Winters Lions Will Hear Talk By Former Prisoner of the Communists

Members of the Winters Lions Club and their guests next Tuesday will hear in detail descriptions of the horrors connected with a communist prisoner of war camp. They will hear about attempts by the communists in North Korea to brain-wash prisoners. And they will hear it from the lips of a man who was there for three years and five days.

M-SGT. C. B. SCHLICHTER

Master Sergeant Charles B. Schlichter will be a guest of the Lions Club at their noon luncheon next Tuesday, and will relate some of his experiences during the Korean War. He also will speak to the student body at Winters High School at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. His appearance here is being sponsored by the Lions Club, and is in connection with the American Heritage program being conducted in the Winters Schools.

Each member of the Lions Club has been urged to attend the noon meeting, and bring a guest. Sgt. Schlichter is now an instructor of food inspection technicians at the Medical Field Service School, at Brooke Army Medical Center, Fort Sam Houston, Texas. He has spoken to many different groups in Texas in the past several months.

Before he went to Brooke Army Medical Center he served with the Pennsylvania National Guard (11-39-40), Coast Guard, Naval Reserve, was attached to the 2nd and 4th Marine Divisions, as well as being in the Army. As a Coastguardsman, Sergeant Schlichter attended Pharmacy School at Columbia University in 1942, and for a while was instructor in surgical techniques there before serving with the North Atlantic Patrol. Attached to the 3rd Amphibious Fleet in the Pacific late in World War II, he saw enemy action at Majura, Kwajalein, Eniwetok, Saipan, Tinian, Leyte, and Luzon, landing with assault forces and then maintaining evacuation routes for the injured when landing forces took over. After serving with the U. S. Naval Reserve in 1947-48, he enlisted in the Army as a medical technician with the grade of Sergeant. He was assigned to the 183rd General Hospital in Anchorage, Alaska, and then to William Beaumont Army Hospital in El Paso, Texas, as a surgical technician.

Sergeant Schlichter was en-

Burial Association Changes Name To Spill Insurance Co.

The local mutual insurance company which has been known as the Spill Burial Association has been changed to the Spill Life Insurance Co., according to an announcement made this week.

Administration of policies in effect with the Burial Association will continue as in the past, it was announced, with each policy holder receiving an assumption certificate in the near future.

The company, a local mutual aid company, is organized and operated under the Texas State Insurance laws. At present there are 860 policy holders.

Officers of the new insurance company are Mrs. John Gardner, president; Mrs. Ila Afferbach, vice president; Ted Meyer, secretary-treasurer. Members of the board are Merrick Spill and Ernest Adami.

Spill Burial Association was organized in June of 1944, with the late Ben Spill as president. The association has paid 200 claims since organization.

Under the new name and organization, the company will write policies up to $500. The prime purpose of reorganization was to enable the company to make this increase, it was said. Previously, policies were written to $150 per member.

The company will write policies for persons from birth through 75 years of age, Ted Meyer, secretary, said. Present premiums will remain in effect, he said, with no change.

Band Mothers Club Held Meeting Tues. In Band Hall

First regular meeting of the Band Mothers Club for the new year was held Tuesday at the Blizzard Band Hall with the president, Mrs. J. W. Bahlman, presiding. The group heard reports from the officers and Band Director Robert Gans.

A tea will be given at the next meeting October 10, in the home-making cottage to honor mothers of the fifth grade band students and mothers of new students in the band program.

It was explained to the group that the concession stand, operated by the club at Blizzard Field, is subject to the 2 percent sales tax, and they asked that the public be prepared to pay the tax by having pennies at the game. A fund raising project of the club will be selling black pepper and vanilla, it was decided at the meeting. Ladies needing these items are asked to contact either a Band Mother, or student.

Tri-County Singing Slated At Hopewell Baptist Church Sun.

Tri-County singing will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Hopewell Baptist Church, according to Clyde Brevard, secretary.

Singers are expected from Winters, Ballinger, Coleman and San Angelo and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Blizzards Travel To Brady Tonight

The Winters Blizzards, continuing their whirl around the pre-conference circuit, go to Brady tonight (Friday) to take on their arch-rivals, the Bulldogs, in the third session of the season.

With two games behind them, and with a 1-1 record, the Blizzards are looking toward the chance to put a blemish on the record of the Brady team, which has been rated as the No. 2 AA team in the state. Sweeney has been listed as the top team in the division.

Coach L. G. Wilson said his team is in good shape for tonight's encounter, with no serious injuries to hamper them. They came away from the Anson game last week with only the usual aches and pains.

Wilson expects to field about the same starting lineup at Brady that started against Anson. His offense will be Jerry Dunn and Roy Clark, in the end positions; Mike Mitchell and Donald Clanton at tackle; Alvis Jackson and Roger Stanford at guard; Roland Tekell, center. In the backfield, Denny Aldridge and Tommy Young will fill the halfback slots, with Steve Grissom in the fullback spot. Johnny Caskey will be calling signals at quarterback.

For a defensive team, Johnny Hopper and A. L. Mitchell will go in at end, and Adolpho Arroyo will be fullback. Mike Bedford will shift to a halfback spot for defense.

The Blizzards will be watching for Charles Reynolds, Brady quarterback, who scored against Ballinger two weeks ago, and Jimmy Bradshaw, fullback, who scored two extra points and a TD at Ballinger. Other Brady backs who will be under surveillance by the Big Blue team will be wingback George Kidd, extra point runner against Ballinger, and HB Darrell Roper, who scored in that game.

The Brady Bulldogs of District 18-AA have already racked up two games for this season, walloping Mason 32 to 8 last week, and a 30-0 victory over Ballinger when they invaded 7-AA territory two weeks ago.

All over the 7-AA District, the won-lost pattern seems to be consistent. In pre-conference tilts, all teams of the district have a 1-1 record, with the exception of Ranger, who has lost 1 and tied 1.

