Wife of Former Winters Citizen Honored by King

Mrs. M. Luther Owens received a clipping from a San Antonio paper the first of the week, containing the announcement that Mrs. Curtis C. George had recently received a medal from the king of Italy in acknowledgment and appreciation of her charitable work.

Mrs. George is a niece of Mrs. Owens by marriage. Her husband, Curtis C. George was at one time a resident of Winters and was employed at the Owens Drug Store. Curtis now holds one of the highest offices for his age in the state, that of secretary of the Medina Valley irrigation project.

Mrs. George, who is an Italian by birth, was the founder of the Duchessa D'Acosta club during the World War, for the purpose of aiding the soldiers, and the club has kept up its charitable work. Her recent charitable work was for the relief of the Mississippi flood sufferers, and the donation of $100 toward the furniture of the Casa Regina, the home for working girls.

Blizzards Beat Santa Anna 20 to 0

The Winters Blizzards, with the reserves in action a greater part of the game nipped the hazard of Santa Anna 20 to 0 in a game here last Friday afternoon, the Blizzard backfield plowing through the visitors' line at will. It was a slow game, and a poor exhibition on the part of Santa Anna in view of the good showing they made against other teams of the district. The outstanding feature of the game was the work of Phillips for Winters, but running a close second was the defensive work of Roy Young at center. His job was to stop the wild plunges of Wise, and he didn't miss it. Improvement can be seen in Winters' line, and we are still of the opinion that it will take champion material to stop them.

Next Friday is an open date for the Blizzards, and no game has been matched for them.

Installs New Auto Repair Machinery

Some time ago Marvin Pumphrey, foreman of the mechanical department at the Nance-Brown Motor Co., spent several weeks in Dallas, receiving instruction in the operation of the modern automotive repair machines. Since returning his concern has purchased these machines and they are now in operation in their shop. The equipment includes a re-boring cylinder and line reaming machine, re-babbiting machine, to ream new bearings in blocks, crankcase lining-up jig, valve refacing machine, and connecting rod lining-up jig.

With this new auto repair equipment a first-class factory overhaul job can be given any motor right in this shop. They have a motor on all the block for demonstration, and will be glad at any time to show any of the machines to you, in fact, they want you to see them in action.

Miss Beckie Roberts spent the week end with friends in Abilene.

Farmers Column

Watch this column each week and your time, if properly applied, will be a good investment.

There are many things that appear to be only small matters on the farm and yet these things when multiplied by the number of farms amount to large things of great economic importance. In a seasonal sequence advice will be offered to farmers and I am hoping that some will make use of this information given, and that something may be learned and a net profit be realized.

Carbon Disulphide Treatment for Weevils—Grain bins are overflowing with mite and corn, and the weevils are hard at work, and though the damage be small in appearance, it is large in the total. There are several things that can be used to control these, such as hydrocyanic acid gas, but the most of these are too expensive or too dangerous to use. Grain may be treated with carbon disulphide at a cost of about 1/2 cent per bushel. For cribs that are moderately tight use 20 to 25 pounds for 1000 cubic feet of space. For air tight bins use 10 to 12 pounds. Carbon disulphide gas is heavier than air and when grain is being treated the liquid should be placed in flat pans on top of the grain. The gas evolves from the liquid carbon disulphide and works its way through the stored grain, killing the weevils.

Precautions—This gas is highly inflammable and no lights or heated objects should be brought close to the place of treatment. After placing the pans in the cribs leave undisturbed for 24 to 48 hours. Keep all livestock away. Ventilate well before entering barn. Headaches to humans are the only bad results.

Each week questions will be answered and information given. For further information see your vocational teacher, R. E. Homann, high school building.

9,922 Bales Have Been Ginned in Winters to Date

Reports from the gins of the city at 2 o'clock yesterday showed that there had been ginned to that hour 9,922 bales of cotton, the 10,000th bale probably being reached before the day was over. Ginners estimated that the total would reach 19,500 before the season closes.

W. D. Esmond, government enumerator, states that on October 1st, there had been 22,021 bales of cotton ginned in Runnels county, against 19,847 bales up to the same date last year.

First Number of Lyceum Monday

Mr. Johnson is now busy renovating and rearranging his new place of business and stated that he would open up for business tomorrow. He also stated that besides the regular restaurant business he would be prepared to fill all orders for the wonderful sandwiches for which the old Alcove was famous. He has decided to name his new restaurant the New Alcove, and invites all his old friends and the general public to call on him when hungry.

Pioneer Citizen Laid to Rest Sunday

A. T. Stokes, for many years a well known and honored citizen of Winters passed away Sunday, October 16th, at 4:30 a. m., after an illness of several days duration.

