Sudan falls victim to local Cowboys Plains romp over Hornets to take game by 46 points

A host of football fans were surprised Friday night by the results of the Cowboy-Hornet football game. Plains fans had a pleasant surprise as the Cowboys rolled over Sudan 46 to 0. Sudan fans had a shocking surprise as the Hornets, ranked third in an area newspaper poll, failed to score against the fifth ranked Cowboys.

The game was highlighted by remarkable co-ordination of the Cowboy team and several spectacular long runs by Dick Cooke. In the toss-up the Cowboys elected to receive and Sudan chose to defend the west goal. The ball was booted by Mark Baker and Ronny Hendricks ran the ball to the Plain's 30. Joe Don Morrow barreled his way through four Hornet linemen as he piled up a 42 yard run. After reaching deep into the Hornet territory the Cowboys made a first with goal to go. Hendricks handing off to Morrow set-up the first touchdown. Hendricks handed off to Jerry Warren for the extra points.

On the first play by the Hornets a fumble was recovered by the Cowboys but the Cowboys lost the ball on downs. A kick by the Hornets deep into Cowboy field and a fumble mix-up returned the ball to the Hornets. The Hornets failed to keep the ball and again Plains received the ball deep in their own ground.

In a series of runs the Cowboys drove deep into Hornet territory. Despite a penalty the Cowboys scored again as Hendricks handed off to Morrow and Morrow went over the left side. The try for extra points was no good.

The Hornets received the ball and made three first downs. On a Hornet hand-off one of the backs was knocked loose from the ball and Meixner recovered for the Cowboys. In a fast series of plays the Cowboys marched ACTING POSTMASTER was announced this week for the Plains post office. A. J. (Jack) Hayes took his duties October 1 as new postmaster. Money raised by the club from the bazaar will go to make improvements on the local museum and other projects of the club. The president of the Club, Mrs. Garland Swann, extends an invitation to all area residents to come by Monday evening and visit the bazaar.

The winner of the "George Washington Plume" quilt will also be announced. The quilt was hand pieced and is on display at Moore and Odens. Tickets for the quilt may be purchased from any member of the Tsa Mo Ga.

An unusual display of Hall mark cards will be on display. The cards date from around the turn-of-the-century and include greeting, Christmas, and birthday cards.

Read this article in its entirety and get just an inkling of what is happening to 4-H Club Work in Yoakum County. Some major changes are taking shape. Between October 6th and October 12th there will be five groups meeting to organize new 4-H Clubs. No longer will 4-H Club meetings be held in the school. The school at Plains has been very cooperative over the years and always allowed some time for 4-H meetings each month during school hours.

In order for parents to have a better understanding of what 4-H Club Work really is and in order for 4-H members to better understand how to carry out their 4-H program, it was necessary to have more time for 4-H club meetings. Therefore, 4-H club meetings will be held on what might be called a community basis. In Yoakum County we have no established community lines so the county had to be sub-divided into areas according to other established lines.

The Precinct lines made a good division as far as the area around Plains was concerned. The Denver City area is in two precincts and the Community Building at Denver City is an excellent meeting place. The boys and girls who go to school at Denver City will form as many clubs as is necessary in that area. It will probably be two clubs to begin with. In the Plains area there will be four clubs divided according to county precincts with those who live near the line having the privilege of joining the group of Cancer division holds meet in Plains

The Yoakum County Cancer Division met Monday at noon at the Clubroom for their monthly meeting. Mrs. B. J. Smith presided at the meeting.

Plans were discussed for showing films on cancer to the different civic and social clubs in the county. Mrs. Carroll Vernon of Denver City, chairman of the group, said she had contacted several groups who were interested in seeing the program.

Mrs. Cecil Bickley was elected secretary due to the resignation of Harold Watson. Mrs. Morris Lowe was named chairman of the Memorial Fund. The group voted to rent a post office box in Plains for this special feature. Anyone wishing to donate money in memory of loved ones may do so by contacting Mrs. Lowe.

Highlight of the noon meeting was the announcement that Yoakum County had received a five year certificate for exceeding their quota. The county also received a certificate for exceeding their quota for this year.

The next meeting will be held in Denver City on the first Monday in November.

