by Johnnie Moore

High School English instructor, Mr. Bob Gentry, recently assigned the students in his English class the task of writing a composition on some aspect of Plains.

Gentry reports that over 30 per cent of the themes carried the same thought concerning our town out in various aspects. The theme which was so often repeated was that of the lack of recreational facilities that is to be found in Plains.

Jerry Jones, one of the more outspoken theme composers had this to say:

"It seems to me that in our model community, there is a shortage of recreational facilities for the teenagers. In fact, there are no recreational facilities in Plains for teenagers. It also seems that the 'great white fathers' of our community do not consider this lack of facilities as a handicap in any way. Now, this really interests me, and I would like to see something done about it.

"Now, concerning the problem of our civic leaders in relation to the recreational problem in Plains, consider the following. One of our school officials recently informed the school student body of the following condition, 'The town of Plains doesn't owe the youth of the community any form of recreational facilities whatsoever.'

"As long as I can remember, I have been taught that in the great land of America, everything, the federal government, state, county, city, or even the school exists for the good of the citizens of America. We, as teenagers, are the adults and citizens of tomorrow, and if Plains doesn't exist for our common betterment and development as American citizens, then all that which I have been taught is completely wrong. The making of a well-rounded citizen requires certain wholesome and beneficial recreation."

Jones went on further to point out how much money is going out of Plains by the route of teenagers having to go somewhere else, Brownfield, Denver City or some other neighboring town to go to the movies, bowl, or just about any other form of recreational activity.

Milton Watson, another of Mr. Gentry's students also pointed up this side of the situation along with the fact that it costs the teenagers of Plains more to go on for instance, a movie date, because of the car expense involved.

One other student, Larry Smith, had a very candid view to express. He said, "It's pretty good when a town as prosperous as Plains had to rely on a barber shop to furnish its teenagers with their only recreation."

This writer feels that possibly some of the views expressed in the themes are a bit one-sided. Certainly Plains or any other town for that matter, as a matter of course, doesn't just out-right owe its teenagers such things as movies, bowling alleys, and the like. It doesn't owe this any more than it owes its other citizens the kind of environment in which they can rear their families in a wholesome, well-rounded environment, in which all the facts of the individual personalities can be developed. And what town doesn't owe its citizens this much.

We think recreation is a part of growing up, in fact, a very important part.

Saturday Is Election Day

Everybody Urged To Vote For Candidates of Choice

IN RACE FOR COUNTY JUDGE -- Pictured above are the six candidates seeking the office of County Judge of Yoakum County in the May 5 primary election. All candidates are urging that all citizens express their opinion, whatever it might be, and be sure to vote.

Well, Saturday is the big election day. Candidates campaigning for the various offices is rapidly coming down to the wire. Yoakum County has several posts which are being actively sought after by different candidates.

Most sought after as far as county-wide candidates is concerned is the Yoakum County Judge's race. Six aspirants are actively seeking the office. Six of the candidates are from Denver City and one lone candidate resides in Plains. The Plains candidate for the office is Paul Cobb and those from Denver City are Leon Ward, John Wise, Stanley Duvall, Garland Wheeler and W. L. Holland.

Each of the candidates has been a speaker at the various pie suppers and candidate speakings that have been held on numerous occasions throughout the county.

Other races drawing a great deal of interest are the two County Precinct Commissioner's races. In Precinct No. 2, incumbent H. C. (Doc) Cotton is being very actively opposed in his bid for re-election by a new-comer to the county political scene, Mr. M. R. "Reeves" Newman. Each of these candidates is from Denver City.

In the Precinct No. 4 race, appointee-incumbent Mrs. Paul Loe is running with opposition from T. J. Bearden, both Plains residents.

A complete list of candidates and the contested offices which local and state citizens will be called upon to decide upon follows:

Clinic Due To Open Soon

Dr. Marvin Goldberg, the D. O., who is presently in the process of opening a clinic practice in Plains, was in touch with local citizens again early this week, with the news that he would definitely be in Plains to begin his practice sometime this week.

He conveyed the information in his correspondence that he has made further purchase of medical equipment and that he, in his opinion, is buying the best equipment available to put in the clinic here in Plains.

