Driving Students Complete First Phase Saturday

Thirty Winters High School students will complete the first phase of summer driving school and take the written portion of the driver's test Saturday. Robert Christian, principal of Winters Elementary School, is the instructor for the driving course.

Students will go to Ballinger Saturday to take the written test. Upon passing this part of the test, each will receive a restricted driving permit, with which they may drive an automobile if there is a licensed operator in the front seat with them. Classroom study has been for a total of 30 hours.

Next Monday the students begin the second phase of the course, when they will start actually driving the training car. The car is equipped with dual controls, and the instructor will ride with each student for six hours. In addition, each student must have six hours credit observing actual driving operations in the training car. Instructor Christian said he will be in the training car for 180 hours before the course is completed about the first of August.

Upon completion of the driving instructions, students will take the regular driver test and receive operators' licenses.

There are 10 boys and 20 girls in this summer's driving class.

In addition to regular classroom work and driving instructions, extra research by the class members has been assigned by Christian. Students were assigned to check traffic on downtown streets, listing traffic violations. One crew of checkers, Christian said, spotted traffic at the intersection of Main Street and Dale. During the one and one-half hour time interval they watched traffic, they reported 191 traffic violations, ranging from wrong turn signals to failures to stop on a red light.

Students taking the driver training course must be 14 years of age. They will receive one-half scholastic credit for the course. Christian said that in addition to the proper driver training afforded by the course that automobile owners' insurance will be reduced accordingly when a driver has taken driver training.

Number of rodeo riders and ropers was expected to exceed past years' records, Frederic Poe, rodeo secretary said Thursday.

City Starts Spraying To Halt Mosquito Menace

City employees started Monday to spray in an effort to stop the rapidly increasing mosquito population. Part of the town has been covered, and crews will return to already treated areas, once the whole city has been sprayed.

Recent rains have helped multiply the mosquito problem.

Crews also started mowing weeds and tall grass in many areas of the city to help combat the pests. Mayor Harvey D. Jones said Wednesday that the fight will continue, with mowing and spraying all over town.

Major Maintenance and Repair of School Buildings Continues During Summer

When classes dismiss for the summer in the Winters Independent School system, maintenance and repair work begins. Commencement for the 1961 graduating class was held on a Friday night, and workmen moved into the high school building the next morning to replace all the windows on the north side. Much other work is being done throughout the school plant.

One of the biggest undertakings for this summer has been the replacement of the windows of the high school building. Some of the windows were replaced last summer, but all on the north side of the building were scheduled to be done this year. Old window frames were torn out, and new aluminum frames installed. In addition, the inside sills, or stools, of the front windows were replaced with quarry tile. Sixty-four windows have been replaced this summer.

Another big project this summer has been the repair of the floor of the new gymnasium. Parts of the floor had buckled previously, causing much concern for school officials. Workmen have pulled up all the flooring and will replace it, putting in new flooring where needed. The entire playing floor, 8800 square feet, will be re-done. No nails are used in laying the gym floor. The base floor or foundation is concrete slab, with metal channel embedded in the concrete. The tongue-and-groove flooring is placed over the concrete, and fastened with metal clips. The metal channels were put into the concrete slab with high-powered guns, using a shell about .32 calibre and firing a nail as a bullet.

After the floor is re-laid in the gym, it will receive two coats of filler and then will be painted, and boundary lines will be painted on. It is expected that the laying of the floor will take contractors a week to complete.

Several of the buildings of the school system have been painted this summer. A seal-coat was painted on the band hall and the manual training building. Painters this week were painting the agriculture building.

In addition to the painting and repair and replacement, every building and room in the system is receiving a face-lifting. Several hundred thousand square feet of floor space is being cleaned, waxed and buffed, and in some cases varnished. In the buildings with wood floors, the floors are receiving a filler coat and then varnish. The tile floors are being cleaned with special soap and water, dried thoroughly and then waxed and buffed to a satiny sheen. Hallways in the elemen-

County Agent C. T. Parker Discussed Water Pollution, Storage, in Lions Talk

County Agent C. T. Parker spoke to the Winters Lions Club Tuesday noon on the problem of water pollution in the county, and also methods of obtaining additional usable water. He outlined some of the steps which have been taken in the past to eliminate the pollution problem, and recommended action be taken on preserving water in this section of the county.

