

HOME TOWN

Talk

By R. C. THOMAS

As if you hadn't already noticed it: We're smack dab in the middle of August; school is only a couple of weeks away; we can expect the first bale of cotton just about any time from here on in; the maize harvest is on; people are already talking football.

It's time to get the kids ready for another year of school, and here is a thought: When you begin to outfit Junior and Sis, remember that the merchants in Winters are prepared to help you. And by buying in Winters, you help to preserve the outstanding school system of which we are all proud; their taxes go a long way in supporting the school. But if you shop out of town, you're helping to support the other town's schools.

Another thing worth remembering: If the little 'un is starting to school for the first time, he'll need a birth certificate.

In keeping with a tradition as old as the town itself, perhaps, the Chamber of Commerce is again offering a $50 cash award to the farmer bringing in the first bale of cotton.

The first meeting of the year for the Winters Boosters will be held in Pierce Cafeteria Monday evening, Aug. 15, at 8 o'clock. There'll be coffee and doughnuts. Plans will be mapped to support the athletic enterprises of the Winters Schools, such as providing funds to film all the football games, making up car pools to haul football boys who practice and can't take the bus home after school, and many others. Everyone is invited.

The Chamber of Commerce is in the middle of preparing a city directory. Much of the information being used is taken from the statistics garnered some months ago by the Lions Club in the recheck of the census. If you were missed then, or have recently moved into town, the Chamber of Commerce is asking that you contact them so the correct information can be entered in the new directory.

We've got a problem. There's a whole passel of kids in our neighborhood, toddlers to teenagers. For several days we had a houseful of nephews and nieces visiting in our house, and when we started to take them home, we just grabbed a bunch and put them in the car and drove off. Now for the past several days we've spotted a little feller who stands on the sidewalk, looking forlornly toward the front door. We're afraid to strike up a conversation with him—we may have made a mistake. The kid count has probably come out correct every night at bedtime; so there's been no squawking as yet. We'll just have to wait until the Saturday night clean-up, and after the dirt comes off we'll either be relieved or have to make a hurried trip to untangle things.

Speaking of kids, we just read that the New York World Telegram recently received a letter from an 8-year-old, who expressed the opinion: "I wish children could vote for President because the big people might elect a President who would make school 7 days a week and make ice cream 25 cents. But if the children could vote we might elect a President who would make ice cream 5 cents and school 3 days a week."

We predict that kid will go places; probably both political parties will be bidding for his membership. With ideas like that, just think what he could do with an election year platform.

Where It All Began . . .

John Kennedy's life began on May 29, 1917, in a frame house (top) on Beals St., Brookline, Mass. His father, Joseph P. Kennedy, borrowed the down payment for the $6,500 structure which today is owned by Mrs. Louis Pollack. Richard Nixon's career started in this house (bottom) on Jan. 9, 1913. The birth house is perched on a knoll above an irrigation ditch bordering a lemon grove in Yorba Linda, Calif. It was built by his father. The town bought the house as a historical site. Nixon is shown speaking at its dedication last year.

Firemen Planning To Feed Hundreds At Annual Barbecue Next Thursday

Winters Volunteer Firemen are planning to feed several hundred people at the annual Firemen's Barbecue next Thursday. The event, which grew from a small informal celebration for firemen and their families many years ago, will be held on the campus of Winters High School.

The barbecue beef and other food is being donated by friends of the Winters Fire Department. In addition to consuming several hundred pounds of barbecue beef, guests of the firemen will hear reports from the fire department on last year's activities, and probably will hear from visiting firemen and former members of the Winters Fire Department.

J. C. Jarrell, president of the Winters Volunteer Firemen, will preside and give the welcome. The Rev. Henry Flathmann, pastor of St. John's American Lutheran Church, and chaplain of the firemen's organization, will give the invocation.

Jarrell will introduce distinguished guests and Floyd Sims and Marvin Bedford, two of the oldest firemen in years of service, will introduce ex-firemen from out of town.