Dr. Goldberg has been practicing medicine, just an office practice, in Commerce, Texas, but is interested and has drawn up plans, which have been approved by the state authorities for an 18-bed hospital and clinic to be built in Plains, possibly in the very immediate future. This clinic, as it is planned, would be completely equipped for maternity, surgical and medical treatments of all sorts. It would be available for in-patients as well as the customary office calls.

The planned clinic is planned to be built out of private capital for which there would be no bond election or tax raise, as it would be a privately owned and operated hospital.

Dorrie Goldberg, the Doctor's wife, will act as receptionist for the Doctor, and additional hiring of a nursing staff will be necessary for the operation of the clinic after it is constructed. Dr. Goldberg expressed a desire, if it is possible, to bring a surgical specialist with him to help him and to practice with him in the proposed hospital and clinic.

Hospital Bond Election Creating Wide Interest

Commissioner's Court of Yoakum County has called a special bond election for the enlarging and equipping of Yoakum County Hospital in Denver City, after being presented with petitions carrying signatures of more than 10 percent of the qualified tax paying voters of this county, who have rendered property for taxation.

The bond election will be Friday, May 18th. Absentee voting starts April 28 and ends

May 14. All property taxpayers who have duly rendered their property for taxation will be eligible to cast a ballot.

Hospital authorities in Denver City report that the need for the bond election for enlargement, equipment and improvements is two-fold; to provide more capacity for patients, and to up-date the hospital with additional facilities and equipment to keep abreast of the times and provide a modern medical center. The need, report the administrator, Mrs. Helen McMahan and other authorities of the Denver City Unit, is immediate, if we are to continue to provide our people with the kind of care and service they need, and have come to expect.

Briefly, the proposed enlargement and improvement program is comprised of the following:

(a) Eighteen (18) additional beds increasing patient capacity to 50. All patient rooms to have private toilet facilities; a few to feature private baths. All to be air conditioned, with individual room controls.

(b) A10-bed maternity suite, isolated in one wing, together with a regular nursery and small isolation nursery.

(c) New operating and delivery rooms with increased and modernized facilities, two labor rooms, a general laboratory, X-ray suite, examination room, (d) New kitchen and dining facilities, isolated from other sections of the hospital, with latest food preparation equipment, separate dish-washing room, etc.

(e) A large business office, two private offices, and a records room.

(f) For the public's convenience, a family room, prayer room, and hospital room, all are to be provided. Also, a lobby, information desk, public rest rooms, public telephones, etc.

(g) New basement, 31 x 42 feet, to house new mechanical equipment and provide additional storage.

This list is by no means complete, as several other minor improvements and additions are planned, along with the depiction of the availability of Doctor's offices in the hospital itself.

98 Students Send Letter to Editor

A letter was received this week by the Editor of this weekly, which was signed by 98, yes 98, count 'em, students of Plains High School.

The letter, in petition form, reads in part, and we quote, "In many towns the Juniors and Seniors are honored by a banquet and prom. Our banquet is being held in our beautiful new cafeteria, but our prom is being held in the legion hall which lacks sufficient room and facilities. We can see no logical reason for this when our school buildings have four convenient rooms where it could be held--the cafeteria, the activity room, and the old and the new gymnasiums. We are not asking the school to sponsor dances, only (Continued on page 7.)

Plan Bake Sale 5th

The Rebeccas of the Plains Chapter will hold a bake sale Saturday May 5. The location is to be in the Post Office. The sale will begin at approximately 9:30 a. m. Everyone is invited to come by and purchase their dessert for Sunday dinner at this time.

May Is Transfer Month

Parents who live in Yoakum County and wish to make application for transfer of their children from one school district to another, must do so during the month of May, in the office of the Ex-officio County School Superintendent.

Before you can make application for such a transfer, the name of your children must appear on the 1962 census roll of the school district in which you live in Yoakum County. The census was completed here in January.

Plains Girls Cop State Championship

We stand to be corrected, but according to the memories of all the persons we have been able to contact the first state championship ever won by Plains in any event was the one copped by the Plains High School Girls Volleyball team in the state meet in Abilene.

Teams played in the meet included two on Friday, which were Waller and Groberton and one on Saturday, Big Lake. In the first game against Waller on Friday the Plains girls won the first two games, making it unnecessary to play the third, by scores of 13-7 and 15-1. In the semi-finals against Groberton on Friday also, only two games were necessary and Plains was victorious by scores of 15-3 and 15-6.

