PLAINS COWGIRLS WIN STATE CROWN

Retail Sold

The Retail Merchants Association of Plains changed ownership May 1st with the purchase of the business by Mrs. R. J. Van Liew from Mrs. Molly Courtney Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Liew have moved the office of the Retail Merchant's Association to the Don Hancock building. Mrs. Van Liew is employed as secretary to the manager of the Chamber of Commerce. She is a graduate of Plains High School having lived in the city for over 20 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Liew have two children. Both attend school in the Plains Elementary school. The Van Liews are members of the First Baptist Church.

Most of the businesses in Plains are members of the Retail Merchants Association.

Mrs. Van Liew extends an invitation to all of the members to come by the Association office at their convenience and if there are any questions about the Association, she will be happy to answer them.

An invitation is also extended to those business men who are not members to join the Association and to come by if any information is desired.

Mrs. Clark is now in the Real Estate business in Plains and is the secretary for the Yoakum County Federal Credit Union.

"I Could Have Danced All Night" at the Prom.

Juniors-Seniors Attend Big Prom

The Junior and Senior Prom, the most gala and festive event in the lives of high school students all over America, came to Plains Saturday night.

As was true when mom and pop were young adults caught up in the magic spell of the tunes of Glen Miller and Tommy Dorsey, and grandpa and grandma dancing to the tunes of the Blackbottom and the Grissley Bear, our teenage couples were deep in the fascination of dancing the Frug and the Jerk.

The couples donned their best formals and dark suits and put on their best manners and were proud of their corsages and boutonnières and strutted to the prom just like millions before them have done when they enjoyed one of the best and most memorable nights of their lives.

"Tender is the Night," was the theme for the Banquet and the Prom and the best beaux picked up their best gals and went to the High School cafeteria to dance until after midnight.

The flowers and formals were beautiful, but the memories of the Prom will last forever in the minds of all of the young adults who attended, because this is truly the greatest moment in the school year for our Juniors and Seniors.

It doesn't really matter whether the Charleston, the Two Step, Jitterbug, or the Jerk is the rage of the day, because the meaning is the same each year, and it is good that our young adults can plan each year for the greatest Prom of all.

Mrs. Earl Kreig and her third grade class visited The Plains Record recently, and the class was shown how an offset weekly newspaper is put together. The students learned how to set a headline and received demonstrations of developing film in the darkroom.

The press used for commercial printing was run for the benefit of the students. Members of The Record staff enjoyed the students visit and hope that someday the world will see good journalists from the group, and that the children will come back for another visit.

The State Champs pose with their trophy.

The high flying Cowgirls from Plains High School brought home their fourth straight State Championship in volleyball last Saturday, having defeated Roosevelt and Sims in the State Tournament at Abilene.

The Cowgirls set a new record for the state of Texas in winning the State Championship for the fourth straight year.

Four of the team members of the Cowgirls were listed on the All-State-Team. They were: Sara K. Field, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Field; Brenda Blair, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barron Blair; Kathy Anderson, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Bean; and Janie Hamm, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Hamm.

Mrs. Bob Gross has coached the team to the four state titles, and the team won a beautiful trophy which will be put in the permanent trophy case in the lobby at the gymnasium.

Coach Gross

Business men and merchants are treating the State Champions to an appreciation banquet at Alma's cafe tonight. While the girls were returning from the regional tournament, an interested group of boosters arranged for the appreciation banquet to be given for the then defending State Champions, but after Saturday they became the new Champions for 1965, an accomplishment which has eluded all other schools in the history of the State Volleyball contests.

In the first games of the contest Plains defeated Roosevelt 15-5 and 15-0. The Cowgirls had previously defeated Roosevelt at Regional play.

After crushing Roosevelt in the Friday game, the Cowgirls out played Sims with equal determination, successfully defending their State Title 15-2 and 15-1.

The Cowgirls will be honored by having their picture appear in the rule book used throughout the state next year.

Many well wishers and friends have extended their congratulations to the Champions and Saturday, hardly a person could be seen in town, who wasn't anxiously awaiting the outcome to see how the team came out.

Members of the Cowgirl team extend their thanks to Moore & Oden for their traveling bags and to their boosters for all of the support they have given them this year.

School Honor Winners Named

Rev. Moore In Wreck

Rev. Johnnie Moore, Plains, and Rev. Robert Hooks, Levelland, were returning from Austin this past week-end from a state convention of Christian Churches when in Northern Gaines County, between Seminole and Denver City a lady identified as Mrs. Sweatt is reported to have turned her car into the path of the auto driven by Rev. Moore to make a left turn.

Moore said that he pulled to the ditch in order to miss the turning car and hit soft dirt turning the Stingray which he was driving over. The car went through the air about 60 feet and skidded on its top for another 150 feet, finally coming to rest right side up.

Neither of the pastors were seriously injured in the accident. Rev. Moore is the minister of the First Christian Church in Plains, and is the former publisher of the Plains Record.

Last year Rev. Hooks was named the State's Town and Country Minister of the year and this year was named the Nation's Town and Country Minister of the year for the whole brotherhood of Christian Churches.

