In Levelland For Play-Offs

Plains Little League was left somewhat up in the air at the close of the season this year due to the fact that the All-Star playoffs were moved up one full week from their originally - scheduled time, and that if the local regular season's schedule had been completed, even a nearly sufficient amount of time for All-Star workouts would not, it was explained, have been available.

Actually since the entire season was not completed, no clear-cut winner of the local league can, in all fairness be named. However, league named. standings at the time when play was stopped found the teams standing Yanks, Indians, Cubs and Giants. Named from the leagueleading Yanks team to the

All-Star roster were the following boys: Ricky Burt Mike Duek Mike Loe

Tennie Lowe Vernon Stach Boys named from the Indians' squad were: Eddie Hickman Gary Livesay Larry Massey Clark Parrott From the Cubs' lineup the boys who made the roster are: Wayne Harris Mike Nugent Robert Riojos Jerry Heald And finally from the Giants was named: Boyce Trout.

Winding up the season, the batting averages of each of the boys on all the teams have now been tabulated. They, according to the scorebooks, wound up with Teenie Lowe,

Parade Starts

11th Annual edition of the Plains Rodeo and Old Settlers Reunion is in the very near future, and plans for putting it on are all but complete at this point.

To get things started off with a big bang, the annual Rodeo Parade will again this year be held at 5 p.m. on Thurdsay evening, July 30. Many entries in the parade in the form of floats are expected again this year and local businesses and civic clubs are urged to cooperate to make this the best parade ever by making an all out effort for every business and club to have a float or display in the parade. Again this year, the judging of the floats will be done by out-of-town judges, and prizes in the form of cash will be awarded to first, second and third place floats.

Evening performances will start each night of the three scheduled at 8 p.m. and the program each evening will include the following:

All-Stars travelled to Levelland tonight (Thursday) for their first found of play in the play-offs. If they win tonight they will play tomorrow and also Saturday night.

Coaches for this year's All-Stars team are Jack Lowe, Yanks mgr., and Dub Nelms, manager for the Indians. On Tuesday evening, July 7, Mr. Everett Dunn of Plains was arrested and placed in the local jail by City Night-Watchman, C. E. Brice, Report of the incident, as related by Brice, was that Dunn was seen walking on the sidewalk and that he was in a condition of intoxication.

DUNN JAILED

Brice related further that he pulled along side Dunn in his car and saw clearly that Dunn was intoxicated and so told Dunn that he should go home and "sleep it off. "

According to Brice, Dunn became rather surley after this adivce, upon which Brice got out of his car to try to reason with him. Dunn is reported

FIRE TRUCKS to have taken a swing at Brice and to have knocked Brice's glasses off, after which, ac-cording to Brice, "I cold-co-cked him and took him to jail. The charge of aggravated assault was lodged against Dunn and he was tried before Justice of the Peace Bandy, where he was found guilty and fined $50. He, it is reported, laid out the fine for four days

If one drives out to the very edge of Plains on the street on the West side of the Court House going North, the con-struction which is currently underway on the proposed Scout Hut-Lions Den can be seen.

Yesterday, the steel girders had all been set in place and welded together, and the roof purlings had all been welded on and in place.

The building, to be a steel building, finished on the outside with alternating panels of white and turquoise corrugated metal.

Completion of this portion the buidling is expected within two more weeks.

Following the exterior work on the building, Faulkenberry Builders Supply and Mac's Plumbing and Electric will need several more weeks to complete the finish work on the inside.

Dedication and the begin-ning of use of the building is expected somewhere near the first part of September.

July 19-25 has been proclaimed National Farm Safety Week.

President Lyndon B. Johnson called on all persons and organizations in the nation "to unite in a strong and purposeful effort to reduce farm, home and rural highway accidents to an irreducible minimum.'

The 21st annual farm safety pro-gram, sponsored by the U. S. Depariment of Agriculture and the National Safety Council, is built around the theme, "Safer American Families Everywhere.

In his proclamation, the President said that despite the effectiveness of safety programs among farm residents, "accidents still cause thousands" of deaths and nearly a million disabling injuries to farm people each year.

"This loss of human and economic resources causes a significant adverse impact upon the economy of the entire nation and must be viewed as a matter of national concern."

Primary concentration of the 1964 campaign wil be on safety with farm chemicals, preventing home poisonings, and tractor safety.

