Plains Talk

By Wendell Faught

If Vance Brown, Gene Payne et al seem a little friendlier than usual and a little eager to shake your hand, they have good reason. Next year's primary is to be held in May, about two months ahead of the normal time.

We welcome this week to our list of advertisers Dick McGinty and the crew at Plains Frozen Foods. We're happy to have them with us and we're sure many of our readers will be too.

Now that Dr. Lynn is firmly established here, nobody calls us Doctor anymore. Seems that half the town had us mixed up with him for a good while since we both arrived about the same time.

Le White is typical of the Plains football fan. He is to go to Kansas City early next month to receive a national award. He has his timetable arranged where he can leave after the first game of the season and get back to Plains just in time to see the second.

From time to time we hear someone ask a question concerning Plains that is difficult for many of us to answer. We have always felt that a good citizen knows all about his community. So, how about someone answering the following:

What is the oldest business in Plains? — in Yoakum County? What person has been in business longer than anyone else here? What was the first business established in Plains and who established it?

Who was first baby born in Yoakum County? Who was married in the county's first wedding ceremony. Where was the wedding and who performed it?

Who are our oldest citizens, man and woman? Who has lived in Plains longer than anyone else? — Yoakum County? Who is our oldest native? What was the first church established and which of the present churches is oldest.

Who is credited with founding Plains? — Yoakum County? Who named the city? — the county? What about our early days — did Indians inhabit this area? What kind? Was this buffalo country?

Who was the first school and who was the first teacher? When was the Plains school established? Who were the first persons to receive high school diplomas in this county?

What's the largest family ever reared in Plains? What family has sent more children through high school in Plains than any other. Who was the first man entering service in World War I? — in World War II?

Who produced the first bale of cotton? — the first irrigation well? What about the first oil well in the Plains area?

These are only a few of many things which have come to our mind during the brief time we have lived here. Many people here could probably answer all of these questions and a hundred more just like them. No doubt the answers to all of them have appeared a number of times in this newspaper. But new people are moving in all of the time and these things are of interest to them, especially after they get to know the people who carved the local history.

Three county residents, Levelland man injured in auto crash near Tokio Friday

Four persons were injured late Friday afternoon in a head-on collision on a farm-to-market road two miles west and one mile south of Tokio.

Injured were John Charles Farmer, 45, Levelland; George Martin, 60; his daughter, Ann Marie, 12, and Mrs. Mary Davila, 25, all of Tokio.

Farmer was taken to Phillips-Dupre Hospital in Levelland by Kenneth Davies, manager of the Davis Funeral Home in Plains.

Damage suit trial is set

Trial of $251,000 civil damage suit, believed to be the largest ever in Yoakum County, which is the aftermath of an accident on Highway 214 on January 29, 1959, is scheduled to get underway on Monday in district court in Plains.

Violet O'Keefe and others have filed the suit against Higginbotham Land and Cattle Company and others, with John L. Higginbotham cited specifically as a defendant.

Mrs. O'Keefe is the widow of W. T. O'Keefe who was killed in a three-vehicle collision approximately six miles north of Denver City near the intersection of Routes 214 and 356.

The plaintiff charges in her complaint that negligence on the part of Higginbotham, 68, of Dallas, in the operation of his automobile was a direct cause of her husband's death.

Mrs. O'Keefe alleges that her husband was driving his automobile at a prudent rate of speed when his vehicle was struck from the rear by the car driven by Higginbotham, knocking the O'Keefe car into the path of an oncoming pickup truck driven by Travis L. Brewer, Jal, N. M., an employee of El Paso Natural Gas Co. The complaint also states that just prior to the collision with the O'Keefe car Higginbotham had swerved his Buick to the left to pass while on a hill, saw the approaching vehicle and cut back to his right with the left front of the Higginbotham vehicle striking the rear of the O'Keefe Ford, propelling the O'Keefe car into the path of Brewer's pickup.

Suit claims Higginbotham was driving a car owned by Higginbotham Cattle Company and was acting as company agent at the time. Suit asks damage individually from Higginbotham and from the Company in favor of the plaintiff and her five minor children.

