OUR 35TH YEAR THURSDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1966 NUMBER 52

Plains Record News Story Highlights of 1966

1966 News Highlights in Plains included a varied field, and the editor of The Record has attempted to select what he believes to be the 10 top news stories of the year.

Beyond a doubt the story which ranks number one was a top regional story in the area. It was carried over the wire service in nearly every state in the Union and was published in foreign papers. This of course was when friends and neighbors rallied to help L.E. Lemly retain his freedom when it was discovered that he had walked away from an Alabama prison.

The number two story of the year was the weather. Plains was given regional coverage last summer when the area received 14 inches of rainfall in the period of a week. Early freeze on the cotton crop caused near disaster to farmers in the area. This in turn caused the number three story to take place.

Rated number three was the emergency grant totaling about $400,000 which was awarded last week to the local F.H.A. Office. Congressman Mahon helped secure the grant for the local farmers.

Politics reigned as the number four story. In the primary election well known rancher Gene Bennett defeated Judge Stanley Duvall in his bid for another term. Johnnie Fitzgerald won a seat on the Co. Commission by defeating incumbent Perl Loe. J.W.O. Aldredge did not run for another term as county clerk after serving over 20 years, and the electorate selected Ruby Heald as new clerk of the county. Incumbent Vicie Hinkle was defeated by Wilda Hancock for treasurer. Politics kept much alive in the news after the county was re-districted and Doc Cotton won reelection over his opponent. Other victors included Blanche Dyer and Jesse T. George. Sen. John Tower won re-election in the state and also carried Yoakum County by a big vote.

Two deaths rank as number five. These included the late Murphy Luna, prominent rancher, and Mrs. Addie McGinty, pioneer ranchwoman.

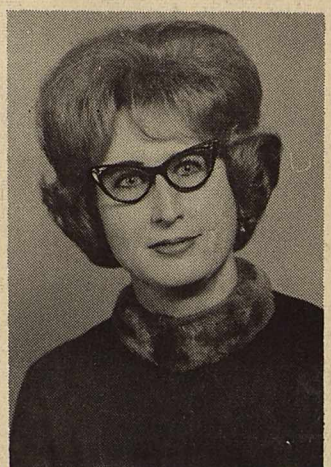

The High flying volleyball team from Plains were once more in the top 10 news stories as they won their 5th consecutive state championship and their coach, Mrs. Bob Gross was named Citizen of the Year for 1966.

When electors voted for the creation of a water district it made big news during the year. Plains and Yoakum County voted approval, but Denver City rejected the plan.

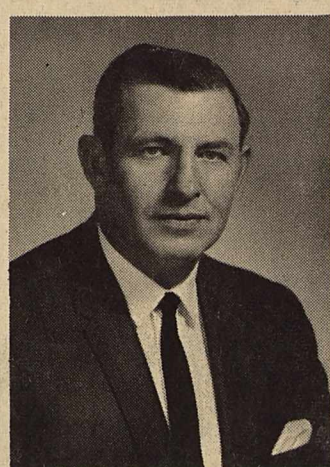

The number eight story of the year happened when Morton Food Company contracted for cucumbers to be raised in the Plains area, and $55,000 was pumped into the economy as a result of Morton Food Company, Inc.

Last January Plains was honored when their star full-back, Joe Dan Cooke, was named All-State, and made the first team.

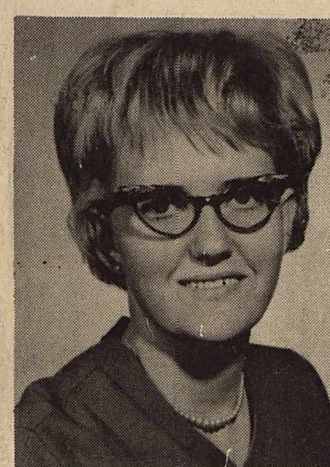

Rounding out the top ten stories was the closing and re-opening of the Yoakum County Clinic when Dr. Reynolds came to Plains. This also closed the book on medical reporting in the State of Texas, and Dan and Harry Cayce won first place and received the Anson Jones Award for journalism.

