Lazbuddie Fails To Capture Title

Trio Faces Felony Theft Charges

Former Resident, Two Others Jailed

An alert Muleshoe merchant was the downfall for three men, two from Amarillo and one from Abernathy, who are presently in jail at the Bailey County Law Enforcement Center in Muleshoe, charged with felony theft by check.

At 2:34 p.m. Thursday, December 4, the manager of a local store, took a $100 check to the Bailey County Law Enforcement Center to file charges. The manager said that he had taken the check from John Mock, 47, a former Muleshoe resident, and that when he called the bank in Amarillo that the check was issued on, he found that the check was no good.

Within fifteen or 20 minutes, Muleshoe Police Chief Harold White and Deputy Sheriffs Bob Henderson and Ken Petree had picked up the first two of the three suspects. The first two men picked up were from Amarillo, Eli Stephen Johnson, 26, and Ronald Erle Gorbet, 33. They were picked up as they drove down a street in Muleshoe in a 1970 Chevrolet they had rented in Amarillo.

Some three hours later, Mock and a woman companion, who listed a Fort Worth Address, were picked up by Deputies Henderson and Petree at a local motel.

At the time the chief of police and deputies were attempting to find the men, Sheriff Dee Clements was checking with local merchants to see how many, if any, other checks had been given by the trio in Muleshoe. By the time he had finished checking, he had a total of $985 in checks issued locally, including the $100 check the department store.

The sheriff said he expected several hundred dollars more in worthless checks to show up before too many days. According to Sheriff Clements, the amount could exceed $2,000. Evidently, the trio started passing the checks on Monday, December 1, as the first check reported had that date. Several checks were given on December 2-4, until the store manager became suspicious and checked with the Amarillo bank. All the checks were stamped Pioneer Packing Company and signed by Ron Gorbet, Route Two, Amarillo.

on the Holt corner has been completed for more than a month but as of late Friday afternoon, Field still had not heard anything from the Phillips Petroleum Company in Bartlesville, Okla. concerning the sharp corner on the right. Field said the city had offered to pay the expense of moving the service station sign as they had for the Holt operation and that utility companies were prepared to moved their posts to another location.

Win a Few, Lose a Few, And So Goes Basketball

For the several Muleshoe basketball teams, both boys and girls, it has been literally, win a few, lose a few, for the past week. The Muleshoe varsity boys took on the Friona varsity boys Tuesday night and went into overtime play twice. The game was played at a brisk, fast pace. It was a see-saw battle all the way to the end. The real excitement started in the final two minutes of the game. Each team kept scoring until the horn blew. The score was tied at the end of the game, 44-42.

Muleshoe scored in the first over-time period, during the final seconds, to tie the score again. In the second overtime period, Friona scored twice making it 50-46. Muleshoe took possession of the ball and scored again. It was then 50-49, Dennis Beene scored again the final ten seconds of play to make it a 51-50 score.

High scorer in the game for the Mules was Jim Putman with 22 points. Following him were Lionel Patterson, 10; Randy Field, 7; Dennis Beene, 6; Terry Gunter, 4 and Jerry Putman, 2.

Rebounding was led by Lionel Patterson with 10 defensive and four offensive; Jim Putman, four defensive, one offensive; Jesse Clemmons, four defensive; Jerry Putman, two defensive; Dennis Beene, one defensive, one offensive and Terry Gunter, one defensive.

Friona's top scoring was done by L. Carthel with nine. This game made the Mules season record 1-1.

In tournament play at Friona Thursday night, the Mules fell before a Farwell team, 46-37. This dropped the Mules record back to 1-2.

MULESHOE VARSITY 'B' BOYS

The Muleshoe 'B' varsity team went to Friona for action with the Friona 'B' team. Muleshoe record is 1-2.

Regional Slips By Injured Longhorns

Hampered by injuries and illness in key players, nevertheless, the Lazbuddie Longhorns made a fantastic showing against the same team that did them out of the Regional title in football last year.

When all was said and done, and the last trophy presented, following the Throckmorton 20-8 victory over the Lazbuddie Longhorns, no one could have any thing disrespectful to say about the scrappy 'Horns, who wouldn't quit.

Derrell Matthews, Lazbuddie's top ground gainer halfback, was hampered by a severe ankle injury he had prior to the game Friday night. His injury was apparent from the beginning of the game, as he could not move with the agility and speed he has displayed all year.

Lazbuddie's first two points came with 3:15 on the clock in the first, following a Throckmorton penalty. The Throckmorton quarterback was trapped behind the goal line by Jimmy Noland and Terry Scott to give Lazbuddie a two-point lead.

Matthews managed to break through in the next few plays for the Lazbuddie Longhorns to pick up 35 yards before he was overhauled from behind and brought down.

