Easter and its meaning

"What Easter Means To Me"

By M. C. Walter, Assembly of God

One day is no more than another day, but that which Easter commemorates means everything to us. Our faith, hope and experience all depend on the resurrection. We must not celebrate the day, but the resurrection.

Christ may be sought in the grave, but he is found in the risen life, the spiritual realm.

The women came but they came to embalm the dead, not to welcome the living, risen Christ.

They that truly seek Christ will even through disappointment learn where to find him.

Too often we discourage ourselves by thinking of future difficulties until they loom so large in our imagination that we turn back from the path of duty.

We recognize the stone rolled away from the sepulchre as being to us a sign of Christ's victory.

The resurrection of Christ is the crucial test of the world's redemption. If Christ hath not been raised, you faith is in vain. Then the whole structure of Christianity is shaken to its foundations. It has no longer its present significance and ye are still in your sins.

"What the Resurrection Means To Me"

By C. J. Coffman, First Baptist Church

Like Christmas, Easter has been so commercialized that in the minds of many, the Resurrection has become "Fable" instead of "Fact". It is my prayer that the TRUTH of this important event will not be lost amidst the "bunny", the "bonnets" and the "Easter Parade".

When Christ arose from the grave, His disciples were accused of stealing His body away. But facts recorded in the scriptures bear record that the disciples were not expecting Him to rise, although Jesus had repeatedly told them that He would rise on the third day: Matt. 16:21, Matt. 17:9-23; 20:19; 26:32; 27:63; Mark 8:31, Mark 9:31; Luke 18:33. When the women went to the tomb, it was not to see if he had risen, but to prepare His body for permanent burial.

John, alone, of all the disciples, believed at the sight of the empty tomb. John 20:8.

Mary Magdalene had only one thought, that someone had removed his body. John 20:13-15.

The report of the women that Jesus had risen appeared to the disciples as "idle talk". Luke 24:11.

When the two from Emmaus told the eleven that Jesus had appeared to them, "neither believed they them". Mark 16:13. Peter reported that Jesus had appeared to him, Luke 24:34, but still they believed not. Mark 16:14. Jesus had repeatedly told them. Angels announced it. The tomb was empty. His body was gone. Mary Magdalene had seen him. Cleopas and his companions had seen Him. Peter had seen Him. Still the group as a whole did not believe. It seemed to them incredible.

Jesus appeared to the ten that night and had upbraided them for their hard-heartedness and unwillingness to believe those who had seen Him. Mark 16:14. Still they thought He was ghost, and He invited them to take a close look at His hands, side and feet and to handle him. After all that, Thomas would not believe until he personally saw Jesus a week later. John 20:24.

Thus, those who first proclaimed the story of Jesus' resurrection were themselves totally unprepared to believe it, determined not to believe it, and came to believe it in spite of themselves. This renders untenable any possibility that the story was born of an excited and expectant imagination. There is no conceivable way to account for the origin of the story except that it was an actual fact.

Thus, the fact of His resurrection gives us assurance that by His grace we, too, shall rise.

"Why I Like Easter"

By R. H. Meixner, First Methodist Church

To me, Easter is the most sacred time of the year. This season of the year is even more sacred than Christmas. At Christmas time one is reminded of the birth of a child with all its halo and beauty. From the celebration of this birth, we are led into the experience of the "re-birth" in which we become the sons and daughters of God. At Easter time, Jesus was resurrected from the dead and became the resurrection and the life. Through our belief in Him we also enter eternal life.

At this time of the year the mystic air of the resurrection processes of Nature are all about us. We feel the pulse of Nature throbbing with life giving power. The silent yet explosive voice of nature is whispering its re-assuring note to our senses that God is alive in our world and that the resurrection is an obvious fact. At this time of the year each little flower, blade, and leaf is unfolding its message to the world. These little letters are unfolding themselves and silently whispering God's messages to his children. Look upon the face of Mother Nature and behold God's mystery, his beauty and his smile of love, and "know that I am God". As Mother Nature awakens herself from winter's slumber we hear the words of the master teacher as He said: "Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone; but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit." God himself spoke these words resounding through Nature at Easter.