Mayor Harvey D. Jones will make the presentation of service awards to firemen, and a report of the year's activities will be given by Fire Chief D. Waggoner.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Winters Fire Department will be recognized for their services to the organization and the community.

Coach L. G. Wilson said the boys will check in at the school Sunday afternoon, Aug. 14, and will begin the two weeks of training on Monday morning. Equipment will be issued Monday.

For the first week of the session, returning players and boys with experience will be encamped on the stadium site. During the second week, the B team and inexperienced boys and boys up from Junior High will be in camp.

During the two weeks training period, the boys will camp at the field, and take their meals in the school cafeteria. They will be under the supervision of the coaching staff, Coach Wilson said.

Football Tickets Go On Sale Soon

All Blizzard football fans who held season reserved seats for the 1959 football season have option to purchase the same tickets again this year, but they must purchase them at the school office on August 24, 25 and 26 or they will be sold on the first come first served basis starting Monday, August 29 through September 2, 1960. Tickets will not be sold before August 29 except to those holding season tickets last year desiring the same seats.

Ticket prices as adopted by the District 7AA officials will be $1.00 for adult general admission, $.50 for student general admission and $.25 for a reserved seat if purchased prior to the games or $.50 for a reserved seat if purchased at the gate the night of the game. Season tickets will again be sold as they were last year.

These reserved seat tickets are for all home games and the 1960 home schedule will include the following games: September 9, Anson; September 16, Brady; October 7, Colorado City; November 4, Cisco; November 11, Ballinger. The district has also ruled that all games will start at 7:30 p.m.

Reserved seats for Winters fans will again be on the east side of Blizzard Stadium between the 40 yard lines. All tickets may be purchased at the school business office and it will be impossible to sell or reserve tickets by telephone. School authorities urge home fans to purchase their reserve tickets since seats may be scarce due to the Winters Band and student section again seated on the east stands.

Winters High School Blizzard Band Is "Shaping Up"

When the Winters High School Blizzard Band takes to the field for its first 1960 appearance in the public spotlight, spectators and fans will see the results of four weeks of concentrated training.

Friday the band will have completed two weeks of training during which they worked on precision marching procedures and concert playing. During the next few days before school starts September 1, the tempo of the training will be stepped up until the many individual members of the band will act on cue as one precision unit.

With many new faces in the high school band lineup, Band Director Robert Gans says the group is "shaping up." At present there are 49 members of the band in training, but this number will be increased to 61 by the time school starts. Eleven members are seniors, with 17 freshmen making their first appearance with the high school unit. Sophomores and juniors fill the rest of the spots.

The 17 freshman members of the band are not exactly newcomers to the school music world, however. Gans says these young musicians have played in the Junior High band.

The Winters band will make its first appearance during the football game with Lakeview Saturday, Sept. 3, at Lakeview. Their first performance for home crowds will be at the game with Anson Friday evening, Sept. 9, at Blizzard field.

The band is training four days each week until school starts: Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday.

The city directory should be completed within the next few days, Libbe said this week.

1960 Maize Harvest At Full Tilt Here

Harvest of the 1960 maize crop, which had begun to gain momentum during the hot weather of the past few days, was slowed somewhat by the light showers received in this area late Tuesday afternoon and evening. The immediate Winters area received about .10 inch of rain, with other sectors of North Runnels County reporting varying amounts. No great rainfall was noted, however.

To Wednesday morning, J. C. Jarrell, agent for the Abilene Southern Railroad, reported 74 cars of maize had been shipped. A big lot of the grain is being shipped out by truck. It has been estimated that about 85 carloads of maize have been shipped out, by truck and railroad.

At the beginning of the season, some predictions had set production figures as high as last year's record crop. Harvest is earlier this year than last. On August 28, 1959, only 13 carloads had been shipped from the Winters siding.

Roger Babson Says

Population Growth More and More A Big Factor In the Business World

Babson Park, Mass. One of the reasons given for anticipating the prosperity of the "Golden Sixties" is the constantly increasing population, both in this country and in the world as a whole. It is true that investors must recognize population as a factor in stock prices; but it is only one of many factors.

