OUR 37TH YEAR, THE PLAINS RECORD, THURSDAY, APRIL 11, 1968, NUMBER 15

BEARDEN, MILLER WIN CITY POSTS

OFF THE RECORD

Don't know of anything I ever enjoyed more than being editor of the Plains Record these past 4 months. But all good things must come to an end.

When Mr. Hughes asked me to try to run the paper for him for a while I thought he was joking. I tried to get him to get someone with experience but he couldn't find anyone before he had to go on active duty, so I agreed to give it a try.

Every week has been a real challenge and I wouldn't take for the experience and for the wonderful fellowship with the merchants and all the people I have met and worked with in Plains.

I know we didn't get out the best paper in the world, but I was proud of everyone of them and would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who helped make it possible to get a paper out every week. I would like to especially thank Mary Jane Norman, Beverly Cross, Teny Lester and Cindy Vorheis. I could never make it without them.

Plains needs a good news paper and I hope everyone will continue to support the paper as they have in the past. I'm glad that the paper will be in good hands of Teny Lester and I'm sure that her and Cindy will do a real good job. They want me to keep on trying to write this little of 'weekly column, but I'll never know why.

If the Plains Record ever needs me again I hope I'll be in a position to help them.

Guess I'd better go before I start getting sentimental.

See you later,

Ray Trent.

Apologies Offered

The Plains Record offers apologies to the hostess and Mrs. T. F. Fillingim for omitting four names of ones attending the surprise party for Mrs. Fillingim.

Names omitted were Reva Cleveland, Vera Smith, Mrs. W. M. Luna and Annette Cleveland. Mrs. Reva Cleveland also registered guest and gifts at the affair.

TENY LESTER
Editor

New Editor For Paper

Teny Lester has been hired as Editor of the Plains Record. Teny, wife of Bobby Lester who farms near Tokio, has been employed with the record for about 3 months.

Before working for the Plains Record Teny was employed at the Brownfield Newspaper Office as Society Editor.

The Lesters have 2 children, Cyndy and Bruce who both attend the Plains Schools. They have resided in Yoakum County for about 8 years.

Mrs. Lester replaces Ray Trent as editor. Trent has been editing the paper for Mr. Hughes since December of last year.

Mr. Joe Hughes, owner of the paper was called to serve 5 months active duty in the National Guard in December and is due to return to Plains about May 10th.

Mr. Trent plans to devote more time to campaigning for the Office of Tax Assessor and Collector.

Notice

The District 5-A One Act Play Contest will be held today in the Plains High School Auditorium beginning at 1:30 p.m.

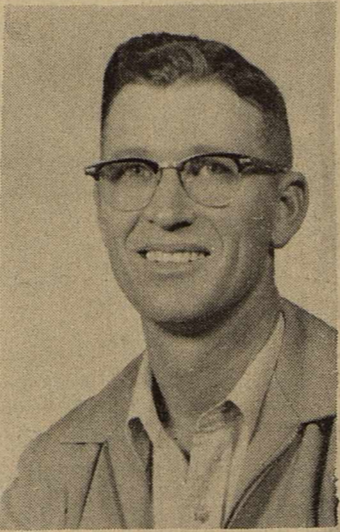

The public is invited to attend. Besides Plains, schools participating will be O'Donnell, Tahoka, Seagraves and Coahoma.

Annual Hunt Set Saturday

Kiddies Be Ready! The Easter Bunny plans to make his annual visit into Stanford Park Saturday morning at 10 a. m. There will be prizes for the lucky tiny tots who find the reward eggs. This hunt is for pre-school age children only.

Cordell Huddleston, chairman of the hunt, is in charge and announces that it will get underway at 10 a. m. The race for the eggs will start on time, so parents are urged to have the children at the park on time.

This will be the fourth annual Easter Egg Hunt sponsored by the Plains Chamber of Commerce. The hunt was started when Roy McGehee was president of the Chamber.

The entrances of the park will be closed at 10 a. m. in order to protect the children from traffic hazards. Parents are asked to bring the cars inside because the entrances will close as soon as the hunt gets underway.

Three prize eggs will be offered this year valued at $7.50, $5.00 and $2.50. Children finding the prize eggs will receive checks Saturday morning.

Chamber members state the hunts were highly successful in the past years and that the public has urged the Chamber to continue with the annual event.

