Banquet Honors Juniors, Seniors

The Junior-Senior classes of Carbon High School were honored with a Valentine Banquet in the annex of the Baptist Church Thursday, February 11, at 7 p. m., sponsored by the ladies of the W. M. S. Other guests were the high school faculty, Rev. Roger Butler, master of ceremonies; and Mrs. Butler, Mrs. M. Stubblefield, president of W. M. S.; and Mr. Stubblefield, Mrs. Bill Brown, pianist; and Mr. Brown and Bro. R. B. Hall of Eastland, after dinner speaker.

The Valentine motif was carried out in the decorations. The banquet tables were laid in white with red streamers down the center accented with cupids, hearts and arrows, and burning red and white candles. Place favors were small cupids held in a marshmallow base bearing the name of the guest. The speakers table featured a large heart in the background.

The menu and program was printed in a heart-shaped valentine with a red cover under a white lace heart. The menu consisted of whole green beans, whipped potatoes, baked ham, cranberry sauce, butter, hot rolls, cake, tea and coffee. Mary Beas, Wanda Tucker and Mary Roney, sophomores, served as waitresses.

Superintendent of the Carbon School, C. T. Spence, gave the invocation.

After the banquet Rev. Butler MC'd the following program: Welcome, Mrs. M. Stubblefield; Response, Jerry May, president of senior class; and a melody of songs sung by the group with Mrs. Brown at the piano. The highlight of the evening was the message on "Love" by Bro. Hall who concluded his talk by singing "O Love Of God". The benediction was given by M. Stubblefield.

42 Party

There will be a 42 party in the Carbon High School Cafeteria on Friday, February 26, at 7 p. m. Admission will be 25c. Refreshments will be served.

The gym will be open for the benefit of the children.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Richardson of San Angelo were Friday night guests of the C. G. Gilberts.

County Increases Bounty Payments, Cut Trapping Fund

Part of the funds previously allocated for employment of a trapper was diverted into higher bounty payments for the killing of predatory animals by the Eastland County Commissioners' Court at a special meeting Monday at the courthouse.

The court voted to discontinue the recently approved payment of an additional $100 per month to an organization of county goat and sheep raisers. The sum of $135 per month, which has been paid for the past year, will be continued, enabling the goat and sheep raisers to employ one trapper.

The bounty paid to anyone who kills predatory animals was raised to $10 for wolves, $5 for bobcats and $2 for red foxes. This will give everybody who helps stamp out the undesirable animals an opportunity to profit for their efforts, Commissioner Carl Lamb reported.

Basketball News

The Rising Star Wildcats beat the Carbon Wolverines 66 to 52, at Rising Star last Friday night in District 32-B.

Already winning the crown, Rising Star finished their district play with 8-0 record. Carbon has a 4-4 mark.

Larry Morrow led Carbon boys with 14 points, and in the girls game which ended 49 to 31 in Rising Star's favor, Ruby Raspberry led with 15 points.

This game ended the basketball season for this year.

Our grade school boys and girls played in the Dublin tournament last week end. Our boys lost to Stephenville and our girls went on to win first place in the tournament by defeating Lingville 14 to 20, to bring back another first place trophy. This makes 4 first place trophies for them to win this season.

Both boys and girls have entered the Gorman tournament being held this week and both teams played Tuesday night. The boys lost to Desdemona 17 to 38 and the girls won from Desdemona in a close thrilling game 18 to 15.

They both play Olden Friday night at 6:30 and 7:30 in the Gorman gym.

Wind has removed many tons of soil from this field. Cutting and grazing sorghum strips has removed their effectiveness in stopping blowing. Sorghum strips should be grazed only after a winter cover crop is well established.

LAST TUESDAY'S DUSTER SENT MANY TONS OF SOIL INTO AIR

By SCS PERSONNEL
We were reminded of "dust bowl" days last Tuesday, and that wind erosion remains a serious hazard for us to contend with. Many tons of soil were lost from peanut fields in our own area. We knew that damage was severe in West Texas by the dust cloud overhead without even reading our newspaper or listening to the broadcasts.

