

WAIT 'TIL '64

Everyone can now settle back and enjoy their favorite TV program—the national election is over. Both candidates have a good chance of offending the TV public last Saturday night when they usurped Matt Dillon and "Have Gun"—and one can safely say this might have formulated several voters.

In each election the experts give all the trends and signs of how the American public will vote before the big day. Star gazers, IBM brains and poll takers flood the nation's papers with their predictions. In the future the common voter might well be left out and the final choice be left up to the "smart-alec" machines that digest and regurgitate all the material.

And as always after each election there are those who take defeat gracefully and those who beat a loud drum.

And as always both have united behind the chosen leader and supported the people's choice in the problems that face our country.

But never before in the past have the American people had more to lose by not uniting and backing the president-elect. Communism and its allies do not take time out for political differences and elections but keep plowing towards their goal of world domination. We in America will have to forget our political differences until the next four years and turn our thoughts on these and other problems which threaten our way of life.

Library gets state books

The local Yoakum County Library has received the first of several shipments of books being given to them by the state of Texas. The library will receive the remainder of the books due in the next few months. The local library is eligible to obtain $2,500 worth of new books through the state library.

Among the 53 new books in are biographies, fiction, children's books and books on household hints.

Included in the biographies are "Our Foreign Born Citizens", "Lou Gehrig", "They Will Be Done" and others.

In the non-fiction list are books such as "Coronado's Children", written by J. Frank Dobie about the Spanish; "Vision of Glory" by Tecumseh concerning the Indians; and "Mine Eyes Have Seen" by Danile A. Poling, retired minister.

Of interest to local painters are books on how to draw, how to paint in oil, and how to make your own picture frames.

For the sports minded people are "Women's Bowling Guide", "Bowling Guide for All", and "How to Keep Fit".

For the young readers of fiction there are several books on football, flying and romance.

According to the local library staff a good record of readers is continuing. The month of October had for its largest day 84 check outs with 29 check outs being the lowest.

Plains residents are invited to come in any weekday and select books. There is no charge.

City power gets generator, motor

The city has recently installed the new generator and motor for the local light company. The new equipment went into effect this week.

According to Bob Loe, city secretary, the city has now doubled the capacity of their light plant with this new equipment. The new generator is 500 KW with the three old ones having 172 KW each.

The city has worked on the project for over a year. According to Loe and the City Council the public is invited to come by the light plant and inspect the new equipment.

The equipment was paid for by issuing warrants and Loe said the increase revenue received from the city's light company would pay for the warrants. He added that there would be no increase in the light bills to pay for this added service.

Also completed recently is the new water tank and well located west of Plains. Loe said that the city has more than doubled their water capacity since the new well went into operation. The new well pumps approximately 350 gallons of water per minute. The well was connected directly to the main water line which will give the city better water pressure.

Precinct box number 2 in the southwest corner of Plains gave Kennedy the highest per cent of votes with 65 out of 99 votes cast.

The largest majority of votes cast for Nixon was in box 7 with 151 votes differences.

Almost evenly divided between the two candidates was boxes 1 and 4 with Kennedy only leading by 3 votes in each.

TWO WERE INJURED when this pickup burned on farm 20 miles southeast of Plains on Tuesday morning. Injured included four-year-old boy who was riding in rear of truck when butane tank caught fire while it was being reloaded. Truck was demolished as was trailer. Plains and Denver City firemen extinguished dangerous conflagration.

Farm fire injures child

Plains and Denver City Volunteer Fire Departments answered a call about 10:30 a.m. Tuesday to the Burnett Farm one mile west of Pleasant Hill Gin in east Yoakum County.

Mr. Burnett was filling his pickup tank from a storage tank when the flash and fire started. He was uninjured, however his grandson, 4 year old Ruben Lee Ervin, who was with him, suffered severe burns when his clothing caught fire. He was rushed to Seagraves Clinic where he is being treated for first and second degree burns on his legs, face and hands which covered fifteen per cent of his body. He is expected to be released by the weekend. Ruben is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ervin of the Pleasant Hill community.

The pickup and cotton trailer were burned and another trailer nearby was slightly damaged. The storage tank did not burn, however, paint on the Burnett residence was badly scorched before the fire departments arrived. Luckily the wind changed, blowing the flames away from the house.

Statement Concerning Treasurer's Report

There has been a question raised concerning the treasurer's third quarterly report in regard to the Baseball Park Building Funds. The report showed $50,365.17 deposited to Plains Baseball Park and $25,182.58 deposited to Denver City Baseball Park Fund.

To clarify this matter, the bond issue was in the amount of $50,000.00; the 365.17 is interest accumulated. The total amount was deposited in the Plains State Bank and a check was written on this account to transfer 1/2 of the amount ($25,182.58) into the Yoakum County State Bank and was designated as "Denver City Baseball Park Fund." This money was split as ordered by the commissioner's court—50-50.

s/Susan V. Hinkle, Treasurer

The above statement is true. The accounts of Mrs. Susan V. Hinkle, County Treasurer, have been audited and are correct.

s/Bill Moorhead, County Auditor

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

Harvesting time may mean a slow down in the application of Conservation work but it is a very good time to measure the benefits of past conservation work. A. B. Carpenter says cotton on land that has been rotated with soil improving crops such as cow peas really shows up at harvest time.

Cover crop of small grain on T. A. Elmore, W. A. Lansing, Hayden Box, C. A. Stewart and R. E. Bearden farms are looking good. The land covered will be protected from wind erosion next spring, have organic matter added and the condition of the soil improved.