Russell Jones is the Valedictorian for Plains Junior High this year. Young Jones is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Truett Jones. Russell had an average of 96.64.

Billy Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Ray Kennedy, is the Salutatorian for the year in the Junior High School, with an average of 93.94.

Russell Jones

Both boys recently became the first Eagle Scouts in the history of Plains.

Russell was born in Lamesa, and is 14 years old. He has been active in Band, Football, Basketball, and Track. He plans on attending The University of Texas when he graduates from High School. His goal is to become a farmer.

The County Commissioner's Court approved payment of the bills and checked the insurance on the Yoakum County Clinic at their regular meeting this week. Some water damage described as slight, was reported to have damaged the floor of the building. The exact cause was not known, but it was believed that either the sewer line backing up or the water heater leaking

Wauson Named Fireman

Bear Paw Wauson was named Fireman of the Year at the annual banquet of the Plains Volunteer Fire Department last week, in the first annual presentation of the award, at Alma's restaurant.

Wauson was presented a framed citation signed by the mayor of Plains at the banquet. Fire Chief Johnnie James acted as master of ceremonies at the banquet and presented members with their fifteen year buttons, five and one year awards, and asked their ladies to pin their buttons on the firemen. Chief James stated that the combined experience of members of the Volunteer Fire Department totals about 175 years.

Fire Marshal Sherm Tingle presented a history of the Department, tracing it from the bucket brigade days to the present time, giving a list of equipment which has been added to their inventory.

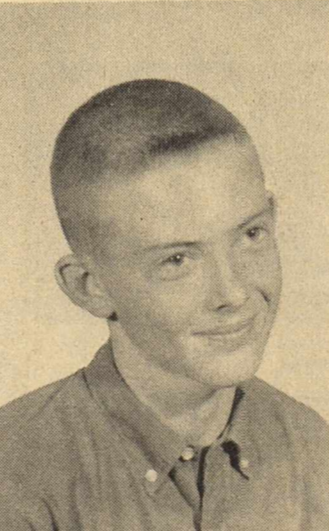

Special thanks were extended to members of the County Commission for their help in building the Fire Department. Commissioner Raymond Bokout, and Mrs. Paul Loe were guests at the banquet.

The Lovington Fire Chief and safety officer spoke at the program, and other guests included members of the City Council and the mayor.

About 60 people attended the banquet, and were treated to 18 ounce steaks.

The name of Wauson was kept a secret until the presentation was made. Chief James said that only members of the selection committee knew the results.

The banquet was attended by the firemen and their ladies and photographs were taken of the presentations.

Billy Kennedy

Young Kennedy also wants to attend The University of Texas and wants to become a lawyer. He also was active in Band, Football, Basketball, and Track. Kennedy is also 14 years old.

Cancer Drive

The Yoakum County American Cancer Crusade workers from the Tsa Mo Ga Study Club, Iota Pi Sorority, Order of the Eastern Star, Christian Women Fellowship and Home Demonstration clubs have reported to date $686.87 collected through special gifts and the house to house campaign. We feel people have been generous with their contributions, and with this success this dread disease will be conquered through research. We hope every citizen had an opportunity to contribute and receive the educational material about cancer and its progress through research. In the event some of the Plains area citizens may not have been contacted and would like to contribute to the life-saving research, they may mail their contribution to Mrs. P. W. St. Romain, Crusade Chairman or any of the club workers.

Courthouse NEWS

In other action the court approved the sale of $50,000.00 worth of bonds, to be re-purchased.

In last weeks meeting, the Court heard Bill Cox, Seminole, present the budget for the county's part of the State health department. It was reported that the county spends approximately 52 cents per person annually, which is the lowest in the entire nation. The national average is about $1.42 per year. The reason given by Cox was the fact that there are only a few tubercular cases in the county.

He stated that his office would probably request less money from the County Commission this year than was appropriated last year.

The matter of adding a filter to the swimming pool in Stanford Park was discussed, but since a new budget will be in effect soon, the members of the Court decided to wait until the new budget goes into effect before undertaking repair and improvements on the pool.

After the regular meeting Monday the members of the County Court stated that they are working hard to get a medical doctor to come to Plains, and that the best prospect at this time, is an Air Force Officer at San Antonio who plans to come to Plains soon to look into the matter.

All of the members of the County Court stated that they have been making individual telephone calls to possible applicants for the clinic. The County Judge has obtained a medical directory listing the names of doctors wishing to relocate.

Snake Killed

How many people drove around the Courthouse square Monday morning before ten o'clock? If you were one of them, you probably didn't see the big rattlesnake coiled up in the road in front of the White Auto Store.

Mrs. R. J. Van Liew went to the school after her daughter who had phoned that she was ill and returning from the school she saw the rattler coiled in the street.

She went into the White Auto Store and told Frank Whitlock and he went outside and killed the reptile with a hoe.

This is the first rattlesnake which has been reported in downtown Plains this year.

The editor was overheard to say that he sure hopes that some city slicker doesn't read this story, because if they come through Plains, they will probably speed up.

When asked if she was afraid of the snake, Mrs. Van Liew said that she had no comment to make on the subject, but that she kept her distance and Frank Whitlock killed the snake.

