by Johnnie Moore

It probably isn't true that the Kennedy clan invented the theory of relativity.

About April 15 each year, we find we owe our success to Uncle Sam.

Why doesn't the Department of Internal Revenue offer us our money back if we aren't satisfied.

When making out your income tax report, be sure you don't overlook your most expensive dependent -- the government.

I BEG TO DIFFER -- The income tax is almost due. It's amazing to admit The things one finds to do Before attempting it.

A neck is something which if you don't stick it out you won't get in trouble up to.

Sign discovered on a tree near a pond in Maine: "Anyone found near this private trout pond will be found there next morning."

Jamaica forbids the importation of switchblades (at least one country is doing something about disarmament).

Plains coaches tell us there seems to be a lessening of interest in the school athletic program about this time every year on the part of local fans.

It seems to us that we, the fans, are overlooking something. This is the time of year the high school boys are working out for track and field events.

Jack Pierce tells us, we have some boys who are just liable as not to go to the state meet this year in some events.

Our school athletic program is supposedly designed, as should all programs of high school sports, to help build in our young men and women such things as character, competitive spirit, fair play and the like.

Certainly there is no area of sports where the individual initiative and individual ability of young people is called for more than in track and field events.

We think it would be a real honor for some representatives from Plains to attend the Austin meet. Why don't we take a little more interest and help spur the boys on to the very best they have in them.

and included David Box, Sue Spencer, Billy Spencer, and Adult leaders, Mrs. Frank Spencer, Mrs. Shorty Coke lending a helping hand.

National 4-H Club Week

March 3-10, 1962 More than 2, 296,000 4-H Club members in the United States will observe National 4-H Club Week from March 3 to 10. These Head, Heart, Hands, and Health youth, 10 to 21 years old, belong to about 93,000 local clubs in all 50 States and Puerto Rico. Their latest records show 3,843,092 projects completed in a single year in the urban, suburban, and rural areas where they live.

Aims of National 4-H Club Week are to:

Give members a special chance to measure progress and set new goals.

Influence more young people to join or form 4-H Clubs. Acquaint more parents with 4-H and enlist their aid.

Encourage able, youth-minded citizens to volunteer as local leaders.

Expand public understanding of 4-H objectives and methods, and gain increased support for year-round activities.

Spotlight this year's emphasis on learning to live and serve with others in the home and community.

Recognize the important part played by Friends of 4-H, locally and nationally, and express appreciation to them.

How 4-H Week Will Be Observed:

Plans in local areas will include occasions where club members, 4-H alumni, and volunteer leaders will be guests and speakers. Civic and service clubs, farm organizations, schools and churches, and other groups will arrange for talks by 4-H'ers and former 4-H'ers, and programs shared by parents, leaders, extension agents, and others who help with club work. Newspaper and radio and television stations will carry 4-H news and features. Exhibits illustrating typical activities will be prepared and displayed in store windows and other prominent places.

4-H Report to the Nation:

A group of representative club members will spend part of the week in Washington, D. C., giving the annual 4-H "Report to the Nation." The 4-H'ers will visit the White House, and meet members of Congress, top Government officials, and other national leaders in business, industry, and educational fields. The young men and women will also appear on radio and television programs and in press interviews to tell about 4-H accomplishments of the past year and about plans ahead. After a short stay in the Capital, they will go elsewhere for a few days to meet with other friends of 4-H.

The week's program for delegates is arranged by the Federal Extension Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture in cooperation with the National 4-H Service Committee, Chicago; and the National 4-H Club Foundation, Washington, D. C. The Conrad Hilton Hotel, Chicago, finances the trip.

City Is Taking Census Survey

Loe further pointed out that should anyone be missed in this census, that it would be greatly appreciated if the fact would be made known by calling City Hall so that the information could be obtained on all local citizens.

Local Prisoner Escapes Jail

A 30-year old inmate of Yoakum County Jail in Plains managed to kick his way to freedom last Saturday afternoon, March 3, between the hours of 4 and 6 p. m.

James P. Roberts, five-foot eleven-inch, 200 pound, half-breed Indian, managed to knock a hole in the wall of the juvenile ward of the county jail.