Farming remains the nation's third most hazardous occupation, according to Howard Pyle, NSC president.

"While our farm population is declining, the total number of deaths to farm residents each year remains almost unchanged." Pyle said.

"In the past the death rate from farm accidents was only slightly higher than the national average," he asserted. "But in recent years the difference has grown, and in 1962 it

Expecting a new baby in your family? Perhaps your named Willie Garden. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. first? And getting almost panicky at the thought that you will be responsible for the care, feeding and well being of a tiny new human life?

Be reassured by the fact that other people -- also without special training -- have brought up children who successfully grew into healthy, emotionally stable and highly productive members of society, says a new American Medical Association pamphlet "A Child in the Family.

The first few weeks at home the baby gets to know you, and you learn a few things about him, too. Most important, you learn that he is an individual with likes and dislikes and a willingness to express them. Also, you will discover that he is rather sturdy and won't break with reasonable handling. He needs lots of sleep, but awakes often and bungty hungry.

Your doctor can help much in giving you pointers on care of the baby, but no physician can anticipate every situation and tell parents exactly what to do. There is no one right way to bring up babies. The relaxed parent can enjoy his baby and do what is right for him most of the time, though an occasioanl problem with require the doctor's adivce. Breast feeding or bottle feeding is a perennail argument with good opinion on both sides, talk it over with your doctor.

Sleep is essential. During the early weeks, baby sleeps practically all of the time. He awakens only when hun-gry. Awake in his crib, place baby so he can see what is going on around him. Covering the sides of the crib to prevent drafts also reduces his view and his chance to learn about and respond to his environment. Crying is baby's language.

It's his way to show discomfort, protest against hunger, pain, being wet and being cold, and to demand the attention he wants. Until he learns to talk, it is his only menas of attracting attention to his needs and desires. Discipline is training for living. It must start early, be constant and consistent, and guide the child in hwat to do, as well as what not to do. Children need a discipline that sets limits for them. They must learn to accept authority, but it should be a firm, reasonable, kind authority that deserves respect.

Experience shows that despite parental bewilderment ghrough the years of growth most children grow up to be good citizens and to assume responsibility as their parents have before them.

Taking a look back at the local paper's edition of July 17, 1958, the following was found to be the news of the day:

> Formal openings were just around the corner for Alma's and the Stop and Wash Laundry.

According to W. M. Overton, ASCS office manager, as of this date cotton has been measured on approximately 100 of the 392 Yoakum County cotton farms by ASC crop re-porters. Approximately 25% of the farms checked have excess cotton and to avoid Marketing Quota Penalties the excess must be destroyed by August 15, 1964. The regulations require that excess cotton be destroyed in regular shaped fields with nto more than four sides and under the Marketing Quota Regulations producers must pay the cost for checking excess destroyed cotton. The price charged is the same as under previous programs; $4.00 for the first plot and $2.00 for each additioanl plot over one. Farmers should keep in mind that they may if they wish, destroy their cotton down to the domestic allotment, wheih is, in many cases, 67% of the effective allotment. Some farmers may be interested in complying with their domestic allotment due to the poor conditions of the cotton on many farms at this time, All farm operators were mailed an allotment notice whcih gave the Domestic Allotment and payment rates. If a man has a 100 acre effective cotton allotment and a 67 acre domestic allotment and he signed up and was approved for the 5% export acreage; which would permit him to have 105 acres; this farm has been measrued and has 107 acres cotton and a notice has been mailed showing the farm to have 2 acres of excess cotton and to avoid a Marketing Qouta Penalty the 2 acres excess must be destroyed by August 15, 1964. In this case the farmer will have the 5% export cotton wheih must be sold for export and the balance of the production will be eligible for price support. Or this farmer may destroy 7 acres cotton by the August 15th deadline and in this case he will be within his effective allotment and all the cotton will be eligible for price support; or he may destroy down to the domestic allotment. which is in most cases 67 acres and be eligible for price support on all the cotton produced plus the farm's approved cotton doemstic payment per acre times the 67 acres. However, to be eligilbe for the domestic cotton support price payment the feed grain base on the farm must not be exceeded if the effective cotton allotment is more than 15 acres.

Due to weather conditions it is not expected that many of the Feed Grian farms will be measured until after August 1. It is believed that by this