CAYCE'S CORNER

Last Saturday Cayce and his family were riding around Plains and stopped by to drink coffee with Mr. and Mrs. Hoss Newsom. Cayce was really glad that he did because Verne sang an old Hoss. She picked up a pair of shiny black dress shoes that had a good coat of bootblack on them, in fact they were just about the best looking dress shoes in town.

But under close observation a slight defect came to light. Hoss had worn the shoes to Lubbock to a meeting of the Archeological Society, and after getting there he noticed that one of the shoes was a black dress shoe, the other a dress shoe alright, but it was not the mate and had tiny holes in it, being a late model summer shoe. Hoss, we know you weren't in style, but just think about the comfort. Bet your corns didn't hurt that night.

This week our little girl Paris walked from The Record Office next door to play with her pal Carrie Taylor, but all of a sudden she came running into the office with her little heart pounding and shedding real tears.

We finally found out what the excitement was about. It seems that she saw a lizard on her way, and "lizzards" have big teeth and they bite little girls. I sure hope the lizard wasn't as scared as she was.

People used to say don't bet against the Yankees, Notre Dame, or Joe Louis, and now people all over the State are adding a new one to the list. Don't bet against the Plains Cowgirls Volleyball Team, because after winning four straight State Titles, they are a lead pipe cinch.

Last Saturday Dick Cayce discovered that it is better to run envelopes through the old press than his fingers. He thought about it if it were worse to have a hand in the press with no doctor in miles or to have a cigarette and no match.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Sales Talk

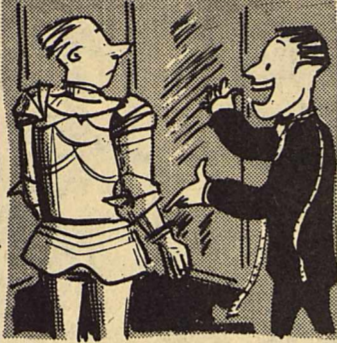

"This suit will wear like iron," the friendly salesman assures you. If it doesn't really wear like iron, are you entitled to a refund?

Obviously not. Even though the salesman exaggerated, any sensible person would have taken his statement with a grain of salt. The law doesn't require absolute honesty by a seller for the simple reason that people just don't expect it.

"It always has been understood, the world over," observed Oliver Wendell Holmes, "that such statements are to be distrusted."

Of course, salesmanship can spill over into fraud. Although the dividing line is not always clear, there are several factors that weigh heavily in the law's balance.

For instance: Was the seller stating a fact or only an opinion? "This car will last you for the next five years" is usually just the seller's opinion, not a specific guarantee. But "This car is only five years old" is factual. By and large, the law expects statements of fact to be accurate.

Also, a seller has a greater duty to be truthful when there is a relationship of trust between him and the buyer. Thus, talk by a seller was held to be fraud, not salesmanship, because he happened to be the buyer's trusted adviser.

And a seller with technical knowledge of the product, not available to the buyer, must stick closer to the truth—because the buyer is more likely to rely on what he says. Moralists may argue that a seller should be held to total truth, plain and unvarnished, under all circumstances.

But, after all, it isn't necessarily a question of saint and sinner. Buyers, too, often stretch a point in the process of bargaining. If sellers exaggerate, buyers belittle. What the seller calls a peach, the buyer calls a lemon. The Bible (Proverbs 20:14) puts it this way: "It is naught, it is naught, saith the buyer: but when he is gone his way, then he boasteth."

EDITORIALS

We of The Record are proud of the members of the Plains High School Volleyball team. We are proud for many reasons. We extend our sincere congratulations to the team and to their coach, Mrs. Bob Gross, for defending the State Title, and bringing it home for the fourth consecutive year giving prestige to our High School.

The team has set a new record, having put in the pages of the record book their fourth title in a row. They have earned our respect, and we know that the team members walk with the air and distinction of true champions.

We appreciate the sportsmanship displayed by these young ladies and their fine coach throughout the season. Most of all, the Plains Cowgirls have displayed something more difficult than if they had been defeated, that is the fact that they are good winners and are ladies in every respect of the word.

We tip our hat to the Cowgirls of Plains!

THE ALL-AMERICAN BAIT

If anyone ever got around to selecting the "All-American Bait" he'd doubtlessly award the title to the common earthworm. This slimy, wriggling bundle of dynamite implanted on a hook is about as lethal to fish as anything you can name.

While the average person is apt to call the worm "common," its effectiveness on fish certainly is not, vow the experts on fishing at Mercury outdoors. For proof, they say, ask any 10-year-old what produces best. Invariably the answer is "Worms!"

While many fishermen (mostly older and more experienced) are inclined to scorn the use of "garden hackle," the reasons for its popularity are many. Best of all, worms work.

Fish are treated to earthworm feasts only on infrequent occasions when heavy rains wash these delicacies into the streams and lakes. For fish it's like a steak dinner after a diet of hamburgers.

Worms are easily obtained. If one doesn't care to dig his own, a quarter or half-a-buck will buy a day's supply.

Depending on the species of fish sought and water conditions, worms may be used individually or in gobs, or coupled with an endless number of lures: spoons, streamer flies, spinners, etc.

