MOORE or Less

By Johnnie Moore

Well, well, here 'tis 1963 already.

I'm a little like the fellow in the comics I noticed the other day. I think I'll make one more stab at my 1948 resolutions.

Honestly though, I think I will make one new year's resolution. That is, not to make any more resolutions. I think I broke more resolutions last year than I made to begin with.

Boy, what a way for the old year to go out. Right on time I got my income tax return forms.

If that's not going out on a sour note I don't know what, in the world, is.

Every January since 1938 has been a March of Dimes month. Join the 25th Anniversary March of Dimes in 1963 and fight crippling birth defects, arthritis and polio.

Just a little reminder! Those supposedly in the know in Washington are saying that new tries by the Kennedy Administration will definitely be made this year in their efforts to get their proposed Federal Aid to Education and Medicare rammed through Congress.

Every American citizen, including us here in Plains, who are actually concerned about the socialistic trend our Government is taking, should take the time to sit down and write letters of protest to these two proposals. Our Congressmen are anxious to know your feelings on these matters.

Federal Aid to Education is just one big step toward the Federal Control of Education.

And, Medicare, or whatever name it goes by this year is a giant step toward socialized medicine.

I don't think we want any. Do You?

Cowboys Stomp Ropes Five

The Plains Cowboy cagers, in one of their best performances to date in the current season, rolled over the quintet from Ropes here on the home court on Tuesday night.

Final score in the game was Plains 56 and Ropes 32.

Nine of the 12 members of the Cowboy squad were responsible for scores, while Jimmy Harris was high pointer with 16 points, followed, Ronnie Hendricks and Ernie Anderson, both in the double scoring column with 10 each. Closely following was J. B.

Wilson with nine. In the "B" game preceding the Varsity tilt, the Cowboys were also quite successful, defeating the Ropes team by a large margin. High point scorer was Bruce Long with nine points, and following were Bob Parker and Jack Lowe with six points. Saturday night, both Varsity and "B" squads take on a strong Denver City Crew, also here in Plains. Also on that day the freshmen will play Tatum here at 4 p. m., and the 7th graders, at Tatum, will play at 11 a. m.

Cotton samples going well

Lubbock Cotton Classing Office reported that they had about 100,000 samples carried over on December 28. They went on to say that the bad weather had cut down sample receipts and that the classing office should make good progress in depleting the large carry-over by the first of the year.

For the week ending December 28 the Lubbock office classed 191,000 samples. This adds up to 1,218,000 samples for the year. The Lamesa office reported 19,000 samples classed for the week. For the year that office has classed 150,000 samples. A carry-over of 2,000 samples was reported. Then at Brownfield 33,300 samples were classed and a carry-over of 2,000 was reported. The total samples at Brownfield is 226,000. To date 1,594,000 samples have been classed on the South Plains. This compares with 1,717,000 samples at the same time last year. Also at this time last year, the Brownfield office was closed for the season. White cotton accounted for 33 percent of that classed. Staple length and micronaire readings continued to improve this week.

Texas produces about 80 percent of the nation's sulphur.

Appreciation Days Are Here

NEW JUDGE---Stanley Duvall is shown in his new office, that of Yoakum County Judge, after being sworn into that office on Tuesday.

NEW OFFICE---Blanche Dyer, elected as the District Clerk of Yoakum County, a newly-created office in the county, was sworn into office also on January 1.

First Drawing Set Saturday

Plains first weekly drawing, in connection with the newly instituted "Customer Appreciation Days" will be held on Saturday, January 5.

The pot for the first big drawing will amount to $189. Up to 50 percent of that amount or $94.50 can be won by some lucky individual for just trading with a participating merchant.

Hereafter, the drawing is scheduled to be held on each Saturday on the lawn of the old Court House in Plains.

In order to assure one self of the best possible chances in the drawing, you should be sure to pick up your coupons when making a purchase at one of the participating stores. According to the amount of your purchase, your ticket will be punched in the appropriate percentage spot. Then, you become eligible to win whatever percentage of the pot for that week that is shown on the ticket drawn.

