Basketball Banquet

The high school basket ball teams and the trustees honored Coach Dale Key with a banquet on March 12. Those attending were the boys and girls basket ball teams, the high school faculty with their wives or husbands, and the trustees and their wives.

Mary Elizabeth Been, a forward on the girl's team, was toastmaster. Travis Spence, our superintendent, was speaker of the evening. Glenn Justice, president of the school board, gave the invocation. The welcome was given by Wanda Tucker, then it was time to eat, or "Hit The Basket" as the program read.

The menu consisted of fruit juice cocktail, barbecued chicken, potato salad, baked beans, lettuce and tomato salad, hot rolls, cake, ice cream, tea or coffee.

When everyone had finished, Mr. Spence gave an interesting talk on "What I Like About Basketball." Lorene Lewis, captain of the girls team, gave a toast to the coach. Jerry May, captain of the boys team, spoke on Sportsmanship. Bo Caroway then let us in on some of the locker room secrets. Charles Bryant gave a toast, To A Swell Key.

Following the program Kay McDaniel presented Coach Key with a gift from the basketball teams. Coach Key responded and told how team work helps in emergencies.

Blue and white, the school colors, were carried out in the table decor. A colorful pot plant centered the speakers table, and blue and white sashes were used. The programs were blue in the shape of basketballs, and tied with white ribbons holding a tiny gold basketball. A white key in the center of the programs with the names written in blue served as place cards.

The basketball teams wish to thank everyone who helped in any way to make our banquet a success. To Mr. Mosier and his helpers we say, thank you for barbecuing the chicken and also to the mothers and Mrs. O'Connor for preparing and serving the food at the lunch room.

Luther Ables and wife of Lubbock, Mrs. Hosea Larier of Slegman, Ariz., Mrs. Willie Faye Walsh and daughter of Fort Worth visited Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Medford last week.

OMAR BURLESON

Omar Burleson Issues Statement On Congress Race

On January 11, 1960, application was formally filed by Congressman Omar Burleson for his name to appear on the ballot for the Democratic Primary Election on May 7.

"My bid for reelection to the Congress of the United States is, of course, based on my record of service," Burleson states. "I make no claim of perfection. Doubtless, mistakes have been made, as is usually the case in all human endeavors, but two guiding principles have been constantly followed: First, to know the views of my constituents and reflect their sentiments to the greatest possible degree in my actions in the Congress. Second, to inform and advise as fully as I can on those issues which affect my constituency and our Nation."

Burleson was born and raised on a farm between Anson and Stamford in Jones County. He attended rural school, graduated from Anson High School, attended Abilene Christian College, Hardin-Simmons University, and graduated from Cumberland Law School, following which he had postgraduate law at the University of Texas. He married Ruth DeWeese, daughter of Reverend R. D. DeWeese, who pastored Baptist Churches in West and South Texas.

He served as County Attorney and County Judge of his home County of Jones. Later he became a Special Agent for the F.B.I. He served three years in the United States Navy in World War II, mostly in the Pacific Ocean Area. After the war he was elected to the 80th Congress and has been reelected to succeeding Congresses. He is now Chairman of the House Administration Committee in the U. S. House of Representatives.

Burleson points out that many vital issues have had to be faced in the years he has represented the 17th District in the Congress. "Many more loom before us. With constancy, I have striven to face these problems with the courage

"As the record will definitely show, on many occasions I have found myself in the minority, but have never failed to exercise the right to vote and to do as I thought best. This has especially been true in connection with the needless spending of Federal money. The record will show that at every single session of the Congress I have voted for expenditures below that recommended by the Executive Department, and far below that actually appropriated by the Congress. This has been the case in all matters except National Defense. In this instance, I have always voted for those things calculated to make and to keep our Nation stronger than any other in the world. ## Record Number Of Animals Are Due In County Livestock Show

The annual Eastland County Livestock Show on March 25-26, with 534 animals already entered, promises to be one of the largest ever held in its long history, according to show officials.