In the finals on Saturday, Big Lake was the rival. The Plains girls had already played and defeated this team on one other occasion, in the finals playoffs at our own regional meet, in that regional contest, from which the second and first place winners are eligible to take part in state playoffs, Big Lake won the first game by two points, the score being, Plains 16 to Big Lake 18. In the remaining two games, however, the Plains girls were victorious by scores of 15-2 and 15-10.

In the state finals played Saturday, Plains downed the Big Lake girls in just two games, not having to play game number three by some mighty one-sided scores of 15-9 and 15-2.

Tournament volleyball is played against a time limit, two eight minute halves, rather than the attainment of a certain score.

The games were played in Abilene at the Hardin-Simmons University gymnasium.

Ten players and the manager Shirley Ethridge and coach, Mrs. Shirley Gross made the trip to Abilene, where they stayed at the Tower Motel. Out of the ten girls, three, Sarah K. Field, Sandra Williams and Sonnie Smith made the State All-Tournament Team.

The congratulation of the entire population of Plains and the surrounding area is being extended to these girls who brought Plains its first First-Place State trophy.

STATE CHAMPS -- Pictured are the victorious members of the Plains High School's Girls' Volleyball team which, last week in Abilene, copped the Class A, State Title.

Miniature Golf Course Planned

Plans are very rapidly taking place for the construction of a miniature golf course in Plains. Proposed site had not been definitely decided upon, but a generous offer on the part of the Plains State Bank concerning the property directly behind it, has about decided the builders on that site.

Installing the eighteen hole course will be several individuals in the community in the interests of local Boy Scout Troop No. 778.

Plans at present, as it was announced by local scout leaders

Gene Young and Johnnie Moore, was for the course to be completed and in operation by no later than the last week in this month.

Games will cost, for eighteen holes, 25 cents as present plans indicate.

New equipment, regular putting irons and a well-laid, well-constructed course will be featured in the arrangements, which it is hoped will at least be a start toward furnishing some recreational facilities in Plains, which several have pointed out are woefully inadequate at present.

Finals Saturday

Finals, participants of which have not as yet been determined, will be played in the Plains Gym Saturday night, for first, second, third and consolation places in the Plains Outsiders Tournament here.

Volleyball teams from several South Plains communities are participating.

New Business Opens In Plains

Opening this week in a remodeled portion of the local lumber yard operated by T. C. Hightower, is a new business for Plains.

Under the Management of Mr. and Mrs. Robert (Bob) Kritlow is the B. & L. Thrift Shop, which features used furniture, clothing, household goods and sporting goods.

Kritlow is a Canadian by birth, but has been living in California the past ten years, while his wife Elizabeth, is a native of Meadow and graduated from Meadow High School.

They are now residing in Plains with their three children, two daughters, Deena and Darcy, and a son, Gary.

Mr. and Mrs. Kritlow have extended an invitation to the public to come by and see their wares, which they state consists of "Good used merchandise at reasonable prices."

The Case Against Race Track Gambling

Texans on May 5 will vote their opinion "for" or "against" legalized gambling. The primary ballots of both parties will carry the question. We who are against legalized gambling urge every thoughtful man and woman to vote "against."

Not one valid argument can be advanced on gambling's behalf. The total experience of mankind argues eloquently against it.

Is gambling economically justified?

Virgil W. Peterson, director of the Chicago Crime Commission, testifies "Gambling drains the salaries, savings and investments of a community into a business enterprise that serves no human need. Those who benefit from gambling profits are almost without exception members of the underworld who invariably control the gambling business."

Gambling is the biggest single cause of such crimes as embezzlement and invariably brings in its wake a mounting stack of unpaid bills, skipped installment payments, repossessed automobiles and furniture, and lapsed insurance policies.

Since some people gamble anyway, shouldn't we make it legal in order to police it?

The Chairman of the United States Senate Investigating Committee says no. "No plan for legalized gambling that was presented to us seemed to carry any guarantee of success."

Isn't race track gambling a good source of tax revenue?

Senator Alexander Wiley of Wisconsin says, "The idea that legalized gambling will be a revenue-raiser is an illusion. Every dollar raised from such sources means five dollars spent in higher police costs, higher court costs, higher penitentiary costs and higher relief costs."

