NOTICE TO LIVESTOCK OWNERS

ALL BRANDS AND MARKS ON TEXAS LIVESTOCK MUST BE RERECORDED WITH COUNTY CLERKS WITHIN SIX MONTHS OF AUGUST 30, 1991 ACCORDING TO ARTICLE 6899j, VERNON'S TEXAS CIVIL STATUTES. (September 2, 1991 thru February 28, 1992)

The owner shall have the right during this six-month period to file the brand and marks now recorded in his name. After this time any unrecorded brand will be available for use on a "first-come" basis.

It should be noted that it is illegal to brand livestock without first properly recording the brand with the County Clerk in the county in which the livestock are held.

When the brand or brands are recorded, the location on the animal on which the brand is to be applied must be designated. If the brand is to be applied to more than one location on the animal, it must be recorded and each additional location for the brand on the animal shall constitute a separate recording of that brand.

There is no limit to the number of brands and/or marks which may be recorded in a county by a person as long as requirements of this law governing the recording and rerecording of livestock brands are met. Minors may have marks or brands separate from that of the father or guardian, which must be recorded or rerecorded as provided by the law.

The fee for each separate recording of brand is $5.00.

K. PAUL HOLT

Honors Bestowed On Son-In-Law

K. Paul Holt, son-in-law of T.J. and Lois Miller, has been named by Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce as one of five Outstanding Young Texans for 1991. The award was presented Saturday evening at a dinner hosted by Dallas Junior Chamber.

Holt's wife is Donna Miller DDS, a 1976 graduate of Plains High School. They live in Waco.

Thirty-six years old, Holt graduated from Atlanta High School and Baylor University where he continued graduate work in social psychology. He was nominated for the honor by Waco Junior Chamber (Jaycees), after being named Outstanding Young Wacoan for 1990-1991. He is presently employed as administrator of The Freeman Center, a treatment program for alcohol and other drug abuse and addiction.

His most recent achievements include the establishment of the first public access detoxification program in the Heart of Texas Region. During 1990, The Freeman Center also opened an intensive in-patient and out-patient services, previously unavailable in the area.

He is affiliated with Rotary International, Leadership Waco Advisory Board and Alumni Association, Greater Waco Chamber of Commerce and Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Holt has been an active licensed lay reader for St. Paul's Episcopal Church since 1984, and served the St. Paul's Missions and Outreach Commission five years. He has recently been appointed by the bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Texas to the Commission on Alcoholism.