Teenagers

Considering the United States alone, the age factor is now a vital force in manufacturing, business, college enrollments, investments, and other considerations. Many of today's young people will become voters for the first time this year, and may be a factor in the November elections. The high birth rate of World War II is now showing up in the large number of teenagers reaching college and employment age. For a while, those dealing in baby foods, clothing for youngsters, etc., profited greatly; more recently, teenagers have been a source of good business for retailers (and of headaches to many parents!).

Now, these young people are about to be thrown on their own, to make good either in college or in the competitive business world. This is something which should be recognized by employers, parents, and by the young people themselves. Just now there is a shortage of workers in many lines of industry—especially of office employees. After the summer vacation is over, there should be a letup in the demand for such jobs, and the shortage of workers might develop into a surplus during the next year or two.

Growth in Foreign Population

In China, with its population of over 600 million, 1,200,000 babies are born every week. The same is true proportionately of India and Pakistan, with their combined population of about 500,000,000. It is true that measures are being taken to limit the birth rate. On the other hand, new means of sanitary living, free medical supplies and proper nutrition are causing fewer babies to die. Hence, I see no prospect at the moment of a limit to the net growth of these nations.

The Malthusian Theory advanced in 1798 contended that the world will some day run out of arable land to feed the expanded population. Although the land surface from which to feed people is limited, (and far surpassed by the area of lakes, marshes and oceans), yet the growing shortage of water required to sustain life and industrial activity may be even more serious.

Two Sides of the Coin

Increase in population cannot be taken, at face value, as an optimistic factor for the future. In order to translate people into producers and customers, we must have a social and moral environment which will generate initiative and ambition. Only as the proper environment, income, and demand rise along with the growth in population do the greater numbers of people assure prosperity. On the other hand, if initiative is stifled by unfair taxes or government "giveaway" social practices or poor health, then capital formation, employment, incomes, and consumption will lag the rise in population. In that event, the growth trend in population, now considered to be bullish for the future, may work as a depressing influence.

A Word to Parents

What does the above mean to parents of growing children today? It means that parents of all nations must devote attention to helping their children prepare for their future. Not only does this mean providing them with "book learning," but also taking care that they acquire the fundamental habits of perseverance, industry, and thrift.

In addition, parents must also see to it that their children develop good character, good health, and a sane faith. These three things, more than anything else, will enable children to deal successfully with the problems of their future. In short, if their children possess character, health, and a sane faith they will be rich. Otherwise, they will be poor.

Dove Studies Make Possible Longer Season

The dove population of the central management area, which includes Texas, has increased 14 percent this year, according to estimates of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service. Since 1953 there has been a 69 percent increase.

These figures were given to Harold Dodgen, executive secretary of the Game and Fish Commission, as one of the reasons this year's dove season was extended to 60 days and the possession limit increased to 30, or the daily bag limit of 15.

For many years there were only two management areas considered in the national survey—eastern and western. The dove banding program and call counts made by biologists, however, have indicated the central management area, where the heavy population increase has been noted.

According to the department figures, 95 percent of the unit's hunting kill is produced within the area. Thus the major portion of the doves killed in Texas were hatched in the central unit.

Texas biologists and game wardens for a number of years carried out a banding program and call counts, to assist in the overall program.

Coming Attractions at Local Theatres

"The Mummy"
 "The Mummy," a classic new dimension in frightful excitement, filmed in Technicolor, and starring Peter Cushing, Christopher Lee and Yvonne Furneaux, has been set to open Saturday only on the Screen of the State Theatre.

Terence Fisher, noted for his macabre-filled and entertaining direction of such slick monster-movie masterpieces as the recent "The Curse of Frankenstein" and "Horror of Dracula," has done it again with "The Mummy."

The new production reveals the blood-chilling drama of a mummified giant, embalmed for 4,000 years, who walks the earth again to destroy the despoilers of an Egyptian princess' sacred tomb.

