NUMBER 13

— An Editorial —

Be Afraid to Buy

In the past two weeks there have been several salesmen in town soliciting house to house and from Plains merchants. To guard against unscrupulous vendors please contact your Chamber of Commerce, City Hall, or the Review before purchasing any form of merchandise.

In most instances such vendors have not bought a license from the city and therefore their credentials have not been checked.

As there is no established organization in Plains where one can check on such salesmen and their goods we strongly urge local civic groups and civic leaders to discuss this menace and try to establish some way to check out all such persons.

For the past several years Texas has been favored by two roof repairmen — fakers and swindlers — who solicit repair work from unsuspecting home owners. These two make their call usually in the spring and fall. They contact the home owner and tell him they will give free inspection of their roof. And of course they invariably find something major wrong that only $75 can fix.

The two then offer their services to repair the "damaged" roof. After the repairs have been "completed" or the occupants leave their house, the two repairmen are gone leaving only a thin coat of white spray on the roof.

Besides the fake repairmen there are the swindlers who rely on religion, either seeking to

Aaron A. Morris rites to be held in Plains Friday

Mr. Aaron A. (Big A) Morris a former resident of Plains died Wednesday afternoon at 3 following a long illness.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 in the First Baptist Church of Plains with the Rev. C. J. Coffman officiating. Burial will be in the Plains Cemetery under the direction of Brownfield Funeral Home.

Pallbearers will be Doc Settle, Virgil Turner, and Tobe Lambrecht, of Brownfield and Paul Loe, Blackie Bearden, and Jim Burt of Plains.

Mr. Morris came to Yoakum County in 1922 with his parents Mrs. J. H. Morris and the late Mr. Morris. He attended school in the Plains public schools. He worked for a number of years for precinct II of Yoakum County. Six years ago he moved to Brownfield where he was employed by Terry County at the time of his illness.

He is survived by his mother of Plains, six sisters, Mrs. John Camp of Plains, Mrs. V. L. Wheeler and Mrs. D. B. Lamance of Odessa; Mrs. Carl Casey of Farmington, New Mexico; Mrs. Sanford Eber of Floydada and Mrs. E. S. Raymond of Roswell. Also surviving are three brothers, Kit Morris of Killeen, Buck Morris of Shreveport and Harry Morris of Lubbock and a host of nieces and nephews.

MRS. MARION MCGINTY

Mrs. Marion McGinty "Mother of the Year"

Mrs. Marion McGinty, of Plains, was the choice of her club, the Tsa-Mo-Ga, for the Federation Mother of the Year. She won the honor Wednesday at the District convention in Lubbock. Mrs. McGinty and her husband Mr. "Mac" are members of the Plains pioneer family.

On March of this year, Mr. and Mrs. McGinty celebrated their sixty-second wedding anniversary. Together they have reared six boys to manhood. The frontier was, for many years, their home. Cattle, good horses, grass and oil have sustained this family in good times and bad. Through it all, Mrs. McGinty has been the model house wife and mother.

Rearing in a Christian Home, of the First Christian Faith, she with her husband established their first home with religious principles prevailing. When they moved to Plains, in 1915, they, with the help of two other local families, organized the First Christian Church of Plains, and

Bronco P. O. moves

The post office and grocery store at Bronco is being moved this week across the highway to a nice building recently moved there by Mrs. Ruby Billings Prestidge. Mrs. Prestidge, who resides at Corsicana, operated the store and served as postmistress for several years prior to moving away. Her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Billings, assisted by Mrs. Tom Sims will continue the operation of the store and postoffice. A complete line of groceries and some dry goods has been handled, however dry goods will be limited until more space is available, Billings informed us.

to this day have been regular supporters of their church.

For twenty-five years, since organizing, she has been a member of the local Chapter of The Order of The Eastern Star. In this organization, too, she is a constant and active member. She is a Charter Member of the American Legion Auxiliary of Plains.

Two guilty pleas heard

Nine volunteer firemen resign from Plains' force

At the Monday night meeting of the Plains City Council the local volunteer firemen presented a petition to the councilmen asking for reduction in their rates on water, gas and lights. The firemen said that this was needed to give an incentive to recruit more volunteers and to show recognition.

The council taking this in consideration said that they would be unable to abide by this as there was an ordinance on their books which prohibited reducing the rates for anyone. They added that the bond company which holds many of the bonds the city has passed to build the water, gas and lights would also have to be taken into consideration. The revenue on the water, gas and lights is used to pay off these bonds.

The firemen said that they wanted some form of recognition but they did not particularly want pay as this would then make the fire department a paid one instead of a volunteer department.

The petition was signed by the 12 member team and was given as a formal request. After no understanding was reached nine of the 12 firemen voiced their resignation from the department.