At this time of the year we are not only reminded of the Glory of God through Nature but we are also brought face to face with the glory of God as revealed in the resurrection of His Son. We are also reminded that God, because of His love, came down to earth in the person of His Son to reveal His love to sinful men. As Jesus walked the streets of our world His sole purpose was to reveal the Father to men. In the final analysis it took a cross to reveal God's love to us. What more would it take to melt the hearts of sinful men than to know that God was crucified upon a cross that they might be redeemed from their sins? There can be no more wonderful way in which God can reveal himself to man than: "God so loved that he gave..." At this time of the year we are overwhelmed by the tremendous witness of our Lord's resurrection as we behold him in the faces of those who have been created in his likeness. Do not all voices about us whisper that He is risen? "Thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." "O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?" We are all conquerors through him who arose. He gives eternal life to those who believe on his name: "I am the resurrection, and the life; he that believeth in me shall never die." If we believe in him, we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

"The Rebirth of Hope"

By Johnnie Moore, First Christian Church

"Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy we have been born anew to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and to an inheritance which is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you." I Pet. 1:3-4. (RSV)

The resurrection of Jesus is the most dynamic fact of history. The truth of it rests on two things. One is the appearances of the risen Christ to his disciples, the empty tomb, and the conversations with Peter, Mary, and others. These cannot be explained away as the product of wishful thinking. The other fact is the immediate change that came in the life and spirit of these disciples. Among other things the resurrection had rekindled their hope as they looked into the future. It shone in their faces like the sunlight of a new morning. It filled their hearts with the music of thanksgiving.

Three things had quenched their hope when Jesus was crucified. One of them was their consciousness of sin. They knew they had failed him, even to the point in Peter's case, of denial. He assured them of his forgiveness and that nothing could stop his loving them. And with that assurance hope was reborn — the hope of a new beginning and the power to rise from their dead selves into newness of life.

The second thing that had drenched their hope was fear. But Christ had triumphed. As he gave them their marching orders they knew that in him there was a reservoir of unconquerable power that could storm the very gates of hell.

New church sanctuary to be started by May 1

Plans call for the work on the new sanctuary of the Plains First Methodist Church to begin by May 1st. The blue-prints for the building will arrive soon. The structure will be approximately 69 feet in length and 40 feet wide and will extend to the south of the present sanctuary. Seating capacity of the new building will be up to 300 and over. It will be constructed of brick and laminated beams and will cost $30,000. This cost figure also includes improvements on the old building.

Three-fourths of the total amount has already been pledged and according to the church officials the church will need the pledge money by May 1 as the building will be on a cash basis.

New Easter clothes old custom

The first Easter Parades weren't the fashion shows Irving Berlin wrote about, but the celebration of a "new life."

The custom of wearing new clothes on Easter Sunday dates from the early days of Christianity, when newly baptized Christians were clothed in garments of white linen.

Researchers report that baptism has always been closely associated with Easter. Just as the Resurrection represents the new life of Christ, so baptism represents the initiation of the believer into a new life.

In the early Church, Lent was the annual season of preparation for baptism, and the sacrament was celebrated on Holy Saturday during the Easter Vigil.

Eventually all Christians began to dress up for a joyful parade through town — much to the joy of today's clothing manufacturers.

The Easter Parade that has become associated with Berlin's song was the Easter Sunday placed second and third, respectively, in the 180 low hurdles. Fought won second in the 220 with Cooke placing fifth.

In the mile Norman Huddleston won second with 5:03.1 and Sandy Canalas was fourth with a 5:05.1. In the mile relay the Plains' team of Todd, Hendrick, Alberding, and Ethridge placed third. Three placed in the shot put with Donald Todd, taking second, Joe Don Morrow fifth, and Ray Fought sixth.

Plains Lions club to sponsor course

The Board of Directors of the Plains Lions Club voted to sponsor the Dale Carnegie course in "Human Relations." The board met last Tuesday with a representative and tentative plans were worked out.

Those interested in taking the program are urged to attend the Lions Club regular luncheon Thursday, April 21. There will be a charge of $1.25 for the meal and they will meet at Alma's Restaurant.

At this luncheon the representative of Dale Carnegie will give demonstrations and talks on the course. A question and answer period will follow. There is no obligation to take the course an everyone is urged to attend.

For further information concerning the course contact Roger Harvey, Neil Taylor, Leo White or P. W. St. Romain.

FIREMEN FUND STARTED

A motion was made and carried at the last council meeting at the City Hall to start a "kit-ty" for the local volunteer firemen. Plans call for 50¢ per member being paid for each fireman attending Monday night practice. The fund will receive $2.00 per member for those answering fire calls inside the city limits.