Alma's Cafe Burns Here Will Close for Repairs

Fire ravaged the kitchen at Alma's restaurant and the ceilings and floor were ruined in what was described as a major fire at the local business Tuesday night. The alarm was sounded at about 7:30 p.m. and firemen got to the scene at about 7:35 and gained entrance by unbolting the back door.

The damage was estimated to run into the thousands of dollars. The fire was believed to have started in a heater in the kitchen, said Mrs. Travis Been, owner and operator of the local cafe.

The ceiling was sagging badly Wednesday morning, and the tile floor was covered in water and debris when the editor of The Record photographed the interior of the building.

Mr. and Mrs. Been were still attempting to determine the extent of the damage and both stated that the cafe would be closed at least a month for repairs. Mrs. Been showed the editor of the paper through the cafe and pointed out that nearly everything in the business was ruined by fire, smoke or water.

Travis and Alma Been extended their appreciation to members of the Plains Volunteer Fire Department for their promptness and efforts expended in getting the blaze under control with a minimum of damage.

One insurance spokesman said the fire could have started as a result of fluctuating of gas pressure Tuesday. The cafe was closed until Thursday during the holiday season. This probably held the damage down since more grocery items are stocked during regular business hours.

Several years ago Alma's burned, but she was able to get back into operation in about a month. Mrs. Been said the other fire was in September, and weather was good enabling repair to go faster than it can in January if the roof needs to be replaced, which it appears it will.

Alma also extended her appreciation to thoughtful people in the community who have called her about the fire.

Rep. Jesse T. George Austin Report

State Representative Jesse T. George will start his legislative column 'By George' soon, The Yoakum County Democrat said in a statement to the editor of the Record recently. Rep. George will also make his announcement of his committee assignments soon. The Yoakum County legislator is expected to receive a top committee assignment this year since he is reported to be a close friend of House Speaker Ben Barnes.

George told the editor of the paper that he will be in contact with his local committee during the session in order to introduce legislation pertinent to his district.

George is a former teacher and is expected to receive top appointments on educational committees during the session.

The local democrat visits the district often and keeps in contact with his committee in order to advise the Yoakum Co. people of legislative situations.

Death Watch Starts For Big Week-end

The 'Death Watch' will resume for the New Year's weekend, beginning at 6 p.m., Friday, December 30, and continuing through 11:59 p.m., Monday, January 2. Indications for the New Year's period are that 36 persons will die in traffic accidents.

To supplement its enforcement activities, the DPS will place approximately 150 additional men from its other uniformed services on highway patrol duty. Every effort will be made to remove dangerous or irresponsible drivers from the highway for the safety of law-abiding motorists.

Traffic deaths will be tabulated at DPS headquarters in Austin, and reports will be issued to news media sources three times daily to show just how the 'Countdown' stands. 'Countdown boards' will be distributed to news media so that the public may stay informed on the traffic situation.

joining the DPS in its traffic safety efforts are several other organizations and state agencies.

The Texas Safety Association is distributing a kit of 'Holiday Safety Materials' and is stressing the need for courtesy and caution during the holiday period.

The Texas Highway Department is distributing reminders on danger spots, construction areas, and information on signs and markers to help keep drivers informed and alert.

The Texas Association of Broadcasters and the Southern Baptist Radio and Television Commission are cooperating in the distribution and use of radio announcements concerning safe driving practices.

And the Texas Motor Transportation Association and the Council of Safety Supervisors are working with members of the trucking industry to promote safe driving practices and alertness during the holiday period.

Yoakum County Officials Assume Office Monday

Monday will bring changes at the Yoakum County Courthouse. New officials and their plans are listed in this story:

Gene Bennett will become County Judge next Monday, replacing Judge Stanley Duvall. Judge elect Bennett has stated that Mrs. Faye McConnell will continue as secretary in his office. Bennett is a well known rancher and serves on the Board of Regents at A.C. He is a World War II Veteran.

Long time County Clerk J. W. O. Aldridge is retiring after serving more than 20 years in office, and the electorate named Ruby Heald to be their next clerk. Mrs. Heald announces those who will serve on her staff. They include:

Charlene Hatfield, who will serve as chief deputy clerk. Mrs. Pearl Loe, long time County Commissioner will join in the staff in the clerk's office. Glennis Spencer of Br- onco has also been named to work on the clerk's staff.