New supervisor, C. M. Thompson named for SCD

The new supervisor for the Yoakum County Soil Conservation District took over his duties here Monday. He is C. Murrell Thompson who replaces Wyatt Lipscomb who was transferred to Odessa.

Mr. Thompson moved to Plains from Albany where he was supervisor of the Conservation office for the past six years. Prior to that he was a rancher in Lamar County for over three years. He also was a staff member in the soil conservation office in Clay County for seven years.

He stated that his wife and five-year old daughter Debra would move to Plains around the first of November. The Thompsons have two sons Murrell and Charles, who attend Talton State College in Stephenville. The Thompsons are members of the Methodist church.

Thompson said, "I welcome the opportunity to work with the people of Yoakum County."

Bryson condition said "critical"

The condition of Earl (Pete) Bryson was still termed "critical" Wednesday by physicians at Terry County Hospital, Brownfield, where he was transferred early last week from an Eagle Pass hospital.

Bryson was injured early Saturday, September 24 in the mountains near Eagle Pass, Texas when he lost control of his pickup due to faulty steering mechanism. Roy Perkins of Tokio, who received numerous cuts, bruises and strains, accompanied Bryson to that area on business Friday.

Bryson, who rode the pickup to the bottom of the incline, suffered a broken shoulder and ankle, numerous cuts on his arm slashed stomach muscles and possible internal injuries.

Due to insufficient X-ray equipment and facilities to care for his injuries at Eagle Pass he was brought to Brownfield by Ambulance on Monday and a Lubbock surgeon-specialist was summoned.

Bryson and his family operate a stock farm about 16 miles northeast of Plains.

AUSTIN, Tex. — Neither Texas civilians nor the armed forces can afford the losses incurred through traffic accidents involving military personnel in the state.

On this note, the Texas Military-Civilian Traffic Safety Council was formed in Austin with a goal of reducing the accidents.

About 200 persons, civilian and military, attended the Council's first meeting, called at the behest of Gov. Price Daniel.

Servicemen have more auto accidents than any other population group in Texas, said Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Department of Public Safety. Last year servicemen drivers were involved in 103 fatal accidents in which 130 persons were killed.

A great many of the servicemen in Texas are in the 18 to 25 year-old age bracket, said Gen. Edward T. Williams, Fourth Army commander. People in this age bracket generally are the most inclined to have auto accidents.

Gen. Williams urged vigorous enforcement of traffic regulations so that the driver knows he will be caught and punished if he breaks the law.

Brad Smith, director of the Governor's Highway Safety Commission, outlined the five-point program recommended by the governor to improve highway safety.

1. Driver education for all high school students.
2. A law to permit chemical test to determine if a driver is intoxicated.
3. At least 200 additional highway patrolmen.
4. Revision of the drivers license law.
5. A system of traffic courts.

WATER PROGRAM STUDIED — Texas' 7-man Water Development Board is considering whether to ask the next Legislature to expand and liberalize its program of lending financial aid to local water projects.

Decision is to be made at the Board's Oct. 28 meeting.

Board presently has authority to issue $100,000,000 in bonds and use the money to make loans to local governments for water conservation projects. Loans are limited to one-third the cost of the project and cannot be more than $5,000,000 for any one project.

Under study is whether to ask the Legislature to step up the program by authorizing the Board to lend as much as $15,000,000 per project and to issue another $100,000,000 in bonds to purchase water storage space in federal reservoirs.

When the Board was created, the law provided that another $100,000,000 in bonds could be authorized by a two-thirds vote of the Legislature.

DANIEL HONORED — Governor Daniel is the newly-elected chairman of the 16-state Southern Governors Conference.

He is the second Texan in a decade to head the group. Former Gov. Allan Shivers was Conferences are devoted to the study of problems which the member states have in common. This year the protection of home industries, against ruinous competition from imports has been a prime issue.

Governor Daniel said he felt much could be accomplished by the conferring governors "if we stand together."

HURRY-UP HOSPITALS — With a long, long waiting list of mentally retarded patients, the State Hospital Board is studying short cuts toward providing housing for them.

A contractor-member of the Board presented drawings of one possible approach — semi-permanent one-story, concrete block cottages. They would provide for 40 persons, cost $38,000 apiece and could be ready for occupancy in 20 months.

More than 1,000 children are now on the state homes' waiting list.

