—An Editorial—

No more free coffee

Election time will soon be over and everyone will be having to buy his own coffee. There will be no more free matches, candidate cards, box suppers, stump speaking, back slaps, and character raking — until the next election.

To insure peace and quiet around here once again, the following suggestions are given — to go into effect on Sunday, May 8th.

Those who didn't vote have no right to complain over the outcome of the May 7th election.

Those who did vote, but their candidate lost, have no right to complain as they should have gotten out and campaigned for him.

Those who did vote and did campaign, and still their candidate lost, have the right to complain to anyone they can catch who is willing to listen.

As a booster of Plains, and seemingly considered a fair catch by the complainers, I would like to remind local voters that we need a Plains representative in the Courthouse — someone who will live in Plains and take an active part in local civic and community affairs. As Plains is the county seat, elect someone who will keep his office here, and will take pride in the county seat.

NEW INQUIRIES

We have had several interested inquiries concerning the building situation here. Phone calls, letters, and personal contacts have been made from parties who say they would be interested in constructing business houses. At present there has just been "talk", but we are in hopes of a new building in the downtown area before long.

We'll turn the tables now and ask any businesses interested in a new building or any new businesses interested in locating in Plains, to please contact the Chamber of Commerce or the Review. We have several offers we would like to pass on to you.

Cubscouts enjoy sights on Carlsbad Cavern trip

Eighteen Cubscouts of Pack 78, leaders Mr. and Mrs. Ben Liles, Mr. and Mrs. Boots Nelson and Mrs. Bill Hennington, Girl Scouts, Darlene McDonnell and Linda Robertson, Boy Scouts Ralph Meixner and Olan Smith, and parents, Mrs. J. P. and Mrs. Johnnie Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Tommie McDonnell, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wauson left by school bus about 6:30 a.m. Saturday for a sightseeing tour of Carlsbad Caverns.

They were welcomed at Carlsbad by former Cubmaster L. M. Mize and family who are now living there, and were given refreshing cold drinks before buying a few souvenirs and entering the caverns at 11:00 a.m. (They had planned to go in at 9:30, but it took almost four hours to drive to Carlsbad.)

All reported they enjoyed a nice lunch at the Cavern's Lunchroom. Though a few of the Plains delegation had visited this wonder of nature before, they found numerous things of interest they had missed on previous trips.

Agog with excitement and a trip of wonder never experienced before, the party appreciated refreshments compliments of Mr. Mize at his station prior to their return trip to Plains.

A special highlight of the day, not planned by the leaders but

Lon Kerrick injured in accidental fall

Lon Kerrick received sprained back muscles and a head injury Monday evening when he fell from a pony near Needmore in Terry County.

The gentle pony backed into an electric fence and became frightened. Mr. Kerrick, not expecting the pony to jump, fell on his head and shoulders and the excited animal stepped on him.

He was taken to Plains Clinic where X-rays revealed the extent of his injuries before he was hospitalized in Yoakum County Hospital.

He is resting satisfactorily.

First Democratic Primary expects to draw record number of local voters

Yoakum County voters will have plenty of incentive to go to the polls Saturday, May 7 as several hot precinct and county offices are up for grabs. According to county records there are approximately 2,679 who have paid poll taxes and are eligible to vote. There are approximately 150 to 200 who are exempt including the older citizens.

To be eligible to vote Saturday you must have your poll tax receipt and if you have lost your receipt you must make an affidavit to the fact before you will be allowed to vote.

A new formality that has been added to the poll tax this year is the party affiliation. Poll taxes must be stamped "Democrat" before you will be allowed to vote in the Democratic primary. This new state law was passed last year by the Texas government.

The name and number of voting precincts in the county have been listed with the names of the judges and the places where the polls will be located.