Night crawlers, the large economy-sized worms, are about as much fun to snare as the fish they attract.

UNCLE ZEB

"Tax" comes from the Latin word "Taxare" which means to touch sharply. . . . The more paternal care we ask Uncle Sam to provide for us the more sharply we can expect to be touched. . . .

The grandest "Great Society" which we could build would be to both discipline our own selves and to teach our children a good lesson in old-fashioned thrift. . . .

If we can't believe anything that we hear and only half of what we see, then we need to be real careful what we think about.

A successful social climber might be one that learns to get along with those they cannot get ahead of.

The greatest boon to modern day politicians was when they learned the secret of spending the income of future generations.

Uncle Jay Bob says that he finds it real hard to run one's own business. . . . It seems a lot simpler to go down on the street corner and run the country.

The thing that worries most employees these days is the number of unemployed folks still on the payroll.

The secret to catching fish is to go yesterday while the fish were biting.

It is always a bitter dose when we have to swallow our own medicine.

No matter how bright we think we are, there are always some folks who would like to polish us off.

Disappointment is not always as we are reminded of the importance of the fact that new ideas are the source of all economic growth. And it is equally important that new ideas are generated by individual men who somehow get fired up to put their abilities to work. The challenge is the challenge you have of finding ways to stimulate that incentive in yourself and in others.

An antique is an article that has made its way to the attic and back again.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

There should be little wonder that Washington bureaucrats have trouble understanding Asia. At times they even have difficulty understanding the problems of the U. S. A.

Several months ago, stampeded by labor officials and assorted "do-gooders," the Congress made it illegal to continue the importation of farm workers from Mexico, the so-called "braceros."

C. W. Harder

Labor Secretary Willard Wirtz, who perhaps never saw a farm in operation, stubbornly insists that the American unemployed can do the work. The only problem is that the American unemployed will not do this type of work.

Recently, Phillip Mark, executive head of a big California cooperative cannery operating five plants, announced that they will not attempt to pack tomatoes this year.

In addition, he announced that the directors have authorized a tomato canning plant to be established in Mexico. A large share of the fresh table tomatoes are now being shipped in from south of border.

Thus one California town of about 40,000 population will lose an estimated payroll of some $400,000 and another million dollars in supplies and service purchased in the area.

Challenge to Order IOOF Incentive

By D. D. MONROE
Past Grand Sire, Sovereign Grand Lodge

Every day of our lives, we are reminded of the importance of the fact that new ideas are the source of all economic growth. And it is equally important that new ideas are generated by individual men who somehow get fired up to put their abilities to work. The challenge is the challenge you have of finding ways to stimulate that incentive in yourself and in others.

Certainly, when you can tie those basic drives to financial incentives and make them work together, you get the kind of spectacular results that make a country great, but when you tie those basic drives to fundamentals and ideals you get the kind of spectacular results that make a great organization, and a great people.

I offer today no trite apologies for the past. All of us have made mistakes. It is easier to look back and spotlight errors in judgment than it is to look forward and safeguard the future. We get nowhere blaming other people. Much of the mistakes of the past has been our foolish trust in collective wisdom. We have thought that as a world order our brains would be a match for the tragic drift in the world's life. What we lacked was the clear spiritual illumination that comes only to men and women who individually dedicate themselves to ideals.

Our failure in this has been the one colossal blunder of our times. We failed utterly to see that there were two irreconcilable forces, battling for the supremacy of the world and in

Mrs. Nell Duff went to Roby last Wednesday for the funeral of her sister-in-law Mrs. B. T. Harrison.

Word was received Monday of the death of Mr. Harn Harris of Tatum, New Mexico. Mr. Harris had many friends here in Plains.

Fill the picnic basket with an easy-to-fix supper — Quick German Potato Salad, knackwurst or bratwurst ready for the charcoal grill, relishes, fruit and cupcakes. Don't forget a cooler of sparkling 7-Up. Cover the hot potato dish with foil and wrap in many layers of newspapers to keep it warm. Or, reheat the potatoes in a foil pan on the grill. Be sure to select fully-cooked German-style sausages. Simply brush with oil and grill until browned.

QUICK GERMAN POTATO SALAD

6 slices bacon	1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup chopped onion	1/2 cup white vinegar
1/2 cup chopped green pepper	1 bottle (7 oz.) 7-Up
2 tablespoons flour	4 lbs. potatoes peeled, cooked and sliced
1 tablespoon salt
1/2 teaspoon dry mustard

Fry bacon until crisp. Drain bacon on absorbent paper, then crumble. Reserve 3 tablespoons bacon drippings. Sauté onion and green pepper in drippings. Stir in flour and seasonings. Cook over low heat, stirring until smooth and bubbly. Remove from heat. Slowly stir in vinegar and 7-Up. Heat to boiling, stirring constantly. Boil for 1 minute. Stir in potatoes and crumbled bacon; heat thoroughly. Makes about 16 servings.

Beauty Show

Viva's Beauty Shop was represented at the Southwest Beauty Show in Amarillo Sunday, May 2, 1965.

La'Oreal of Paris hair color and cosmetics were demonstrated.

