RECORD
BY JOE HUGHES

THANKSGIVING, 1967: This is a time during our busy lives to slow down for a few moments and count our numerous spiritual and material blessings.

We can pause with humility and reverence and recall our heritage and give thanks.

History books tell us that pilgrims at Plymouth Colony observed the first Thanksgiving day in 1621 at the conclusion of their first harvest. Some 240 years later, President Lincoln proclaimed the fourth Thursday of November as Thanksgiving Day, and it has remained so until today.

In the Mail this week, we were informed that legislation is now before congress which would move the observance of five of our national holidays to Monday.

The report said the shift would avoid breaking up the work week and thus provide "defined three-day weekends."

Holidays falling under this change would include Washington's Birthday, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Veterans' Day and Thanksgiving. Whatever could be said in favor of the proposal's effects on other holidays, we hope that Thanksgiving is not included with the others in the final planning.

To the present, Thanksgiving has been a four-day holiday, a time when schools let out & families can be together.

This could be changed if Thanksgiving were just another weekend.

An article we have pretty well sums up our feelings on the new proposal:

"For more than one hundred years, the fourth Thursday of every November has been the time for families to serve that reminder of the Lord's bounty: the traditional Thanksgiving Dinner.

Changing this day would to many minds detract from its significance."

Traditions are an important part of the continuity that lends strength to a people and to a nation. We would do well in these times, to keep as many of them as we can.

Sorghum Harvest Residue Stumps Plains Producers

By Murrell Thompson WUC

Now that the Grain sorghum harvest is completed the question of what to do with the residue or stubble is bothering a lot of people. This problem seems to come around every year about this time. What should I do? Does the land need plowing? Should I get a bunch of cattle and graze the stubble? What is grain sorghum stubble worth in the form of plant food or as some say fertilizer? What is it worth left on the land, how much of it will blow away if I don't plow?

The answer to all the questions are not easy but some of them have been answered by local farmers and research people for a long time. First of all the fact that land plowed now will probably be bare for the next 5 months and subject to all the wind and water erosion we will have.

The fact that the soil temperature will be much below 60 degrees means that very little if any bacterial action will take place on any residue plowed under therefore very little decaying will take place so the residue will be just about in the same state as when it was turned under if it is not blown away.

Land plowed now will loose whatever moisture it has due to wind and aeration, when the soil blows and precious top soil is lost moisture is also lost.

If we should get additional moisture in the form of snow the bare land will not hold the snow and it will blow and drift where it is not needed.

What will residue do if left on the land? Just about everything the land needs until planting time. Residue will hold moisture, top soil, organic matter, plant food, clay particles and in doing so all this it will protect our health, homes, business, highways, livestock and wildlife.

Show me a man that needs to plow and I will show you a man that will have problems next spring. Crop residue is our best and most economical soil protector.

Traditional THANKSGIVING

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following is a Thanksgiving message reprinted from our files)

Thanksgiving means many things to Americans. To some it means a pause to give unto God a simple thank you for the blessings of the years. To others it means a chance to give thanks for the opportunity to sit down to dinner with friends and family and enjoy the association those we love. To others it means a mental voyage through the pages of American History and of those first days in New England. And to the men in uniform in Viet Nam it means a yearning for the loved ones back home and a question of why they are there and how soon will the time come when they will see the Golden Gate again.

To others it will be a day of athletic enjoyment with the pig skin coming to the foreground. Thousands of Americans will swallow their dinner and rush to the stadium to see such traditional rivals like Texas and Texas A & M meet in a grudge game. Millions more will develop the pink eye from watching the college and pro teams on video. To millions it will mean a break from the books and time out from school. It will mean a trip home from college to see Mom and Dad. The little ones in the grade schools have been watching the date like a hawk for the chance to race from the school house when the bell rings today. Thanksgiving will afford a day of rest for many people who compose the nation's working force. Businessmen will catch a needed rest before tackling the Christmas rush.

It will also mean the beginning of the Christmas season and the wee ones will start thinking of Good St. Nick who is just a month away, and Mom and Pop will notice a marked improvement in the department of Little Leander and fair Penelope the day after Thanksgiving.

Others will fill the nations churches in a formal way of giving thanks.

But in all...it all depends on how you look at it... Americans are grateful for Thanksgiving, regardless of the motive.

Immunization Clinics To Be Conducted Here

Three consecutive immunization clinics will be held at the primary school on December 12, January 9 and February 13. The clinics will be conducted from 1:30 to 5 p. m. on the specified days, according to a report this week from local health officials.

Dr. Evelyn Smiley, director of south plains health unit will administer the immunizations, assisted by Ann Foster R. N., public health nurse and Bonnie Heath, Migrant health nurse.

Three-in-one, diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus, oral polio, small pox and measles vaccine will be available to those who want to bring their babies. There is no charge for the immunization.

