Cooperative membership file and generally represented the areas of Lovington, Tatum, McDonald, Hobbs, Maljamar, Plains and Seminole, Texas.

The purpose of this meeting was to discuss membership problems and to receive constructive ideas from those members as to how we might improve their electric service. Mr. R. B. Moore, General Manager of the Cooperative, acted as group leader and requested those present to discuss any phase of the Cooperative operations or ask questions regarding their electrical service. General questions regarding the Cooperative operation revolved around the various service needs of the consumer. It was pointed out that inadequate wiring is the cause of many service complaints. This is the responsibility of the consumer; although, the Cooperative is charged with the responsibility of delivering adequate service to the consumer's premises. Mr. Moore pointed out that coordination between the Cooperative and the consumer could remedy many of the service problems; and if the consumer would report all electrical problems to the Cooperative and allow us to check and advise as to the solution, we could improve our service faster.

The purpose of these dinner meetings is to bring the ultimate consumer and the Cooperative closer together so that we may understand our problems and receive mutual benefit from our joint efforts.

A CONTRACT

A contract is a promise... a compact... an agreement between two or more persons. It simply binds the contracting parties to abide by the conditions set forth therein. It could be a marriage contract, or a business contract. It may be a contract with your church and your God. A contract is a serious piece of business. Do you fulfill the terms of the contracts you make? You promised to be true to your life partner until death. You signed to discharge your financial obligations on a certain date. You contracted to be a faithful member of your church... to attend regularly and support its work. Are you doing that? Do you honor your contract... your word? The integrity of your own soul determines the value of all the contracts you make. They are as good as you or as bad as you. Church attendance will help you prove yourself worthy of the confidence of both man and God. Attend every worship service.

In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen in the ministerial are the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

CHEMISE OR NOT—

Women can look forward to a variety of silhouettes in spring and summer styles, without having to "take or leave" the chemise, according to extension clothing specialists.

Although the chemise influence is most dominant in new spring styles, women can choose classic styles that adapt some of its more pleasing features.

There are other silhouettes—a great variety of them—from which to choose the new garments for our wardrobes. There is the two piece look, with jacket to the hip bone or shorter—the pleated skirt that stays closer to the body—the straight skirt with soft ease at the top—the classic shirtdress dress a favorite of many years, with its new soft fullness in the bodice.

Two points of fashion are definite in all clothing this spring—all will fit a little more loosely, and all will be about an inch shorter.

Choose the silhouette that best suits your own personality—your figure and your needs.

QUESTIONS ASKED IN USE OF STEAM IRONS—

Steam pressing is a fast growing trend judging by the increasing number of questions on the selection, use and care of steam irons, extension home management specialists report.

For interested homemakers, specialists pass along these answers to some of the most-asked questions.

When it comes to selection, there are two main types: The flash or open water container type, which is usually filled through the front of the handle. Instructions say heat, then turn to steam. It's important to follow the instructions because the water runs through and doesn't turn to steam if not sufficiently heated.

The other kind has a boiler or sealed water container. To fill, the cap is unscrewed or removed. All the water is heated to the steaming point and continues steaming until the water is gone. Prevent spitting and water spotting by following manufac-

Attend Last Rites For Close Friend

Mr. and Mrs. Hank Goehry and family returned home last Thursday from Gothenburg, Nebraska, where they attended the funeral of Emil Ludwig, a very close friend of the Goehry family. Mr. Ludwig had been in ill health for the past several months.

Funeral services were conducted last Monday in the American Lutheran Church with Rev. Beckman officiating. Burial was in the Gothenburg Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter McClellan returned home recently from a few weeks visit in Weatherford, Mineral Wells and Dallas. In Weatherford, they combined business with pleasure, visiting in the home of a nephew, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Strickland and Mr. McClellan helped in the building of a laundry. They also enjoyed fishing while there and visited in the home of their son and family in Dallas Mr. and Mrs. M. E. McClellan, and Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Strickland of Mineral Wells.

turers instructions for filling and heating. These general precautions apply to most steam irons! Don't overfill or handle roughly, or tilt excessively. This is especially important for irons with flash or open water containers. Be sure the iron is hot before turning on the steam. Set iron at correct temperature setting. Water is likely to boil over or the steam may be too dry if the iron is overheated.

Use of tap water, unless it is naturally soft, will usually lead to a deposit of minerals that corrode the metal and close the steam passageway. Use of distilled (soft) water will prevent mineral deposits.

To open clogged vents, some manufacturers suggest the use of clear vinegar. This mild acid is effective in removing calcium, one of the minerals which collects in the iron. Fill the water container with ½ cup vinegar and steam 2 minutes. Let stand overnight, then rinse several times. Expect unpleasant odor.

program in Plains this summer should contact Roland Johnson at home or at the Plains Junior High School.

Although two teams have been entered from Plains in the league, the local boys need a minimum of $25.00 in order to participate in their first game. The following contributions have been made to date: Lea County Electric Co-op, $200.00; Johnnie Fitzgerald, $10.00; Murphy Luna, $10.00; Pete Sampson, $10.00; A. B. Anyone interested in donating to a program that will keep 32 Plains boys happily occupied this coming summer should make their checks out to the Denver City Pony League and turn them over to Roland Johnson, who will turn the money over to the league treasurer.

Claude McBeth, Mrs. Jack Newman and Mrs. A. O. Williams, all of Denver City; Mrs. Tom Box Mrs. Amos Smith and Junaita Taylor, all of Plains.

The publishers also wish to thank the Edwards Circulation Company, and in particular Mr. Orville Hendren, who was personally in charge of the campaign, for the extremely fine way in which the subscription drive was conducted. "We have nothing but praise for the excellence in which the 'Good Will' campaign was handled," they stated this week.

Prior to leaving Denver City Monday, Mr. Hendren declared: "It has been a great pleasure to have worked in and about Denver City and Plains during the last six weeks. The work has brought me into close contact with many people of the community and I have enjoyed it greatly.

"To the candidates who participated in the campaign, to Cal and Gene Snyder, publishers, I extend my sincere thanks for the splendid cooperation and loyalty. It is cooperation of this kind that makes working a pleasure and a difficult task easy.

"The public also cooperated very nicely with the candidates and with me. Through this cooperation the campaign has been highly successful, and has added over 1,100 new subscribers to the Denver City Press and Yoakum County Review subscription list.

"I am sorry I did not have the pleasure of becoming personally acquainted with more of the people of Yoakum County. I wish to extend to one and all who have cooperated with me in this campaign, or in any other way helped to make my stay in Denver City pleasurable, a very sincere thank you."
