State Rep. Rudd Honored Recently

State Representative Jim Rudd was honored with the prestigious Golden Flame Award by the Vocational Home Economics Teachers Association of Texas recently. VHETAT, a statewide organization represents over 3,000 vocational home economics teachers in Texas schools. More than 250,000 students are enrolled annually in the program.

Rudd received the coveted award because of his untiring efforts on behalf of vocational education in Texas. He was recognized because of his support of the programs as well as for Texas youth during the 70th session of the Texas Legislature.

Representing District 77 which includes Andrews, Cochran, Dawson, Gaines, Hockley, Martin, Terry and Yoakum Counties, Rudd serves as Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee.

IN HOSPITAL

A.G. Brantley is a patient in Brownfield Hospital.

SINGING MEN OF TEXAS are scheduled to present a free concert Thursday, Oct. 8 at First Baptist Church in Plains. The program will begin at 7 p.m.

Singing Men Of Texas To Present Concert Oct. 8

The Singing Men of Texas will present a concert Thursday, Oct. 8 in First Baptist Church of Plains. The free program is slated for 7 p.m. All interested persons are invited.

Composed of more than 200 Baptist ministers of music and staff members, The Singing Men of Texas give their time freely because of a love of praising Christ and for the joy of singing together.

Because of the tremendous size of the state, the large group is broken down into five regional satellite choirs, each presenting approximately six concerts a year.

The Singing Men of Texas sing for state-wide and Southern Baptist Convention meetings as well as special mission projects, such as tour of Brazil in 1982 and Australia in 1985.

The West Texas group is composed of men from Wichita Falls, Abilene, San Angelo, to the New Mexico border on the west, north to the Panhandle and as far south as the Mexican border.

Memorials Given Plains Library

Plains Library has received a number of memorial gifts this month. Memorial stickers are placed in each gift book, and are thus reminders of the persons loved.

Special thanks to those patrons giving these memorial gifts. The books are appreciated by the families of persons honored.

ABWA PRESIDENT Carolyn Culwell with guest speaker, Henry Bullen of Lewisville, a native of Grenada.

Grenada Native Speaks At ABWA Meet Monday

Henry Bullen of Lewisville, a native of Grenada, was guest speaker Monday evening for the regular meeting of Texas Plains Charter Chapter of ABWA.

A former cabinet member of the Grenadian government, Bullen shared the story of his life when rebels overthrew the government in 1979, suspended its constitution and began to rule the country. They ruled until 1983 when the United States intervened.

Bullen came to the United States in 1972 to attend the University of Northern Iowa where he received a degree in political science in 1975. He returned to Grenada and was serving in the cabinet position at the time the government was overthrown.

He stated that he and his family narrowly escaped death and fled to the U.S. in exile with only the clothes on their backs. He acquired work with the John Deere Company soon after his arrival. He presently serves as an Area Parts Manager for the eastern portion of Texas and portions of Louisiana.

Party Honors Seven-Year-Old

Lisa Parrish was honored Friday afternoon with a seventh birthday party in the Yoakum County Library.

The party table was decorated with red, blue and beige bears. Cake and punch were served.

Musical chairs were played and guests made beaded concho keychains as party favors. Nine guests attended.

Hosting the event were the honoree's mother, Jan Parrish, and grandmother, Wanda Parrish.

Friendship Class Meets Sept. 17

Jo Ann Barron's home was the setting Sept. 17 for a fellowship meeting of Friendship Sunday School Class of First Baptist Church.

Devotional thoughts were shared by Linda Harris. Secret Pals were revealed. New officers elected were Pat Hinkle, president; Jean Craft, vice president; Dolores Davis, secretary; Barbara Brown, treasurer; Reta Nance, teacher; and Janice McGill, assistant teacher.

Grenada, he explained, is striving to rebuild its tourist business. It produces one-third of the world's spices along with bananas and cocoa. It consists of three main islands which are located in the Caribbean Sea, south of Cuba.

Population of Grenada today ranges from 115,000 to 120,000.

Other guests attending were Vaughn Culwell and Jeff Maiers of Lubbock.

