Duo 'Guilty' In Robbery Last August

It took a jury more than five and a half hours this week to find Ronald Fran Ethington and Larry Wayne Henderson, both of Dimmitt, guilty of armed robbery, but less than 30 minutes the next morning to assess the penalty.

Jurors retired at 1:20 Wednesday to determine the case of Ethington and Henderson on armed robbery charges of a local family in August, 1976. They reached a verdict and around 7 p.m. that day, announced a 'guilty' verdict. Thursday morning, the same jury spent less than 30 minutes in determining they would assess the duo two years probation for their part in the armed robbery.

Ethington and Henderson were the second and third persons to be tried in the incident. Earlier, Harold Hadley Bails had been found guilty of the same armed robbery and was given five years to serve.

Both Ethington and Henderson indicated they would appeal the verdict in the case.

an attempt to obtain more blood supplies from local residents. Ms. Hassell, who met with the small group at the city hall council room, explained some of the problems facing the South Plains Blood Services as a strictly non-profit, all voluntary blood service.

She said South Plains Blood Services supplies blood to 39 hospitals in a 22 county area around Lubbock, and they ask each community to support blood drives.

Citing the increased need for blood, not only in Lubbock, but the surrounding hospitals and communities, Ms. Hassell said that last year, persons in Muleshoe alone used 26 units of blood at the West Plains Medical Center and 62 units were donated. Thus far in 1977, the local hospital has used 24 units of blood and 57 units have been donated.

Blood which has been donated will replace blood which has been used, she added, saying, "We have been so low on blood that we have had to go on radio and television to appeal for blood donors in emergencies. This is a program which needs to be ongoing with our increased need for blood."

She said donated blood lasts only 21 days and the blood service is non-discriminatory toward people needing blood in order to be fair to everyone. No charge is made for the blood itself, although there is a $29 fee charged per pint, for processing, storage, delivery and other charges.

The $29 charge is much lower, she pointed out, that the $42-$50 which is commonly charged in this area.

Insurance is available through the blood bank in Lubbock. The insurance is $5 per year for an

Young Homemakers Get Special Week

Muleshoe Mayor Kenneth Henry has signed proclamations designating September 18-24 as Young Homemakers Week. Representatives of the Muleshoe and Lazbuddie Young Homemakers were in Mayor Henry's office Thursday for the dual signing.

The proclamations read: "The Young Homemakers of Texas, a state organization of young women interested in homemaking, is a distinct contribution to the development of effective family and community living, and to the preservation of the American home -- the basis for a strong State and Nation.

"As an integral part of the home economics education program, the organization provided opportunity for the development of a deeper understanding of the home and its influence upon the community, maintaining spiritual values, and encouraging democracy in home and community life.

"Through the program of work and projects of Young Homemakers of Texas, young women under 35 years of age not enrolled in high school, develop skills and gain information on new and improved methods of homemaking. Members strive to keep informed on matters affecting homemakers and to become better acquainted with products and information on current consumer trends.

"It is appropriate that a time be designated for recognizing the worthwhile goals of this organization and encouraging the continuation of their program."

Both the Lazbuddie and Muleshoe Young Homemaker, in recognition of Statewide Young

Emergency Loan Rules Liberalized

A more liberal formula for determining the amount of grant funds, supplementing loans available for improvement of rural community water systems affected by drought, has been put into effect in Bailey County by the Farmers Home Administration, the agency's County Supervisor, John C. Kennedy, announced this week.

Bailey County has been made eligible for FmHA emergency loans and grants under President Carter's drought assistance program to help communities having diminished water supplies, resulting from drought conditions, in designated drought areas. Applications for projects approved must be made in time for funds to be obligated by September 30, 1977.

County Supervisor Kennedy said the revised regulations will enable FmHA to apply a formula on grants similar to that used by other federal

Pet Store Now Open In Muleshoe

Muleshoe's newest enterprise opened its doors Friday morning for business. Connie Haight and Neva Gray opened the doors to the "Fish Bowl" at 10 a.m. Friday. The new pet store is located at 409 North First Street in Muleshoe and features several new ideas.

They are open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday, except Thursday, when they are open 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. to give workers time to go by the store.

They are selling fish, hamsters, birds, gerbils, and also have macrame, house plants, aquatic plants and pet supplies. Mrs. Gray said they will advertise dogs and cats for people and will keep larger animals for up to four days to show prospective customers.