Notified to report to the district court room at 2 p.m. Monday, for possible jury duty are the following:

Sue Stevens, L. O. Wyatt, E. K. Morgan, Waymond Taylor, Mrs. C. A. Prewitt, R. W. Rickey, Al Scoggins, Raymond Talley, Mrs. Tom Lesh, Joe Nevarez, Edward Taylor, W. E. Mason, Mrs. J. J. Wise, Y. L. Wright, M. E. Pickens, J. D. O'Neal, all of Denver City.

Injuries chief worry for football coaches

Fear of injuries to key players is causing most worry to Plains high school football coaches as they rush their charges through drills in anticipation of the season's opener just a week away.

The Cowboys scrimmaged Tahoka there Tuesday night and the coaches were well pleased with the showing. The Cowboys scored four touchdowns against the AA Bulldogs and held the home team scoreless. But Coaches Jack Pierce and Rip Sewell were quick to point out that Tahoka had won only two games last season.

Nevertheless, Plains' showing was gratifying. The defense was especially impressive as time after time it stopped the Tahoka ball carriers without gains. In fact, the Bulldogs never did register a first down during the practice session.

Pierce said Wednesday he felt the Cowboys would have a very good first unit, but material beyond the starters was thin and injuries to a couple of boys could pretty well wreck the team. "Our boys are small," he said, "and will be up against teams with much bigger men." He went on to explain that smaller boys were more likely to get hurt.

One serious injury has already hit the team. Don Williams, outstanding halfback on last year's championship squad, suffered a knee injury during the first day of practice and will probably be out for six weeks. His injury was not considered too serious at the beginning, but it has failed to respond well to treatment. Williams was the team's second

THREE OCCUPANTS of this car and one in another were injured Friday afternoon in a collision near Tokio. George Martin, Ann Marie Martin and Mrs. Mary Davila, all of Tokio, were passengers in this car. All are still in a Brownfield hospital. John Charles Farmer of Levelland, driver of the other car involved is in a Levelland hospital.

Tourney winners named

Ethel Martin made 10 rides around the barrels last Friday night in the Rodeo Arena and Oscar Henard made 10 rides with flags and both came out as undefeated champions.

Second places in each event went to D'Lynn McGinty in the barrel race and Kenneth McGinty in the flag race. Each of these contestants was defeated twice but in each case it was the winning rider that put them out. Third place in the barrel race went to D'Lois McGinty who was defeated twice by her sister D'Lynn. Marsha White took a spill from her horse in the first race of her match against Ethel Martin and conceded the match by taking a no-time. After her fall she did not feel like competing against D'Lois and conceded that match also.

Charles Bedford won third in the flag racing tournament by defeating Chip Bennett after each boy had lost in the semifinals. Loving cups for the two events were furnished by Rusty McGinty and the presentations were made during the Saturday night rodeo.

In the girls barrel racing tournament Jan Copeland and Margaret Henard started the show. Margaret won the match by making two rides around the barrels in 49.8 seconds and Jan's time was 51.4. In the next match Sylvia McGinty lost to Ethel Martin 52.0 to 48.0. The third match was between Marsha White and D'Lois McGinty and D'Lois was the winner with 47.2 while Marsha took 58.0 which included a 10-second fine for knocking over a barrel. D'Lynn McGinty defeated Sharon Smith in the fourth match 46.1 to 52.6.

In the second round of the double elimination tournament winners were riding against winners and losers against losers. Ethel Martin defeated Margaret Henard 46.8 to 50.4 and D'Lynn McGinty defeated D'Lois McGinty 45.3 to 45.9. In the loser's bracket Sylvia McGinty won over Jan Copeland 51.8 to 72.6 after Jan knocked over two barrels on her second ride drawing

Suggestions for slogan being received by C-C

Several persons have already turned in suggestions for a slogan for the Plains Chamber of Commerce, but there is plenty of time for everyone to get in on the act.

The contest runs through September 10, after which all entries will be carefully screened and one of them chosen as the chamber's slogan. A cash prize of $10 is to be awarded to the person who submits the winning entry.

Chamber of Commerce officials are urging everyone in the Plains area to participate in the contest. A large number of entries would indicate to them that the public is interested in the organization's activities.

