Growth Through Bible Study is the subject for next Sunday's Sunday School Lesson. The following is by A. M. John Traver: The Bible is the written record of God's self-revelation. The Gospels are the center of this revelation; they dominate the whole book and are the norm of interpretation, for the Gospels give us Christ. Every part of the Bible must be read by the light of Christ's life and works. Biblical interpretation must be Christ-o-centric. Human limitations in understanding, the dead ends men have found when they proudly and stubbornly went their own selfish ways—these are all in the Bible record. The Bible warns as well as comforts and encourages.

Because the Bible is a book to be read and studied, we dare not allow it to be a closed book, a mere symbol of faith. God gave us minds to use in searching the Scriptures. We need all the helps we can find from teachers, preachers, commentaries and competent Biblical scholars. But we must not be satisfied with knowing about the Bible. Prayerfully we must search to see what God would say to each of us. It is God's love-letter to His children.

Those Over 65 Can Receive SS Payments

Just the other day, a local man read an article saying all working people 65 or over who have not applied for their social security benefits should check into it. Well, he thought he was making too much money to collect his old-age insurance benefits. He's earning about $2200.00 a year as a maintenance man.

He is glad he followed the advice in that article because he found that some social security benefits will be payable to him for 1961, even though he continues to work. You see, a worker doesn't have to retire completely in order to get benefits. Under a law passed just last summer, a worker earning over $1200 a year has only $1 in benefits withheld for each $2 he earns between $1200 and $1700. Then, for each $1 he earns over $1700, an additional $1 is withheld.

He is eligible for a monthly benefit of $80.00. His wife can get an additional $40.00 monthly on his account. This amounts to $120.00 a month or $1440.00 a year. When you figure it out, even though this man expects to earn $2200.00 in 1961, he and his wife can still receive $690.00 in social security benefits for the year.

B. Parks.

STATE CAPITOL HIGHLIGHTS

Governor Daniel Will Ask For Funds To Advertise Texas' Tourist Virtues

By VERN SANFORD Texas Press Association

More than 600 "Texans for Tourists" attended Gov. Price Daniel's conference on Tourism.

They took a long look at sources and resources that can be used to promote national advertising of the state's visitable virtues.

While here, they decided to set up a non-profit organization called the Texas Tourist Council. Tentatively scheduled was an organizational meeting for January 10, "or during the next session of the Legislature."

Texas Tourist Council will seek the reverse effect of another group who tried to exploit the state—the carpet-baggers. It was the influence of the latter that caused the Legislature to prohibit the use of state funds for advertising Texas' attractions 86 years ago.

Governor Daniel said, "Now the march of time has come full circle . . . we find ourselves engaged in a vigorous economic competition which might be called, in a friendly way, another 'war between the states'."

He referred to the battle for tourists—third largest industry in the nation; the 13th in Texas.

Texas Tourist Council will seek $300,000 a year from the Legislature, for advertising tourist attractions. Texas law now requires that state funds be matched by business and industry. So some system of financial subscription will have to be devised.

BANKERS ASKED FOR IDEAS Governor Daniel sent a letter to the Texas Bankers Association asking the bankers to present a proposal for protecting the rights of bank depositors.

He recommended that newspaper ads be published by the banks to locate owners (or heirs) of accounts inactive for more than seven years.

Governor Daniel added that proper notice to the state of an escheatable property would be "an incidental result of this protection."

He said the subject will be submitted very soon to a special session of the Legislature and asked the TBA to present its own proposal before December 20.

"The reason for the urgency is the known fact that a sizeable number of national banks are transferring these dormant deposits to the profits of the banks without advertising to the owners," he wrote.

"I believe most Texas bankers will agree that this is a practice which should be stopped for the protection of the good name of the banking profession in Texas, as well as for the protection of the rights of missing owners and the rights of the State if no owners exist."

WILSON ANNOUNCES Attorney General Will Wilson has announced as a candidate for governor.

The 49-year-old Dallas native said he has remained loyal to his party, but is an "independent Democrat who wears no man's collar and is not a captive candidate of any faction or interest group."

SHIVERS IN THE NEWS There's considerable talk in Austin about the possibility of Former Gov. Allan Shivers running again.

This surprised some since Shivers backed Jack Cox in 1960 and Cox is the Republican candidate.