Tickets will be left in the drum from week to week, and only when they become too cumbersome will a portion of them be thrown away.

The drawing, each week, will continue until a winner is named.

To be eligible to win also, though, you must be present. Children cannot answer for their parents or vice-versa, but a wife can answer for her husband or the other way around.

Prize money will be given each week, in the form of scrip which can be spent just as cash money at any participating merchant's store.

Merchants participating in the give-away program, thus far, are as follows:

- PLAINS FROZEN FOODS
- WHITE AUTO STORE
- PLAINS FARM SUPPLY
- CURRY-EDWARDS DRUG
- THE ELSORITA SHOP
- JIM'S SHAMROCK

FAULKENBERRY BUILDERS
MAYNARD'S TEXACO
GEORGE'S "66"
HAWKINS FOOD MARKET
WOODY'S 66 OIL & HDW.
A & J GULF

Supporting firms of the project are:
ROMAIN TELEPHONE CO.
PLAINS STATE BANK
THE PLAINS RECORD
PLAINS AUTO SERVICE
These firms will put the same amount as the participating merchants into the pot each week but will not issue coupons as do the others.

The drawing on Saturday will be held at 5 p. m. on the lawn on the south side of the old Court House.

YOU MUST BE PRESENT IN ORDER TO WIN. And, remember, the drawing will continue each and every week until a winning ticket is drawn.

County Officials Take Oaths

In his last official act of office, former County Judge, Don Hancock, gave the oath of office to incoming County Judge Stanley Duvall and other newly-elected and re-elected officials on New Years Day in the Yoakum County Courthouse here in Plains.

Others taking office, and receiving the oath included Mrs. Blanche Dyer, who was elected to the newly-created office of district clerk; Mrs.

Paul Loe, who was elected to her first full term as commissioner of Precinct No. 4; and H. C. (Doc) Cotton who was re-elected commissioner of Precinct No. 2.

Also J. W. O. Alldredge re-elected county clerk; Lloyd Steele, new justice of the peace at Denver City; E. S. Bandy, re-elected justice of the peace here, and two constables R. J. Van Liew here, and E. L. Hill at Denver City.

Scouts To Try Winter Camp

About 27 members of the Plains Boy Scout Troop, No. 778, along with scoutmasters, Johnnie Moore and Gene Young, and the District Scout Executive, Mr. Jerry Reese, of Brownfield, will take part in a brand new experience for the local troop beginning on Friday, January 11.

School officials have agreed to let members of the local troop out of school at 12 noon to begin the trek to the mountains.

The group will travel to the mountains in New Mexico, near Ruidoso.

The local troop, as yet, hasn't done any winter snow type camping.

Stork Stops

A girl, Jacquelyn Elizabeth was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hayes of Santa Rosa, New Mexico, on December 26.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Gene Payne and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hayes, all of Plains. Great-grandparents are Mrs. T. E. Payne and Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Beane, also of Plains, and Mrs. Grace Hayes of Barstow, Texas.

Remind Of Safety Stickers

"Our weather is getting worse all the time and April 15 will come before you know it," Captain Alan Johnson, Texas Department of Public Safety Supervisor, commented this week.

He was talking about the time left for Texas motorists to get 1963 vehicle safety inspections. The seven and one half month period for getting inspections is more than half finished. They started September 1, and will continue through April 15.

Since the period is so long, Johnson stated, no allowances are made for bad weather. He pointed out that inspections may not be made when streets are wet. "From now until April 15, we usually have a seige of bad weather in this part of the state which eliminates many inspections days."

He also pointed out that inspection of vehicles now will insure that they are safer for the rest of the winter driving period, when good lights, brakes and other equipment are so vital.

Failure to have a 1963 inspection sticker displayed on the windshield of your vehicle after April 15 is a violation of the law and is punishable by a fine not to exceed $200.