Here in Plains we don't have a Fifth Avenue but Easter Sunday here, like everywhere else, is a day of new garments.

In case you don't have your new finery Plains has several shops that can make you the "fairest lady in the Easter Parade." Go by Moore and Oden and see their frocks made by Nellie Don. They have dresses to fit all the ladies in the family, from the baby to grandmother, and in a style that is becoming to her.

Junior class president James Alberding served as toastmaster. Superintendent G. D. Kennedy gave the invocation. Miss Dixie McClellan issued the welcome, and senior class president Mark Barron gave the response. Rev. Bill Austin of Lovington was speaker for the evening. Denver City resident is killed in field mishap

A young Denver City resident of less than 24 hours was killed and a long-time resident seriously injured in an oilfield accident six miles north of Tokio at 6 p.m., Monday.

The dead man has been identified as H. C. Franklin Jr., 25, who reportedly moved to Denver City on Sunday from Seagraves where he had been working for several weeks.

Injured, and reported to be in serious condition at Terry County Hospital in Brownfield, is Carl Wilson, Denver City.

According to reports, Franklin was instantly killed when oil well equipment on which he was working came in contact with a high tension electric wire.

Reports state that Franklin, an employee of Marlow Well Service, Denver City, was engaged in lowering an oil derrick when the mishap occurred.

Wilson, working with Franklin, was seriously burned and his condition was described as serious on Wednesday. Extent of his injuries was not revealed.

Brownfield Funeral Home dispatched an ambulance to the scene of the mishap, but Franklin was apparently killed instantly, an official of the mortuary said on Wednesday. A Brownfield physician signed the death certificate. Wilson was removed to the Brownfield Hospital in the ambulance.

Accident occurred near the Prentice Gasoline Plant six miles north of Tokio at about 6 p.m., Monday.

Franklin reportedly moved to Denver City on Sunday after working for several weeks in a Seagraves cafe. He is a Louisiana native.

Funeral arrangements for the young man are still incomplete, pending arrival in Brownfield of relatives from his native state. Funeral director said the body will probably be returned to Columbia, La., for burial.

His survivors include his wife; a daughter, Judy Kay; his mother, Mrs. Freddie Lutrick, Denver City; father, H. C. Franklin Sr., Holom, La.; and two sisters, Mrs. Freddie Dorcas Thanes, Holom, La.; and Mrs. Sheila DeLaine Franklin, Holom.

Dallas Powell to speak at Livestock Feeder's Day

LUBBOCK. — How much cottonseed does it take to replace a meal and silage ration for beef cattle?

Dallas Powell, animal husbandry senior in Texas Tech's School of Agriculture, will have a report on that topic at the annual Livestock Feeder's Day on campus April 25.

His research project and six other reports on experimental feeding of beef cattle, lambs and pigs will be made by animal husbandry seniors and graduate students during the day. Emphasis will be on economical methods of feeding livestock with plains-grown feed.

Powell, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Powell of Plains, has a three-phase feeding project underway involving some 80 head of long-yearling, mixed-bred, steers.

Object of his six-month study is to learn the replacement rates of cottonseed for meal and silage. He has completed the first phase of his project and the second phase will be completed May 1.

The 80 head of steers — most of which are Herefords — were divided into two pens of 40 when phase one of his feeding experiment began Feb. 4. Their weight averaged 750 pounds. Pen No. 1 received one pound of meal per steer and all the silage the pen would eat. Pen No. 2 was fed two pounds of cottonseed and all the silage wanted by each steer. "Results of the first month-long phase of feed was that two pounds of seed will replace about five pounds of silage when no grain is fed," Powell said.

The second phase began March 5 with the steers weighing between 775 and 800 pounds. No. 1 received one pound of meal and 16 pounds of milo per day and per steer plus all the silage they'll clean up in three or four hours. The other pen was fed two pounds cottonseed and 15 pounds of milo plus all the silage they'd clean up in a few hours. "The difference between intakes of Pen No. 1 and Pen No. 2 was negligible for about a month — both cleaned up the same amount of silage," Powell said.

Now, however, the "meal" cattle in Pen No. 1 is taking in more silage than those being fed cottonseed.