Rumor started with Shivers' statement that: "If I get involved in politics at all next year it will be as a candidate."

HEALTH AND WELFARE COORDINATION Speaker James A. Turman announced appointment of an advisory committee, composed of Representatives George Richardson of Fort Worth, Obie Jones of Austin and Jim Markgraf of Scurry, to help the Texas Legislative Council study coordination of state health and welfare agencies.

Study was requested by the 57th Legislature in view of the fact that 90 percent of every state dollar expended is for highways, education, public health and welfare.

All but the health and welfare agencies are centrally coordinated.

Hunters Urged To Practice Safety

Deer are plentiful this year and there is also an abundant supply of hunters. Which will you kill? Ed Cooper, extension wildlife specialist, warns that a lot of hunters will be shot unless commonsense safety rules are followed by everyone in the field.

Can you imagine how it would feel to be hit by the slug from a deer rifle? Or perhaps even worse, how it would feel to be responsible for shooting one of your hunting companions? In either case, the prevention is much easier than the cure, advises Cooper.

Hunting safety rules are so simple that many hunters don't bother to practice them. Every year scores of hunters fall victim to gun shot wounds, and the excuses follow the same old pattern. "I didn't know the gun was loaded." "Well, he looked just like a deer in that thick brush." And so it goes, every year.

Many hunting accidents could be prevented if hunters would follow the simple rule of "Don't shoot unless you would bet your life that you know what you're shooting at." Another cardinal rule of hunting is, "Don't leave your stand until everyone quits hunting." Every step taken through the brush raises your chances of being mistaken for a deer, and this could prove fatal.

Always assume every gun is loaded until you have opened the action and looked for yourself. Before you fire a gun, make sure it is in good working order and the barrel is clear, warns Cooper.

Then there are the people who manage to shoot themselves. Climbing fences with a loaded gun, leaning one against a tree or car, or throwing a loaded gun into the car are ways to add your name to this list. The remedy for these potential accidents is simple: don't do these things and don't hunt with people who do.

There is no open season on people. Use your head and don't violate that rule, and don't let one of your friends "poach" on you.

Rulings Due on Tax Application To Farm Items

Several questions concerning the application of the State Sales Tax to agricultural production goods have been received by C. H. Bates extension farm management specialist. Bates reports that the Comptroller's office has not made rulings on some of these specific items, but Ruling No. 13 does cover certain items.

According to this ruling, "Persons engaged in the business of selling tangible personal property to those engaged in agricultural pursuits in the State of Texas shall be required to collect the tax imposed by this law. However, there are items specifically exempt from the taxes imposed by this statute when sold to those persons engaged in agricultural pursuits."

Articles exempted from the sales tax under Ruling No. 13 include "The sale of, storage, use or other consumption of any form of animal life of the kind which ordinarily constitutes food for human consumption." This would include beef cattle, poultry and swine, explains Bates. Also exempted is feed for these animals. Dog food, horse feed and bird seed are examples of feeds not exempted.

Seeds and annual plants which produce food for human consumption, and fungicides, insecticides and fertilizers applied to them are also exempted under the ruling. Trees, bedding plants, household insecticides and lawn fertilizer are examples of commodities not exempted.

Bates says the ruling also exempts "Farm machinery or equipment exclusively used or employed on farms or ranches in the production of food for human consumption, feed for any form of animal life or other agricultural products to be sold in the regular course of business." It has been ruled, however, that parts for farm machinery and equipment will be taxed.

ROGER BABSON SAYS

Several Southern States Have Laws Encouraging Industry To Settle There

The treasurer of a large Massachusetts Savings Bank told me yesterday that his new deposits are running over $20,000 a day. I asked him how he invested that much and he replied: "I send it all to Mississippi." This means that the people of this New England city, instead of having their savings invested in New England are sending them down South to be invested. Individuals in New England are sending their savings to New York City for investment in the stock market. Therefore, most New England cities are starving for capital with which to start new factories and give employment to their own people. This largely explains the troubles of New England cities today. Furthermore, this same situation explains unemployment conditions in other cities of the North.