Mrs. Heald is the wife of Leonard Heald and the couple have two married daughters and a school age son.

Wilda Hancock, Treasurer elect, will assume her duties next Monday. She replaces long time County Treasurer Vicie Hinkle, who will go out of office Monday.

County Commissioner elect Johnny L. Fitzgerald will assume duties of office. He defeated Mrs. Pearl Loe to win his term. Fitzgerald is the President of the Plains School Board. He has not announced any changes in personnel in his precinct.

Blanche Dyer won re-election as District Clerk and will start her new term with the others. Mrs. Dyer won an easy victory in the May primary in the run-off race.

Doc Cotton won re-election on the County Commission and will take his oath with the other officials.

Toot Your Horn Get into Gear, Resolute Now!

This is the time of year when it is traditional for red blooded Americans to resolute with resolutions that they have absolutely no intentions of keeping, but most of us feel like we have to make the effort.

Most of us turn to our past experience of the old year and start from there. Some could read like this:

To find a way to avoid situations like junior saving to the boss's wife 'Daddy must be blind. That face didn't stop the clock either'.

To find a way of avoiding the mistake of reaching into the wrong pocket and dropping a $20.00 bill into the collection plate thinking it was a $1 bill.

Of never bringing up the subject of why we don't have P.T.A. in town, because the women will form one and then Pop your one night out a week will be gone for good.

Resolute strongly on temperance. Then find a way to push the plate back next year at Christmas dinner.

Another fine one is to resolute a way to stop the wife from trying out her vocabulary on you when the Cowboys are faced with fourth and one on the two yard line and your every thought is glued on the T.V. tube.

If you are fisherman find a way to avoid this one. You plan a year on the big trip with Fred and at the last minute your spouse and Fred's decide to make the trip and the plot begins to thicken as the four of you sit in the boat fishing and the two women sound like graduates of a Chinese school and still catch all of the fish while dear old Fred and you don't even get a bite.

It would be nice to resolute against spending useless hours telling the wife why she should at least attempt to use a thing called a budget.

To look pleased indeed when you missed lunch and sit down at the supper table only to find a piece of rare liver served in a delightful way by you know who.

To think of an excuse to tell the children when you murder their dog for barking, biting you, and waking up the household the one night that you try to slip in unnoticed at 3 a.m.

When you lovely looks at you in that way that can only happen when she reads aloud from 'Dear Abbey' about the lout who has all of a far too familiar fault of your own.

To find away to approve of your payment on medicare if your a Christian Scientist.

Plains Boys On Dream Team

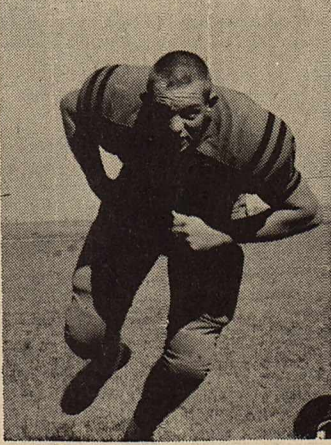

The All-South Plains Dream Football Team, comprised of all classes, (B - A - AA - AAA) honored Dan Field of Plains as one of its top players. Dan was the only Junior on the 22 man squad. The Plains junior, Dan Field, helped to spearhead aggressive offensive and defensive plays from his tackle slot during the ten game season. He also made the All-District 5 - A Team.

Other members of Rip Sewell's District Co-Champions football team to win additional honors by landing positions on the Class A All South Plains Team were N. C. Clanahan and Rickey Elmore along with Dan Field. Elmore was the leading ground gainer in this honor team with over 11000 yards rushing. N. C. Clanahan, Plains 229 lb. tackle, was a standout, both on offensive defensive plays. Along with Field, Clanahan and Elmore also made the All-District Team.

Annual Plains Basketball Tourney

Next week will be loaded with basketball and local fans will see their Cowboy five meet the Denver City Mustangs at Cowboy Gym Tuesday night at 8:00 p.m. with the 'B' game tip off at 6:30p.m. The first meeting of the two cage teams saw the Cowboys brand the Ponies 64 - 52 at Denver City. The B game was a thriller ending in a 36 - 35 contest.