- No. 1 — County Clerk's Office, Roy Fitzgerald, judge.
- No. 2 — Commissioner's Courtroom, Bill Powell, judge.
- No. 3 — Sheriff's Office, Sherm Henard, judge.
- No. 4 — County Tax Collector's Office, Truett Jones, judge.
- No. 5 — S & G Gin at Turner, Carl Lowery, judge.
- No. 6 — Sligo Community Building, Gene Bennett, judge.
- No. 7 — Denver City Elementary School, John Wise, judge.
- No. 8 — Denver City, City Hall, W. R. Shook, judge.
- No. 9 — Shell Recreation

Hall, Denver City, Bill Story, judge.
The judge of the special canvassing board will be Mrs. J. P. Robertson. The polls will open at 7 a.m. and close at 7 p.m.
In the county race there are 15 men seeking election. In the sheriff's race Olan Heath, deputy sheriff of Plains, V. E. Sanders, deputy sheriff of Denver City and Woody Sullivan with the Denver City Police force are seeking the office of sheriff. Drawing an opponent for reelection is Vernon Townes, county attorney. His opponent is Claude Freeman, law partner of Don Hancock, county judge.

In the tax assessor-collector's race three men have filed. They are E. W. Craig, present chief deputy tax assessor-collector, and Reese Wilkerson and W. W. Anderson both of Denver City.
In Precinct 1 incumbent County Commissioner Vance Brown is opposed by V. R. "Cowboy" Jones. In Precinct 3 and of special interest in Plains there are four men seeking the Commissioner's post. They include Ty Field, Robert Jones, Raymond Bookout, and Rod Duff. The precinct 3 post is being given up by Gene Payne.

Three Plains FHA girls awarded state degrees

Mrs. Casey Brown accompanied five girls of Plains Future Homemakers of America to Austin last weekend for the annual State Meeting. Three of the girls were awarded their state degrees in Homemaking during the two-day session. They were Barbara Meil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Meil, Janice Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Foye Powell, and D'Lois McGinty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rusty McGinty, stood in for Zoleta Brantley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Brantley.
The program on Friday opened with gracious welcomes by representatives of the host city, followed by guest speaker, Helen Poe, lecturer and world traveler from Dallas, who spoke on "Your World Today and Tomorrow". She described her first trip behind the Iron Curtain and reminded the group to be thankful of the privilege of living in America.
Honorary memberships in Future Homemakers of America were presented Mrs. Brown and thirty-one other adults during the morning session.

"Patterns for Tomorrow", theme of the meeting, was carried out with a style-show in the afternoon by the Austin schools. Three-hundred-fifty girls received their state degrees and were complimented with a tea in the Governor's Mansion by Miss Jean Daniel.
Fun night was enjoyed by all on Friday night when America was compared with other countries in religion, recreation, weddings and education.
Reports of officers were heard on Saturday morning and new rules concerning state degrees were announced. To climax the annual program, installation of officers for 1960-61 was held with all girls wearing lovely white formals and red corsages (F. H. A. colors) to make the ceremony quite beautiful.

Chamber hears report on lighting of highway 380

The Plains Chamber of Commerce met Monday at noon at the clubroom in the courthouse. Tickets for the third annual Chamber of Commerce banquet were given to the members present. The banquet is planned for Tuesday night, May 10 and tickets may be bought from any Chamber of Commerce member. Those members that did not receive tickets may go by Curry-Edwards and pick them up.
The committee on lighting gave their report to the meeting. Estimate cost per light pole, complete, will run close to $200. The committee chairman said that approximately 42 poles would be needed to light the highway from city limits to city limits. The total cost would run close to $8,500. Ways and means of financing the project will be brought up at the next general meeting.

Ideas were exchanged and plans were discussed for a Plains "Dollar Day" or "Value Day." There has been some interest in the plan by local merchants and a committee was named to work out details. The "Dollar Day" has been popular in neighboring cities and it was hoped that Plains' residents would soon be able to enjoy one here.

Watch repair shop open for business

Local residents can get that "dead" watch out of the dresser drawer, its case or the pocket of that suit they seldom wear and have it repaired right here in Plains.
Mr. Ben Williams opened his watch and jewelry repair shop this week in the Plains Electronics building across the street east from the courthouse. He states that all work is fully guaranteed and he welcomes the opportunity to do your watch repairs anytime. He has done this type of work at intervals the past 30 years.

He and his family lived in Odessa for a number of years, where he has married children now living. However, he is coming to Plains from Tatum, New Mexico.

Mrs. Williams and son, Clifford, who will be a sophomore next fall, expect to move to Plains at the close of school in Tatum.
A welcome is extended to these new citizens and a new business.