Members attending were Carolyn Culwell, Dolores Davis, Cindy Davis, Kathy Jones, Linda Wall and Jean Patton.

Next meeting will be at 7 p.m. Monday, Oct. 19.

Filmtime

"Growing Up" was the book of the day for Wednesday's Filmtime at Yoakum County Library. Kathy Holster read the book and led action songs. Films shown were "The Witch Who Was Afraid of Witches" and "The Wolf and Seven Kids".

Pledge of Allegiance was spoken. The birthday song was sung for Jeremy Horn who celebrated his fifth birthday.

Others attending were Tiffany Canon, Jason and Corey Kelton, Kelsey Blundell, Dustin Six, Kyle and Morgan Kight, Scott Robertson, Emily Blair, Daniel Clay, Sean Holster, Chad Maines, Jeremy, Joel and Joshua Horn, Kimberly and Sarah Martinez, Regan McGinty, Lesli Rowe, Adam Garcia, Briana Garza, Tanya Vasquez, Elizabeth Clanahan, Tarren and Keenan Hancock, Chelsi Wagnon, Christopher and Daniel Estrada, Noel Castillo, Michael Montez, Elizabeth Wilmeth, Mackenzie Winn, Ashlei Mason and Jayce Clayton.

TIME BEFORE LAST

Kelly Clay read "The Shy Little Turtle" and "Dumbo" to 28 preschoolers at filmtime Wednesday. She also directed games. Movies shown were "Wonder Dog" and "Rosie's Walk".

All pre-school children are invited to attend and join in the fun and education.

RANDY FORBUS EXPLAINS practices used during the growing season to area producers. Approximately 70 people attended the Yoakum County Farm & Ranch Tour.

MRS. RON CRAFT

Double Ring Vows Recited By Miss Mason, Mr. Craft

Wedding vows were solemnized Saturday, Sept. 12 in First Baptist Church for Sandra Jean Mason and Kevin Ron Craft.

Officiating the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Glenn Harlin, pastor of Northside Baptist Church in Odessa.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Mason of Meadow and Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Craft.

White chain markers tied in bridal colors marked the entrance to the church. A garden scene decorated the foyer of the church with various tropical plants, a birdbath, wrought iron settee and filagree wrought iron birdcage with a pair of white doves.

The unity candle and family tapers were placed on three Grecian columns of staggered heights, topped with fantasia baskets.

Nuptial selections were presented by Shirla Bayer of Meadow, pianist, and Judy Mason of Lubbock, cousin of the bride, organist. Kim Thomas of Meadow sang "Through The Eyes of Love". Ms. Bayer accompanied Raynee Davis of Abilene, flautist, as she played "Color My World" and "A Time For Us". Kim Thomas and Loyd Jordan sang "Endless Love" and "Just You and I". Jordan also sang "The Lord's Prayer".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of candlelight crystal organza and silk Venise lace designed with high neckline enhanced with pearl encrusted Venise lace. The fitted bodice was designed with low basque waistline overlaid with Chantilly lace. Silk Venise appliques embroidered in pearls enhanced the sheer sweetheart yoke and bodice back. Double puffs of crystal organza formed the sleeves with Venise lace and pearls overlaying the fitted portion from elbow to wrist. Her flowing skirt was adorned with organza ruffles midway of the skirt front, sweeping around the sides and to the back to a point at the hemline, at the sides and back. Venise appliques were scattered over the skirt which extended to a full cathedral train.

Her fingertip veil of imported illusion was held by a circlet of silk flowers centered in front with a cluster of seed pearls and pouf of illusion at the back.

For "something old", she wore a pearl necklace belonging to the groom's grandmother. Her dress was "new". She "borrowed" pearl earrings from her mother and wore the traditional blue garter. In her shoes she carried pennies coined in the year of her own and the groom's birth.

She carried an European cascade of candlelight silk gardenias, silk pixie carnations with pearl centers entwined with teal green tea roses and buds. Accents of pearl loops and sprays, teal satin ribbon and ecru lace complimented the bouquet designed by Sandy Vining.