Board has authorized getting an estimate of the cost of putting an automatic sprinkling system in the Confederate Home in Austin, now used for mental patients. Home has been called a fire trap, but if it could be made safe, the cost of replacing it could be postponed.

Also voted by the Board was a policy of preventing tuberculosis patients, by force if necessary, from leaving state hospitals until they are well enough not to infect other people.

A recent attorney general's ruling held that the hospital system does have authority to make TB patients stay in the hospital until they are no longer contagious.

Large variety of entertainment set for 1960 Oil Show slated for Odessa

ODESSA, TEXAS (special) — "Take 1500 pounds of red beef, about 18,000 pounds of prime beef, 16 washtubs of onions, eight barrels of celery, and a big truck load of bread. Serve it up right, with lots of pickles and olives, and you've got some real good eatin'."

Thus J. D. (Jelly) Henderson, boss of the Odessa Chuck Wagon Gang described the recipe for one of the biggest barbecue feasts ever staged.

FRIDAY! THE GREATEST SIXTY-ONEDERFUL CHEVROLET

Here's the car that reads you loud and clear—the new-size, you-size '61 Chevrolet. We started out by trimming the outside size a bit (to give you extra inches of clearance for parking and maneuvering) but inside we left you a full measure of Chevy comfort. Door openings are as much as 6 inches wider to give feet, knees, and elbows the undisputed right of way. And the new easy-chair seats are as much as 14% higher—just right for seeing, just right for sitting.

Once you've settled inside you'll have high and wide praises for Chevrolet's spacious new dimensions (in the Sport Coupes, for example, head room has been upped as much as 2 inches, and there's more leg room, too—front and rear). Chevy's new trunk is something else that will please you hugely—what with its deep-well shape and bumper-level loading it holds things you've never been able to get in a trunk before.

Yet, generously endowed as this car is with spaciousness and clean-etched elegance, it holds steadfastly to all the thrifty, dependable virtues Chevrolet buyers have come to take for granted. Your dealer's the man to see for all the details.

There's never been a trunk like it before! The floor's recessed more than half a foot and the loading height is as much as 10½ inches lower.

DIVISION OF ESTATES EXPLAINED

The death of an intestate person (one who has made no will) may give rise to many problems regarding distribution of his separate estate. In the preceding column we investigated the manner of dividing the community estate upon the death of a husband or wife. Now we shall see that, where separate property is involved, a completely different set of rules applies in determining heirship and apportioning the estate among the rightful claimants.

It may be well to recall that the separate estate of a husband or wife includes property owned by either before marriage, and that which is acquired after marriage by gift or inheritance. Any other property acquired after marriage is presumed by law to be community property until the contrary is clearly proved.

Now, here is a general idea as how your separate property will be divided if you do not make a will with contrary provisions prior to your death.

If your husband or wife survives and if, in addition, there are surviving children or descendants of previously deceased children, the children and their descendants immediately obtain a full (fee) title in two-thirds of the real estate involved. The surviving spouse receives a life interest in the remaining one-third of the real property, which passes on to the children and their descendants upon the death of the spouse.

The rule for distributing personal property — cash, stocks, bonds, furniture, or any other items not constituting real estate — is different. Here the surviving spouse gets full ownership of one-third, and the children and their descendants inherit the balance.

Now suppose your husband or wife survives, but there are no surviving children or their descendants. In this case the surviving spouse inherits all of the personal property involved.

With regard to real estate, the survivor obtains full title to one-half, and the other half is divided between your mother and father, if both survive you. If only one of them survives, he or she receives only half of this portion, and the other half (or one-fourth of the entire real estate) will be divided among your brothers and sisters (and their descendants) who survive. If there are no surviving brothers and sisters and their descendants, then the one surviving parent inherits the full one-half.

Where no parent survives, but there are brothers and sisters and descendants, the full one-half is divided among these survivors.

And, if there are no parents or brothers and sisters (and their descendants) surviving, then the surviving husband or wife inherits all of the real estate.

Potpourri of features set at Permian oil show

The famed Olson & Johnson act, "Hellzapoppin . . ." starring Chic Johnson, tops a potpourri of entertainment billed for the Permian Basin Oil Show in Odessa, October 20-23.

A special rendition, "Hellzapoppin in the Oil Patch," will be the feature act of the twice-daily variety show during the four-day exposition.