Where the first phase of feeding resulted in two pounds of seed replacing one pound of meal and five pounds of silage, the second feeding phase is showing two pounds of cotton seed replaces one pound of meal, and a pound of silage per day per steer, Powell said. The steers will be weighed before Feeder's Day to determine the gains on these rations.

Phase three of his study will begin about May 1 when the steers will weigh approximately 900-950 pounds. The steers will be divided into four pens with each pen group comprising 20 steers.

Purpose of the final study will be to determine which is most economical — when grain, grade and yield are considered — to ration at less daily feed cost or feed a moderate daily grain high grain ratio at a high feed cost.

Pen No. 1-A will get a ration of milo and about 15 pounds of milo per steer per day while Pen No. 1-B will get the same amount of meal plus all the milo they'll consume. Both will get all silage they'll eat in several hours.

Pen 2-A will receive two pounds of seed plus all the milo milo. Pen 2-B will receive two pounds of seed plus all the milo they will eat. Again, both will get all the silage they'll clean up. The difference between a lower concentration of milo and meal and a higher concentration of the two rations, Powell expects to complete the third feeding phase July 15.

The Tech student comes from a Yoakum County farm which has a small feedlot operation in addition to irrigated cotton, grain sorghum and silage crops. He is a member of Tech's junior livestock judging team, Alpha Zeta, agricultural honorary, Block and Bride, and is one of the agriculture school representatives on Tech's Student Council.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH
by Harold W. Hyde

This is the second in a series of articles on the soils in the Yoakum SCD. The second largest cropland soil farmed in this area is the Amarillo Soils. Almost every farm in this district has some areas of this soil.

The Amarillo Soils have two soil textures. These are loamy fine sand (sandy land) and fine sandy loam (mixed land). The present range vegetation of the sandy land is taller grasses, grams, and some sand sage. The mixed land vegetation is grama and shorter grasses such as Buffalo. The Amarillo Soils are invaded by mesquite, but have very little shrubbery.

The Amarillo Soils are on nearly level or gently sloping areas. They are reddish brown and brown colored. The Amarillo Soils are deep with a soft caliche at 40 inches or deeper.

The Amarillo Soils are fertile and productive under both dryland and irrigated conditions. These soils contain natural organic matter and are easily worked. When properly managed, the Amarillo Soils favor large scale farming. Cotton yields average 160-120 pounds of lint dryland to 500 pounds of lint under irrigation. Grain sorghum yields (dryland) average 800-1000 pounds on the sandy soils to 1600 or more pounds on the tighter soils.

Continued cropping will decrease plant nutrients, and fertilizer additions are beneficial. Information on fertilizing needs can be supplied from laboratory soil tests.

The sandy Amarillo Soils are susceptible to erosion. Proper management of crops residue will reduce this hazard. The tighter (mixed land) soils can become eroded if allowed to blow. Wind action will remove the clay particles and make the soil hard to manage. This will also decrease fertility and lower the water holding capacity.

Other information regarding this soil can be obtained at the local Soil Conservation office.

Bobby Kinsey and Wes Chaney attended a Maytag service school in Lubbock this week and studied the new combination washer-dryer.

Mrs. Thelma Ellis will direct the program on "Add generous portions of lawn". Mrs. D. C. Newsom will talk on "Planting and culture of bermuda, regular and African". Mrs. O. G. Lewis will discuss other grasses suitable to our area.

Reports will be heard from delegates attending the District 1 Convention in Lubbock March 24. Members attending were: Mesdames G. W. Cleveland, Clayton Guest, John E. Fitzgerald, Foy Cogburn, and Clifford Anderson.

Hostesses for the April 21 meeting will be Mesdames T. J. Miller, Duane McDonnell and W. M. Overton.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Day of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Green of Tahoka were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Green, new owners of the Plains Courts.

Souter - Duff vows repeated in double-ring ceremony

Miss Saleta May Souter, petite daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Souter of Denver City, became the bride of Buford Allen Duff, son of Mrs. I. J. Duff Sr., of Plains Thursday, April 14, 1960 at 8:00 p.m. in the First Baptist Church of Plains. Rev. F. C. Bradley, Denver City, read the impressive double-ring service amid an archway of huckleberry foliage and white mums centered with a sunburst arrangement of white glads, stock and lilies in a white urn, against a background of greenery and candles. Family pews were marked with white satin bows and candles, flowers and ferns were placed in the windows.