Deputy Sheriff, Olan Heath, explained that Roberts had been placed in the juvenile ward because of some faulty plumbing in the regular jail. Heath said it would be most unlikely that anyone would be able to escape from the security part of the local jail.

Roberts had been apprehended in the theft of a saddle belonging to Charlie Thomas of Denver City. The saddle was recovered successfully, and since this was Roberts' first offense, opinion was that even as little as a 90-day jail sentence might possibly be meted out for this count.

Roberts has a wife and two children in the Lamesa area, a mother in Amarillo and a father in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Opinion is that he will be apprehended when he tries to make contact with one or other of his relatives.

An F.B.I. bulletin has been issued by local authorities who are hoping for a quick return of the prisoner.

Bracero Situation Coming To Head

Last week a very important meeting was held in Midland, which was widely attended by representatives from the South Plains area.

The meeting was in connection with the current problem of the availability of farm laborers in this immediate area as well as many other areas of Texas and the Southwest.

Jerry R. Holleman, Assistant Secretary of the Department of Labor of the United States was present at the meeting on something of a fact-finding visit to the area.

Main topic of discussion was a proposed minimum hourly wage boost for Mexican National Laborers (Braceros) from the present standing rate of 50 cents to a proposed 70 cents.

Tenor of the Wednesday meeting might be summarized: Holleman has emphasized in the past that the Mexican nation program is "... on its way out."

Following are portions of Labor Department notice:

"Section 503 of ... Agricultural Act, as amended, prohibits making Mexican nationals available ... unless he (Secretary of Labor) has certified that (1) sufficient domestic workers who are able, willing, and qualified are not available at the time and place needed, (2) employment of such workers will not adversely affect the wages and working conditions of domestic agricultural workers, (3) reasonable efforts have been made to attract domestic workers ...

"The information available to the Secretary of Labor raises a question as to whether he can determine and certify that the employment of Mexican nationals will not adversely affect the wages and working conditions of domestic agricultural workers ... unless the Mexican workers are paid not less than seventy cents per hour. At the meeting in Midland many spokesmen told Holleman that the feeling was that it was grossly unfair not to take into consideration such things as free medical care, housing and transportation. It was also

Fire Department Needs Volunteers

Bill Hennington, Plains Fire Chief, announced this week that a drive for new members is on in connection with the local volunteer fire department.

Hennington pointed out that at present there are 18 active members of the local fire department and that a full one-half of those members have jobs in which they are not usually available within the city during the daylight hours.

New members are desperately needed so that the department can be assured of being adequately manned at all hours of the day and night.

All persons interested in becoming members of the volunteer group are urged, by Hennington, to come to the City Hall any Monday evening. Fire drill begins each Monday at 7:30 p. m.

Washington—The National Institutes of Health have allotted $1,201,925 of taxpayers' money to find out why a baby monkey loves his mother.

IT'S YOUR MONEY THE MONKEYS LOVE

Out of the wilderness of Washington there comes a report that the government is spending more than a million dollars to find out if and why monkey loves his mother.

Specifically, the National Institutes of Health, operated by the Public Health Service, are going to spend 1,201,925 of the taxpayers' dollars for a monkey study of "the affectional relationship of the infant monkey to his mother."

The government is planning on this monkey business at a time when the federal deficit amounts to billions of dollars a year and the public debt near $300 billion.

Now all these years, while the deficit was piling up, we'd gone along with the idea that baby monkeys love their mamas very much.

For verification, we got in touch with Joseph Davis, associate curator of mammals at the New York Zoological Park. Said Mr. Davis:

"Of course baby monkeys are affectionate. They have a very close relationship with their mothers. Most baby monkeys cling to their mamas for several months before being separated by even as much as a few inches."

Next question, Uncle Sam.

Yoakum County Co-Op Gin Report

Latest meeting of the Yoakum County Co-Op Gin Association showed that in all departments it is proceeding very well. Committed acreage has passed 4,000 acres of cotton and the purchase of 1st preferred stock is progressing well. Interest to be paid on 1st preferred stock will be 8%.