Andrew Thompson Stokes was born in Dale county, Alabama, September 15th, 1853, and at the time of his death was seventy-four years of age. At the age of seventeen he received a hope in Christ, and has continually since that time lived a life of service for the cause of his Master. He was married to Miss Fannie Rhodes in Pike county, Alabama, in 1876, and one year later came to Texas, settling at Mexia, in Limestone county, where he resided for thirty-three years and moved to Winters in 1910. He was friendly and kindly disposed toward every one with whom he became acquainted, a kind and affectionate husband and father, and a progressive citizen, always assuming his part of responsibility in any movement for the upbuilding of the community in which he lived. He has had an active part in the rapid growth of Winters.

Surviving him are his wife, five sons, Lynn Stokes, Ballinger; Grady Stokes, Ballinger; Will Stokes, Wilson; Homer Stokes, Houston, and R. L. Stokes, Winters; two daughters, Mrs. W. T. Sudberry and Mrs. J. C. Meredith of Winters; twenty-five grandchildren; one brother, J. J. Stokes, and one sister, Mrs. Sawyer, Mexia; a niece, Mrs. W. A. Sheppard of Abilene.

Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon by the Rev. W. H. Barrett of Breckenridge, assisted by the local pastors, Rev. Gid. J. Bryan, Rev. H. H. Stephens and Rev. Hal F. Smith, and his body was laid to rest in Fairview Cemetery.

Active pall bearers were the four sons, Homer, Will, Grady and R. L. Stokes, J. C. Meredith and W. T. Sudberry.

Honorary pall bearers were Jno. W. Norman, W. S. Davis, Wm. Stevens, Jim Conley, W. H. Rodgers, L. R. Gaston, Will McCaughan, Wiley Hinds, Mr. Huddleston, A. H. Van Pelt, and A. C. Harrison.

Garland Nance, student of McMurry college at Abilene, spent the past week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Nance.

On Friday evening, October 14th, Mesdames C. T. Rives and Thos. H. Haynie entertained most pleasantly the members of the Adult Christian Endeavor Society and a few friends at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. T. Rives. Upon arrival the guests were seated in the living room and served delicious refreshments of sandwiches, angel food cake and chocolate, after which progressive conversation and other games and contests were entered into by all present and enjoyed greatly. Those present to enjoy this hospitality, besides the hostesses, were Mesdames L. Wilson, T. D. Dunn, Kate Vancil, Hays, Cliff, Vanzandt, W. R. Johnson, R. T. Thornton, Jr., and Miss Kilander; Messrs. ## Lions Club Hear Ballinger Pastor

The Winters Lions Club met last Tuesday at noon at the Winters Hotel for their regular semi-monthly luncheon, President R. E. Bacon being in charge of the opening exercises, after which the meeting was turned over to the toastmaster, Dr. R. C. Maddox, who announced the first number on the program—two readings by Miss Naomi Hunt, which were highly appreciated and received much applause.

The principal address at the luncheon was made by Pastor Leslie G. Smythe, of the First Christian church at Ballinger, who talked in a most pleasing and entertaining manner on "Physical Culture." The speaker charged that the churches were very much opposed to intemperance when it came to intoxicating liquors, but the "plutons" who would throw great loads of all kinds of food into his stomach was received with open arms.

Judge R. T. Thornton, made an announcement of a meeting of the Winters Country Club, relative to leasing the club grounds for oil and gas, and urged all stockholders to be present. The meeting was announced for Wednesday evening at the club house.

The program committee for the next luncheon is composed of G. E. Nicholson, chairman; B. G. Owens, and J. F. Paxton.

The attendance contest, which is to run until some time during the early spring, showed Capt. Carl Davis had 12 of his group present, while Capt. S. H. Nance showed up with 13. Capt. Nance and his group are now leading in this contest by seven.

NEW LAUNDRYMAN

Ben Alexander, an experienced laundryman from Lamesa, has accepted a position with the Winters Laundry, and is now in charge of the mechanical department.

A visit to the laundry yesterday revealed the fact that Winters has one of the best and most modernly equipped laundries to be found in any town of this size in West Texas, and Mr. Woodrow, proprietor, says that as the business grows more modern equipment will be added to take care of the situation.

Miss Valera Duncan and Carlton Roberts were Abilene visitors Sunday.

Miss Emma Baldwin and Pete Allen were visitors in Abilene Sunday.

Fight Mosquitoes By Airplane

Mosquito control by airplane is a possibility of the future, according to V. M. Ehlers, state sanitary engineer, who stated that recent experiments made by the United States Public Health Service in heavily infested malaria districts of the South has caused serious consideration to be given by public health authorities to this mode of mosquito eradication.

"In an experiment made by the United States Public Health Service, and the South Carolina State Board of Health, 500 pounds of Paris green with an equal quantity of soapstone, was distributed by airplane over the surface of a 500-acre pond," Ehlers stated. "Some 22 hours after this dusting 703 dips were made at different points in the pond, and only three living anopheles larvae were found."