Two services to be offered in the near future will be pet grooming and aquarium servicing. Grand opening ceremonies will be conducted in the near future.

Halftime Rain Turns Mule's Game Around

Taking advantage of halftime rain, the Muleshoe Mules, effectively stopped the Tulia Hornet offense, and slid by, around and through Tulia's defense to eke out a narrow 10-7 win over the Hornets at Tulia Friday night.

Muleshoe scored early on the Hornets, who in their first two games of the year, showed power defense and failed to give up any points to their opponents. With 5:59 on the scoreboard clock, George Villarreal booted a field goal through the uprights to break Tulia's no point given record.

Tough defense by the Hornets, back to back with sneaky toughened up defense by the Mules kept both teams in a back and forth tilt with neither team managing to move the ball effectively.

In Muleshoe's first score, Villarreal topped off a 59-yard march by the Mules with a 30 yard field goal to make the only points in the first quarter.

Muleshoe's only fumble of the game set up Tulia's lone score for the night. Following the fumble recovery by Tulia on the Muleshoe 27, Tulia worked their way through for five plays before Hornet fullback Randall Reeves, Tulia's leading scorer, slammed over the line from the nine, then kicked the extra point.

Nearing halftime, brilliant lightning and winds brought in rain which quickly emptied the stands, and delayed by some 20 minutes resumption of the game.

Ending the third quarter, the game was still the same, 3-7, and the slipping and sliding players found the going rough on the wet field.

In the first half, Tulia played ball control, and out did the Mules in statistics, with 99 yards on the ground and six first downs. They held the Mules to three first downs, 22 yards rushing and an additional 43 yards in the passing department.

Adding spice to the game, and delighting brave Muleshoe fans who again packed the visitor's stands after the rain, was a missed nine yard field goal attempt by Hornet Reeves.

With light rain falling, and the Mules clutching the ball in tight, a 40 yard pass from quarterback Danny Wilson to Billy James gave the Mules the get-up-and-go to amble downfield on a march that began on the Mules' own 17 and eight plays later, following the slambang Wilson-James 40-yard pass Jeep Shanks broke loose just to the right of center. Shanks found a little hole and broke from the 27-yard line, scampering over the line untouched.

Villarreal added the extra point, with 6:44 left in the game. Tulia has been touted as having a tough defense, but the Muleshoe Mules proved they

Kidnapping Hoax Keeps Officers Busy

What looked as though it may be a real call, and a 'very serious' call has apparently proven to be a hoax perpetrated by an apparent mental patient this week.

Shortly after 7 p.m. Monday, Muleshoe Law Enforcement Center Dispatcher Tommie Williams received a telephone call from a man who did not identify himself. He told the dispatcher that a 'Lawman' from Clovis had been kidnapped, shot near Muleshoe and his body hidden in a grain cart.