Raun and Corola were guest artists. They are the first boy and girl platform artist team in the United States. They are owners of the Hair Hunters Salons in the Los Angeles area in California. They taught the creative styles of this generation. Very short hair is definitely the thing for our summer styles. Some very pretty up-do's and a very attractive pig-tail styles were given.

The hair styles this season require much less teasing and are more casual than they have been for some time now.

Those attending the show were Linda Huddleston, Jo Ann Barron, Peggy Welch and Viva Hale. Of course Jesse Hale went along to bring everyone back. He always enjoys the day of watching the pretty models and certainly shows the ladies a most enjoyable day.

The day was well spent and will be of much help to the local beauty shop.

LIBRARY CORNER

Mrs. Norelle Sloan, Plains and Mrs. Jessie Fouche librarians of Yoakum County Library attended the Annual Conference of The Texas Library Association in Corpus Christi recently. Headquarters were in the Driscoll Hotel.

Mrs. Lillian Bradshaw, State President, directed the general sessions. The theme of the 52nd conference was "Texas Libraries: The Reach for Excellence."

There were many interesting speakers at the divisional meetings and luncheons.

The next conference will be held in Austin.

The Texas Library Association has developed standards for Texas Libraries which will put our feet on the path toward excellence. But to attain these standards for college, school and public libraries need your intelligence, your community prestige, your political know how and the help of every citizen and friend of the library. We need you to spread the word of what makes an adequate library. We need you to persuade Texans to work for better libraries. We need you to work with the legislatures so that our library laws can be revised and made appropriate for the development of libraries which will meet today's needs.

There are 595,386 Texans with no library service. 6.2% of the 1960 population.

33 Texas Counties have no library service and only 4.3% of all Texas Elementary Schools have a centralized library. Texas ranks 33rd among the 50 states in money spent per school child.

The week of April 25 to May 1 was National Library Week. The National Theme was "Open Your Future - Read."

TsaMoGa

The TsaMoGa Club met in regular session with Mrs. Bill Loyd, President presiding. Roll call was answered by "Tall Texas Tales." Many interesting stories were revealed.

Mrs. Sherm Henard, program director highlighted our Texas Heritage, then introduced Mrs. Ruth O'Neal, who gave many facts about "Markers and Monuments, Old Homes and Buildings." Mrs. C. C. Perkins led us on an imaginary visit to the many parks and on several pilgrimages to the State and Federal parks in Texas.

Mrs. R. W. St. Romain gave her report on the District Convention held in Friona, March 30, 1965. Plains Tsa Mo Ga club made a good showing at the convention by winning several certificates and awards.

In the business meeting it was decided to assist the Lions Club in bringing a film to the ladies of the community, hoping to enlighten them on the need of censorship of the films and magazines being used and sold to the younger generation of today. The plan at present is for a showing May 6th.

Several club members volunteered to help in the Cancer Drive house to house campaign April 27th.

Plans to honor the Senior Citizens and the Past Presidents are being made for the next meeting May 10th.

Mrs. Glenn Cleveland and Mrs. Tom Warren were hostesses in the beautifully decorated clubroom to 20 members and 1 visitor, Mrs. Bill Powell, a former member.

Safety Meet

The local Home Demonstration Clubs will sponsor a Traffic Safety program, Thursday, May 6, at 2:00 p. m. in the Clubroom. Rip Sewell the Drivers Education Instructor from Plains High School, will be the speaker and the public is invited to attend.

There will also be a salad supper May 11, at 7:30 p. m. in the Plains High School Cafeteria. All members are urged to attend. The program for the evening will be "Our Golden Age" with a panel discussion conducted by Cleatus Phelan, of Plains, Dr. Squires of Denver City, Rev. John Ferguson, of the First Baptist Church of Denver City, and Mrs. M. B. Titworth of Denver City will be the senior citizen on the program. Mrs. Tom Box will be the moderator for the discussion. Special guests for the evening will be the County Commissioners, Judge Duval, and their wives.

Mrs. Tom Box will give a book review June 1, at 1:30 p. m. in the Clubroom on White Mother. The public is invited to attend this book review.

Just Thinking

Mary Faulkner Payne

HAVE YOU TRIED THESE SIX THINGS?
 Laughing at difficulties and found them disappearing?
 Attempting heavy responsibilities and found them growing lighter?
 Facing a bad situation and found it clearing up?
 Telling the truth and found it the easiest way out?
 Doing an honest day's work and found it rewarding?
 Believing men honest and found them measuring up to expectations?

NAM.

I am not sure if it is my newspaper training or just plain curiosity, but I find that I watch signs, of all kinds, from billboards to Neons, and evaluate them as to the firm's ability to communicate, or their taste in art work, and even the use of a name, to see if it all fits in with the product or the firm.

Just as many houses take on the look of their inmates, signs and insignias of all kinds tell characteristics of the organization or individual who uses them.

Sometimes I find a natural - as I did in Conroe - when I went to a Beauty Parlor, in a lovely French type building, and the sign read "Hilara Rose".

The name was so pretty and the proprietress, also pretty, and pleasant that I remarked about the name, and asked her where it came from.