Rouque Flores, 135 pound guard, bombed the Throckmorton quarterback shortly afterward to bring up a 10 yard loss for the fleet Greyhounds.

A fifteen yard penalty against the Longhorns helped set up the first Greyhound touchdown within a short time and with 1:08 on the clock in the first half, Randy Nichols blasted over from the Lazbuddie one to make it a 6-2 game. Joe Whitaker put the pigskin between the goalposts to make it 7-2 for Throckmorton.

At halftime, it was a 7-2 game. Throckmorton was in control of the third quarter almost all the way. They held the Longhorns within their own territory and without a first down.

A recalled touchdown following a screen pass evidently didn't set too well with Throckmorton with 5:33 in the third. With 5:25 on the clock Nichols passed to Johnny Martin from 20 yards out to make it a 14-2 game.

Going into the final stanza, Johnny Jones broke loose at the Lazbuddie 36 and went all 8-5 p.m.

Schools to Collect For Goodfellows

The four Muleshoe schools will be working during the next two weeks for the Goodfellows, the blindfolded, anonymous local business and civic leaders who help see that everyone has Christmas.

Competition will be fierce among the schools as the four classes in Muleshoe High School will be in competition to see who can collect the most food items during the annual drive.

In Muleshoe Junior High School, students are busy decorating boxes for the home rooms as each home room will be in competition with the other to see who will collect the most food.

Prize winners will be named in assemblies just prior to when the schools will turn out for the Christmas Holidays on December 19.

Richard Hills and Mary DeShazo Elementary Schools are also busy with their food collections, and these items will be picked up by members of the Goodfellows on December 18.

Each year, early in December, the Goodfellows begin their drive to accumulate food, clothing and useable toys for all the families in the area who would not have any Christmas otherwise.

Last year, 72 families, with an average of six persons per family were taken baskets of food, toys and clothing by the Goodfellows just before Christmas. This represented nearly 450 people in Bailey County alone, who benefitted from the Goodfellows collections.

Deadline for sending money, food or clothing for the Goodfellows to deliver is December 18. This will allow the Goodfellows time to purchase additional food items with the money received and prepare baskets for delivery prior to Christmas.

In order to begin processing application for aid from the Goodfellows, the coupon asking for names of families will be in each edition of the Journal until December 18. A local spokesman for the Goodfellows said they do not want any individual or family to be excluded from sharing in the spirit of Christmas.

All money donations should be mailed or taken to the City Cont'd on Page 3, Col. 3

Cotton Harvesting Reaches Mid-Point

Bailey County cotton harvest has reached the midpoint or above, with 32,895 bales of cotton ginned at mid-week. An early freeze, October 13, proved to be a fatal blow to a lot of young cotton, especially in the southern areas of the county. Hundreds of acres were wiped out in June when a devastating hail storm cut a wide swath south of the sandhills in the county. Most farmers replanted their cotton, and most had heavy losses in the freeze.

Bailey County Agent J.K. Adams said he expected upward to 55,000 bales to be harvested by the end of the season. In a mid-week check, the fifteen area gins had ginned 21,858 bales and the three Muleshoe gins had ginned a total of 10,310 bales.

Rain, which started in the area Thursday night, continued to hold the harvesting late Friday. Gainers were expected to have time to catch up with the backlog on their ginsyards.

New Water Members Are Being Sought

With deadline nearing for securing the 100 members needed in order for the Bailey County Water Association to become a unit member of Water, Inc., a total of 69 members are on the list to date.

December 15 is the deadline for securing the members in order for Bailey County to nominate their own director for the Lubbock-based water group. Members of the local group said that by this county having their own director on the board, local representation will be more available in the area.

The 69 members to date include Helen Carthel, C.J. Feagley, W.L. Welch, H.C. Toombs, T.D. Davis, Chester Settiff, John W. Gunter, Jim Pat Claunch, Cecil Buhrman, Mrs. Jewel Anderson, Bailey County Farm Bureau, J.M. Craft, Bailey County Electric Cooperative, Ben Foster Jr., Virgil Nowell, Roy Taylor, Leon alone into the end zone for Throckmorton's final TD of the game. Whiteaker added an extra point with his toe and the Throckmorton scoring ended with 20 points.

A series of passes, combining brother talents, eventually set up the lone Longhorn TD in the waning minutes of the game. Two passes from Monte Barnes to Mark Barnes moved the ball downfield within the shadow of the goal posts.

Shortly thereafter a Monte Barnes to Jimmy Noland, pass, with Noland making a spectacular catch in the end zone, put the Longhorns on the scoreboard again. Matthews attempted to go into the end zone for two extra points, but couldn't hold on to the ball. The Lazbuddie TD came with 3:23 left in the game.

With Lazbuddie threatening late in the game, a Throckmorton interception of a pass ended the possible scoring threat and the Greyhounds managed to maintain possession of the ball and ran out the clock.