Calendars Due Soon

Announcement was made this week to the effect that the 1963 version of the Plains Area Birthday Calendars will be distributed sometime next week by members of the Band Boosters Club.

The calendar will feature a portrait of the Plains High School Band assembled in concert fashion. Birthdays and anniversaries of many Plains and area persons will also be found.

If you haven't ordered one of the calendars for yourself, one may be obtained later by contacting any member of the Band Boosters Club.

SIGN OF THE TIMES-----Cotton is still piled up pretty high around area cotton gins, but the harvest is about over as estimates have it about 98 percent out in the county.

Give Beet Acreage

WACO-(Dec. 27)--"Texas is a step closer to getting a beet sugar factory, thanks to the efforts of many county, state and national Farm Bureau leaders," president of the Texas Farm Bureau said today.

C. H. DeVaney, commenting on an announcement made by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, said that many farm leaders, particularly in West Texas, had worked hard to secure this added source of agricultural income for the state. Assisting Texans in Washington was the American Farm Bureau Federation. Also, Texas congressmen played a vital role in the increase in sugar beet acreage for Texas.

New Tax Regulations Detailed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A study of the new expense account tax regulations that are in effect for 1963 indicates they won't mean the death of a salesman but they will make him a more careful accountant.

The rules announced by the Internal Revenue Service require that from now on taxpayers will need receipts to prove deductions for more than $25 per item charged for business travel, entertainment and gifts.

Thus far, the IRS has spelled out details only for the record-keeping needed for the accounting. Further specific regulations will be announced later.

But government experts do provide these questions and answers:

Q. What records must a taxpayer keep to take a deduction for travel away from home?

Records Listed
A. The amount spent daily broken down into reasonable categories such as meals, gasoline and oil, car hire, taxi, etc.

The date of departure and return for each trip along with the number of days spent on business. The destination.
The business reason for the travel or the business benefit involved.

Q. Are records for local travel needed?

A. No. Existing law on such business expense remains the same.

Q. What about entertainment deductions?

A. You must record the amount spent, the date, the place of entertainment, the business reason for the entertainment and the name, title and other identification of those entertained so as to show the business relationship. You must also record the date, duration, place and nature of the business discussion with the names of participants.

Q. What about business meals?

Requirements Given
A. The cost, date, name and place of restaurant or hotel must be recorded, plus a note whether it is lunch or dinner and information on the guests.

Q. How about business gifts?

A. The record must show the cost, the date and the business reason for the gift such as the benefit expected. The occupation and identity of the recipient must be established to show a business relationship.

Q. Are separate entries needed for such expenses as taxi, street-car or telephone charges?

A. These may be summed up in reasonable categories, including a taxpayer's own meals while traveling.

Q. Do you have to disclose confidential information on expense accounting statements submitted to the government?

Audit Possible
A. No, but the information should be recorded separately for possible audit by the Internal Revenue Service.

Q. If you entertain a relatively large group, must each name be recorded?

A. No, not if they consist of a readily identifiable group. For instance, you could list: "Mr. Jones, branch manager of Y Co. and his 15 salesmen."

Q. What if you buy season or series tickets for such events as baseball and football games and give them to customers?

A. In general, each ticket must be treated as a separate item and the cost allocated accordingly. Records must be kept as to the use of each ticket for a gift or entertainment.

Q. How must tips be reported?

A. You can aggregate the amount of a tip with the outlay involved, thus for instance, adding it to the cost of a meal. If you want, you can separately state the daily total of tips.

Q. What if your company pays your air fare?

A. This doesn't have to be recorded unless you buy the ticket on your credit card and then

Examples Listed
A. As an architect, you invite four trustees of a real estate trust for lunch to discuss an apartment building you hope to design. How do you record this?