Entries may be delivered to the Chamber of Commerce office or mailed to Box 1021. Those delivered must reach the C-C office no later than September 10 and those mailed must be postmarked on or before that date.

The distinction of being the first person to submit a suggestion for a slogan belongs to Buddy Hanna, owner of Buddy's Auto Parts. He delivered his suggestion to the Chamber of Commerce office Friday, the first day the contest was open.

Deputy arrests beer transporter

A Roswell serviceman was arrested last Thursday night and charged with illegal transport of alcoholic beverages following an eight-mile chase by Deputy Olan Heath.

Floyd Driver, an airman at Roswell Air Force Base, entered a plea of guilty to the charge and was assessed a fine of $100 and costs. He was released from jail Saturday.

Heath said the chase began just west of Plains and ended six miles north of the city when Driver's car hit a sand pile. In his possession were 160 quarts of beer and two cases of wine.

Chamber and Lions to give cash prize to area farmer producing first cotton

A premium of $100 awaits the Plains area farmer who brings in the first bale of cotton under the terms of a joint program being sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and the Lions Club.

The cotton must be ginned at one of the following gins in order for the farmer to be eligible for the prize: D. C. Newsom Gin, Bronco Gin, Stalene Gin or C. G. & S. Gin.

It has been customary in the past for the Chamber of Commerce to ask merchants for merchandise or cash to give as

The three-month silence of school bells and the many activities which accompany them will come to an abrupt halt at 8:45 a.m. Monday when the 1959-60 term officially opens.

Students will register for classes Monday and go through normal opening day activities. Classes will be dismissed at noon, but pupils are to report back Tuesday for their first full day of class work.

Superintendent G. D. Kennedy announced Wednesday that school bus schedules will be the same as they were at the close of school last spring. The school cafeteria will resume operation Tuesday.

Students may have a hard time recognizing different parts of the school as a result of the extensive building and remodeling program which has been in progress during most of the summer. Kennedy said the building program could be expected to result in a few inconveniences, but work was being completed as rapidly as possible.

Principal incomplete facilities are the band department and the auditorium. The superintendent explained that the band department was being rushed as fast as possible, but the auditorium will not be available for this school year.

Football facilities should be completed in time for the first home game on September 4, Kennedy said. However, track curbing, finishing touches to the parking area and a few other minor details will probably take additional time. Plans call for

Cowboys to test Seminole Friday

Seminole, a AA school with a AAA enrollment, will provide the opposition for the Plains Cowboys in a football scrimmage here Friday afternoon, beginning at 5 p.m. The scrimmage was originally set as a night session, but was moved to the earlier time Wednesday because the lighting facilities at the local stadium are not completed.

No doubt, Seminole will provide much more serious opposition than last Tuesday's scrimmage with Tahoka. The Indians are expecting their finest team in years and boast one of the area's top school boy grid stars in Fullback Carl Norton.

Coaches Jack Pierce and Rip Sewell welcome the opportunity to scrimmage against the rugged opposition and expect to obtain a good evaluation of their own team. The Indians are big and they are fast. Norton, beginning his fourth year as a regular, is a 200-pounder. Mike Smith, a speedy backfield partner, runs the 100-yard dash in 10 seconds.

Although Seminole plays in district 4-AA, the enrollment is 440 students in high school, 65 more than the minimum for an AA school. In 1960, the Indians will begin competing in the higher classification.

Fans deserve applause

Much has been said of the approaching football season and much has been said of the Plains Cowboys, both past and present. Too much praise cannot be heaped on the grid warriors who have brought so much credit to Plains.

But another breed of Plainsman deserves a mighty pat on the back for helping make such accomplishments possible. We are speaking of the rabid fan, whose loyal support and encouragement has no doubt been a major factor in the success of the football team.

We have yet to see a winner produced in a town whose citizens showed no interest. Statistical experts have long tried to establish a point value for hometown support. No boy, be he a junior high scrub or a professional star, will fail to exert full effort when he knows the stands are full of people who are pulling for him.