But after all, isn't pari-mutuel gambling pretty harmless? So a guy loses two dollars.

This is the same, tired, fallacious combination of words mouthed by every gambling profiteer from Al Capone to Benny Binion.

The sad fact of gambling can be told in four words of Damon Runyon, "horse players die broke." A two-dollar bet is murder. Gambling . . . two dollars . . . ten dollars . . . a hundred to recoup . . . is a cause of broken marriages, neglected children, poverty and sometimes suicide.

Ask a bank examiner. Ask a divorce court judge. Ask a probation officer. Ask your retail credit association. Ask the relief people. The easy money boys won't give you the answer.

Small wonder that the three D's of gambling have been described as Debt, Degradation and Death.

You won't succumb to the fever, nor will we. But frankly we don't want our kids to be exposed to such characters as Hot Horse Herbie, Harry the Horse, Bookie Bob and John the Boss.

We don't want our kids to grow up around a race track.

Do you?

"PUT SOMETHING IN THE POT, BOY!"

In "The Murderers," a recently published book (1961) written by Harry J. Anslinger, U. S. Commissioner of Narcotics, of the Treasury Department, we get a side of the race track business that is unsavory and shocking.

Proponents of the race track gambling amendment to be voted on in the May 5 Texas primary have been making much of the statement that racing in Texas "will be free from organized crime and hoodlum elements because of the highly regulated system of the Thoroughbred Racing Protective Association for keeping known criminals away from race tracks."

Mr. Anslinger in his book has this to say: "The Thoroughbred Racing Protective Association was founded to keep all illegality, including all illegal use of drugs, out of race tracks. Yet in the years from their founding to this writing they have never called at my office or asked for a look at the 14 drawers full of vital information about individuals, stables, methods of doping and other important data."

The U. S. narcotics chief devotes an entire chapter to documenting the wholesale malpractices and uses of narcotics and other stimulants on horses at race tracks across the country.

Commenting on the Narcotic Bureau's nationwide investigation of race tracks, he writes, "No important stable was exempt. Not a single great name in racing was excluded. Every track visited was in this slimy business."

"It is perfectly legal and is common practice in most states to grant licenses as trainers to men with criminal records. I made a personal plea to the Racing Association to establish a new rule forbidding the granting of licenses to persons convicted of narcotic charges. I was greeted by a stony silence."

Is horse racing the sport of kings - or is it the ruthless big business of organized crime, gangsters and hoodlums?

THE BELIEVERS

Janice Holt Giles "The United Society of Believers" were commonly known as the Shakers who had two villages in Central Kentucky in which people lived until 1920. The village near Harrodsbury, Kentucky, is being restored.

The story of The Believers is a true story of the life in a Shaker village in which communal living was the way of life.

The Shakers were emotional people given to jerks and shakes and dancing like dervishes in their religious worship which was founded by Mother Ann Lee in England in 1800. Their four basic beliefs were confession of sin, celibacy, withdrawal from the world, and common ownership of property.

Rebecca Cooper and her husband, Richard, had been reared as Presbyterians and had been childhood sweethearts, and had as perfect marriage as any couple could have for several years.

Sober, serious minded Richard loved and trusted Preacher

Rankin who became a convert in the Believers. This changed Richard's and Rebecca's whole way of life.

When Richard set aside Rebecca as his wife and dedicated himself to the Shaker religion, Rebecca tried to believe, but after many years living in the Shaker village she was the first woman to file for divorce under the Kentucky law that made divorce possible when one of the marriage partners went into full membership of the Believers.

Rebecca had great respect for the Shakers as they were gently, dedicated, innocent people who perpetrated great wrongs because of their fanaticism. It was a tyranny of innocence but much evil came of it, as evil comes of all tyranny.

What does a cut of $1, $2, or $3 billion mean to the taxpayer? The Tax Foundation, Inc. says, "... each $1 billion cut from the Federal budget means, on average, $18 which an American family of four can keep for its own" to spend on house or garden.

APPLE PECAN ROLLS make a Good Breakfast Better

Their plumes of cinnamon and apple drifting through the house make these rolls warm persuaders for generous breakfasts.

They whip up appetites. Before you know it, the members of the family are eating—and enjoying—the sound breakfast essential to build quick energy for the morning's work.