Two days later the first Annual Cowboy Tournament will begin in Plains. Three days of strong basketball is in store for spectators. Fans will be treated to seeing eight teams vie for honors. The Cowboys will be the sentimental favorite to win on their own court but other strong teams such as Lubbock Christian High, Tahoka, Morton, Denver City and Seagraves will furnish the Cowboys all of the competition they can handle.

Any social club planning meetings during January 5, 6 and 7 are urged to attend the games in a group in order that we can build one of the strongest tournaments in West Texas.

The Cowboys have an impressive 8 - 4 record and will be geared to make it 9 - 4 in meeting the Mustangs before the tournament.

Plains will start District Play immediately after the tournament and will have an opportunity to test members of District 5 A in the Cowboy Tournament. Plains has a well balanced team capable of out re-bounding and out scoring opponents, even though eight of the 12 man squad are juniors.

The Cowboys have displayed an ability to control the ball and run an impressive amount of offensive plays. They have also maintained a stiff defense throughout the season.

The public is cordially invited to attend the games.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

"OK"

Williams decided he did not need that air conditioning system for his office after all. But the manufacturer insisted: "You have already confirmed the order."

"It is true that I marked an 'OK' on the order form," conceded Williams. "But that is not legally binding. 'OK' is just an abbreviation, not formal enough for a written contract."

Nevertheless, in a court test, the judge held Williams bound by his agreement. The judge said that, if "OK" is not elegant English, its meaning is clear—and clarity is what counts.

By and large, the law takes a tolerant view of abbreviations. For the purpose of language, whether formal or informal, is communication. If the abbreviated form succeeds in that purpose, then the law is usually satisfied.

Thus: a receipt by a bank president was held valid, even though he designated himself as "pres.," a promissory note signed "W. G. S." was held valid, because it was clear whom the initials stood for; and "3/7/54" was held a sufficient substitute for March 7, 1954, in establishing the date of a transaction.

What about nicknames? They, too, are generally acceptable if there is no doubt of identity.

For instance, a bequest to "my dear Joe" was upheld when there was only a single Joe whom the deceased could possibly have meant. "Jack" has been held an acceptable substitute for John, and "Geo." for George.

But a short form that leaves room for doubt can be costly. "Emma" was held too different to pass for Emily, and so was "May" for Mary.

In one case, a man who sold a truck used a three-letter abbreviation on the bill of sale to identify the model. But he failed to add the model year. The buyer later sued him, successfully, on the ground that he had not been properly informed as to what model he was getting.

Writing down the year in the first place, instead of just the abbreviation, would have taken the seller about three seconds. The litigation took three years.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

Associated Press recently announced General Electric Company has blueprinted plans to add ready built cities to its regular product line which includes TV's, bulbs, and toasters. These cities are expected to cost about $800 million to $1 billion each, over a 15-20 year stretch.

Go back in World War I, Goodyear purchased 13,000 acres of arable property on which to grow long staple cotton for tires. In the course of advanced chemical research, synthetic fibers replaced cotton for tire components, and the company was stuck with a lot of leftover land.

Not willing to let any sage grow under his shoes, the rubber giant decided to make the property pay off by constructing homes and buildings on it.

Patrick Cusick, Goodyear general manager, stresses the creativity and pioneering of the corporate project which already houses 600. Cusick claims that city construction is just catching on and won't really be a corporate pattern for another 5 to 10 years.

While city structuring may appear to be a benevolent sideline, and a trend of the corporate-giant times, the action impels some alarming questions. Paramount among these qualifications is whether or not existing home builders and contractors will be hurt or demolished by the corporate bulldozing? Secondly, how much power will the corporate master wield in the community? Will city building by the giants be a boon to the economy, or merely another economic encroachment?

Goodyear rationalizes city-building by blaming the population boom.

The alarming image brought to mind with this news is that the "city" will be but another company product rather than an independent American community exuding its own individuality. The company town might well, instead, bear the stamp of the company trademark on its homes, schools, churches and civic center.