A. At or near the time of the lunch, you record: 1-3-63; Lunch and tip—$17; Cafe Plaza, New York, N. Y., with Jones, Brown, Green & Smith, trustees of Modern Real Estate Investment Trust concerning architectural plans for Claremont Village Ants. You do

A. The general rule is that you must obtain a receipt for any expenditures over $25. You must obtain a receipt for lodging regardless of cost. A receipt for transportation charges is needed only where they are readily available. The receipts should show amount, date, place and essential character of the expenditure. A cancelled check along with a bill ordinarily would establish the element of cost but a cancelled check drawn payable to a named payee would not by itself support a business expenditure without other evidence.

Q. What if you can't get a receipt for an expenditure of more than $25?

Written Statement Okay
A. Written statements by witnesses would help establish the right to a deduction. A waiver also is allowed in cases where a taxpayer, cannot produce a receipt for reasons beyond his control—fire, flood or other disaster.

Q. What if you have a yacht for entertainment purposes or pay dues to a country club?

A. You must establish that the facility was used primarily for the furtherance of your trade or business rather than personal use. Only such outlays as are directly related to the active conduct of business are deductible.

Q. What records do you need to show the yacht or country club was used primarily for business?

No Rule Of Thumb
A. There is no firm rule of thumb established yet. But generally you should keep records on the times of use, the number entertained, the cost of use. For routine personal family use, a notation with the date will be accepted.

Q. If you account to your employer for expenses and are reimbursed, do you have to keep a copy?

A. The average employe does not have to keep duplicates.

Q. How do you show your expense account deductions on your income tax return?

A. A full study is being made of this.

not need a receipt from the Cafe Plaza because the amount is less than $25.

Q. As president of a corporation, you have a bona fide business discussion with three officers of another corporation, then go to the Flair Nightclub where you buy drinks at the bar and dinner. What record is needed?

A. It would look like this: 1-3-63; taxi and tip ($2.55); drinks at bar & tip ($14), dinner ($24) and tip ($4) at Flair Club, Washington, D. C., for entertainment of President Black, vice president Chum and treasurer Drew of the Acme Corp., following business meeting with them at my office all afternoon concerning proposed distributorship arrangement. No receipt is needed for either the dinner or bar bill since both are less than $25.

Q. You hold a family membership in an athletic club for frequent use to entertain business customers. What records do you charge your employer?

A. You must establish that the club is used primarily for the furtherance of your business and maintain records of the daily use and the cost to bear out your con-

The record might look like this: Jan. 6—lunch with John Jones, (general manager, Doe Construction Co., Boston) regarding equipment rental contract.
Jan. 7—Family use.

Jan. 10—Personal lunch.

Jan. 15—Lunch with Ed Filbert, president, Central Development Corp., Hartford, regarding building at 3425 20th St. N., Arlington, Va.

Jan. 18—Family use.

Cakes, Candles, Commemorations Light March of Dimes 25th Year

Throughout the nation this month, candles will be lit on birthday cakes to symbolize the 25th anniversary of the March of Dimes.

The cakes will range from real ones of conventional size to monster, multi-tiered models as much as 12 feet in height and 10 feet in diameter—the approximate dimensions of the one to be erected in New York City's famed Times Square. Guests at anniversary events around the country, where there will be of more modest proportions, will be invited to decorate them with coins for the March of Dimes.

Many "parties" commemorating a quarter of a century of disease fighting will be held at special treatment centers for birth defects, arthritis and polio which March of Dimes contributions are financing today in more than 40 cities across the U.S. Other gatherings will be held in county chapter offices of The National Foundation-March of Dimes, in the homes of volunteers and elsewhere.

In many instances, guests at these campaign "kickoffs" will include governors or their wives, mayors and outstanding authorities in health fields. Other guests will be Americans of all ages who received March of Dimes aid during and after polio epidemics and outbreaks. Also present will be children and adolescents with birth defects or arthritis who have been treated at these March of Dimes centers.