In addition to the perennial funmaking Olson & Johnson Review, the variety show will include a musical comedy act by Pete Pedersen plus other supporting acts.

The variety show is one of five special events scheduled for the oil exposition.

Another spectator event will be spectacular aerial acts at the show grounds three times daily by the Stars of Sweden, a daredevil threesome doing acrobatics more than 100 feet above the ground.

Two dances are to be held nightly: one at the Lincoln Hotel Ballroom with Bob Kyle and orchestra and another at the American Legion Hall with Amos Hedrick's western band.

Climaxing the program will be an Odessa Chuck Wagon Gang barbecue at 5 p.m. Oct. 22 at the show grounds.

Ticket books, for all the entertainment and the barbecue, are currently on sale in the Continental Oil Co. offices in Denver City, and are priced at $2.50 each. Admission to the show grounds, to feature nearly 500 oil industry exhibits, is free.

Rotary drilling upped last week

Rotary drilling activity in Yoakum County showed another sizeable increase last week, according to the weekly survey of active rigs in the Permian Basin by Reed Roller Bit Co., Midland.

According to the survey, taken on Friday, Sept. 30, by the Midland firm, there were seven active units working in Yoakum County compared with just five one week earlier.

Activity throughout the Basin also increased, the survey shows. The latest count of active rigs shows 230 compared with 221 one week earlier. Reed counts only rotary drilling rigs actually making hole.

Lea County, N.M., kept its grip on first place with 30 active units, followed by Andrews County and Winkler County, with 18 and 17 working units, respectively. Tied for fourth place were Eddy County, N. M., and Crane County with 16 active rotaries.

At the same approximate date in 1959, there were 336 units drilling in the West Texas-Southeastern New Mexico fields.

To start with, every Corvair has a budget-pleasing price tag. And Corvair goes on from there to save you even more. With extra miles per gallon . . . quicker-than-ever cold-start warmup so you start saving sooner . . . a new extra-cost optional heater that warms everyone evenly. Riding along with this extra economy: more room inside for you; more room up front for your luggage (sedans and coupes have almost 12% more usable trunk space).

And our new wagons? You'll love them—think they're the greatest thing for families since houses. The Lakewood Station Wagon does a man-sized job with cargo, up to 68 cubic feet of it. The Greenbrier Sports Wagon you're going to have to see—it gives you up to 175.5 cubic feet of space for you and your things.

Corvair's whole thrifty lineup gets its pep from a spunkier 145-cu.-in. air-cooled rear engine. Same rear-engine traction, same smooth 4-wheel independent-suspension ride. See the polished and refined 1961 Corvair first chance you get at your Chevrolet dealer's.

Spare tire is in the rear in coupes and sedans—leaving more luggage space up front.

Even middle-seat passengers sit pretty; thanks to Corvair's practically flat floor.

Now in production—the GREENBRIER SPORTS WAGON with up to twice as much room as ordinary wagons (third seat optional at extra cost).

their choice. At the present time the groups are numbered but it is expected that these numbers will disappear as soon as the clubs decide what name they will call their club. Precinct Number 4 is area Number 1. That is the area to the northeast of Plains. Precinct 1 is area 2, Precinct 2 is area 3, Precinct 3 is area 4 and the south part of the county is area 5.

Area 3 or the north part of Precinct 2 is the group that meets on the night of October 6th. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ancinec are helping with that group and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Tucker have also been asked to help. On Saturday night, October 8th, group number 1 meets with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lowrey, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gray and Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Elmore as the adult leaders in that group.

On Monday night, October 11th, the group to the northwest of Plains will meet assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Pat Henard, Mr. and Mrs. Barron Blair, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Duke and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Pierce. The following night will be the group to the southeast of Plains and three families have been asked to serve as adult leaders for that group. They are: Mr. and Mrs. Neil Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Tingle and Mr. and Mrs. Royce Kelly.

On Wednesday afternoon there will be a meeting at Denver City. The meeting will be in the Community Building at 3:30 p.m. This group will probably be divided into two clubs. Adult leaders who have been asked to help with the Denver City Clubs are: Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Parum, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Sprawls, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Essary, Mr. and Mrs. Elvis McCray, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. Dean McPherson.