Sara Mason, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Christal Brooks, cousin of the bride, and Ronda Maines, sister of the groom, both of Lubbock. They wore court length gowns of teal amourette taffeta fashioned with sweetheart necklines, sleeves of fluted ruffles accented the bows over the shoulders and deep basque waistlines. Their full skirts featured plum overskirts. They carried bouquets of seafoam pixie carnations, teal tea roses, mauve stephanotis, ruby roses and pearl sprays and loops.

Ashlei Mason, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

Steve Jones was best man. Groomsmen were Mike Bennett of Brownfield and Donnie Maines of Lubbock, brother-in-law of the groom. Ushers were Jerry Hunter of Hobbs, N.M., Don Parrish, Larry Mason, brother of the bride, and Darrell Dodds of San Angelo. Chad Maines of Lubbock, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

The groom was attired in an ivory couture jacket, ivory pleated tuxedo pants, ivory wing collar shirt, band bow-tie and cummerbund. His attendants were similarly attired with teal bow-ties and cummerbunds.

Guests were registered by Suann Parrish at a table laid with an ivory cloth overlaid with ivory lace. It was graced with a teal plumed pen and the bride's book, covered with ivory satin and trimmed with white lace and seed pearls, created by Sharon Turner and Kathy Jones.

A reception was held in fellowship hall. Highlighting a lace draped round table, the bride's Italian cream cake was three tiered with each tier separated by cherubs and columns. A Precious Moments bride and groom stood atop the cake under a pearl and silk flower arch. A sparkling fountain graced by fresh flowers and ferns formed the base. Wedding bells and strings of pearls draped from each tier. Appointments were silver.

Serving cake, mints and nuts were Josie Daniel of Brownfield and Allyson Kingsley of Lubbock.

Punch was served from silver bowls on separate tables laid with ivory cloth. Presiding at the tables were Sonya Riley of Brownfield and Kathy Six.

Sue Smith of Abilene, aunt of the groom, and Kathy Jones served coffee from a brass service at the ivory draped groom's table. Adorned by a large brass deer with a garland of fresh greenery, the table also featured cheese cake, nuts and snack crackers.

Fresh fruits and dip were served from a table laid with an ivory cloth and presided over by Judy Harlin.

A gold candelabra with ivory candles and an arrangement of pink carnations and red roses graced a table laid with lace over ivory. Brass appointments were used to serve sausage balls, cheese balls, finger sandwiches, vegetable dippers and kabobs.

Members of the houseparty were Helen Bingham, Nelda Brooks, Jill Kingsley, Dana Anderson, Judy Harlin, Martha Palmer, Peggy Welch, Vada Mason, Reba Jordan, Janelle Cobb, Dolores Davis and Cindy Davis.

Silk teal roses filled with bird seed were distributed by Cody Mason of Brownfield and Kelton Mason, nephews of the bride.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents in Hobbs Country Club.

MRS. JOHNNY LEE CURTIS

Zeta Thompson, Johnny Curtis Pledge Vows In Baptist Church

Zeta Diane Thompson and Johnny Lee Curtis recited twin ring wedding vows in a candlelight ceremony Aug. 21 in First Baptist Church.

The Rev. Earl Lowrey of Dallas directed the exchange of vows before an altar graced with three candelabras forming an archway. Entwined with English ivy, the archway was accented with mauve bows. Tapers were mauve. At one side, the unity candle was placed on an ivory draped table with mirrors. Family candles in brass holders were teal.

Cynthia Blair, organist, and Kelley Clay, pianist, presented nuptial selections. They accompanied Melba Crutcher who sang "The Rose", "That's What Friends Are For", "The Lord's Prayer", "Flesh of My Flesh" and "Nobody Loves Me Like You Do".

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Diane Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. John Dale Curtis of Tokio.

Given in marriage by an uncle, Lindle Bates, the bride wore a candlelight gown of embroidered organza over satin fashioned with fitted bodice featuring a sweetheart neckline and low cut back with double rows of ruffles at the shoulders. Her full flounced skirt was accented by a sash tied with a large bow in back and streamers down the chapel length train.