To raise the millions required every year for patient aid and research in birth defects, arthritis and polio, each March of Dimes campaign is carefully planned many months ahead. There are millions of contribution envelopes and coin collectors to be distributed around the nation; hundreds of thousands of posters to be erected in every hamlet, town and city; two million volunteers to be organized for the Mothers' March (the climax to the campaign at the end of January), and March of Dimes films to exhibit to explain the work of the voluntary health organization.

Arrangements must be completed for the visit in January of the National March of Dimes

Jimmy Boggess, 5, of Coy, Ark., the 1963 National March of Dimes Child, blows out candles on birthday cake symbolizing first 25 years of aid to the crippled by the health organization.

Child—who this year is Jimmy Boggess, 5, Coy, Ark.—with President Kennedy at the White House and with various Senators and Congressmen and other dignitaries as well as with personalities of the stage, screen and television.

Special events for the March of Dimes are staged in all the big cities, many lesser ones and in some small towns. These include March of Dimes bowling tournaments, with "roll-offs" to select a national man or woman champion, fashion shows, auctions, teleramas, Coffee Days, Tag Days and street sales, neighborhood bread sales, air-lifts and a long list of sports activities.

The theme of this 25th Anniversary March of Dimes, which is "Give for the Life of a Child," will be stressed in all these special events, and the story told of the first 25 years of the organization. Highlights of that story are:

Patients aided, 338,000; expended for the medical care program, $385,500,000; for scientific research, $73,600,000; and for professional education, $38,000,000.

Basil O'Connor, president of The National Foundation-March of Dimes, referred in a recent speech to the 25th anniversary of the health agency.

"Most certainly we take pride in our past 25 years, and we rejoice. But deep down we really think of that quarter-century as only the start of a century for our future."

Dirt Gardeners Express Thanks Make Pilgrimage

Plains Dirt Gardeners met Thursday, December 20, at 7 p. m. for the Christmas Pilgrimage. The homes were decorated to depict a certain country or area.

First on the tour was the A. H. Bacon home representing Mexico with 72 luminaries outlining the front of the house, walk and driveway.

The arrangements in the house were beautifully designed of ordinary materials as used in Mexico, namely yucca pods, dried plant materials, evergreen branches, pine cones, candles and a miniature creche.

Second place was the L. O. Smith home representing the "Pioneer Plainsman." A wreath made of a lariat, cow bell, horse shoe and evergreen branches hung on the porch and a kerosene lantern on the porch post. A pile of mesquite grubs and a tub of cow chips were on the porch ready for the wood-burning stoves. Arrangements for the house were made of fruit, candy, paper sculpture, evergreens, mesquite branches, yucca, candles and kerosene lamps. Some of the lamps were used by pioneers of this area, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Davis.

The John E. Fitzgerald's home was decorated to represent the Holy Land. The decorations were made of candles, angel hair and figurines. The outside lighting was elaborate and very effective with a spotlight on an angel and luminaries outlining the sidewalk.

Outside decorations that were viewed were the homes of The Wilson Dukes', Robert Chambliss', Bill Overton's, Bill Loyd's, Leon Lewis', Ford Hawkins', and James Warrens'. The group also stopped to see the decorations in the Baptist Church which were made by two Garden Club members, Mrs. Leon Lewis and Mrs. Bill Overton.

After the tour was completed refreshments were served in the Club Room to the members and guests, Mesdames James Warren, Harvey Stotts, Leopal Robinson and I. L. Smith. A brief business session was also conducted.

Smith-Tidwell Vows Read

Silver Christmas trees prevailed in the setting created for the wedding of Miss Deanna Smith and Eldridge Tidwell at the First Baptist Church of Tatum December 26, 1962, at 7:00 p. m.

White and orchid carnations with palm leaves made the archway with candleabras holding orchid candles.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith of Tatum, New Mexico. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Tidwell of Plains Texas are the parents of the bridegroom. The Rev. Ray Cunningham performed the ceremony which united the couple in marriage. The bride was escorted to the altar by her father.