R. E. Bearden has matched thirty acres of his crop land with 3 to five tons of cotton burrs per acre. R. E. has used burrs before and says that besides erosion control his land is improved. He adds fertilizer to the burrs in the spring. H. M. Edwards reports good increase in cotton yield along with erosion control when he used cotton burrs.

New conservation plans are set up on the J. W. O. Alldredge, C. S. Wilkinson, Homer Sudderth farms. New Great Plains programs are in progress on the Homer Sudderth, R. C. Trout, S. C. Wilkinson and C. A. Stewart farms.

T. J. Murphy, R. M. Jones and C. S. Wilkerson plan to start to work on installing under ground pipe soon as crops are harvested.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. St. Roman, Suzhan, Joe and Sam, accompanied by Mrs. M. W. Luna and Mike Culwell, attended homecoming festivities of Eastern New Mexico University at Portales Saturday. They enjoyed an especially fine parade with numerous high school bands from West Texas and Eastern New Mexico participating, a delicious barbecue dinner, and a top-notch football game won by ENMU, over Southwestern of Oklahoma.

Othell Giles and Elsie Nordyke attended the Amarillo market and style show the first part of the week.

You've never driven a heavy-weight that handled like this one!

HERE! EASIER GOING FOR THE DRIVER AND THE LOAD, LONGER LIFE FOR THE TRUCK!

'61 TORSION-SPRING CHEVROLETS

If you don't think scrapping the front axle has made a world of difference, you haven't driven a Chevy in a while. A few minutes behind the wheel and you can feel why drivers are happier and breakable loads are better protected. But the biggest advantage of all, you'll realize, is that the truck itself (sheet metal, tires, chassis components, everything) takes less abuse. With independent front suspension soaking up road shock and vibration, the truck lasts longer, goes extra thousands of miles before trade-in time. Add that to what everybody's always known about Chevy dependability and you find yourself looking CHEVROLET at the soundest truck investment you could bet your business on.

and look! NEW REAR-ENGINE CORVAIR 95's

A panel and two pickups that put a thrifty air-cooled engine in the rear, the driver up front and as much as 1,900 pounds of load space in between! That's more capacity than a conventional half-tonner. Yet these Corvaire 95's are nearly two feet shorter from bumper to bumper. Highly maneuverable. Built to last and bound to save on a busy schedule!

CORVAIR—Side doors open a full 49" wide. Loading height is a low 14" lift!

ACROSS THE Cattle Guard

by LEO W. WHITE
County Agent

Fertilized grain sorghums paid off according to a demonstration carried out this year by Mr. Rufus Brian on his farm southeast of Bronco. He had 3 small fertilized plots and a check plot with no fertilizer at all on it. The fertilizer used on the three plots was 20-20-20, 40-40-0 and 80-40-0. The 80-40-0 was considered the high rate of fertilizer and it made the most grain. It also cost the most money. After the grain was sold he realized a profit of 51c an acre by using fertilizer.

The 40-40-0 plot was considered a medium rate of fertilizer. It produced less grain but cost less money so the profit was greater. This plot made a profit of 85c an acre by using fertilizer. The third plot which was the low rate of fertilizer, 20-20-20, produced less grain than either of the other two but it still produced 600 pounds per acre more than the check plot. This low rate of fertilizer was less expensive and the profits realized from this application was highest of all. The net return from applying this fertilizer came to $2.93 per acre.

The profit from fertilizer depends upon the price received for the product. This year we valued the grain at $1.40 cwt. because that was the market price on the day it was harvested. If the price had been lower the two higher rates would have lost money. The low rate would have still been profitable even at $1.00 cwt. As the price of grain goes up, the profits from these rates begin to change. At $1.75 cwt. the low rate is still the most profitable, the high rate moved up into second place and the medium rate stood last.

Going on up in price to $2.00 cwt. the rate would take first place, followed by the low, then the medium rate. As the price of grain went up and the price of fertilizer remained constant, the high rate would become more profitable and the medium rate would pass the low rate at about $2.30 cwt.

The factors to consider in deciding whether or not to fertilize grain sorghum would be the cost of fertilizer and the price of grain. The low rate of fertilizer used on the Brian Farm gave the most returns at $1.40 cwt. Some farmers have used their grain to feed hogs rather than sell it on the open market. They have determined that they can sell their grain for $2.25 cwt. by running it through some 16c hogs. Even if the market price was only $1.30 or $1.40, but hogs were selling for 16c a pound, then the farmer would be justified in using the high rate of fertilizer rather than the low rate.

These results came from one demonstration carried out during this year. Recommendations cannot be made on the basis of one year of testing. We have two other demonstrations in the county this year. They will be harvested in the near future and the land variation and the weather conditions may cause the other two demonstrations to give results in reverse from those on the Rufus Brian Farm.

One other factor enters in. There may be some carry-over of fertilizer materials in the soil for the 1961 crop. The high rate of fertilizer might give a substantial increase next year whereas the plot that received a low rate in 1960 might give only a slight increase over the non-fertilized plot. If one application of 80-40-0 will give a 1,000 pound increase the first year, there is a possibility that it could give a 600 pound increase during the second year. If this is the case then the high rate would be much more profitable than the low rate.

Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie Green and children of Lubbock visited her folks, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Perkins, and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bearden, Ricky and Rhonda, at Tokio Sunday. Both Mr. and Mrs. Green, the former Jaunelle Clananah, are graduates of Plains High School.