Tips on Tuna

by Betty Crocker

Consider a can of tuna and count its many talents. Star of sandwich board and salad bowl... pie crust and casserole... a la king and soup tureen... pizza platter and appetizer. Any wonder that notoriously inexpensive and nutritious tuna is the most popular fish in the nation! When you buy it canned, remember tuna comes in three different styles. Solid pack, pretty fillets of white meat. Chunk style, bite-size pieces. And flaked or grated tuna. If you're calorie conscious, choose tuna packed in broth. It has only half as many calories as oil-packed tuna. Now a few new ways to glorify tuna with quick and easy hot breads.

TUNA BISCUIT BRAID

2 cups tuna, drained and flaked
 1/4 cup mayonnaise
 2 tablespoons minced parsley
 1 tablespoon lemon juice
 1 tablespoon minced onion
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 Biscuit dough (below)

Heat oven to 425°. Mix all ingredients except Biscuit dough. Roll Biscuit dough into a rectangle, 12x10 inches. Place on baking sheet. Spread tuna mixture down center of dough. Make 7 cuts on each side from edge of dough to tuna filling. Bring first two opposite strips over filling; seal ends. Continue to crisscross remaining strips. Bake 15 to 20 minutes. Serve with creamed peas, if desired. 6 to 8 servings.

Biscuit dough: Mix 2 cups Bisquick and 3/4 cup milk with fork. Beat vigorously 20 strokes until stiff and slightly sticky. Knead 8 to 10 times on lightly floured cloth-covered board.

TUNA BURGERS

1 can (7 ounces) tuna, drained and flaked
 1 cup chopped celery
 1 small onion, minced
 1/2 cup diced Cheddar cheese
 1/2 cup chopped ripe olives
 1/4 cup mayonnaise
 Salt and pepper to taste
 6 hamburger buns

Mix all ingredients except buns. Fill buttered buns with mixture. Place in paper sandwich bags or wrap in aluminum foil. Fold and fasten bags with paper clips. Refrigerate. Just before serving, heat at 350° for 15 to 20 minutes. 6 servings.

Tuna and Bisquick, naturals for emergency shelves. Convert to shortcakes. Instant hospitality!

Santa has come and gone and another year is almost over. We are all making our 'New Year's Resolutions'. Everyone is wondering though, how long they will stick to them.

Last Wednesday all of High School had their class Christmas parties. It seemed that everyone had quite an enjoyable time. We heard that the Sophomore class played 'Twister', Coach Richey, are you sure?

We heard that there was a lot of activity going on in the Home making Department, while the parties were in process. Mrs. Chambliss cleaned out her closets, and it isn't even Spring!

There has been a lot of midnight oil burned lately, as themes were due last week. Hope the teachers had fun reading them over the holidays.

A big event is due here next weekend, the Basketball Tournament! Everybody will be there, 'Stage Band', Cheerleaders, Student Body, so how about you towns people coming?

Mr. Engle, what's this we hear about your new little ones and all those night feedings?

By the way, how are the Puppies doing?
 'Black and Gold Merits'

The varsity team gets a black merit for defeating Tatum last week.

The 'B' Team gets a gold merit for having a swell basketball team.

The junior class has a black merit for having a lot of cute boys.

Mr. Black gets a gold merit for playing such a swinging sax.

The Chemistry classes get a black merit for making such high grades on Mr. Meixner's test.

The cheerleaders get a gold merit for yelling so loud at the games.

The 'Stage Band' gets a black merit for picking up school spirit with their swinging music. (Let's go mod all the way!)

And Santa gets a black merit for being so good to us this year!

Dolly Parrot

Here is how to have a Happy New Year! Take 12 fine, full grown months; see that these are thoughtfully free from all old memories of bitterness, rancor, hate and jealousy. Cleanse them completely from every clinging spite; pick off all specks of pettiness. Cut these months into 30 or 31 equal parts. Do not attempt to make up the whole batch at one time; but prepare one day at a time, as follows: Into each day put equal parts of faith, patience, courage, work, hope, fidelity, liberality, kindness, rest, prayer, meditation. Add about a teaspoonful of good spirits, a dash of fun, a pinch of jolly, a sprinkling of play, and a heaping cupful of good humor. Pour love into the whole and mix with vim. Serve with quietness, unselfishness, and cheerfulness. If anyone has a comment or question, Write to Dear Polly, care of this newspaper.