Christopher Lee, acclaimed not long ago for his triumph of terror in the role of the repulsive monster in "The Curse of Frankenstein," and later as the fiendish "Dracula," is the terrifying and indestructible grey-wrapped monster who rises out of the slimy bogs of England's countryside for the Pharaoh's killing revenge.

"The Mummy" is a Hammer Film Production, and is released by Universal-International Pictures.

"Because They're Young"
 Dick Clark, idol of the teenagers, reportedly makes a happy motion picture debut in "Because They're Young," a drama of youth growing up, opening Sunday only at the State Theatre. A Drexel Production for Columbia release, "Because They're Young" also stars Michael Callan, Tuesday Weld and Victoria Shaw, features Warren Berlinger and Roberta Shore and presents, as guest stars, James Darren and Duane Eddy and the Rebels.

Clark plays a high school teacher in "Because They're Young," an educator who tries to be a friend to his growing charges. According to Hollywood, it is the kind of role he plays outside of the film world where, on radio and TV, he speaks to and for teenagers. Advance audiences, delighted by the sincerity, warmth and honesty of "Because They're Young," predict a tremendous new career for the star.

"Because They're Young" is said to be more than a cross section of our high school population; it also is an entertaining and dramatic study of their backgrounds, and the problems they bring to—and take from—school. It is a film of youth, to be seen by everyone.

Rapidly-rising Michael Callan, who made his bow in "They Came to Cordura," plays a transferee who comes to Clark's school ready to fight the world; Miss Weld, a girl whose experience goes far beyond her years. Victoria Shaw appears as Clark's romantic interest, secretary to the high school principal; she gets to kiss Clark in a sequence which had yesterday's teen audiences happily absorbed. In a guest star appearance, James Darren sings the title song, "Because They're Young." Popular recording stars, Duane Eddy and the Rebels, furnish the musical highlights in the picture.

The James Gunn screenplay based on a novel by John Farris. Paul Wendkos directed the Columbia release for producer Jerry Bresler.

"Tall Story"
 "Tall Story," a gay comedy combining laughs with romance, and starring Anthony Perkins and Jane Fonda, opens Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the Fiesta Drive-In Theatre. Ray Walston, Marc Connelly, Anne Jackson and Murray Hamilton co-star in famed producer-director Joshua Logan's first Mansfield production for Warner Bros.

The screenplay by former Academy Award winner Julius J. Epstein was adapted from the Broadway play by Howard Lindsay and Russel Crouse, authors of "Life with Father" and "State of the Union."

The comedy is about a series of crises at a West Coast college when a matrimonially-minded girl enrolls there. Being a tall girl, she selects a college, noted for its outstanding basketball teams, as the logical place to snare a tall husband. There are amusing complications when she wages a persistent campaign to entrap the studious star of the team, even using the unwitting aid of two professors.

Superior treatment of the entertaining story is assured by the fact that Joshua Logan was in charge of operations. He has one of the most distinguished records ever attained in the dual media of stage and screen. His stage hits include "South Pacific," "Mister Roberts," "Picnic" and "Middle of the Night." In motion pictures he has directed "South Pacific," "Sayonara," "Bus Stop," and "Picnic."

Anthony Perkins is cast as Ray Blent, the basketball player who unerringly shoots field goals by the application of a scientific principle. The versatile young man

Roger Moore and Carroll Baker star in Warner Bros. production of the famous spectacle, "The Mummy," due Sunday at the Fiesta Drive-In Theatre. Filmed in Technirama and Technicolor, picture also stars Walter Slezak, Katina Paxinou and Vittorio Gassman.

Jane Fonda, making film debut, and Anthony Perkins star in Joshua Logan's "Tall Story," a Mansfield Production for Warner Bros. The film version of the bright Broadway comedy also stars Ray Walston, Marc Connelly, Anne Jackson and Murray Hamilton.

was an Academy Award nominee for "Friendly Persuasion."

