Clean-up Day Set Saturday With Dinner On the Ground

'Clean-Up, Paint-Up, Fix-Up Week' is now in progress under sponsorship of the Plains Dirt Gardeners and the Plains Beautification Committee. Most other local organizations are assisting with the drive.

Plains citizens have been asked to clean-up trash from their own personal property and then to assist Saturday April 15 in a 'Community Work Day' to clean up property of those unable to do their own. Citizens are asked to pile things to be hauled away near curbs, or ditches so that the extra trucks may have easy access to it. Citizens needing help in cleaning property are asked to contact Mrs. Wilson Duke, chairman of Plains Dirt Gardeners Clean-Up Campaign, or Mrs. Bill Overton, Joe Curry, Pete St. Romain or Mrs. Neil Parks. One or more of these may be reached at the County Clubroom all day Saturday, April 15. Workers may also receive locations of places to be cleaned from this committee. Coffee and doughnuts will be served all day at the clubroom for workers.

Several trucks, tractors, loaders and machinery have been donated for use on 'Community Work Day', but more are needed and also drivers for some of the machinery. Also workers with rakes, hoes, etc. are needed to get trash to curbs for pick-up.

Old toys to be discarded will be picked up Saturday morning by the local Cub and Boy Scouts under direction of Cub Master Cecil Williams, also chairman of the Plains Beautification committee. The toys collected will be stored at the Newsom Gin and later repaired for distribution to needy children.

There will be a 'Community Picnic' in the Park at noon Saturday, April 15 and every citizen is invited to bring a sack lunch and join in with the event. Drinks will be provided.

Let's all get together and assist in our Community Clean-Up to make Plains a cleaner, safer, healthier and more beautiful place to live.

Fine Arts Show Set

The Fine Arts Club will hold its seventh annual community sacred music program this Friday, April 14, 1967 at 7:30 p.m. at the First Baptist Church.

The Music Club is joined in putting on this program each year by the various churches in our community that are able and wish to participate.

This year's program will include music from the Assembly of God Youth Choir, the Spanish Baptist Church as well as the First Methodist and First Baptist Choirs. There will also be two quartets on the program, the Baptist Men's Quartet and the Fine Arts Quartet. Following the Fine Arts Choir the audience will have an opportunity, as is done each to request their favorite hymns to be sung by all.

The various churches join the Fine Arts Club in extending a cordial invitation to all who love music to attend this program.

Chamber Feast Gets O.K.

Doyle Newsom, president of the Plains Chamber of Commerce, announced that plans are complete for the Annual Chamber of Commerce Awards Banquet for April 28th at 8:00 p.m. at the School cafeteria. Newsom said that Dr. Leon Hill, well known after dinner speaker, will be the featured speaker of the evening. Dr. Hill is known for his humor and wit, said Newsom.

The Citizen of the Year award and the Outstanding Farmer Award will be presented at the banquet. Newsom said an anonymous committee will select the recipients of these two awards, and that appropriate plaques will be given the two people at the banquet.

Last year Coach Shirley Gross was named Citizen of the Year, and J.B. Ashburn received the Outstanding Farmer Award.

The Chamber of Commerce president said that tickets will go on sale soon and that he urges the people of the community to attend the banquet.

Ann Wagley and Metha Streetman collect their Savings accounts from Bill Loyd, president of Plains State Bank.

Bank Open House

Officials of the Plains State bank extend their appreciation to the many friends and customers who attended the open house at the bank last Thursday when their 10th Anniversary was observed.

Mrs. Metha Streetman won first prize in guessing the amount of money which was in a gallon jar. Those registering signed a registration card and guessed at the amount of coins in the jar. Mrs. Ann Wagley won second prize for the second best guess. Mrs. Streetman received a $50.00 savings account and Mrs. Wagley was given a savings account of $25.00.

Mrs. Streetman guessed $423.00 and Mrs. Wagley said $421.10, and the correct amount was $422.35.

Many floral arrangements were sent to the bank. Callers received billfolds or pill boxes, and there were favors for the children. Punch and coffee were served with doughnuts. The bank received visitors from 9:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. last Thursday.

With the close of business last Thursday, The Plains State Bank had closed the chapter on its first decade in business in the county seat of Yoakum County.

There was a great amount of interest shown in Plains over the jar of money which was on display at the bank. Many people were discussing their guesses throughout the day. The jar contained bills, coins and pennies.