Cancer crusade gets $389.94 in local drive

Mrs. Gene Payne, local chairman for the Cancer Crusade, issued the following incomplete report on the drive made Monday and Tuesday of this week. A total of $384.94 had been counted Tuesday night with several reports yet to be turned in. Mrs. Payne expressed appreciation to all those who helped with the drive and felt sure the total would go over $400 when completed this weekend.

Lea County Co-op seeks to lower electric rates

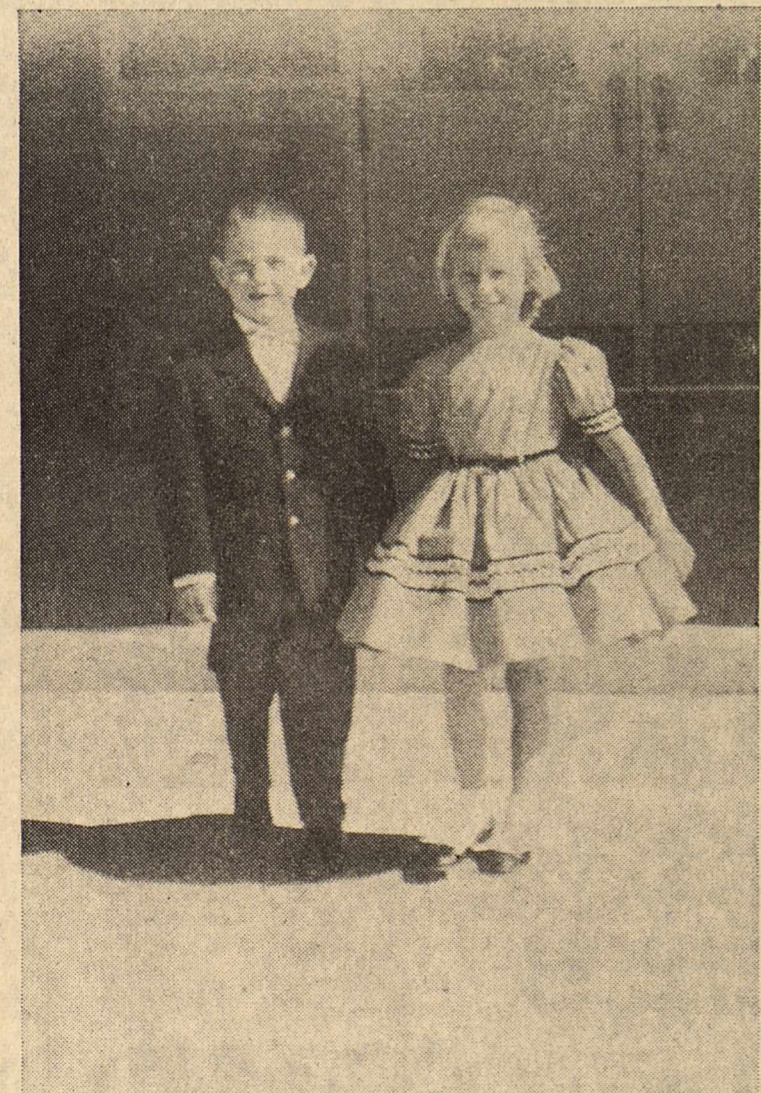

A lower rate schedule has been filed by the Lea County Electric Co-op with the Plains City Council. The proposed rate schedule calls for reduction in electric rates inside the city limits for residential, commercial and industrial concerns.

Roger Curry, mayor, said Wednesday that the council is reviewing the rate adjustment request presented by the Co-op and at the present time no action has been taken.

In an interview with Lea County Co-op officials it was stated that the rate lowering was not an attempt to undercut the city but to adjust Plains' rates in accordance with the other towns in the system. They stated that this rate reduction was the third attempt made by their company to have the local city council to okay the reduction.

According to city officials, anytime there is a rate adjustment both the city and the co-op will still operate at the same rate. It was added that one company could not raise or lower their rates without the other doing likewise.

The reductions proposed called for lowering of the minimum rate and for a 10 per cent reduction in the commercial schedule. The schedule C O concerns the special rates for cotton gins.