"This pond was heavily infested with mosquito larvae prior to the dusting with Paris green, dippings having been made yielding an average of five larvae per dip. The small finding of live larvae after the dusting demonstrates the possibility of this mode of mosquito control in large areas and marshy lands to which access can be gained in no other way."

"The rapid development of hydroelectric power in Texas and the consequent impounding of water, may make it practical to use this mode of mosquito control in certain sections, and it is possible that experiments along this line will be made in this state in the near future."

Recover Body of River Victim After 16-Day Search

The Colorado river gave up its dead Sunday morning, October 16th, where the searching party, who never relaxed since the deplorable tragedy of Saturday October 1st, discovered the body of Willie Littlefield, badly decomposed and partially covered with sand, a little over a quarter of a mile from the place he attempted to ford the swollen stream on horseback, driving other horses ahead.

The searchers first clue was early Sunday morning when the odor from the decomposed body attracted the attention of the searchers, and soon the gruesome burden was lifted from the river bed and conveyed to Concho county, where the youth's relatives reside, and was tenderly laid to rest in the Paint Rock cemetery.

District Medical Association to Meet Nov. 7, 8

Mr. Skaggs, in talking with his ad man, stated that the reason he was retiring was on account of poor health. He suffered a breakdown last summer and was in the Sanitarium over two months, and the best doctors there considered his case very critical, and he had a close call. When he left the sanitarium the doctors advised him to get out of the store and stay out—they thought his life depended on it. So he gradually began to get better, improving slowly, and now he is forced to rest at least two hours each day. Mr. and Mrs. Skaggs after deliberating for some time, made up their minds and decided the only thing left to do was to quit business and sell all their interests in Winters and retire. This is the final decision. That's all.

WELCOME CHANGES FOR THE BREAKFAST MENU

(Editor's Note: This is one of a series of cooking articles by six of the country's best-known cooks.)

Bacon, eggs, toast, cereal. Mighty good for breakfast, but don't we sometimes get tired of them?

MARGARET ALLEN HALL

Hot breads are always welcome, and they don't take very long to prepare. And waffles make a big hit, although they require a little more work on the part of the cook. However, it's worth it, when we see the look of pure joy on the faces of the youngsters while they eat.

Berry Muffins

Blueberries, huckleberries, raspberries—any berries in season—are delicious in muffins. Miss Margaret Allen Hall, nutrition specialist at the Battle Creek College of Home Economics, gives her favorite muffin recipe.

- 1 cup fresh berries
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1 egg
- 1/2 cup milk
- 2 cups sifted flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 2 teaspoons baking powder

Sift the dry ingredients together. Cream the butter and sugar. Add the milk and the dry ingredients alternately. At the last, fold in the berries.

Always flour berries before putting them into the batter. This keeps them from going to the bottom.

It's always best to have a hot oven for muffins and biscuits. If you cook with a modern long-chimney oil stove, turn the flame until yellow tips appear, about 1 1/2 inches high above the blue area. This flame pre-heats quickly.

Golden Corn Muffins

Corn muffins, crisp and golden crusted, are delicious. This is how Miss Hall makes them.

- 1/2 cup cornmeal
- 1 1/2 cups flour
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 tablespoon melted butter
- 1 cup milk
- 1 egg
- 2 teaspoons baking powder

Sift the dry ingredients together. Beat the egg, add the milk and stir in the dry ingredients. Then add the melted butter. Turn into muffin tins and bake in a hot oven twenty-five to thirty minutes.

New Pancakes

Pancakes? Of course! Every family likes them, sour milk, and buckwheat. But have you ever tried rye pancakes? Delicious. The following recipe is contributed by Miss Lucy G. Allen, principal of the Boston School of Cookery.

Mix one cup each of rye meal and bread flour, one-fourth cup of sugar,

WINGATE CLUB NOTES

Nine members of the "Peppy Workers" home demonstration club met at the rural home of Mrs. R. V. Rogers, Wednesday afternoon, October 12, for regular meeting.

With President Mrs. C. A. Smith in the chair, a business meeting was held and the election of new officers was gone into with much enthusiasm as the main feature of the meeting.

Mrs. I. G. Hensley was elected as president for the ensuing year. Mrs. Hensley is a tireless worker in the club, and we are sure she will make a very efficient president.

Mrs. J. B. Miller was chosen vice-president; Mrs. C. A. Smith was elected secretary, and Mrs. B. J. Smith reporter.

The "Living Room" program was partially explained by Mrs. Hollingsworth, who will go into further details at the next meeting.

After the business was finished, a

Babe Ruth is Real Actor on Screen

George Herman Ruth, motion picture matinee idol!

The name is new to the screen, but it has become famous throughout the world — so famous that even where baseball is not played "Babe" Ruth's name is known.