Women In Lubbock Meet

Five members of the Yoakum County Women's Cotton Promotion Club were in Lubbock Thursday when materials and a plan promoting cotton on the High Plains were presented to industry leaders.

Those attending were Mmes. Carl Lowrey, president of the local club; Roy Lowrey, David Stowe; Kent Welch, H. W. Taunton and Mrs. W. L. Stephens of Brownfield.

Organized through the framework of Cotton Producers Institute and the National Cotton, the meeting kicks off a Belt-wide campaign to increase the sale of cotton through intensive local promotions.

A hand book prepared by the Council was described in detail. It suggests procedures to assist local groups in promoting cotton through retailers, industry organizations and womens clubs.

It also describes available materials such as newspaper ad layouts, kits for schools, billboard sheets, bumper strips and lists to guide buyers in stocking cotton products.

Representatives of the Council outlined the local promotional effort and also reviewed the $8-million research and promotion program of Cotton Producers Institute.

Howard Alford, Lubbock, vice president of CPI, pointed out the additional impact the national effort can be given through strong local campaigns.

Roy Forkner, also of Lubbock, and a trustee of CPI, stressed the program would be an industry-wide effort, drawing on the support of allied groups as well.

"We feel it's time we were doing more here at home to encourage purchases of cotton products," he explained, "and this program is designed to get more cotton products stocked by retailer and sold to consumers."

Mrs. E. L. McDowell of Crosby County, and active worker in organizing the Women's Cotton Clubs in the High Plains area, said cotton still has more to offer in comfort, maintenance, and durability and the program and materials introduced today provide valuable guide for telling this story.

Easter Brunch

London Buns

1 egg
1/2 cup milk
1/4 cup sugar
2 cups New Bisquick
2 tablespoons salad oil or melted butter
1 cup currants or raisins
1/2 cup candied fruit (3 ounces)
Heat oven to 400°. Grease 16 medium or 20 small muffin cups or use paper baking cups. Blend all ingredients, beat vigorously 1/2 minute. Fill prepared muffin cups 3/4 full. Bake 12 to 15 minutes or until golden brown. Serve hot. Makes 16 medium or 20 small muffins.
Just for fun, serve these London Buns inside a gay Easter basket. Then pass the butter. (Jam's not necessary, but only if you know your family's tastes.)

Cowboy Corral

Student Council members Charlene Gayle, Jerry Heald and Rodney Trout went with their sponsor Mr. Graham to the Student Council Convention in San Antonio last week. They spent Saturday at the HemisFair. After causing the destruction of a mini-mobile train, they proceeded to Abilene to invade the campus of Hardin-Simmons College. They arrived home Sunday at 6:00 in the evening.

The Regional Track Meet was held at Coahoma last Friday. Plains won on second and third places. Some people may think this bad, but after all "it's not how you play just as long as you win!" Sure it is!

Six Weeks Tests wore out the majority of the students last week. Few had strength enough to go to the U. I. L. Literary Meet at Coahoma Saturday. Plains won the events on points. However, golf, tennis, and the One Act Play remain to be won--we hope.

Tennis suffered Tuesday because of weather. The District meet was held at Plains, mostly indoors. It always rains on track meets and tennis meets. The track meets have suffered and now it's the tennis meet's turn.

One Act Plays are scheduled for Thursday here in our auditorium. They begin at 1:30. Of course, we all know who's going to win--don't we?
The Plains Cowgirls are playing for Bi-District at Tahoka Tuesday night. They play Aspermont. Seems Aspermont wants to win State this year--in everything! P. H. S.'s own personal witch put a double evil whammy on Aspermont. Not that the Cowgirls need the help.

Easter holidays begin Friday at 2:30. We come back on April 22, if anyone remembers to return. Ah! how much fun everyone will have with an empty school. Hint to the police: When school turns out for Easter, be on the lookout for a green pickup containing one school principal.

Peace Corps Giving Tests

Plains area residents interested in putting their skills to use in developing nations around the world are invited to take the Peace Corps Placement Test at 1:30 p. m. on Saturday, April 20 at Lubbock, Texas, Room 16A of the Post Office Building.

The Peace Corps uses the Placement Test to determine how an applicant can best be utilized overseas. The test measures general aptitude and the ability to learn a language, not education or achievement. The test requires no preparation and is non-competitive; and an applicant can neither pass nor fail.