Jane Fonda, the talented daughter of Henry Fonda, debuts as June Ryder, the coed who makes Ray girl-conscious. Her refreshing beauty has made Jane one of New York's most popular models. In a two months' period she graced the covers of four leading national magazines and was modeling when Logan tested her for motion pictures. The test was so exciting that he immediately placed her under a five picture contract.

Ray Walston, a gentleman with a rare talent for comedy, is cast as Leo Sullivan, the highly ethical professor of modern ethical theory. Twice he won best actor awards on the stage for "Damn Yankees" and "Summer and Smoke." In films he has starred in "Damn Yankees," "South Pacific" and "Say One for Me."

Marc Connelly, one of the greats of the Broadway Theatre as a playwright, producer and director is performing with distinction the science professor, Osman, a role he previously did in the play. Connelly is a Pulitzer Prize-winner for his play, "The Green Pastures."

Anne Jackson, one of Broadway's finest actresses, is now also winning recognition in Hollywood with her amusing portrayal of Myra, wife of Professor Sullivan. Murray Hamilton, so impressive as James Stewart's buddy in "The FBI Story," is cast as the basketball coach, Sandy Hardy.

The campus of beautiful Occidental College in Eagle Rock, California, serves as the campus for the mythical Custer College of the motion picture.

"The Miracle"
 "The Miracle," the famous international spectacle coming to the Fiesta Drive-In Theatre, has been given full screen life by Warner Bros. in a production as colorful, as exciting and as provocative as any in motion picture history.

Its spectacle dimensions have been broadened, its international flavor emphasized and its touching religious aspects faithfully preserved in the Technirama and Technicolor presentation.

From the time of its first performance as a Max Reinhardt stage production in 1911 until its present motion picture form, "The Miracle" has been played for millions of people throughout the world. With the global audiences anticipated for the Warner production, it is not unlikely that the show will become the most-seen of all time.

For "The Miracle" Warner Bros. has assembled an impressive cast of gifted performers, beginning with Carroll Baker as the gypsy girl who flees a village convent to seek worldly love, excitement and fame.

Roger Moore plays the romantic lead of Captain Stuart, a British grenadier whose attachment for Miss Baker first prompts her to abandon the convent. Walter Slezak, the Viennese actor, plays the puckish guitar-strumming Flaco.

From Rome came Vittorio Gassman, the colorful Italian star who makes his first American appearance in more than three years as Miss Baker's Gypsy lover. Another famous returning star in "The Miracle" is Katina Paxinou, the fiery Grecian who won an Academy Award for her supporting performance in "For Whom the Bell Tolls." Her present role is the first Hollywood undertaking for Miss Paxinou in 10 years. In "The Miracle" she plays the gutturing gypsy mother in a performance calculated to win acclaim and awards.

Dennis King, stage and sometime film star of long duration, appears as the Spanish count in the turbulent worldly career of Miss Baker. A notable American film debut is made by Gustavo Rojo, the handsome young star of Spanish films. He plays the gypsy's bullfighting lover.

A tired friend who has vacationed at every seaside and mountain resort in the land says his list of places not to go is as long as his arm.

Committee To Seek Junior High School Water Problem Solution In County Coach Resigned

Runnels Countians still are searching for ways and means to meet the demand for water in the county, control flood waters and prevent streams in the area from becoming polluted beyond use. At a meeting of several groups in Ballinger Monday afternoon in the courthouse, County Judge W. H. Rumpy was authorized to appoint a five-man committee to draft a letter to congressmen citing water and flood control needs of the county. The committee will be named at a later date, Rumpy said.

Present at Monday's meeting were mayors and representatives of the various Runnels County towns, the commissioners court, county agent, Soil Conservation Service and District, and members of the Runnels County Water Improvement District. Also present was a representative of the Upper Colorado River Authority. Representing the City of Winters were Mayor Harvey D. Jones and Councilmen Barney Bryant and J. F. Richie.