Strange to say, he's made good in pictures to such an extent that there's a steady berth awaiting him with the film companies any time he wishes to turn from his baseball career. His success in "Babe Comes Home," First National picture, proves the big fellow to be a real screen actor. In this picture, playing not only as a baseball star in diamond and dressing room sequences, but a lover in the novel story, he had a difficult role which he enacted like an experienced film player.

"Babe Comes Home" was produced for First National. Anna Q. Nilsson and Louise Fazenda are featured in support of Mr. Ruth. The picture will show at the Queen Theatre Monday and Tuesday, October 24 and 25th.

L. E. Rives of San Angelo was a visitor in the home of his brother, Dr. C. T. Rives, the past week end.

New Perfection Oil Cook Stoves—all types at SPILL BROS. & CO. It social hour was enjoyed. The hostess served delicious cake with coffee.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Elza Renfroe, on October 26th. The demonstration will be angel food cake as demonstrated at the fair at the Light Crust Flour booth.

All members are urged to come and bring reports and dues.—Reporter.

Renee Adoree in Her Finest Role

There is only one girl that could have played the part of "Renee" in "Heaven on Earth," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture which comes to the Lyric Theatre Monday and Tuesday, October 24 and 25. That girl is Renee Adoree, who has risen from practical obscurity to a stellar personage within a year.

Miss Adoree takes her audience through a veritable avalanche of emotion, from comedy to tragedy, blending and shading each scene with an understanding that betrays the real artist in her. Her "Marcella" is one of the screen's most vivid portraits.

Conrad Nagle has never done better work than he does as "Durand," the man who revolts against his near imprisonment by fate. Nagle paints the soul struggle of a man who has been brought up with everything already done for him, and the result of his being suddenly thrust into a world that does not understand him.

Gwen Lee, one of the most decorative of the younger screen players, is seen as Nagle's fiancee, and looks particularly charming in the dress of 1914.

YOU PAY FOR A FORDSON Whether You Get it or Not

No man can control market prices. But he can control farming costs. When he brings his costs DOWN, his profits GO UP. You and your family are entitled to the extra profits and extra leisure a Fordson will bring to your farm.

A Fordson Tractor will break up land in almost one-half the time required to do it with stock. The Fordson plows deeper and more thoroughly; it will ditch and terrace FOUR times as fast as a team; it will disc a field in less than half the time, and prepare a good seed bed in just about a third.

Plowing, harrowing, dragging, running rows, planting, drilling, cultivating, harvesting — the Fordson cuts costs at every step. It will do all the work of horses and mules at a big saving in time and labor.

The usefulness of the Fordson is not confined to field work. Wherever you need Power—winter or summer—your Fordson is ready to deliver it. Baling hay, threshing grain, sawing wood, pumping water, cutting silage, dragging roads, grinding or hauling. And Fordson Power is the cheapest power available—on belt or at the draw bar.

The Fordson is the simplest tractor built and the easiest to operate. Parts for service and repair can be procured quickly and cheaply. Let us show you what a Fordson will do. Figure your costs and see if you are not paying for a Fordson now—without having it.

WHAT'S DOING In West Texas

HASKELL—Marked improvement in quantity and quality of agricultural exhibits all over West Texas was noted by Exhibit Manager B. M. Whiteker in his visits to fairs and regional expositions of the section this fall. Many displays in community sectional fairs compared favorably with the State expositions, he said.

FORT WORTH—A comprehensive handbook of West Texas, presenting West Texas resources and development, present and prospective, has been prepared by Roseoe Ady, for many years industrial commissioner of the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce, and an authority on West Texas development. A sizeable order for the handbook has been placed by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, and that organization will keep a ready supply for distribution to West Texas Chamber of Commerce executives in its member towns.

COLEMAN—Coleman is at work raising finances for a five-story office building, decision for erection of which was reached in less than 45 minutes by a local committee. A man is on the ground also, who in all probability will build a creamery.

DALLAS—West Texas exhibitors dined with East Texans at the Adolphus Hotel the evening of October 14th, when the East and West Texas chambers of commerce held jointly an annual exhibitors' banquet for State Fair visitors. Manager Homer D. Wade, Exhibit Manager B. M. Whiteker, President R. W. Haynie, all of the West Texas chamber, represented that organization. Officials of A. & M. College and the East Texas chamber heads were also prominently identified with the success of the affair.

SPEARMAN—The second annual district convention of the new Trans-Canadian district of the West Texas chamber of commerce will meet here in 1928. Dalhart withdrew its application for the meet October 10th, at the Perryton first convention, in favor of Spearman. An unbounded enthusiasm characterized the delegates who came from the North Panhandle and three outside states. Much constructive activity is expected from that quarter with organization into a definite district.