Dr. Bill McCollugh to come to Plains

Plains will be getting a new doctor this summer. Dr. Bill McCollugh of Oklahoma City has started making preparations to be in Plains by the middle of the summer. He will practice with Dr. Clyde Lynn at the Yoakum County Clinic.

He said, on a telephone interview Tuesday, that he already notified Mercy Hospital in Oklahoma City of his intentions. He will begin work on securing his Texas license.

Dr. McCollugh is well known in the medical circles for his outstanding work in the field of heart surgery. He is now a member of the open heart surgery team at Mercy Hospital. Currently he is doing research on a fellowship grant on heart and blood vessel operations. He is also working on the new hypothermic perfusion treatment which was developed at Mercy Hospital.

Dr. McCollugh attended college at the University of Oklahoma and Center State College. His internship was done at Mercy Hospital and he has done resident and general practice there also.

He is 27 years old and a native of Oklahoma City. He is married and the father of a 2½ year old son. His wife is formerly from Perry, Oklahoma.

Spokesmen for the nine firemen said they would take into consideration any form of recognition.

Cowboy band members have banquet Tuesday

Plains High School Cowboy Band held their annual banquet Tuesday evening, March 22, in the school cafeteria, with popular music as a theme. Glittered musical notes and multicolored balloons and candles decorated the room. Miniature records, used for place cards, contained the menu, program and class officers.

Rev. Johnnie Moore, pastor of First Christian Church, was guest speaker for the evening. Band president Mark Barron gave the welcome and Mr. D. N. Taylor, high school principal, graciously responded. The invocation was given by Jerry Jones. Superintendent G. D. Kennedy gave recognition to six senior band members and Jan Copeland presented the history of the band.

"The Twilighters" from South Plains College, Levelland, provided entertainment and dinner music.

"Underwoods of Lubbock" were caterers for the delicious dinner of barbecue, red beans, potato salad, pickles, onions, bread, ice cream and tea served by Sylvia McGinty, Sandra Randall, Darlene McDonnell, Linda Hinkle and Gayla Kerriek to approximately 67 band-members and guests in the candle-lit area.

Bobby Brooks is director of bands and officers are: Mark Barron, president; Jerry Jones, vice-president; Leta Stewart, secretary; Annette Suddarth,

N. Taylor to represent Lions Club in Chicago

Neil Taylor has been selected by the local members to represent Plains Lions Club at the Chicago convention. The Lions International Convention will be held in July.

The local club will pay $300 of his expenses. The need for all clubs having a representative at the convention was stressed at the regular District meeting on Thursday. District Governor of the Lions Club, Glen Jones of Anton was the guest and he said that the Texas delegation would need as many representatives as possible. He urged the local chapter to send at least one member.

Two guilty pleas, with resulting probated sentences, a change of venue and a dismissed charge put a quick halt to four criminal cases on the docket for District Court on Monday.

Hobart Carlisle, Denver City, was assessed a three-year probated sentence after he had entered a plea of guilty to a charge of murder with a motor vehicle.

H. A. Bridges, former Denver City merchant now reported to be residing in Amarillo, was given a five-year term of probation on a charge of attempting to fondle a minor following his guilty pleas to the charge.

Attorneys for John Lanham Higginbotham, Dallas, filed a motion for change of venue on a charge of murder without malice filed against their client. Motion was granted by District Judge M. C. Ledbetter, without contest, and the trial will be held in Lynn County. Date has not been set.

The fourth case on the docket, a charge of theft of a motor vehicle against Carlisle, was dismissed by Judge Ledbetter.

Two charges against Carlisle resulted from an accident in December, 1958, in which a Lubbock woman, Mrs. Mary Wynn, was fatally injured. He was indicted on the murder charge in December, 1959, and on the theft charge in May, 1959.

The charge against Bridges was one of four in an indictment returned against him last December by a Yoakum County Grand Jury. The other three charges contained in the indictment were dismissed.

Murder without malice charge against Higginbotham was filed following a January 29, 1959, accident near Denver City in which W. T. (Jeff) O'Keefe was fatally injured. Higginbotham was also indicted by the May term of Grand Jury last year.

It has been reported that the trial in Lynn County, at Tahoka, will be heard in the near future. District Judge Truett Smith will probably preside over the trial when it is held.

Carlisle was represented in court by Atty. Claude Freeman, Denver City, who acted as court-appointed counsel. Atty. Jerry Paquin, Denver City, and Atty. Bob Huff, Lubbock, represented Bridges. Higginbotham was represented by Atty. Clifford Brown, Lubbock, and Atty. Alton Freeman, Seminole. District Attorney Morgan Copeland, Brownfield, acted as attorney for the State in each case.