In cooperation with landowners and oil people, Parker has worked with the Railroad Commission in seeking a solution to the pollution of water in the county, he told the Winters Lions. Some of the action which has been taken in the past to fight the pollution problem was ineffective, he said.

He admitted that some of the methods which were tried eventually proved to be wrong, but that at least the situation has been brought to the attention of the people. One of the original methods tried was to pump the salt water from oil wells into pits, he said. This was far from effective in many cases, he pointed out, because the salt water would drain from the pits, and into the underground streams, polluting creeks and wells several miles away. Another method now being employed is to pump the salt water back into the ground at depths below the fresh water level, sometimes as deep as 1600 feet. When this method is used, the county agent said, the disposal well must be used by several producing oil wells, and pipe laid from the producers to the disposal. Some problems have arisen in gaining right-of-way for the disposal pipelines, he said.

Parker urged community leaders to lend their support in the fight to prevent pollution. He recommended periodic tests at strategic locations on the county streams, and told his audience he would work with them to have the water tested.

The county agent also urged the community to investigate the possibilities of forming a water control district such as the Valley Creek Water Control District, to encompass the watersheds of Elm Creek, Bluff Creek and other streams in this part of the county. He pointed out that if such a district is organized, control dams could be built by the Soil Conservation Service, and then the City of Winters could possibly add to the dam and back up additional water for its use.

There is a possibility of collective action within the oil industry in combating the water pollution problem in Runnels County, according to an article in The Abilene Reporter-News Wednesday. (Continued on last page)

Roger Babson Says

Supreme Court Decision Dissolving Powerful Teamsters Union Forecast

Babson Park, Mass. As I study events in Wall Street, I find that the first era of speculation was in gold. This was accompanied by some speculation in Government Bonds. Prices were based on mail reports from London. There were no cables.

(2) The Glamorous Railroad Era

Following the Civil War, from 1875 to 1900, most of the speculation was in railroad stocks. New mileage was constantly being built, due to the large immigration and cheap labor, accompanied by good crops, which helped railroad earnings. The Northern Pacific stock sold at $1,000 a share. There was much talk about railroad consolidations, and the stock market was especially bullish over a proposed merger of the Northern Pacific, Great Northern, and Burlington Railroads.

Then, suddenly, the Supreme Court issued a decision preventing this consolidation. This caused a quick drop in all stocks in 1907. A member of the N. Y. Stock Exchange invited me to come on the floor of the Exchange and help him. I actually saw men's hair turn gray within 48 hours.

(3) Era of Great Industrial Trusts

Following the boom in railroad stocks there developed an interest in consolidations and big trusts. This began late in the 1890's. Then were formed the Tobacco Trust, the Standard Oil Trust, and other great trusts. During these years, the New York Stock Exchange took a great interest in industrials. It was then that Moody's Manuals and Babson's Reports were started, and investment services began to be popular. Although the above-mentioned

Supreme Court Decision directly referred only to railroads, it indirectly brought an end to this Consolidation and Trust Era. Hence, the panic following affected both railroad and industrial stocks. There were no big electric utilities in those days.

(4) The Electrical Era

The fourth era of glamour stocks centered around companies producing and distributing electricity. From 1907 to 1912 great speculation took place in these electric stocks, culminating in the 1929-1935 collapse of Electric Bond and Share.

The end came for this Electrical Era with the formation of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Its great powers enabled it to eliminate, rearrange, or break up any company manufacturing and distributing electricity across state lines. Although the use of electricity has continued to increase since Thomas Edison made the first dynamo, yet the utilities are no longer considered glamour stocks.

(5) The Present Space Age Era

I mention the above events thinking that the recent duPont—General Motors Supreme Court Decision may put a damper on speculation in companies producing missiles, space capsules, and various electronic devices.

The previous Court Decisions which I mentioned have been unexpected. Each has "pulled the trigger" for a change in the stock market trend. Whether this means that the present bull market is now culminating no one knows, but we should always watch for the unexpected. Gold, railroads, trusts, and electricity were as glamorous in their day as space and electronics are today.