Judge Rumpy told the group he had received a response from an inquiry to the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers in regard to procedure to follow in securing of flood control projects such as desired on the Colorado River by several of the groups represented at the meeting. He said that the engineers are presently engaged in investigation on the Colorado River in Runnels County. Crews are working on a general survey of the area.

C. T. Parker, county agent, spoke on the county's water pollution problems. "Name a n creek in the county, it is happening," he told the group.

Winters Vo-Ag Teachers At State Meeting

Lon McDonald and Leland Robinson, teachers of Vocational Agriculture in the Winters High School are attending the state conference of vocational agriculture teachers to be held in Corpus Christi August 9-12, 1960. The annual conference is designed to help teachers keep pace with the fast-changing agriculture of the state. Workshops, lectures and panels will discuss subjects of wide variation but each designed to equip participants for improved instruction in 1960-61.

In addition to educational features of the four-day conference, teachers will participate in several meetings of the Vocational Agriculture Teachers Association. Activities of the group will include an evening of entertainment on August 9, an Awards Breakfast on August 10, and an annual membership meeting following the breakfast. New officers will be elected and newly elected members of the board of directors will be installed.

Dr. Scotty Young of General Motors will be principal speaker for the first general session Tuesday, according to George Hurt of Texas Education Agency, who is in charge of educational features of the four day program. Many additional meetings will be held in smaller groups divided by districts, areas and subject matter preference.

Tom Anderson, dynamic publisher of Farm and Ranch Magazine, will be the main speaker at the business session of the Association on Wednesday.

More than eleven hundred teachers and friends are expected at the meeting.

Hot Weather Brings Danger Of Dog Days

Beware of the dog days, is the warning of the director of law enforcement of the Game and Fish Commission. The hottest part of August, the so-called dog days, is on now.

"If you go into the woods or where snakes are likely to be found, be very careful," the director warned. "During these dog days snakes will strike at most anything without warning. Also be careful in handling animals, as there probably will be an increase in the rabies incidence."

Although wardens over the State report catfishing to be fairly good, few good catches of bass are reported. Most of the good fish taken are from deep water, where they move to escape the dog day heat. There also has been a heavy draw-down on most of the lakes, particularly where water is released for irrigation purposes along the coast.

"We need a good rain to fill all the lakes again," the director said. "There have been some fair rains on the range but the run-off hasn't been sufficient to keep lakes and streams filled."

Experts Tell How To Catch Whopper Bass

If you've wondered where and how to catch bass you'll want to read the August issue of TEXAS GAME AND FISH magazine, which now is in the mails.

"How and Where to Catch Bass," is the title of the article, from the typewriters of 17 Texas outdoors writers. Each one tells how he fishes for bass in some Texas lake.

They tell what lures they use, their approach and the method of landing them.

These outdoors editors handle many stories daily about catches on these lakes, which include the principal impoundments of Texas. They also do a little fishing on their own.

Personal Encounter With God is the subject for next Sunday's Sunday School Lesson.—Illustration: "Walt Whitman tells how one night he was listening to an astronomer lecture on the stars. The hall was stuffy, the lecture was dull, and the charts and diagrams were unilluminating. Finally Whitman could bear it no longer. He rose, walked out into the night, and looked at the stars themselves.

We will never know God fully by staying inside and studying the charts and diagrams of religion. We must come forth, look up and behold Him with our own eyes. Nothing can take the place of a personal encounter with God."

Governor Advised On Amount Needed By Texas' Older, Retired Citizens

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

How much income does an older person need to live decently during the retirement years?

Governor's Statewide Advisory Committee on Aging sought to discover this and other information in a survey on the needs and problems of Texas' older citizens.

For a couple, 43 percent of Texas counties estimated the minimum need at $1,500 to $2,000 a year. Thirty-five percent set the minimum at $2,000 to $2,500.

For a single elderly person, 58 percent of the counties suggested $1,000 to $1,500 as a minimum annual income. Twenty-four percent named a higher figure, $1,500 to $2,000.