In the latest association meeting it was decided to concentrate on the Split Stream Gin of 15 to 18 bales per hour capacity in view of the estimated final total number of acres and to meet the demands of the area.

The new gin is to be located 9 miles southwest of Plains on the Lovington Highway. It will be connected directly with the Co-Op Oil Mill, Co-Op Compress, and Plains Cooperative Cotton Association.

Directors are trying to contact all farmers in the area, however a good many have been missed, but they will be contacted as soon as possible.

All persons who are interested, but have not been contacted are asked to call any one of the Directors.

Texas Needy Families Share In Farm Abundance

The candle burns dimly for folks with empty stomachs. But life was brighter in 1961 for at least 211,729 needy Texas citizens who were given a chance to share in America's farm abundance, points out William Herndon, Texas Department of Public Welfare, Austin.

"Never before have we felt we could do so much for folks who stand in need," Herndon says.

During the last year, Herndon's office directed distribution of 52,799,075 pounds of 12 important foods donated by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The food was given to eligible families, by county and local welfare organizations on the basis of need.

Under the program, USDA donates the surplus and other foods, as requested by Herndon and welfare directors in other states. State and local officials determine who is eligible to receive it and pay all costs of distribution within the state.

In general, recipients include persons who are receiving public assistance, those who are unemployed, or whose low income makes it impossible for them to buy foods necessary to maintain diets essential for good health.

In 1961, victims of Hurricane Carla received 1.6 million pounds of USDA food, under provisions of the program that permit use of the foods for emergency feeding.

The donated foods must meet strict specifications for quality, explains John J. Slaughter, Dallas, Slaughter is Southwest area supervisor of USDA's food distribution division, a part of the Agricultural Marketing Service.

He points out that all USDA foods are labeled differently from any similar products on retail markets and cannot be sold in regular food-trade channels.

USDA-donated foods distributed to needy Texans in 1961 included about 3,783,320 pounds of dry beans; 1,659,392 pounds butter; 9,234,650 pounds cornmeal; 887,875 pounds dried eggs; 11,554,550 pounds flour; 4,349,844 pounds lard; 2,173,306 pounds chopped meat; 9,161,208 pounds dry milk; 1,519,272 pounds rolled oats; 1,111,262 pounds peanut butter; 2,373,100 pounds pork and gravy; and 4,985,296 pounds of rice.

Valentine Boom NEW YORK (UPI) — American publishers began selling valentines in 1840. By 1857, over three million valentines were sold in the United States, retailing from three cents to $30 apiece. Card manufacturers predict that 600 million valentines will be sent this year in the United States.

Wonderful for morning coffee get-togethers or for leisurely weekend breakfasts with the family, this Raisin Orange Coffee Cake can be made in short order. It is a taste-surprising quick bread that combines plump California raisins and frozen orange juice concentrate for flavor; and a crumbly brown sugar, cinnamon and butter topping adds the sweet touch that makes this bread so popular.

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Toby Monday's father was a locksmith in Fort Scott, Kan., which is the reason his hobby for 41 years has been collecting keys of all sizes and shapes.

Monday figures he has 5,000 and many locks that fit them. He has a 30-pound padlock, its case about a foot square with an inch-thick steel shackle.

He has a heavy lock of German nickel silver, sculptured in the form of a gargoy-like face, its mouth open. The lock came from a drawbridge across a mountain stream in Switzerland.

When the key is inserted in the mouth and turned, a bell rings.

AGRONOMY -- Crop Residue Use. Cotton burs to be added to cropland. Mr. Newsom and son, Doyle, leaders in movement to get burs returned to land.

Cotton Burs For Soil Improvements

Research at the Lubbock Station shows that for every ton of burs applied to the land we can expect an increase of 36 lbs. lint cotton per year for 3-5 years. Water utilization by the growing cotton plant is more efficient by about a third.

The main value obtained from applying burs to the soil appears to be an increase supply of food nutrients to the plant following the breaking down of the burs by organisms in the soil.