COURTHOUSE CLOSED TODAY AND FRIDAY

The offices located in the Yoakum County Courthouse will be closed today and Friday so that the county employees may spend the Thanksgiving holiday with their loved ones.

Courthouse proceedings will resume on Monday, according to Plains officials.

Area Cotton Harvesting Approaches Top Activity

The South Plains cotton harvest approached peak activity over the weekend and the USDA Classing Offices at Lubbock, Brownfield and Lamesa received samples from approximately 32,000 bales on Saturday, according to W. K. Palmer, in charge of the Lubbock Office.

The Lubbock Office had 32 classers on duty on Saturday, the Brownfield Office five and the Lamesa Office two. Palmer indicated that more classers would be brought into the three South Plains Offices Monday.

The USDA Cotton Classing Offices at Lubbock, Brownfield and Lamesa classed approximately 50,000 samples during the week ending Friday November 17. This brought the total classed at the three offices this season to 151,000. Through November 17 last year 394,000 samples of the 1966 crop had been classed.

Middling made up 24% of the total classed at Lubbock last week. Strict Low Middling 46%, Low Middling 1%, Middling 1%, Middling Light Spotted 22% and Strict Low Middling Light Spotted 7%.

Forty-four per cent of the cotton classed at Lubbock last week stapled 1" and longer, compared to 46% the previous week. Twelve per cent of all cotton received at Lubbock last week stapled 1 1/16 and longer.

Micronaire continued the seasonal decline. Fifty-two per cent of the cotton miked in the Lubbock Office was in the 3.5 and better micronaire category, 15% was 3.3 and 3.4, 22% was 3.0 through 3.2, 9% 2.7 through 2.9 and 2% 2.6 and below.

Forty-eight per cent of the cotton classed at Lubbock last week had Pressley reading of 80,000 pounds and higher, compared to 56% the previous week. Pressley is an indication of fiber strength and the most desirable Pressley reading is 80,000 pounds and above.

Trading increased in the new crop cotton on the Lubbock market and prices were generally $5.00 to $15.00 per bale higher.

Prices paid farmers for cotton seed ranged from $50 to $60 per ton.

Comptroller of Public Accounts for the State of Texas, Robert S. Calvert, praised the Yoakum County Tax Assessor-Collector Office for their accurately kept records.

In a letter to E. W. Craig, Yoakum County Tax Assessor-Collector, the comptroller stated:

"Pages four and five of the Audit cover the test check of your cash and bank accounts for the period September 1 through October 3, 1967, and shows you that you had enough money on hand and on deposit to pay for all the taxes you had collected during the period."

The comptroller added, "It is indeed a pleasure to make an audit of an account when it has been so accurately kept. May we express our appreciation for the cooperation of you and your deputies while our auditors were in your city."

'Ask for cotton products', McQueen Tells Local Club

The Yoakum County Cotton Promotion Club staged its first annual "Sew It With Cotton" contest and style show Saturday with Horace McQueen, farm editor of the West Texas TV network and public relations director of Lubbock's Plains Cooperative Assn., as guest speaker.

In relating what promotion the women of the area can do for cotton, McQueen stated,

"Be consistent in asking merchants for 100% cotton products. If a merchant special orders for you, be sure to go back and get the item. This makes a good relationship between consumer and merchant."

When merchants are aware that consumers are insisting on 100% cotton products they in turn will insist it from manufacturers," he continued.

McQueen also gave a short run-down of the South Plains cotton situation and of the research and promotion of the product now being done.

Winners of the contest included Sheila Taunton, Divisions I and II; Mmes. I. L. Smith; Nita Taunton, and Carl Lowrey, first, second and third respectively in Division III; Mmes. C. A. Pippin, Helen Worsham and I. L. Smith, first second and third respectively in Division IV.

Prizes are being furnished by Yoakum County Co-op Gin, Tokio Co-op Gin, C. G. & S. Gin, Terry County Farmers Co-op Gin Assn., New-Tex Gin Co. Inc., and Pleasant Hill Gin.

Texas Farm Bureau Adopts State Policies

The Texas Farm Bureau adopted state policies for next year, reaffirmed its conservative stand on national farm programs and elected a new slate of officers at its 34th annual meeting November 12-15. Sidney Dean, Victoria cattleman and farmer, was named president by the TFB board of directors following adjournment of the convention November 15. He replaces C. H. DeVaney of Coahoma who had served as chief officer of the state's largest farm organization since 1962. M. F. (Mike) Frost, McAllen cotton, citrus and vegetable farmer, was elected vice-president, and Steve Lilly, Nacogdoches dairyman and livestock producer was named sec-treas. Dean had served as vice-pres. for the past year and Frost had been sec-treas. The 842 voting delegates from counties reaffirmed the organization's desire to "move in the direction of eliminating government regulation of the right to produce agricultural commodities." They said, however, in some cases that allotments and quotas will have to be maintained for a transitional period. Delegates recommended that all Texas Farm Bureau marketing programs be expanded and diversified as rapidly as possible. TFB is now active in cattle and poultry marketing and trade development. They adopted a state policy which is now calling for a county sales tax that would replace the present county ad valorem tax. Delegates opposed establishment of a Texas Dairy Commission and supported more effective animal health programs in the state. The convention delegates re-elected seven board members whose two-year terms expired this year. They are:

J. D. Coleman, Wellington, Dist. 1; T. J. Richards, Paducah, Dist. 3; Edwin Sanderson, Paris, Dist. 5; B. J. Gist, Abilene, Dist. 7; Steve Lilly, Nacogdoches, Dist. 9; Fay Mowery, Houston, Dist. 11, and M. F. McAllen, Dist. 13. Dean was first elected to the TFB Board in 1961 and was chosen as vice-president in 1966. A native of Boyce, Louisiana, he received his higher education at Louisiana Baptist College, Louisiana State and the University of Mississippi. In WWII, he attained the rank of lieutenant colonel and has served more than 30 years of active and inactive reserve duty in the army. A farmer and rancher with more than 2,000 acres in cultivation. Dean's major crops are maize, cotton and flax. He has herds of Brahman-Hereford cross and Averdeer Angus cattle. Dean is married to the former Jamie Ragsdale, daughter of famed South Texas attorney, J. W. (Jim) Ragsdale. They are parents of two teen-age girls, Sallie and Jessie. Frost, the new vice-pres., owns and farms 650 acres in Hidalgo County, and is manager and part owner of a fruit and vegetable packing shed & gin at McAllen. He is married to the former Sandra decker of Houston and they are parents of two sons and a daughter. The new sec-treas., Steve Lilly of Nacogdoches, owns 650 acres and farms a total of 1,000 acres. He has a dairy beef cattle and hog operation. He was first elected to the TFB board in 1964.

Tuesday was an exciting day for everyone. Pictures were taken all day of class favorites and personalities. For this reason the pep rally was cancelled until another game. There will be one basketball pep rally per month.

Before the basketball game the F. H. A. girls cooked pancakes from 5:00 to 7:00 o'clock in the cafeteria. This was quite a success. The game wasn't quite such a success but did prove to be exciting. The score was just about the same through-out the game until the end. Eunice gained a small lead and won by 54-48.

The B-team boys nearly overtook the cardinals. Tuesday the 25th the Cowboys play Morton here. The B-squad game will start at 6:30. Come out and support the Cowboys.

We want to congratulate the band for their No. 2 ratings which they received at the Annual Marching Contest when they traveled to Odessa last Saturday. The twirlers, Rita Winn, Jannie Hamm and Joyce Warren entered the twirling contest and made a list!

The new tennis court has been completed and the tennis team has started practicing on it. Here they will be less likely to slip and fall.

Another club which has been in our school was organized Monday. This is the Drama Club. Officers were also elected.

Last Monday night the 4-H Club of Yoakum County had their "Awards Program". Year pins and project awards were handed out. Some of the Plains 4-H members put on a skit. The biggest crowd that has ever attended an Awards Program was present.

The students got out of school for the holidays on Wednesday at 2:30.

Since Six Weeks Tests are over everyone is looking forward for a needed holiday.

Nation's Capital Has New Sights and Scenes

Millions of visitors to Washington, D.C., are photographing sights unseen just a few years ago—and cameras click constantly. New buildings, new restaurants and new hotels have sprung up... entire portions of the city have been rebuilt... and a look across the Washington skyline shows a forest of cranes at work. Washington is an easy place to reach—and for the person driving the family car, the new interstate highway system has made the trip a breeze. The Capital City is on Interstate 95, the major north-south highway on the east coast; 70S, which connects with the Pennsylvania Turnpike at the Breezewood Interchange; and Interstate 66, which joins with Interstate 81 over in the Shenandoah Valley.

WHERE IN THE WORLD will our school students go to build careers for themselves?

(WHAT PART CAN YOU PLAY IN) (ANSWERING THIS QUESTION?)

Right now, it's back-to-school for the book-toters of our town. Before you know it, they'll be graduating! Many will go on to higher learning. Ultimately all of them will have a decision to make, as to WHERE they can best build their careers.

You have a definite stake in the future of these young people. Your taxes help pay for their education. The more of them who stay HERE to contribute to the progress of THIS community, the better for all of us!

It takes a GROWING community to provide adequate scope for the rightful ambitions of young people. What can YOU do about this? One very important thing: You can spend MORE of your shopping dollars at home, where they will stimulate local trade and business, spark expansion, help create more employment opportunities, help maintain first class schools and other civic services that will attract new residents and new industries. You help our young people, our town, and YOURSELF, when you...