It turned out that that was her real name, unusual though it was, but the name itself promised beauty and fitted as aptly as any name of a firm I have ever seen.

Little Ann was allowed to sit in her mother's place at the dinner table one evening when her mother was absent.

Her slightly older brother, resenting the arrangement, sneered, "So you're the mother tonight. All right, how much is two times seven?"

Without a moment's hesitation, Ann replied nonchalantly, "I'm busy, ask your father."

With the tremendous pressures of our space age living, it's no wonder so many people suffer from neuroses and nerves.

The best recipe for relaxing was told to me, many years ago, with the story of an old and respected colored lady, who lived to a great age.

At the party given for her, a reporter asked her how she had lived so long and kept in such fine health.

Her reply was: "Well suh, when I works, I works hard, and when I sits, I sits loose, and when I starts to wurry, I just goes to sleep."

One of our local fathers told his small son recently that he couldn't go to church because he was suffering from a severe case of involuntary inertia.

"I bet you aren't," the boy answered, "I bet you're just lazy."

To be of real service you must give something which cannot be bought or measured in money, and that is sincerity and integrity.

Not long ago the worth of a man was reckoned at $1.50 - based on the value of the chemical content of his body. Now, with atomic power in view, all this is changed.

Some smart fellow has figured out that the atoms in the human body will produce 11,400,000 kilowatts of power per pound. If they could be harnessed, that is.

At $570.00 for that amount of power, a man who weighs in at 150 pounds is worth $85,500.

All too often, these days, the boss can't get enough energy out of a man to make him worth a day's wages. (News Roundup)

Mary, Mary, quite contrary, how does your aspirin grow? This bit of doggerel is different from the childhood version but the chances are you really are growing aspirin in your garden.

Aspirin, the most widely-used medicine in the world, is a salicylate, and salicylates can be found in many garden flowers, or the willow tree, or the plants of common fruits, including orange, cherry, grape and strawberry.

Colorful plants that contain salicylates are hyacinth, tulip, marigold and pansy.

844 Million In Year

If civilization's progress can be gauged by the number of times people nowadays see a doctor in interest of their good health, then it might be said we are living in a "golden age" of modern history.

The Health Insurance Institute, reporting on data from the U. S. National Health Survey, says that during the 12-month period ending June of 1964 there were 844 million visits (including telephone consultations) made to physicians in the United States for diagnosis, treatment and advice.

That figure averages out to 4.5 visits for each person in the U. S. civilian non-institutional population.

As high as that figure might sound, it is still lower than the 5.3 visit average reported for the population in the 12-month period ending in June 1958, the time of the Asian flu epidemic.

The Institute said that physician visits increase with age.

For instance, in the current survey children under 15 years of age averaged 3.8 visits per year, while persons 75 and over averaged 7.3 doctor visits.

In the 15-24 age group, the average was 4.3 visits to physicians compared to 4.5, 5.0, and 6.3 visits for persons 25-44, 45-64, and 65-74 years of age respectively.

The NHS study also revealed that two-thirds of the population had seen a doctor within the past year and 98.7 per cent of those questioned said they had consulted a doctor some time during their lives.

Americans see their dentists only one-third as much as they see their physicians, the survey shows.

During the year-long period covered in the NHS study, there were an estimated 294 million visits to dental offices for treatment or consultation. That averaged out to 1.6 visits for each man, woman, and child.

Children under 15 years old averaged 1.3 visits to the dentist during the year. This increased to 2.0 visits for persons 15 to 24 and then decreased for each succeeding age group.

For persons 75 and over, the average number of visits for the year dropped to 0.6.

Two of the survey's most surprising and significant findings were that one out of every six persons (16.6 per cent) had never been to a dentist; and that nearly half (46.4 per cent) of the children in the study had never seen a dentist.

Notice

May has been proclaimed as Senior Citizens Month for Texas, says Patsy Reynolds, Texas A & M Extension specialist in family life education.

Formal ceremonies were held in Austin recently, where Governor John Connally signed a proclamation giving recognition to older citizens of the state.

The proclamation urges all Texas to "join in honoring their fellow citizens who have attained the years of counseling among us." The document also urges all Texas to include senior citizens in the normal sphere of life.

Part of the proclamation explains that "we must utilize this vast reservoir of talent, ability and experience through which our senior citizens can continue to play a major part in the future growth and progress of the State of Texas."

The Home Demonstration Clubs of Yoakum County have a program planned on "Our Golden Age" May 11th at 8:00 p. m. There will be a panel consisting of a Doctor, Minister, Lawyer, and a Senior Citizen.

RUSTY MCGINTY

This year's High School Annual, The Cowboy, was dedicated to the citizens of Plains and in memory of the late Rusty McGinty. Yearbooks were presented to Mrs. Alma Lynn McGinty, Mr. Kennedy, the members of the school board, Mr. Taylor, Mr. Harvey, Mr. Walser, and Mrs. Duff the yearbook sponsors.

CHURCH NEWS

The week of May 2-9 has been designated Christian Family Week.

There is no more sacred institution than the home with the lone exception of possible the church. The home, like the church, is ordained of God. It was His first institution. It has been said "if there were no such thing as the home, it would need to be invented."