Mr. Wilmeth, well-known business man in this area, is the dealer for Phillips 66 oil and gas in this region. He also has other business interests in Plains.

The tractor company is located west of Plains across from the Phillips 66 station and next door to the Cowboy Grill. The new firm has received several shipments of Massey-Ferguson tractors which are now on display at the shop.

J. E. Cooke installs Okay feed stock

J. E. Cooke and Sons have announced that they have added a feed business and veterinarians supplies to their lumber yard. They now have in stock a complete supply of Okay feeds.

Mr. Cooke said the feed business was put in as a service to the many ranchers and farmers in the area. He added that deliveries would be made in truck load lots direct to the ranches or farms.

Okay Feeds is mixed at the new modern feed plant of Worley Mills Inc. in Clovis, New Mexico. All formulas for the feeds is controlled by their own nutritional department under the direction of Dr. V. L. Alford.

Cooke said he would handle all kinds of feeds, grains, and could special order custom pellets for all forms of livestock.

State contract let for Farm Road 2010

A contract for 11.6 miles of construction on Farm Road 2010 in Yoakum County has been awarded to a Lubbock firm. It was announced in Austin this week by the State Highway Commission.

Henry L. Stafford submitted the low bid of $121,160 on the project. Construction of Grading, structures, base & surfacing, from US 380 at Bronco, south to Farm Road 1077 is expected to take 120 working days.

the total. Dennis was also high point man of the meet in all three divisions. He racked in a first place in the 50, 75, and 100 and took third in the broadjump. Larry Coffman also made an outstanding fete by breaking the seventh grade broadjump track record with a 4.11. The previous record was 4.10 and was set in 1957.

From the eighth grade Roland Farris placed in the finals in the 50, 75, and 100 but due to a pulled muscle he was scratched from the 75 and 100. He placed third in the 50.

Ronnie Hendricks of the ninth grade won second in the 100. The sprint relay team of Hendrick, Lynn, Tingle and Hickman placed third.

Tingle won fourth in the shot put and Freddie Carnlet won fourth in the discus.

In 1935, when the Tsa-Mo-Ga was organized, she became a charter member. She has served in an advisory capacity for these many years on important committees such as membership, constitution and by-laws, and Nominating Committee.

The McGinty's have three living sons Dick, Fred, and Rusty. All three have been very active in civic and local members matters. Dick, a rancher, is also owner of Plains Frozen Foods. Fred is a rancher and lives in Tahoka. Rusty, a Plains resident, lives on his ranch and for several years was champion bulldogger.

Three of the McGinty boys, Durward, Oscar, and Preston, are deceased.

Also returning to school this week was Penny Barnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Barnett, who has missed several weeks of school with measles and kidney infection.

nations or selling religious materials. In one such instance in Midland a minister was called upon to help another "minister" passing through town out of financial difficulty. He "loaned" the man $50 and gave him a courtesy card which would enable the man to return to his church in another part of the country. Neither the man or the courtesy card has been seen since, much to the regret of the Midland minister. He's been receiving gas bills from all over the country which total around $500.

Not only ministers are hit by these people but also the legal profession. One enterprising male goes to lawyers and ask them to represent him on a workman's compensation case. The next day he returns and gives a sob story on needing money for his family and would the lawyer advance him $100 on his case. With the $100 in his pocket the man is gone — so is the case and the $100.

Every year the American public is swindled out of millions of dollars by such tactics. Public law officials suggest that before you buy, know whom you are dealing with. Spokesman for the city council said that they would take into consideration any form of pay or recognition that the firemen would present that would not be prohibited by local law.

Both parties were said to be working out a plan and it was hoped that an understanding would be reached shortly.

Tsa Mo Ga's to hear local winning essay

Recognition of the winning essay on "Code For Teenage Drivers" by a student of the Drivers Education Program in Plains High School will be a highlight of the regular meeting of Tsa Mo Ga Club Monday evening, March 28 in the clubhouse.

Miss Ozella Hunt and Mrs. Wayne Chadwick will be hostesses and Mrs. Eugene Payne Jr. will be director of the program on "Opportunities For Health and Security."

Mrs. Marion McGinty, a charter member, will present "The Truth about Cancer"; Mrs. T. R. Nordyke will prove "It's fun to keep fit"; Mrs. Ruth O'Neal will reveal "The weapon that may end polio forever"; and Mrs. Ty Field will speak on "Make good drivers of your children."

48 Yoakum farms sign as "B" cotton

In figures released by W. M. Overton, Yoakum County farmers have signed up 48 cotton farms as choice "B" cotton allotment farms for the coming year. The choice "B" cotton allotment increased the county allotment 1,768 acres. This makes the total county allotment of 33,816.5 acres.

