Henry Harle and family left for Azle Saturday in response to a message telling of the death of Samuel Weldon Hanna, 51, husband of Mrs. Harle's sister. Hanna was killed about 2 p. m. Saturday when a truck he was driving collided with a parked car about 3 miles south of Huntsville. He was driver for the Marcus Chemical Co. and was trapped beneath the truck containing 3,500 gallons of Molasses. A spokesman said that Hanna's 1½ years with the company were "Accident free." The Sacramento, Calif., family in the car escaped serious injury.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Abbott returned from Big Spring Sunday where they were called Friday due to the serious illness of her son, Wayne Parsons, who was injured when he suffered a blackout and fell to the sidewalk sustaining serious head injuries. He was reported improved but will be confined to the hospital for some time.

Miss Garrett And Mr. Beeler Wed In Fort Worth

Miss Linda Jane Garrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Garrett, became the bride of Tom Lee Beeler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Beeler of Fort Worth at 7 p. m. Monday, Sept. 2, in a ceremony performed in the home of the bride's cousin, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Adderly, of Fort Worth. The bride is a 1963 graduate of Carbon High School and her husband is a graduate of Technical High School in Fort Worth and attended Arlington Colleges.

The couple will make their home in Fort Worth where he is employed with Mrs. Bairds Bakery.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Garrett and daughter, Sharon, and Mrs. Garland Garrett were in Fort Worth to attend the Wedding.

The bride was honored with a shower in the annex of the Methodist Church Saturday evening from 7:30 to 9:30. She received many beautiful and useful gifts which were displayed on a table laid in white centered with a miniature bride. Debbie Garrett, cousin of the bride registered the guests in the blue satin covered bride's book and guests were served fruit punch, cookies and mints on arrival.

Hostesses for the occasion were mes Hubbard Gilbert, Howard Gilbert, Jimmy Hughes, Luther Reese, W. M. Medford, Glenn Justice, W. R. Ussery, Truman Been, Garland Garrett, Marshall Berry, Travis Spence and Henry Collins.

Mrs. Harris Dies At 79; Funeral Is Held Saturday

Mrs. Willie Davis Harris, 79, passed away early Saturday morning, August 30, in the Gorman Hospital after undergoing surgery earlier in the week.

Funeral services were held Saturday at 3 p. m. in the First Baptist Church with Rev. Lee Fields officiating. Music was furnished by the quartet composed of Henry Lovell, H. A. Tyrone, Mrs. Ed Stacy and Frank Park. Burial was in Murray Memorial Cemetery with Higginbotham Funeral Home of Gorman directing.

Born Jan. 25, 1884 in Webster Parish, La., she was married to H. B. Harris April 18, 1901 in Columbia Co. Ark. and they came to Texas settling in Eastland County in 1912. The family had resided in Carbon many years, Mrs. Harris preceding her in death several years ago. Mrs. Harris had been a member of the Baptist Church since early youth.

Survivors include: a son, Gilford of Carbon; a daughter, Riesel, Lohrer of Gorman; two daughters, Mrs. R. D. Craighead of Rt. 2, Gorman, Mrs. LeRoy Craighead of Colorado City, three brothers, Archie Jackson of Carbon, Alma Jackson of Bowieville, Ark., Jim Jackson of Brownfield; two sisters, Mrs. T. G. Wood of Colorado City and Mrs. Hoyl Reed of Carbon; two half-brothers, Edward Jackson of Gorman and William Jackson of Gorman; two half-sisters, Mrs. Joseph Capers of Eastland and Mrs. Geneva Taylor of Gorman; her step mother, Mrs. Leon Jackson of Carbon; 6 grandchildren, and 2 great grandchildren. One son and two daughters preceded her in death.

Pallbearers were Lavern Jackson, J. E. Jackson, Drew Dan Jackson, Harold Caudle, Pat Boatler and Merritt Dunn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bigby attended her parents, Mr. and children of Fort Worth visited Mrs. Henry Collins during the weekend.

Thank You

I wish to take this method to thank my friends of Carbon and surrounding area for their many kindnesses during my long stay here. As I go to my new place of residence I will always remember each of you with the kindest regards. Especially do I thank the members of my Sunday School class for the nice gift you remembered me with and for all the class has meant to me during my attendance. May God be with each of you.

Several New Home Owners In Carbon

Several property owners have changed hands here during the past few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Abbott who recently sold their home in the west part of town to Rufus Groves of Odessa, have bought the Carl Knight place and are moving into the home this week. Mr. and Mrs. Truman Mahan and daughter, Diane are moving from Gorman into the home purchased from Gene Butler. The Mahan family formerly lived here and friends welcome them back to Carbon. Leonard Bledsoe and family have moved into the Mary Phillips home which they bought a few weeks ago. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jumper of Houston are the new owners of the E. R. Trimble home and will occupy it soon. Carbon citizens are glad to welcome all the new comers and property owners.