Every sports fan knows the fabulous rags-to-riches story of the Milwaukee Braves. A dismal team in non-appreciative Boston became a pennant contender in sports happy Milwaukee. Never in sports history was a better example of fan loyalty set out. The management credited the fans for the rise in stock, since the team, with one exception, was the same that had finished in seventh place the last year the club operated in Boston.

Just how much better the Plains Cowboys were last year because of the active support received here cannot be measured. There is no doubt, however, that it was considerable. And continued loyalty will make them an even better team this fall.

ACROSS THE CLEO W. WHITE

County Agent

Vacation time has passed, school days are about to begin, the boll worm threat is over, rodeos are a thing of the past for this year and all we have to do is hope for a favorable season so we can gather the crops and keep them in good shape. The harvesting of silage crops is beginning and a few loads of grain sorghum have been hauled in. The grain is high in moisture but much of it would fall down if left in the field to dry. The late planted grain sorghum could use a rain but many of the irrigated cotton farmers are wanting it to stay dry so their cotton will harden off and mature the fruit that is on it.

Grain is selling a little above the support price. Hogs are staying low with no prospect of an increased price in the near future and farmers are not hankering to feed $1.50 grain to hogs and sell them for 12c or less. The hog situation looks a little gloomy. At least it is not favorable for the inner-and-outer hog man to go into the business. It is not a bad time; however, for the old stand-by hog man to be in the business. He can still sell his grain for a good price by putting it into 12c hogs. If he raises his own pigs and keeps them healthy he can make a little money at that price. If he allows them to harbor parasites or have diseases or if he fouls up a farrowing time and has some small litters, his profits will be small if any at all.

Speaking of healthy pigs, all good hog men are following a practice that has not yet been adopted to any extent in Yoakum County. Young pigs often develop an ailment called anemia. It causes baby pigs to show signs of stiffness and they become unthrifty even before they reach weaning age. There was a time when we blamed the concrete floor of the farrowing house for this trouble but it has been proven that most of the cases are due to a shortage of iron in the system. By vaccinating the baby pig at two or three weeks of age with an iron solution the trouble is overcome and the pigs are usually heavier at weaning time. The iron solution is rather inexpensive and can be purchased from most any veterinarian. It is something that Yoakum County hog men should start using.

Each brood sow has to raise five pigs each litter before there are any profits pigs. Those above five per litter are what keeps a man in the hog business. Five pretty good pigs and two with anemia is not considered very good management. Those unthrifty pigs are not worth much to the feeder.

Several farmers have indicated that they plan to go into the hog business in the near future. One good rule to follow is to buy all of your breeding gilts from the same place. Check around the place before you buy to see that there are no diseased hogs on the premises. Be even more cautious when buying a breeding male. It is easy enough to have a disease in your hog herd that you don't know how it got there but when you bring a disease onto a farm through some purchased animals it is usually the fault of the buyer. All of hogs have some immunity to have a disease in your hog mix up a bunch of hogs that all came from different places, they may not be immune to everything that is coming in. Disease is the main thing that keeps the hog man from making money. Preventing it is much better than trying to cure it.

a 20-second penalty. Marsha White defeated Sharon Smith 45.1 to 55.3 to complete the second round of the tournament.

After a short rest for some boys flag racing Ethel Martin defeated D'Lynn McGinty leaving Ethel the only undefeated girl in the tournament. Sylvia McGinty lost to Marsha White in the next match 49.6 to 63.0 and Margaret Henard was defeated by D'Lois McGinty 48.0 to 46.6. The next match was between Ethel Martin and Marsha White and this was the hard luck match of the evening. Ethel turned over a barrel in her first ride and had a time of 32.8 seconds. Marsha fell from her horse at the last barrel and received a no-time. Ethel had to make a qualified ride to win the match which she did in 40.5 seconds, saving her horse for future running.

The second match of the semi-finals was another match between D'Lois and D'Lynn McGinty and D'Lynn won again 46.6 to 48.2. After the second round of the boys flag racing Ethel Martin came back to defeat D'Lynn McGinty in the finals 45.4 to 47.6. The best time for any one rider was made by Marsha White who turned in a 21.5 for the first ride of her match against Sharon Smith. The best total time for any two rides match was made by Ethel Martin during her first match with D'Lynn McGinty. She had a 22.0 and 22.4 for a total of 44.4. Ethel Martin, the barrel tournament champion, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reg Martin of the Tokio Community.