CANADIAN—Publicity Manager, E. H. Whitehead, of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce was here last week on the last lap of a ten-days tour through the Trans-Canadian district of the organization, the purpose of which was to collect publicity data and the material obtained will be prepared by the publicity department of the West Texas chamber for use in the official magazine, and for release to leading papers of the State.

PRESIDIO—Presidio is one of the eight new towns which have come into the West Texas Chamber of Commerce membership since the last bi-monthly report. These towns include Juarez, Mexico; Tornillo and Fabens; Hot Springs and Las Cruces, New Mexico; Eola, Concho County; and Lakeview, Hall County.

TULIA—A new 20,000 egg capacity hatchery will be ready for operation in Tulia soon. It is estimated that daily sales of poultry products from here amount to $1,300.

BRADY—Governor and Mrs. Dan Moody have been asked to attend Brady's annual turkey trot to be held here November 11th. West Texas Chamber of Commerce officials have also been invited to participate in the event, which will be climaxed with an elaborate banquet in the evening.

HE CHEATED HIMSELF

A certain rich man who wanted to help a poor carpenter whom he had thought to be deserving, hired the carpenter to build a house on a hill side, and then went away on a long journey. The carpenter said to himself: "My boss is away and I can use shoddy materials and neglect the supporting materials for the house, because they do not show when the house is completed. The house will be weak but nobody will know it but me." So he built a ramshackle house.

When the rich man came back the carpenter had finished the structure and said to him, "Here is your house." "Thank you," said the rich man, "here is the deed and the key. I'm giving it to you."

And the carpenter grieved that he had robbed himself of a good house. We reap what we sow. We have to live in the house of life that we build. If we do shoddy work, if we "soldier" on the boss, we pinch ourselves, and shrivel up and lose our ability to distinguish between right and wrong. We have to live in such a house without character. We have to live with ourselves.

It is a tremendous fact that each of us is building today the house we must live in tomorrow. We can build a palace or a hovel, a mansion or a pig pen, but we must live in it.

Crews News

The farmers of this community, as elsewhere, are taking full advantage of the fine weather we are now having to pick cotton.

Mrs. Clark and her daughter, Bonnie Mae, were shopping in Ballinger last Friday.

Miss Erma Wilkerson, Miss Hazel Mae Grounds, and Edwin Rainwater spent the week with home folks.

Miss Velma Mathis and friend of Winters, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wood.

A party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wood Saturday night was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed by all.

There was Sunday school at both churches here Sunday morning, after which Rev. B. B. Edmaiston preached, filling his regular appointment at this place.

Mrs. Ola Miller and son, Eddie, of Sweetwater, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. W. P. King.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. White spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Phipps.

A group of young people partook of a fine dinner at the King home Sunday, after which they enjoyed a kodaking party.

Juanita Lucies spent Sunday with Irvin Phipps.

Mr. Traylor, Mr. and Mrs. Quincy Traylor, and Mr. and Mrs. Jackson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lucies.

Fire of unknown origin totally destroyed the home on the J. H.

Lewis farm Saturday night. The place was owned by Colorado people.

Dr. W. D. Sanders and wife have moved into the H. W. Lynn home which they purchased recently.

Dr. and Mrs. James H. Craig, Mrs. Hamm, and Mamie Gregory were recent visitors in Dallas, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. A. Madole. Dr. Craig attended the Chiropractors' convention, which convened in Fort Worth October 8th.

Friends will be interested in the announcement from San Antonio of the birth of a new son to Dr. and Mrs. Ray Skaggs. The tiny little fellow joined the family circle last Monday and he and his mother are getting along nicely.

Subscription Rate, the Year $1.50

YOUR AUTUMN NEEDS

Blankets, stoves, coal, warm clothing, and canned goods—these, with a host of other things, are needed with the approach of winter. Buy them carefully in order that you may secure the best at the most attractive prices. Enterprise ads will take you by the hand and lead you to this goal. The local stores have splendid stocks of fall and winter merchandise. When you trade here you are assured the highest quality at the lowest prices.

NOT NECESSARY

It does not seem necessary for the agricultural department of the federal government to forecast the probable decline in any farm product in which speculators are especially interested. We think cotton growers and cotton exchanges of the South have justification for their protest in this matter. If we cannot help both interested parties, in the language of the man who was praying for help in his fight with the bear, "do not help the bear."

HENRY'S NEW CAR

Henry Ford is reported to have set aside $15,000,000 with which to advertise his forthcoming new car the first of the year. So many merchants are of the class that they will be inclined to ask "what does a man with $15,000,000 want to sell cars for?" Henry Ford didn't have $15,000,000 until he learned how to make it by advertising the merits of his car.

DON'T OVERLOOK THEM

It is to be hoped that congress and the public generally will not become so absorbed in discussing the improvements in the conditions of the corn and stock belt of the country that they will forget the sufferers of the Mississippi floods last spring and summer. Those people in the flooded districts must have, not only temporary relief, but permanent protection against the recurrence of water disaster.