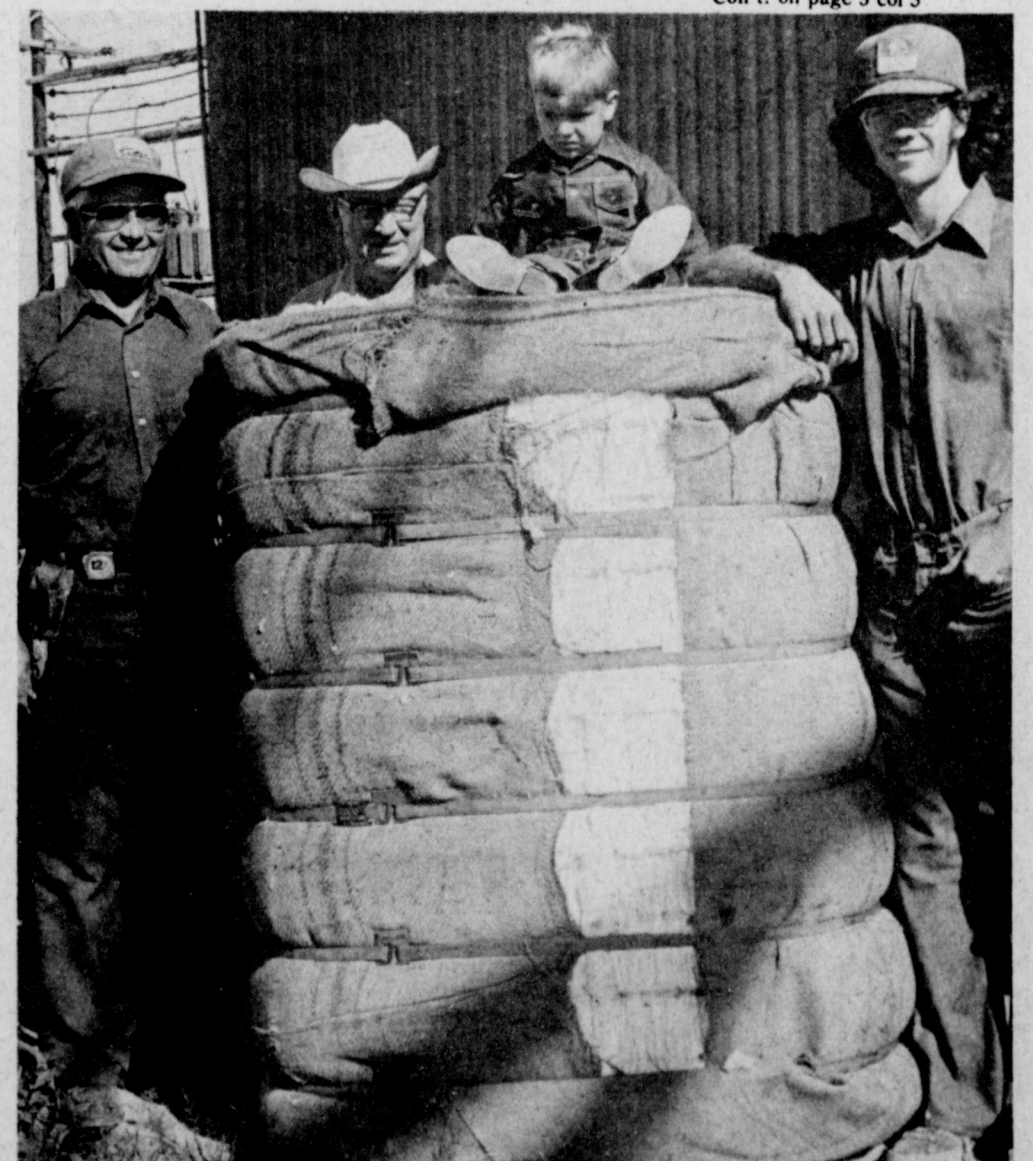

The dispatcher checked with Clovis and found that all their officers were accounted for at that time. They then checked with the telephone operator in an attempt to find out where the call came from. She could not assist them.

Later, the same man called and said the officer's body was hidden near Muleshoe, so a search started. Officers from other cities who heard the calls offered to come in to help search, especially after Clovis Police notified Muleshoe that a former officer was missing.

With the ex-officer unaccounted for, the search moved into high indebtedness only for water facilities. The new formula lets FmHA take into account the applicant's existing indebtedness for all purposes. This is expected to increase the grant portion of FmHA funding of many projects.

The new regulation also provides that some projects, previously not eligible for grant assistance, may receive FmHA grants of up to 20 percent of total eligible project development costs, if they are needed to safeguard public health and safety. A larger proportion of grant funds, up to 50 percent, may be provided if justified through the formula for determining the community's ability to repay a loan.

Application of the revised formula has been made retroactive to May 6, 1977, except where loan and grant funds have been delivered to the borrower, according to Kennedy. He added that financing of projects previously approved, but not yet funded, will be adjusted to the new formula.

In addition to the September 30 deadline for obligation of funds, the drought emergency program imposes an April 30, 1978 deadline for completion of projects. Communities of up to 10,000 population may be included in the service areas of water system receiving FmHA loans and grants. Loans are made for terms of up to 40 years, at an interest rate of five percent.

Kennedy said information on project assistance can be obtained from FmHA's Bailey County office at 115 East Avenue D, Muleshoe.

Several activities are planned to coincide with the Revival event. A men's breakfast was scheduled for 7 a.m. Saturday, September 17, with Rev. J.E. Meeks of the First Baptist Church giving the devotional.

In addition to the regular revival services, God's Half Hour (Noon services) will be hosted by the church. A meal of cold-cuts will be served free of Sunday worship services will be at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. with all weekday evening worship times at 8 p.m.

"It is my prayer that the entire community will support our revival," said David Evetts, pastor. "I know that many remember Bro. Shepherd and Bill Jetton. Support them by your presence at each service."

Then, the Law Enforcement Center had a visitor, the man who instigated the search. He then told officers that the officer had been shot by a 'High Priest from Joplin, Mo., who then hid his body in a coal mine near Muleshoe.