Under the 1959 cotton program local farmers signed up 38 farms under the choice "B" allotment plan which increased the '59 allotment 1,225 acres. The choice "A" allotment under the '59 program was 33,383 acres.

The farmers choosing choice "B" allotment will have a 40 percent increase in cotton allotment for 1960 but will have a lesser CCC support price.

Of the 38 farms last year 15 did not choose "B" for the coming year. One or more of these farms, however, have new operators.

Yoakum County has 371 cotton farms work sheets, the total change from time to time due to reconstitutions.

Mrs. T. I. Bedford of Lubbock was social and business visitor in Plains Wednesday. The Bedfords, longtime residents of Yoakum County, maintain ranching interests here.

Freeman attended the Sligo school system, later Denver City and believes himself to be the first Denver City school student to return to the community in a professional capacity.

The aspiring county attorney is a member of Texas Tech's Double T Association, having the Tech school of Engineering in 1943. He has attended various schools, including Tech, Baylor University and Texas University. He graduated from law school at Texas University.

Freeman has worked at such varied jobs as dishwasher, librarian, apprentice plumber, farmer, roustabout, roughnecking and operator for Frontier Chemical. He also worked in the laboratory and testing departments of Shell Oil Company for several years.

Freeman has three children and has always been active in church work. He is presently active in the Denver City Rotary Club, Methodist Men, Toastmasters Club and Scouting activities.

"I finished law school in January, 1959, and was licensed to practice law in Texas in May, 1959," Freeman said in concluding his announcement. "I entered the practice of law in Denver City on June 1, 1959, and have continued in that capacity until the present date."

Freeman also said, "I am ready and willing to devote the time necessary to each citizen of this county as your County Attorney. Should I be elected, I want you to feel free to discuss county business with me at any time. It is my intention to keep posted office hours, dividing my time approximately equally between Denver City and Plains for the convenience of everyone concerned."

Mollie's Flowerland will be operating during her absence, as will Merchants Retail Association, and will be run by Mrs. Betty Curry and Mrs. Dixie McClellan.

What Are the Advantages of Liquid Fertilizer?

Liquid Fertilizers have proven to be as good or better than other types of fertilizers. They have a high water solubility which has proven to be very important in giving Liquid Fertilizers a good spread through the soil.

Every drop of Liquid Fertilizer is a chemical combination of plant nutrients . . . which fact alone insures balanced fertilization in every portion of the field.

Beyond question the flexibility of Liquid Fertilizers surpass any other type. The needs of the soil is shown by soil tests . . . and can be accurately followed with Liquid Fertilizers. (Example: If the soil test should call for an 80-60-0, there is not a formula in dry fertilizers readily available. In order to get the correct amount of nutrients of one kind, the farmer may have to apply a certain amount of unwanted or not needed nutrients in quantities that can be costly, just to get the correct amount of Nitrogen or Phosphorus. This is not so with Liquid Fertilizers . . . the farmer gets what he needs, in the amounts called for by his soils tests).

Simplicity of Liquid Fertilizers . . . The application of Liquid Fertilizers has been termed as simple as "eating pie." There is no back-breaking lifting—no need to have two or three men per applicator—no need to pay out extra amounts of monies because of the slowness of application of dry fertilizers . . . not when the average farmer can apply up to 60 acres per day with one tractor, and one man. The simplicity of Liquid Fertilizers is one part of the operation that is so amazing that it is hard to tell it to make it sound reasonable. Go by your nearest Liquid Fertilizer dealer and discuss your fertilizer problems with him.

What about price? . . . Generally speaking, plant nutrients in Liquid Fertilizers are lower in cost for the same type of plant nutrients found in other types of fertilizers. And when you buy Liquid Fertilizer, you pay only for the nutrients delivered to you by the dealer.

Before you buy any fertilizer . . . talk to your friends and neighbors who have used Liquid Fertilizers . . . go to your nearest Liquid Fertilizer dealer . . . get all the facts, and then you will see why so many farmers are "sold" on Liquid Fertilizers . . . the fertilizer "built" for farming.

Texas highway deaths show reduction

Texas traffic deaths continued to show a sharp reduction through the tenth week of 1960 as compared with the same period of 1959.

Governor Price Daniel said the weekly report from the Statistical Services of the Department of Public Safety through Friday, March 11, showed 111 fewer deaths during the first ten weeks of 1960 as compared with the first ten weeks of 1959.

Traffic took 281 lives thus far in 1960, as compared with 392 through the same date last year, the Governor stated. This was a reduction of 28 percent.

