Children are angels whose wings grow shorter as their legs grow longer.

It is said that wise men never criticize ladies where the ladies can overhear the criticism.

The difference between a statesman and a politician is that the first is working for the public, while the second has the public working for him. Miami News

Small fry to father -- "How come soda pop will spoil my dinner and martinis give you an appetite?"

From the pages of Industrial Press Release comes a very timely editorial, one which we think needs reprinting in every newspaper in the country.

The title of the Press's editorial is "The Crucial Ball Game." It goes like this:

"Almost any day now, the Administration's tax bill for 1963 goes to bat in the House of Representatives.

The proponents of the legislation say it's planned to assure an increase in the economic growth of the U. S. A. -- also, they say, it would cut down unemployment.

But American industry -- whose job it is to provide the growth and create jobs -- insists that this is precisely what the bill will NOT do.

The country's best business minds report that this bill offers tax subsidies to those who follow Government wishes, and tax penalties for those who don't.

But here's the catch: The bill fails to provide any of the new capital necessary to finance growth or new jobs!

What industry strongly advocates is enactment of the Herlong-Baker tax rate reform bill which would lower personal and corporation income taxes to a maximum of 47 per cent by a series of five annual reductions.

OK, taxpayers -- fire off that letter or telegram to your Representatives now -- and let 'em know you want that Administration-backed tax bill put out NOW!"

New Scout Facilities Sought

Very tentative plans and some high hopes for the possibility of constructing a new scout hut to be used jointly by the local explorer post, scout troop and cub pack were revealed this week.

A committee of three, Johnnie Moore, Gene Young and G. D. Kennedy, was appointed by Plains Lions Club boss Lion, James Warren, to look into the possibilities of such a construction.

Tentative plans for the structure called for a building of from 40 x 40 feet to one of about 50 x 60 feet. Reason for the possibility of making the structure larger than the originally planned 40 x 40 was explained as looking into the chances of making the large room in the structure big enough for the local Lions Club to use as their regular bi-monthly meeting place and for the possible rental to banquets and such.

Estimated cost for the original 40 x 40 building was put at $5,800, if all the materials were furnished by the builder. Opinion was that many of the materials might possibly be donated and furnished by several different concerns in this area.

Anyone interested in this very worthy project are invited to make it known to one of the members of the above mentioned committee.

FFA Boys To Lubbock

March 19, 20 FFA boys traveled to Lubbock to the South Plains Junior Fat Stock Show. They made tours of the Calf, pig, and sheep barns then watched Mr. W. L. Stangle judge Angus classes and two Hereford classes. The boys on the Livestock judging team sharpened their views on two lamb classes. This was just practice judging to get prepared for the district FFA livestock judging contest on April 28, at Texas Tech.

Disposal Well Is Drilled

It was announced that a commercial disposal well, in the opinion of many the first of many, has been completed near Plains to be used for the disposal of formation brine water. The well is located two and one-half miles north of Plains on the Bronco Highway.

Owner and operator of the injection type unit is Roger C. Hanks, who has dubbed the well Dunnigan No. 1.

It was also announced that there would be storage facilities available with the unit.

This reportedly the type unit, Mr. Ed Reed, the hydrologist retained by the Yoakum County Water Conservation Association to determine and present to the Texas Railroad Commission the amount of and danger of the pollution taking place in our water supply due to open pit dumping of these brine wastes, has stated must be used to prevent pollution.

The well is scheduled to be in operation by this coming Monday it was reported.

Lions Camp On TV Friday

In last week's issue of the Record, some pictures and an article appeared which were reprinted from the Kerrville Times of Kerrville, Texas near which is located the Texas Lions Crippled Children's Camp.