 Muleshoe and Lazbuddie eighth grade girls clashed in the first game of the Muleshoe Junior High School and ninth grade tournament in gymnasium Thursday afternoon.

The B team girls from Lazbuddie held the Muleshoe B team scoreless in the first half of the game. At the quarter-way mark, Lazbuddie led 12-0, but managed only five points in the second and had a 17-0 lead at the half.

Two free shots in the third put the MJHS girls on the scoreboard for a three-fourths mark score of 22-2. In the final tally, the Muleshoe girls came alive and in less than three minutes of play hit straight on four baskets to make the final score 24-10.

Friona's freshmen girls tabbed a little revenge in the second game of the afternoon. In a first quarter runaway, the Friona freshmen scored 26 points while holding the Lazbuddie freshmen to 5 points. By halftime, the score had widened to 43-10. Two lone points for Lazbuddie made it 64-12 by the time the three-quarter buzzer sounded and the final score for the game was Friona 84-Lazbuddie 17.

Despite the fact that Referee Burel Block provided a little off-side entertainment in the third game, it didn't stop the fast and furious action between the Muleshoe eighth grade 'A' team and the Farwell eighth grade 'A' team.

Referee Block stepped backward over a Farwell guard

Needmore Luncheon Closes Year

Cries of disbelief and surprise accompanied the revealing of secret pals Wednesday at the annual Christmas party and gift exchanged of Needmore Community Club Wednesday at the club house.

A covered dish luncheon was served previous to the exchange of gifts.

Attending were Mrs. Lewis Wayne Shafer, Mrs. Leland

Jones, Mrs. O.E. McMakin, Mrs. Lester Howard, Mrs. Fred Beene, Mrs. Hal Phipps, Mrs. Rudolph Moraw, Mrs. Bert Blair and little son, Mrs. W.T. Underdown and Mrs. Lewis Dale. Mrs. Van Rogers was a visitor.

The next meeting will be the first Wednesday in January at 2:00 p.m. The new officers will take office at this time.

Mrs. Powell's Dressing

Just in case your Thanksgiving dressing did not please you, you may want to try making it the way Mrs. Owen Powell does.....and in case you have not yet tasted it, you are downright underprivileged.....

Mrs. Powell, like most good cooks, does not bother too much about measurements, but for her dressing she insists it "must be very thin" when placed in the oven, and she likes "light bread" rather than biscuits in her dressing.

She begins the process by making fresh cornbread, using a cup of sweet milk, one egg, two teaspoons baking powder and half-and-half flour and cornmeal (enough to make a very thin mixture).

A half loaf of day-old bread, mixed with the fresh cornbread, a large onion, about 1/2 cup of celery, broth enough to make it rich, two raw eggs, 1/4 teaspoon sage if desired, black pepper and as much as two cups of whole milk. The mixture must be 'sloppy' when ready for baking. Bake uncovered 30 to 40 minutes until onion and celery are done.

Mrs. Powell lines the baking pan with foil and saves a tire-some job of cleaning the pan, also thinks this method saves wasting so much dressing.

The texture of the mixture is important, Mrs. Powell believes. She says, "Leave it chunky".

Enthusiastic Crowd At Baptist Rally

A change in pace evidently was what was needed. Monthly Associational meetings held by Baptist Churches were struggling along with token attendance and little enthusiasm. Some of the planners decided quarterly meetings would be more effective--and the attendance Thursday evening of 450 to 500 adults and youth at First Baptist Church justified their belief.

An 85 voice choir, from churches over the Association, singing from the balcony, featured the theme of the meeting: "Do You Really Care?". Another selection which was particularly well received was "Heaven Came Down", Cliff Harding, director of music of First Baptist Church, Dimmitt, presented selections. Al Jordan, minister of music from First Baptist Church, Littlefield, directed the choir.

Rev. Douglas DuBose of the host church was moderator of the meeting.

Speakers were Rev. Carlos McCleod, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Plainview, who spoke on "Do You Really Care About People?" and Dr. David Ray, pastor of First Baptist Church of Lubbock, whose topic was "Do You Really Care About Jesus?". Mack Moore, minister of music of Muleshoe First Baptist Church, reports the meeting "highly successful and very enjoyable".

The next meeting is scheduled for sometime in March, at First Baptist Church, Lubbock.

Mrs. Garcia TOPS Queen

Mrs. Wayland Harris was Queen of the Week at the Thursday evening meeting of TOPS Club. Mrs. Claude DonHolmes was first runner-up and Mrs. Ed Edmiston was second runner-up.

Monthly Queen was Mrs. Felipe Garcia, who was presented with a basket of fruit. First runner-up was Mrs. Claude DonHolmes; second runner-up was Mrs. John Payne.