(6) Labor Union Era

The recent duPont—General Motors Decision may bring about a reverse effect. It may unexpectedly make Wall Street optimistic. The decision was basically against monopoly, as were the decisions of several years ago. Yet, the greatest monopoly today is that of Labor Unions. What if the Supreme Court should suddenly dissolve the Teamsters Union, as now operated by Hoffa, whom President Kennedy's brother, the Attorney General, knows from A to Z?

Such a decision could rule that previous Congressional legislation exempting Labor from the Anti-Trust Law is unconstitutional. Such a decision, instead of creating a bear market, could cause the Dow-Jones Averages to go sky high. Surely this is a possibility, and a reason why readers are justified in keeping certain of their common stocks and swapping certain of the present glamour stocks for the old-fashioned blue chips.

ANOTHER BIG REASON BEHIND THE BIG BOOM IN FORD SALES

Galaxie styling is inspiring more admiration (and imitation) than any other car on the road!

This is Galaxie styling—inspired by the fabulous Thunderbird!

Many cars have tried to copy the incomparably beautiful 1961 Galaxie. No car has succeeded.

And styling is only part of Galaxie's distinction. This is the car that's beautifully built to take care of itself. The '61 Ford goes 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications . . . 4,000 miles between oil changes. Brakes adjust automatically.

Wouldn't it make sense to STOP spending money on an old car that can never do for you what a new Ford can do?

SWAP right now while your Ford Dealer's sales are booming—and the swapping is easier than it's ever been before.

SAVE with the car that makes saving a pleasure.

"The Steel Claw"
 Highlighted by the valiant courage, the desperate daring and bold bravado of the Philippine guerrillas and the American servicemen who fought alongside them during World War II, "The Steel Claw," opening Friday and Saturday at the Fiesta Drive In Theatre, recounts the adventures of a Huk band led by an American Marine officer in a thrilling bid to rescue a captured general.

George Montgomery, who stars as the Marine who conceives the rescue plan, wrote, produced and directed the film which was shot on location in the Philippines in color for Warner Bros. release.

Montgomery handpicked his principally native cast in the islands. In the chief supporting roles are Charito Luna, a 17-year-old night club singer Montgomery discovered in Manila, and Mario Barri, a leading Filipino comedian.

Miss Luna portrays the beautiful young girl who attaches herself to the guerrilla band Montgomery leads because of a romantic attachment to him and her desire to escape to a city. Barri plays a wily and opportunistic guerrilla leader who rallies to Montgomery's aid.

Saturday only at the State Theatre.

