Further Plans Being Made For Annual Rodeo

Complete plans for the Fourteenth Annual Winters Rodeo are beginning to fall into place, backers of the event said this week. The three-day rodeo is set for June 22-23-24.

John Norman, president of the Round-Up Association, sponsors of the annual rodeo, said that Lloyd Woodley, rodeo stockman of Lam-pases, will furnish stock for the event. Woodley has furnished the stock for rodeos in several previous years.

The Western Committee of the sponsoring organization is making plans to further advertise the rodeo, by way of asking people to "dress western," and possibly will sponsor a beard-growing contest. James West is chairman of this committee.

There will be no wild cow milking contest in this year's show, it was announced. Instead, a steer roping event has been added. Other contests in the rodeo will be bareback bronc riding, jackpot calf roping, bull riding, steer wrestling, girls' barrel race, and a calf scramble.

The Winters annual rodeo has gained publicity all over this section of the state as one of the biggest attractions for amateur contestants in the area.

Elevator Will Be In Operation Soon

The grain elevator, formerly Green Milling & Grain Co., will be in operation with added capacity within a few days, Ray Alderman, manager of Alderman & Cave, the new operators, said this week.

Workers have been installing new grain tanks on the mill lot. Two new tanks, with a capacity of 12,600 bushels each, have been built. A new 60-foot scales has been installed on the southeast corner of the mill lot, and new grain dump pits have been built. Alderman said an additional elevator leg would be built soon.

The manager of the new company said the elevator facilities will be ready in time to handle grain by the time harvest is under way.

After the elevator is ready, work will begin on the mill proper, Alderman said. Plans are to have a completely remodeled milling department in operation by the first of September.

Fire Prevention Committee Named At C. of C. Meet

A Fire Prevention Committee of the Winters Chamber of Commerce was named at the regular meeting of the organization held Tuesday morning at Pierce Cafeteria.

John W. Norman will serve as chairman and other members of the committee will be Russell Mote, C. P. Alfrey, Raymon Lloyd and Fred Young. This committee will serve with the fire department committee.

A. W. Libbe, president, president and Ted Mayer reported that 1500 cards for the City Directory survey had been printed. These cards have places for name, wife's name, occupation, street address, telephone number and mailing address. Meyer stated that all this information may not be used in the directory but the information will be helpful in a card file. Advertising in the directory will help finance the printing. After the printing, merchants will be notified of changes by mail.

Directors voted to observe six holidays in 1961. They are Memorial Day, Tuesday, May 30; July 4; Labor Day, Sept. 4; Thanksgiving; Christmas and New Years. No holiday cards will be mailed this year.

Norman reported that the proposed landing strip east of the new lake cannot be obtained due to the city's plans to raise the spillway. Emergency landings can be made at the old airport until a new landing strip is secured.

Present for the meeting were A. W. Libbe, Harry Herman, Homer Hudgins, Russell Mote, Harry London, John Norman, Ted Meyer, Walker Tatum, and Mrs. B. B. Bedford, secretary.

RETURNED TUESDAY

Mrs. F. D. McCoy returned home Tuesday from Greenville, S. C., where she attended the wedding of her son, Floyd D. McCoy Jr., and Miss Elizabeth Nadeen Brookshire.

Nevins Resigns As Superintendent

JAMES B. NEVINS Resigns as Superintendent

James B. Nevins, who has been superintendent of the Winters Independent Schools for eight years, has resigned. Nevins had resigned at a meeting of the school board on March 3, but the resignation was not accepted and announced until Wednesday, May 3.

John W. Norman, president of the Winters School Board, said Thursday morning that no replacement had been found to fill the vacancy, but that the board is accepting applications. He indicated that the board felt sure of employing a superintendent within a short time, and expressed the regrets of the school board in accepting the resignation of Nevins.

Supt. Nevins announced that he plans to devote more time to private interests and also will be associated with a circulation company.

In submitting his resignation, Nevins said, "It is with sincere regret that I tender my resignation at this time, and only because I feel it will be beneficial to me. Plans are to devote more time to stock farming interests and also to be associated with Curtis Circulation Company. I have only praise and high esteem for the Winters Board and school and have appreciated their friendly cooperation during the last eight years."

During Nevins' term as superintendent of the Winters Schools, the system has undergone a great amount of expansion, Board President Norman said. Among these accomplishments was a modernization of the school cafeteria, modernization of the field house, construction of the elementary school building, a new high school gymnasium, a new homemaking cottage, new band hall, a new manual training building, and building of the stock barns. Also accomplished during his term was the purchase of additional acreage north of the school property, on which an active oil well in now situated, Norman said.