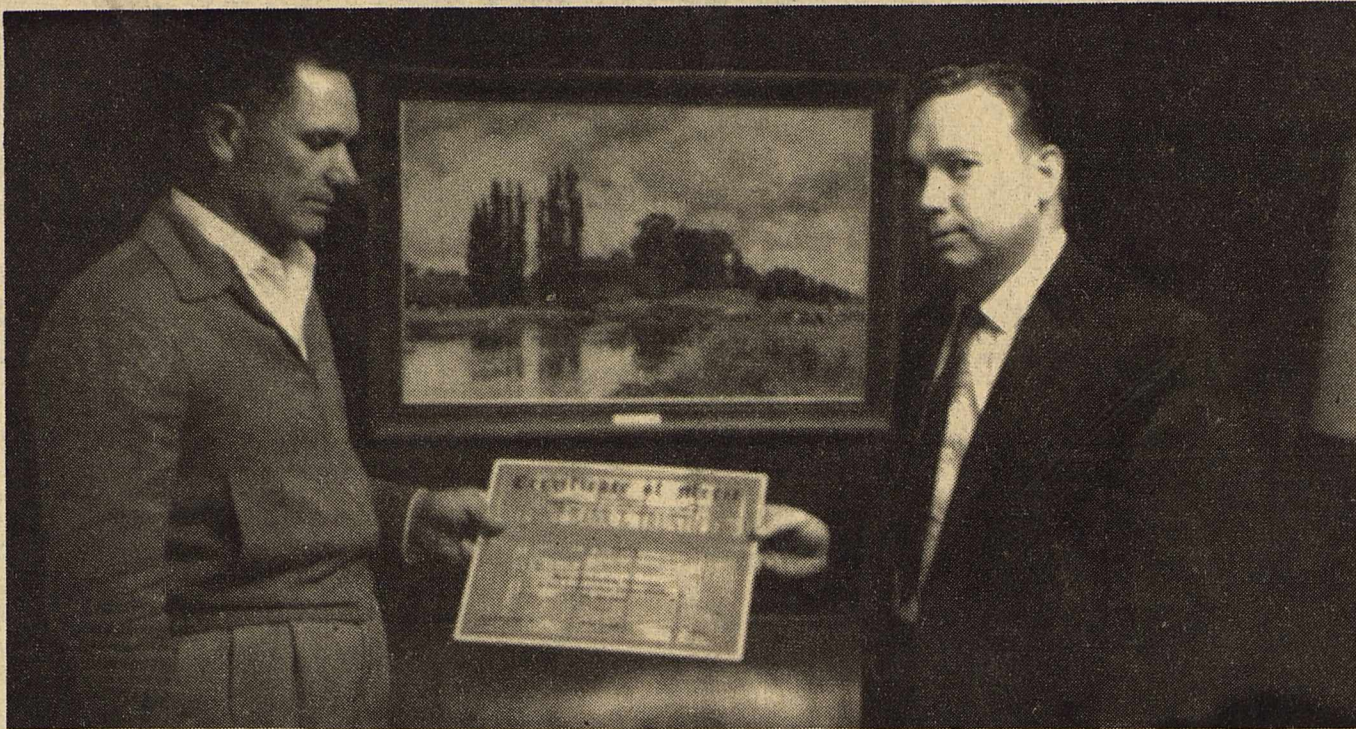

Every year about 5,000 handicapped from Texas are sent to the camp to enjoy its facilities and to be given the opportunities for enjoyment and expression which is offered to the handicapped at this camp as possibly no other place can do quite so well. Your local Plains Lions Club has a part and has helped to provide this camp and its many wonderful facilities. Also assistance is given, in a financial way, to the maintenance and staffing of the camp each year.

Several local Lions Club members have visited the camp and the reports that come back to the local club are always wonderful.

On Friday night, March 30, at 7:30 p.m., the Route 66 television program viewed locally over channel 13, is an episode which was filmed almost exclusively at that camp. Local citizens are invited and urged to be watching that program, as much local interest has been expressed in the Lions Club's work at Kerrville.