Word has been received here of the death of Thurman Taylor, 53, of Jal, N.M., who died of a heart attack Saturday, August 24. Burial was in Memory of God Cemetery in Hobbs August 26. Mr. Taylor, who was production foreman for Texaco, formerly lived here and will be remembered by many who regret to hear of his death.

O. Stone has returned home after an extended visit with his son, Sam Stone, and family of Spokane, Wash.

Last Rites For Tom W. Bryant Held Wednesday

Funeral services for Tom Wesley Bryant, 71, were held Wednesday at 3 p. m. in the First Baptist Church with Rev. Jim Turner, pastor of Loraine First Baptist Church, officiating assisted by Rev. Wilkins of Mountain Top Pentecostal Holiness Church and Rev. Bobby Froe, pastor of Carbon Baptist Church.

Burial in Murray Memorial Cemetery was directed by Higginbotham Funeral Home of Gorman.

Mr. Bryant passed away Tuesday at 9:45 a. m. in Eastland Memorial Hospital after several years of illness.

Born Jan. 26, 1892 at Albany, Miss., he married Minnie Coleman in Comanche Oct. 8, 1912. He was a retired farmer and was a former constable of Gorman.

Survivors are his wife; four sons, Troy of Granbury, Eddie of Cisco, Adren of Gorman and Truman of Carbon, two daughters, Mrs. T. H. Eubanks of Fort Worth and Mrs. Sam Walker of Cisco; 13 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Dulan Sandlin, Douglas Cates, Gaylon Warren, Marvin Hale, Everett Martin and Coda McDaniel.

Mrs. W. J. Greer of Carbon gave me the recipe for "5-Cup Salad," back in the spring, and I've enjoyed the recipe so much that I thought I would pass it on to you.

"5 CUP SALAD"

- 1 Cup small marshmallows
- 1 Cup pineapple chunks
- 1 Cup cocoanut (shredded)
- 1 Cup sour cream
- 1 Cup mandarin oranges

Mix all ingredients together. Chill overnight. Serve on lettuce leaf.

Sour cream does a lot for salads, whether it's blended into the dressing or made into the salad itself. Besides giving the salad its unique flavor, sour cream adds the nutrients found in milk, too.

Surprisingly, sour cream is just as delicious with fruits as with vegetables, so keep sour cream on hand to try in new and tempting ways. You may want to serve the family cucumbers and cream, as a relish or salad with any summer meal. Your favorite head lettuce salad will be delicious with sour cream thousand island dressing, and it's so easy to make.

Here's how you make it: Combine 1 cup dairy sour cream with 3 tablespoons chili sauce, 2 tablespoons chopped green pepper, 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento, 2 tablespoons chopped sweet pickle and a dash of salt. Mix well and chill thoroughly before serving over head lettuce.

The next time you are looking for something different for a salad, try using sour cream.

Beautiful Miss Linda Loftis Well Equipped For Pageant

Miss Linda Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jackson, will represent Carbon in the Peanut Bowl Beauty contest. Linda is an accomplished pianist and her favorite sport is basket ball. A junior in High School, she is a cheer leader and loves football.

Miss Linda Loftis, past Miss-Texas and present Miss Beautiful, will share the spotlight when the nominees for Miss Peanut Bowl compete on the stage of the Majestic Theater in the Peanut Bowl Pageant Tuesday, September 10.

Eleven Eastland county girls will compete for the honor her recent reign as Miss Texas.

Since ending her reign in 1962, Linda has been busy doing singing engagements, making appearances, and doing radio and television work. These things she has done in addition to graduating from Texas Christian University with a bachelor's degree in music.

Entered thus far in the county beauty contest are Jan Taylor of Eastland, Verna Napier of Olden, and Joyce Elaine Rainey of Desdemona.

During the summer of 1962, she sang the starring role in Sigmund Romberg's "Desert Song" at the Casa Manana, in Fort Worth. At the end of the summer season, Linda was voted "Best Actress" of the season. She was invited back to the Miss America Pageant as a special guest in 1962 and was featured vocalist on the final night of the TV program.

At the present time Linda is making commercials for the Rambler Automobile Company.

She was special soloist for the Van Cliburn International Piano Competition. She appeared in the Southwestern Exposition and Rodeo opening each performance with the National Anthem and also appeared at Huntsville Prison Rodeo, and twice at the Santa Rosa Round-Up on the Waggoner Estate in Vernon.

In April she sang at the Rotary National Convention in Atlanta, Georgia, and was invited to sing for the International Convention of Rotary to be held in 1964 in Toronto, Canada.

The first week of June, Linda was soloist for the Southern Baptist Convention in Ridgecrest, North Carolina. After that she went to Atlantic City, N. J. to sing for the Kiwanis Convention there. Following this, she returned to Fort Worth to star in the Rogers and Hammerstein Production of "Cinderella" at the Casa Manana.

During the remainder of this summer, Linda has done concert work in San Antonio and Dallas, advertising appearances in Houston and other cities. She is at present the soloist at Glorietta Encampment in New Mexico.