SHRINKING

Somebody has remarked that the reduced size of the dollar bill was necessary to maintain its ratio of purchasing power with the pre-war dollar. Others contend that the size has been reduced to conform to the reduced length of the ladies' skirts and men's shirts. In any event we have not heard of any bargain sales of old-style dollar bills, and they will continue to bring $12 per dozen at the government factory.

MILK FOR MEN

Prohibition has been a good thing for the American cow. It has made milk the leading refreshment for the workers of the country. It must be admitted that for a time beer was a few laps ahead, but with the breweries out of business the Jersey cocktail has come into its own. A bottle of milk graces the lunch of 80 per cent of the toilers today. Those who declare that milk is for calves are losing voice.

A DIFFICULT FEAT

There are fifty-seven $10,000 bills in circulation, according to a newspaper report. It is said they are all held and used in exchange by big banks and would be of no service to the average individual as nobody could make change for it. This sounds all very convincing, but we know quite a number of very modest people in Winters who would like to take one and see.

Now Read What 11,105* Doctors say About Lucky Strike Cigarettes Because "It's toasted"

Paul Whiteman, Noted Orchestra Leader, writes:

WHAT is the quality that Giacomo Rimini, Margaret D'Alvarez, Cesare Formichi, Armand Tokatyan, Emma Trentini, William Faversham, Florence Reed, Paul Whiteman, and other famous singers, actors, broadcasters and public speakers have found that makes LUCKY STRIKES delightful and of no possible injury to their voices?

"It was but recently, when I started to act as master of ceremonies with my band at the Paramount Theatre, that I realized how vital perfect voice condition was to a performer. I have always been a consistent smoker and, fortunately, Lucky Strikes were my favorite brand. Like their toasted flavor and, best of all, I can smoke as often as I like, without fear of irritating my voice, which is becoming a great asset in my work."

For the answer we turned to medical men and asked them this question:

Do you think from your experience with LUCKY STRIKE cigarettes that they are less irritating to sensitive or tender throats than other cigarettes, whatever the reason?

11,105* doctors answered this question "YES."

These figures represent the opinion and experience of doctors, those whose business it is to know.

"It's toasted"
No Throat Irritation—No Cough.

DOGWOOD COAL

—costs slightly more per ton, but much less per season. It is conceded to be the finest coal mined.

By turning on draft you can get a quick fire. By turning it off you can hold fire 24 hours.

With ordinary coal you must keep draft open to prevent fire going out, which wastes coal.

A DOGWOOD FIRE CAN BE REGULATED TO SUIT WEATHER CONDITIONS, materially reducing amount of coal used. Save the difference.

DOGWOOD COAL is not only economical, but you get real satisfaction in burning it. No soot, clinker or unpleasant odor. Very little smoke or ashes.

When you burn DOGWOOD COAL you eliminate damage caused your health and home from impurities in ordinary coal.

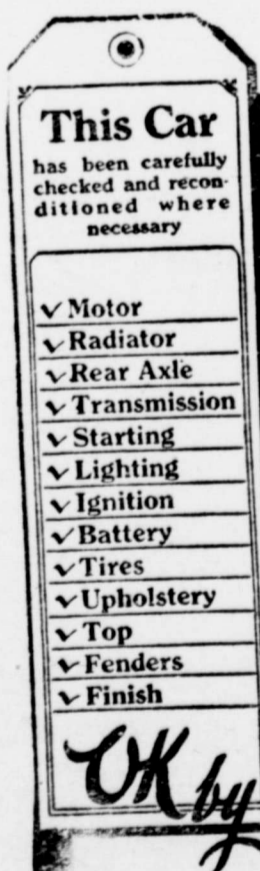

Cheap coal usually proves very expensive in the end. Dogwood is THE IDEAL HOUSEHOLD FUEL.

Norma Shearer in Great Photoplay

Do you like the glitter and tinsel of the stage?
Do you like sophistication?
Or do you prefer simplicity, dignity, philosophy of life?

"After Midnight," Norma Shearer's new starring production for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, coming to the Queen

Theatre Wednesday and Thursday, October 26 and 27, contains all the ingredients. Its a slice of life with life itself in the role of villain.

It is a smart story of two sisters, as unlike as day and night—one who despite her profession as a cigarette girl in a jazz palace, maintained dignity and decency, the other, a chorus girl who lived for today only, picked her friends at random but made the supreme sacrifice when it became necessary. Lawrence Gray and Gwen Lee are seen with Miss Shearer in

Turkey or Beans - Which?