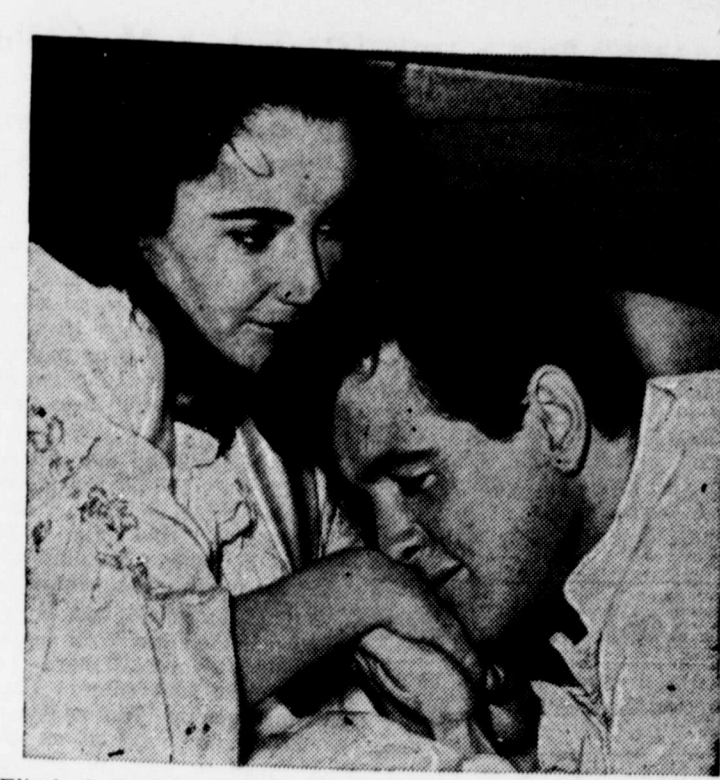

The film, which dramatizes as eventful a sea voyage as was ever taken, co-stars the shapely French beauty, Mylene Demongeot, John Ericson, Folco Lulli, Cecil Parker, Alex Nicol and Eleanora Rossi Drago. The story was adapted from the autobiographical account by the German Admiral Bernhard Rogge of the voyage of the Atlantis, which was one of twelve surface raiders used by the Nazis during the war, and by far the most successful. Provisioned for a journey of one year, the Atlantis actually was on the high seas for 655 days on a trip which took her more than five times around the equator — the longest sea voyage in human history, and the most confounding to the enemy.

"Fast and Sexy"
 Gina Lollobrigida, as a modern-day merry widow looking for a marriageable male, returns to the screen in Columbia Pictures' "Fast and Sexy," co-starring Dale Robertson and Vittorio De Sica in color by Technicolor and Technirama at the State Theatre Sunday afternoon only.

Moderately wealthy and altogether lovely, Gina returns to her native village in Italy, from Brooklyn, ostensibly to recover from her bereavement but carefully keeping an eye open for her next matrimonial prospect. Naturally, she immediately becomes the alluring target of the town's several bachelors: those with an eye out for Gina as a meal ticket, as well as those more romantically inclined. They intrigue, and even the village priest, De Sica, is pressured to play a sort of frocked Cupid.

One local lad Dale Robertson is the local Casanova and happy about it; he remains strictly indifferent to Gina's not inconsiderable charms, since those charms also involve a marriage ceremony. He, of course, is the one Gina decides she wants, and what Gina wants she ultimately, happily, gets.

"Under Ten Flags"
 One of the most exciting stories to come out of World War II has been brought to the screen by top motion picture producer Dino De Laurentiis, the man who made the memorable "War and Peace" and "Tempest." It is "Under Ten Flags," released by Paramount, starring Van Heflin and Charles Laughton and due to arrive next Elizabeth Taylor and Rock Hudson star in George Stevens' production of "Fast and Sexy" coming Sunday and Monday to the Fiesta Drive In Theatre. Also starred is James Jean in the Warner Bros. presentation in Warner Color.

Lucille Ball and Bob Hope come to the slow realization that maybe they don't really want what they think they do in the comedy-drama "The Facts of Life." The picture, a United Artists release, will open Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at the Fiesta Drive-In Theatre.

Auxiliary Members Attended Civil Defense Meeting

Members of the Ladies Auxiliary of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 9193 attended a special civil defense program Monday evening at the City Hall.

Tom Holland, Winters Civil Defense director, showed two films and Dr. Don Bedford, medical director of the local civil defense program, spoke on the medical aspects of the program.

Films shown by Mr. Holland were "A Voice Shall Be Heard," showing a storm in New York, which explained the need of a civil defense program in case of tornado, atomic war or other disasters and emphasized the need of an inter-communication system for a city in time of disaster to aid firemen, police, medical teams rescue teams and first aid teams so that they may be directed to the position where they are most needed.

The other film, "Wind and Fury" was a film on the Waco tornado, which showed how very fast a portion of a city or a city may be destroyed in just a short time. This explained the desperate need for civil defense programs with citizens trained in separate categories to best benefit the city.

W. L. Collins, associate director, announced that the VFW Post of Winters would furnish four first aid teams beside the nine members of the Auxiliary to serve on the First Aid program.

Following the defense program, members of the Auxiliary returned to the post home to conduct their regular business meeting.

An announcement was made that 50 pocket size books had been sent to the Veterans Hospital in Big Spring. John Edward McAdoo was a special guest and enlisted the aid of the ladies on a new post home fund raising campaign which is now under way.

The next business meeting will be held the third Monday night of July and the next regular meeting of the Civil Defense will be July 20, at 8 p.m. at the City Hall.