Ballinger dropped their opener 30-0 to Brady, and won over San Saba 22-0 in their second game. Coleman bowed to Anson 19-0, and then whipped Comanche 36-0. Winters hit Lakeview 22-14, and then lost to Anson 18-0. Cisco lost to Hamlin 30-6, and then hit Eastland 41-0. Ranger lost to Rotan 41-20, and then tied Baird 16-16. Several weeks remain before the district teams pile into one another for a go at the top spot this year.

MYF Will Meet In Brownwood September 18

The Brownwood District Methodist Youth Fellowship will hold a back-to-school youth rally at Coggin Park, Brownwood, Monday, September 18. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p. m.

Speaker for the evening will be the Rev. Bob Robertson, Central Texas Conference Youth Director. Billy Bartley, music teacher in Coleman Junior High School, will lead the singing.

Youth testimonies will be given by Eddie Lerner of Brownwood, and Mary Jane Matthews, Winters. There will be a youth choir directed by Billy Bartley.

Committees for the meeting are: Blanket MYF, publicity, Ann Damron, chairman; theme and banner, Winters MYF; arrangements, Central Methodist Church, Brownwood, and First Methodist Church, Brownwood; Johnson Memorial Methodist Church, Brownwood, and First Methodist Church, May, will be in charge of the ushers. Dist. Director of Youth is Rev. Louis Berry of Blanket. District officers are Jimmy Johnson, Winters, president; Jerry Todd, Comanche, vice president; Elizabeth Childress, Coleman, secretary; and Eddie Lerner, Brownwood, treasurer.

Sub-District directors are the Rev. Jack Riley, Bangs; Mr. and Mrs. John Townsend, Winters, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holly, Ballinger.

RETURNED HOME

Dr. and Mrs. C. C. McDaniel of Amarillo came Saturday to bring her mother, Mrs. E. Burton and Mrs. C. W. Gregory to their homes after a visit in Amarillo. Mrs. Gregory visited in the home of her son, Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Gregory.

FROM AUSTIN

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gerstenberg of Austin spent the week end visiting in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Gerstenberg.

City Directory Committee To Meet Tuesday At Pierce's

City Directory Committee of the Winters Chamber of Commerce will meet Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock at Pierce's Cafeteria, according to Ted Meyer, chairman.

Committee members and section chairmen include Tab Hatler, Al Libbe, Mrs. B. B. Bedford, Rev. Leslie Ellison, Bob Loyd, Jet Chapman and Tom Holland.

The City of Winters has been divided into four sections and Rev. Ellison will be chairman of the northeast section, Bob Loyd, northwest, Jet Chapman, southwest and Tom Holland, southeast.

Plans for the city directory will be completed at the meeting Tuesday and workers will be called. Each committeeman will select their workers and at the next meeting all workers will meet and census cards will be issued.

FROM ARIZONA

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Roe of Bagdad, Arizona spent the week end visiting in the home of his mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Tharp.

Students' Annual Trek Back-To-College Begins

Approximately 90 students from Winters are enrolling in various universities and colleges throughout the state for the fall semester. Some students have already left for the school of their choice and others will be leaving within the next week.

Several 1961 graduates of Winters High School will enter college for the first time and others will be returning to the schools they previously attended.

Winters will be represented in approximately 21 universities and colleges this fall, with the largest number of Winters students enrolling at the University of Texas.

History Shows That Good Land and Good Children Are Best Investments

Babson Park, Mass. For thousands of years scientists have been interested in alchemy, or the turning of a base metal like lead into some precious metal like gold. No one has thus far succeeded in doing this. Attempts have also been made to insulate gravity by mixing two or more elements and finding an alloy which will shield gravity. Here again this has failed ever since the days of Sir Isaac Newton, 250 years ago. Recently, various studies have been made of inheritance, which I will discuss in this column under the general subject of "polymers."

What Has Been Taught
It has been generally accepted that both the father and the mother supply certain genes which are attached together into "strings" known as chromosomes. These genes carry special talents down through the generations. As to how far back they originate, or how long they have traveled through some mother's body, we do not know.

We further do not know just what traits or talents will come through, or when. History, however, does show that the greater the number of children a mother has, the greater her chance of having one or more famous children. This helps to explain why our nation has been built up by large families and why so often an "only child" has not amounted to much. Anti-Anti-Red Drive Directed At Congressmen

By Congressman O. C. Fisher
The Communist Party U. S. A. is becoming quite brazen. All members of the Congress are now receiving regular releases from Gus Hall, top dog in the Red conspiracy in this country. I have received two of them.

In these releases Hall follows the Kremlin line, taking pokes at Wall Street, Monopolists, Big Business, and the Western alliance. He says the conservative in the U. S. are war-mined, against the Negro and labor unions, and would enslave the proletariat if they have a chance.

Hall also takes a cut—as would be expected—at the House Un-American Activities Committee, and—as would be expected—against the film "Operation Abolition."

Sending this propaganda to members of Congress is something new. So far as I know, the Comies have never done that before. It seems to be timed to coincide with the Kremlin - directed drive against anti-Communists in this country. Called an anti-anti-Communist drive, the Kremlin's new technique was recently exposed by the Senate Internal Security Committee, and also by FBI's J. Edgar Hoover.

The line is to discredit individuals and groups who become active in efforts to expose Communists and their evil purposes. Such people then become targets of ridicule and all manner of techniques are employed by the Communist experts in the field of psychological warfare to discredit those who would discredit Communism.

The 5-day conference of unaligned Nations, mostly from Africa and Asia, which just men in Belgrade, Yugoslavia, did not wrap itself in glory. The delegates found fault with our retention of Guantanamo Naval Base in Cuba; criticized Portugal's role in Angola; picked on France for her actions in Algeria and Tunisia; rebuked alleged western colonialism, etc.

But not a word of criticism was voiced of the Soviet breach of the voluntary ban on thermonuclear testing; not a word of fault was found with harsh treatment of Eastern Europeans all at the hands of the worst imperialists of modern times!