Perplexed officers, checking the man's background, found that the 51-year old man had a history of mental problems and his mother promised to send money for a bus ticket for him.

On that promise, Deputy Sheriff took the man to Farwell to put him on a bus for his home state, and local officers breathed a sigh of relief to find that the missing ex-officer from Clovis was not missing at all.

Junior Historians Plan Projects

Jay Pearson, reporter for the Junior Historical Society at Muleshoe Junior High School commented this week. "This year in the Junior Historical Society, we have a great group of junior high students, a load of ambition and a lot of enthusiasm."

"For a good start this year, we have already voted in our officers and committees. Everyone of us is ready and willing to make this a fantastic year."

He continued. "In our committees, we have already gotten together and are in good order. We have four committees, Finance, Project, Program and Publicity. Each of these committees knows what they are for and what they are doing."

Officers for the Historical Society include Todd Holt, president; Patty Garcia, vice president; Joni Sudduth, secretary-treasurer; Sherry Ellis, parliamentarian; and reporters, Denise Wilson and Jay Pearson.

The reporter added, "We are only just getting started, but we already have a project in mind. This project is taking the history of the people who lived in the area in the past, then put it all in a hardbacked book.

"this will be one of our projects and we will have others. We also plan to make these projects a great success and we will be working hard to make it successful," he concluded.

Our concern with appearance -- the slim, model look -- has prompted us to drop certain foods, such as potatoes and milk, from our diets because they are considered "fattening." Relative to the nutrients these foods supply, they are not high in calories. The American economy today is experiencing the strongest recovery in 40 years. The economic turn began in the spring of 1975, and it has been vigorous.

*Civilian employment since 1975 has risen at the annual rate of 3.3%, the biggest growth since the 3.1% of 1954-56.

*Production gains have averaged 10.2% annually since 1975.

*Retail sales have climbed 6.2%, adjusted to growth due merely to rising prices.

Partially obscuring the strength of the recovery are the persistently high rates of inflation and unemployment. Since the spring of 1975, the consumer price index has risen at an annual rate of 6.4%. And today's unemployment is higher than in other periods of recovery. But employment is higher than in other periods of recovery. But employment is not stagnating; it is expanding at a record clip. The paradox arises from the rapidly climbing percentage of the country's adult population that wants employment... another sign of healthy recovery.

Miss Melissa Been, Kent Kelley Wed

Miss Melissa Been and Kent Kelley of Earth were united in marriage Saturday afternoon, September 10, in the United Methodist Church, Earth. Officiating at the double ring ceremony was Rev. David Hartman of Alpine Tex., former pastor of the Baptist Church of Earth.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M.H. Been, Sr. and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kelley, all of Earth.

The front of the sanctuary was decorated with a large bouquet of white mums, mint green gladiolas and white tapers and candelabras holding mint green tapers. The pews were marked with green palm leaves and mint bows. A pedestal holding the white Unity Candle and two mint tapers and palm leaves completed the decorations.

Organist was Mrs. Bob Belew of Earth. Pianist was Mrs. Peggy Dean Jones of Lubbock. Musical selections included, "The Wedding Song" by Mrs. Jimmy Shiny of Earth. An original poem and song written by Darla Seal and Mrs. Sammy Parish was presented by Mrs. Parish of Springlake on the guitar. Mrs. Kenny Hamilton of Muleshoe sang "The Lords Prayer" as the couple knelt at the altar.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a traditional gown of white silken organza and Duchess satin, accented in silk floss Venise lace. The moulded bodice was all applied in the Venise lace and featured a Princess Anne neckline framed in the lace flowers. Long tapered sleeves ended in petalpoints over the wrists and were also edged in the Venise lace flowers. The crescent shaped waistline was defined in the lace. The circular skirt featured sheer petal-shaped panis applied in deminional lace medallions and framed in lace, creating a window payne effect, graduating to the back falling into deep folds. The entire hemline and train featured a deep scalloped border of satin-repeating the lace edging.

Her veiling was designed to match her gown and was caught to a Venise lace diadem, falling to a finger tip length, framing the silhouette and was encircled in matching lace.

She carried a bouquet of baby's breath and stephanotis centered with a large white Catalia orchid, and white lace streamers atop a white Bible given to her as a baby by the Earth Chapter of Eastern Star.