Here are the opposing field generals in the Chevrolet Motor Company's unique "turkey-bean" contest under way during October. On the left is M. D. Douglas and on the right D. E. Ralston, assistant general sales managers, who have charge respectively of Eastern and Western United States. When sales are totaled at the end of the month, one, with all his lieutenants, will eat turkey and the other, with his aides, will eat beans.

With the more than 27,000 persons who make up the selling organization of the Chevrolet Motor Company involved, the unique "turkey-bean" contest inaugurated by this company a year ago is in full swing during the month of October.

This huge sales organization has been divided for the duration of the contest into competitive groups of which the winners will eat turkey, while the losers will sit and dine only on beans—and pay the entire dinner check.

The two major divisions of the country have been made, with an assistant general sales manager of the Chevrolet Motor Company in charge of each. D. E. Ralston has the western half of the United States, and M. D. Douglas the eastern half.

Each of these sections has been further divided. The Flint sales region has been pitted against the Atlantic Coast region, the Southeastern region against the Middle West region, and the Great Lakes region against the Pacific Coast. Every one of the 43 zone sales offices in the United States also has been squared away against another zone; cities are competing against cities, as are dealer organizations and individual salesmen.

In this manner every man in the entire selling organization and every dealer in every section of the country gets an opportunity to demonstrate the ability to outsell his competitor and win himself a turkey dinner.

Officials in the sales department of the home office have gone into the field to aid various groups. R. H. Grant, vice president in charge of sales, has gone to the Great Lakes region for one week and then will move to other regions; H. J. Klingler, general sales manager, is stationed on the Pacific Coast; Mr. Ralston is concentrating on the Middle West; Mr. Douglas on the Southeast; R. K. White, sales promotion manager, has the Atlantic Coast; and Sidney Corbett, manager of the truck division, is located in the Flint region.

Mr. Grant, in an address to dealers at the beginning of the contest, stated that Chevrolet plans to sell 71,451 cars this month. He also stated that selling conditions in October loom considerably brighter than in September.

"I am optimistic also for November and the ensuing months," Mr. Grant declared. "Last November our sales quota called for 43,000 units, whereas we sold and delivered more than 73,000 cars and trucks. What we accomplish this year in November and December will hinge to a large measure upon our October showing.

"We are facing the new year with as much confidence as we are the immediate future. I look forward to 1928 with confidence in continued leadership and continued progress for Chevrolet's record breaking success."

Colleen Moore Stops Working for Living

Colleen Moore has ceased working for a screen living—for one picture.

For two years every one of her First National pictures has shown Colleen as a telephone operator, a dancer, a clerk, a kitchen clavey, or as some other wage earner.

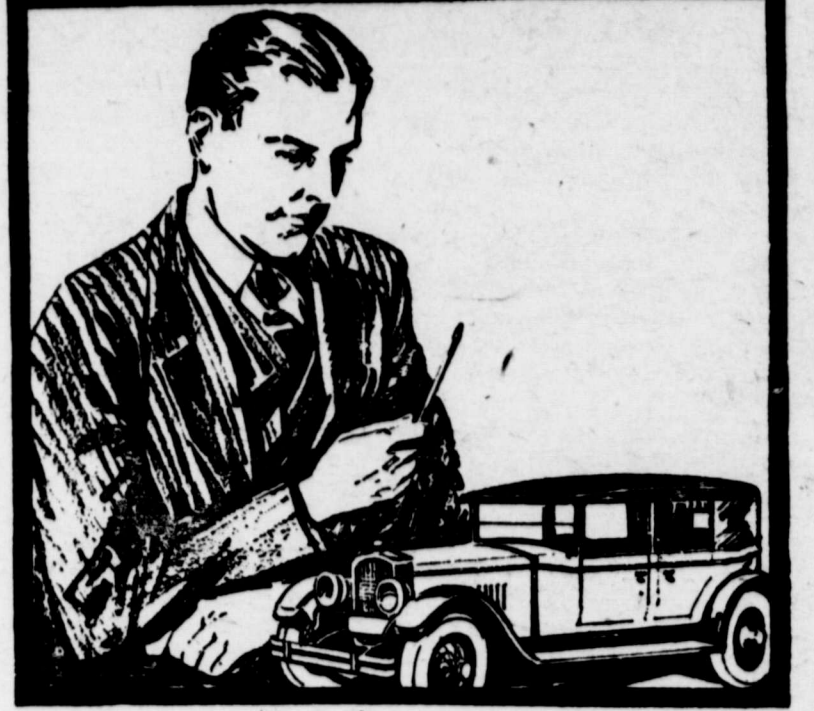

But in "Naughty But Nice" which comes to the Queen Theatre soon she will be seen as a grass green, $10,000,000 heiress from the Texas oil fields, who enrolls at a fashionable eastern finishing school.

"How best can I trade in my present car for a new car?"

WHEN you are ready to trade in your present car for a new car, you naturally want full value for your present car. But most of all you want full new car value.