Selma Redwine called the roll, with 31 members present. Three guests, Miss Carla Hall, Miss Elizabeth Gaylon and Mrs. Lorraine Pagash, were also present.

Plans were made for the Christmas party, December 18. Mrs. John Payne had a birthday and received a gift.

A talk on "What TOPS has meant to me" was given by Mrs. Jeff Peeler. Mrs. George Province will give the talk next week.

O.E.S. Deputy Grand Matron Makes Official Visit

Mrs. Bobby Marshall, Hale Center, Deputy Grand Matron, District 2, Section 3, Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star, made her official visit to Muleshoe Chapter No. 792, Tuesday evening, December 2nd.

She was presented behind Esther's Station, escorted to the East, introduced, and given a lovely corsage, by the Worthy Matron, Mrs. Glen Lust.

"Let There Be Peace On Earth", was sung by Mrs. Charleta Treider and dedicated to Mrs. Marshall. Mrs. Pat Johnson accompanied at the piano. Mrs. Marshall brought greetings from the Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Sally Matraganda, Houston, and gave instructions in a very efficient and capable manner. She announced the Annual Eastern Star School will be held in Plainview, March 26th. Several members from Muleshoe will attend. She was accompanied to Muleshoe by Mrs. Bertha McBeth of Hale Center.

Plans were made for the annual Family Night Christmas party, to be held Saturday Evening, December 6th. A Turkey dinner will be served. A Christmas tree with gifts for the children and, of course, a visit from Santa will add to the festivities.

Members were saddened by news of the death of Sister Katherine Law, the adopted Chapter Sister in the O.E.S. Home. A Memorial gift will be sent to the Home in Arlington.

Mrs. Hazel Nowell, who served so efficiently, as Chairman of the Pink Ladies and Pink Ties Committee, last year, was again appointed Chairman, to serve this year.

Birthdays observed were: Tom Smith, December 5th, Lavonne Hinkson, December 10th., Pat Johnson, December 20th., Bill Johnson, December 24th., and John Thomson, December 26th., Birthday cards and book marks were presented and Happy Birthday was sung.

Mrs. Lust read a birthday poem to the honorees and good wishes for many more happy birthdays were extended.

Preceding the Chapter meeting, a delicious salad supper was enjoyed. The tables were beautifully decorated in the Christmas motif, with tiny white doves (the Worthy Matron's Emblem) in the center of each floral arrangement.

Two white doves holding the Golden Chain in their beaks adorned the East in the Chapter Room.

Refreshment Hostesses were: Hazel Nowell, Billie Mathis and Allie Snyder.

Gothic Bedroom Suite Built For Henry Clay On Display In Louisiana Museum

St. Francisville, La.--The Gothic bedroom suite in the North Wing at Rosedown Plantation and Gardens in St. Francisville, La., but by a twist of fate would be in the White House today. This beautiful Rosewood furniture was to be an inaugural gift for Kentucky's favorite son and presidential hopeful, Henry Clay, from his supporters upon his election in 1844 and was to become a permanent part of the state furnishings in the White House.

The suite was built by Crawford Biddle 'N Journeyman Cabinetmakers of Philadelphia, who were holding it for transport to Washington when Clay was defeated by Polk.

News that Clay lost the election prompted a wealthy cotton planter from West Feliciana Parish, Louisiana, Daniel Turnbull, one of the donors who happened to be in Philadelphia on business, to buy the state furnishings himself. Turnbull had built a beautiful Georgian-style mansion for his wife in St. Francisville, Louisiana in 1835, and they were still adding treasures from America and the Continent. He purchased the State Bedroom Suite meant for Clay, even though it meant he must build a wing to accommodate the immense tester bed which was over six feet in width, seven feet long and thirteen feet high. He added another wing to the outside of his house for a library so that his mansion would be in balance.

Daniel Turnbull was an ardent admirer of Henry Clay, for he agreed with his anti-slavery views. When only 22 Clayureed an emancipation clause for his own state of Kentucky and never ceased to regret its failure. He was lukewarm toward Texas because he feared it would enlarge the slave-holding territory of the United States. Turnbull, who owned almost 500 slaves, was not in sympathy with the system of plantation economy, but used it because it was a fixed factor in Southern agriculture before he built his own plantation empire. Although he was against slavery and fighting a Civil War, he went along with his contemporaries in order to protect his investment. He died the first year of the war.

The plantation empire which Daniel Turnbull created became the showplace of the Mississippi in the mid 1800's. Like other aristocratic landed gentry before the Civil War, Turnbull amassed great wealth. His plantation complex involved some 500 human beings. As he built his empire, his wife Martha, a member of the famous "Barrows of Louisiana" family, created magnificent gardens in the 17th century French landscape style.