Mrs. Willie Sisco was seriously burned Wednesday afternoon while taking football suits out of the dryer at school. She was taken to the Denver City hospital with second and third degree burns but is now home.

Our sympathy to the R. S. Faulkenberry family in the death of Russels mother who passed away Wednesday in Lamesa.

RECEIVES AWARD--Mr. C. L. Gayle is shown receiving a certificate from Bill Loyd, president of Plains State Bank. The award names Gayle as the outstanding director for the year in Yoakum County soil conservation district. Presentation was made at last week's lions club meeting by Loyd on behalf of the bank.

Annual Meeting Of Livestock Ass'n Slated

It was announced this week that the annual general membership meeting of the Yoakum County Livestock and Agricultural Improvement Association has been scheduled for Monday, March 26, at 8 p.m.

The scheduled meeting will be held in the district court room of the Yoakum County Courthouse in Plains and all members and those interested in becoming members of the association are invited and urged to attend.

At this annual meeting there will be an election of five directors, as there are four terms expiring and a director will be selected to replace the late Earl Bryson.

Directors whose terms are expiring include Bob Loe, R. N. (Rusty) McGinty, Bill Gray and Gene Bennett.

Six directors remain whose terms are not yet due to expire. They are Ty Field, Johnnie Fitzgerald, Pat Henard, W. M. Taylor, G. W. Cleveland, and H. G. Sprawls.

Bob Loe, secretary for the association, pointed out further that there would be refreshments served and that the films of the 1962 stock show would be shown.

Sale Of License Tags Is Moving Slow

Yoakum County Tax Collector, E. W. Craig, reported this week that sales of 1962 motor vehicle registrations are going extremely slow so far this year.

Craig said that, earlier in the week, just barely over one thousand license plates for passenger cars had been sold and that, by now, the figure should have been much higher.

The deadline for securing license plates in Texas is April 1. A passenger car or other motor vehicle cannot be operated after that date without having the up-to-date tags attached to it.

April 1, falls on a Sunday this year, making the deadline actually March 31, a Saturday. Announcement was made that the tax office would remain open all day on Saturday, the 31st to take care of last minute customers.

Mom And Pop Barbeque Big Success

A large group of FFA members, along with their parents and teachers, and some other guests attended the annual Mom and Pop Barbeque in Plains School Cafeteria last Tuesday evening.

Special highlights of the program featured "The Bus Stops," a style show showing some fashions created by members of the local FFA, which was narrated by Miss Roberta Snodgrass.

Speaker for the evening was Mr. Hershell Potts, Dean of Student Life at Texas Tech. FFA presentation of awards was emceed by the chapter president, Jerry Jones. They included making Mr. Raymond Smith of Tokio and Mrs. Odell Kerby of Plains honorary chapter farmers because of their outstanding contributions to the local program. Charles Tucker was chosen Star Greenhand farmer; Cote Trout, Star Chapter Farmer; Don Scott, Crop Farming; and Ty Earl Powell, Livestock Farming.

Special recognition was given on behalf of the local Tsu Mo Ga Club by Mrs. Bobby Field. In their recent Vogue Pattern Contest, FHA winners were announced. First place went to Paula Tidwell; second to Sarah Hunt; third to Barbara Watson, and honorable mention to Reba Sisco, Ann Lattimore.

An excellent meal of barbeque and all the trimmings were served by Underwoods of Lubbock.

Coy Lowery Improved

Coy Lowery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lowery, who reside several miles northeast of Plains, was severely injured last Friday by a blow he received on the head delivered by an eight-pound shot-pot.

Coy was participating in a junior high school track meet in Plains and had just finished, some minutes before, his own attempt at heaving the shot.

He is reported to have been standing some 12 or 13 feet distant from the place where most previous shot attempts had fallen. But, a Morton boy made his throw, and by the way went the meet with it, that much further than had any previous contender. Coy did not see the shot coming and was hit with the full force of it on the head, receiving a compressed fracture, that is his skull was actually fractured and was pressing in against the brain, making for a very severe injury.