Some 4,000 persons took part in the grass-roots, county-by-county survey. Recommendations growing out of their findings will be discussed at a conference in Austin on September 7 and 8. Out of this will come the Texas contribution to the White House Conference on Aging next January.

SURPRISE

Amid all the upped budget requests they have received lately, state officials were happily stunned when University of Texas officials asked approval to spend a comparatively picaresque sum for a president's home.

UT asked to spend $40,000 to build a home for its president Harry H. Ransom.

Last year legislative tempers blew over the $100,000-plus presidents' homes built by two smaller state colleges. Officials responsible for the expenditures were called on the carpet.

This time the scene was played in reverse. "Do you really think this will be enough?" worried the Legislative Budget Board. Plenty, said UT officials.

They said they'll use a site the University already owns, clear it with University equipment and cut material costs by using "historic" bricks from UT buildings that have been torn down.

DRIVER CURBS STUDIED

Ways to clip the wings of irresponsible drivers who carry no insurance are being studied by a committee of the Texas Legislative Council.

Spokesmen for the casualty insurance industry told the panel they were opposed to a compulsory insurance law. They suggested that pressure could be exerted by such measures as requiring uninsured drivers involved in accidents to put up a money deposit, revoking licenses, impounding cars, etc.

Committee also heard Department of Public Safety Director Homer Garrison Jr. urge a system of traffic courts for Texas. County courts are completely bogged down by the appeals from traffic cases, said Garrison.

HIGHWAY LEASE PROSPECTS DIM

Chances of the state's earning money by leasing mineral rights along state roadways are not encouraging, a Legislative committee found.

Committee learned from a national survey that only two oil and gas producing states get income from leasing along highway rights of way. One reported earnings of less than $100; one of $5,763.

An Attorney General's opinion recently held that the state owned mineral rights along the roadways.

But State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer reported there's not much demand for highway leases.

SCHOOL "HOSPITALITY" HIT

Texas School for the Deaf has been serving free meals under circumstances not authorized by law, reported State Auditor C. H. Cavness.

During the past two years, said Cavness, the school has served 3,525 free meals. Most were for pre-school-age deaf and blind children and their parents here for special summer courses for parents.

School is authorized by the State Board of Education to hold the summer courses, Cavness observed, but it is not directed either by law or the board to serve free meals to participants.

Cavness' audit showed the school has an average of 503 pupils at a cost of $192 a month per pupil.

CREDIT CARD LIQUOR SALES

Diners Club, Inc. won a court order allowing it to continue—at least temporarily—collecting for package liquor store purchases made with a credit card.

An Austin district court granted a temporary injunction halting enforcement of the Texas Liquor Control Board order prohibiting such sales.

Liquor Board contends that by becoming the collection agent for liquor store purchases, the Diners Club is, in effect, selling liquor without a license.

Diners Club says it simply buys up the accounts of its card holders from the liquor dealers and takes responsibility for collecting. Club has contracts with package stores in nine Texas cities.

SHORT SNORTS

Texas Highway Commission has announced a policy of using only materials manufactured in the United States for construction of roads and bridges in the state's highway system. Policy is to be re-considered if shortages or sharp price increases develop in U. S.-made materials. . . . Texas ranks well below most states in the percentage of personal income paid in state taxes. Governor's State Finance Advisory Commission found that Texans pay 3.9 per cent of their per capita income in taxes, compared to a national average of 4.2 per cent. . . . Employment in Texas hit an all-time high during June, with wage earners totaling 3,522,800. This was an increase of 45,720 from May, according to the Texas Employment Commission. . . . State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert has requested that his office be given a two-year appropriation of $7,915,386. Present appropriation is for $5,739,683. Calvert also said his department was operating in inadequate quarters scattered over three buildings and asked that the Legislature consider a state building for the department. . . . Texas farmers received $2,300,000,000 for their products last year, reports the U. S. Department of Agriculture. This was a four per cent drop from 1958. Top money-maker was cotton, with sales totaling $738,000,000. . . . Forty-two tracts of lands forfeited under the Veterans' Land Program will be offered for sale to other veterans September 29. Land Commissioner Bill Allcorn said the tracts total 2,957 acres in 11 counties. Veterans wanting to file sealed bids can get descriptions of the tracts by writing the Land Office.