Persons interested in serving with the Peace Corps must fill out an application, if they have not already done so, and present it to the tester before the test. Application forms are available from post offices or from the Peace Corps in Washington, D. C. 20525.

Twelve thousand Volunteers are currently serving in Asia, Africa, Latin America and the Pacific Island, working with the people of those nations in self-help projects ranging from agriculture and nutrition to auto mechanics, education and health. Many Volunteers are needed for programs which will begin this spring and summer.

Easter Seal Society Gives Last Appeal

A last minute appeal for support of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults and its program of services to the handicapped was issued today by Mr. B. E. Loyd, who is the Easter Seal Representative in Yoakum County.

The Easter Seal provided treatment and services for the 17,622 physically handicapped children and adults in Texas last year, Mr. Loyd said, and this program needs to be expanded. Many people are going without services that would increase the productivity of their lives and make them happier.

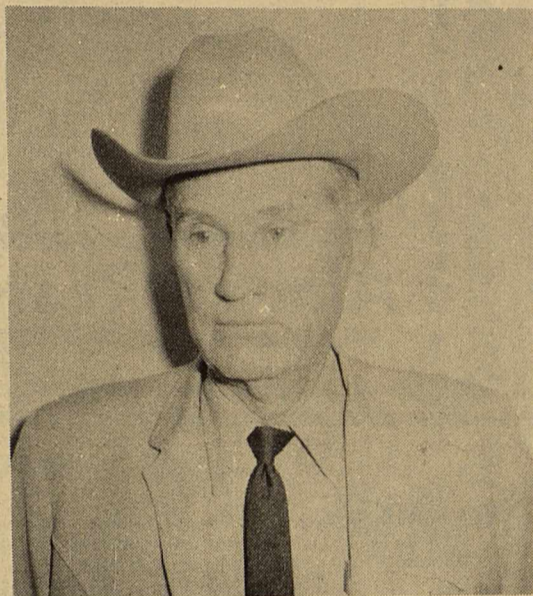

With increased growth of the Easter Seal Society, more and more of these people will be reached, he added. The Society is carrying on a continuing program to seek out the disabled who are doing without services and see that they receive the services they need. As Easter Seal Representative, Mr. Loyd is the person to contact for services from the Easter Seal Society.

The Texas Easter Seal Society helps support 21 treatment facilities in Texas where crippled children and adults are treated regardless of their ability to pay. Physical, occupational and speech therapy are offered to help the handicapped overcome their disabilities. A complete referral program to ensure equal rehabilitation services to every person in Texas is included in Easter Seal Society services, he added.

Mr. Loyd asked that everyone in need of services contact him at Plains State Bank in Plains, Texas 79355.

He added that the Easter Seal Appeal will close Sunday, April 14, and full support should be given the Easter Seal Society by every citizen of Yoakum, County.

NEW! For clean Sorghum... spray weeds when you see them!

with BANVEL

HERBICIDE

Velsicol announces Banvel herbicide for control of all hard-to-kill weeds of major importance in grain sorghum. This includes carelessweed (pigweed), sunflower, lambsquarter, purslane, morning glory and other annual broadleaf weeds. Banvel herbicide is applied post-emergence, so there are no wasted sprays in years when rain is scarce and weeds are not a problem. With Banvel you see your weed problem and then spray—all in plenty of time to give young sorghum plants plenty of opportunity to grow.

Banvel is sprayed onto weed leaves and translocates to the roots... for new, total control of weeds. Just apply Banvel between the 10th and 25th day after emergence of grain sorghum (approximately 4 to 12 inches tall).

Banvel is not dependent on soil moisture for its effectiveness, so its results are dependable. And it's a liquid that won't clog your sprayers; nor does Banvel need constant agitation.

Banvel increases yields. It's excellent for use on grain sorghum, wheat, barley, oats and field corn. Order Banvel herbicide to get full potential from your valuable, high-yielding sorghum seed.

See your dealer today. You'll be glad you did!

Tsa Mo Ga In Club Meet

The Tsa Mo Ga Study Club met in regular session April 8, 1968 in the clubhouse at 8 p. m. with president Mrs. Alf Carpenter presiding.

Eighteen members answered roll call with "What is our responsibility to our youth living in a changing world?"

Mrs. Dickie Green was director for the program on Home Life.

Mrs. J. M. Tippet gave a very interesting review of the book "Through Darkest Adolescence" by Richard Armour.