Six Fastest Growing States

In a previous column this summer I mentioned six Southern States which have special laws to encourage industry. I briefly explained that these laws permit city bonds to be issued to build factories, just as most states float bonds to build highways. So many inquiries have come to me asking details of these revenue bond laws, that I am devoting this week's column to the subject. I take as an illustration the city of Tupelo, Mississippi. This city is getting not only its capital largely from New England, but also some of our best young men. One of the ablest men in Tupelo is Frank Dodge, who came from the little town of New Boston, N. H.

The first step which a northern city must take, in this connection, is to have the state pass a law whereby a city may issue these revenue bonds to build factories as well as to build toll roads. Thus far, when a northern city has gone to its legislature for such an amendment, the bond dealers have killed the proposed amendment. They have been assisted by the conservative municipal bond holders of their community. These bond holders have selfishly thought only of themselves and have disregarded the welfare of their community.

How The Plan Works

Let us assume that an established company with good credit is willing to build a factory in your community costing $500,000 provided the city will issue industrial revenue bonds in this amount to pay for the cost. The company for which the factory is being built takes a twenty-year lease for $35,000, which includes modernization and interest at very low annual rates. This is possible because the interest is federal tax exempt and because of other advantages. The cost of $511,000 includes land, concrete floors and walls, and all normal electrical wiring, plumbing, air conditioning, a sprinkler system, and heating for a building of approximately 125,000 square feet.

The building is owned by the city and gets a 99-year tax exemption from the city, county, and state. The credit of the firm leasing the factory is not encumbered because it is a lease contract. The $500,000 revenue bond issue provides the full faith and credit of the city voted by the citizens at a special election on the project. These bonds furnish federal tax exemption to the purchasers because they are issued by a city. The rate of interest will be determined more by the credit of the leasing company than by the credit of the particular municipal issuing the bonds.

Dean Martin falls an easy victim to Susan Hayward's charms in this scene from Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Ada," engrossing drama of a woman's drive for success and power. Others in the stellar cast of the CinemaScope and color production are Wilfrid Hyde White, Ralph Meeker and Martin Balsam. It was directed by Daniel ("Butterfield 8") Mann.

MOVIES

"VOYAGE TO THE BOTTOM OF THE SEA"

In this era of scientific marvels and daily headlines trumpeting miracles of space exploration, a ready-made public exists for adventure-fantasy of the Jules Verne variety and a film like "Voyage to the Bottom of the Sea," 20th Century-Fox thriller, produced, directed and written by Academy Award winner Irwin Allen, is sure to find a legion of enthusiasts among men, women and children to whom science-fiction carries a special and even prophetic aura of magic. Emerging unopposed as the years most extraordinary bid for popular attention, this CinemaScope Deluxe Color spectacle, dealing with an imaginary moment in current history when the survival of the entire physical universe hangs in the balance, comes to the screen with a superb cast including Walter Pidgeon, Joan Fontaine, Barbara Eden, Peter Lorre, Robert Sterling, Michael Ansara, and Frankie Avalon. This all-market blockbuster comes to the State Theatre Sunday only.

"ADA"

Susan Hayward and Dean Martin, two of the screen's most colorful personalities, are co-starred for the first time in "Ada," an Avon Production for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer in CinemaScope and color, produced by Lawrence Weingarten and directed by Daniel Mann. This picture shows at the State of Tupelo, Mississippi for a copy of the "Bawi" Law. States amending their constitutions accordingly should find their unemployment problems largely solved, since the new industries will provide new jobs for people who are willing to do good work at a fair wage. The program thus assures rising employment and a good rate of interest on a federally non-taxable bond, and the municipality receives a fair rental from the property. The bonds are amortized and interest paid during the term of the 20-year lease. So far, I have not known of a default.

Theatre Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Based on Wirt Williams' best-selling novel, "Ada Dallas," concerning a beautiful woman's drive for success and power, the picture reunites the feminine star, producer and director of a previous outstanding MGM hit, "I'll Cry Tomorrow."

Playing prominent roles with Miss Hayward and Martin are Wilfrid Hyde White, Ralph Meeker and Martin Balsam.

In "Ada," Susan Hayward portrays a girl from the wrong side of the tracks who uses her marriage to Dean Martin, cast as an easy-going "man of the people" who is elected governor of a southern state, to achieve a position of top influence and prestige—with highly dramatic and emotional repercussions.