Miss Janette Peeler of Denver City was maid-of-honor and Miss Laura Lamb of Spearman was bridesmaid.

Brother Duff of Plains served as his father's best man. Groomsman was I. J. Duff Jr. of Levelland, also a brother of the groom. Little Miss Kim Duff and Master Don Duff, niece and nephew of the groom, were flower girl and ring-bearer. Candlelighters were Manuel Souter, cousin of the bride, and Dorothy Taunton, niece of the groom. Ushers were Richard Souter, brother of the bride, and H. W. Taunton, brother-in-law of the groom.

"I Love You Truly", "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" were presented by Mrs. Rod Duff, soloist, and Miss Glenda King, organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of Chantilly lace designed with portrait neckline, sprinkled with seed pearls and sequins and featuring long sleeves that tapered to long points. From the slim bodice stemmed a magnificent skirt highlighted at center back by a V-inset panel that swept to a chapel train. Her illusion veil flowed from a lace cap dotted with sequins and seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped by a white orchid and a cascade of white carnations held by streamers of white satin tied with Lovens Knots.

Misses Peeler and Lamb wore identical gowns of powder-blue lace over taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, oval neckline and elbow-length sleeves. They carried nosegays of white frenched mums with white satin streamers.

Mrs. Duff chose for her traveling costume a toast-colored silk suit with harmonizing beige accessories.

Hostesses for the reception held in Fellowship Hall immediately following the ceremony were: Miss Carole White, Miss Shirley Havens, Mrs. C. J. Coffman and Mrs. D. N. Taylor of Plains, Miss Aileen Culpepper of Abilene, Mrs. Jerry Eskew of Hobbs and Mrs. Richard Ligon of Lubbock.

Mrs. Duff, a graduate of Denver City High School, received her B. B. A. degree from Hardin-Simmons University last spring and is presently teaching commercial subjects in Plains High School. Her groom, a graduate of Wilson High School, received his B. B. A. degree from Texas Tech where he was a member of the Delta Sigma Pi fraternity. He is in the cotton seed delinting business in Plains.

Following a short wedding trip they will be at home at 1403 17th St., Plains.

MRS. BUFORD ALLEN DUFF

Good government theme of Tsa Mo Ga meeting

"Opportunity for Good Government" was the program directed by Mrs. R. B. Jones at the regular meeting of Tsa Mo Ga Club, Monday evening, April 11, in the clubhouse.

Mrs. C. F. McCargo, president, conducted the business meeting during which the club voted to co-sponsor, with the American Legion Auxiliary, a Girl Scouts State this summer.

Following reports given by committee chairmen the program was presented. Mrs. H. R. Stotts gave the group a legal quiz as she spoke on "You and the Law". The quizzes, enjoyed by all, were on "School Laws", "Land" and "School Laws".

Mrs. H. G. Bedford, speaking on "Threats to Constitutional Government" explained that the face of America is changing since people in the cities are moving to suburban district, thus letting the metropolitan areas become unpleasant places to live. She also spoke briefly on "Metropolitan Government".

Mrs. Jones recited "America For Me" after which she introduced Mrs. Doc Proctor, sister-in-law of hostess Mrs. T. R. Nordyke. Mrs. Proctor with her husband, M/Sgt. Proctor, have lived overseas a large portion of their married life. She told of interesting experiences she and her family have experienced during their travels. The club enjoyed her talk and felt honored to have her as a guest.

Refreshments of dainty sandwiches, nuts, mints, cookies and spiced tea were served from a beautiful table laid with a pink damask cloth centered with a large white bunny and an Easter Egg tree decorated with jeweled eggs and birds. Mrs. Nordyke also used napkins decorated with Easter chicks.

Mrs. Forehand host to Turner HD

Mrs. B. Forehand was hostess to the Turner Home Demonstration Club Wednesday afternoon, April 6, in her home with 14 members answering roll call.

Mrs. Allen Rollins gave the opening and Mrs. I. L. Smith, president, conducted the business meeting.

Final plans were made for the delegates to attend the District II meeting in Littlefield, April 21. The annual Judge and Commissioners Banquet was discussed.

Mrs. T. A. Elmore presented the program "Etiquette for Special Occasions".