CAYCE'S CORNER

The big guessing game came to an end last Thursday when Metha Streetman and Ann Wagley won the savings accounts at the bank for making educated guesses of how much loot was in the big jar at the bank.

We understand that none of the men who ventured a guess even got hot. Now we won't admit that women are smarter than men, so that must throw us back to the theory of the jar.

Jewel-Pin Ceremony Held

In an impressive candlelit Jewel-Pin Ceremony, held at Alma's, conducted by Patty Crawford, of Lubbock, District President of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority, seven pledges became full-fledged members of the Plains Iota Pi Chapter. The jewel-pin was conferred upon the following new members: Betty Livesay, Andrea Schoenrock, Jo Ann McCann, Linda Kennedy, Jo Peterson, Latrell McDonnell, and Sue Randall. The ceremony was given in a beautifully arranged setting of jonquils, the sorority's flower, angels, and candles nestled in angel hair. Other members attending were Archie Glover, Melba Duke, Mary Strickland, Wanda Ashburn, Betty Romans, Velma Warren, Florine Hayes, Dorothy Lowe, and Glynis Spencer. Attending as guest was Billie Dobbs, of Lubbock who accompanied the District President, Patty Crawford.

Immediately following the pledge-pin ritual, two members, Archie Glover and Florine Hayes, were awarded ten-year pins. Archie is presently serving as local chapter president.

After the conclusion of the sorority proceedings, chapter members and guests enjoyed a dinner prepared by Alma's Restaurant.

Betty Livesay, Jo Ann McCann, Linda Kennedy, Jo Peterson, Latrell McDonnell, and Andrea Schoenrock were initiated in Iota Pi Sorority last Tuesday night in Jewel Pin Ceremony.

Fill chilled pear halves with a scoop of vanilla ice cream and top with red raspberry or chocolate sauce. Or, use lemon or mint sherbert in pear centers with current or mint jelly.

Canned pears are double delicious and nutritious when teamed with cottage cheese, sour cream and ice cream. For a sprightly spring salad, mound centers of pear halves with cottage cheese mixed with bright accents of chopped radish and green onion. Pass French dressing.

Another time, add a dash of lemon juice and a few tablespoons sour cream to cup of cottage cheese. Season with a smidgin' of dried sage and celery salt, then spoon into the centers of pear halves to serve with cold cuts of meat.

Crab or Shrimp salad is especially good heaped into the centers of chilled pear halves when made with this tempting sweet and sour dressing. Simply combine 1 cup dairy sour cream with 1 and 1/2 tablespoons sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt,

1/2 teaspoon dry mustard and 2 tablespoons vinegar.

Calorie counters go for this idea. Arrange drained canned pear halves on crisp lettuce and fill centers with orange sections. Top with dressing made by blending 1 cup cottage cheese with 2 tablespoons lemon juice and a dash of salt. Sprinkle with cardamom or nutmeg.

Serve canned Bartlett pears 'dressed' to suit the occasion as a combination salad and meat accompaniment. Place them on the dinner plate with the entree and vegetable, eliminating the need for individual salad plates or bowls.

Horseradish or mustard folded into sour cream or mayonnaise is the perfect pear topping to serve with roast beef or corned beef. The classic accompaniment to curry, be it lamb or chicken, is a chutney filled canned pear half. With pork roast or chops, we suggest spooning cranberry sauce or finely chopped stuffed green olives in the pear centers.

Club Reviews 'America In Prose And Song'

The Tsa Mo Ga Club meeting was called to order at 8:00 p.m. Monday, April 10, 1967 by President Mrs. A.B. Carpenter.

Roll call was answered by 'What I like about being an American'.

The program on 'The Story of America in Prose and Song' was prepared by Mrs. Jack Hayes. Mrs. Hayes could not be present and the program was presented by Mrs. Carl Stroup and Mrs. Bob Blundell.

As America was built, the people sang. People from the Old World brought their songs to the New. They sang as they built homes, explored the wilderness and pushed ever westward. They sang new songs of America's prairies, rivers, mountains and lakes. They sang to the rhythm of their work...the swing of the ax and hammer...the trudge of the oxen pulling covered wagons and plows, the canteer of the pony and the heave on the ships ropes, the swish of the steamboat, the clatter of the train.

They sang gay songs and songs of battle. They sang of peace and under the open sky and in little churches they sang as they worshipped God.