Nevins also was instrumental in setting up new administrative and records systems in the school, Norman said. Norman said that interested applicants for the position vacated by Supt. Nevins may secure application blanks from the school business office.

Sportsman Club To Build Tables At Winters Lake

Sportsman Club plans to build several tables and outdoor cooking fireplaces at the new Winters City Lake, James Phillips, president of the organization, said this week. The work probably will be done in the near future, it was indicated.

The sports organization is now in a membership drive and is conducting a fishing rodeo. The rodeo is scheduled to run until June 30, with big prizes offered. Many tagged fish have been released in the lake, with each tag numbered, and at the end of the rodeo, the person catching the fish with the highest number will win the grand prize. Rules set forth by the organization state that fishermen taking part in the contest must be members of the Sportsman Club. Membership tickets will be on sale throughout the contest, Phillips said. However, a fisherman must have been a member for three days prior to catching a tagged fish to be eligible for a prize, it was stated.

First prize in the contest will be a 14-foot Lone Star boat; second prize, a 5 1-2 hp Evinrude outboard motor. Third prize will be a boat trailer.

Membership cards are on sale at Western Auto Store, Harrison Auto Parts, Speer Motor Co., or may be obtained from any one of the several directors of the organization.

Barracks 157, World War I Veterans, and their Auxiliary will have their regular meeting Monday evening at 7:30 at the American Legion Hall.

MORE THINGS FOR BETTER LIVING

Around 40,000 patents are issued each year to inventors in this land of opportunity. That's about one new invention every thirteen minutes. Some ideas are of little worth. Many are valuable when given practical application. They make more jobs and raise our standard of living.

Most patents are issued to individuals and to small businesses rather than to large corporations. It is only in America that personal initiative is not suppressed by bureaucratic controls. Men are still permitted to carry out their ideas with the view of bettering themselves and, when they succeed, they benefit others.

We must preserve the principles which have made America progressive. It is difficult — and often impossible — to regain liberties after they have been lost.

When someone says, "Your Johnny's just like you," is it a compliment, or is it an accusation? Whether you like it or not, children do follow in their parents' footsteps.

Johnny learns that kindness and courtesy are virtues, because you are kind and courteous. He learns to love good books and music, because you love them. He learns, through your example, to speak truthfully.

And if going to church and church school regularly is also a part of your usual routine, Johnny will develop that habit just as he has these others.

Then it is a compliment when someone says, "Your Johnny's just like you," for you are doing all within your power to lead him in the right direction.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The only thing of which he disapproved was having to part with his Chilprufe vest and pants for his role in the picture.

"Konga" stars Michael Gough, Margo Johns, Jess Conrad and Claire Gordon. The Aben Kandel-Herman Cohen screenplay was directed by John Lemmon and is currently playing at the State Theatre.

It's all about the zany doings a-board the LST "St. Clair County," Lieutenant Donald (Pat Boone) in command, when a pretty girl reporter named Sally Hobson (Barbara Eden) garbed as a gob, stows away, and a Chickasaw Indian crew member, Shrieking Eagle Garfield (Buddy Hackett) decides to bring a live turkey aboard as a mascot. All commissioned ranks from the Admiral down to the ship's skipper (Dennis O'Keefe) are aroused by this set of irregular circumstances, and it is not long before the Departments of Defense, Interior and the U. S. Bureau of Indian Affairs are collaborating to spur a Congressional investigation.

ST. PATRICK WAS KIDNAPED

St. Patrick first saw Ireland when he was brought there at the age of 16 by kidnapers who had raided his home in Britain, according to most scholars of the period. After about six years of herding sheep in the Irish hills, he fled to what is now France and lived in a monastery a few years longer before returning home to Britain. He undertook his famous mission to Ireland after a dream in which he heard the voices of the Irish calling on him to return. He lived and preached in the Fifth Century A. D.

Up to about five years a grand-child respects you for what you are, but thereafter you have to make good.

better name for those who take part in gunfights with police—cannot be tolerated by a society which claims itself to be the epitome of civilization.
Perhaps all this points to a serious looseness of morals and a change in the sense of values. Too, there is a question — a sort of chicken - or - the - egg question—whether the actions of some of those in the spotlight are the result or the cause of some of our irresponsible acts by some of our young people. For instance, the apparent condoning of stealing, by a popular singer who has been proclaimed the idol of the young people. He stated for publication that a little stealing "never hurt anybody," and admitted he had stolen things all his life, and continues to do so, even though he can well afford to buy anything he wants or needs. The idol of the irresponsible and the pattern for hoodlumism.