Summer preparation

School cycle begins for first graders

Will you be having a child who will be entering school soon? His success in this first year, as in all succeeding years, will depend to a great extent upon the degree of understanding and cooperation which exists between the home and the school. There is more involved in getting the beginner off to school than delivering him to the door on the first morning.

The beginner will have to have his birth certificate or a photostatic copy and will have had to have his immunization shots.

The parents can prepare the beginner starting now which will help him when school starts this fall. Basically the child should know his name, his parent's name, address, telephone number, age and birthday. Also the child should be toilet trained, able to dress himself, brush teeth and tie shoes.

During the summer the parents should provide opportunities for the child to be away from them for several hours at a time so that the first day of school will not be the first time they have been separate from their parents.

By August children should be accustomed to the same schedule he will follow after school starts. He should get from 10 to 12 hours of rest, having plenty of time to eat a good breakfast and to dress for school.

READY FOR READING
Checking story books from the local library and reading and sharing pleasant experiences will help the child get ready for first year reading. Authorities say that children who read widely at home have distinct advantages over the child who reads little.

Stories suggested by the local first grade teachers include folk and fairy tales, animal stories, biographies, and stories of regional interest. Parents can encourage home reading by providing plenty of books which may be checked out free of charge at the local library. Be interested in his reading program but don't make it a chore educators advise parents.

National educators suggest to parents the following pointers for helping their first year students. Show appreciation of things your child makes at school and provide a safe place to keep work he brings home. Take a genuine interest in things he tells about the school. Be at home when your child comes from school bubbling with eagerness to relate the happenings of the day.

Notify the teacher immediately of any change in address, or telephone number. Refrain from discussing your child's abilities or inabilities when he is present. Encourage friendships with other children of his class. See that the child gets to school on time and contact the teacher when he must be absent.

Additional information, lettering charts, and other instructive materials may be picked up at the local elementary school office.

grand, was an opportunity to visit the 5th Annual Boy Scout Exposition of Carlisbad Cavern District. Mrs. Liles' brother, a member of the executive committee, had a group perform for the Texas boys and guests early, due to their having to come home before the regular performance. They did a lively Indian Dance in costumes they had made themselves. There were 30 booths, in addition to the Indian Dance, at the exposition.

The leaders reported a well-behaved group, complimented by guides and officials of the caverns, and all expressed appreciation to everyone making the trip possible, as well as the school board who provided the bus for transportation.

Ruidoso Downs to open season Friday, May 20

The way Texans are leaving their state this week, you'd think the Lone Star was going out of style.

The Texans, however, are Texas horsemen with expensive, smartly-groomed race horses who have as their destination the Ruidoso Downs Race Track in the heart of New Mexico's "Billy-the-Kid-Land."

On May 20th, Ruidoso Downs, home of the fabulous $150,000 All-American Futurity, will crack its gates for 54 big days of horse racing. More than 300 Texas quarter horses and thoroughbreds will be vying, with 700 sprinters from 38 other states, for a share of an estimated $1 million in purses offered this season.

Clayton Tolliver, Sonora, tops a lengthy list of Texas horsemen who have checked in at the track. The veteran trainer, with 25 head of racers, has been leading trainer at Ruidoso for the past two seasons. Tolliver has with him "Debonair Dandy" who will be entered in the 1960 Thoroughbred Derby on August 28.

Other Texans who have arrived at the track include Odessa Oilman-rancher L. R. French Jr. with "Panama Ace", Roy Gaines of Sinton, Dub Phillips of Dallas, J. B. Ferguson of Wharton, George Till of Kress, T. J. McGuyer of Brandy and W. N. Oats of Lubbock, co-owners of two potential whirlwinds, "Top Fella" and "Middle Lady." The Thoroughbred Derby, set for August 28, will be a 7½ furlong event with an estimated $16,000 purse.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Anthony and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Moore spent last week vacationing at Lake Texoma. The Anthonys spent Friday and Saturday nights in Dallas with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Huff and Kathy.

Mrs. Thomas Bearden is in Farmington, New Mexico, this week with her sister, Mrs. Weston Powell, who underwent surgery there Tuesday. The Bearden's two children are visiting in the home of their aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cobb, while their mother is away.