Our only weapon for combating this hazard in our vicinity is to shelter the soil from the wind. We can always expect high wind in early spring so it is essential we keep our fields covered in this period. The three weapons used and proven successful for sheltering peanut fields are winter cover crops, strip crops, and leaving peanut hay or other crop residue on the surface of the soil. These three practices should be used together in peanut farming as each supports the other in effectiveness.

The effectiveness of these weapons was very obvious to anyone driving through the peanut country last Tuesday afternoon. Fields green with a vigorous rye cover crop were not blowing. Fields without rye but with thick tall effective strips were blowing only in spots. Strips which had been cut or grazed down showed little effect in holding the soil. Bare land could only be seen from a distance because of the continuous sheet of soil being blown away. Surely if we are to keep our vicinity famous for peanut production we must use these three weapons as a common practice for every peanut field every year.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Gilbert were in Winsboro to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. J. D. Campbell, held there on Saturday. Mrs. Campbell passed away on Friday after a lingering illness.

Rules Governing Crop Allotments Cited By County

A new law governing the cotton and peanut history on allotment farms went into effect this year and all producers who do not plan to plant at least 75 percent of the cotton or peanut allotment should contact the County ASC office immediately so that plans can be made to maintain the allotment history for the farm, according to Emmett E. Powell, county office manager.

The county office is accepting released acreage on cotton and peanuts, and farmers were urged to contact the office if they were not planning to plant the allotment. The 1961 allotment could be seriously affected by a failure to release the 1960 allotment, Mr. Powell said.

The final date for releasing peanuts and filing for additional acreage is April 4 and the date for releasing cotton and filing for additional acreage is April 8, he said.

Farmers wishing additional acreage from the released acreage should apply at the county office. Additional acreage is for one year only and is not recorded on the history acreage of the farm, Mr. Powell reminded farmers.

The county committee will provide pre-measurement service to farmers at a $10 charge per farm and $4 for each additional plot. Producers may apply for this service between Feb. 15 and March 15, Mr. Powell said.

No measurement service is offered to peanut growers, but both cotton and peanut growers may receive an estimate measurement from aerial photographs of the acreage to be planted, Mr. Powell said.

Agency Is Still Handling Loans In Small Towns

DALLAS — "The Voluntary Home Mortgage Credit Program is still able to place qualified FHA loans in small towns and for members of the minority group in general," said C. J. Hermann, Executive Secretary of the VHMCP Region V office, headquartered in Dallas, Texas. Region V comprises the states of Arkansas, Kansas, Louisiana, Missouri, New Mexico, Oklahoma, and Texas.

Mr. Hermann stated that although general mortgage market conditions are not favorable, the lending institutions participating in this private industry-sponsored program are still making funds available for FHA loans in the smaller towns.

Hermann also stated that in many instances better service is obtainable for FHA loans due to the FHA's Certified Agency Program. Under this Program the local approved mortgage lender relieves the FHA of certain details, which has the effect of expediting the completion of the loans. Hermann said that in many instances the long delay waiting for FHA appraisers and inspectors is eliminated as local fee appraisers and inspectors may now do the work.

VHMCP does not make loans, but simply serves as a clearing house without charge in an endeavor to assist qualified borrowers to obtain an FHA loan, Mr. Hermann explained. The Program is only operative in the smaller towns and for members of minority groups.

To date over 40,000 families have been assisted by this Program, to obtain loans aggregating over $400,000,000.00.

Any individual who desires the assistance of VHMCP may contact the Regional Office at 1114 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, and request the necessary forms.

Bloomquist Spots New Oil Test In Area North City

G. A. Bloomquist of Brush Prairie, Washington, was drilling at 1,600 feet today in his No. 1 Owen Estate, a wildcat oil test in the regular field some four miles north of Cisco. The test is some 2,100 feet west of Bloomquist's recently completed No. 1 Schlaepfer.

The new test calls for a 4,200 foot test with rotary equipment. Location was given at 2,151 feet from the south and 400 feet from the east lines of Section 500, SP Survey, Eastland, north of Lake Cisco.

The No. 1 Schlaepfer, which was completed some six weeks ago, is flowing from the Ranger line.