Governor Daniel said the DPS believes that, barring unforeseen circumstances, a reduction in 1960 traffic deaths over the 1959 toll of 2,467 seems likely, although it is still too early in the year to claim that such a trend has been established.

"There is no doubt in my mind," Governor said, "that Texans are taking their traffic safety responsibilities more seriously than ever before. When we see reports as much improved as that for January, 1960, we can certainly feel encouraged. The January report from DPS showed 35 percent fewer traffic deaths, 18 percent fewer reported traffic injuries, 54 percent fewer traffic crashes and 50 percent reduction in estimated economic losses. At the same time, the number of miles traveled rose an estimated 3 percent.

"It seems clear that some definite progress is being made, and I sincerely hope and believe that Texas drivers have come to a permanent realization of the dangers they create when they fail or refuse to obey the traffic laws designed for their safety."

New car licenses lag

It looks like lots of Yoakum County people are going to be standing in line at the courthouse. According to total tabulations only 1,418 state licenses have been sold this year. This means there are approximately 2,500 vehicle owners without their 1960 tags.

Last year at this same period the county had collected $41,653.54 from 1,747 tags sold. This year the figure shows the local tax offices has collected only $32,349.25.

Those not having bought their licenses remember to bring your 1959 registration receipt and your certificate of title as this is a strict requirement that such information from both papers be shown on your 1960 license receipt.

E. W. Craig, deputy tax assessor-collector, announced today that tax offices in Plains will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Saturday, to accommodate persons wishing to purchase 1960 automobile license tags. He also said offices will remain open next Thursday until everyone is taken care of.

Swine course set for A & M College program is listed

Raising more pigs per litter and growing more pounds of pork on less feed are major program objectives of the ninth annual Swine Short Course to be held at Texas A&M College, April 4-5.

The meeting is sponsored by the Texas Swine Breeders Association and the Animal Husbandry Department of the Texas A&M College System. Expected highlights of the short course, according to T. D. Tanksley, extension swine specialist, are the carcass evaluation contest and third auction sale of production tested boars which will be held at the Animal Husbandry Pavilion, April 4 at 5:30 p.m.

In the carcass contest the 112 pigs entered by Texas producers went on feed between January 2-15 weighing from 40 to 100 pounds. By short course time, they will be ready for slaughter and the carcass evaluation phase of the test. The boars to be sold were placed on test last October and November and all will have rate of gain, feed efficiency and meat-type records, Tanksley said.

As for the speakers and discussions, Tanksley said both would be tops. President T. Euel Liner, Texas Swine Breeders Association, Lubbock, will preside over the business sessions of the Association and many other Association members will have leading roles in the activities of the short course. Eight cases announced settled at term of court Term of Civil District Court on Monday, with 12 cases on the docket, resulted in eight settlements being announced and four cases being continued to later terms of court.

Seven of the eight settlements were in the compensation cases docketed for trial. These involved suits of various parties against insurance companies for alleged injuries. The eighth settlement was reported in suit of M. F. Guetersloh against Western Drilling Company for damages.

Cases of D. C. Newsom vs. N. F. Stovall for collection of debt; Donna Louise Donahoo and others against Hobart Carlisle for damages; Hanover Fire Insurance Co. vs. Westwind Gas Co. for damages; and J. M. Fields and Bruce Scoggins vs. Carl Clawson for recovery of payment under contract were passed for a variety of reasons.

Judge M. C. Ledbetter presided over the short term of court. He also granted two divorces and overruled a motion for a new trial in a habeas corpus proceeding.

Divorce was granted to Thelma Laura Sims from James Carrol Sims with plaintiff receiving custody of two children and defendant ordered to pay $75 a month child support.

Divorce was granted to Maxie Lynn McCracken from J. D. McCracken, Custody of children was awarded the plaintiff and defendant ordered to pay $60 a month child support.

Judge Ledbetter overruled a motion for new trial in the habeas corpus proceeding of Daniel

C. Flourney, ex parte, vs. Ralph Donald Elliot. Order overruling motion was issued on March 22.

Ledbetter seeks election to post of district judge

Judge M. C. Ledbetter of Morton this week authorized the Denver City Press to announce his candidacy for district judge of the 121st Judicial District which includes Yoakum County.

Judge Ledbetter, who is seeking his first elective term as judge of the 121st Judicial District, was appointed to the office last year by Governor Price Daniel following creation of the district by the Texas Legislature.

The district includes Yoakum, Trye, Hockley, and Cochran Counties.

A native of Wellington, Judge Ledbetter has practiced law in Cochran County for the past twenty years.

Judge and Mrs. Ledbetter have five daughters and one son, all are enrolled in the Morton schools.