Rosedown House was as beautifully appointed as Royal Houses in Europe, but the Henry Clay room must be considered one of the highlights. The color coordination of reds and golds, with window hanging in the trefoil design, pinpoints the taste with which the home was furnished. In addition to the immense bed with its ornate posts, the suite included a giant armoire and six straight chairs of gothic design.

Like other great plantations in the South, Rosedown was stranded in the world of poverty in the wake of the Civil War. The mansion became a mere shell, its gardens a tangle of vines during long, lonesome years of neglect.

Today, Rosedown is playing a new role in history. In 1956, the showplace was purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Milton Underwood of Houston, Texas who restored both house and grounds as they were in their full glory of the mid 1800's. The Henry Clay Suite which would have been viewed by thousands of visitors in the White House today is now enjoyed by bemused travelers in this eternal museum of the Old South.

The original Henry Clay room also included a black and gold marble mantel, a fireplace set consisting of brass andirons, brass fender, a stand with a stone base, tongs and shovel, a leather bound book entitled "Scott's Gallery of Portraits", and a tin bath tub and shower, and a white marble plaque in gold leaf frame.

Appropriate items added by Mr. and Mrs. Milton Underwood during the restoration include an antique needlework rug, France, circa 1880; a black and gold tobacco jar, England, circa 1810; gilt Gothic clock, France, circa 1810; three

THE HENRY CLAY STATE BEDROOM AT ROSEDOWN...The Henry Clay State Bedroom Suite built by supporters of the presidential hopeful in 1844 as a gift which would become a permanent part of the White House furnishings, ended up in a Louisiana plantation on default. When Clay lost the election to Polk, Daniel Turnbull, a wealthy cotton planter, bought the lavish Gothic suite for Rosedown, his plantation empire in St. Francisville, La. Today, the Henry Clay Room is one of the highlights of Rosedown, which has been restored and opened to the public as an eternal museum of the Old South.

Gothic style cornices, taken from a document by Ackerman, England, circa 1780; and a Regency rosewood armchair and footstool, England, circa 1815.

Facts, Figures On Irrigation Are Released

Facts and figures that describe irrigation in Bailey and 41 other High Plains counties are now available from J.K. Adams, County Agricultural Agent. Adams says these irrigation facts are published each year by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in the High Plains Irrigation Survey.

Although special emphasis is placed on 1969 irrigation, long term trends for major crops, number of wells, pumping capacities, and irrigated acreage are also included in the survey. This information is combined to show changes that have taken place in High Plains irrigation over the years, adds the agent.

In Bailey County, approximately 2,090 wells pumped water to 130,000 acres of thirsty crops during 1969. In addition to the wells, 24 tailwater pit and playa lake pumps were used. These two low-lift water sources offer economical irrigation and contribute significantly to crop production and water conservation. Moreplaya lake water should be used for irrigation, says Adams.

Of the major crops in Bailey County, Adams points out that 45,000 acres of cotton, 40,000 acres of grain sorghum, and 21,000 acres of corn were irrigated during 1969. These acres alone show the importance of Bailey County irrigation.

Additional income from irrigating these and other crops contribute heavily to the county economy. Irrigation water, continues Adams, contributes heavily to the wealth of many people in the county, whether received directly by farmers or indirectly through other businesses and employment.

A point of major concern to all of us, cautions Adams, is that an average of 171 acres were irrigated by each well in 1950, 109 in 1960, and only 62 in 1969. The number of wells pumping irrigation water increases every year. Growers continue to adjust irrigation practices in order to make more efficient use of available water. For many farmers this means watering fewer acres.

Whether your interest in irrigation stems from a farming enterprise, commercial business, or some other, Adams emphasizes that the 1969 High Plains Irrigation Survey has up-to-date irrigation information for you. Call or come by for it.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. -- A 1968 constitutional amendment did not affect the amount of fees that should be paid county tax assessor-collectors for assessing and collecting county taxes, but it limits the amount that may be paid by the state. So ruled Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin recently (State cannot be required to pay more than two per cent of state taxes assessed which are actually collected.)

*In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that:

*State Department of Public Welfare is authorized to spend money to refurbish the interior of a building which is leased by a county on a long-term basis and furnished the welfare agency rent-free.

*An otherwise recordable affidavit of heirship may be recorded in the office of a county clerk even though the unprobated will is attached. However, the unprobated will not constituting the exhibit to an affidavit may not be recorded with the clerk although it contains acknowledgement.

*Texas Board of Corrections is not obligated to collect, nor must public utilities pay, for placing lines along public roadways transverse state-owned lands under prison system control. (TBC has no authority to reserve the exclusive right to grant utility easements over such public roadways.)

*Harris County Hospital District may legally enter into a lease contract for an X-Ray equipment system for a period of five years, contingent on availability of appropriated funds.

DDT BAN URGED--Travis Audubon Society of Austin called on Governor Smith to use "all resources" to ban the use of insecticide DDT in Texas.

