County Gets Rain

Heavy rains were reported throughout Yoakum and Terry Counties this week, and crops were reported to be in thriving condition with several isolated exceptions where hail damaged the cotton.

The area north of Plains received 2.3 inches of rain and no hail was reported to have fallen in that sector. The dry land feed crops were reported to be doing fine.

West of town the area received 2.5 inches of rain with only a trace of hail near the Bronco community.

The Tokio area East of Plains received up to three inches of rain, but hail hit four or five farms in that area causing damage to the crops.

The moisture was less south of town, but the area still registered up to 1.5 inches of moisture. No hail was reported in that geographic area of the county.

Others farmers said even though the hail did some damage that the moisture far outweighed the damage sustained. Irrigation farmers were telling how the water was standing, and the prospects of getting into the fields soon. Farmers were also talking about starting the side dressing and were making arrangements to buy their fertilizer to give an added boost to what looks like good grain crops in the making.

Rains hit the almost entire South Plains area and the parched crops and pasture lands began to respond to the moisture at once.

Attorney General Carr is to discuss legal interpretations of the new Code and its relation to the school administrator.

The work conference, whose overall theme is 'Tomorrow is in Your Hands Today', is being held at the University of Texas Kinsolving Dormitory. Sponsoring the three-day meeting are the University of Texas, Texas Education Agency, Texas State Teachers Association and the Texas Association of Secondary School Principals.

Jury Verdict for Defense In Suit

A Yoakum County jury ruled in favor of the defense in district court last Friday in the civil suit of Rush vs. Roynell Hawkins Wiggins et al.

Rush, who gave his address as Tucumcari, New Mexico brought suit to set aside a deed for a section of land in Yoakum County which is owned by Vennum and Bill Fitzgerald which had been deeded to them by their sister, Mrs. Wiggins, recently.

The plaintiff contended such conveyance was in fraud of creditors.

Mrs. Wiggins was alleged to have made a promissory note with Rush and had paid about $7,500 on the note and a balance of about $24,000 was remaining when the note was alleged to have been in default. A suit of collection is pending in an El Paso court on the balance of the note. The note was reported to have been made when Mrs. Wiggins bought Mr. Rush's interest in a bar in Arizona.

The jury ruled that valuable consideration had been given by the Fitzgerald brothers when they accepted the land from their sister and assumed a $10,000 note from their father, Mr. Roy Fitzgerald, of Plains. The jury also ruled that Mrs. Wiggins conveyed the land with intent to defraud, but that valuable consideration was obtained and that the deed to the section of land could not be set aside.

It was not known if the plaintiff intended to appeal. The presiding judge was Judge Ledbetter.

The Indians upended the Cub's hopes for a perfect season Friday night in a real thriller which ended 7-5 in favor of the Tribe. The Tribe brought in 6 runs in the first inning and the Cubs were never able to get back in the game. It looked like the Indians would falter late in the game, when David Barnett, the big Cub catcher hit a bomb which sailed over the fence, but nobody was on and the threat died when Cub second baseman Rudy Ramos was put out at third in the fifth and when the Indians came up with a big double play in the sixth.

The Cubs fought off a Giant rally in the last inning to hold on to their 7-4 win. Both teams were crippled with players being on vacation. The Cubs now stand at 8 wins and 1 defeat, while the Giants have 2 wins and six losses.

On slate for tomorrow night, the Tribe meets the Cubs in a do or die battle to keep their pennant chances alive, and the Yankees will meet the Giants and are looking for a win to keep up their hot pace to close ground on the Cubs. The Giants will be looking for an upset to start their hopeful climb out of the cellar.

News On Wheat

According to W.M. Overton, local ASC Office manager, Yoakum County received a 1967 Wheat Allotment of 2273 acres. This compares with 1977 acres under the 1966 Program. This is approximately a 15% increase in the county wheat allotment. The 1967 old farm wheat allotment will be issued to 105 Yoakum County farmers. Many of the operators with wheat allotment do not plant wheat however under the farm program now in effect feed grains may be substituted for wheat, or wheat for feed grains. Under the present program there are no market quote penalties on wheat produced in excess of the wheat allotment, or on farms without any wheat acres allotment. Farmers with wheat acreage allotments will receive their official wheat acreage notice soon and will be advised at a later date when they may sign up to comply with 1967 wheat program. Under this year's program most all farmers with a 1966 wheat allotment in Yoakum County signed up to participate in the program.