Most of the unaligned nations who participated have emissaries in Washington seeking more foreign aid—and many threatening to go Communist if we don't give them more money.

bonds will come and go; but polymers will go on forever. I wish this could be taught to human beings.

Carolyn Mewis Becomes Bride Of A. C. Wessels at Brenham

St. Paul's Lutheran Church at Brenham was the scene of the August wedding when Miss Carolyn Jean Mewis was united in marriage to A. C. Wessels, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wessels of Winters. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Mewis of Brenham.

The Rev. Theo Streng, officiated for the double ring ceremony in the presence of members of immediate families of the bride and groom.

The altar was decorated with vases of white gladioli and commodore foliage. Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Theo Streng who gave a prelude of wedding selections and also played "Because" and other traditional wedding selections during the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length dress of white embroidered silk, fashioned with a fitted bodice with scalloped neckline and the bouffant skirt of scalloped tiers. Her finger-tip veil of illusion fell from a crown of bridal jewels and she carried a bouquet of small white vanda orchids and carnations centered with a purple-throated orchid, atop a white Bible.

The bride's only attendant was Miss Patricia Wessels, sister of the groom, who wore an early fall fashion of emerald green faille and carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations.

Charles Mewis, brother of the bride, served as best man. For her wedding trip to New Orleans, Mrs. Wessels changed to a blue suit with black accessories and a white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was laid with lace and punch was served from a crystal punch bowl. The cake, a double wedding ring, was embossed with blue roses and other refreshments served were sandwiches, assorted nuts and bridal mints.

A graduate of Brenham High School and Sam Houston State Teachers College, the bride will be employed by the Richards Public Schools. The groom, a graduate of Winters High, will attend Sam Houston State College in Huntsville this fall. They will make their home in Richards.

A student is lucky if he comes under the influence of one good teacher in his school and college years. To encounter a dozen good teachers would be most unlikely.

Much time is wasted by listening to others talk.

Chevrolet Introduces Diesel Power In Medium- and Heavy-Duty Models for '62

Introduction of diesel power in medium- and heavy-duty models, two new larger displacement engines, broader power team options across the line, lower hood lines for improved driver visibility, and extra heavy-duty optional front suspensions highlight the 1962 Chevrolet truck line.

Other features include restyled radiator grille to include single 8-inch headlamps in all but three series, optional alternating current generators on gasoline models, and directional signals as standard equipment on all but one series.

Extended life mufflers are offered on all gasoline powered models. In the light-duty series, an aluminum shell inhibits corrosion. Medium and heavy-duty model mufflers feature heavier gauge baffles for increased life.

"This new line of 198 different models offers our customers the widest choice of trucks in our history," James E. Conlan, Chevrolet's assistant general sales manager for trucks, announced. "The need for more models designed for specific hauling jobs is typified by our entry into the growing diesel market in the medium and heavy-duty field with 15 new models."

Engines available for the first time in the 1962 Chevrolet truck line include one General Motors diesel—a 212 cu. in., in-line four—and two gasoline V8's of 327 and 409 cu. in. displacement. Four six-cylinder engines and two V8's are continued for a total of nine power plants. A 261 cu. in. six is being made available for the first time as a regular option in light and medium-duty trucks with manual transmissions, except forward control models.

Suspension systems for 1962 largely carry over the successful design introduced two years ago, featuring independent front wheel suspension with torsion bar springing. Minor modifications have been made for increased durability and capacity.

For extreme off-road operations, two new extra-heavy duty optional I-beam 9,000 and 11,000 lb. front suspensions with leaf springs are available for most models in Chevrolet's heaviest-duty series.

The Corvair 95 line features further refinements in the advanced design introduced last year. These include an automatic choke, an optional limited-slip differential, redesigned double side-door locking mechanisms in panel models for easier operation and convenience of the driver, and an optional single passenger seat which folds forward for easier access to the panel load compartment.

The diesel lineup consists of 15 conventional cab models on 5 wheelbases ranging from 133 to 197 inches with cab-axle dimensions from 60 to 124 inches. GVW range is from 15,000 to 23,000 lbs.

Diesel power is supplied by the four-cylinder, 2-cycle GM "4-53" engine proved by millions of miles of customer experience. It develops 130 hp. and 271 lb.-ft. of torque. With a high ratio of horsepower to weight, size, and displacement, it offers lower fuel costs, long life, and reduced maintenance and downtime. An alternating current generator is standard equipment.

The 327 cu. in. engine, rated at 185 hp. and 305 lb.-ft. of torque, features heavily reinforced cylinder block bulkheads, high-strength connecting rod sections, heavy-duty M5000 aluminum alloy connecting rod bearings, hard-tip push rod inserts, heavy valve springs designed to prevent "bottoming out," large capacity air cleaner for increased breathing, and 13-in. clutch for positive action and longer life.

The 409 cu. in. engine develops markedly high power and torque from its greater displacement and new combustion chamber design. It develops 252 hp. and 390 lb.-ft. of torque.

The cylinder block has extra heavy bulkheads and connecting rods are strongly reinforced in all sections, with M5000 aluminum alloy, heat-treated bearings, and induction hardened valve seats for longer life. A new combustion chamber shape promotes more efficient combustion with lower

Larger V8 Engines and Diesel Debut in '62 Chevrolet Trucks

Diesel power for the first time, addition of two higher powered V8's, and lower hood lines for better road visibility highlight Chevrolet's 1962 truck line. New to most of the 198 models are directional signals as standard equipment, single headlamps and longer life mufflers. New optional equipment includes alternating current generators, tinted glass and sliding rear cab window for better ventilation. Proved independent front suspension is retained with improvements.

octane fuels, reduced carbon deposits, and cooler engine operation. Development of the 409 has led to incorporation of many of its new features into the 348 V-8. Innovations common to both engines include combustion chamber design, centerline piston pin location, larger valves and ports, and larger water pump by-pass.