She wore a pouf veil made by Patricia Curtis of Denver City with teardrop pearls and silk flowers.

Arlina Thompson of Las Gatos, Cal. was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were LeaAnn Stephens and Claudia Curtis of Fort Worth. Chelsi Gonzales was flower girl.

The maid of honor wore a tea length dress of teal moire taffeta styled with dropped shoulders and v-shaped neckline with ivory lace overskirt. She wore ivory accessories. Bridesmaids were gowned in mauve colored dresses fashioned identical to the maid of honor's. Little Miss Gonzales wore a dress of candlelight lace with round neckline, long sleeves and gathered skirt. She wore a headpiece of mauve and teal silk flowers.

Robby Dale Guetersloh was best man. Groomsmen were Billy D. Guetersloh and Jimmy Gomez. Todd Thompson lighted candles and rings were carried by Joshua Curtis.

Guests were seated by Johnny

Estep, Andy Ruiz and Jimmy Dean Curtis.

Ruth Ann Diaz and Billy Dan Curtis presided at the registry table.

A reception was held in fellowship hall. Draped with a mauve cloth, the bride's table was overlaid with ivory lace. The three tiered wedding cake was placed atop a champagne fountain and adorned with staircases to flanking cakes. Small cherubs climbed the staircases. A bride and groom beneath a pearl and silk flowers arch graced the top tier. The cake was designed and made by Patricia Curtis.

Wedding cake, mauve and teal colored mints and sugared pecans were served from crystal and brass appointments.

The groom's round table was covered with a burgundy overlay and featured a watermelon bowl filled with fresh fruit. Sausage and cheese balls, ham rolls and sausage rolls were also served. Appointments were brass.

Coffee was served from a brass and glass cart with brass appointments. Punch was served from a brass bowl at a round table laid with a burgundy cloth.

Presiding at the table was Cristi Stephens, Monica Guetersloh and Ruth Ann Diaz. Members of the houseparty were Kay Patton, Faye Nelms, China Crump, Mary Williams, Marita Guetersloh, Latrell McDonnell and Sue Randall.

For travel, the bride chose a tea length dress of teal and beige silk fashioned with dipped back, short sleeves and dropped waistline. She added ivory accessories.

All floral arrangements and bouquets were created by Patricia Curtis. Dolores Davis was wedding coordinator.

Plains Independent School District

From The Superintendent's Desk

DEAN ANDREWS

Our school board and I attended the annual T.A.S.A.-T.A.S.B. convention in San Antonio this past week along with 10,000 other school board members and administrators in this state.

I have been attending this convention for the past fourteen years and this was the best of the ones I have attended. Our board members attended sessions dealing with students, employees, policies, administration, and legal status of the public schools. Our school board members also participated as leaders of various sessions and as delegates at the convention, and all were actively involved in trying to learn as much as possible so as to benefit our district.

We also had the opportunity to hear distinguished lectures from Henry K. Wong. Mr. Wong is one of the most popular speakers in America today. He has given over three thousand presentations to more than a quarter of a million people. We also had the opportunity to hear Dr. William Kirby, Texas Education Agency Commissioner, Albert Shamber, President of the American Federation of Teachers, and Mr. Jim Tunney, former principal and superintendent and now a national football league official.

Our board members also participated in State Board of Education forums, supporting resolutions to support the position of elected state board members. There will be much interest in the referendum to consider elected versus appointed State Board of Education members. The Texas Association of School administrators and the Texas Association of School Boards both support the position that board members should be elected and should become, or revert back to, elected positions on January 1, 1989.

This was a very good convention and the meetings were excellent. Our board members are to be commended for their interest and dedication in attending and improving their skills to better serve our schools.

OIL SHALE - A POSSIBLE ALTERNATE ENERGY SOURCE

Oil shale is a dark, fine-grained rock that contains oil. The extraction process involves heating crushed shale until the oil in it is vaporized. This vapor is then condensed to form liquid shale oil. Major obstacles now are cost, technology and water.