Resolution claimed that DDT is harmful to wildlife, remains toxic in environment for 10 years, is spread by wind and water, and has been "implicated" as a possible cancer cause.

Arizona, California and Michigan, Czechoslovakia, Sweden and Denmark have banned DDT already, the Society contended, further noting that "numerous other insecticides can do the job and become harmless to the environment within a few weeks."

COURTS SPEAK --Supreme Court found that a truck driver who was shot during an overnight stop was not entitled to workmen's compensation for disabilities.

In other cases that high court ruled that:

*A former liquor store executive is not entitled to recover $1 million in "back salary" from the business.

*Court has no jurisdiction to hear the appeal of a Houston attorney who was disbarred in 1963 for alleged fraudulent and dishonorable conduct.

High Court also heard arguments, that refusal to approve a new economy air flight service between Dallas/Fort Worth, Houston and San Antonio would frustrate efforts of Texas Aeronautics Commission to develop an efficient intra-state air carrier system. Air Southwest Company seeks certification for service, but Braniff International, Texas International and Continental Airlines have blocked TAC from issuing credentials.

Federal court here took under advisement the government's request to dismiss atheist Madalyn Murray O'Hair's suit to outlaw prayers by astronauts in outer space.

Court of Criminal Appeals upheld the death sentence of a man convicted of slaying during service station robbery in West.

CAUSEWAY URGED--A Rio Grande Valley delegation, including Cameron County officials and Chamber of Commerce spokesmen, urged the Texas Highway Commission to approve a $7.8 million Port Isabel-South Padre Island causeway.

At the same hearing, an East Texas group asked for a $1 million four-lane railroad overpass in Jacksonville.

Highway commissioners indicated they favor the idea of a new Queen Isabella Causeway since traffic has nearly doubled during the last two years. Local officials pledged about $300,000 of the cost.

APPOINTMENTS--Dr. Fred Wendorf, Southern Methodist University professor from Dallas, is new chairman of the fledgling State Antiquities Committee, and Truett Latimer is acting executive director.

Woodville attorney and State Bar President Josiah Wheat, is a new research staff assistant to Governor Smith.

ANTIQUEITIES--Texas' State Antiquities Committee has decided to spend $2,000 of its $25,000 budget to help preserve the artifacts found in the wreck of a Spanish galleon off Padre Island.

Dr. Fred Wendorf, Southern Methodist University archaeologist who was elected chairman of the committee, proposed the expenditure for chemicals and photographic supplies for emergency work to prevent rusting of iron cannons and other iron artifacts.

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler, who is a member of the Committee, made it clear that it is now absolutely illegal for anyone to explore for offshore artifacts without a permit from the new committee.

SPANISH LAND CLAIMS--Mrs. Celia Saiz Montez of Victoria is trying to collect a debt from the United States that she says Mexico has owed her, under a treaty between the two governments, since 1934. Debt goes back to a land grant given her ancestors by the King of Spain. Under a treaty, the United States agreed to pay the claims of Americans living in Mexico and Mexico agreed to pay the claims of Mexicans living in the United States. However, the Mexican government has refused to pay Mrs. Saiz Montez because she is an American citizen and the United States has refused because it argues that her ancestors were Mexicans. She is taking the case to Federal district court.

NATURAL GAS RATE--Texas Railroad Commission, after hearing testimony by consultants and Pioneer Natural Gas Company officials, has recessed its hearings on a proposed increase on the city gate rate for 61 West Texas towns until December 15.

The proposed increase amounts to 8.33 cents per thousand cubic feet of gas.

LABORERS--R.L. Coffman, Texas Employment Commission administrator, reports that the moderate increase in placement of farm workers in October was due to early citrus fruit harvesting in the lower Rio Grande Valley. Increase came amid the seasonal decline in most other activities reported by local officials.

TEC filled almost 3,000 more farm jobs in October than September. Non-farm openings in October were down 6,727 from September and non-farm job placements were down 3,604 from the preceding month.

HOG CHOLERA -- Both the State and Federal Departments of Agriculture are warning ranchers to be careful of hog cholera during winter. They report that hog cholera struck 19 Texas herds during October. A total of 1,684 animals in 19 infected and 23 exposed herds were disposed of during the month at a cost of $46,300. Departments said that "Every outbreak that is located and eliminated this winter reduces the chance for spread next spring when movements of pigs will increase again."

DEMONSTRATORS -- Texas' Board of Regents of State-Senior Colleges endorsed the suspension of 10 Southwest Texas State University students by the school's president for participating in an unauthorized demonstration. Students were suspended by Dr. Billy M. Jones after they failed to break up a moratorium demonstrations on university property. American Civil Liberties Union has said they will take the case to the courts.