Certificates Of Birth Needed For School Children

W. D. Carroll, state registrar, whose vital statistics staff at the Texas State Department of Health is responsible for handling the flood of requests for birth certificates for children entering school for the first time this September.

Carroll's problem is this: There is a tendency among parents to put off requesting copies of their youngsters' birth records until the last moment. When too many parents delay in this manner, the results are obvious: a work overload.

The condition does not result from any lack of effort on the part of Carroll's staff. "Our limited Vital Statistics Division staff—despite long hours of night and week-end work—can process just so many requests before school begins," he explains.

More than 262,000 children are expected to enter elementary schools of Texas for the first time this fall. The estimate is based on calculations made by the Texas Education Agency.

A good many parents—some of whom may have waited too long in past years—have already requested and received birth records on this year's new scholars, but tens of thousands of additional records will have to be processed between now and the time that first school bell rings in September.

More than one youngster has been forced to postpone his first days at school simply because his parents couldn't produce proof of his age when it came time to register him.

Carroll's advice to parents: "Send in your request today to the local registrar, county clerk, or the State Department of Health."

All you have to do is give the child's name, date and place of birth, the mother's maiden name, and the name of the father. This information, with the legal fee of one dollar, should be addressed to your local registrar, the county clerk, or to the State Department of Health, Section on Records and Statistics, 410 East 5th Street, Austin, Texas.

Something else: Be prepared to show school officials a record of "shots" your youngster has had. Depending on local school board regulations, proof of immunizations against smallpox, whooping cough, diphtheria, and other diseases may be required.

Mr. and Mrs. James Walker Allen of Wingate Celebrate 50th Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. James Walker Allen, with relatives and close friends observed their 50th wedding anniversary in their home at Wingate, Sunday afternoon, August 7, 1960.

Their children, Mrs. Harvie Riley, Irving; Mrs. Snookie Sunderman, Cleburne; Mrs. Ruby Bryan and Cloy Allen, Wingate were present for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Allen have eight grandchildren, seven step-grandchildren, four great grandchildren and 15 great step grandchildren.

Mrs. Allen is the former Lula May Devore. She was born March 12, 1894 in Alabama, moving to Texas with her parents as a child, settling on Valley Creek south of Wingate. She and Mr. Allen were married August 7, 1910 by N. L. Clark in the home now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Doggett of Wingate. Two of her six sisters are Mrs. Lawrence Bryan of Winters and Mrs. Finis Bryan of Star Route, Ovalo. Mrs. Allen worked as a clerk in the Wingate

Post Office from 1943 until her disability retirement in 1956.

Mr. Allen was born some six miles northwest of Wingate October 10, 1890, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Allen, who resided in the Wingate area until their death. He has the distinction of having served twice as postmaster and rural letter carrier of the Wingate Post Office, presently serving his patrons as rural carrier of route one and two. He owned and operated a service station in Wingate from 1921 until 1930.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Allen are charter members of the Wingate Church of Christ on highway 53. He has served as a minister in the local church for the past 44 years and has conducted many meetings for churches elsewhere, having never missed attending the Sunday church services since obeying the Gospel.

Home Town Talk—

(Continued from page 1) er asked him what made him decide to follow this high calling. "Well," explained the lad, "I'll have to go to church on Sunday anyhow, so I think it would be more fun to stand up there and yell than to sit still and listen to it!"

We also just read that some sociologist has predicted that if the population of the world continues to grow at the rate it has since World War II, it will reach 50-billion in 200 more years. In 800 years, there will be one person for every square foot of land.

With that in mind, somebody had better start thinking about more compact people. We pity the poor soul whose parcel of land happens to fall in the middle of a freeway.