A sixth group will meet at Plains which is a group of older 4-H Club members already organized. They are a county-wide group called the Yoakum County General 4-H Club. Adult Leaders for that group are Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hale. This group along with a group of girls at Denver City have been doing some good work and will not be changed. Mrs. Carroll Jones has been working with the girls at Denver City.

These clubs will elect the necessary officers. The president of each club along with one delegate from each club will make up the County 4-H Council. The County Council will meet and organize and their job will be to coordinate the work of the various clubs into a County 4-H Club Program. The Council Chairman plus one delegate from the council members will serve on the District 4-H Council. District meetings will be held in Lubbock with 20 counties represented.

All this has come about through the work of the Texas 4-H Recognition Committee. Representatives of the State 4-H Recognition Committee are Mr. Roy B. Davis and Mr. W. L. Stangel, both of Lubbock. Rep-

1961 Chevys, Corvairs make debut on Friday

The top seller of the 1960 automobiles, Chevrolet, and the ingenious, rear-powered Corvairs will make their 1961 debut at Bill Rountree Chevrolet Co. on Friday, Oct. 7.

Chevrolet has significantly broadened its range of passenger cars for 1961, while the Corvair line has blossomed out in a full line of automobiles, commercial cars, station and sports wagons.

The new Chevrolets will include 20 freshly styled conventional models, complete with new body styling providing easier loading for both passengers and baggage.

Entire body of the new Chevrolet, from roof to floor and from rear bumper to grille, is all new. Prime design emphasis has been placed on functionalism with thrift.

High on the list of advantages of the new body are easier entrance to passenger compartments, larger, more accessible luggage space, improved chair height and over-hood visibility, improved brakes, overlap electric windshield wipers and new placement for the fuel tank to protect it from road hazards.

Although the conventional cars are shorter, narrower and slightly lower, the interior roominess remains about the same or better than comparable 1960 models. Riding comfort is improved.

From a styling standpoint, the new models feature gentle curves and smooth lines and a generally cleaner and airier appearance from all angles. The Corvair models to be unveiled Friday also blossom out into a complete line of passenger and commercial vehicles. They include:

Passenger cars — Club coupes, four-door sedans and a new Lakewood Station Wagon in the "500" and "700" series, plus the deluxe Monza Sport Coupe and the new Greenbrier Sports Wagon.

Commercial — Corvan, Ramp-side and Loadside trucks. Basic mechanical features of the Corvair — the air-cooled engine, combination of transmission and axle at the rear, and frame-body integration — are continued. So is the basic body styling, although exterior ornamentation provides a fresh appearance and the interiors are completely new.

Significant engineering improvements have been made, however, which will greatly improve luggage space, engine performance and fuel economy. Other innovations include a 14-gallon fuel tank; a manual choke and more precise fuel metering to the carburetor; a new pattern of air circulation in the engine compartment to quicken warmup; an increase in engine displacement to 145 cubic inches; an optional 98-horsepower engine and a four-speed transmission.

The spotlight in the Corvair field is expected to center importantly on the new Lakewood Station Wagon and the Greenbrier Sports Wagon. Equipped with six doors and rated for a 1,600-pound payload, the brand new 95-inch wheel-base Greenbrier can readily be converted from a nine-passenger bus to a wide assortment of duties. It can carry six passengers and a 700-pound cargo or, with an optional third seat, nine passengers and 250 pounds of cargo.

The Lakewood Station Wagon is a four-door, conventional type six-passenger model. But, with the second seat folded down, it offers 68 cubic feet of cargo capacity. One exclusive feature is the 10-cubic feet of lockable storage space under the hood.

Bill Rountree extends a cordial invitation to everyone in the Denver City trade area to drop in at the Bill Rountree Chevrolet Co. on West Broadway for a look at the all-new Chevrolets and Corvairs for 1961.

MASSEY HARRIS combine will be on display at the grand opening of the Plains Tractor and Hardware Company.

Dale Carnegie graduates meet

The Dale Carnegie Alumni group met Monday night in the Clubroom for their first informative program. The graduates of the Dale Carnegie course gave impromptu speeches. The topics were drawn shortly before each member spoke to the group.

Topics discussed included leadership, creative thinking, football, winter, Fidal Castro, Khrushchev, trading stamps, and others.

The group plans to form a Dale Carnegie Alumni Association which will meet regularly and carry on the program taught in the regular course. The group has already applied for a charter.