Mike Priddy Named FFA Star Farmer In Coleman District

Mike Priddy, member of the Winters High School chapter of the Future Farmers of America, has been named Star Farmer for the Coleman district for 1960-61.

The award is made for outstanding work in agriculture.

During his high school work, Mike has had cotton for lint, oats for grain, lambs for mutton, steers for beef, a registered flock of Dorset breeding sheep and several quarter horses as projects.

At the present time he has one quarter horse gelding which he is training, a flock of 50 head of Dorset sheep, oats planted on about 20 acres, and land prepared to plant 18 acres of cotton. Mike's other investments include one-third interest in a tractor, half interest in a pickup, a sheep feeding barn, sheep shearing and trimming equipment, horse training equipment, and half interest in a horse trailer used by himself and his brother, Jeryle, who is a partner in all of their projects.

Mike has had an active leadership program during his four years of high school. In his freshman year, he was vice president of his Greenhand chapter, and also served as vice president of the Greenhand chapter conducting team which placed second in the Coleman district competition. Mike attended the district, area and state conventions during his freshman year, and participated in the parent-son banquet. He also was a member of the wool judging team and class president of his freshman class.

During his second year in high school, Mike was on a conducting team as president, attended the district and area conventions and served as district president. He was treasurer of the local FFA chapter and served on the leadership committee of the program of work. He exhibited the champion ram at the Chicago International Livestock Show as a highlight as well as champions in numerous major shows while in his second year. He was president of his sophomore class.

In his third year, he served as vice president of the local chapter and president of the chapter conducting team which placed first in the district. He attended district and area conventions where he had a speaking part on both occasions. He also served as first vice president of Area IV. He exhibited the champion Dorset sheep at major shows, and served as vice president of the junior class, and was a member of the National Honor Society.

In his senior year, Mike has served as chapter president. He has increased his flock of breeding sheep and shown them to several championships at major shows. He served as toastmaster at the parent-son banquet, and attended all district occasions. He has plans to attend the area and state conventions this year.

Mike will compete in the Area IV contests on May 12-13 for the Area Star Farmer title, and the right to compete for Texas Star Farmer at Dallas during the State FFA convention July 19-21.

ROGER BABSON SAYS

Biggest Railroad Merger Causing Worries On Part of Stockholders

Babson Park, Mass.—The biggest headache of any corporation official in the United States will be suffered, not by General Electric officials, or even those of the AT & T, but by the men who must operate a Northern Pacific-Great Northern-Burlington Railroad Merger.

Attitude of Northern Pacific Stockholders

First, this man may sometime have the ill will of the former Northern Pacific Stockholders who may feel they have been robbed. I will not brag of the railway traffic of the Northern Pacific. Like most railroads, the passenger business is a big loss; but even the freight is declining. But the Northern Pacific has very valuable mineral, oil, gas and other properties with great potential wealth. The only real hedge against inflation is land, of which the Northern Pacific has some of the most valuable.

Second, let me refer to the size of the planned merged railroad. I roughly figure that this will have the greatest mileage of any railroad in the United States. A large part of this mileage should never have been built. Yet with millions of bonds outstanding on these rails it will be very difficult to get the necessary agreements by bondholders to dismantle a major part of a railroad and liquidate the rails, bridges, and rights of way. A legal merger is simple, but a division of the "spoils" is exceedingly complicated.

Labor and Small Towns

The only way to prevent such a great merged railroad system from going into bankruptcy is to dismantle at least one-third of the mileage, and reduce the number of employees proportionately. This thought causes great consternation among the labor unions. They will not only fight for their own jobs; but will be in doing so they are fighting a battle for every railroad in the country which is now talking merger. But the expected discharge of railway workers like-wisely angers the thousands of little towns along the lines which should be abandoned. These towns and way stations think their life depends on having a railroad station, especially for freight. To a certain extent every railroad merger will have these handicaps.

As the abandonment of a railroad's main line or branch lines usually means that the roadbed will revert to the county, state, or Federal Government. The newly merged lines will continue to operate such portions of the Northern Pacific as have the mineral rights. This creates another paradox. Handling of the freight by trucks would ordinarily be the answer; but trucks would not enable the Northern Pacific to hold ownership of all its valuable mineral and oil assets.