Several important improvements also have been made in chassis features on the 1962 Chevrolet truck line. On light-duty models, full circle wheel pilots are used front and rear, assuring a more positive alignment and minimizing cab bounce. K-type frames formerly used on long wheelbase medium and heavy-duty models are replaced by a ladder-type frame to facilitate mounting back-of-cab power equipment.

An interesting new cab feature offered as a dealer installed item is a sliding rear window for all but tilt-cab models. Two overlapping panes in a double channel slide right or left for increased ventilation. As a convenience for drivers, front door locks have been moved to the left-hand door.

By VERN SANFORD

Oily black clouds were boiling across the sky, intermittently spitting rain.

Barreling out of the south were winds at 30 miles per hour with occasional gusts hitting 35.

Small craft warning flags stood out straight on the mast atop the Coast Guard station.

A good day for boating? Absolutely not! How about fishing? Yes, it might be real good in some waters.

When the small-craft warnings fly on the Texas coast, it means that boats less than 50 or 60 feet in length should stay in port. But it doesn't mean that fishing is also out. In fact, the wade fishermen can make some outstanding catches under such weather conditions.

Strong southerly or easterly winds over a period of time can build up some unusually high tides in many of the coastal bays. Most of these bays have a number of small feeder bayous extending back into the salt grass flats or prairie.

When the tides stand a foot or two above the normal high, these small bayous spread out of their banks with water flooding these salt grass flats and portions of the prairie. True, the water isn't deep. Perhaps just a foot or 18 inches. But it's deep enough for fish, and quite often you can make some remarkable catches. This is particularly true of small redfish, better known to coastal inhabitants as rat reds. These are the reds that range from one pound to three or four pounds in size.

Reds have a liking for crustaceans. You'll find plenty of tiny crustaceans—mostly snails—clinging to the stems of the salt grass. Under normal water conditions the water might not be more than several inches in depth around these grass stands. Obviously too shallow for fish.

But on the flood tides the water is deep enough for the fish and they move right into the grass. Often you can locate them by the "V" they make in the water. Sometimes you'll even see their tails fanning and breaking the surface of the water.

Fishing for rat reds when they are feeding in the grass on the flooded flats calls for an unusually stealthy approach. Since the water is so shallow, the least bit of unusual noise will spook them. Best tackle to use is spinning gear since it is so light that tiny lures and small baits can be used. You don't want to make an unnecessary splash with the bait hitting the water, so eliminate a sinker. That means you must cast with the wind.

It also means the casts will have to be comparatively long since a close approach will spook the fish. When you locate a school of rat reds working in the flooded grass area don't cast into the middle of the school. Drop your bait ahead of the fish and let the school work to it.

Don't figure on catching more than a couple of reds from each school. Hooked fish usually make enough commotion to cause the rest of the school to scramble for deeper water.

Now for the bait. For natural baits, use small shrimp, sand fiddlers and snails. For artificial lures, use tiny gold spoons. They are deadly. And surprisingly the plastic worms that score so well on bass in fresh water also are effective on rat reds.

Fish the plastic worms the same way you do for bass. Move the worm along just an inch at a time. When you feel a fish nibbling at it, stop reeling. Allow the fish to take the worm well into

'Mrs. Texas' Contest Set For Abilene

Ten outstanding homemakers will compete in Abilene September 21 to determine Lone Star Gas Company's West Texas Regional representative in the annual "Mrs. Texas" contest at Dallas November 2-3. The regional finals will be held in the morning at Lone Star's Abilene District office and will conclude with a noon luncheon at which the winner will be crowned.

The regional finalists are: Mrs. Raymond McBroom of Haskell; Mrs. B. M. Sims of Wellington; Mrs. Hartsill Everett of Brownwood; Mrs. Carrol R. Shelton of Eastland; Mrs. John J. Hefferman of San Angelo; Mrs. Sam Reeves of Sweetwater; Mrs. Gloria Barham of Abilene; Mrs. Olan L. Balch and Mrs. Joe Moncla of Wichita Falls; and Mrs. J. A. Colburn of Iowa Park.

The Mrs. Texas contest, sponsored by Lone Star, is a prelude to the gigantic "Mrs. America" contest, which brings together the top homemakers from the nation's 50 states. The homemaker chosen Mrs. Texas will compete in the nationally televised Mrs. American finals at Fort Lauderdale, Florida, November 13-27.

Winner of the West Texas regional competition will contest champions from Lone Star's East and South Texas Regions and the Dallas and Fort Worth Divisions of Distribution. Mrs. Texas, who will be selected from these five top homemakers, will receive many valuable prizes.

Mrs. Texas will win: a major gas appliance; a wardrobe from the Puritan Dress Company; $200 in cash; an expense paid trip for herself and her husband to the national finals in Florida; and other prizes to be announced.

Mrs. America, the woman finally designated as the country's top homemaker, will receive a galaxy of prizes in addition to her coveted title. The Mrs. America contestant will be judged on cooking and baking, menu planning, table setting, child care, community service, church activities, poise and appearance, and personality.

Texas' Testing Stations Studying Radioactive Fallout In Austin, El Paso

BY VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

Radioactive fallout is under close scrutiny at Texas' two testing stations in Austin and El Paso. Resumption of nuclear testing by the Soviet Union brought on the 24-hour-a-day shift atop the State Health Department building in Austin where sampling devices, working like vacuum cleaners, pull jet streams of air through a filter to measure fallout.

During the four year nuclear test ban, radioactivity got progressively lower. Before the tests were stopped, engineers said it was 50 to 100 times higher. They expect results of Russian shots to begin showing up here within the next few days.

Meanwhile, Gov. Price Daniel announced a survey is being launched in Texas to make fallout shelter space available over the state. He said Col R. West of the U. S. Army Engineers at Fort Worth, who has been assigned to survey, will work in coordination with the State Civil Defense and Disaster Relief Division and local civil defense officials.

Survey is part of a national program to locate possible fallout shelter space in existing buildings, tunnels and other protected areas.