It will therefore pay you to consider varying trade-in allowance offers in the light of these basic facts:

1 Your present car has only one fundamental basis of value: i.e., what the dealer who accepts it in trade can get for it in the used car market.

2 Your present car has seemingly different values because competitive dealers are bidding to sell you a new car.

3 The largest allowance offered is not necessarily the best deal for you. Sometimes it is; sometimes it is not.

4 An excessive allowance may mean that you are paying an excessive price for the new car in comparison with its real value.

5 First judge the merits of the new car in comparison with its price, including all delivery and finance charges. Then weigh any difference in allowance offered on your present car.

6 Remember that you are making a purchase—not a sale. You are buying a new car and simply using your present car as a credit against the new car's purchase price.

WE publish this message, believing that the public is entitled to have all the facts. And we invite you to send for the facts about General Motors products by using the coupon below.

Taking Some of the Kinks Out of the Football Game

Very often we hear some one say that he does not understand the rules of the game of football. To make plain the common terms used in the games, we are publishing in every day language some of the high points of the rules, not all of them, however, for they would cover two or more pages of this paper, just enough of the rules to let the fellow who does not understand the game realize what it is all about—what each team and player is trying to do when they are out on the field of play, tussling around over the ball and using up a world of energy.

We venture to state that if you will take these rules as explained, go to a game, ask a few questions, that you will come to know the game and to appreciate its finer points. It is not just a game of tussling over the ball, as you thought, but you will realize that it is a game of life, a real man's game—one that requires and develops determination to reach a goal, and that brain as well as brawn plays no small part, a game where the opponent is dealt with as a gentleman, a game that teaches honesty, fair play, and that it takes a clean man, morally and physically and mentally, to play the game and win.

Any football fan who knows the game likes to explain the reasons for this and that play, and why this play and what that touchdown is; who is carrying the ball, and who is playing at left guard; who runs interference for this halfback who crossed the last chalkmark for a touchdown, etc. If you don't know these things walk up to your friend Bill and pat him on the back, and say, "Here, old top, I don't know much about that fight out there; what's that fellow doing out there with the ball?" You will soon find out that it is not a fight, that it is a game where personal contact is the predominant activity of the game; a contest that is the climax of weeks of hard training and exercise, and the real game of all games, a game where a "man is a man for a' that." It's a game of fair play, straight thinking and cooperation on the part of eleven men to put a job over that one man could not possibly do by himself. If it teaches fairness, cooperation, cleanliness morally, physically and mentally, we ought to be for it.

Take this set of rules, carry them to the game with you and have a part in learning to get a kick out of seeing the boys in training to do the things that they will carry on thru life with them.

The field of play is called the grid-iron, on account of the cross lines that is marked out on it. These are to establish the distance in yards for the benefit of the officials.

The team in possession of the ball is referred to as the offense; the other team is the defense.

There must be seven men, at least, on the offensive line of scrimmage when the center snaps the ball back to a backfield man.

Two ends, two tackles, two guards, two halfbacks, a quarterback and a fullback make up the eleven men who compose a team.

The quarterback usually calls signals, using numbers, which possibly mean nothing to the average spectator, but to the men it tells in what direction the play is going, what kind of a play, and who will carry the ball. It may be a plunge through the line, an end run, a forward pass, a field goal (either a place kick or a drop kick). The quarterback is the field general.

The offense must advance the ball toward the goal which it is facing at least ten yards in four downs, or the ball goes over to the other team who, by coming into possession of the ball, becomes the offense and the team losing the ball becomes the defense. Usually, instead of surrendering the ball, the offense will kick the ball driving it away from their own goal. This depends upon the tactical situation, which has to do with several things—time left to play, position on the field, direction of the wind, strength of the opposing team, the score, the down, the yardage to make the necessary distance—the quarterback must take all these into consideration on every down during the game. The aim of the defense is to prevent the offense from making the necessary yardage.

A forward pass is the act of throwing the ball forward to a teammate.

A punt is the act of releasing the ball from the hands, or dropping the ball and kicking it before it reaches the ground. If it is kicked at the instant it touches the ground it is called a drop-kick; if a player holds the ball on the ground and a teammate kicks it while so held, it is called a place kick.

A touchdown is made, in the general sense, when the team in possession of the ball advances the ball across the goal line. The goal line is a line ten yards from the line that passes through the goal posts and determines the field of play. The space back of and between this line and the line passing through the goal posts is called the end zone. A touchdown counts six points in figuring the total score.

A try for point after touchdown may be made by a drop kick, a place kick, a pass, a line plunge, or an end run, according to the choice of the field general. He is not restricted to use any one of these plays and not barred from using any one. A try for point counts one point in figuring the total score.

There should be a whole winter of fire prevention weeks and then some.

Pass the pumpkin pie, please.