The home has for its foundation the dedication of two parties to one another -- "Therefore shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave unto his wife; and they shall be one flesh." (Genesis 2:24)

"What therefore God hath joined together, let no man put asunder." Monogamy is the Biblical ideal. (Mathew 19:3-9) (I Corinthians 7:10-11)

Parental weakness will be disastrous to the home. There must be responsible parents to glorify God. Parents are God's first representatives. (Proverbs 22:6) (Ephesians 6:4) (Colossians 3:21)

There is no substitute for the homes socially or religiously. Paul writes of church in home. Every home should be a religious institution with the father leading out.

Parents should be character wise what they want their children to be. Example is not only the best teacher, but many times the only teacher. Parents cannot successfully pass off to their children "do not as I do but as I say do." The sin here is they "say and do not."

Let me make some suggestions to make your home Christian. First: Make Christ real in your life by faith and practice. Trust Him as Saviour and follow Him as Lord for your life.

Second: Be faithful to the church where you hold membership. Let the home and church strengthen one another. By neglect, parents can cause children to think that Christianity, the Church, and religious ideals are unimportant.

Last, I would suggest you practice some form of religious worship in the home daily. This may be as simple as reading from the Bible and having prayer together, or it may be bradened to singing--one member bringing devotional thoughts from passages from God's Book.

GARDENING NEWS

The Plains Dirt Gardeners Garden Club met Thursday, April 15th in the Clubroom of the Old Courthouse for the regular monthly meeting with vice-president, Mrs. Foy Cogburn presiding in the absence of the president, Mrs. Wilson Duke.

The program entitled, "The Challenge of Raising Dahlias", was under the direction of Mrs. Leon Lewis. She stated that Mexico was the home of the dahlia and followed with an interesting history of the dahlia. She presented a list of varieties recommended to grow well in this area.

Mrs. Bill Overton presented the "Culture of Dahlias" starting that they should be planted in a horizontal position, from 4 to 6 inches deep in good rich soil, in a sunny place, when all danger of frost was past. Plenty of water, pinching when plant has 4 to 6 leaves and disbudding all but the terminal bud is necessary to grow prize winning blue ribbon blossoms.

Mrs. Foy Cogburn gave a list of the different types of dahlias and demonstrated the division of a clump of tubers, calling special attention to the importance of always cutting a part of the stem with each tuber as the stem is the only part that can bud or sprout.

Plans were discussed to attend the South Plains Iris Show; to assist with landscaping and plants at the Convalescent home, to send delegates to the Flower Show school in Lubbock and the 1965-1966 program of work.

M. D. Cowart Promoted

Fort Polk, La. (AHTNC)--Malcolm D. Cowart Kr., 20 son of Mrs. Mary F. Nokes, Plains, Texas, received an early promotion to Army pay grade private E-2 following successful completion of basic combat training at Fort Polk, La., April 3.

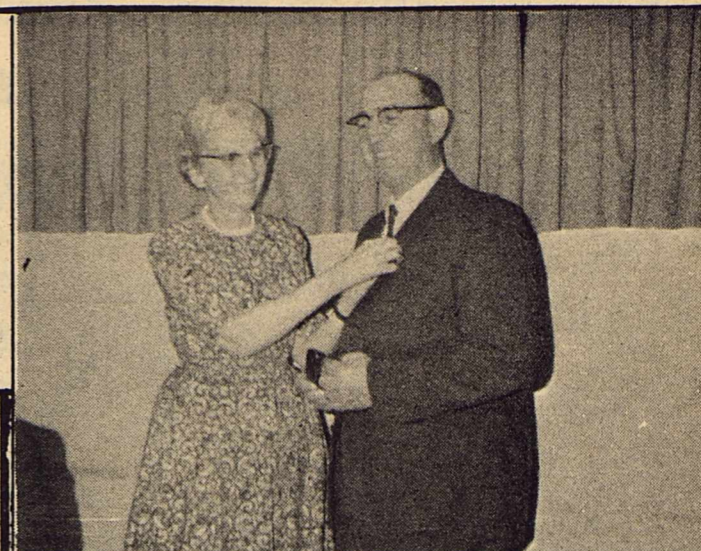

Cowart was awarded the promotion two months earlier than is customary because of his proficiency in firing the M-14 rifle, his high score on the physical combat proficiency test and his military bearing and leadership capabilities.

The early promotion program is the result of a new Department of the Army policy to recognize and provide incentive to outstanding trainees.

Cowart was graduated from Whiteface High School in 1963 and worked for Milanis Toyland in Lubbock before entering the Army in January of this year.

YOAKUM S. C. D. NEWS
BY C. MURRELL THOMPSON

This past week several conservation programs changed hands. Great Plains contracts on the following farms were transferred to new owners. C. A. Dulin to Vernon Townes, Daniel Nelson to Mack Sealy, J. C. Stegall to Mack Wilmet and H. G. Smith to B. E. Loyd.