Generally the organic content of our soil is low in Texas. This need not cause alarm if we add at regular intervals organic residues. What is organic residue or organic matter? It is the results of the decomposition of plant and animal materials by soil organisms. Organic matter improves soil structure with a corresponding increase in water holding capacity. Organic matter granulates loose open sandy soils to give them friable, crum structure. Organic matter serves as a storage facility for mineral nutrients such as calcium, magnesium, nitrogen and many others. It helps in root development of young plants. Burs are also very effective in erosion control. They can be used as both a mulch and a source of organic matter if nitrogen is applied when planting the next crop to off set that being used by the organisms in the process of decaying the burs.

Thanks to Lubbock Sub-Station #8 for information.

A school teacher aunt was questioning her nieces and nephews about their schoolwork. To the youngest, six-year-old Brenda, she said: "What are you going to take in school when you start next year?" "My lunch," was the quick reply.

Official Memorandum By Price Daniel

GREETINGS:

The development of citizens and leaders for America is a high purpose in 4-H Club work. The 4-H program stresses the development of head, heart, hands and health as well as teaching the latest practices in agriculture and home economics.

Since the 4-H program was inaugurated by the United States government in 1914, the 4-H movement has spread across our nation and established bridges of understanding to more than 50 foreign countries. 4-H Club members learn by conducting result demonstrations and participating in 4-H activities. By putting into action what they learn, club members improve their homes and communities.

Voluntary adult leaders working with club members provide a key to the success of 4-H. Parents and friends of 4-H give support and encouragement to club members. The Agricultural Extension Service of the A & M College of Texas, through County Extension Agents, direct the 4-H Club program.

Any boy or girl from ages nine to twenty-one can take part in 4-H Club work. The opportunities offered to 4-H Club members to grow in citizenship, leadership and practical skills are especially valuable to them, to the State and the Nation. 4-H Clubs are a proving ground for the training of future leaders.

THEREFORE, I, as Governor of Texas, do hereby designate the week of March 3 - 10, 1962, as 4-H CLUB WEEK in Texas. In official recognition whereof, I hereby affix my signature this 25 day of Jan., 1962, Governor of Texas.

ATTEND CHURCH Every Sunday

The Church Is Your Guide-Post
To Better Living.

The Churches Of Plains Welcome You

ABIDING FAITH

In the quiet safety of her own home she is learning to pray, to trust in God. As she grows older she will learn that other people pray too; that other people have faith.

Sunday School will thrill her from the very first day, and her faith will grow as she learns more of the Heavenly Father's love. The Church, with its beautiful sanctuary, its inspiring music, its worshipful atmosphere, will give her a sense of reverence, of nearness to God.

As she grows, her love for the Church and for God will grow, too. All through life the faith she learned when she was a tiny girl will provide a sanctuary and protect her during the many trials of life.

Are YOU helping YOUR child acquire this abiding faith?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Formby Attacks State Policies

DALLAS - Speaking before the Farm Bureau in Dallas today, Marshall Formby said that Texas should be operating on a cash basis and said that if he were elected Governor, under his administration the state would never operate in the red.

"There is no excuse for the state government to operate in the red as it has been doing the last four years," Formby said. "Just because Washington is trying to spend itself to death is no reason for the Texas state government doing so. The Governor has many powers he can use to keep the state in the black - such as recommending reasonable programs and the use of the veto. Texas can be run on a cash basis -- in the black -- and I intend to see that so run when I am Governor."

"I guess I am old-fashioned, but I was taught to spend less than I took in and was led to believe that a unit of government should do the same. When I was County Judge of Dickens County back when I was very young - in the late thirties, with the help of my County Commissioners and others in the courthouse, we put the county on a cash basis and gave Dickens County citizens the lowest tax rate in 22 years. I firmly believe that if a County can be put on a cash basis and taxes lowered during the depression years that surely during these years of plenty we can put the State of Texas back on a sound economical basis and have a positive administration with NO DEFICIT SPENDING."

He emphasized that Texans must fight their own battles against inflation, against small thinking, and battles to whip the water problems. "One of the hardest things for most of us to realize is that we are living in a changing Texas. The rural population is growing smaller and the cities are growing fast. The feeding out of cattle and other livestock is fast becoming important to the economy of Texas. Farm machinery has cut down on the number of persons required to farm our land," he said. Texas is a 'natural' for feeding our cattle, hogs and sheep. We haven't made full use of our agricultural potentials.