Cake, ice cream, coffee and punch were served by the hostess to Mesdames Ray Jones, I. L. Smith, William Worsham, Harold Parrish, Howard Mauk, Hugh Snodgrass, Allen Rollins, Homer Sudderth, Lloyd Yowell, Reg Martin, Jess Snodgrass, Earl Bryson, T. A. Elmore and a guest, Mrs. Saunders.

Stewardship is theme of program

Mrs. Charles Williams was hostess to the Women's Society of Christian Service of First Methodist Church Wednesday evening, April 6.

Mrs. R. H. Meixner gave the beloved story "At the foot of Nam San's Cross" and used Luke 24:1-9 for her devotional.

Mrs. Donald Lackey presented the study, "How total is your stewardship?" Round-table discussion was held on "What is stewardship? Stewardship of time, money and talents. Why is stewardship essential to a full Christian life?"

President Mrs. L. O. Smith dismissed with a prayer. Following the meeting, Mrs. Meixner was presented a personal Easter shower by the group.

Frosted punch and cookies were served by Mrs. Williams to Mesdames L. O. Smith, Donald Lackey, Weldon Spencer, Pat Henard, T. E. Payne, Gene Payne, Dick Payne, W. E. Chadwick, James Warren, Leo White, Virgil Wade, B. W. White, Roy Edwards, H. F. Barnes, Kenneth Hale, P. M. Williams, R. H. Meixner and a visitor, Mrs. Beal.

Mrs. J. W. Beal and sons Joe and Tommy, Mrs. Jim Brown and son Jimmy, and their mother, Mrs. S. F. Pride are spending the weekend with another daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Adams and family at Gallup, New Mexico.

Iota Pi's win awards at district meet Sunday

Twelve chapters of Epsilon Sigma Alpha of District IX met Sunday, April 10, in Sudan with Iota Eta Chapter as hostess.

Election of officers and presentation of awards for outstanding chapter achievements were highlights of the program. Officers for 1960-1961 are: President, Miss Mary Paul Long of Lubbock; Vice-president, Virginia Masten of Sudan; Recording-secretary, Hene Krebs of Muleshoe; Corresponding Secretary, Margaret Harris of Lubbock; Treasurer, Dorothy Lowe of Plains; Parliamentary, Ann Digger of Brownfield; and Co-ordinator, Virginia Campbell of Lubbock.

Of the three awards given, Plains Iota Pi won first in "Outstanding Educational programs" and first in "Rushing". Iota Pi placed second in "Philanthropic Projects", bowing to Seminole chapter in this contest. The awards are lovely engraved silver trays.

Mary Rowland of Seminole was named "Outstanding ESA'er" for the year in the district. Attending the meeting from Iota Pi were Mesdames Garland Swann, Tom Warren, Morris Lowe and Travis Been.

The City of Plains presents for the consideration of its citizens the above utility rate comparisons. The city has, on file, rates of virtually all Texas utilities; whether owned by municipalities, cooperatives, or private concerns. We will be most happy to show you these rates and discuss them with you.

As can be seen by the above comparison, some cities have rates comparable to ours, some are higher, some are lower.

As the city gains more customers, thereby increasing revenue, we will be able to lower the rates here. Also, the more money the city makes, through the sale of electric power, gas, and water, the fewer tax dollars will be needed to meet the operating needs of a growing town.

The city looks to the time when, from this revenue, we will be able also to erect street lights and pave streets in the residential areas. BUT THIS WILL BE POSSIBLE ONLY IF THE CITY HAS THE PATRONAGE AND SUPPORT OF ITS CITIZENS.

THANKS for your patronage and cooperation in the past, and we hope to serve more of you in the future with your ELECTRIC POWER, WATER, GAS.

Cotton allotments gives new increase

Texas cotton farmers have expressed their choices and the 1960 cotton acreage for the State is set. They will plant an additional 509,528 acres over the regular allotments as a result of Choice B selections.

Tom Prater, extension economist, said the final results of the selections — the deadline was March 16 — were provided by the Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office. He said the acreage on Choice A farms adds up to 5,543,000 acres with 283,194 acres of this total under Conservation Reserve contracts. Choice B farms this year can plant a total of 1,783,228 acres.

Prater said the total acreage under both Choice A and Choice B plans now available for Texas growers stood at 7,326,220 acres compared with 6,842,599 acres in 1959.

