Press To Back Presidential Action In Cuba

By O. C. Fisher

The Wool Act, which in another year, was considered by the Agriculture Committee of the House this past week, is the subject of a resolution introduced by Representative Metcalfe of San Francisco, and sponsored by Representative Kerrville of Texas. The resolution is intended to testify in support of the President's policy of non-recognition of the Cuban government. I also testified, as did other Congress-ed some 50,000 Cubans, including a hundred Catholic priests, known to be anti-communist. President Kennedy's firm policy announcement remains to be translated into action. Just what form it will take remains to be seen, as the immediate future unfolds. Around Congress there appears to be a solid front of support for any firm and positive action the President may choose to pursue, designed to protect us and the Western Hemisphere against the Communist beachhead now well established in the Kremlin's most recent satellite — Cuba. Certainly the security of the United States is involved in the Russian penetration into the island that lies only 90 miles off our shores.

Texas May Divide Retirement System

Texas has been added to the list of states who may divide their retirement systems for social security purposes. This applies to employees of the state and local government including school districts. The change was made by the 1960 amendments to the Social Security Act, according to Floyd B. Ellington, manager of the San Angelo social security office.

It is now possible for a local government unit whose employees are under a retirement system to enter into an agreement to cover for social security benefits only those employees who want to be covered.

This change is especially important to Texas school districts. Mr. Ellington pointed out. School boards can now take action to give social security coverage to those teachers desiring coverage without including those who do not want it.

Local governmental bodies entering into a coverage agreement this year may set as the effective date of coverage any date as early as January 1, 1956 or later. If a retroactive date is elected, the retroactive taxes, of course, have to be paid, Ellington said.

The State Department of Public Welfare, Austin, negotiates agreements for coverage of local governmental employees in Texas. Requests for information and forms should be directed to John H. Winters, Commissioner, State Department of Public Welfare, Tribune Building, Austin.

House Members Astonish Observers By Voting Sales Tax for First Time

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

House members astonished many observers by giving, for the first time in recent memory, a favorable vote to a general sales tax.

A 2 percent retail sales tax by Rep. Charles N. Wilson of Trinity was approved 75-to-65, on second reading and 76 - to - 62 on final passage. It is now in the hands of the Senate.

Food, feed, farm machinery, seed, fertilizer, medicine and medical needs are exempt from the bill. Its tax yield is variously estimated at from $127,000,000 to $140,000,000 a year.

Before the bill was given preliminary passage, Wilson staved off efforts of sales tax opponents to put on amendments to make the bill also include a corporation income tax, graduated income tax and graduated oil revenue tax.

Governor Daniel announced his opposition to the Wilson bill before it came up on the House floor. After the House vote, the governor refused to say whether he would veto the measure if it should be finally passed by both Houses.

NEW TEACHER PAY APPROACH

A teacher pay raise plan designed to offer more incentive for heads of families and career teachers has been proposed by Rep. Jack Woods of Waco.

Woods' bill would provide a lower raise in the basic minimum than is recommended by the Texas State Teachers Association, but it would offer higher increments (increases for experience) than TSTA asks.

Woods' bill would provide an across-the-board raise of only $234 a year compared to TSTA's $810. But under the Woods bill, a teacher with 10 years' experience would make $4,950 a year compared to $4,554 under the TSTA schedule. Woods bill would also make special provision for teachers, either men or women, responsible for the support of a household.

UH BILL STIRS FUSS

A bill to make the University of Houston part of the state-supported college system easily won its first vote on the floor of the House.

But in the Senate determined opponents filibustered to prevent the bill's coming to a vote.

House vote was 84-to-34 for the bill. In the Senate, Sen. Wardlaw Lane of Center spearheaded the opposition with extended remarks. He protested the state could not take on another $10,000,000 a year for the University of Houston when the state treasury already had a deficit.

Lane was assisted by Sen. Hubert Hudson of Brownsville who declared the state should improve the quality of existing state colleges before taking on any more. To help fill up time, Hudson recited recipes from a French cookbook.

BREWERY BILL VOTED

Senate finally passed a bill that would make it easier for the Carling Brewery to build a new $20,000,000 plant in Tarrant County.