In the boys flag racing tournament the first match of the evening was between Kenneth McGinty and Tommy Payne. Kenneth won the match by turning in two rides of 20.0 seconds for a total of 40 flat while Tommy took 62.8 for his two rides. Joe Wayley defeated Charles Bedford in the second match 47.6 to 74.2. In the third match Chip Bennett won over Pharon Pharr 44.5 to 49.4. The fourth match was Tommy Jones and Oscar Henard and Oscar was the winner with a 40 flat while Tommy took 47.8 for his two rides.

In the second round of the flag races winners were pitted against winners and losers against losers. Kenneth McGinty had a 38 flat to win over Joe Wagley with a 71.0. Oscar Henard won over Chip Bennett in the next match 41.4 to 46.8. In the loser's bracket Charles Bedford nudged out Tommy Payne 56.2 to 58.0 and Pharon Pharr beat Tommy Jones 43.4 to 46.0.

The horses were rested during a session of barrel racing after which Kenneth McGinty and Oscar Henard came back in a match with Oscar coming out victorious 40.3 to 42.1. Four one time losers were left in the contest. Charles Bedford took out Pharon Pharr 55.2 to 57.0 and Chip Bennett eliminated Joe Wagley 49.2 to 50.6.

In the semi-finals Oscar Henard, undefeated in three matches, beat Charles Bedford 45.4 to 65.0 and Kenneth McGinty defeated Chip Bennett 47.1 to 64.5. In the finals Oscar Henard came up against Kenneth McGinty for the second time and defeated him 42.8 to 43.6 as Kenneth's time included a five-second penalty for having a flag out of place. Oscar was declared the champion, Kenneth was in runner-up position for second place and Charles Bedford and Chip Bennett were tied for third. They made two more rides each to break the tie and Charles was declared the third place winner 57.7 to 59.2.

The fastest time for any single ride among the flag stations was 19.0 seconds. Oscar Henard did it on his first ride of the evening and Kenneth McGinty did it twice all in one match. The fastest time for any two ride match was Kenneth's time of 38.0.

Time keepers for the event were Harvey Stotts and Billy Winn. The bookkeepers were Johnnie Fitzgerald and Wyatt Lipscomb. The flag man in the field was Dallas Powell. Larry Bedford was the arena director and Bob Loe was the announcer.

Sheep producers to receive ballots

Yoakum County sheep producers are to be mailed ballots Friday, giving them opportunity to vote in the nationwide referendum on the question to continue the marketing program for wool and lambs. Instructions will accompany the ballots.

Ballots are to be returned to the ASC office in Plains no later than September 30. The referendum relates only to the wool and lamb market development program and does not affect the continuation of the payment program under the three-year extension of the Wool Act last summer.

Mr., Mrs. Faubus attend Lubbock meet of Yoakum County Federal Credit Union

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Faubus were representatives of the Yoakum County Federal Credit Union at the quarterly meeting and dinner held in the Ming Tree Restaurant, Lubbock, Wednesday evening, August 19th.

Mrs. Dyalhia Benson, herefor, extended the welcome and introduced the guest speaker, R. C. Morgan, president of Texas Credit Union Leagues, who spoke on "Credit Unions, Bulwark of Democracy."

Mr. Morgan told the group that each Credit Union is a democratic organization since it is owned and controlled by its members. It takes a democracy to have a successful union in which members, through faith and confidence, are willing to work together to make it grow, he explained.

The Credit Union constitution is like that of the United States,

"of the people, for the people and by the people," he added.

Mrs. Faubus is secretary of the Yoakum County F.C.U.

The annual rodeo sponsored by the Yoakum County Roping Club was held Saturday night in the local arena. The one night affair was a kind of substitute for the regular two or three performance rodeo usually put on by the organization. They staged five events for ropers and junior riders. The first event was the calf roping where each contestant was entitled to rope at two Brahma calves during the course of the event. There were eight ropers in the calf roping which paid two places in each go-around and two in the average.