No certainty is known of man origin on this continent because of the lack of written records. Only through story and song was the past recounted, and chants such as the ancient 'Navajo War Chants' predates the coming of the Europeans. Columbus recorded in his journals that his crews were singing 'We Praise Thee, O'God' when his ships sailed toward the shores of San Salvador.

The early settlers brought with them psalm-books in print and old ballads remembered. They brought guitars, zethers, jews harps, fiddlers, flutes and oaes. These served for making music in the homes and dancing on the greens. The fife and drum accompanied enemy assembly.

Prehistory Songs, 1774 The 'Seed of Love' probably English origin; 'Felix the Soldier'; Young Irishman, forced by poverty to become English soldier sang this; 'Spring Field

Mountain' is a true American song which was based on actual incident of 1761.

'The Liberty Song' Probably the first patriotic song.

Some old religious songs are; 'Make Ye a joyful Noyse'

'When Jesus Wept'; The American Hero' became the chief war hymn; 'Ode to the 4th of July' celebrated the first Independence Day.

These songs go on and on tracing the growth and development of America. They tell of the sweep westward, the California Gold Rush, and the long crises of a nation spent asunder by a fierce Civil War. Our beloved 'Dixie', 'Tenting on the Old Camp Ground'; 'Listen to the Mocking Bird';

'Roll, Jordan, Roll' and 'A mazing Grace' came into being during the war and the reconstruction period following.

Mrs. Polly Rushing concluded the program by reading Proverbs 14-34.

'Righteous exalts a Nation; But sin is a reproach to any people'. Psalms 33-12; 'Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord'.

In keeping with the American theme the serving table was centered with red, white and blue flowers. Napkins displayed Uncle Sam surrounded by Red and Blue Stars.

Mrs. Tippett and Miss Ozella Hunt were hostesses at the social hour.

Economical

By Sadie Thompson

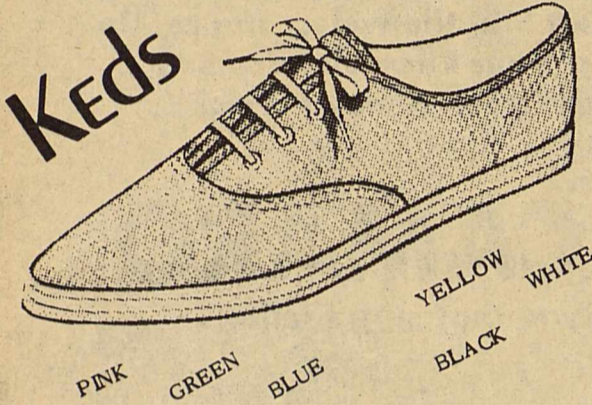

Home Demonstration Agent. In view of today's concern over rising food costs, it seems particularly appropriate to call attention to the sharply reduced prices on canned pears in all markets. This reduction reflects the substantially larger crop of Bartlett pears harvested this past season. The excellent growing season produced uniform sized pears of excellent quality. Cost and product information is sometimes slow in reaching the consumer.

Economical shoppers know the meaning of grades of canned pears. Graders refer to shape rather than quality. Fancy grades are perfectly shaped and labeled 'Extra Heavy Syrup.' Choice pears, identified by words, 'Heavy Syrup,' have a high percentage of perfectly shaped pears. Standard pears have the term 'Light Syrup' on the label and are economical for cut-up fruit salads and desserts where the pears have a more irregular shape. All grades of canned pears have the same nutritive value.

The gently curved centers of drained canned pear halves are adapted to handle a variety of fillings to transform them in to interesting and delectable salads, desserts and meat accompaniments.

Centers of pear halves may be filled with chopped prunes or dates and nuts, then swirl with a fluffy meringue and bake until golden brown.

846 Medium Maturity Winner from the Rio Grande to North Texas

"Versatile" describes hybrid 846; it's the top-ranked medium maturity hybrid for dryland or irrigated conditions in all parts of Texas and other southwestern states.

A high degree of hybrid vigor enables 846 to outperform most earlier hybrids under stress conditions... and outyield many later maturity hybrids under good growing conditions.