SHORT SNORTS
Tribute was paid by Governor Smith to one of Texas' most colorful legislative members, State Sen. V.E. (Red) Berry of San Antonio, who championed horse racing and liquor-by-the-drink legislation until his passing on November 24.

Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes, who made soundings for several months about running for the U.S. Senate or Governor of Texas, chose neither -- he says he will be a candidate for reelection.

Texas National Guard is Number 1 in the nation in participation in the federal savings bonds payroll savings program with more than 90 per cent of the Guardsmen participating. Storage in 53 Texas reservoirs increased to 72 per cent of capacity in November due to heavy rains.

Coors Beer got a temporary injunction against the Liquor Control Board to prevent enforcement of its rule against warehouse refrigeration of beer.

The Texas Association of Cotton Producers Organizations (TACPO), made up of the six chartered organizations in the State, including Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., testified December 2 in Washington before the Cotton Subcommittee of the House Committee on Agriculture.

The Subcommittee, chaired by Representative Thomas Abernethy (D-Miss.), held hearings November 18, 19 and 25 and December 2 and 3 to hear industry views on cotton legislation to succeed the Agriculture Act of 1965, which expires with the 1970 crop.

TACPO recommended that major features of the present cotton program, with some modifications, be retained. But the TACPO statement further asked that the Subcommittee consider supplementing basic legislation with a new approach to cotton's problems "as a competitor in a multi-fiber world."

The statement, presented by TACPO Chairman Joe B. Pate, Jr. of Lubbock and PGC Board Chairman Don Anderson of Crosbyton, hit hard on six points "which we feel are important in the development of cotton legislation to cope with problems of the immediate future."

Included were the need for maintaining producer income, adequate production for both export and domestic markets, the level of non-recourse loans, payments limitations, Federal production research and making new legislation permanent, or continuing.

Pre-hearing talk in USDA circle has indicated that the Administration might be considering doing away with the parity concept in new legislation. But TACPO said "...the loan and price support payments for cotton should be tied to an index related to the general level of prices within our economy, such as the parity system used in the past."

It was pointed out that cotton production involves substantial capital expenditures which must be amortized over a long period of time, and that "Unless cotton producers have assurance their returns from cotton will remain at a reasonable level for several years, many will be unable to secure necessary financing."

On adequate supplies, TACPO recommended a "single allotment system" which would give producers the same incentive to grow cotton for export as for domestic consumption. "To secure adequate cotton production in this country, where production costs are several cents per pound above the world price for cotton, we must have a government program that provides an effective incentive to growers."

The statement noted that it costs just as much to produce cotton for export as it does for domestic use.

The Administration has said to some that a program with payments on domestic production alone, coupled with provisions for unlimited plantings, would provide the necessary supplies for both domestic and export customers. TACPO, citing production costs, experience with the domestic allotment system since 1965 and "our own first hand knowledge of farming operations in Texas where four of the seven lowest cost of production areas are located," said such a program "will not get the cotton produced."

TACPO went on to say that without added incentive to produce for export there is danger that foreign markets for U.S. cotton will be lost permanently.

The level of the loan, TACPO told the Subcommittee, should be high enough to provide the market stability essential to production financing and to reduce the need for high government payments to bridge the gap between market value and the producer income objective.

The Texas statement also cautioned against setting the loan so high as to preclude competitive pricing.

On the subject of imports, TACPO said "We recognize that textile imports are a serious threat to American mills and to our domestic cotton market. We recommend that steps be taken to alleviate the problem."

The TACPO group repeated its long-held position opposing a payments limitation, saying "Limitations are incompatible with the American economic system, would disrupt most phases of agriculture, would deny many farmers a just return on labor and investment, and would reduce or destroy the effectiveness of farm programs."

In 1964 Congress authorized a $10 million research program to reduce the cost of producing cotton. But the program has never been fully funded, and TACPO asked that the program be funded and implemented as rapidly as possible.

The TACPO statement said "We feel these features of a government program are vital to the survival of the cotton industry in the years immediately ahead," but went on to say these are not enough. "They are like a survival kit in the jungle--they will keep us alive for a time, but they will not lead us out of the forest," Pate said.

TACPO pointed out that cotton's major problem is one of merchandising and asked that Subcommittee members consider a method whereby cotton producers could compete with man-made fibers manufacturers on more nearly an equal basis.

Citing the fact that there are some 350,000 widely scattered cotton producers and less than a dozen major corporations producing man-made fibers, TACPO suggested the possibility of creating a "Cotton Industry Board" with the necessary financing and powers granted by legislation to "make decisions for cotton in much the same manner as a corporate board makes decisions for competing fibers."

TACPO praised the current dollar-a-bale program of Cotton Producers Institute, but said "It appears obvious to some of us that this program, with only about $10 million to work with each year and with other restrictions on its activities, is insufficient to bridge the enormous merchandising gap that exists between cotton producers and synthetic fiber makers."