4-H Club

In Council Meet

The Plains F.H.A. Officers attended the workshop at Texas Tech in Lubbock on June 14 and 15. The officers went to their various groups for assembly. Each group discussed ways in which the F.H.A. Chapters could be improved. There were over 1200 people at the meeting from all over Texas, even some from New Mexico. The officers came back with many ideas about the program for the coming year. Those attending the meeting from Plains were President, Rita Jo Snodgrass, Vice-President, Charlene Upton, Secretary, Linda Harbour, Treasurer, Bonnie Clannahan, Parliamentarian, Melanie Hardin, Historian, Terrie Taylor, Pianist, Sherry Miller, Photographer, Beverly E. Jones, and Reporter, Pam Barnett.

The girls taking summer Home Economics are Linda Harbour, Georgia Gray, Terrie Taylor, and Pam Barnett. This school started May 30 and ends July 1. Each girl who attends without missing more than three days will receive one half credit. Some of the things the F.H.A. members have been doing are making rock pictures, making pillows having kindergarten, and making capes for the twirlers and cheerleaders.

Other things we planned are to make cedar chests, refinish furniture, and make cookies for boys in Viet Nam. The F.H.A. plans to put these cookies in coffee cans and shortening cans with plastic tips. The public is urged to donate extra cans, and is requested to bring them to the Home Ec. Dept. in the High School Building.

Safety Plans for Public In Case of Tornado Here

If the fire whistle should sound in one long blast for three minutes what would it mean and how would we respond to this alarm. Would we think it is just another fire in the country, or would we ignore it and turn over and go back to sleep or catch the last few minutes of As the World Turns?

We can't say what the average person would do, or how he would react to this most important signal. Instead we can only hope that the public would get the message and follow an organized plan.

One long blast on the siren is a warning of impending danger and is a signal for the residents of our area to take shelter immediately as a safety precaution. It could mean that a black funnel had dipped from the sky and would strike our community within minutes with a ravaging force of dancing death. It could mean that atomic war heads had been released and we could expect the results of mass destruction and a maximum amount of casualties and loss of life.

Shelter is provided in Plains for such an emergency. The basement of the County Courthouse can adequately shelter 487 people. Food stock, water and medical supplies are available in the shelter to afford maximum protection for the health and welfare of the inhabitants of the community.

In the event of an approaching disaster threat, the signal will sound and the courthouse will be unlocked and the people will have adequate time to seek and find proper shelter if they know what to do and where to go. If they are not informed, then we can expect the loss of human life to be heavy.

The odds are pretty high that a funnel could strike any time during this season, and we owe it to ourselves and to our families to see that each of us has a plan and knows what to do.

Many of us resent being told what to do, no matter what the reason might be. But trained civil defense personnel and our law enforcement officers have constantly tried to inform the public concerning safety measures to be employed in the event of a crisis which could destroy our community, even realizing that many people would ignore the prophetic warnings would call them fool for offering valuable advice. Sometimes the public fails to see that in America a police force is here to protect the citizens and to maintain law and order.

Our local authorities have been wise in making long range plans which are there to afford the people of Plains security in the event of a possible disaster. Realizing that the public could ill afford to build individual cellars and shelters, the local authorities have provided public places earmarked for safety.

In Plains the Goodpasture elevator which can accommodate several hundred people and the courthouse basement, which is well stocked with Civil defense supplies can accommodate the entire population of Plains.

Sheriff Olan Heath states if a tornado threat is imminent that his offices always open and that the courthouse doors will be unlocked and the people will be directed to the shelter.

The sheriff and his deputies constantly watch bad clouds and radio contact is constantly made to offer maximum protection. Sheriff Heath said his office keeps alert during stormy weather and if he sounds the alert it will be for real and the public will know that danger is imminent. The sheriff said if the people will cooperate should such emergency occur that there is no reason that anybody should suffer injury or death.

In concluding, Sheriff Heath made an appeal to all people in the area to become informed on the subject of civil defense and to put their knowledge to use if the time should come that our community is in peril from the threat of a tornado which possibly could level the city.