He was immediately rushed, by D. N. Taylor, Plains High School Principal, to the Yoakum County Hospital in Denver City, where he was examined and X-rayed, and sent immediately to the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock where he received emergency surgery.

Although Coy is still on the critical list, he is reported to be much improved. He is in room 400 of Methodist Hospital in Lubbock. He was visited on Tuesday of this week by Taylor and G. D. Kennedy, Superintendent of Schools, and was reported to have asked about many of his friends in Plains.

Old Blue Replaced

"Old Blue," the slightly dilapidated army surplus pickup used for many years by the Plains school system, has been replaced.

The pickup, which had become almost a public utility and a part of the way of life for Plains High School, was stolen some weeks ago by person or persons unknown, and no lead as to its whereabouts has as yet been found.

The replacement for "Old Blue" is also army surplus, purchased and brought to Plains this week, on authority from the local school board, by D. N. Taylor and G. D. Kennedy, respectively high school principal and superintendent of schools.

Replacing the old pickup is a 1951 Ford surplus vehicle.

Lea County VS Plains Suit Postponed

The suit pending in 121st district court which tentatively had been set for last Wednesday, has been temporarily postponed due to a reported illness on the part of the attorney for the plaintiff, Lea County Electric Cooperative, Inc., Mr. Jim Milam.

In the suit brought by Lea County Co-op, in which they are seeking an injunction against the City of Plains in a rate dispute, interest was running very high on the part of local citizens.

The case is expected to be re-scheduled for trial toward the latter part of next week.

In the story run in last week's issue of The Record, there was evidently some wording that was not as clear as it should have been in regard to some of the facts surrounding the condition that presently exists between Lea County Co-op and the City of Plains.

There was some misunderstanding on the part of some readers as to exactly what Lea County Co-op was reported to have purchased for the $123,000 bid and paid when they took over the old Plains Light and Power Company.

The account in The Record was not meant to imply that Lea County Co-op used any or all of that amount of money in the purchase of the franchise under which they are now operating in the Plains municipality.

The $123,000 was solely for the purchase of the old Plains Light and Power Company, from Clyde Hartwick, after which purchase, the City of Plains, granted, not sold, Lea County Co-op the existing franchise.

Sum and substance of the pending court action is that Lea County Co-op is seeking an injunction to force the City to grant them a rate reduction and the City of Plains is filing a cross section, asking for a summary ruling seeking to establish whether or not it is legal for a cooperative source of power to operate in the City where there is central station power available.

Reportedly, there is a statute on the law-books in the State of Texas which makes illegal for a Texas Co-op to operate where there is a municipal or other source of central station power available but, as Lea County Co-op is a New Mexico Cooperative, and some observers feel their extenuating circumstances, the court case will actually be quite a unique one, in that there is no precedent to it. In effect the ruling on this case will be establishing precedent, and for this reason, it is felt in many quarters, that regardless of the ruling in the local district court the case may very well be appealed to a higher court, with the very present possibility of it reaching the Texas Supreme Court.

Wednesday Sessions Set

Need Farm Labor?

The first of several "farm labor days" was held from 8:30 a.m. until 3 p.m. Wednesday in the 121st District Court Room in Brownfield.

Said Joe Spears, Texas Employment Commission manager there: "In an effort to assist the alleviation of the current farm labor shortage, TEC has scheduled the farm labor day, at which time farm operators and the applicants for farm jobs can meet face to face in an effort to solve their problems to mutual advantage."

"All operators who need labor and all persons wanting farm employment are urged to visit the TEC office (second floor of courthouse) where a sincere effort will be made to bring together interested parties."

The second farm labor day is scheduled the same time and same place March 21. If necessary, the special days will be continued throughout the season.

The farm labor day was the subject of discussion last Thursday when a quartet of TEC officials from Austin visited in Brownfield.