Those present were Mesdames Aaron Wells, A. P. Wright, Frank Brown, J. E. McAdoo, Ted Meyer, W. L. Collins, and Miss Nevell Fisher.

(3) This means that the side which is to be the most successful will be the one which acts first. Mr. Khrushchev as a dictator can act quickly, while President Kennedy will be handicapped by committees, politics, and Congressmen. This thought is not so optimistic. (4) When President Kennedy left on his trip, he was being advised to "freeze prices and wages;" but since his return, he asks only to be dictator to the extent of carrying out the above proposals as a part of the Defense Program.

LONE STAR AGRICULTURE— June Is Dairy Month In Texas

Just as June is the big month for marrying, so is it the big month for dairying. June Dairy Month is probably the most regularly recognized observance in our state and nation of any segment of agriculture. Thanks to the fine promotional work done by the American Dairy Association and our own Texas Milk Producers Associations, June Dairy Month is practically a household word. And this is good, because dairying really is special. Milk products provide a larger part of our total food supply than does any other class of food products. Not only that, but milk and its products are likely more essential to us than any other food from a nutritional standpoint. In support of the high importance of milk in our national diet, the record shows that milk and foods made from it supplied approximately 28 per cent of the total food supply in 1960. In other words, out of the average of 1,488 pounds of food each American consumed last year, 414 pounds were in forms of milk. It is interesting to note also that Texas milk consumption was considerably above that national average. In 1960, Texas dairymen produced more than 850 million pounds of milk, a good yield, but millions of additional pounds were shipped in to help supply Texans' needs. Texans may Eat Beef Every Day, which is good, but they certainly drink milk or eat something made from milk — several times a day. Government estimates of milk consumption indicate that each American ate 8.2 pounds of cheese last year. Ice cream was eaten at the rate of 18.4 pounds per person during the same period. Fluid milk, of course, was the big item, with an estimated 342 pounds taken in by each American in 1960. Evaporated milk, of which less was consumed than in previous years, accounted for 15.1 pounds per person, and non-fat dry milk, which made up the loss, was up to 6.2 pounds per person. Cottage cheese use has grown from slightly less than 2 pounds per person 20 years ago to over 5 pounds in 1960. NOTICE Be Busy Sewing Club will meet Monday, June 26, in the home of Mrs. Clyde Collinsworth. All members are urged to be present. One way to gain popularity is to give more applause and less advice.

By Vern Sanford

How many times have you driven through one of our National Forests, looked up at the giant wall of trees lining the highway and wondered what secrets they hold? What kind of activity takes place amid those thousands of acres of timber and underbrush?

All the while you're wondering, wheels are turning and many things are happening deep in the ghostly woods. Tall pines are tumbling to the ground as automation rips their trunks with roaring saws. Timber is hauled out by the thousands of tons.

Wildlife lives and dies, by the normal acts of nature and by man with powder and lead. In many areas, conservation agencies work to manage and propagate some of our favorite game species.

There's any number of activities, both industrial and recreational, concealed behind that wall of timber and pine needles.

Some of it helps pay state bills. Only recently Gov. Price Daniel was presented with a check for $636,547.92 from the U. S. Forest Service as the States' share of the income from the sale of 119.4 million board feet of timber and other uses of the Texas National Forests during the fiscal year 1960. This is the highest income from timber since reforestation started on the forests of East Texas way back in 1935. Total income from Texas National Forests for 1959 was $2,546,291.68.

Each county occupied by forests is a 25 percent stockholder, in the gross receipts, and people you could find anywhere in Texas... or the world for that matter.

Last year, the Forest Service spent $289,462.69 on the maintenance of some 800 miles of roads on the 658,000 acres of National Forests. In addition, over $104,000 was allotted the State Highway Department for the construction of forest highways.

Forest Supervisor John W. Cooper stated during the check presentation ceremony that watershed protection, outdoor recreation and fish and wildlife management of the forests are possibly of equal or greater value to the State than timber production. Hunting and fishing on the forests are coordinated by the Texas Game and Fish Commission.