For something old she wore a bracelet that belonged to the groom's great-grandmother, whose name was also Melissa and matching gold bracelets belonging to the brides grandmother, Mrs. W. L. Miles. Something new was a single strand of pearls given to her as a wedding gift from her father. Something borrowed was her sister's Mrs. Ricky Byers white wedding shoes, something blue was the traditional garter. For good luck were pennis in her shoe, minted in the years of their births.

Miss Ruth Street of Earth served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Kenny Hamilton, sister of the bride of Muleshoe, Mrs. Ricky Byers, sister of the bride of Sunny-side, Carrie Dawn Been, niece of the bride of Earth and Maxianne Messer of Lubbock.

They wore identical formal length dresses of mint polyester with chiffon over skirts and large cape type collars. Baskets of mint gladiolas, white rose buds and baby's breath, with mint streamers were carried by each of the attendants. They wore mint gladiolas in their hair.

Serving as best man was Freddie Kelley, brother of the groom of Lubbock. Grooms-men were Steve Green, nephew of the groom of Manford, Okla., Roger Williams of Muleshoe, Ricky Byers, brother-in-law of the bride of Sunnyside and Bill Bruns of Muleshoe. The groom and his attendants were all attired in formal white tuxedos with mint ruffled shirts. They wore boutonnières of stephanotis and baby's breath.

Jeri Paige Been and Jeff Hamilton, niece and nephew of the bride lighted the candles. Jeri Paige's dress was similar to the brides attendants and Jeff was attired the same as the groomsman.

Flower girl was Brooke Byers and ring bearer was Brannon Byers, niece and nephew of the bride. Brooke wore a floor length dress of mint dotted swiss trimmed with lace. She carried a white lace basket of white rose buds and baby's breath. Brannon was attired in a white tuxedo.

Guests were registered by JoAnn Coker of Springlake, from a table holding an arrangement of mint silk flowers, green tapers and miniature bride and groom.

Ushers were Marvin Been, Jr. and Jerry Been, both of Earth, brothers of the bride, Kelley Green of Manford, Okla., nephew of the groom, and Kenny Hamilton of Muleshoe, brother-in-law of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Been wore a floor length yellow dress with chiffon jacket.

Mrs. Kelley, mother of the groom, wore a mint floor length dress with lace trimmed chiffon cape.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the Church.

The reception table was laid with a white satin overcloth of lace trimmed nylon minon. Focal points on the table were the all white wedding cake and the bridesmaids baskets.

Wedding cake, mint punch, nuts and mints were served from silver and crystal appointments by Mrs. Bobby D. Green of Manford, Okla. and Mrs. Freddie Kelley of Lubbock, sister-in-law of the groom, Mrs. Jerry Been and Mrs. Marvin Been, both of Earth, sisters-in-law of the bride. Miss Vici Stallings, Goebel Exchange Vows

United in Marriage Friday evening, September 16, were Miss Vici Lynn Stallings and George Lee Goebel both of Amarillo. The couple were married in the Paramount Baptist Church in Amarillo. Jack Parker officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Chuck Stalling of Bovina and Mrs. Toots Stallings of Lubbock. The couple repeated their vows before an altar of greenery with a candelabra. The traditional "Wedding March" and "Wedding Song" were sung by Mrs. Mike Beauchamp. She was accompanied by Jo Parker, organist.

The bride, escorted and given in marriage by her father, was attired in a floor length gown of sheer ganza and a re-embroidered Venice lace over bridal taffeta designed with a Queen Anne neckline. The dress featured a semi-empire waistline and long tapered sleeves. Insets of the lace enhanced with tiny seed pearls complimented the neckline, bodice, sleeves and skirt. A border of matching lace enhanced the hemline and the full back of the gown ended in a sweeping chapel length train. The veil of imported illusion, with a border of matching lace, fell from a lace coil. The bride carried a knee length bouquet of white gancenias, red and pink baby rosebuds all enhanced by baby's breath.

Mrs. Ken Williams of Amarillo served the bride as matron of honor. She wore a floor length dress of rose red allencion pleats. She carried a bouquet of pink and red roses appointed with baby's breath.

Best man was Randy Barlow of Amarillo. Ushers were Ted Stallings of Clovis, N.M., brother of the bride and Jerry Parker of Amarillo.

A reception following the ceremony was held in the home of Randy Barlow. A three tiered wedding cake with white feathered doves on top and pink and red roses throughout was served with punch from silver and crystal appointments. A four-branch candelabra with red and pink roses served as the centerpiece.