POULTRY INDUSTRY IN TROUBLE

Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White organized a conference of southern Agriculture Commissioners in Atlanta, Ga., to "seek ways and means to help save the poultry industry." White said they will attempt to find ways to relieve the current "disastrous poultry prices" which are at the lowest point in the history of commercial broiler production.

"This is not just a local situation in Texas," White said. "The entire national broiler industry is suffering from a price depression."

He reported poultry prices dropped in the past week to as low as 10.5 cents per pound, or as much as five cents below cost for many producers.

Meanwhile, the Attorney General's Department is studying the record of a special court of inquiry to determine if anti-trust violations are involved in the price decline.

Witnesses testified the trouble is overproduction. Actually the overproduction is not in Texas but in the 21 other broiler producing states.

Phil Friberg, manager of the Western Hatcheries in Gonzales, said 50 per cent of Texas' broiler producers will be out of business if something doesn't happen.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson wants to determine if "there is any effort to price the Texas poultry producer out of business."

PADRE ISLAND STUDY ORDERED

Governor Daniel has taken up Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler's recommendation that a feasibility study be made to determine whether Padre Island beaches should be turned into a state park area.

Sadler said the Governor agreed to appoint a statewide committee with instructions to report quickly. The long, slender island, a potential playground paradise, has been the center of controversy since it was proposed that a large portion of it be turned over to the federal government for a national park area.

LOAN COMPANIES CLEARED OF ANTI-TRUST CHARGE

A civil anti-trust suit alleging 31 loan companies conspired to push punitive small loan laws through the Texas Legislature has been dismissed by Federal Judge Ben Rice Jr. in Austin.

Suit, filed by J. L. House Jr. who operates a small loan business in Waco and other cities, charged that large Texas and out-of-state loan companies conspired to secure enactment of laws that would "destroy the small loan business of the plaintiff and all others similarly situated."

Judge Rice held the allegations did not show sufficient cause against the defendant companies to warrant a court trial.

OIL PRICES HIT

Governor Daniel joined independent producers in pleas for action to stem the tide of falling Texas crude oil prices.

"In view of rising equipment and operating costs, crude purchasers should be thinking of some price increase," he said. "Domestic crude oil is long overdue for more realistic prices if needed exploration is to be stimulated. Lower prices, combined with a stringent law allowable pattern in Texas, will continue to aggravate the problem of some of them by the price-cutting companies, which hamstringing the domestic industry and the producing states."

"I hope these and other purchasers will consider the plight of the domestic industry in their future actions," he concluded.

The president of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association, James F. West, said a personal appeal is being made to the heads of purchasing companies "in hope that common sense will assert itself."

PAPER BACKS IN SCHOOL

State Board of Education has launched a study into the question of how much could be saved by using paper-back books in schools, and whether it would be worth it.

"We can't say what the savings will be until the study is made," State Education Commissioner J. W. Edgar said, "but it appears the initial savings will be considerable." He pointed out the principal cost of some books is what's inside, rather than the materials used.

Board authorized the Texas Education Agency to start by asking bids on both soft cover and hard cover editions of one textbook—Vocal Music for seventh and eighth grades. It also authorized the agency to have a qualified laboratory test the wearability of paper backs against hard covers and submit findings.

DEMOCRAT TURNS REPUBLICAN

Jack Cox of Breckenridge, former member of the Texas House of Representatives who ran as a democrat for Governor in 1960, announced he is enlisting in the Republican Party "as a buck private."

"I can no longer support nor be a part of the Democratic Party under its present leadership and political platforms," he said. "And I shall immediately exercise my constitutional privilege of pledging my efforts and dedicating whatever abilities I may have to assist the Republican Party in its fight to restore constitutional government."

He said he will gladly serve the party of his new choice "in any capacity, no matter how small."

But he left the door open to run for Governor again. He polled some 620,000 votes in a two-man race that Governor Daniel won with 909,000 votes in 1960.

Mother and Daughter (Maureen O'Hara and Hayley Mills) eavesdrop on Father in this scene from Walt Disney's Technicolor romantic comedy, "The Parent Trap," starring Miss O'Hara, Brian Keith, Miss Mills as identical twins and co-starring Joanna Barnes. Buena Vista releases.

MOVIES

"The Parent Trap"
Walt Disney's hilarious motion picture feature, "The Parent Trap," starring Hayley Mills as completely identical twins, represents another seven-league step along the Burbank producer's road to ever greater diversification in filmed entertainment Thursday thru Saturday at the State Theatre.

Produced in color by Technicolor for $2,000,000 on the beaches and hills of exclusive Monterey, California, among the pines of Big Bear Lake, and on three sound stages at the Disney Studio, this picture is both Disney's funniest and most sophisticated product to date.

Actually, few theatrical productions in recent Hollywood history have been as packed as this one with all the goodies of entertainment—drama, humor, love and even a fair amount of good old-fashioned slapstick. Every scene produces laughter.

Playing twins who discover, at 14, that they are sisters, Hayley contributes her dual share with the able, experienced backing of Maureen O'Hara and Brian Keith as the trapped parents.

No small part in the picture's successful completion has been played by David Swift, the writer-director who scripted and mastered "The Parent Trap" as he did "Pollyanna" before it. The screenplay was based on the German novel, "Das doppelte Lottchen," by Erich Kastner.

Hayley's role is her first assignment under a long-term picture-year contract she signed with Disney following her immense success in "Pollyanna," for which she won an Honorary Academy Award.

"The Last Sunset"
Having already worn out two full sets of luggage with his globe-encircling chores as the number one boxoffice star of the screen, Rock Hudson is well on his way to exhausting a third set. . . .

"The Naked Edge"
Movies based on current events are commonplace. The newest development, however, seems to be current events based on a movie.

Not that the movie, the suspense thriller "The Naked Edge," which will open on Wednesday at the State Theatre, can be blamed for what's going on in the world. But there is an amazing similarity between the story-line of the Pennebaker-Baroda production and recent news events.

The United Artists release, which stars Gary Cooper and Deborah Kerr, is a story of a blackmailing letter that arrives five years late—delivered when a stolen mail bag is finally recovered. It is one of the most unusual plot hooks in recent film history. . . .

