Annual Meeting Of Cancer Unit Set For May 16

George R. Worley, Dallas, who within the framework of the American Cancer Society teaches the method of speaking in an unusual or post-laryngectomy voice, will be guest speaker at the annual meeting of the Eastland County Unit of the American Cancer Society to be held at the Christian Church in Eastland, Texas, May 16, at 7 p. m. according to Ben Edger, unit president.

For 35 years, Worley was advertising a public relations counsel of America's great industrial concerns in New York. Seven years ago he lost his voice box, through surgery, to cancer and learned to speak in the unusual method he now uses and teaches.

This method of speech depends on developing the knack of swallowing air and then forcing it up through the esophagus in a manner which creates tissue vibration that results in sound. This sound, then moulded in the oral cavity, produces words that are amazingly intelligible.

All members of the Eastland County Unit and other interested persons were urged to attend the meeting.

County Employment Tops 7,000; Industry Jobs Off

All population figures in Eastland County are up over 1960 except in two areas — manufacturing and agricultural employment.

Total county population reported by the Texas Employment Commission for April 1, 1962, is 20,045. That represents 519 more people in the county than was reported on the same date in 1960 (19,526). There were 19,640 that date in 1961, the Commission says.

The county labor force is up 175 over 1960. There were 7,285 "available" workers on April 1, 1962; 7,110 in 1961; and 7,080 in 1960, they report. Unfortunately unemployment is also up too, but with a very low figure of only five. There were only that many more unemployed in '62 (250), than in 1960 (245). Unemployment was greater in 1961 when 270 persons were without jobs on April 1.

Total employment in the county was up 170 and topped the 7,000 mark (by 5) for the first time in a long time. In 1960, the census reported 6,835 employed people; and 6,960 in 1961.

Totals were down in manufacturing (by 50) and agricultural (by 115). Both areas have declined in the past two years.

Non-manufacturing employment was up 335, with 5,485 reported in 1962; 5,295 in 1961; and 5,150 in 1960.

The report indicates that the area employment is trending toward service rather than farming and manufacturing.

Can you find the water heater in this picture?

It's under the counter between the sink and the dishwasher to deliver hot water faster where it's needed most frequently. Because an electric water heater is flameless and needs no flue, it can be installed almost anywhere, close to the point of greatest use. This ends long waits for hot water to reach the faucet and reduces waste due to water cooling in the pipes. An electric water heater with immersed heating elements is fast and efficient, too. It heats the water, not the tank. And because it's flameless, it's clean, safe and completely silent in its operation. See the quick recovery electric water heaters now on display. Your appliance dealer or plumber will gladly help you select the model that best fits your needs.