Highly controversial, the bill has brought a pitched battle between "wet" and "dry" forces. All Tarrant County House members voted for the bill, but Fort Worth's senator, Doyle Willis, led the opposition.

Willis had little active help in the Senate, but after the bill was approved on second reading by voice vote, 14 of the 29 senators present asked to be recorded in the Senate Journal as voting "no." Final approval was by a slim 13-to-11 margin.

Bill would allow the brewery to continue to operate even in the area in which it is located should vote dry.

FREIGHT RATE BILL TUMBLES

In an about-face, the House turned down on third reading the freight bill it had approved on second reading.

Proposal would have allowed uncontested changes in freight rates to go into effect without hearing and approval of the Railroad Commission.

It passed by a narrow margin on second reading but was voted down, 71-to-65, on the vote for final passage. In general, railroads favored the bill, and truckers did not.

RACING MEASURE STILL

Rep. V. E. (Red) Berry's last-ditch effort to get the horse racing issue before the people survived opponents' efforts to kill it.

Berry's proposal for a constitutional amendment to legalize horse racing and parimutuel betting lost out earlier in the session. He is now trying for a referendum to let the people express their opinion on racing at the next general election.

Rep. Bill Heatly of Paducah moved the proposal be sent back to committee where, it was assumed, it would die. Heatly's motion for interment lost, 68-to-58.

SENATORS FLY LOAN BILL

Finding a generally acceptable plan for regulating small loan companies is proving fully as troublesome as many predicted.

Several senators were sharply critical of the House-passed loan regulation bill when it came up for hearing before the State Affairs Committee.

Proposed measure provides for interest rates ranging from nearly 40 percent for the smallest loans down to 11 percent for loans of $3,000 or more. Banks, building and loan associations and credit unions would not be under the law.

Sen. Hubert Hudson of Brownsville accused the Statewide Committee to Eliminate the Loan Shark Evil headed by Ab McCall president of Baylor University, of having misled the public. Senator Charles Herring of Austin predicted that legalizing 40 percent interest would cause the people to "come down here and scalp us."

TWO CHANGES NIXED

Two proposed changes for the handling of criminal cases were voted down by the House.

One, sponsored by Reps. O. H. Schram of Taylor and James E. Barlow of San Antonio, would have allowed jurors in non-capital criminal cases to go home overnight. More people would be willing to serve on juries, said the authors, if they didn't have to be locked up during the trial. Opponents successfully argued that jurors turned loose overnight might be exposed to influences that would prejudice their decision.

Other proposals, also by Barlow, would allow defendants to by-pass indictment by pleading guilty. It would save offenders' having to sit in jail awaiting indictment when they're planning to plead guilty anyway, said Barlow. Opponents protested tinkering with "due process of law," and said it might encourage guilty pleas by persons who have a good defense.

AUTOMATIC REDISTRICTING

A proposed constitutional amendment to provide for automatic congressional redistricting passed the House, 106-to-39.

Rep. Howard Green of Fort Worth is sponsor of the measure which would have to be approved by the people before becoming effective.

In this decade, it would not take effect until 1963. If, however, the legislature failed to reapportion congressional representation in the session that year, the job would be taken over by a redistricting board. Making up the board would be the governor, lieutenant governor, speaker of the House, attorney general and land commissioner.

A similar measure was passed in the 1950's for legislative redistricting.

OIL ALLOWABLE DWINDES
Texas oil production for May will fall back to the all-time low of eight producing days.

Texas Railroad Commission fixed the production pattern which will cut back the daily allowable to 2,636,562 barrels. This is a drop of 233,794 barrels a day from April when nine producing days were ordered.

BLUE LAWS STUDIED

Revision of Texas' blue laws, on the books but ignored for nearly a century, is being studied by the House Committee on Municipal and Private Corporations.

Most cities make no effort to enforce the laws providing fines for both employees and owners of businesses staying open on Sunday. A bill before the committee would allow cities of 800,000 and over to set up their own Sunday practices. Houston Mayor Cutrer suggested it should be applied to all cities.

Most witnesses said they all favored blue laws. Some, they said, interfere with family and community life.