Some Widows Not Receiving Increase In SS Benefits

Widows 62 and over, who are collecting social security benefits based on their own work, did not get increases in their payments with the checks delivered to them this week, Floyd B. Ellington, district manager of the San Angelo Social Security Office, pointed out today. . . .

The 10 percent increase in widow's benefits, signed into law by President Kennedy on June 30, is payable only to those widows 62 and over who are receiving benefits based on their husband's work under social security, he said.

Under the social security law, a widow 62 or over who has worked under social security long enough to become insured is usually paid retirement benefits based on her own record of earnings. She is paid the widow's benefits based on her husband's earnings only if those widow's benefits would be higher than her own retirement benefits.

Because of the 10 percent increase in widow's benefits, Ellington said, a few women now find that the widow's benefits, based on their husbands' work are somewhat higher than their present benefits.

Any widow who believes that she might qualify for higher benefits because of this change in the law can find out for sure by asking at her social security office.

It might be well to remember that what you don't know will not hurt anybody as much as it hurts you.

Wyer won the statuettes for his direction of "Ben-Hur," "Mrs. Miniver" and "The Best Years of Our Lives," and, in all, was nominated on 11 occasions. . . .

Mrs. Brooks Bartee Attended Poe Reunion Near Waco Sept. 3

Mrs. Brooks Bartee of Shep returned home recently from Chalk Bluff, which is eleven miles northwest of Waco, where she attended the Poe family reunion held September 3, in the home of her niece, Mrs. Milton Sheppard.

Among relatives present were Mrs. Bartee's nieces, Mrs. Flossie Sawyer, Nettie Choat, both of Waco and Mrs. Charles Cooper of Coleman, whom she hadn't seen for 45 years and a brother, A. F. Poe of Gatesville, whom she hadn't seen for 25 years, and Mrs. E. N. Nash of Waxahachie and one brother, R. G. Poe of Stockton, California were unable to attend the reunion.

Ninety-five descendants of the late S. T. Poe of the Wilmeth community were present and towns represented were Abilene, Shep, Coleman, Gatesville, McGregor, Waxahachie, Dallas, Waco, Brownwood, Houston, Austin, Temple and Kerens.

The coming generation is the world's best asset but the adults of the world are a bit slow to spend money on the future rulers of the universe.

Civilization will be far advanced when the statement "there's work to be done" will attract men as quickly as "have you heard this one, etc?"

Peace will come to the world when the people of the world are willing to do as much for the cause of peace as they do for the sake of war.

Cost of this disposal has reached a total of $65,000,000. By the year 2000, it is estimated, 100,000 acres a year would be required to accommodate the waste.

Circles of WSCS Held Regular Meetings Tuesday

Circles of Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church held their regular meetings Tuesday in the homes of members.

Mrs. E. L. Crockett served as hostess for the Win-some Circle with Mrs. W. W. Parramore conducting the business session and Mrs. Jim Edwards leading the opening prayer.

Mrs. E. H. Baker, program leader, discussed "The Conditions That Prevailed on the Day of Pentecost," Mrs. H. O. Abbott, Mrs. M. L. Dobbins and Frances Stricklin discussed "Unusual Happenings on the Day of Pentecost." The devotion "The Need and Power of Prayer" was given by Mrs. W. W. Parramore.

The meeting was dismissed by the group repeating "The Lord's Prayer" in unison.

Refreshments of coffee and cake were served to Mesdames M. L. Dobbins, Lee Herman, H. O. Abbott, E. H. Baker, Elmo Mayhew, W. W. Parramore, George Ross, Jim Edwards and Miss Frances Stricklin.

The Frances Bowden Circle met in the home of Mrs. Garland Shook with Mrs. Jerry English presiding for the business session.

During the business session, roll was called and letters of acceptance were read from Zannette Moore, Judy Hogan and Becky Brown. The resignation of Virginia Sullivan was also read.

Members decided to sponsor a booth at the Halloween carnival and a bake sale was discussed and scheduled for Saturday, September 16.

Marcene Matthis, Pam Bedford and Marta Davidson presented the program which was basically an orientation for the new members. Scandal was read and refreshments were served to Pam Bedford, Jaye Henley, Linda Parks, Leonia Daniel, Lynn Kruse, Linda Easterly, Kathryn Clark, Sonja Modisett, Doris Rice, Gwen Caskey, Barbara Baldwin, Marcene Matthis, Brenda Parrish, Jere Merck, Russell Bedford and Mrs. S. B. Parks.

Benediction was repeated and the meeting adjourned.

Stockmen To Be On Alert for Pinkeye

Pinkeye has been reported from many areas of the state and Dr. C. M. Patterson, extension veterinarian, says stockmen should keep a careful watch for symptoms among their cattle.

Symptoms include watery eyes and swollen and reddened eyelids, Dr. Patterson said. Later the eyeball may become clouded, vision impaired and sick cattle will show discomfort in sunlight, he said. Pinkeye can cause damage ranging from simple irritation to permanent blindness, the veterinarian added.

Dr. Patterson said there are many causes for eye troubles which resemble pinkeye, including several infections, growths, vitamin A deficiency and wind-blown forage and chaff which irritate the eyes. It is best, he said, to consult a veterinarian if pinkeye is suspected so that proper treatment can be started at once and also the cause determined. The treatment varies with the cause, he said.

Bigness is not a crime, even in business, but rascality and fraud are, whether called "trade customs" or something else.

MR. AND MRS. O. C. PARRISH

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Parrish Observed 50th Wedding Anniversary Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Parrish of Wingers observed their fiftieth wedding anniversary with open house Sunday afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock at their home in southwest Taylor County.

Children noting the celebration were Mrs. Marylon Newsome of Fort Worth, Vester Parrish and a niece, Bennie Walker, both of Wingers.

Carla Walker presided at the register and Mrs. Newsome and Brenda Parrish served refreshments from a table laid with lace centered with an arrangement of carnations. Table appointments were of silver and crystal.