What Northern Pacific Stockholders May Do

Such a merger awakens a sentimental recollection in my life which should be a lesson to all investors. An uncle of mine was once the operating Vice President of the Northern Pacific, with his home in St. Paul. Once when I was going to St. Paul to visit the family of my late wife—Grace K. Babson — my father, Nathaniel Babson of Gloucester, Mass., asked me to call upon my "Uncle John" and ask his opinion as to the value of Northern Pacific securities. My uncle replied: "Tell Cou-

Crews HD Club Met Thursday In Bridwell Home

The Crews Home Demonstration Club met Thursday, April 20, in the home of Mrs. E. W. Bridwell with members of the Norton HD Club and Miss Ollie Chenoweth, county agent, as guests.

Mrs. Marion Wood, president, presided for the business session, gave the thought for the day and welcomed the guests. Mrs. A. S. Allcorn read the club prayer and response to roll call was "birth-place."

Following the recreation, with the Norton Club in charge, Mrs. Owen Bragg and Mrs. Alta Hale gave a demonstration on "Party Snacks."

Norton members present were Mesdames Gus Redman, H. A. Bryan, Frank Greger, E. B. Hope, Clarence Sharpes, Bub Allen, J. E. Gaddy, N. W. Mitchell. Crews members present were Mesdames E. W. Bridwell, Orville Pearce, A. S. Allcorn, W. H. Schwartz, P. R. Dietz, Owen Bragg, Marvin Hale, M. R. Petrie and Marion Wood.

sin Nat that the Northern Pacific bonds are good; that the preferred stocks will probably work out fairly satisfactorily; but that the common stock today is not worth the paper upon which the certificates are printed." Yet within two years this common stock sold for one thousand dollars per share!

With this personal experience it is difficult for me to advise a present holder of Northern Pacific what to do. I think, however, that a good many Northern Pacific holders will sell their stock and switch into the stock of Union Pacific. The latter sells at about 32 and pays $1.60 dividend per year. Union Pacific is both rich in management and has great mineral, oil, gas and other hidden assets. It is the shortest line between Chicago and the Pacific Coast and has the least mileage to maintain when making the trip, largely on double track. I do not recommend any railroad or other stocks in this column; but I can report what I think large stockholders are doing.

Young Men Offered Summer Tour With U. S. Navy

Young men with no particular vacation plans this summer might be interested in the U. S. Naval Reserve with its active duty for training program, according to a suggestion by Lieut. James A. Hallum Jr., commanding Officer of Electronics division -21, Brownwood.

The Naval Reservist is eligible for two weeks on active duty each fiscal year, and since the military year begins each year on July 1, it is possible for the reservist to spend four weeks of the coming summer on duty with the regular Navy.

Mr. Hallum pointed out that new recruits would probably spend the first two-week period at San Diego, Calif., at the Naval Training Center. The later two-week tour could be at any one of numerous shore bases or aboard ships for trips to Caribbean ports or Atlantic of Pacific points.

The Naval Reservist attached to the Brownwood facility receives a day's pay for each Monday night drill attended, Mr. Hallum pointed out. When he goes on active duty for two weeks, he receives the same pay and travel allowances that regulars get. In addition, Mr. Hallum said, the Reservist is fulfilling his military obligation.

The Navy is interested in young men between 17 and 18½ years of age who are at least juniors in high school. Mr. Hallum said these men could continue in their studies while receiving the military training, and when the time comes for them to go on active duty they will benefit from the advancements they might have made in pay grade and rating.

Mr. Hallum said the Naval Reserve office is open every week day and Monday night at the Navy building on Howard Payne College campus. He invited young men as well as military service veterans to call at the office to investigate the opportunities offered by the Naval Reserve program.

CAPITOL HIGHLIGHTS

Legislators Playing Numbers Game; Texans Will Be Affected By Action

VERN SANFORD
Press Association

Legislators are engaged in a dead-end serious type of game.

To figure out how much tax bills will bring in to the legislature needs to be in order to meet the obligations. Then, find out how much additional cash is needed to foot all bills. Any numbers can play this game and many are. Looks like it will be affected.

One of the biggest increases would be for education, which would be boosted by $36,000,000 a year under the House bill.

Other provisions by the House would allow: $15 per month raises for state employees making less than $200 a month; 40-hour work week for employees of state hospitals and special schools; raises for State Liquor Control Board inspectors.