Mrs. Ledbetter is the former Miss Mary Lois Goudy of Olton, a native of Archer City.

Judge Ledbetter was graduated from Olton High School in 1933. In 1938 he received his law degree from Baylor University.

The Ledbetters were wed in 1938, moving to Morton the next spring where he opened law offices and an abstract firm.

When appointed judge of the 121st Judicial District, Judge Ledbetter was serving in his seventh term as county attorney of Cochran County.

He was serving as Cochran County attorney when he entered the U. S. Army in 1945.

The Ledbetters are members of the First Methodist Church, Morton, where he is charge lay leader and a member of the official board of the church.

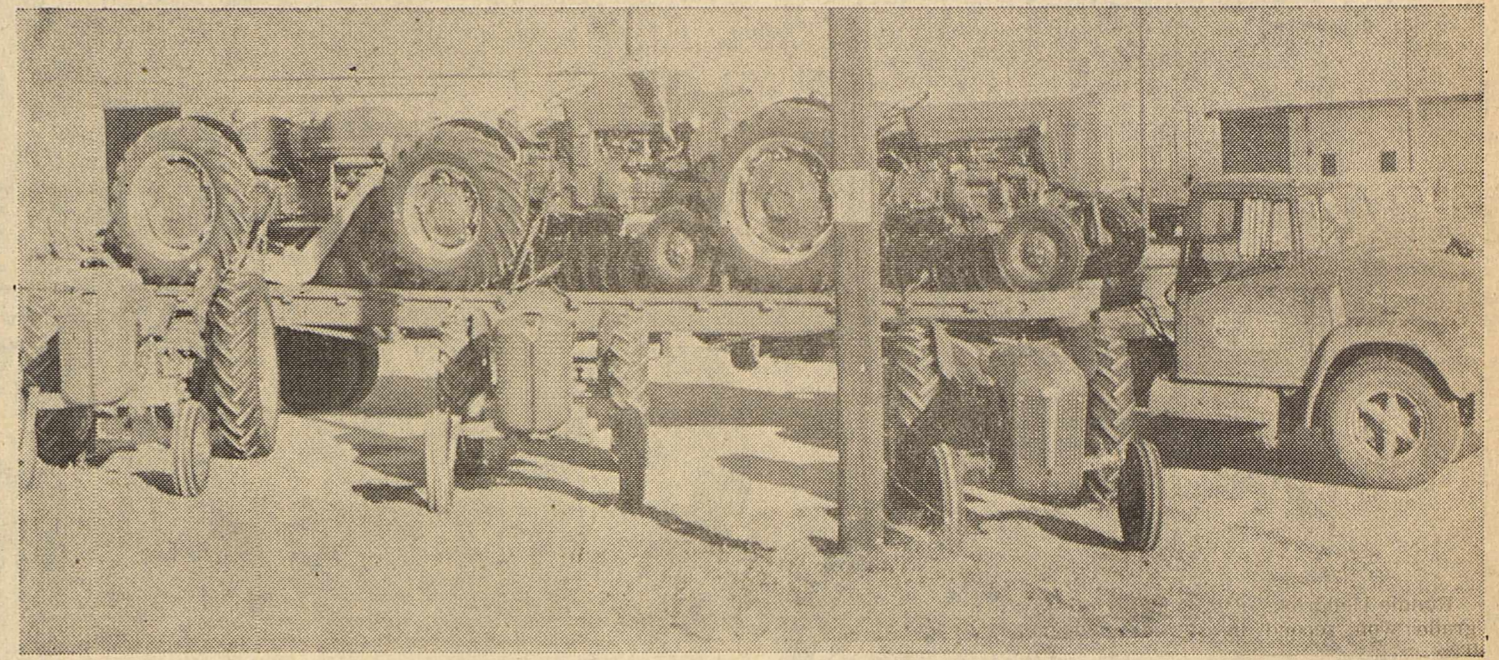

Among other civic organizations, Judge Ledbetter is a member of the Morton Lions Club, and has been an active Lion for the past twenty years. He is also a member of the Morton Legion Post.

Judge Ledbetter was active in helping found the Morton Little League and served as executive secretary for a number of years.

In making his announcement to the Denver City Press, Judge Ledbetter said, "Due to the amount of judicial work facing the court between now and the Democratic primary, May 7, it will be impossible for me to contact each and every person in the 121st Judicial District, but I wish to express to each of you my appreciation for every consideration in the primary. I will continue to strive to conduct the 121st Court with the judicial dignity it deserves."

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

The soil survey of the Yoakum Soil Conservation District is 75 percent complete. There are 142,000 acres remaining to be mapped in the western one-half of the county. The entire eastern one-half is mapped according to the physical characteristics of the soil.