The first imported wire into the New World was Columbus. He carried it from Jerez on his voyage of discovery.

Commissioners guest of Yoakum County HD Club

Approximately 70 were in attendance for the annual Commissioners Banquet, presented by Yoakum County's four home demonstration clubs, Thursday evening, April 28 in Plains school cafeteria.

The delicious dinner consisted of baked ham, sweet peas, potato salad, carrot-lemon gelatin salad, hot rolls, butter, cherry cobbler, tea and coffee.

Loren Gayle offered the invocation. Council chairman Mrs. Tom Box extended the welcome and made introductions. Judge Don Hancock gave the response.

Musical selections were presented by Mrs. Terry Bacon and Misses Paula Tidwell, Peggy Hartman and Marsha White. Following the well-received address by Dr. Lynn, O. A. Pippin offered the benediction.

Committee members for the banquet were: Mesdames W. B. White, Robert Chambliss and Charles Williams of Stanford Valley Club; Mesdames Loren Gayle and Terry Bacon of State Line Club; Mesdames Allen Rollins and Harold Parrish of Turner Club; and Mesdames Clifford Todd and Bob Van Nest of Denver City Club.

County credit union to give educational loans

Yoakum County Federal Credit Union directors met April 25 to discuss and plan an educational loan. It was decided to make educational loans to a person or persons not to exceed $300.00 at 3 percent per annum, provided the applicant has good credit rating. These loans are not restricted to high school students only. The loan is being provided for all educational purposes excluding all correspondence courses, as most correspondence work is seldom completed by students.

When the loan applicant is a minor, either parent or guardian must co-sign. As members of the credit union you own and control the organization and thereby are entitled to help yourself. Mention the union and it's loan plan to others, advise the board of directors.

6 Good Reasons why the voters of Yoakum Co. should Re-elect Vernon Townes as COUNTY ATTORNEY

1 He puts County Business first, and knows how to handle it.

2 He regularly works long hours in both Plains and Denver City.

3 As the importance of business increases, the importance of experience in that business also increases.

4 Neither Vernon Townes nor his law partner have, or ever will represent anyone or any interest in any court contrary to the interests of Yoakum County.

5 He maintains offices in both Plains and Denver City regularly for the convenience of ALL the county's citizens.

6 County legal affairs are now running smoothly, and are in capable, experienced hands. Why change? TOWNES merits Your Support!

A MESSAGE to the Citizens of Plains, Texas

Over the past several years, Lea County Electric Cooperative, Inc., has attempted to make rate reductions to the residential and commercial consumers in the City of Plains, Texas, but has been rejected by the City Council because the franchise agreement between the Cooperative and the city requires that all rate increases or rate reductions be approved by the governing body of your city.

November 21, 1956, was the date the original offer was made to reduce the residential rate by approximately 12%. This offer was ignored and on January 19, 1957, Mr. R. B. Moore, General Manager of Lea County Electric Cooperative, submitted a letter to the City Council requesting that they either accept or reject this offer. It was rejected.

The 12% reduction to the citizens of Plains, Texas, over this length of time will amount to a substantial amount on an individual basis and a great deal of money to all the citizens of Plains.

The Cooperative is now offering another rate reduction to the commercial consumer which will amount to approximately 10% savings to the businessmen in the area. If accepted, this reduction will be retroactive to January 1, 1960. The residential rate, as referred to above, is also a part of the over-all rate reduction proposal at this time.

Utilities of all types must operate on a volume basis and have a potential to obtain this volume business in order to operate successfully and build the community they serve. The primary reason that a utility must operate on a volume basis is because of the tremendous investments it takes to serve a home or business with electric power and do the job in an efficient, dependable manner. If this factor in the utility business is ignored, then there is only one result; and that is high operating rates to all consumers and the net result is to hold back the progress and development of a town, community, or trade area.

We have heard a great deal about inflation and the high cost of living. Utility bills are definitely one of the major costs in a citizen's budget. It is extremely hard to understand why these rate reductions cannot be placed in effect and help the people of Plains.