"UNIVERSITY" BATTLES

"University has become a 'fighting word' in the Senate, one that held up regular business for almost two weeks.

A determined group of Senators has opposed creating any more state-supported universities on the grounds it will put Texas in the position of the "old woman who lived in the shoe."

Nevertheless, Sen. Tom Chelton of Mineral Wells obtained final passage of a bill that would change the name of North Texas State College to North Texas State University. Opponents scoffed at the prospect of having two universities in Denton (pop. 27,000). Other is Texas Woman's University (formerly Texas State College for Women).

Sen. Robert Baker of Houston had more difficulty with his bill that would admit the University of Houston to the state college system. Senators Hubert Hudson, Wardlow Lane, Charles Herring and W. T. Moore teamed up to "talk the bill to death."

CAR TAX SOUGHT

City and County property taxes on automobiles and trucks would be abolished under a proposed constitutional amendment passed 102-35 by the House.

School district property taxes on vehicles would be retained.

Auto property taxes have been a source of considerable dissatisfaction since some cities and counties collect them and others don't bother. Rep. Murray Watson of Mart, sponsor of the plan, said he would urge that the Legislature also adopt a law requiring car owners to show a receipt for payment of school taxes as a requirement for getting license plates. Watson's proposed amendment also would authorize the Legislature to increase vehicle registration fees by one-third to create a fund for improving county roads and city streets.

If passed by both houses of the Legislature, the amendment would have to be voted on by the people.

GARNISHMENT APPROVED

Another proposed constitutional amendment approved by the House would allow courts to garnishee (take over) 50 percent of a father's salary for child support payments.

Rep. Ben Jarvis of Tyler, sponsor, said the measure would result in a lightened load for the State Welfare Department. Frequently, said supporters, fathers ignore court orders to pay child support, causing the children to become a public welfare problem. Opponents called the measure too severe.

ELECTION CODE IS TARGET

Changes in future balloting and candidate filing procedures continue to be a prime legislative topic. A bill introduced by Senators George Parkhouse of Dallas and Robert Baker of Houston would raise substantially the filing fees for legislative candidates in Dallas and Harris counties. A senatorial candidate would have to pay $1,000 and a House candidate, $500, compared to the present $100 for each.

Another bill by Senator Parkhouse would limit each political party to one poll watcher per precinct and require that the watcher be a resident of the precinct in which he keeps his vigil.

A bill that would allow voters to check the candidate they favored rather than scratching all others has been approved by House committee and sent to the floor. Committee also approved a bill that would require that the boxes containing ballot stubs be turned in after the election with unbroken seals.

TO BALLINGER

Mrs. Robert Christian and children spent Tuesday in Ballinger visiting in the home of Dr. and Mrs. James Dexter Eoff, and with Mrs. Wesley Campbell and family of Billings, Mont., who are visiting in the Eoff home.

Posts were entwined with greenery and pink flowers and the entire front of the altar was covered in white. Two shades of pink drapes highlighted with white Westminster bell clusters completed the church decorations.

Larry Loftis, organist, accompanied Miss Deborah Brookshire, soloist, who sang "Oh Promise Me." He also accompanied Ben O. Busbee Jr., soloist, who sang "The Greatest of These is Love," and the benediction, "O, Jesus, We have Promised." Both soloists are cousins of the bride.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the social hall of the church. Pink candelabras were used in each window and basket arrangements were used at vantage points throughout the hall. The bride's table was decorated with a four-tiered wedding cake decorated with pink and white wedding bells and a candelabra holding seventeen pink candles. Mrs. Jimmy Tolbert ladeled punch, Mrs. Ben O. Busbee Jr. served cake and Mrs. Mayes Brookshire presided at the guest book.

He was minister of music at the First Baptist Church in Electra and Odessa and associated in church music department for the Baptist General Convention of Texas, Dallas.

Mr. McCoy is associated with the church music department at Howard College in Birmingham where the couple will reside.

Gas Range Offers Infra-Red Broiling

Infra-red broiling, an oven with brains, and a wall-hung eye-level oven and broiler are all prime examples of new features developed for today's modern gas ranges.

Gas ranges with these and many other automatic, time-saving innovations are available now. Special prices and liberal trade-in allowances on used ranges are being offered during a special campaign designed to acquaint the homemaker with the advantages of a modern gas range. This campaign is being conducted by gas range dealers and Lone Star Gas Company during April and May.