Members of the houseparty were Susan Barlow, Mary Ann Clemmons and Cynthia Brewster, all of Amarillo.

For travel, the bride wore a three-piece rust pant suit. The couple will make their new home in Amarillo after returning from Acapulco, Mexico.

Mrs. Annie Nicholson, 100 Years Old, Stated 'Wouldn't Change Life At All'

In the year 1877 in a little community in Cobden County, Illinois was the beginning of this true story.

There were no newspapers there but if there had been, we might have read this notice: Born yesterday September 20th, 1877 to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Littlepage, a baby girl, Annie

MRS. ANNIE NICHOLSON
A PIONEER MOTHER

Jane with blond hair and blue eyes, weight about 8 pounds.

Through the years other children were born to the Littlepage family but today they are all gone except one sister Senna.

Annie lost her father when she was 12 or 14 years old. There is not much known about her in these early years. She had to make her own way in life and it is very hard for a farm girl.

She told about picking strawberries for just a penny or two a quart. She would stay in homes and care for children just for food. She also would care for the sick and learned at an early age the home remedies of the older generation and all her life she has depended on the also.

About 1897 or 98 Annie met a young man who also had to make his own living at an early age. Like fairy stories and true stories they fell in love and on Oct. 19, 1898 Annie changed her name from Miss Annie Littlepage to Mrs. Charles Nicholson.

Shortly after the beginning of the twentieth century a son was born to them. Two and one half year later another son was born,

About this time the man they worked for in Illinois, bought a cattle ranch in the Texas panhandle and wanted Charlie to go west and manage it. Like all young people they were looking for adventure, and Texas seemed like a good place to go.

Neither of them had ever been out of the state of Illinois and they heard Texas calling so in the later part of 1902 they packed their few belongings and put it all on a train, said farewell to relatives, loved ones and friends and left the only place they had ever known and started to a place they had never seen. It was the place they would call home the rest of their lives.

No one knew what went through the mind of this young mother as the train slowly made its way to Texas but regardless of what it was, she would face it, and care for her family and husband. They knew nothing of this place to which they are going on what the living conditions were like; were there other people nearby and what would the weather be like and many more things. But at no time did she say "Will I like it there?"

She knew what ever hardships came, they would face them together. At that time she did not think of the hardships that might lie ahead, they were young and this was a new adventure.

Finally they reached their destination a little town called McLean about 19 miles from the place they were to live. How different everything looked to them when they got in the wagon and started on the long journey to their future home.

The country was a wide open place as far as one could see. No trees, very few farms, no streams, a few cows some long-eared jackrabbits and meadowlarks and a house or two in the distance.

They arrived in their new home late in the day and spent the night with the family that was leaving soon. Charlie and Annie would live in the same house. The next morning they and their few belongings were placed in the place where they would live for a short time. It was a one room shanty, a hard packed dirt floor, one door and one window and water was from a cistern at the other house. This water was for drinking, cooking and washing and when the cistern went dry, in the dry season water had to be hauled from a pond in the cow pasture.

In the years that followed, they moved to several different places not more than 25 miles away but this place on the Sitter's ranch was always home. They had brought with them from Illinois, two beds, a few chairs and a table, a sewing machine, a few odds and ends and a large trunk they used not only for their clothes but it doubled for a seat when they had company.

The stove was for heating as well as cooking and was known as a "Bachelor's" stove by some and others called it a "Topsy". Many meals were prepared for hungry cowboys on this stove after being out all day and coming in hungry.

On the back of this three room house was a porch, and on this porch was her cistern and here was the laundry room. An iron pot, two washtubs, a washboard and a large supply of lye soap.

After the excitement of the journey was over, life began in a new and different way. Charlie performed his tasks of caring for the livestock and running the ranch and Annie's job was doing the minute tasks that a woman on the ranch must do cooking for men, working a garden, raising chickens and caring for orphan calves, but of course her greatest and happiest job was caring for her children.

When they left Illinois, the stork also made the trip and every two or three years, he left her another little bundle to care for and raise.

Annie missed many of the things that she had left back in Illinois but the thing she missed the most was her church. She had always been a devout Christian and faithful to her belief in God, always attending church when she could and I'm sure if she could go someplace today, it would be to church.

Churches had not come to this part of Texas when she got here. She raised her children to know that there was a loving God and she read often to her children from the Bible. She wanted her children to go to Church and Sunday School but there was no place available for a church, because very few families lived in this community, but when the children were old enough for school a schoolhouse was moved in which made a place for Sunday school and church. There was no one to take charge of the Sunday school so Annie assumed the job.