The final question remains: DO THE CITIZENS OF PLAINS, TEXAS, WISH TO CONTINUE THEIR PRESENT COURSE AND HAVE HIGH UTILITY BILLS, OR DO THEY WANT TO HAVE THOSE BILLS REDUCED?

CLAUDE FREEMAN
ATTORNEY - AT - LAW
Denver City, Texas

May 3, 1960

Dear Folks:

I do not know what the future may hold, but I do know it will be rich and rewarding, as long as people like you have confidence in me and my sincere endeavors to serve as your County Attorney.

The qualifications of the office of County Attorney involve not only education, moral fibre, but common-sense experience in dealing with people in various phases of life. The following is a simplified summary of my education and experience in working with people like yourselves:

Education

- Sligo and Denver City Public Schools.
- Texas Technological College - Mechanical Engineering.
- Law School - Graduate of the University of Texas Law School and post graduate work in Railroad Commission Seminar and Oil and Gas Seminar.
- Special studies in the field of legal jurisprudence, involving the study of what law is, its definition, and purpose; and water law (water is an increasingly important basis of the County's economy and many problems in that field will need to be considered efficiently and intelligently in the next few years).

Experience

(The following is a limited number of the actual vocations at which I have worked or studied during the period from 1943 until I graduated from Law School in January, 1959).

- General oil field work, locally, including such companies as Frontier Chemical - six months; Shell Oil Company, Gas Department - seven years; Mobil, Inc.; Marlow Well Service; T's Service and Bum Gibbins, Inc.
- Operation of small business - stock farming and dry land farming operations, Yoakum County, from 1947 until 1956.

As an active member of your society, I have supported the church, your schools; I have been a member of progressive County improvement programs while at the same time advocating and supporting economical and business-like operation of County and State business.

I sincerely believe I will make you a good County Attorney. I pledge my time and honor to the task of serving all of you efficiently, fairly and impartially. It is on that basis that I ask you to vote for me next Saturday.

STATE CAPITAL
Highlights
AND Sidelights
by Vern Sanford
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. — Saturday is "speak now or forever hold your peace" day in Texas.

Or, to say the least, the voter who does not express an opinion at the polls and precinct conventions this week should hold his peace about what happens in Texas during the next two years.

A number of important decisions as to office holders will be made Saturday. Once made, they're final — for two years or even four years.

At this point in the campaigns, almost all candidates and their supporters believe that if there is a big enough turnout Saturday, their side will win handily. And those who aren't pleased with the way things turn out likely will blame it on those who don't bother to show up.

Equally as important as the primaries are the precinct conventions to be held the same day. This is the only means by which the individual voter can participate in the selection of the presidential nominee.

NEW HIGHWAY SIGNS DUE — New highway signs, bigger and more colorful than any used before, will begin appearing soon on the interstate highways in Texas.

Highway Commission has ordered the posting of route markers and guide signs on 707 miles of interstate highway now completed or under construction in the state.

Conspicuously absent in this marking system will be stop signs. Completion of the 41,000-mile system of controlled access roads will make possible coast-to-coast and border-to-border driving without a stop sign or traffic light.

Motorists soon will become familiar with the interstate marker — a red, white and blue shield. Texas Highway Department designed the shield which later was adopted for the entire national system.

All markers and guide signs will be larger than usual. Advance exit signs will be placed about two miles ahead of interchanges to give motorists plenty of time to plan their next move.

Guide signs will have white letters and symbols on a green background. Warning and yield and service areas will have green letters on a reflectorized white background. Warning and yield signs will remain in the familiar yellow and black but will grow in dimensions.

Texas leads the nation in the number of miles of interstate highways completed and under way. Texas' allotment is 3,033 miles of which 697 are finished and 259 are in some stage of progress.

SCHOOLS' SHARE DOWN — Texas is spending a smaller proportion of its tax revenue on education now than it did 10 years ago.

This statement was issued by the Texas State Teachers Association in support of its drive for enactment of the Hale-Aikin program for school improvement.

In 1958-59, says the report, Texas spent 29.67 cents of each tax dollar for public school education. In the last completed school year the percentage was 27.68 cents of each dollar.

During that period public school spending more than doubled — from $156,000,000 to $322,000,000 — to keep pace with a 51 per cent increase in students and 49 per cent increase in teachers. But spending for other purposes increased faster.