All graduates of the school interested in participating in the new program is urged to contact P. W. St. Romain.

representing Yoakum County and working these two men is Mr. A. E. "Dick" McGinty of Plains. Last winter Dick contacted several people in Yoakum County, made a sizeable contribution himself, and the county quota of $150.00 to the State 4-H Recognition Committee was met for the year. Some of that money was used to help 4-H Leaders in District 2 learn this new approach to 4-H Club Work.

With all these people working with 4-H members in Yoakum County, we should have a program that is second to none. Other things will develop as we move along. One thing has already developed. The adult leaders feel that there is a need for an organized group of leaders. A meeting has been set for October 18th for this purpose.

Baptists to observe Layman's Day Sunday

First Baptist Church will observe Layman's Day on Sunday, October 9, 1960 in cooperation with the Southern Baptist Convention.

The laymen of the church will be in charge of both morning and evening services with the choir being occupied by men under direction of Odus Walsler.

Speakers and their topics for the morning service will be: Paul Cobb, "Serving God With my Possessions"; Emery Longbrake, "Serving God in my Time"; Neil Parks, "Serving God Through Personal Witnessing."

Speakers and their topics for the evening services will be: G. D. Kennedy, "Serving God Through my Vocation"; Gilbert Pierce, "Serving God in my Home"; and Roger Harvey, "Serving God Through my Church."

A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend.

The Church Brotherhood met in regular session Monday evening, October 3 in Fellowship Hall with President Joe Bass in charge.

Rev. Coffman prepared a delicious dinner of roast beef, potatoes in jackets, tossed salad, cake, pie, coffee and tea which was served to about 15 members.

The program was given by R. A. Co-ordinator Neil Taylor and R. A. Leader Elbert Hinkle. Taylor pointed out ways that the Brotherhood can help R. A. work. Hinkle gave some things the boys have done during the past year and explained their plans and goals for the coming year.

The Homemakers Sunday School Class of the church met Thursday evening for their monthly social and business meeting in Fellowship Hall. Retiring president Sylvia Fannin brought the inspiring devotional and conducted the election of new officers. Elected were: President, Glenda Hobbs; Vice President, Helen Nelms; Secretary, Pat Hinkle; Social Chairman, Myrna White; and Group Captain, Jackie Hayes.

Mrs. Coffman gave a short talk on the duties and responsibilities of each officer and installed the new officers.

A ledger was donated to the class by Glenda Hobbs for the purpose of keeping all class records. It was decided to draw names for secret pals and to have a business meeting and social on the last Thursday of each month.

Mrs. Tingle gave a farewell speech to Mrs. Coffman who is leaving the Young Married People's Department to teach in the Young People's Class.

The official name of the class is Homemakers, the class flower is roses, class color is red and white, motto is Proverbs 3:6, class scripture is John 3:16, and class song is "Others". The class voted to have a yearbook which will be dedicated to Mrs. Riley, the first teacher of the class, and Mrs. Coffman, first superintendent of the department.

Myrna White led the recreation program and Mrs. Tingle served punch and cookies.

The Philathea Class surprised Lois Romans with a party and shower Monday evening in the home of Jean Craft with about 30 guests attending.

Refreshments of punch, cake, nuts and mints were served from a lace covered table with an artificial arrangement of roses as a centerpiece. Each plate was decorated with a small stork. Colors of peach and yellow were used.

Hostesses were: Jean Craft, Billie Zoe McCravy, Tommie Brown, Helen Beal, Dorothy Lowe, Melba Fitzgerald and Nora Lou Marshall.

Mrs. Ann Green visited her mother, Mrs. Lydia Graves, in Floydada last weekend as well as other relatives. She also visited her son, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Green in Borger.

Denison of Brownfield who is superintendent of the Brownfield District of the Southwest Conference of Methodist Churches were official visitors in Plains Methodist Church Thursday afternoon, September 29.

VOTE FOR TEXAS

RICHARD M. NIXON, candidate for President, is a Californian, but he thinks the Texas way. Richard Nixon stands for:

- A strong national economy and defense so that America will not have to apologize to Khrushchev for anything;
- A sensible farm program that will attack and solve the present problems.
- Texas retaining its Midlands, and a tax policy favorable to Texas.
- Local control of our schools.