Some areas of the forests are fenced in. This was done to better control and integrate livestock management with wildlife habitat. However, signs will be posted on

C. T. Parker--

Some 20 oilmen representing a dozen producing companies met in the county courthouse Tuesday afternoon to take the first step toward positive action in eliminating or decreasing the pollution of county streams and wells, the paper said. The group will work with county leaders.

Further action will come at a meeting July 11 when James K. Anderson, Midland independent operator, and County Agent Parker will present an accumulation of data on the pollution situation. It will then be decided if a committee of operators and landowners should be formed to attack the problem.

The salt water problem is acute throughout Runnels County, Anderson, who arranged the Tuesday meeting in Ballinger, told the group. There have been 15 separate pollution lawsuits filed during the past year, and 442 reports of pollution were made by landowners in replying to a questionnaire sent out by the county agent's office, the Reporter-News said.

M. W. Marshall of San Angelo, supervisor for Railroad Commission District 7-C, was quoted as describing Runnels County's salt water situation as one of the worst in the state.

Parker told the group of oil men that little help had been received from any state agency except the Railroad Commission, and that the county lacked money or expert knowledge to solve the problem. The meeting with oilmen was held in the afternoon following Parker's talk to the Winters Lions Club.

According to the Abilene paper's article, County Agent Parker said that "All of the landowners and city officials I have contacted are enthusiastic about this possibility of a cooperative effort."

Although salt water from oil fields isn't drawing all the blame for the pollution, it was pointed out that about 10 old wells, now unidentified with any operator, are among the county's worst offenders in spreading salt water, the article said. These are scattered over the county, Parker was quoted as saying.

There are more than 80 operators producing in the county, Anderson said. He said all of these will be invited to send representatives to the July 11 meeting.

these sections to remind visitors that they are still welcome.

Certain special areas are designated for intensive game management and restoration by the Commission. One such area is the Angelina Wildlife Management Area composed of three different sections.

Each year, managed hunts are held on this area. If you passed through the Angelina Forest when deer hunting opened, you might not have realized that a public hunt was being held. Reports indicated that it was a very successful hunt.

If you pass through these forests during the spring and summer, you may not get to see the hundreds of families and friends that have spread out their picnic lunches under the shadows of silent pines and hardwoods. Or, you may miss the smiles on the faces of the many weekend fishermen who stretch out on the banks of rippling streams that snake their way through the dense timber land.

You would need to turn off the main highways and byways to feast your eyes on little isolated communities which dot the Davy Crockett National Forest. To get acquainted with the people and their seemingly strange customs that live and die deep in the woods, you would have to do more than just pass by in a speeding auto.

Inside those dark timbered hills live some of the most fascinating plants, creatures, and people you could find anywhere in Texas... or the world for that matter.

And the sounds of a forest are equally as fascinating. Whether it be the rustle of leaves, the screech of a feathered friend, the scampering of bush-tails high above, or the whine of a saw in the distance, or the combination of all these, your ears will be filled with the music of the living forest.

So, with this glimpse of what takes place deep in our great forests, you might now realize that they're not just made up of tall trees and moist soil.

New Publication On Lateral Oiling Has Been Released

Cotton chopping may be going the way of longhorn cattle. At least the extension cotton specialists at Texas A and M say this could happen as more people realize the savings to be gained through the use of lateral oiling.

What makes this lateral oiling so special? The answer is simple—money. By substituting lateral oiling for hand hoeing, the producer can cut the cost of that operation by at least half. One Texas producer has reported savings much greater than this.

Franklin Pagel of Tivoli says he oiled his 85 acres of cotton this spring and saved a total of $8 per acre. He estimated his total cost, including materials, labor, etc. at $2 per acre. This is quite a savings over the ten dollars per acre it would have cost for hand hoeing. Pagel also says the oiling gave a cleaner job.

All this sounds fine, but what is lateral oiling? Lateral oiling refers to lateral spraying of seedling grass and weeds in young cotton with herbicidal oils, such as naphtha. This practice is recommended where rainy weather conditions have prevented timely rotary hoe use or where grass is rooted too firmly for a rotary hoe to eradicate.

Rodeo--

eos, is again calling action in the local arena.