MORE SHOTS FIRED? Dallas, Texas--S.M. Holland says there definitely was a shot fired from behind a fence near the ill-fated Kennedy automobile at the moment of the assassination of the young President in 1963. Holland, a railway employe, was standing on the triple overpass about a half block from the President's car. Testimony from Holland was included in the Warren Commission report.

May the year ahead be your lucky one, with dreams come true, hopes fulfilled. Our good fortune is all our fine customers, to whom we owe so much.

Local Texaco Dealer Wins National Award

Dub Nelms, local Texaco Dealer, was presented with a gold watch from Ben Farr, District Sales Supervisor for Texaco this past week.

The watch was one of five watches presented to dealers in the National Texaco Filter Sales Contest in the Amarillo Sales District. This district includes Texas and Oklahoma. The watch was presented by Mr. Ben Farr of Lubbock.

Tackle Trouble-Shooting

A fishing plug is much like a naughty child when it misbehaves. Both should be corrected.

Few fishermen recognize the errant ways of certain lures, claim the fishing authorities at Mercury outboards, and as a result, they fail to sense the delicate balance between effective lure action and that which seems to flash "beeware!" Plugs go astray for numerous reasons. They take a beating when cast against rocky shores or snagged on underwater obstacles, and they also suffer damage when carelessly banged around in tackle boxes.

Unfortunately, the difference in action between a healthy plug or a crippled one may go unnoticed by the average angler... even when it doesn't catch fish.

If the line-tie, or screw-eye to which the line attaches, is bent to the side, the plug won't track correctly. Lips that have been banged or twisted, even slightly, will destroy intended action. Hooks must swing freely and hangers must be in line. Hooks that freeze at an angle are a decided problem.

Most difficulties can be remedied with a pair of long-nosed pliers and a few minutes of testing. On long winter evenings, the bathtub will serve as a good proving ground. Make slight adjustments and then test the action by pulling the plug through the water.

Often, the action of new plugs can be improved by minor "surgery," say the Mercury folks, but always work cautiously and test often.

Remember, if a plug doesn't zig, zag, wiggle or nod exactly as it should, it won't catch fish.

Shrinks Hemorrhoids Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery. In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. At all drug counters.

The ringing bells sound our sincere thanks for your past, and future, support.

Time to Figure Income Tax

Texas farmers can now get the 1967 edition of the Farmer's Tax Guide, according to Ellis Campbell, jr., District Director of Internal Revenue for northern Texas.

The booklet may be obtained free of charge by stopping in or writing the nearest Internal Revenue Service office or your county agricultural agent.

Written in non-technical language, it contains easy to understand sections such as records a farmer should keep an important Federal tax dates to remember.

One of the most important and informative features a sample of a completed tax return with detailed explanations of entries made on it.

Throughout the booklet numerous examples are used to illustrate how farming transactions are treated for Federal tax purposes.

Primarily written to help farmers prepare their 1966 tax returns, the Farmer's Tax Guide also serves as a useful tax reference throughout the year.

Everyone under 65 years old, whether single or married, who is a citizen or resident of the United States and had gross income of $600 or more during the year must file a return, Ellis Campbell, jr., District Director of the Internal Revenue Service for northern Texas advised taxpayers today.

If you are 65 or older on the last day of your tax year, no return is required unless gross income was $1,200 or more. If your income is under the above figures, you should file a return to obtain any refund due you of income tax with held from salaries or wages.

Businessmen, farmers, and other self-employed persons must file a return if net earnings from self employment were $400 or more.

Document No. 5107, which furnishes more detailed information on this subject, may be obtained by dropping a post card to the District Director Internal Revenue Service, 1600 Patterson Street, Dallas, Texas 75201.

RUSSELL SPEAKS OUT

Senator Richard Russell (D-Ga.) revealed in an interview that he at first refused to sign the Warren Commission report on the death of President John F.