Marshall Formby, Plainview attorney and Candidate for Governor of Texas, will make his first Statewide TV appearance on Marcy 1. His broadcast will be carried on 18 State TV Stations.

their homes and communities in the rural and non-rural areas where they live. Some of the fastest growing projects are: Community and public affairs, farm and home management, marketing and business, horticulture, and nutrition. In urban and suburban areas, popular projects include choosing a career, automotive care and safety, bicycle care and maintenance, home improvement, electricity, foods and clothing, and dog husbandry. In their "learn by doing" activities, 4-H'ers are taught to apply the latest research in agriculture, home economics, and other fields. If you are interested contact local agricultural agent or Co, Home Dem. Agent, Who Conducts 4-H Club Work: The club program is a part of the national educational system of cooperative extension work in which the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the State land-grant colleges, and the counties share. The Federal Extension Service gives national leadership and the State Extension Services give State leadership to the program. Nearly 310,700 men and women serve as unpaid volunteer local leaders, and are assisted by about 113,000 older club boys and girls called junior leaders. Yoakum County leaders total to 50.

On the 4-H Team: Two non-government organizations helping to further 4-H are the National 4-H Club Foundation, 7100 Connecticut Avenue, Washington 15, D. C., and the National 4-H Service Committee, 59 East Van Buren Street, Chicago 5, Ill.

The National Committee devotes its time to 4-H members, volunteer club leaders, county Extension agents, donors and other 4-H friends. It enlists the aid of business and civic organizations to provide 4-H awards and educational materials, and coordinates the efforts of donors in line with Extension policies and needs. It issues a national 4-H magazine, holds each year's 4-H Club Congress, handles a 4-H supply service, and performs numerous other functions.

Service to youth through programs in citizenship education, leadership development, and international understanding is the purpose of the 4-H Foundation. The Foundation raises funds to assist 4-H, operates the National 4-H Center, holds citizenship short courses for 4-H members and leaders from the States, sponsors volunteer 4-H leader forums, studies ways to get more science in 4-H, and conducts the International Farm Youth Exchange, "IFYE" is a people-to-people program between youth of many lands. Friends of 4-H:

Valued support is given the 4-H program by scores of national and local leaders in business, industry, education, and other fields. Numerous firms, foundations, organizations, and private generously provide funds for incentive awards which challenge 4-H members and leaders alike to greater achievement.

The important contributions of 4-H friends in small and large communities through out the Nation, promote 4-H in the United States and around the world. The 4-H plan has been adapted so that 4-H clubs or 4-H-like groups exist in more than 50 other countries. One way people in other lands have become acquainted with the 4-H program is through "IFYE." In 1961, about 220 outbound and inbound young people from 42 countries participated.

More information on 4-H, or 4-H Week, is available from any County Extension Service office, the Cooperative Extension Service of any State land-grant college, or the Federal General Extension Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. 4-H 163.

Perspiration and dirt affect the fibers in socks. Wash the socks promptly after wearing. Roll them in a terry towel. This speeds drying and helps prevent shrinkage.

A pinch of baking soda added to whipping cream will prevent a sour taste when it is whipped.

Put stale or dry rolls in a pressure cooker with a very small amount of water. Bring the pressure up and let it cool before you remove the rolls. This makes them fresh-tasting again.

A paper towel placed over brown sugar will help keep the sugar moist and lump free, provided the sugar is stored in an airtight can.

pointed out that many farmers guarantee their braceros $4 daily even if they are unable to work because of weather or such.

The contention was that in many instances many braceros are already receiving, counting all benefits, seventy cents or more. Feeling was further that to make the base pay seventy cents an hour would work a severe hardship on much area farming activity.

It was further pointed out that in the opinion of many representatives present at the meeting that the 70 cent figure would not be the stopping place, but that it was just a stepping stone toward the eventual "unionization" of farm labor that the Labor Department is believed to be heading.