These Apple Pecan Rolls are light and hot and love to drink up butter. Spicy with cinnamon, with a taffy-like topping, each bite is crunchy with nuts and tastes of apples. With good reason! The rolls enfold a thick filling of canned apple sauce and pecans blended with butter and brown sugar. And they stay so fresh and moist they can be made the afternoon before and just reheated in the morning.

- 1 package roll mix
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 8 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1 3/4 cups canned apple sauce
- 1/2 cup brown sugar
- 1/2 cup chopped pecans
- Cinnamon

Prepare roll mix according to directions on package, adding 2 tablespoons of sugar. Cover; let rise until double in bulk.

Add 2 tablespoons butter to apple sauce; cook 10 minutes to evaporate some of the liquid, stirring occasionally; cool. Melt remaining 4 tablespoons butter in 9"x9"x2" pan; add brown sugar and heat until melted.

Roll out dough to 17"x9"x1/2" rectangle; spread with cooled apple sauce, sprinkle with pecans and cinnamon; roll up jelly roll fashion. Slice in 1" slices. Arrange cut side up in pan on sugar mixture. Cover; let rise until double in bulk. Bake in hot oven, 400 degrees, 20-25 minutes. Serve warm. Makes 16 rolls.

He said, Certainly I will be with thee; and this shall be a token unto thee, that I have sent thee, (Exodus 3:12.) PRAYER: Merciful Father, we thank Thee for the assurance that we can count on Thy help and Thy love at all times. Help us to trust in Thy promise, "I will be with thee," when we feel weak and afraid to work in Thy church, in Jesus' name. Amen.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT:

I heard it said just the other day - "These are uncertain times and a fellow has to be a contortionist to get along. Even if your back is to the wall you MUST keep an ear to the ground as well as putting a shoulder to the wheel. Then with your nose to the grindstone you MUST keep a level head and at the SAME time keep both feet on the ground. And by ALL means have your head in the clouds SO you can LOOK for the SILVER LINING."

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

How Important is an Inch

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Not long ago Genevieve was thirty-seven inches tall. Soon she'll be thirty-eight. Just how important is that next inch?

It's all-important! Without that inch her growth will cease.

Folks sometimes underestimate the importance of a Sunday in Church or Sunday School. What difference, they think, can just one Sunday make?

But every day of worship or religious instruction adds its inch to our spiritual growth. And whenever we neglect the soul's needs, then, temporarily at least, growth ceases.

Children, and adults, too, need to keep on growing spiritually. How different our world could be if all of us reached the spiritual maturity God wants men to attain. A Sunday, like an inch, is important. Next Sunday is all-important for all of us!

This church feature is published each week with the aim of fostering that which is good in family and community spirit. This page is a public service of these sponsors . . . contributed to the religious life of Yoakum County.

News and Views of Savings Bonds

For the past several months Savings Bonds volunteers have been making plans for "bond selling" activities to be carried out during the Freedom Bond Drive. All Freedom Bond Drive efforts will reach their climax during the next 2 months. Reports being received from key volunteers throughout the state indicate that this will be the biggest bond drive held in many years.

FREEDOM BOND GOAL SET AT 75 MILLION DOLLARS

A goal of 75 million dollars has been set for the Freedom Bond Drive. All sales during the first 6 months of 1962 will be credited toward this goal.

MERCURY 7 CAPSULE TO TOUR TEXAS

Outstanding business and civic leaders are serving as Freedom Bond Drive chairmen in the key cities in Texas. In Dallas, Mr. James Ling, outstanding young industrialist, is serving as the Freedom Bond Drive chairman. Mr. John Wimberly, president of the Houston Natural Gas Company, will head the Freedom Bond Drive activities; while in Fort Worth, Charles Ringler, Public Relations Executive, served as Freedom Bond Chairman during a campaign held in that city during April. Charles Cooney, popular young bank president, is acting as chairman of San Antonio's Freedom Bond Drive.

Beginning April 28th, a duplicate of the Freedom 7 Mercury Spacecraft will begin its tour of major Texas cities. The craft will form a part of a Savings Bonds exhibit that is touring the Nation during the Freedom Bond Drive in May and June.

The Freedom 7 Capsule is identical to the one that carried America's astronauts into space. It is mounted on a red, white, and blue trailer flanked by 2 flags. The public will be able to examine the spacecraft at close hand.