Already mailed are several hundred letters advising area farm operators of the Wednesday program. The letters read in part:

"The Texas Employment Commission has developed a number of experienced farm workers in the Brownfield and surrounding area and will have these workers available in person for you to interview. There is no charge for this service and no obligation to hire any worker."

SOIL Conservation NEWS

C. Murrell Thompson

This past week several new Conservation plans were written along with new application work on several Conservation plans.

New or revised Conservation plans were completed and mailed for typing on Tom Warren, H. O. Muston, W. C. Huffacker and several others.

Crop residue use or management depending on the way you look at it showed that it can be a big help in wind erosion control. Several Conservation farmers report that their stubble or residue helped to hold their soil.

Now is a real good time to take a close look at your grass land cover--native grass or planted pasture grass. If you have a good stubble 2 to 4' high or more you not only have a good soil protector but you have grass that will have vigor this spring when the growing season begins. It takes a minimum of 2000 lbs of dead cover control erosion and more to maintain a good cover of vigorous grass.

Pipe lines for reorganization of irrigation systems are beginning to go in again. Leroy McCravey, Wayne H. Williams, A. O. Williams, Wallace Randolph, Tom Warren are a few that are in some stage of installing under-ground pipe.

National Farmers Union Convention Slated

Texas farmers from the Gulf Coast to the irrigated plains will join farmers from twenty-two other states and converge on Denver, Colorado March 18 for the Annual National Farmers Union Convention.

President Naman, of Texas Farmers Union says that "this will be one of the most important meetings of the organization's sixty year history. The visitors to the convention will have an opportunity to hear from a full slate of outstanding convention speakers, including secretary of agriculture, Orville Freeman; Peace Corps Director Sargent Shriver; Secretary of Labor Arthur Goldberg; Mrs. Margaret Price, vice chairman of the Democratic National Committee and Director of Woman's Affairs; and Wayne Darrow, editor of Washington Farmer-Reporter. Also included among the speakers will be longtime national farmers union legislative director and now director of agricultural credit services for the department of agriculture, John Baker."

"Highlighting the program," said Naman, "will be the presentation of the annual farmers union award to the person who has done the most for agriculture through the year."

"All activities will not be confined to business," Naman said, "and in addition to the business session, there will be a junior program, the annual banquet, a tour of national headquarters building in Denver as well as the Educational Center at Bailey, Colo."

Delegates from the Texas farmers union are Mell Cherry of Lorenzo and W. T. Hall, Jr. of Ponder. Mrs. Donald Wooten of Crosbyton has been appointed to serve on the program committee which will recommend a policy program for adoption by the convention. President Jay Naman and Mrs. Naman will arrive in Denver early so that Mr. Naman may attend a meeting of the full board which is comprised of all state presidents.

Plastic Covers for Plows Aid Soil Shedding

Ever have trouble with soil sticking to your plows? U. S. Department of Agriculture engineers may have found an answer to this problem.

In tests conducted at Auburn, Alabama, moldboard plows covered with sheet plastic did an excellent job of shedding soil. Two plastics, Teflon and H. D. polyethylene, were effective in turning sticky, difficult-to-plow clay soil.

The plow covered with Teflon required 23 per cent less pulling power than a conventional steel moldboard plow. The USDA engineers say this is the first time the Davidson clay used in the test has been satisfactorily plowed with a moldboard since the tillage machinery laboratory began using this soil for tests nearly 25 years ago.

Later tests of the plastic-covered plows were conducted at Plains, Ga. A rye cover crop was completely turned under with six inches or more of soil by a Teflon-covered moldboard. In an adjacent field, an uncovered moldboard failed to shed the soil, which was merely broken loose and pushed over. The soil in these fields was a very sticky clay.