Mrs. Parrish, the former Lela Humphreys, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. Z. Humphreys, was born May 31, 1880 in a one room log cabin near Moro.

Mr. Parrish, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Parrish, was born November 4, 1878 at Richmond, Ky. He came to Texas in March 1899 and has lived in Taylor County since November 9, 1899. He did ranch work for the late Mr. and Mrs. William Humphreys until 1903 when Mr. Humphreys died and he became manager of the ranch until 1911.

The couple met in 1899 at a dinner in the home of his uncle and after their marriage on September 10, 1911 at Wingers they moved to their present home.

Mr. Parrish is a former school trustee at Frog Hollow and serving as a campaign manager for W.

Humble Football Broadcasts, TV Starts Sept. 16

Next Saturday (September 16) will be the kick-off date for the Humble Company's annual comprehensive coverage of college football for Texans. And as a post-season bonus, Humble will sponsor radio broadcasts of the 14 play-off AAA and AAAA Texas High school football games played in December.

Kicking off the coverage will be a live telecast of the Pittsburg-Miami game played Saturday at Miami, Florida. This game will be the first of the 13 NCAA telecasts to be co-sponsored by Humble. Southwest Conference teams appearing in these telecasts include Texas, Texas A and M and Arkansas.

Regular radio broadcasts of Southwest Conference games will start September 23 when Kern Tips will describe the Rice-LSU game from Houston, Ves Box will announce the Texas-California game from Berkeley, Eddie Barker will broadcast the Texas A and M-Houston game from College Station, Bob Walker will cover the SMU-Maryland game from Dallas, Eddie Hill will describe the TCU-Kansas game from Fort Worth and Dave Russell will broadcast the Texas-Tech - Mississippi State game from Jackson.

These games will be broadcast over networks that include about 100 Texas radio stations. By the end of the season, Humble will have broadcast 49 games played by Southwest Conference teams.

Recently the oil company's play-by-play announcing staff attended a football seminar in Austin. Conducting the seminar were Kern Tips and members of the University of Texas football coaching staff. The announcers discussed types of play and formations likely to be seen in the Southwest Conference games this season, rule changes made since last season, make a creative and redemptive use of adversity. According to references made to him in the New Testament, Titus must have fulfilled the requirements for a Christian leader which are found in Titus 2:7: "in all respects a model of good deeds."

How did Titus become such a man? The New Testament indicates that he learned that through Christ he could use adversity and pain as a means of Christian growth and achievement. This discovery can open doors to a new life for everyone.

as possible. If you have items which you would like to send down to help those people, take them to Mrs. Bedford—she will see that they are sent to the right places. They can use cash, too.

Several Winters residents have friends or relative whose homes were in the path of the hurricane, or close enough to feel effects. Among them, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Aschen of Port Lavaca. Mrs. Aschen is the former Altus Ueckert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Ueckert of Winters.

The Aschens left Port Lavaca Saturday, and stopped in Cuero with his mother. Later they decided to move farther inland, and went to Phlugerville where they stayed with friends, until Monday, when they came on to Winters. They have returned to Port Lavaca, and reported back that their own home had received very little damage; that most damage there was on the waterfront. In the newer section of the town water had been from 1 to 3 feet deep. Power had been restored, and water was available.

The Rev. and Mrs. Jimmy Shipman and children left their home in Texas City Saturday, spent the night in Houston, and then on to Winters. They reported every town enroute was jammed with refugees from the coastal cities. Rev. Shipman heard that Texas City had been under 8 feet of water, and feared that all his books in his study would be ruined. Mrs. Shipman is the former Jackie Briley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Briley.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gotcher and children live in Nederland, 8 miles from Port Arthur. They left before the storm hit, after boarding windows and stacking furniture out of reach of possible water, they hoped. When they left they reported it was raining, and traffic was so heavy they figured the cars were stacked "bumper to bumper all the way to Dallas." They had loaded clothing and bedding into a station wagon. Mrs. Gotcher is the daughter of Mrs.

Mrs. John Best, mother of Bob Best, formerly of Winters but now living in Kingsville, received a letter Wednesday from her son and family. The letter, written Monday morning, stated that the wind was high, and that windows in that city were being boarded up. Wind was blowing 60 to 75 miles an hour, and tree limbs were being blown down, school was dismissed.

Effects of catastrophe are felt over wide areas.

At a meeting of the City Council the other day, Dr. Don Bedford made a recommendation to the city dads which makes a lot of sense. He suggested that a flood depth gauge be placed at the crossing of the little creek which separates Sunlawn Addition from the rest of Winters. During the heavy rains of the Labor Day weekend, one car was driven into the crossing, stalled, and a lady was almost stranded there.

A depth gauge would come in mighty handy during such times. We're going to stick our neck out again this year, and try to call some of the big football games. Can't do worse than we did last year. Here's our pick for this week:

Tulsa over Hardin-Simmons. Iowa State over Drake. Utah State over Tex. Western Howard-Payne over McMurry. Tarleton over S. W. Okla. Tex. A & I over Corpus Christi. East Texas over ACC. Sam Houston over La. College.

NOTICE

First meeting of the Town and Country Garden Club will be held Wednesday, September 20, at 9:30 a. m. in the home of Mrs. George Briley. A special program has been planned with an out of town speaker discussing flower shows and preparations of flowers for showing. All members have been urged to attend and prospective members are invited.

Knowledge advances by steps and not by leaps.

Blizzards Lose To Anson 18-0 Friday Night

Winters High School Blizzards met a red and black Tiger in Anson last Friday night, and ended up second best in the fight between the two 1-0 teams.

Winters, going into the game, was the only team in District 7-AA with a no loss record, while Anson had been rated number one team in the area in Class AA.

The Blizzards received the kickoff, and after moving only six yards in three plays, Johnny Caskey, 160-lb. quarterback, punted giving Anson first and ten from their own 18-yard line. With QB Roger Huber leading their offense, Anson raked up a first down, but was held by the Winters defense on their next down try, and again Winters was in possession after receiving a punt from the toe of Huber.