The Freedom 7 Capsule exhibit will tour the following cities in Texas: Texarkana, Houston, Beaumont, Dallas, Fort Worth, Waco, Temple, Austin, San Antonio, and El Paso, during May. At a later date, the exhibit will return to Texas and appear in the following cities: Amarillo, Lubbock,

Armour Introduces New Chemical Series

Chicago, May 1. . . The Armour Industrial Chemical Company has introduced a series of five new chemicals designed to speed secondary oil recovery by permitting greater amounts of water to be injected into the ground.

The new Armour group, labeled the PD 30-39 series, are injection well stimulators that have been highly successful in field tests, according to C.D. LaSusa, manager of Armour's petroleum industry group in Dallas, Texas.

This is the first time, LaSusa said, that the petroleum industry has had a family of specific chemicals for water-flood operations. The new Armour chemicals were designed to be used either separately or in combinations to "customize" the problems of the individual wells, since every well has its own particular reservoir problems.

As such they constitute one of the most important developments in the chemical treatment of secondary oil recovery, he added, pointing out that it is here that the oil industry expects its operations to account for 80 per cent of all U. S. crude production within the next fifty years.

The chemicals, rapidly soluble in water and in all concentrations of brine, have the characteristics and properties to enable the underground reservoirs to receive greater amounts of water. Normally, the more water which can be injected, the faster oil can be recovered.

LaSusa said the use of the chemicals in various combination has, in field applications in Texas, enabled the water-flood operators to inject from 25 to 50 per cent more water into the oil reservoirs. An application in Northern Pennsylvania resulted in a rise of two to five times the previous rate.

Few delights can equal the mere presence of one whom we trust utterly.

Formby Attacks Press

"Do we have freedom of the press?" This is a question that Marshall Formby, candidate for Governor in the Democratic Primary, is asking the voters of Texas today.

"It is obvious," he said, "that the moneyed metropolitan dailies of the State are bowing under to the pressure groups, because they are afraid of the pressure groups and Washington influence."

Formby noted that he and some of the other candidates have had the endorsement of many weekly papers and some smaller and medium size dailies, but suggested that power and money have spoken in the case of the Big City Press and only one person has been endorsed. "Some of the big dailies have endorsed a candidate with whom they have nothing in common . . . they don't believe in half of their candidate's program. It is sad to see a big daily go against the conscience of its owners and editors just for a crumb of advertising or a crumb from the federal government. It is gratifying to see the smaller dailies and the weeklies standing up for their convictions."

Formby said that more money has been spent by some candidates than ever before in the Governor's race and has urged the voters of Texas to take a good hard look at the candidates, at the money spent, as their promises and their beliefs in government, and to the pressure groups and organizations behind such candidates. The former State Senator and Highway Commissioner said, "He who eats my bread, must sing my song," will have a true meaning if Texans should elect the free spending, country club set of candidates making the race.

Formby who was born and reared in small communities and has lived his life in smaller towns, know and understands the problems of the smaller communities.

A total of 13 new Conservation plans were approved at a Friday night meeting of the board of Supervisors. They were H. G. Smith, Joe L. Webb, C. E. Boley, Robert Beasley, E. D. Apperson, D. V. French, Johnny M. Sims, J. M. Deering, (Addison place) A. K. Gillian, O. H. Moore, Lewis Slemmons, E. C. Hatton and J. M. Deering. Several of these Conservation plans were also Great Plains Conservation program contracts.

Interest continues at high level in Conservation work. Planting of grass, installing irrigation systems, spraying of brush and several other Conservation practices such as cover crops are all being used. Robert Chambliss is shredding down his Rye cover on his Bermuda grass. Robert says, "The Rye gave needed protection to the grass and land and is leaving a lot of organic matter in the land."

New Conservation plans were written with J. W. McCan, R. D. Kelly, R. M. McSwain, & John C. Devitt this past week. A. N. Norman, Gene Smith, R. N. McGinty, C. A. Sulin and F. M. Middleton are a few that are planting Bermuda grass this week.

C. E. Theford, A. E. McGhee and the Goust Bros. are a few of the landowners and operators that have shown interest in going further into a well rounded Conservation program this last week.