The secret of the infra-red gas broiler lies in the special burner, which is considered revolutionary in both appearance and application. The infra-red ray emitted scientifically represents the maximum heat output in the infra-red spectrum. This entirely new development represents literally years of gas industry research and development and is now an integral feature of many new gas ranges.

The "oven-with-a-brain" features a remarkable new oven control system which gives full temperature control down to 140 degrees. Tests show this is the ideal temperature for keeping food warm without continued cooking. A dinner may possibly be delayed for several hours and still retain its original flavor and appearance if left in the "oven-with-a-brain."

Another gas range manufacturer has the foldaway burner available. When folded down, the burners resemble any other surface unit. By folding the burner unit into a back panel, extra counter space becomes available. The gas shuts off automatically when the burners are recessed and comes on automatically as the burners are lowered.

Still another new range features eye-level side-by-side ovens at a convenient reach-in height above the cooking top. This distinctive new design puts burners, ovens, and controls in what industry officials term the "Comfort-Zone" of cooking. It combines styling of a built-in with the versatility of a conventional free-standing range.

These new innovations are but a few of the progressive developments achieved by gas range manufacturers. They are continually experimenting with original and sometimes startling ideas which give the modern homemaker tomorrow's gas range today.

1886 in North Carolina. Following their marriage, the couple moved to Georgia where they lived until 1900, when they moved to Texas, settling in Fannin County. Mr. and Mrs. Ritch and their family moved to Runnels County in 1904 settling in the Pumphrey-Drasco community.

In August 1900, Mr. Ritch and five other men journeyed west seeking land on which to settle. Near Garden City, the men were caught in a violent thunderstorm and lightning struck the wagon they were riding and four of the men, including Mr. Ritch, were killed.

Mrs. Ritch continued making her home in the Drasco community until 1901 when she bought a farm three miles east of Winters where she and her family lived until 1919 when they moved to Winters. Mrs. Ritch reared her family of nine and sent all the boys and three of the girls through college. Mrs. Ritch also reared and educated her grandson, Dennis Taylor, following the death of her daughter.

Mrs. Ritch was a lifetime member of the Methodist Church and had taught Sunday school for many years.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the First Methodist Church with the Rev. Ray Elliott, pastor, officiating. The Rev. E. L. Orphans May Be Eligible For VA Assistance

An "orphan" may have one parent alive and still be eligible for educational assistance under the War Orphans Education program administered by the Veterans Administration.

P. J. Mims, manager of the VA regional office in Waco pointed this out recently to dispell some confusion existing due to the usual understanding that an orphan has lost both parents.

The War Orphans Education Program was established by Congress to give assistance to those children whose veteran-parent's death was the result of disease or injury incurred or aggravated in the line of duty in active service.

The death of the veteran-parent from this cause, whether it be father or mother, makes the children "orphans" under the meaning of this law, Mims said, even though the other parent remains alive.

New Program To Use 'Back Door' Financing

By Congressman O. C. Fisher

A brand new program, calling for an expenditure of $400 million, has been approved in Congress and is due to be okayed at the White House. It will be spent in "distressed areas" in the form of grants and loans to communities where unemployment persists.

A bad feature of the bill was added in the Senate. Instead of allowing the Congress to examine the program each year and then appropriate any funds that may appear to be justified, the bill as approved permits "back door" spending—that is, by debt management in the Treasury Department the money each year will be made available without any action of the Congress.

I voted against the bill in its entirety for several reasons. First, because it begins a brand new government hand-out program to communities which a government agency decides should get it, and thus add a brand new type of Federal expenditure for years to come. And the "back door" concept is both unsound and dangerous, as I see it, because it takes away from the Congress the responsibility of doing the appropriating, and it deprives the Congress of a chance to review and appraise the program, from year to year.

The demarkation that separates the Federal from the State governments would be drastically narrowed if an action begun by Attorney General Bobby Kennedy in Federal Court is successful. In a history-making step last week, the Attorney General asked a Federal Judge in Richmond, Va., to prohibit that State granting any state support to any public schools in Virginia until Prince Edward county public schools, shut down the last two years to avoid desegregation, are reopened.

The Attorney General's petition also asked the court to require the County and State to reopen and maintain a "system of free public schools" and to forbid County and State officials to use tax money to support segregated private schools by tuition grants as long as the public schools are closed.

If the Federal government has this kind of authority in the operation of schools owned and supported by local taxpayers, just where is the line to be drawn in the separation of the State and Federal government in the area of other local activities?