In addition to the rodeo, the Winters Jaycees are sponsoring a Quarter Horse Show Saturday in the rodeo arena. Events in the horse show will begin at 8 o'clock, with entries from all over this section of the state expected. The Jaycees are also sponsoring a barbecue dinner, to be served in the school cafeteria from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday. There will be no admission charge for the horse show, but a charge will be made for the dinner.

One of the liveliest events of the rodeo will be the boys calf scramble each night of the rodeo. This event is sponsored by the Winters State Bank. According to rodeo officials, boys who participate in the nightly calf scrambles will not lose amateur standings. Boys 13 to 14 will be included in the Thursday and Saturday night calf scrambles, and boys 15 and 16 will scramble for calves Friday and Saturday nights.

Big purses are being offered for the winning floats in the two big parades. Floats which were in the Thursday afternoon parade must also be in the Saturday parade to be eligible for prize money.

Cash prizes for parade floats will total $150, with first place float winning $75, second, $50, and third, $25. Floyd Grant is chairman of the parade committee.

Between-events thrills and entertainment will be furnished by rodeo clowns, Jim (Willie) Windsor, of Henrietta, and Jack (Stringbean) Jackson, of Wichita Falls.

The Callahan County Sheriff's Posse will take part in the parades, and will perform in the rodeo arena each performance. Other riding clubs in the area were invited to take part in the parades.

slay the traffic dragon, only to have their elders—whose examples they are supposed to follow—give them the horse laugh. What can we expect?

According to figures, June, 1961 has been the wettest since 1895. Of course these statistics are for the immediate Abilene area where the U. S. Weather Bureau has kept a record since that year, but it would be safe to say that the same record rainfall holds true for the Winters area.

According to our unofficial record of rainfall in Winters since the first of June, 9.3 inches of rain has fallen. This brings the year's total to 23.20 inches. The Bureau says the normal for the Abilene area, for the entire year is 22.55.

We read it: We are all manufacturers—making good, making trouble, making excuses.

Our neighbor across the street said that during last week's rain, the inside part of a minnow bucket in his back yard ran over.

Following the Supreme Court's decision that members of the Communist Party must register, many who are for giving the commies their own way have warned that the party may go underground. Our neighbor down the street has said that will be just fine, that he'll be glad to help with the spadework.

Have You Had Soil Tested?

If your tractor engine began to fail, would you buy new spark plugs, points, a battery and a coil? You might, and it is possible that these new parts would remedy the situation. But suppose you bought all of these and were then told by a mechanic that all you needed was a new set of points.

The same situation exists with cropland for spring seeded crops. You're certain the soil needs fertilizer and lime, but you're not sure how much and what grades. Are you going to guess and take a chance on wasting money, or are you going to make a soil test and be sure?

W. F. Bennett, extension soil chemist, recommends that you make a soil test, and do it early. He says it is important to eliminate as much of the guesswork as possible, and soil testing will certainly help establish the amount and kind of fertilizer to use.

A sample may be taken any time soil moisture conditions permit, Bennett explains. By sending the samples to the laboratory now, farmers will avoid the last minute rush and be ready to seed their crops when the weather permits. They will also have the reassurance of knowing their crops have the necessary nutrients for maximum growth.

"Remember," concludes Bennett, "Don't guess—Soil test."

65 New Laws Been Passed Fish and Game

The recently completed 57th Regular Session of the Texas Legislature saw the introduction of 65 bills pertaining to fish and game, which 65 became laws.

Among the new laws of wide interest is one which provides for the installation of certain incapacitated hunters from a vehicle (on public roads), providing capacity is authenticating, by a licensed person, the date and place of prohibiting the possession of live coyotes without written permission of the Game and Fish Commission, a law classifying the crane as a game bird.

Washington County was added from the list of counties under the jurisdiction of the Regulatory Authority. Regulations were added to the list of counties participating in the program of bringing the net total to 100,000 in the 4th Precinct of the Authority, as was that of Lake Texoma lying in Grayson Counties, and east portion of Matagorda County.

Also, the Commission's regulatory responsibilities for deer in San Saba County were extended.