Gov. Price Daniel again has said that he would like to call a special session after the elections to erase the deficit and raise teachers' pay. But he also said it would depend on getting agreement from legislators.

PROFIT PREDICTED — When everything is finally cleared up, the state will come out with a profit of $50,000 — perhaps more — on land involved in the Veterans Land Board scandals.

This prediction was made by Land Commissioner Bill Allcorn who called $50,000 a "conservative figure."

He said that $1,725,000 has already been recovered from fraudulent land deals and that $1,679,000 more is outstanding but fully secured.

When the entire $3,404,000 is recovered, said Allcorn, the state will have a comfortable margin above what was involved in the original transactions.

COSTLY ERROR — Texas Supreme Court has returned to district court for re-trial a case involving a $100,000 mistake in arithmetic.

An employee of an Arlington contractor made the error in submitting a bid of $534,175 instead of $634,226 to the local school board for a school building job. After the bid was accepted by the board, the contractor discovered the error and refused to carry out the contract.

Board then awarded the bid to the second low bidder and sued the first contractor for the $36,278 difference between the second low bid and the bid they had first accepted.

Supreme Court members disagreed on the case, wrote three different opinions, but all agreed it should be re-tried.

HOW BIG THE GROUNDS — State Building Commission is awaiting an attorney general's opinion before putting in sidewalks to the new state buildings.

Reason for the precaution is that the Legislature passed a bill in 1957 stating that nothing — absolutely nothing — could be built on the Capitol grounds without specific permission from the Legislature. And the Legislature did not provide for sidewalks.

WHO OWNS THE OIL? — Another question under consideration by the attorney general's department is "who owns rights to the minerals under county roads."

Request for an opinion was submitted by Jack Cook, county attorney of Kleberg County.

Ultimately to be decided is whether state and local government can claim the right to mineral development of the right of way of some 228,000 miles of streets and highways in Texas.

grain and protein and only one fourth roughage. Any sudden changes in the mixture of the ration or any irregularity in the feeding schedule will upset the animal. Internal and external parasites must be controlled. The pen and shed must be kept as clean and sanitary as possible and the animal should be led at least three eighths of a mile a day. Daily brushing and combing are necessary to make the animal feed good. A bath at least once a month is also recommended.

The art of being able to present the animal to the judge comes in two ways. The first is training the calf at home so that he will pose properly and respond to the halter and the show stick. The second is attending the weigh days during the feeding period and learning as much as possible about showing beef calves. At almost every weigh day there will be a practice session for boys and girls so they can learn to be good showmen. All these things put together make a good calf show.

DEAR FRIENDS OF YOAKUM COUNTY:

I would like to make my final appeal for your support in the coming election this Saturday.

I feel sure that a great number of you know that I have been a citizen of Yoakum County and your Deputy Sheriff for the past ten years. I have served under the past three sheriffs which you elected to this office that I am now seeking.

I have made a special effort to co-operate with not only the officials of this county, but each citizen as well. I have coped with a number of juvenile problems and as your next sheriff will have a number more which I feel I am well qualified to handle as they arise.

Each of you know my past record and know that I have dealt fairly with everyone. This record will continue the same if I am elected your sheriff.

Thank you once more for your continued support in promoting me to Yoakum County Sheriff.

Journalism scholarship available to graduate

West Texas Press Association is searching for some young man or lady to help in preparing for a newspaper career. High school seniors in this area who might like to try for a scholarship in journalism are urged to get in touch with their high school principal or their hometown publisher hear more about it.

Joe Pickle, Big Spring, chairman of the scholarship committee, has sent notices to the principals of high schools in the WTPA territory asking that they inform seniors of the chance for a journalism scholarship in any of ten West Texas colleges.

Publishers have also been urged to be of help to prospective scholarship candidates. A letter of reference from the home town publisher is to accompany the application.

"The scholarship pays $400 (or $50 a semester for four years) to the high school senior who is selected from among the applicants. During the four years satisfactory scholastic standards must be met, and the individual must have intentions of entering a career in journalism.

"We have been fortunate in the past in having a representative number of applicants of high quality," said Pickle, "and we hope that this year will be no exception. The deadline for filing an application is May 10."