Annie liked music and she loved to sing, and one of the older children remembers his mother sitting on the back porch in an old squeaky rocking chair and singing "Amazing Grace".

All of Annie's life was not hardship and hardwork for she was a jolly person and enjoyed life and playing jokes on her children and neighbors. And she surely would say she had more pleasures than sorrows.

After a few more people moved into the community, she was not so lonely. They visited each other, not just an afternoon or an evening but would go for all day and night. The children remember these visits when they would put bedding in a wagon and go several miles to spend the night.

The people in the Enterprise community were far from a doctor and when there was need for a doctor someone would ride horseback to get him and he would come in his horse and buggy. If someone was very ill, which was not often, it would seem like ages before he arrived.

The men in the community made plans to get a telephone line to this small settlement and now, at last they did not feel so isolated, and they could talk to each other or to any other place when they felt the need. It was told of Annie's first experience with the telephone that after the crude looking box was installed, she was asked by the operator to ring one of her friends in town and she replied "Nothing Doing, I'm afraid of that thing".

But not for long was she afraid and she often called friends just to pass the time. Never again were they without a telephone.

When Annie's children were in their teens, they moved to another place for two years. There were lots of young people and plenty of enjoyment for these young people and Annie's home was always open to them and there were many parties, ice cream socials and Sunday evening singings and just general get-togethers.

After they moved to the West side of the ranch she looked out of the door one day and there was that old stork with his little bundle. He told her that he was getting too old to follow her around and that this would be his last trip, and it was.

They finally moved back to Enterprise and the older children were marrying and leaving home, one by one. Charlie retired and moved to McLean where he lived until he died in 1960. Annie lived a few more years with a daughter and because of failing health, she moved to the home here in Muleshoe, where she is now living.

Many years have passed since Annie as a young mother viewed the place she would call home for many a sad and happy years. She said the Lord had been good to her. She was always thinking of others before herself. In her earlier years she had spent many a day and night by the bedside of a sick person, and prepared the bodies of the dead for burial, and delivered babies when no Doctor was available.

She gave to the ones in need and prayed for those in sorrow. If she could live it all over again, she would probably not change it one bit. It is true the Lord has been good to her for he has given her something that few others have received.

One hundred year of life on this earth. It has given her eight children namely: Lawrence Dallas; Glen of Bella Vista, Ark.; Lora Jones, Jacksonville, Ark.; Bessie Stevenson, Muleshoe, Texas; James "Buster" now deceased; Charlie, Seattle Washington; Annie Mae Stotts, Winston, Ark.; G.W., now deceased; Grandchildren and a number of great-grandchildren.

As we celebrate her 100 birthday, we will all say, "Happy Birthday, Mother and thank you for all the things you have done for us for so many years."

The heat pump

"THE ELECTRIC SAVINGS MACHINE"

A good bargain now that will get even better!

Of course, any machine that works as efficiently as the heat pump has to save you money. And for many people, that's the key appeal of the heat pump. Initial costs may be slightly higher than those for a combination heating and air conditioning system, because the heat pump is in a class all by itself — so unique it can't be compared for quality and comfort. Day-to-day operating expenses are the lowest of any other electric heating/cooling system available or on the market today. But the savings don't stop there.

With fuel costs expected to rise during the next two decades, the electric heat pump is a smart investment that will reward your financial foresight for years. Then too, unlike other forms of energy, electricity can be generated from a variety of sources. You can count on having plenty to run your heat pump. Always!

The parents, students, and fans are ready and willing to back the Mules to a victorious season. These people at the pep rallies lifting spirit makes the players ready for their opponents.

Each year the players of both Varsity football and basketball are presented a sign with their name, position, and classification. During the pep rally on Friday, September 9, the coaches got a surprise when, for the first time they received signs from the cheerleaders.

The man who deserves all the credit for making the signs is George Washington. Mr. Washington does a lot of work during the year to help promote spirit in the school.

The coaches and players also deserve credit for all the effort they've put out so far this season. So all the fans come out and back the Mules for the rest of the season.

Head football coach, Mr. Don Cumpton, has this to say about the Muleshoe team. We have been very pleased with the effort and attitude for all our players. We feel our team is improving each week, and we think by the time district play arrives we will be ready to make a run at the district title. Much appreciation goes to all the support the Mules have received. It is a great asset to our team.