The 483,621 acre increase over last year's acreage resulted primarily from the selection of the Choice B plan by farmers holding the larger regular acreage allotments, Prater said.

Cemetery workers lynch with Tsa Mo Ga

On Monday members of the Tsa Mo Ga Club served lunch at the Club House, to the crew of workers at the Yoakum County Cemetery. Some twenty-five people were served.

G. W. Cleveand, president of the Cemetery Association, reports that the new entrance, made of red brick, is now complete with cattle guard installed. Shrubs around the entire ten acres are planted and growing. On Monday water lines to the new addition were laid. The public is invited to drive out and view the progress achieved.

Plans are under way by the Tsa Mo Ga Club members to sponsor a count-wide "Clean-up and Beautification Day" for the cemetery, in observance of Memorial Day in May.

Mrs. H. G. Bedford, Mrs. Harvey Stotts and Mrs. Gene Payne, members of the Tsa Mo Ga Club, met with the Denver City Business and Professional Women's Club in that city Thursday evening, April 7, for the purpose of packing kits for the Cancer Crusade which will be conducted later this month.

Miss Carole White was a bridesmaid in the wedding of Miss Virginia Mullins and Jess D. Sanders in Little Chapel in the Woods in Denton last weekend, where she was a guest of the bride's grandmother Mrs. J. B. Mullins. The young ladies were former classmates at Texas Women's University. Miss White also visited in Dallas.

Easter and its meaning

The last thing was death — the final enemy of hope, and Christ when he rose again had "abolished death."

The Church as we find it in the pages of the Acts was a mere handful of people, many of them social outcasts. But they had a living hope. They knew they were the "Church which Christ had purchased with his blood" and had raised from the dead by his resurrection. That conviction kept them living through many a dark night with their "windows open to the sunrising."

The resurrection had a message for each individual. It was first to one and then another that Christ revealed himself. He does the same today. Are we in some prison house of the spirit? It may be the loneliness of sorrow. Or perhaps we are conscious that we have failed and the future looks dim. Or we may be troubled by an uneasy conscience which tells us that the freedom and joy of Christian discipleship is beyond our reach.

The disciples felt all these after Calvary. But they found Christ there waiting to open the doors of hope and calling them to share his victory. This hope can be ours if we will grasp it and live in the light of it. What is Easter all about? Just this: the fresh, brand-new news that Jesus brought was not there is a God, but that the God who is, is recognizable in Jesus. That was new. And it was the good news that who God really is, what he really is like. And it was the good news that he is a gracious, loving God who is for us — all of us. He is the kind of God who goes out after the lost sheep, who waits open-armed and patient for the prodigal, who at last is not stymied even by the grave. He is the kind of God who wants all to live forever. That is the Easter gospel, the absolutely unpedictable news, the gloriously good news to the truth of which we recommit ourselves on Easter.

New Bronco road construction will start about May 1

Construction of the new Bronco Road, from Highway 380 south on the state line to Highway 337, will get underway about May 1 according to contractor Henry L. Stafford, Lubbock.

Announcement of the beginning date for construction was made at a pre-construction safety meeting held in the office of Resident Engineer Carl R. Hart in Brownfield last Thursday morning.

Project, covering approximately 11½ miles, will require approximately six months to complete, according to Stafford and Hart.

West right-of-way line of the project, to be designated Farm to Market Road 2010, will be the Texas-New Mexico State Line. Construction will consist of drainage structures, grade, caliche base and asphalt surfacing.

Hart, representing Texas Highway Department, explained that the roadway will be open to traffic at all times, and that standard method of warning signs and flares will be used.

Residents of the area that find it necessary to use the roadway while it is under construction will be handled with a minimum of inconvenience, Hart said, but since heavy machinery will be at work on the project extreme caution should be exercised at all times.

Brother is named in 1960 Whos Who

The brother of Mrs. G. W. Cleveland, Mr. Hubert Lasater, has been named to Who's Who in America. Mr. Lasater was a former Yoakum County resident and attended elementary school in Plains.

After serving seven years in the navy, Lasater went into the state department where he is currently associated with the International Corporation Administration. At present he is located in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, but will return home in May for a new assignment.

Sheriff, Riddles reach settlement on huge law suit

A settlement agreement in the amount of $1250 has been agreed upon in the damage case of Ray Riddles of Plains against Sheriff Robert Chambliss and Western Casualty and Surety Company, filed March 31 in district court.