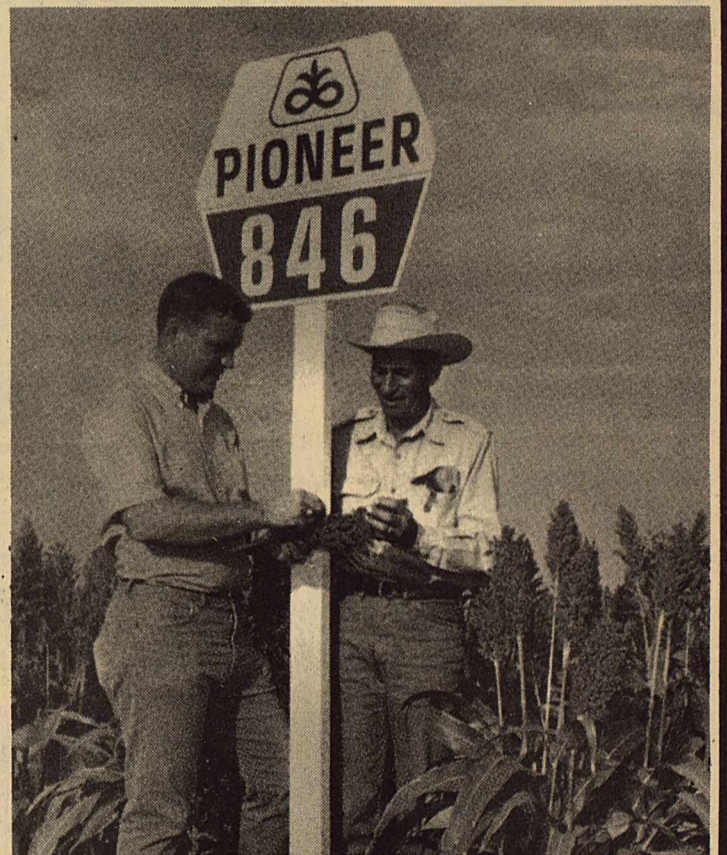

For example, 846 was compared with other hybrids in County Agent-supervised tests on seven Uvalde county farms in 1966. The winning yields ranged from 3,290 pounds to 7,743 pounds per acre—and 846 ranked first for yield on 3 farms, second at 3 others—first or second in 6 out of 7 tests!

Hybrid 846 also ranked first in 1966 in County Agent tests in Bee county (2 locations), Milam county (2 locations), Victoria county, Wilson county, and at 3 of 5 tests in Live Oak county. The previous year, in official Texas A & M yield tests, 846 ranked first at three locations and second at three more.

From 1962 to 1965, Pioneer hybrid 846 was compared with 17 other top-rated competitive hybrids of similar maturity more than 460 times in Texas A & M tests. Hybrid 846 topped these other 17 hybrids in better than 3 out of 4 comparisons—and averaged a cool 354 pounds more grain per acre than these leading competitive entries.

Short, Uniform, Excellent Roots

Relatively short and uniform in head height, 846 boasts strong, deep-anchored roots that make for good standability. Semi-compact heads thresh out well, yielding light red colored grain. Ample head exertion smooths out the harvesting job. Good resistance to charcoal rot and head smut puts extra dependability into 846.

Under good growing conditions, you can expect 846 to bloom from 60 to 70 days* after planting, and be ready for harvest in 100 to 115 days. Regardless of where you farm in the Sorghum Belt... whether you have ample water, limited irrigation, or dryland conditions... there's extra profit for you in planting hybrid 846.

*This range in blooming and maturity dates covers most situations. Unusual conditions or planting dates may decrease or increase the time requirements.

SWCD Reports

By Wilson Duke
SWCD
The use of crop residues as a deterrent to wind erosion and also to help conserve moisture is gaining in momentum from year to year in the Yoakum Soil & Water Conservation District. Due to lack of rainfall through the winter months more and more farmers each year are turning to the management of available crop residue as a means of protecting the top soil from wind erosion. Observations made during the wind storms the 1st and last week of March proved how valuable Crop Residue on the surface of the land can be. In some cases the amount of residue grown was insufficient to protect the land from blowing and several farmers had supplemental this by chiseling through the residue at about a 45 degree angle and the combination of these two conservation practices saved many tons of top soil that normally would have been lost had these conservation practices not been used. This not only was practiced on maize stubble but many local farmers chiseled at an angle through their cotton stalks which afforded considerable protection during the critical wind erosion period. Small grains such as wheat and rye even though very little growth has been made due to lack of moisture has done an exceptional job of wind erosion control.