Approximately $1,500 in cash prizes will be distributed to the FFA and 4-H Club boys and girls with prize winning animals during the two-day affair. Adults are eligible to show, but compete for the ribbons only, it was said.

Each of the junior exhibitors are limited to two animals in each fat animal class except the FFA and 4-H Clubs. The fat animal division of fat pigs, fat lambs and fat steers is limited to junior exhibitors.

The Eastland Auction Company will give three $10.00 cash awards to the boy or girl who does the best job of fitting, grooming, showing and keeping the animal stalls and the aisles neat and clean during the show.

One award will be for swine, one for cattle, and one award for sheep. D. S. Buchanan and Lloyd Coan are co-owners of the Eastland Auction Company.

Entry fees of 50 cents for sheep, goats and hogs, and $1.00 for cattle will be charged. This is a new ruling. Fees are to be used to defray expenses of the show and to help in construction of new facilities at the show grounds.

Short Time Remains For WWII Vets To Apply For GI Loans

About five months remain in which World War II veterans may apply for GI home, farm, or business loans, Edward P. Onstot, manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Dallas, Texas reminded veterans today.

Under present law, July 25, 1960, is the cut-off date set for World War II veteran participation in the post-war program that has seen more than 5 million World War II veterans take advantage of the GI Bill loan provisions since June 22, 1944.

Veterans who submit their applications on or before the deadline of July 25, 1960, will be allowed an additional year, or until July 25, 1961, in which to have the loan processed and actually closed.

These dates do not apply to Korean-conflict veterans who have until January 31, 1963, to make GI loan applications.

World War II veterans who also served during the Korean-conflict period are considered Korean-conflict veterans for the purpose of GI loans.

Veterans in rural areas and in small cities and towns where guaranteed loans are not generally available are eligible for VA direct home and farmhouse loans. The direct loan program for both World War II and Korean-conflict veterans is due to expire on July 25, 1960.

Since the GI loan was launched in June, 1944, and up through December, 1959, a total of 5,125, 000 loans have been guaranteed or made to World War II veterans for a total face value of $40.8 billion.

Approximately one-third of the eligible World War II veterans and one-eighth of the Korean-conflict veterans have taken advantage of the loan program to date. Reviewing the tremendous scope of the GI loan used by both World War II and Korean-conflict veterans combined, Mr. Onstot said that it was the equal of financing one out of every 10 dwelling units in the United States, including apartments and single-family rental properties.

Nearly one out of every 4 mortgaged single-family dwelling units in the United States has a VA-guarantee mortgage, Mr. Onstot said.

Continued from first page represent the very best interest of every segment of the economy in our 17th Congressional District. Many times we do not accomplish all we think should be accomplished, but I believe those who have familiarized themselves with my record will know that I have done the best possible under all the circumstances which must be met.

"In domestic matters, the record will prove my opposition to the encroachment of the Federal Government on State and local affairs. As the Federal Government has grown to its colossal proportions, the threat of centralized power in Washington has increased. To this I am opposed, as my actions prove. Big government and high taxes are the result of many activities of the Federal Government which should be reserved to the States. Big government with its far-flung operations has created needless waste and extravagance.

"It has been my purpose to conduct myself at all times in a manner worthy of the trust and confidence which has been placed in me by the people who send me to Congress. To violate that trust in any respect would be unthinkable, and it shall never knowingly be done."

As Chairman of one of the Standing Committees of the House, Burleson will have to be in Washington at intervals during the campaign. He has opened campaign headquarters in his home town of Anson. He retains his permanent Congressional Service Office in Abilene which is open at all times for official business. He has returned to Washington after spending several days in the District, with the expectation of being back in April to further conduct his campaign and see as many people as possible between now and the Primary Election on the first Saturday in May.

"In the meantime," he says, "I invite your investigation into my past performances, and if you believe I have been faithful to duty and worthy of your continued support, your active participation in my campaign will be greatly appreciated."