Maid of Honor was Miss Paula Tidwell sister of the bridegroom. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles Smith of Portales, New Mexico, the bride's sister-in-law, and Mrs. E. J. Henderson, the bride's sister of Amarillo.

Brenda Smith and Tracy Gaylon were flower girls. The candle lighters were Sharon Henderson of Amarillo and Janice Tidwell of Lubbock.

They wore identical dresses, street length, of orchid taffeta with white French lace bodices. With white accessories, the Maid of Honor wore orchid carnation corsage and the bridesmaids wore white carnation corsages.

Truman Gaylon of Lubbock, uncle of the bridegroom, was best man. The groomsmen were Charles Smith, the bride's brother of Portales, and Bobby Tidwell, the groom's cousin from Lubbock. The groom's brothers, Randy and Lyndyl Tidwell were ring bearers.

Miss Mary Cagle was the organist and Miss Sharon Fowler, the pianist. The soloist was Miss Charlotte Tidwell of Lubbock.

The bride's gown was silk organza over faille taffeta, designed with a scalloped neckline of chantilly lace with seed pearls. The gown also featured tapered long buttoned sleeves ending in points over her hands. The lace accents were repeated in wide skirt panels. The back had tiny minute covered buttons to the waist, with back panel skirt extending into a chapel train. She carried a rosebud cascade arrangement atop her white Bible. A seed pearl crown sprinkled with sequins, held her long scalloped Mantilla of chantilly lace veil.

In following the bridal tradition the bride chose a garter for something blue, her veil for something borrowed, her dress for something new, and in her Bible she carried a lace white handkerchief inherited from her Grand Mother as something old.

In her shoes, she placed two pennies, one minted the year of her birth, and the other minted in the year the bridegroom was born.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. The table was covered with orchid taffeta cloth with lace table overskirt. Her wedding cake was white, decorated with orchid flowers, and was served with punch.

For travelling, the bride wore a white brocade satin sheath dress with a white fur hip-length jacket. Her shoes and purse were gold, her jewelry was orchid and gold, her hat was white velveteen, and her corsage was white carnations from her bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Tatum High School and is now attending ENMU at Portales. The groom is also a graduate of Tatum High, and is now attending Sul Ross State at Alpine.

After a brief trip to Austin, the couple will make their home at Alpine, where they both will attend Sul Ross.

The Bidding:

North	East	South	West
Pass	Pass	1♦	Pass
1♠	Pass	3♠	Pass
4♦	Pass	4♠	Pass
Pass	Pass

Opening lead: Three of hearts.

West wins opening lead with the king of hearts and returns deuce of spades. North takes the spade trick with the ace; then draws the trumps in two more rounds, ending on the board. North then plays the five good diamond tricks sluffing one heart and one club from the closed hand. North then plays the two top clubs from dummy, trumps last club in closed hand and then trumps the last heart in the dummy to make six.

COMMENT: This hand was no trouble to play. South was too timid in the bidding. When South knew that North had good support, the slam effort should have been made by requesting aces.

Rev. ROBERT H. HARPER
NEW YEAR 1963

HAPPY NEW YEAR to all who may read these lines. It could well be wished that this year may be better than the last, which is rapidly and shame-facedly slipping into the past. It is well at intervals to look back over the way we have come, if perchance we can make our way better in the future. Such a time may be at the end of the year. So let us give a few moments to the year 1962.

Except for the fact that we all are grown a year older during the year, we can hardly regret the passing of 1962. The year has been filled with wars and rumors of wars around the earth. All the continents and the islands of the sea have felt the stirrings of the desire for change.

The agonized stirrings among the races and the nations have had their counterpart in unrest and violence and crimes of almost every imagined kind in our own great Country. It is distressing to find how many people there are in our land "who fear not God nor regard man."

The present month is named for Janus, the god of mythology who had two faces—one looking back upon the past and the other face turned to the future. Let us now turn with relief from the year 1962 to the year 1963 with a new hope and a new determination of better things through a brighter faith in God.