Damages of $130,000 had been asked in the suit, resulting from an incident occurring on March 29, 1959, in which the plaintiff charged Sheriff Chambliss struck him with a gun, the gun discharged and resulting explosion broke his eardrum.

The insurance company was joined in the suit to the extent of $5,000 as bonding company.

Hodges' request for disposal well is given approval

Oil and Gas Division of Railroad Commission of Texas has granted approval to Harlan A. Hodges to use his Caldwell "A" Well No. 1 in the area of the Chambliss (San Andres) Field, Yoakum County, for salt water disposal purposes.

Order granting Hodges' request became effective on Feb. 23, according to a copy of the order dated March 21.

Provisions of the commission order state that water is to be injected into the perforated interval at a depth of 5,202 to 5,248 feet and the well will be so cased and completed that water can enter only that interval.

During the hearing it was found that the well to be used has 320 feet of 8 5/8 inch surface casing cemented with 140 sacks of cement and 5,500 feet of 5 1/2 inch long string cemented with 105 sacks of cement, that long string is perforated from 5,202

If the surface of the earth were perfectly smooth, waters of the seas and lakes would cover it completely about 1 1/2 miles deep.

Tsa Mo'Ga ladies attend ceremonies

The following members of the Tsa Mo Ga Club, Madames M. W. Luna, C. F. McCargo, Gene Payne, H. G. Bedford, Garland Swann, P. W. St. Romain, R. K. Field and R. E. Jones attended "Progress Day" in Lubbock on Tuesday, April 12.

The meeting opened in the club room at the Citizens National Bank, at ten o'clock. The purpose of the meeting was to create a new district of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs. The observance was state-wide and out of the previous eight districts, fourteen were created. Mrs. A. T. Cocanougher of Lubbock, retiring Seventh District President, presided at the meeting.

Speaker for the morning session was State Representative H. J. Blanchard. Speaking on "Public Affairs, he reminded the women of their duties in this field. He said, "Taxes in Texas have increased 227 percent in the last ten years," and illustrating the trend in public opinion, stated, "In 1954, in the State Legislature, 29 voted for Labor in Texas, in 1960, 70 odd voted with Labor. Our State is in the red $85,000,000 and plunging deeper each day." He spoke at length on "handouts" in the guise of Welfare, Health and Education. He added, "There are no degrees of honesty, one is either honest or dishonest."

Lunch was served at Hotel Lubbock, where the afternoon session was held. Mrs. A. E. Boyd of Plainview was elected president of the newly formed district of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs. "Caprock" was the name chosen for the district which comprises 19 counties. Other officers elected were Mrs. T. L. Dunlap of Littlefield, first vice president; Mrs. Robert N. Tipps of Denver City, second vice president; Mrs. Sammy Hale of Floydada, Junior director; and Mrs. J. W. Walker of Plainview, district trustee. All presidents selected will be installed in Austin at Texas Federation of Women's Clubs convention May 2-4. Installation is scheduled for Wednesday night, May 4.

Mrs. Andrew L. Putnam of Plainview, a member of federated clubs for 60 years, was recommended for a life membership on the state board. Mrs. R. B. Jones of Plains was chairman of the nominating committee. One hundred and forty women attended the meeting.

prize eggs hidden in all three hunts. The children finding their prize egg will return it to the merchant and he or she will receive a prize. The prize egg will be marked either on the outside or inside with the firm's name.

To be on hand Friday to help the Easter bunny will be members of the Iota Pi, Chamber of Commerce, FHA, and the Review office.

The eggs for the hunt were purchased from local merchants, Plains Frozen Foods, Hawkins Food Store, Gene's East Side Grocery, and Pic and Pay. Dye to color the eggs was purchased from Cogburn-Young and Curry Edwards. A special thanks is given to these firms by the sponsoring organizations.

DYEING PARTY

There were many a purple, red, pink, yellow, green and blue hand Tuesday night among the Iota Pi club members as they met and dyed over 400 Easter eggs for the giant hunt.

The clubwomen met in the home economics room at the local high school where they boiled, dyed, and decorated the eggs. Present at the meeting were 23 club members and three guests. Refreshments of coffee, cake and cookies, and cracked hard boiled eggs were served.

Harold G. Forest entered the VA Hospital Friday in Kerrville. At present he is still undergoing tests.