If you will read and compare Nixon's platform to that of his opponent, you will agree that a vote for Nixon is a vote for the best interests of Texas.

"WE GIVE S&H STAMPS"

By Vern Stanford

Keeping up with neighbor Jones is a problem.

But keeping up with the multitude of manufacturers of the various and sundry items for outdoorsmen is many times more difficult. It's expensive, too!

There must be a million different products designed especially for those who hunt, fish, swim, ski, hike, go boating, or just plain camp out.

And—friend wife contends that we already have most of these items.

But the little woman is wrong there. She doesn't know the half of it. There are millions of items we don't have. Trouble with her is that she's looking at the multitude of canceled checks . . . and comparing them with the small bank balance.

However, she is right in many respects. Looking back I find that I do buy nearly every lure that's advertised in the local newspaper. Also I've purchased most of the rods and reels that have been "specialized" in the press. My resistance always weakens when a store runs one of those "introductory" or "special-price" offers. I'm a sucker for such deals. If I can save money I'll buy most anything.

In fact the wife remarked just the other day, that if I didn't quit saving money that way we'd soon be broke. "We just can't afford to save any more," she warned. There's a merchant in our town whose name is Dan. He has three stores. Biggest is a general-merchandise type of store, but it stresses things for the sportsman . . . everything from tees to tents.

He's a big buyer and sells at a small margin of profit. Every time he runs an ad his store swarms with customers. Usually I'm one of them.

I keep our fishing and hunting gear, as well as our boating extras, in a small storeroom in our fishing shack on the lake. I'll admit the room is pretty well packed.

My wife has complained lustily and long about my buying too many outdoors items. My "excuse" has been that I have to keep up-to-date on the products if I'm going to write about them.

But, she found a way to put a stop to all his "foolishness" . . . as she calls it.

She's a pretty clever gal, that woman. When I came in from a recent visit to Dan's—with two or three of about every type of lure that Dan had "specialized" . . . there was a big sign greeted me over the storage room door. Embellished in huge letters was—"Dan's No. 4."

That ended it. I took the hint.

Now I tell Dan to come out to my place on the lake, anytime he runs out of anything—and replenish his stock.

Anyway, if you haven't been reading in this column lately, anything about the latest in everything outdoorwise, that's the reason. But chances are we'll be back again as soon as the storm blows over—just like any avid angler.

Always Carry A Spare

Hookey season is with us again.

If you don't know what we mean, then you've never skipped school to go fishin'.

Maybe we shouldn't be giving the youngsters ideas. They get blamed for enough nowadays. But we'll lay you 2 to 1 they are 10 times better behaved than the kids of '20, even 40 years ago. And they're definitely smarter!

Anyway it's not their fault that, when school doors open, fishing gets better. But it sure does.

However, one doesn't have to cut school to get some good fishing. There is plenty of time on week-ends. And if there's fishing water close by, many an angler finds it possible, and profitable, to get in a few hours of early morning casting before

FARM SUPPLIES are on display at the Plains Tractor and Hardware Company. The firm carries a complete supply of bolts, fittings and other items in the hardware line.

Hales honored with shower

Brilliant autumn colors of brown and orange were used for all appointments when Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hale were honored with a miscellaneous shower Thursday evening, September 29 in the Club Room.

Mr. Hale and the former Miss Dorothy Ancell were married September 24 at Seminole. They are residing at 618 E. 13th St. in Plains.

Special guests were her mother, Mrs. B. M. Ancell, her sister, Miss Pauline Ancell, and her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ancell, all of Seminole; his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hale, and sister-in-law, Mrs. Kenneth Hale and girls, all of Plains.

Many lovely and useful gifts were presented the honorees including the hostesses' gift of a beautiful brown bedspread.

reporting to work. Don't over look the fact that fish bite late in the evening too. Anyway—fall fishing is wonderful!

Are you ready for it? Got the tackle box cleaned up, hooks sharpened, rod carefully checked, reel oiled and new line installed?

What the Fall months mean to you in the way of a successful season depends a great deal on your preparedness. Nothing is more disgusting than to arrive at a choice fishing spot only to discover that you failed to bring along your favorite lures, or your best rod and reel.

So play it safe. Take along a spare R&R whenever and wherever you go fishing.