It is Richard Armour's somewhat comical contention (and who are we to disagree with him?) that adolescence is a disease and no wonder drug or vaccine has yet been discovered to cure it.

A Nobel Prize might some day be won by some scientist for a sure cure, though there might be some dispute over whether the prize should be for medicine or peace.

In his twenty-fourth book, satirist Armour does a white smock and views adolescence clinically. If he holds a small hammer in his hand it is for protection, not to test reflexes.

He speaks, he declares, from experience since he is the father of two teenagers and confesses to having been a teenager himself once---only once.

He writes with shrewd madness about such fundamentals as the bathroom, the telephone, teeth straightening, acne, homework, parties, chaperones, care, amonking, drinking, the strange dialect known as "Teenese" and going steady. In fact he covers, or uncovers just about everything printable about young people.

Having made a shambles of history (It all started with Columbus), literature (Twisted Tale from Shakespeare, etc.), golf (Golf is a four-letter word) and medicine (The Medicinal Muse or what to do 'til the Patient Comes), Richard Armour now takes teenagers apart and puts them together again, with only a few parts left over.

Mr. Armour is a college professor who graduates from Pamona College, took a Ph. D. at Harvard and is now Balch Lecturer in English Literature at Scopus College in California. In addition to numerous books, he has written light verse and even lighter prose for over a hundred magazines in the U. S. and England.

Through Darkest Adolescence is a book to be loved, laughed over, and learned from. Mrs. Tippet said the test of a good review was to make the listeners want to read the book. This she accomplished, and the book can be found in our local library.

Mrs. Grace Clinton gave the scripture reading.

★★ Speaking Success ★★

Approximately 80 persons attended the Saturday night supper and candidate speaking at the Tokio Community Building. The event was co-sponsored by the Turner Home Demonstration Club and the Community.

Candidates attending from Yoakum County were E. W. "Elvis" Craig, seeking re-election for County tax-assessor and collector; and Vance Brown, who is seeking re-election for Commissioner of Precinct 1.

Letters from Ray Trent, seeking the county tax office, and Ruby Heald, County Clerk, were read offering their apologies and regrets for not getting to attend.

Two district candidates attending were R. B. "Mac" McAllister and Robert Manskin, both of Lubbock, who are seeking the state representative position for Pl. 3. Johnny Kendrick, seeking re-election was unable to attend because of official business in Austin.

Terry County Candidates included Homer Parker, L. C. Webster and Eddie Roe, all seeking the sheriff's office; J. D. "Jot" Akers and Cliff Jones, seeking the tax office; Bobby Gilliam, John A. Bost, O. O. Miller, Geo. Steele and Harvey Smith all seeking the Prec. 1 Commissioners Post; Kenneth Graves and H. B. "Doc" Settlers, seeking the Prec. 3 Commissioners Post. A letter from O. A. Pippin was read offering his regrets for not being able to attend. He is also seeking the Prec. 3 office.

Other letters read included one from J. O. Burnett, Terry County Clerk.

Pies and cakes were auctioned off to the highest bidders after the speaking. Johnnie Fitzgerald, Yoakum County Commissioner of Prec. 4, attended this part of the event also.

Other guests included Bob Wiley of San Antonio and Pan-Noti Theospidin of Thailand, students at Texas Tech, who attended with the Clyde Trout family.

Approximately 400 dollars was raised at the affair and will be divided among the co-sponsors.

SEEDING RATES DISCUSSED BY LEO WHITE

The amount of seed planted on an acre of ground can become a pretty important item, before harvest time gets around. This was shown in two cases published in the 1967 Crops Demonstration Handbook. A seeding rate demonstration was carried out by Henry May to show the difference in yield of grain sorghum when planted at the rate of eight pounds per acre compared with a planting rate of five pounds per acre. The low seeding rate produced 2,812 pounds of grain per acre while the high seeding rate of eight pounds per acre produced 2,640 pounds.

In this case the difference was not great and it may not work out that way every year, but it was proof enough for Mr. May because he plans to plant all of his irrigated grain sorghum in 1967 with only five pounds of seed per acre.

Another seeding rate demonstration published in the handbook shows the results of two seeding rates on wheat. Mr. K. Blount has a small irrigated farm northwest of Plains where he planted wheat in the fall of 1966. The two rates used were nineteen and a half pounds compared with thirty-eight pounds. There was no significant difference in the yield, both made over twenty-six bushels per acre when they were harvested last May.