The purpose of the soil survey is to inventory the various types of soil. There are forty two soil types in the county. The soil are classified from a practical point of view. The findings are recorded on an aerial photograph of the land. This permanent record is then made available to various government agencies such as the Soil Conservation Service for farming planning purposes. The information is also available along with the technical assistance of the Soil Conservation Service to help the farmers and ranchers to more effectively plan their farming operation.

The soils maps gives information on suitable soils for grasses, cultivated crops, and wildlife areas.

The soils map is an effective tool for planning irrigation. The surface texture, depth of the soil, amount of free lime and permeability of the soil must be taken into consideration in designing an efficient irrigation system.

The field work on the soil survey is scheduled to be completed in October of this year. When this is completed a report will be written on the nature of the soils, management principles of the soil types by capability groupings. The various range sites or kinds of country will be described. A chapter on the effect of climate on Agriculture will be included in the report. The report will be published by the United States Department of Agriculture Soil Conservation Service in cooperation with the Texas Agriculture Experiment Station. This report will include a soils map of the entire Yoakum Soil Conservation District. At present any landowner can secure soil information on this farm or ranch by calling at the

Petty announces his candidacy for legislative post

Olen R. Petty, 23, of Levelland, has announced he is a candidate for the Texas House of Representatives from District 98 which comprises Cochran, Hockley, Terry and Yoakum Counties.

Petty is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Petty, a well known and established name in Hockley County for many years. He graduated from Levelland High School and earned a Bachelor's Degree at Texas Tech majoring in Business Administration with a minor in Government. While attending Texas Tech, Petty was him to serve the people of our district. He spent the summer of 1958 as doorman of the U. S. House of Representatives in Washington, a position arranged for him by Congressman George Mahon, in order that he could study firsthand the activities of the National Congress.

Petty said in announcing his candidacy, "I am a free and independent candidate and I will be a free and independent legislator, representing the people of this district without ties or subservience to selfish lobby groups."

"I will devote full time to an intensive campaign and I will make every effort to meet and talk personally with everyone in the district in order to discuss various issues and state problems," Petty said.

Petty emphasized his interest in the economy of the district and pledged his active support for all beneficial legislation, with particular reference to:

1. An equitable solution to the tax problem.
2. Improved educational standards for Texas children and the teaching profession.
3. Insurance regulations that will insure fairness to all policy holders.
4. Continuation of our Farm-to-Market road program.
5. Support of all measures designed to benefit agriculture and the farmers of our district.
6. Economy in state spending.

"I believe the people of District 98 are entitled to the full-time efforts of their State Representative during legislative sessions," Petty said. He continued, "and I will give you that kind of service which you so rightly deserve."

"I do not own or operate any kind of business which will benefit me personally by my serving you in the State Legislature and, therefore, I can consider and vote on each piece of legislation from an unbiased viewpoint."

Petty said, "I want the opportunity to serve you in the Texas Legislature. I will sincerely appreciate your vote and help in this campaign and if elected as your State Representative, I will work tirelessly, conscient-active in Baptist Student Union work and was a member of the Tech Choir. He has served as interim music and education director of the First Baptist Church in Levelland.

Petty is married to the former Karen Schwab, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Schwab of Levelland. Mrs. Petty also attended Texas Tech.

Petty's study of government and his personal observations of the workings of local, state, and national governments qualify

Construction men sought by military

A critical shortage in the maintenance and construction fields in the U. S. Army has been reported to M/Sgt. Paul L. Eagleton, the U. S. Army counselor for this area.

Eagleton announced today that at the present time there are a number of openings for automobile, truck and tractor mechanics, vehicle drivers, construction personnel and telephone linemen.

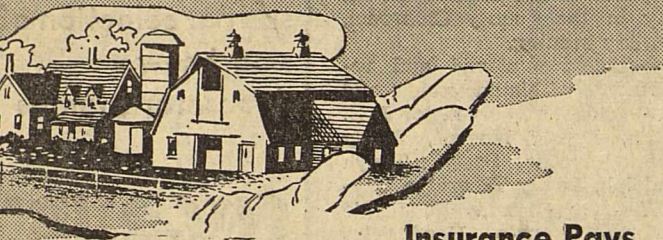

Young men with or without previous military service are eligible to enlist for a period of three years in one of these fields, Eagleton said.

Wallace Randolph, who farms southwest of town, asks that farmers interested in planting safflower contact him. A meeting of safflower officials is planned or the near future, he said.

Watch cattle for bloat

Bloat is causing increasing cattle losses in Texas, especially along the Gulf Coast where cattle are allowed to graze young legume pastures. A severe hay shortage has made the problem even more serious.