Applicants must submit a biographical sketch and a statement of why the applicant desires a career in journalism. A picture should be included and any clippings of the student's published news stories.

A letter from the journalism teacher or publications sponsor must accompany the application, giving evaluation of the applicant's talent in journalism. Also to be submitted is a letter from the high school principal, who will evaluate the applicant's ability to profit from a college education.

Present holders of scholarships from the WTPA are Annette Holman and Mary Alice Cretzinger. Don Jones, last year's winner, was obliged to drop out of school for a semester and has taken a position on the Tulia Herald with the intention of resuming his studies at Texas Tech in September.

The WTPA scholarship may be used at any one of ten West Texas Schools. These are Abilene Christian College, Hardin-Simmons University, Howard Payne College, McMurry, Midwestern University, Sul Ross College, Texas Tech, Texas Western College, Wayland Baptist College and West Texas State College.

SHERIFF

A Statement to the Voters:

In offering myself as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Yoakum County, I should like to state that I was born in Johnson County, Oklahoma in 1915. My family moved to Hockley County, Texas when I was a small boy. After living in Hockley County for five years, we returned to Oklahoma. Then I left Oklahoma again during the famous "Oakie Migration" and have lived in Texas ever since.

I served as a peace officer at Borger and at Dimmitt for a total of eight years before returning to Hockley County in 1948. I served as a peace officer in Hockley County until I came to Denver City to accept the position of Chief of Police approximately two and a half years ago.

In addition to my actual experience as a peace officer, I have attended the schooling for officers offered by the F.B.I. on three occasions. I have also had 28 weeks of special training for officers conducted by some of the best personnel A & M College could obtain for the purpose. I attended a sixteen weeks guidance course offered by the Department of Public Safety in police criminal investigation service. And I maintain membership in the American Detective Association.

I feel that my training and experience as a peace officer over the past twenty years qualifies me for the position of sheriff.

I have only one promise to make to the voters of Yoakum County: And that is, if I am elected as your sheriff I shall serve you to the best of my ability.

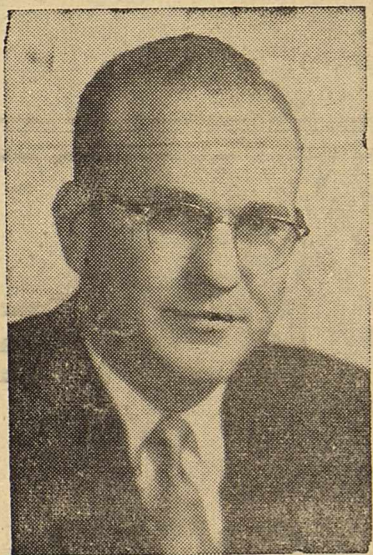

As a peace officer, I have found that by gaining the confidence and respect of the young people in a community you have advanced a long way toward eliminating the problem commonly referred to as "juvenile delinquency." That was my reason for organizing the Junior Police Force in Denver City. Currently we have approximately 275 members, and I find that most of these boys are eager to accept and encourage the responsibility of good citizenship. I consider it a privilege to have the opportunity to work with the young people of a community. It is a challenge that appeals to me. I would especially be pleased to have any person in Yoakum county go to Sundown and check my record there with respects to working with the youngsters of that community. And as long as one generation reproduces another we will have young people to work with, so there will never be a time when we don't need to be on the job working with them. It is the civic duty of peace officers, parents and school and church officials to work together where our youngsters are concerned. And none of us should shirk that responsibility. Wise counsel for young people pays the greatest dividends of any investment I know of. Boys and girls seldom fail us. If any of them go astray it is usually because we have failed them.

In closing, let me say that due to my duties and responsibilities as Denver City Chief of Police I have not had as much time to campaign as I would have liked. My campaigning has been done on my own time, and at no expense to either city or county taxpayers. During the past two weeks, while on vacation from my Chief of Police duties, I have attempted to call personally at every home in Yoakum county. To those of you I missed seeing, I would like to take this means of earnestly soliciting your support. I shall appreciate your going to the polls on May 7th and casting your vote for me. Thank you.