Leroy McCravey says, "He has watered more acres already than he did all last year." Leroy has changed from ditch or furrow irrigation to sprinkler irrigation. Leroy says, "He not only is saving water but is

To Speed Up Secondary Oil Recovery

PETROLEUM MULCH AIDS PLANT GROWTH—Three years of research and testing have demonstrated that a new petroleum mulch technique can, under responsible climatic conditions, vastly increase agricultural output and crop values. Above, a researcher examines at the right soybean plants grown with the inexpensive and easily applied petroleum mulch. Their development is greater than that of the soybeans at left, planted at the same time without mulch. The petroleum mulch was developed by Esso Research and Engineering Company, research affiliate of Humble Oil & Refining Company, and has been tested successfully on a wide variety of crops in the United States and abroad. The mulch, which is harmless to the soil, is sprayed with simple tractor equipment over seed beds or growth areas to form a thin, dark, continuous film on the platted crop rows. This promotes quick seed germination and healthy crops by warming the soil, reducing moisture evaporation, and protecting against erosion and chemical or mineral leaching. Humble will market the product, into which pesticides can be incorporated, upon completion of further tests and receipt of government approval.

States Spend Nearly $35 Billion in 1961

State governments altogether spent $34.7 billion in fiscal 1961, according to a report issued today by the Bureau of the Census, U. S. Department of Commerce. This sum includes $4.7 billion paid as benefits by unemployment compensation, employee retirement, and other State insurance trust systems. It also includes $873 million spent by liquor stores operated by 16 states. The remaining total of "general expenditure" amounted to $29.1 billion, up 6.9 percent from the previous year.

State revenue in 1961 was $34.6 billion. General revenue, excluding insurance trust and liquor store amounts, totaled $28.7 billion; or 4.9 percent more than in 1961. Of this amount, State taxes provided nearly two-thirds; one-fourth was intergovernmental revenue, mainly Federal aid; and charges and miscellaneous non-tax sources produced about one-tenth. State tax revenue amounted to $10.1 billion in fiscal 1961, up 5.7 percent from the 1960 figure.

From 1960 to 1961, general revenue was up in 40 States, general expenditure increases in 47 States, and the volume of debt outstanding rose in 34 States.

State expenditure for all major categories increased from 1960 to 1961, the Census report shows. Per capita State spending for major governmental functions was as follows:

Education . . . . .	$ 43.54
Highways . . . . .	41.14
Public Welfare . . . . .	21.48
Hospitals . . . . .	10.42
All other purposes . . . . .	33.24
Total general expenditures . . . . .	$159.82

doing a better job of watering."

Each week more aerial photographs are ordered along with standard soil surveys to use in writing a well planned Conservation plan. Maps ordered this week were W. O. Moore, Howard Bourland operator, C. W. Foust, A. E. McGhee, and A. B. Carpenter. These maps will be used to bring these Conservation plans up to date and include any needed changes such as additional land, different type of farming or ranching operations.

Brush control in the form of aerial spraying is due to start in the near future. R. N. McGinty, Robert Chambliss, Ty Fields, Johnnie Fitzgerald, Gene Bennett are a few who will spray brush this year.

From an editorial in the Lewiston, Idaho, News: "A government big enough to give us what we want is also big enough to take what it wants. Government pays no taxes, it taxes; and the government businesses that are in competition with private enterprise pay no taxes. The government corporations own 40 per cent of the land area and 20 per cent of the industrial capacity of our nation. . . . Only when the government gets out of tax-free, rent-free business can you expect taxes to come down. . . . An Irishman, stewed to the gills, began to feel exceedingly ashamed of his conduct and decided to go to confession. Noticing that he was somewhat blotto, the priest said gently: "Better put it off until some other time, Pat. Now go home and go to bed like a good man. You haven't killed anyone, have you?"

Pat, and went away. On his way home he met his friend Tim Murphy. The two chatted for a while, then Tim turned to say that he was going to confession. "It ain't no use going there now," said Pat, grabbing his friend's arm. "The father is only hearing murder cases to-night!"

98 Students--

our Junior - Senior Prom, to which we feel we are entitled," end of quote.

After receiving the letter, we inquired from a local school official as to just what the policy on dancing is and were reported to as follows:

"The school board has felt that it is best for the school, all interested concerned, to not have school sponsored dances."