Tuffy Cooper of Monument, New Mexico, tied his first calf in 13.9 seconds, his second in 13 flat, the fastest calf tied during the event, for a total of 26.9. Cooper took first place in each go-around and the first in the average. Polly Rushing tied his first calf in 14 seconds flat to win second place in the first round. Billy Winn had a 13.8 on his second calf to give him second place in that round. Tom Pearson of Jal had 16.1 and 15.0 for a total of 31.1 and gave him second place in the two calf average. Other ropers in this event were L. R. Wood, Wayne Williams, Clyde Fort and Troy Fort.

Nine teams participated in the heading and heeling and again the ropers were going for two places in each go-around and two in the average. The winning team was a Father and Son combination of Clyde Fort roping the head and Troy Fort, the Father, doing the heeling. They won first in the first round with 14.8 seconds, first in the second round with 14.4 and first in the average with 29.2. Second place in the first go-around went to Tuffy Cooper and Tom Pearson in 19.0.

In the second go-around the team of Troy Fort and Buddy Fort, both of Lovington, took second place. The second best time in the two steer average went to Buddy Fort of Caprock and Buddy Fort of Lovington who got their first steer in 25.8, the second in 22.0 for a total of 47.8 seconds.

The junior riders came into the arena for a pole bending race in which 15 boys and girls competed. Kenneth McGinty had the fastest time of 20.0. Kress Jones came through for second with 20.3 and Tommy Jones took third with 20.4.

K. N. McGinty presented the winners of the first three places in the pole bending contest with loving cups. He also presented cups to the winners of the Flag Racing Tournament and the Barrel Race. The barrel race was held on Friday night by 5 of a second. D'Lynn McGinty won second place in the barrel race with a time of 21.8 and D'Lois McGinty was third with 22.4.

Ethel Martin, the tournament winner on Friday night, tied for fourth place with Oscar Henard and Kenneth McGinty, all getting a time of 22.8 seconds. None of the girls elected to run in the flag race. Margaret Henard entered but had to withdraw because her horse went lame during the pole bending contest. Ten boys participated in the flag race while five girls and nine boys ran in the barrel race.

Bob Loe was the announcer for the Saturday night show and almost 300 paying fans attended.

Ginty, second and D'Lois McGinty, third in the Barrel Race.

In the flag race Saturday night Kenneth McGinty won first in the record time of 18 seconds flat. Oscar Henard was second with 19.2 and Tommy Jones was third with 20.2. In the barrel race another record was set when Tommy Payne made the clover leaf pattern around the barrels in 21.0 seconds to beat the record set by Marsha White on Friday night by 5 of a second. D'Lynn McGinty won second place in the barrel race with a time of 21.8 and D'Lois McGinty was third with 22.4.

Ethel Martin, the tournament winner on Friday night, tied for fourth place with Oscar Henard and Kenneth McGinty, all getting a time of 22.8 seconds. None of the girls elected to run in the flag race. Margaret Henard entered but had to withdraw because her horse went lame during the pole bending contest. Ten boys participated in the flag race while five girls and nine boys ran in the barrel race.

Bob Loe was the announcer for the Saturday night show and almost 300 paying fans attended.

Levens to head Boosters again

Dale Levens was re-elected president of the Plains Booster Club when that organization held its first meeting of the season Monday evening.

Other officers elected were Roy Stockstill, secretary, and Neil Taylor, treasurer.

Approximately 30 persons were present for the first meeting. Sessions are to be held each Monday evening at the Legion Hall throughout the season. There will be no meeting next week, but regular meetings are scheduled on following Mondays.

Guests Monday heard a brief talk by Coach Jack Pierce and then watched films of two of last year's football games. They watched the film of the Sun-down game, the contest which won the district championship for the Cowboys, and of the White Deer playoff game, the one Plains lost in the state quarter finals.

Mrs. Anne Green spent Saturday evening to Monday in Floydada visiting her mother, Mrs. Lydia Graves, her sister, Mrs. Pate Jones and other relatives.

U.S. OIL

Indispensable in our way of life...
vital to our national defense

In the 100 years since the drilling of the first oil well in the United States, the usefulness of petroleum has been often demonstrated in many ways... It is an economical and efficient source of energy and a raw resource convertible through petrochemistry into innumerable useful materials... It is indispensable in our way of life, and vital to the national defense.