Also several new conservation plans were written, they were Mrs. Ray C. Mowrey, Roy Perkins operator, C. W. and W. L. Faust and C. W. and W. J. Faust both Great Plains contracts. Wilson Duke completed a regular S. C. D. plan and a Great Plains contract on the Walter Billings farm East of Denver City with Alton Billings. Walter plans to plant 54 acres of Switch grass and reorganize his irrigation system by installing about a half mile of high pressure underground pipe line.

Duke also completed writing and mailed to the area office for typing a regular S. C. D. plan on the Avon Brammly place East of Plains. Field work was completed with R. J. Van Liew and a new conservation plan is being prepared for this farm.

Two new underground pipe lines were completed on the Virgel Phipps and J. P. White, Sr. farms.

BY LEO WHITE

In an interesting and enlightening comparison, Dr. T. W. Perry of Purdue University has listed the returns from the expenditure of one dime for the different feed additives in feed cattle rations.

He computes that adding antibiotics will return 25 to 50 cents for each dime invested. By feeding or implanting stilbestrol a stockman may expect a 76 cents to $1.00 return, and adding 20,000 units of Vitamin A per head per day there is a return of $6.00 for every 10 cents invested. These are profitable investments.

Experiments in Kansas with two groups of steers wintering on similar rations, one group with salt and the other denied salt, showed each pound of salt fed to the steers brought about a live weight gain of 8.2 pounds, and saved 312 pounds of silage and 13.5 pounds of soybean oil meal.

At going prices for salt and feed, an investment of 10 cents in salt brought about a return of $12.00 in feed saved, besides causing a 55 pound increase in gain on the part of the steers.

Yoakum County 4-H Club members are encouraged to keep salt and other minerals before their beef calves at all times. We also like for them to feed some antibiotics during the early stages to help absorb the shock of weaning and get the animal started on feed. Then we like to feed a ration high in Vitamin A so the animal will stay in a good state of health and have a high feed conversion ratio.

The rest is up to the animal and his inherited characteristics.

The first weight day for beef calves to be in the 1966 Yoakum County Fat Stock Show will be held Saturday afternoon, May 15th at the Livestock Exhibit Building in Plains. All calves are to be weighed and in the barn at 2:00 p. m. and the general public is invited to come see them.

The Texas senator appealed to various segments of the cotton industry to show unity in support of a legislative proposal so that a cotton program that is workable and just can be legislated.

Home Clubs

Mrs. Joe H. Thompson, Yoakum County Home Demonstration Agent, will be in College Station May 2 through 7th attending the Human Nutrition Workshop sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Objectives of the workshop will be given Monday, also lectures on the nutritional status of Children, Teenagers, and Adults. Tuesday will be devoted to Physiology of Nutrition and Carbohydrates and Protein in the diet. Sen. Yarborough Attacks Farm Budget Cuts

In a recent speech to the Texas Cotton Ginners Assn. in Dallas, Senator Ralph Yarborough charged that Federal budget slicers might be spawning a depression when they advocate the exportation of farmers from the farms. He blasted the Budget Bureau Director Kermit Gordon and charged that big business dominated organizations such as the Committee on Economic Development might be advocating policies that could destroy our pattern of agriculture. Yarborough declared that the Federal farm program budget should be given more consideration than some of the extravagant plans of the space effort.

Yarborough indicated that he would support a program which would provide for direct payments to the producers so that United States cotton can be sold here and abroad at world competitive prices. He urged that a five-year program be provided with producer subsidy on at least that part of the production that is consumed by the United States textile mills and indicated that the rest of the production might have to be sold at world market prices.

Spray Propazine to control weeds and grasses in sorghum.

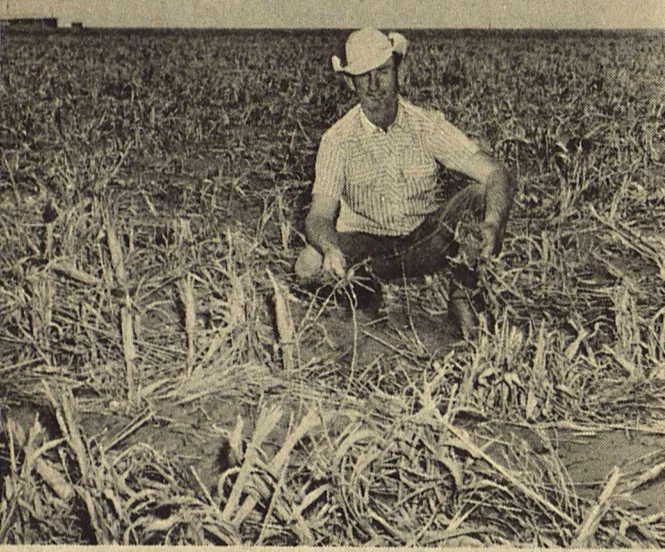

One spray of Propazine* 80W herbicide controls most annual broadleaf weeds and grasses in sorghum for the entire season. This can reduce or even eliminate the need for cultivating because Propazine takes care of problem weeds for you. Propazine is particularly effective on carelesslyweed (pigweed) and annual morning glory.

Sprayed before weeds and sorghum are up and activated by moisture, Propazine gives your crop an entire season without weed competition for moisture and soil nutrients. The result? Higher yields and more profit for you.

Contact your local supplier now for Propazine.