"If the school sponsors one dance, a Junior-Senior Prom, then it will eventually be expected to sponsor others."

"That the list of names, with the complaints about the situation listed with it should be furnished to the school board which meets next Tuesday, May 8, so that a reappraisal of the situation might be made at that time, by the board presently presiding."

(Editors Note: Whether or not we agree with dancing or the things quoted above from the letter in question, we adults certainly have to admire the spunk of this group of teenagers in making themselves heard. I certainly feel their thinking and reasons should be listened to and talked out. We adults expect them to behave like near-adults, so I think it is necessary to not only give them the responsibility of near-adulthood, but also some of the considerations of same.)

Do not condemn the judgment of others because it differs from your own—you may both be wrong.

Four different irrigation methods and four fertilizer treatments on cotton were tested to determine the effect on the efficiency of cotton production at the High Plains Research Foundation in 1961.

James C. Valliant, recently promoted from Assistant to Associate Water Engineer, stated that the tests were designed to determine the combination of irrigation method and fertilizer treatment which would produce the greatest net return and the highest irrigation efficiency in the production of cotton. Four irrigation methods combined with four fertilizer treatments and three varieties of cotton were used. The irrigation methods were: (1) First bloom only, (2) First bloom plus mid-bloom, (3) First bloom, mid-bloom and September 5 compared with (4) dryland cotton. Full details of the test are in the complete High Plains Research Foundation Report No. 45, issued in April, 1962.

The three varieties of cotton were Gregg, representing early maturing; Lockett 88-A, representing mid-maturing, and Paymaster 88-90, representing late maturing as well as the open-boll type cotton.

Mr. Valliant concluded from these tests that, "Results from the 1961 cotton irrigation test indicate, that in early and mid-maturing cotton, response to fertilizer is directly related to the rate of irrigation water, while response to fertilizer in late maturing cotton could be due to the period of time the plant demands nutrients."

The 1961 results indicate that applying irrigation water at early stages of growth, first bloom or first bloom and mid-bloom and a low rate of fertilizer will produce the highest practical irrigation efficiency. Balancing time of irrigation and amount of fertilizer can increase lint cotton, net return per inch of irrigation water and net return per acre.

Fertilizer applications on a per acre basis were: 40 pounds of nitrogen and 60 pounds of phosphorus; 80 pounds of nitrogen and 60 pounds of phosphorus; 120 pounds of nitrogen and 60 pounds of phosphorus, compared to the nonfertilized plots.

This type of research was conducted in 1960 as well as 1961 and will be continued in 1962.

 "And your age?" he pursued.
 "Have the Misses Hill, next door, given you their ages?" she asked, hesitantly.
 "No," said the officer.
 "Well, then, I'm the same age as they."
 "That will do," said the officer. Then, proceeding to fill out the form, he wrote, "Matilda Brown, As old as the Hills."

Electronic Network Necessary

An electronic intelligence network which would sift data in seconds and give President Kennedy near-instant advice on defending the nation in case of attack has been proposed by a top official of the General Electric Company.
 Richard L. Shetler, head of GE's defense systems department, said that development of new weapons has reduced to "a very few minutes" the lead time available to the President in arriving at the fateful decision of whether or not to commit the nation to war.
 Perfection of an electronic intelligence network could spell the difference between disaster and survival.
 Shetler added that the need for a national command control system is urgent, and that the system would not only aid the decision of peace or war "but it would also deal with the strategy of containment and/or how to stop a war."

Air Tour Set By Hancock

Don Hancock, candidate for State Senator, will leave by plane from Lubbock, Saturday, April 28th, at 6:10 o'clock a.m., and stops will be made in Levelland, Morton, Brownfield, Seminole, Andrews, Lamesa, Takoka, Crosbyton and Ralls, in another last minute effort to contact each voter.
 Hancock will be met at the airport by supporters; the group will then go for coffee at a designated place where he will speak briefly; then if time will allow, Hancock will go to each store in the downtown area.
 The air tour will end in Lubbock, from where Hancock will proceed by campaign car to Plains for a candidate speaking, then to Denver City for an IOOF Convention.
 Should the weather interfere with this tour Saturday, it will be made the first day that weather will permit.
 Another tour on identical schedule of time is set for the day of the election, May 5th, except that there will be no formal coffees.