The United States has found, produced, refined, and used more oil than any other nation. This has made petroleum products a feature of the abundant American life. Americans use more petroleum products than any other people on the globe.

The past is prologue to the future. During its second century, oil can serve you and your grandchildren, and the nation, as well or better than ever before.

It is comforting to know that today's reserves are ample for today's needs. And if incentives to undergo the heavy risks involved are continued, there is no doubt that more oil will be discovered and produced to replace the oil we use...

The Humble Company, incorporated in 1917, has participated in the development of new and better ways to find and produce oil, and in the research that has improved petroleum products and discovered countless new uses for oil and natural gas. Humble is a major producer of U. S. oil, with production extending all across the southern tier of states from Florida to California. Marketing operations are carried on in Texas, New Mexico and Arizona. Humble's Baytown refinery, near Houston, is one of the great refineries of the world. (Humble Pipe Line Company, a major transporter of crude oil and finished products, operates more than 9000 miles of pipe lines in Texas.)

Labor Day Futurity shaping up

One of the most closely contested events in the history of horse racing is shaping up for the first annual running of the All-American Futurity at Ruidoso Downs on Labor Day, September 7.

Deadline for entries in this $125,000 estimated futurity was Wednesday, with many of the 48 eligible youngsters passing through the entry box and posting the $500 nomination fee by that time.

"Maybe He's here?"

Here are seekers after God. They are anxious and determined. They want in... will those doors open? Is it any use to knock? Jesus said, "ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened to you." Big locks and heavy doors will break open to those of great faith. Your child and mine need God; they need His church. God said to Joshua, "as I was with Moses so I will be with Thee." "Maybe He's here?" He said, "Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me."

NO NEED FOR CONTINUOUS ADVERTISING

TRAFFIC LIGHTS—Should be turned off at dangerous intersections to save electricity. Everybody knows it's a dangerous spot and that is sufficient.

TEACHERS—No need to review lessons. Tell the children just once and they'll remember always.

HIGHWAY PATROLMEN—Stop driving up and down the highways. No need to caution drivers by patrolling highways. Drivers know the law and should obey.

OUT OF TOWNERS—That advertise in the local paper and mail order firms that send catalogues are wasting their money. Everyone knows what is sold at stores in Plains and they'll shop at home.

Now Does Low-Cost Electricity Save You Tax Dollars?

MANY OF US take for granted the many services provided by the City of Plains for our growing population. These things do not come cheaply. But your city-owned and city-operated power plant makes it possible for you to enjoy many services and conveniences.

IT REPRESENTS a different source of revenue for operation of the city's vast network of services, but yet furnishes you with electricity at rates comparable to those found in neighboring cities. And remember, profits made by the City are re-invested right here in Plains in an effort to improve our present services, and to enable us to meet the demands of the future.

Cantaloupes big business in Plains area

Harvesting of cantaloupes, Yoakum County's newest crop, is now in its final stages and a number of farmers are watching developments closely.

A huge processing plant about 15 miles west of Plains is going full blast and trucks from more than a dozen states are loading cantaloupes daily for delivery to all parts of the country. Cantaloupes are delivered to the plant where they are graded, culled and crated for shipment.

Most of Yoakum County's 425 acres of cantaloupes are located in the immediate vicinity of the processing plant. Harvest Queen Mills of Plainview operates the plant and also owns the cantaloupes in that area. This is the second year of that firm's operation here.

Several farmers, however, are growing cantaloupes in the eastern part of the county and their crop is also being processed at the Harvest Queen plant. Production has been pleasing, but County Agent Leo White explains that growers will not know for sure how they come out financially until the completion of harvest.

Benson Enterprises crates the cantaloupes and provide for their shipment. This firm operates a crate making machine at the site of the plant. Each box is labeled with the Harvest Queen label, a sticker which reveals that the cantaloupes are grown at Plains, Texas.

Sixty-five Mexican laborers were harvesting the Harvest Queen cantaloupes this week. Approximately 40 laborers were engaged in work at the processing plant and several more were working in the shipping and crating.