From their own 14, the Blizzards called on Steve Grissom for two yards. On second down, with 8 to go from the 15, Grissom took a hand-off from Caskey, and rolled around his right end for a 45 yard run down to Anson's 39-yard line. He was brought down by Anson End Mike Blackman, but not until Winters had a first down, and had invaded Anson territory.

Moving to the 29, with runs by Grissom, Tommy Young, and Denny Aldridge, again the Big Blue team chalked up a first down. Grissom, taking another hand-off was hit hard, and the ball rolled free, and was recovered by Anson's Gary Blankenship.

From their own 44-yard line Anson began their first TD drive, with end runs by Dudley White and Jerry Pearce, their two big guns. A pass from Huber to Pearce was completed, and Pearce looked and thought he was headed for pay dirt, when Winters 160-pound guard, Roger Stanford, pulled him down on the 15. From there White went over for the first TD of the game, with 2:03 left in the first quarter. The run try for extra points was no good, and the score was 6-0, with Winters behind on the scoreboard for the first time this year.

The after touchdown kick-off was returned to the Anson 48 by Young, but as the quarter ended three plays later, the Blizzards had only been able to make two yards. A fourth down punt by Caskey opened the second quarter, and Anson took the ball on their own 16.

In 19 plays with runs by White, Huber and Addison, they moved the ball to Winters' one. A keeper by Huber was good for the TD, but again their conversion try, a kick, was not completed, and the score was 12-0.

With the clock running out on the first half, Caskey took to the air, only to have the Tigers Blackman intercept on his own 30. Only two scrimmage plays were run by Anson before the whistle blew.

The third quarter was Anson all the way, with Winters only being able to run seven plays in the entire period. However, Blizzard fans did get a thrill, as Huber, back to pass from the Winters 28, was tackled by Grissom to lose 9 yards.

Huber then attempted a pass to Pearce, but Young moved in on the ball, and gave Winters a first down try, from their own 7. Unable to move out, Caskey elected to kick out on the third down.

Taking the ball from Winters' 30, Anson moved to the 15 again, and White called for another TD. A pass try for extra points was incomplete, with 1:51 left in the third, Anson 18, Winters, 0.

Again Winters' offense bogged down under the heavy line of the Tigers, and as the quarter ended Caskey punted, giving Anson the ball on their own 46-yard line to open the final stanza.

And then the Winters line came to life, and Anson lost the ball on downs for the first time in the game. With first and ten from their 40, Caskey completed a 15-yard pass to Young. Three yards were picked up by Grissom, but Caskey was thrown for a loss of 7, as he was caught behind the line, while looking for a pass receiver. Again the toe of Caskey was put into play as he kicked to the Anson 37.

But Anson again could make no yardage, and punted to Winters, who began their offensive on their own 43. A pass from Alfrey was incomplete, and as he attempted to pass again, Anson's Sanders intercepted and made his way to the Winters 18 yard line.

The Winters defensive squad held the Tigers to only 7 yards in three tries, and Anson kicked out. Again the Caskey-Young combination was used, but this time in a reverse play, good for 15 yards. As the game ended Winters owned the ball on Anson's 30, but Anson owned the game. Grissom was again the leading ground gainer with 61 yards.

Farmers Favor Wheat Quotas In Referendum

Texas wheat producers and those in the other 38 commercial wheat producing states voted on August 24 to continue marketing quotas on their 1962 wheat crops. In the nation, 79.4 percent of those voting favored quotas and in Texas, 78.9 percent voted yes, says C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist. A two-thirds majority was needed to keep marketing quotas in effect, and to make operative the new wheat stabilization program.

Wheat producers will have to cut their acreage allotments by at least 10 percent for 1962 and may, if they choose, take out another 30 percent of their allotment, Bates says. Those who comply with their acreage allotments and conservation requirements will be eligible for the $2.00 per bushel price support and for wheat payments.

For the 10 percent acreage cut, the producer will be paid at the local price support rate for 45 percent of his normal yield. If additional acreage is diverted, payment will be based on 60 percent of the adjusted yield per acre, Bates says.

Farmers can get up to half of their payments when they sign up for the wheat acreage diverted to conservation uses, according to Bates. The balance will be paid after the farm has been checked for compliance.

Bates says that growers who need detailed information on the program should contact the local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committeemen, the ASC office or the county agent. Local meetings will be held in the near future to explain the new program and Bates urges all wheat growers to attend.

There is no man suddenly excellently good or extremely evil. For the world was built in order And the atoms march in tune.

route to duty with the 2nd Infantry Division at Fort Lewis, Washington when hostilities broke out in Korea July 16, 1950, and three days later he was on his way there with the medical company of the Division's 9th Infantry Regiment. On Thanksgiving Day, with his orders in his hand, he wrote his wife that the 9th Regiment would be in the United States by Christmas. That was the last she heard from him until notified that he was a prisoner of war. He was captured December 1, 1950, after being injured twice. For three years and five days in the camp at Cunu-ri, North Korea, he put his medical training to good use in caring for his fellow prisoners who were sick and wounded.

Upon returning to the United States he attended the Meat and Dairy Hygiene School in Chicago, and served as a food inspector technician at the New Cumberland, Pa., General Depot. Subsequently he studied Chinese Mandarin at the Army Language School at Presidio of Monterey, California, and in June 1956 he was assigned as a medical aid instructor with the U. S. Military Assistance Advisory Group on Taiwan. He assumed his present duties in October 1957.

He holds the Army Commendation Medal, Purple Heart with Oak Leaf Cluster, Good Conduct Medals from both the Coast Guard and Army, American Theatre Ribbon, Asiatic-Pacific Ribbon with five battle stars, World War II Victory Medal, National Defense Service Medal, Korean Service Medal with two stars, United Nations Service Medal, and the Republic of Korea Presidential Unit Citation.