Harvey E. Little Reports On Adenauer Visit

(Ed. note: The following first-hand report of the visit to Texas by West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer was written especially for The Enterprise by Harvey Edward Little, senior journalism student at the University of Texas, who was one of the university press' special correspondents covering the visit.)

By HARVEY EDWARD LITTLE

The old man with the wrinkled face stepped to the podium before an expectant legislature. He spoke with a soft, but clear, strong voice.

Even though he spoke in a language foreign to most of his listeners, Konrad Adenauer captured the attention of the Texas legislature for eight minutes Monday and was interrupted by applause.

The West German chancellor told the Legislature that he was grateful to John Kennedy and Lyndon Johnson for the strong words which had been spoken, words which "will be heard to the borders of Berlin and beyond."

Adenauer, replying to a statement by Johnson that the U. S. stands beside Germany where the Federal Republic stands against Communism, said that "Germany stands beside the U. S. against the Reds."

Adenauer's visit to Texas was marked by color and gaiety.

When the Chancellor arrived with the Vice President from Washington in a Boeing 707 jet owned by Lufthansa, the German airline, he was greeted by military bands and flags.

From the airport, the two were lifted by helicopter to Stonewall, Texas, where they attended church services at St. Francis Xavier Church.

The barbecue Sunday afternoon at Johnson's LBJ ranch had all the flavor of old times.

The affair was held on the tree covered lawn which runs down to the Pedernales river in front of the Johnson home. Red and white speckled cloths covered the long tables, and the head table was on a platform covered with a top, and bunting.

German and American flags lined the driveways.

Fredericksburg, where a public reception for the Chancellor was held, was "just like a family reunion," as the 85-year-old statesman expressed it.

It was reminiscent of an old time political rally. The outdoor stage, decorated with bunting and covered by circus tenting, sat in front of a packed grandstand, which held 3500 people. The platform was set up on the baseball field of a county fair grounds.

The high school band played the national anthem, and then the Eyes of Texas. A mayor and a former mayor read welcomes, one in English, and the other in German. School children sang German songs and danced, and a men's choir sang. Then a high school age group from St. Mary's at Fredericksburg sang the Halle-lujah Chorus.

The day was finished at the Johnson home with a private dinner.

More modern was the next day's activities, as the Chancellor arrived in Austin at 11:00. He was ferried up Congress avenue, through an estimated 100,000 people, to the capitol. The parade was composed of military units and high school bands.

Following this he spoke to the Legislature in the capitol. Above his head, the Texas and American flags were crossed as usual, but the flags were also in front of him, to his right, the stars and stripes, and to his left, the red, black and gold tri-color of West Germany.

Before he took off for Germany Monday afternoon, Adenauer lunched with the governor and his wife.

Perhaps his most interesting comment of the trip came in a news conference Monday morning. Asked to comment on the Russian man into space, the Chancellor shrugged and said, "Well, he filled the pages of the newspapers."

FB Directors Meet In Regular Session Thursday, Apr. 21

Directors of the Runnels County Farm Bureau held the regular monthly meeting Thursday in the Ballinger office and 54 persons heard M. L. Dobbins, president of the county organization, give his report of the meeting of all county presidents, called by J. Harold West, president of the Texas Farm Bureau, in Waco recently.

Dobbins stated that the state organization is vitally concerned about the lack of participation of the membership in the legislative processes of the organization. He stated that West encouraged counties to work with members in an educational program of better informing the members of the state organization policies, and members' obligation in carrying out the policies through legislation in both Austin and Washington.

Dobbins told the directors that the Runnels County FB had initiated a new service to members, a Newsletter, which bore the comments and objectives of West's suggestions at the Waco meeting. The directors voted to continue this service and a Newsletter edited by the county secretary, Patti McDaniel, will be received by every member each month.

Guest speaker at the meeting was C. T. Parker, Runnels County agent, who spoke on the feed-grain program and the progress which has been made in the county toward carrying out the program. He told the group that he had received a certificate, since the recently completed Brucellosis program, stating that the county had been declared a Bangs free county.

One such was Bailey of Cisco, who was impressed by "sincere appreciation for all the hospitality of good folks of Winters extended last Saturday. It was my intention to spend the day in Winters (the dog show)."