Although both Teflon and H. D. polyethylene were effective in shedding soil, tests comparing sheets of equal thickness showed that Teflon lasts longer. The engineers estimate a 14-inch moldboard plow covered with Teflon will turn about 30 more acres of highly abrasive, sticky soil than will a similar plow covered with H. D. polyethylene.

USDA engineers are presently working with coverings for moldboard plows only, but they believe plastic coverings may eventually prove useful on any farm implement that comes in contact with the soil. This research is continuing.

The plow coverings are not yet commercially available. Manufacturers will have to determine, on the basis of potential demand, whether production of these items is economically feasible.

GIZZARD STONES were for dinosaurs what grit is for chickens. Like the pebbles swallowed by barnyard fowl, good-size stones enabled the huge animals to grind food which their jaws or beaks could not chew. A collection of these stones is on display at the California Academy of Sciences in San Francisco. They were gathered in Nevada, Utah, Colorado, Montana and Wyoming.

TV Finds Gold In a Sewer

LONDON (UPI) - Closed circuit television, put to work to discover faults in a town's sewage system, found two gold rings and other valuables when a four-inch television camera looked around in the 60-year-old drains.

Electric and Musical Industries Ltd. developed the stainless steel-encased camera with built-in lighting attachment that gets hauled through the sewers. Pictures of the pipe interiors show up on a receiver in a nearby vehicle. It has been used at Axbridge, Somerset, in western England.

It means sewage faults can be surveyed quickly and without costly along-the-line excavation up to depths of 25 feet. A measuring tape on the camera locates the exact position of a fault.

IN PLAINS

Around almost any home you will find flowers that someone planted, watered, and with tender care, helped bring forth into a thing of beauty. People are very much like flowers, and it is wonderful to see a child walking in the path of the Lord, being trained and taught the ways of the Lord. Then one day you realize the fruits of your labor as they blossom forth and show their appreciation and love for God. Bring your children to church where others can help you in this labor of love.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

This church feature is published each week with the aim of fostering that which is good in family and community spirit. This page is a public service of these sponsors . . . contributed to the religious life of Yoakum County

Hints Offered on Lawn Care

Want to have a beautiful lawn this summer? Now is the time to start planning for it. E. M. Trew, extension pasture specialist, says you need to watch all management factors because neglecting one may keep you from having an attractive lawn. Fertilizer should be applied according to soil test recommendations. You can, however, use a sufficient amount of a complete fertilizer to supply two pounds of nitrogen per 1000 square feet. Whichever method you choose, the fertilizer should be applied about the time the grass begins to grow. This should be done again in the fall, 30 days before frost, says Trew.

Throughout the summer, at 30 to 40 day intervals, the lawn should be topped with nitrogen at the rate of one pound per 1000 square feet.

Another thing that will detract from lawn beauty is the presence of weeds. One of the best defenses against weeds is a thick, vigorous growth of grass. Weeds can also be controlled with chemicals. For chemical recommendations and application rates, ask your county agent for a copy of L-425, "Chemical Weed Control on Lawns."

Lawns should also be mowed regularly, points out Trew. Bermudagrass should be kept at a height of about 1 to 1 1/2 inches, and St. Augustine and bluegrass at about 1 1/2 to 2 inches. No more than one inch should be removed at a time. Lawns should be watered when the grass begins to wilt, says Trew. Then they should be soaked to a depth of 6 inches or more.

If you start now, and continue managing your lawn through the summer, you can be the envy of the neighborhood. Local county agents can supply additional information on lawn management and care.

If you can manage to stay scared all the time, these international crises won't bother you a bit.

Jack Meixner Makes Squad

When McMurry College recently attended the NAIA tournament in Kansas City, a freshman from Plains went along as a part of the squad.

Jack Meixner, a 1961 graduate of Plains High School and member of the McMurry squad was one of three freshmen selected to travel with the regular varsity team.

Jack is the son of Reverend and Mrs. Harmon Meixner of Plains. Meixner is pastor of the Plains Methodist Church.