The statement continued "We visualize a Board with the financing, the authority and the obligation for in-depth studies and recommendations for the improvement of the entire cotton merchandising system, including net-weight trading, packaging, product development, brand-name promotion, pricing structure and other factors.

"The Board should be responsible to, and responsive to, cotton producers. Of necessity it would be required to operate within certain boundaries prescribed by law, but would need sufficient latitude in its operation to meet cotton's problems squarely and recommend sound, businesslike solutions regardless of pressures that might be brought to bear."

Financing for the Board, TACPO suggested, might be included in the payments stipulated by Congress in new legislation as a cost of production adjustment, just as corporations include the cost of marketing and related activities when they fix the price of their product.

"It is our thought that the entire payment might be made to the Board and the Board could then distribute payments to producers," Anderson said.

As TACPO recognized, this would be a drastic departure from anything heretofore proposed. But when it is considered that the payments authorized by Congress are not a subsidization of individuals, but a subsidization of an industry in the national interest, the procedure sound logical.

PERFECT WORK RECORD

Detroit - Arthur J. Renc, 65, retired recently from General Motor's Cadillac division after 43 years of working without missing a single day due to illness. Mr. Renc said that in his youth a doctor told him, "work hard if you want a healthy body."

John Tower United States Senate COMMITTEE ON ARMED SERVICES

The Senate is now turning into the home stretch with only a few weeks left in this year's session. The single major piece of legislation still before us is the tax bill which affects every American and every facet of our nation's economy.

Very few of the provisions in the new tax bill will act in a vacuum, just as very few of the sections in the present tax code act alone. Our tax structure must be viewed as a delicate multi-faceted machine, designed, however imperfectly, to collect the revenues necessary to support our federal government. This highly complex machine has many levers, pulleys and gears, each of which serves to encourage or discourage a specific response from one or more segments of the economy. It is rare that one part of this machine can be adjusted without a reaction in another part, and it is equally rare that a change in the tax treatment accorded one economic group can be made without affecting another.

Therefore, I am hopeful that, in our zeal to correct what appears to be inequities which allow some wealthy individuals to avoid taxes, my colleague will be careful not to throw the machine so out of balance as to adversely affect the remaining millions of men and women who pay full taxes.

Our real purpose as federal legislators is to analyze the existing tax structure and approve changes designed to more equitably distribute the tax burden in accordance with overall economic needs.

I view with concern the statements of those who claim that the sole purpose of the tax bill must be to close so-called "loopholes". While such statements are attractive at first glance, I believe it is important to remember that a tax law views by one man as a loophole represents for another man a reasonable tax incentive. Tax incentives do not exist so that a few individuals can unjustly enrich themselves. On the contrary, they are carefully designed by a Congressional majority in an attempt to elicit a specific economic response essential to our national economic health.

I will gladly join in efforts to eliminate tax incentives which are no longer needed, and I will also join efforts to close loopholes which have been so abused as to pervert their original intent. But where a tax incentive is still needed to bring about a desirable response from a segment of our economy, I will not attack it merely because it is popular to do so.

In examining a tax incentive, I believe the test for retaining it must be two-fold: First, we must determine whether the economic response to be encouraged is desirable; and second, we must determine whether the tax advantage in question is the best method for bringing about the desired economic response.

If the net gain to the economy exceeds the tax revenue lost as the result of granting the tax advantage by a great enough margin, then it should not be abolished simply because a few individuals profit from it.

I do not believe that this test has been correctly applied in many of the provisions of tax law dealt with in the bill now before the Senate and I am sponsoring several amendments to remedy this.

The bill as reported from the Senate Finance Committee is a significant improvement, in my opinion, over the bill as approved by the House of Representatives. But I cannot support the bill as it is now written.

In earlier reports, I have made my position clear on certain tax provisions for the oil and gas industry and in the handling of municipal bonds. The Senate Finance Committee acted to continue the existing tax exemption on interest on state and municipal bonds and I have applauded that action. The Committee also voted to cut the existing 27 1/2 per cent depletion allowance for oil to 23 per cent. This was an improvement over the reduction of 20 per cent inflicted by the House, but the fact is that the oil industry needs continuation of the full 27 1/2 per cent and I will support an amendment for that consideration.

I will also support amendments in some additional areas of the tax bill. I am co-sponsoring an amendment to provide a tax credit of up to $325 for every taxpayer who is paying the tuition and fees of a student at a college or university. This would be the most efficient means of providing federal assistance to higher education. It would provide this federal assistance while leaving control in the hands of the individual taxpayer. His money would not be sent to Washington and then only partially returned to the schools with federal strings attached.

I am also sponsoring and co-sponsoring other amendments, but in each case, and as I vote on each amendment submitted by other Senators, I am trying earnestly to apply the test I have herein described.