The Mules racked up 26 first downs compared to Lubbock Cooper's 8. The total yardage for the Mules was 430 to Cooper's 120.

DECA JACKETS--Jerry Puentes shows the new DECA jackets which arrived at MHS this week. Members of DECA (Distributive Education Clubs of America) will be wearing the new jackets this year.

Students Will Use ACT Testing Program

Students at MHS who are considering attending college after graduation will have five opportunities during the 1977-78 school year to use the ACT Assessment Program, a guidance-oriented service that is used each year by students throughout the nation as part of their college and career planning.

The first of five national test dates on which the ACT Assessment tests will be offered is Saturday morning, October 8. Junior or senior students planning to take the exams on that date must have registered by September 12.

The balance of the 1977-78 schedule of national test dates (with registration periods in parentheses) is: November 19, 1977 (Sept. 26-Oct. 21); February 11, 1978 (Nov. 14-Jan. 13); April 1, 1978 (Feb. 6-March 3); June 17, 1978 (March 27-May 19).

It takes students about three hours to complete four standardized exams (covering subject areas of English, math, social studies, and natural sciences) that make up the Test section. The ACT Assessment's other important section is a two-part questionnaire that is completed by students at home as part of the registration process.

The test scores provide an assessment of general educational development, and the questionnaire section focuses on academic and nonacademic accomplishments and interests, anticipated needs, and educational and career plans.

Freshmen Win 32-20 Over Rams

The Muleshoe Freshman football team won their first game of the season by defeating Portales 32-20. This was a big win for the Freshman since this was the first game Portales had lost since this group started playing football.

Portales scored first and went ahead 8-0. However the Mules came right back on a touchdown run by Charles Walker and a two-point conversion by Felix Norman to tie the score.

In the second quarter, the Mules scored twice. Charles Walker and Marvin Lewis scored on long touchdown runs. Felix Norman ran both extra points.

In the second half, Felix Norman scored again, plus scoring on the conversion run, for a total of 32 points. The offensive line did a super job at opening up holes.

The defensive team played a good game. We gave up twenty points; but when they needed to hold, they played excellent.

FTA PARTY--Members of the Future Teachers of Muleshoe High School got together last week for an FTA party. A main attraction at the party was the trampoline which got a good workout from the students.

The Sandhills Philosopher
 Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher of his Johnson grass farm on Sandy Creek explains the effect television has on children this week, we think. Dear Editor: According to a national study group, television is mainly to blame for so many high school graduates making such low scores on their college entrance exams. Scores on the Standard Aptitude Test have been declining steadily over the last 14 years. "By age 16," the group reported, "most children have spent between 10,000 and 15,000 hours watching television, which detracts from their school work."

I got to thinking about this. What, I asked myself, did school kids do before television was invented? Just look around. You can tell practically every grown-up you know was bound to have spent the first 16 years of his life with his head buried in a library book when he wasn't memorizing the multiplication tables. They must have driven their parents half crazy sitting around the house saying over and over for hours on end, six times six is thirty-six, six times seven is forty-two and whatever it is that comes next. I don't have a calculator. If they were told to stop that, they'd start giving you the names of the capitals of all the states, plus the date of the Battle of Bull Run. You'd have to call them three times before they'd look up from reading Pilgrim's Progress. Kids in those days never wasted a minute.

Before television, kids were smart. Ask any grown-up who grew up without it. Why some of them grew up thinking all U.S. Senators were giants among men. Television has ruined that. You can't hear some of them on your screen sputtering about something they don't know any more about than you, without wondering how they got to be Senators. TV is the worst thing that ever happened to politicians.

Furthermore, before television we had no violence to speak of. Oh, what happened to Little Red Riding Hood's grandmother was rather gruesome, but kids in those days knew one wolf could hardly swallow a whole grandmother, whereas today Kojack fools all of them. They have no idea he's shooting blanks.

Yours faithfully,

Dad's steady influence is needed for . . .

LIFE'S OBSTACLES

We can easily see physical obstacles such as logs, boulders, and many other things that may be too difficult for our children to handle, but things that are not physical are not always so obvious. A young child needs help from his parents in spiritual matters too. The church can be an influence on children's lives, but when you, a parent, are taking part in church worship, you can be an even greater influence. Give your children, the leaders of the future, a hand now when they need it most. Take them to church regularly . . . and you too, will have a fuller and better life.

ATTEND CHURCH

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society as way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