McMurry was beat out in their first game in the Kansas City tournament by a Highly favored Westminster (Pa.) team, by only 5 points. Final score in the game was 54 - 59, a very close score considering that McMurry went into the tournament completely unratred and Westminster had been rated to win the tourney, although they were surprised by Prairie View in the finals and had to settle for second place honors.

Thought For Today

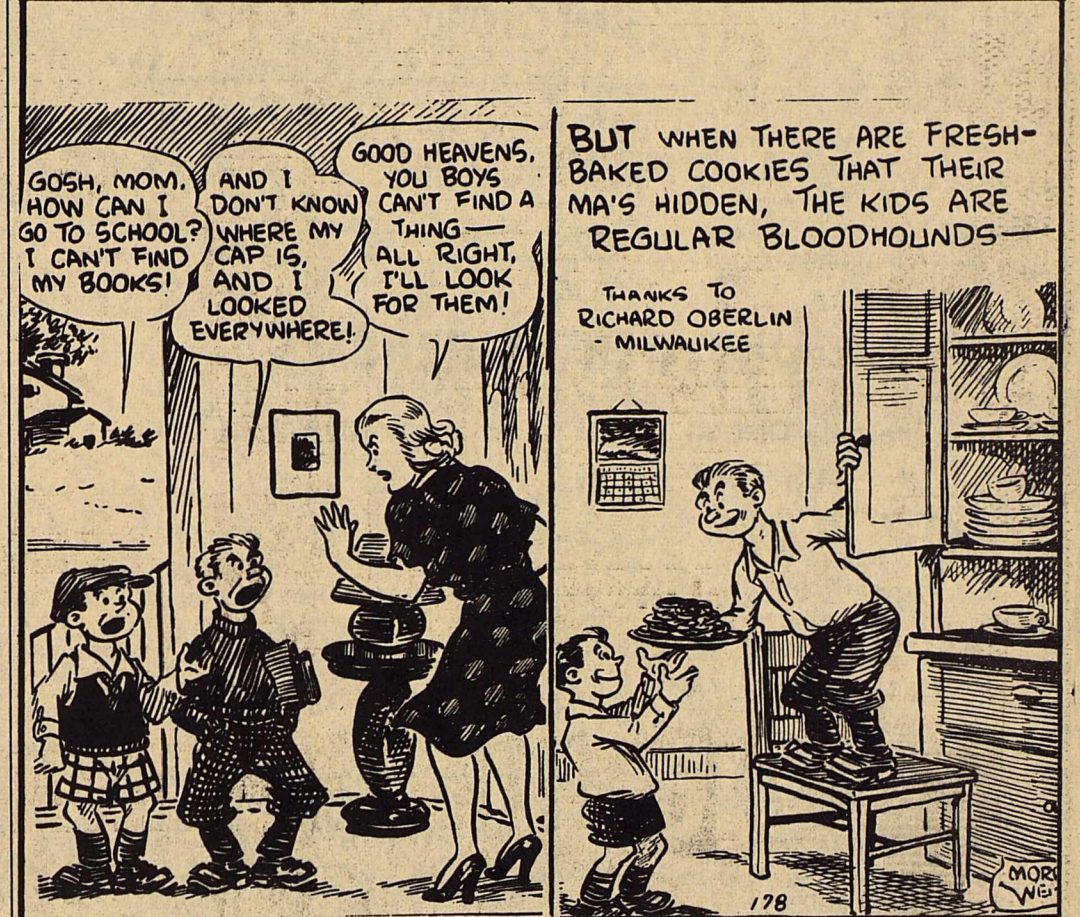

O Lord, thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand, (Isalah 64:8.)

PRAYER: O Lord, we thank Thee that the driftwood of humanity can be transformed by Thy divine handiwork. Take our ineffectual and sinful-but repentant-lives and mold them according to Thy design that we may portray Thy likeness. In the Master's name, Amen.