Green Thumb Tips

'Tis sad but true that most gardeners crowd their plants unmercifully. Whether they are vegetables or flowers, plants need room if they are to develop as they should and produce their best.

For instance, tomato plants that are trained to stakes will produce more fruits and larger ones if spaced 2 1/2 feet apart. Closer spacing means that each plant shades the next one and competes with it for nourishment, so down goes fruit production.

Tall-growing zinnias are an example of flowers which will bloom much more and have larger individual blossoms if thinned to stand 2 1/2 to 3 feet apart. Every other plant a gardener grows also will profit from being allowed ample room to grow.

So you know the wishbone flower, the proper name of which is torenia? It can be grown in either sun or shade, forms little bushes so is as attractive grown in pots as it is in a bed or border, and may have flowers of blue or white or both colors in the same bloom.

Hendricks Weds House

In an early afternoon ceremony Friday, June 10 in the First Methodist Church of Winnsboro, Miss Barbara Ruth House, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wade House of Winnsboro, became the bride of Ronald Wayne Hendricks, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. Olan Hendricks of Plains.

Glowing white tapers in wrought iron candelabra amid a background of jade greenery formed a setting for the wedding. At the base of the large brass cross on the communion table was an asymmetrical design of white stock, gladioli and chrysanthemums. White raffia baskets of the blossoms completed the altar setting.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Edwin H. House Jr., uncle of the bride, following a piano prelude by Miss Suzanne Waltar and vocal selections by Miss Nelda Zeagler.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal length empire gown of white peau de soie with the lace bodice featuring a scalloped neckline. Back interest was created by a flowing lace train in chapel length. Her tiered veil of illusion fell from a white beaded pillbox. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis blossoms and garlands of miniature ivy centered with a white hybrid orchid and cresting a small white testament. Miss Frances Evelyn Wiltshire of Winnsboro, served as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Gay Walter of Winnsboro and Mrs. Jerry Hartfield of Memphis, Tenn. They wore identical full length gowns of pale yellow crepe featuring lace bodices and long lace trains. Completing their ensembles were wrist length gloves and headpieces of matching satin bows. Their bouquets of modified crescent design were of white Majestic daisies accented by ivy foliage and touches of emerald satin.

Candles were lighted by Miss Rene Hendricks, sister of the groom and Billy Wade House, brother of the bride. Miss Hendricks wore a formal length dress of yellow embroidered silk organza and a wreath of white daisies comprised her headpiece.

Wayne Walker of Bossier City served Mr. Hendricks as best man. Groomsmen were Dick Reiding of Bossier City and Bill Marioneaux of Winnsboro.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. House wore a mint green two piece model with matching accessories. Mrs. Hendricks wore a blue silk shantung dress with blue accessories. Both mothers wore cymbidium orchid corsages.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the church parlor. The bride's table held an arrangement of her chosen flower, the Majestic daisy, in a white ceramic cherub compote. Baker's fern and ivy garlands also enhanced the white tulle covered table, which held the crystal punch service and the bride's cake.

Tea girls were Misses Kathy Parker, Creta Parker, Dee Ann Dickerson, Cheryl Brooks, Marion Mixon and Mrs. Micky Phillips. Miss Eileen Parker was seated at the guest book. Rice bags were presented by Christy Parker, Cousin of the bride and John Walter and Robert Craig House, her brothers.

Serving at the reception were Mrs. W.D. Parker of Ferriday; Mrs. E.H. House Jr., of Gibsland; Mrs. Carl E. Dickerson of Las Vegas, Nev., Mrs. Leo Bruce and Mrs. Woody Posey of Winnsboro.

Following their wedding trip the couple will be at home in Plains, for the summer. In the fall both will resume their studies at Northwestern State College. For travel the bride wore a pale blue ensemble with matching accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

DON'T MISS

Wouldn't it be a shame not to get all the profit you can from this year's crop. If your young plants don't now have all the nitrogen they need, you're liable to miss the big end of the profit. A side dress of Nitromite, Shamrock's anhydrous ammonia, is the sure way to get the maximum yield. Considering how little it costs compared to the extra yield it's a mighty shrewd investment. Call or come in soon.