It will soon be planting time for grain sorghum and farmers are cautioned to remember the "Thumb Rule" of one pound of seed for each one thousand pounds of expected production. A farm that is well irrigated and has the correct amount of fertilizer applied might produce as much as 5,000 pounds of grain per acre. If this is true then five pounds of seed per acre would be the correct planting rate. Any more seed than that would make the crop less drought resistant with a smaller stalk and a smaller root system for drawing the moisture and plant food out of the soil and changing it into something to haul to town.

Even though moisture conditions are favorable for making a good crop of dry land grain sorghum this year, the whole thing can be easily ruined at planting time by putting down three pounds of seed per acre when two pounds would be sufficient.

HEALTH & SAFETY

Mainly for Mothers by Carol Hart

World's Greatest Tasters Are in Playpen Set

The most adventurous tasters in the world are under the age of five. They will taste anything they can touch. Annually, thousands of children, most of them under the age of five, sample medicines and household products of an astonishing variety. Although most recover, the experience can be a harrowing one — and is preventable in nine out of ten cases.

The Council on Family Health, a non-profit organization created to promote health and safety in the home, has some pertinent suggestions.

Most important is to look at your home through the eyes of your child. To him, it's an exciting, colorful place with hundreds of things to touch and taste. (Recently a safety expert with a new addition to the family carried out a room by room inspection of his home and found 41 potentially poisonous substances within reach of a crawling child. He removed each one.)

The room with the highest accident potential is the kitchen. Detergents, bleach, insecticides, floor polish, disinfectant, room deodorizers and even paints are often stored in floor-level cabinets behind easy-to-open doors. These products should be removed to a higher location, separate from food cabinets. Store pots and pans in the floor level cabinets.

Knives, corkscrews, can openers and other sharp objects are often kept in waist-high drawers, within the reach of a child. They should be placed on wall racks or a high shelf.

Electric outlets not in use can be covered with special plastic caps.

During meal preparation, pots and pans should have their handles turned inward, away from a child's grasp.

Half-Moon Salads

Cut half of a large honeydew melon into 12 slices; trim off rind. Pare and section 3 oranges. On 6 luncheon plates, arrange melon slices and orange sections on beds of lettuce. Garnish with parsley. 6 servings.

Coffee for the grownups, milk for the youngsters. And there. That should tide them over until the big Easter dinner.

The bedroom can be a hazardous area for a child, particularly if his mother leaves medicines, cosmetics, perfumes, lotions and sharp items such as nail files, tapered combs and tweezers on night tables or on low dressers. All should be stored out of sight after use.

In the bathroom, all medicines and grooming aids should immediately be returned to their proper enclosed place. Medicine chests equipped with snap locks will deter the young climber from tasting products not designed for his palate.

In short, to see your home with the eyes of a child is to be a most effective parent in preventing needless accidents.

SMALL TOWN HAM MAKES GOOD

Good eating, that is. Especially when you serve it with this wonderful Fruit Cocktail-Currant Jelly sauce. (And you know how popular Fruit Cocktail is.) You make it this way: scoop a small jar of red currant jelly into a saucepan. Add a medium-size can of drained Fruit Cocktail. Then a teaspoon of dry mustard. Heat and stir until jelly is melted. Try it tonight with your favorite canned, boneless, or regular ham.

Farmers Home Gives Report

A total of $3,068,890 in loan funds has been used in Yoakum County to support family farms since July 1, 1964, Homer P. Cole local supervisor for the rural credit agency said today. Approximately $833,290 was advanced in 1967. Currently 91 rural families in Yoakum County are using the supervised credit services of the Farmers Home Administration. The supply of FHA credit, which supplements the credit supplied by banks and other private family farmers and opportunity to earn part of income. These loans have enabled farmers to stay in business who would otherwise have to give up and go to the city. They have helped young farmers get established. They have enabled farmers to keep going after the drought conditions in the past, Mr. Cole noted.

F. H. A. loans can be used to buy land, refinance debts, acquire livestock and equipment, pay fertilizer and fuel bills and pay other expenses connected with acquiring, improving and operating farms.

The incomes of farmers using F. H. A. credit in Yoakum County in 1967 totaled approximately $1,531,504.00.

Loans are made only to families who are unable to obtain credit from other sources. The program is tailored to individual family needs and loans are accompanied by technical assistance in farm and money management.