National Defense Food Policy Is Announced by USDA

A realignment of its defense planning organization to help American agriculture be prepared for any foreseeable emergency need for food and fiber has been announced by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Robert S. Reed as special assistant to the Secretary of Agriculture will be responsible for directing the total defense planning program for the USDA.

When the realignment was announced, Under Secretary of Agriculture Charles S. Murphy said, "At President Kennedy's direction, the Department is developing a National Defense Food Policy through which agriculture can strengthen the nation's defense capabilities and create a deterrent to attack through knowledge that we are prepared to withstand any assault." By executive order, the President recently assigned to the Department the responsibility for strategic food stock-piling.

The Department continues to have the assigned responsibility for defense food production, the management of food stocks in the hands of processors and wholesalers, fire control in rural areas, radiological monitoring in rural areas, and for a program of information and education to help farm families protect themselves, their crops and livestock from gical, biological and chemical attack. During an emergency the Department is responsible for domestic distribution of equipment and fertilizer.

Every feat of heroism indebted to man who has it. All daring and courage of the flag, make for a nobler type of manhood.

Committee Appointed To Investigate Enforcement of Texas Escheat Laws

SEN. J. SANFORD SPEARS, San Antonio, has introduced a bill to create a special House Committee to investigate enforcement of Texas Escheat Laws.

He points out that while banks and savings and loan companies are exempt from reporting procedures set out by the 57th Legislature, they are included in the escheat laws.

House committee's questionnaire asked for non-confidential statistical information to try to determine the number of abandoned accounts. Representative Spears says the study will be very valuable if enough banking institutions cooperate.

Meanwhile, Atty. Gen. Will Wilson filed the first suit under the new escheat act. Suit seeks to recover $1,094,150 in stocks and dividends held for the unknown owner of a missing railroad land trust certificate.

The missing certificate was first issued in 1888, but Asst. Atty. Gen. Henry Braswell says no one has been able to establish ownership since.

Suit was filed in the 101st District Court in Dallas against Mercan-

Wilson's suit alleges that the property should go to the State of Texas under the provisions of House Bill 5, covering abandoned property, since its owner has been unknown for seven years or more.

RACE IS ON

Kellis Dibrell of San Antonio told Young Republicans in Austin that the Democratic primary no longer will be tantamount to election, now that the Republicans are gaining prominence in the State.

Dibrell has announced for lieutenant governor on the Republican ticket. He predicted that Texas voters will have a problem on May 5 when they're forced to choose between voting in the Republican or Democratic primary.

A democrat, former Secretary of State Tom Reavley, was first man to announce for the Attorney General's office. Reavley, Austin attorney, says he considers that office the largest, most varied and most important "law practice" in Texas.

UP TO THE COURTS

The University of Texas Board of Regents has agreed "unanimously" to let the court decide whether they should integrate dormitories.

Judge Thornton Hardie of El Paso, chairman of the regents, says a test case filed by Austin attorney Sam Houston Clinton in behalf of three Negro students has been turned over to Atty. Gen. Will Wilson. In a letter to Hardie, Clinton asked the regents to integrate the facilities and escape the suit.

Hardie has accused Clinton of filing the suit for "the purpose of publicity and propaganda."

Regents originally planned to study further integration. Hardie refused to say whether the suit has changed their plans.

Students and faculty have asked the regents for dormitory integration through campus polls. Integration in athletics also has been at issue. The regents chairman says they do not want to do anything that would disturb the "excellent relations" UT has had with other members of the Southwest Athletic Conference.

TEXTBOOKS ADOPTED

Three "Texans for America," J. Evetts Haley of Canyon, Dr. Don I. Riddle of Paris and Mrs. Joan Slay of Fort Worth, appeared before the State Board of Education this week to protest acceptance of several textbooks.

Organization had previously notified the Board of objections to 25 books on the State Textbooks Committee's recommended list. They spoke out strongly against two history texts, linking the authors to subversive organizations and charging the publisher of one with cooperating with a "known subversive" in the publication of a World War II booklet, "The Land of the Soviets."

After a three-hour discussion between the "Texans for America" and board members, and statements from publishers denying the charges, Board of Education voted to adopt all books on the committee's list, except four geography books which Commissioner J. W. Edgar asked them to delete.

The Board of Education also adopted a regulation setting 18 semester hours of education courses as the minimum required for a teaching certificate in Texas.