Hay or cottonseed hulls are the best preventatives, but if not available, use any dry, palatable roughage available, advises Dr. C. M. Patterson, extension veterinarian. It is a good management practice to have the animals well-filled on dry roughage before starting legume grazing and to feed at least small amounts of dry roughage as long as the legumes are soft and fast-growing, he adds.

Many cattle feeders prefer cottonseed hulls because they are easy to feed without waste and appear to be especially well adapted to prevent bloat because of their capacity for water absorption. Also, hulls are easily mixed with cottonseed meal, molasses, or other ingredients which add sufficient palatability to insure the cattle eating enough roughage.

When cattle are turned on young legume pasture for the first day, be sure they are well-filled on roughage or more mature pasture forage, and have plenty of fresh water available, continues the veterinarian. Mid-day or early afternoon is a better time to start grazing than early morning, and avoid grazing when the young legumes are covered with dew or wet from rain. It is sometimes best to let the cattle graze only a short time the first day if they appear to be eating heavily. If cattle are moved from the young legume grazing, the same precautions must be observed in starting them back on the legumes, Dr. Patterson says.

Dens one and two of Pack 78 held their weekly meetings Tuesday afternoon and went to the American Legion Hall where they cut, raked and burned weeds. The Legionnaires allow the boys to use the hall at any time and most of their pack meetings are held there.

Cubmaster Boots Nelson reports that work is progressing nicely on the track for Pack 78's Pine Block Derby to be held April 1. Each Cub is making a racer to enter in this unique spectacle. Some polished models have been seen already.

Mahon is seeking re-election to seat in Congress

The 19th Congressional District's Representative, George Mahon, has submitted his name to the voters for re-election to another two-year term.

Representative Mahon has officially filed for a place on the ticket in all the counties of his District, and he has asked The Denver City Press to make known his candidacy to the public.

The Congressman has no opposition. He has had the endorsement of the voters — without an opponent — for several years.

"It goes without saying," Representative Mahon said, "that I remain deeply grateful to the people of the 19th District for the confidence they have placed in me. It will always be my earnest desire to serve the nation and West Texas in ways that are right. I continue to be at your service and I will try to be of assistance in requests which come to my office and in legislative matters in the House of Representatives."

Mahon is ranked as one of the most influential members of the House of Representatives, with tenure in office dating back to 1935. His seniority, as well as his forthright approach to public affairs, has earned him high prestige in Washington.

He is Chairman of the Subcommittee on Defense Appropriations. In that role he receives national attention for his views on the nation's defense situation. He is the second ranking Democrat on the House Appropriations Committee and is especially active in fiscal and agricultural matters.

The 4-H boys and girls should have some good barrows in the movement has been under way 1961 Junior Fat Stock Show. A for the past two years that is designed to improve the quality of our show barrows. It all started back when Oscar Henard bought a registered Poland China gilt. From that beginning he raised three gilts that will be due to farrow their first litters this July or August. Oscar recently purchased another gilt that is a litter mate to his 1960 Grand Champion Barrow. He plans to sell one gilt within the next few weeks leaving him three to mate with his new Poland China male.

Morris J. Rushing has bought two registered Poland China gilts so he should have some good pigs to select from this fall. Kent Welch has two females so if everything goes right there will be seven litters of good Poland Chinas born in July or August.

The Pippin boys have some Hampshire gilts, Robert and Beverly Jones have some Hampshire gilts and Sherm Henard has one Hampshire sow that should farrow again in July. Some good Hampshires came in from Carl Lowrey's place and also Fred Lowrey's this year and they will likely have some better pigs this next year. Then there is Cecil Tucker near Allred and Jones, Holder and Jones at Denver City who have been producing Hampshires to select pigs from for the 1961 show.

The next most popular breed will probably be Duroc. Eddie Tingle is the only 4-H boy who owns a registered Duroc gilt. Mr. Jack Gilliam and Mr. Leon Clamahan are in the registered Duroc business in a small way and they will have some pigs the right age for next year's show. Jack Gilliam has agreed to give one of his pigs to Oscar Henard and he has further agreed to give one of his pigs to the exhibitor of the Grand Champion Barrow of our show as long as he is in the hog business. About eight or nine Duroc sows and gilts should farrow at the right time for good show barrows.

Some other breeds will be represented in the 1961 show but nothing other than purebred animals will be allowed to enter. This does not mean that the barrows in the show next year have to be registered or that they cannot be a mixture of any other breed such as we have been showing in the past. This new rule applies to calves and lambs as well as hogs so in selecting animals to put on feed for 1961 the boys and girls will need to have some background information. Unless the parents of the animals are free from any blood of other breeds the animals should be rejected. We hope that
