16th Annual Rodeo Begins Here Thursday, June 21st

Expected to be the biggest and best rodeo in the 16-year history of the yearly celebration, the Winters 16th Annual Rodeo will get underway for three rip-roaring days of wild west activity next Thursday, June 21. The rodeo will run through Saturday.

A big parade Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock will be the starting signal for the three-day celebration. Another big parade is scheduled for Saturday afternoon.

Seven events have been scheduled for each of the three performances, plus several in-between speciality acts.

The Bud Lucas Tumblers of Gainesville have been contracted to furnish extra entertainment. They are being sponsored by Davidson Gin, Heidenheimer's and the Round-Up Association.

On Thursday night, the Callahan County Sheriff's Posse riding club from Baird will perform a horseback quadrille in the rodeo arena. They are being sponsored by Alderman-Cave Milling & Grain Co.

The Dyess Air Force Base Riding Club, sponsored by the Round-Up Association, will perform a quadrille for Friday night's show.

Several riding clubs from neighboring towns are expected to attend the rodeo and participate in the big parades. They will compete for three trophies which will be awarded to the three riding clubs judged the best in the parade. Awards will be presented the first night of the rodeo, immediately following the grand entry.

C. T. Parker, Runnels County Agricultural Agent, will be the official announcer for the rodeo. Sound equipment is being furnished by Mrs. Baird's Bakeries of Abilene. The electric eye equipment, used for time events, will be furnished by Mark Griffiths of Talpa.

Lloyd Woodley of Lampassas, who is known throughout Texas Rodeodom, will have corralled his most spirited cayuses and orneriest bulls to hand the top-flight amateur contestants a genuinely rough time as they engage in combat at the Blizzard Field arena. Woodley is furnishing all the livestock for the rodeo.

Grown to be what has been called one of the biggest amateur events of this area, the Winters Rodeo will draw cowboys from a big part of Texas. The show is known for its wild horses and bulls, and good purses, so that most every event is crowded by contestants for each performance.

A new—for Winters—event has been added for this year's rodeo. A team roping contest, called in rodeo circles "heading and heeling," will be a highlight each evening as two cowboys have a go at a steer, one roping for the head and the other for the heels. There will be no limit to the number of teams for this event, with each team getting two steers with two go-rounds and average time. Entry fee for two steers in this event will be $50.

Bareback bronc riding will be limited to 30 riders—10 each night—one horse per rider, one go-round for the three nights. Entry fee will be $15.

The jackpot calf roping event, with no limit to number of ropers, is expected to draw the largest number of contestants, with two go-rounds and average for three nights. Each roper gets two calves. Entry fee is $30.

No limit to number of contestants in the steer wrestling contest, with two go-rounds and average, two steers per wrestler, and $20 entry fee for two steers.

The wild event of the three-day rodeo will be the bull riding contest. (Continued on last page)

OFF WE GO—Stringbean—or is it Willie—shows great style of flight as he takes off into the wild blue yonder after being butted by a bull. This is just one of the sights rodeo fans probably will see when Stringbean Jackson and Willie Windsor, rodeo clowns, pull out all stops in their effort to please the crowds during Winters Annual Rodeo next Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

St. John's Lutheran Confirmands Are Reminded Of Savior's Promise

The Confirmation Class of St. John's Lutheran Church, Winters, was reminded by their pastor, Rev. A. W. Holck, of the promise of Jesus to those of His disciples who will commit their lives to Him in love, "My Father and I will come to them and make our home with them." The members of the class promised in the Confirmation rites that they wanted to follow the teachings of Jesus "with the help of God."

Confirmation in the Lutheran Church is that time in a person's life when he, for himself, confesses that he believes as the Lutheran Church teaches. In Baptism he has been made a member of the Church. By this "confirming of his faith" he publicly states that he accepts the responsibilities of this membership in the Church. Confirmation in the Lutheran Church is not a sacrament but a sacred rite, a useful custom that the Church has adopted to help her members become aware of their spiritual privileges and responsibilities.

The Confirmation Service consists, on the part of the confirmand, in a solemn confession of faith and a promise to remain true to the faith. The congregation on its part prays for the confirmand. Pastor Holck, in his message for the day, stressed the fact that God has come from man. "Jesus is the Son of God who has come to seek and to save that which was lost." Pastor warned the Confirmands against trying to become good enough before letting God come into their lives. "The Holy Ghost was not sent because we are good and perfect... He was sent to teach us all things, to make us good."

Members of the Round-Up Association, sponsors of the Annual Winters Rodeo, will appear on the Harry Holt television program on Channel 9 next Monday night. The program begins at 6:30 p.m.

Dr. H. H. McCreight, president of the organization, and several members will appear on the program to advertise the 16th Annual Winters Rodeo scheduled for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 21, 22 and 23.

The program will be televised over KRBC-TV, Abilene.

Rifle and Trap Shoot At New Range Sunday

A rifle and trap shoot will be held at the new Sportsman Club range at the Winters Lake Sunday afternoon, T. L. (Tab) Hatler, president of the organization, announced this week.

Shooting will begin at 1:30 and will continue until 4 o'clock.

All members of the club are urged to attend this first shoot at the range.

Gas Tax Refund Forms Available From Co. Agent

C. T. Parker, Jr., Runnels County farm extension agent, said this week that farmers may obtain the official form to apply for refund of Federal tax for gasoline used on the farm, from his office. The County Agent's office is on the third floor of the Court House.

Big Cash Prizes Offered For Parade Floats

Three big cash prizes are being offered for winning floats appearing in the two rodeo parades next Thursday and Saturday.

First prize will be $75, with second and third prizes to be $50 and $25.

Parades will be held during the 16th Annual Winters Rodeo, June 21, 22 and 23, and will begin at 4 o'clock on the two parade days.

Floyd Grant, parade chairman, said these big cash prize offerings should serve to encourage organizations and groups to enter outstanding floats. To qualify for the prize money, floats must be entered in both parades, it was understood. Winners of cash prizes will be announced Saturday afternoon following the parade.

Also expected to take part in the two parades will be riding clubs from several towns in the area. Three trophies will be offered to winners in this event.

Grant said that anyone interested in more information concerning entry of floats in the parade should contact him as soon as possible.

"Barnstorming" Trip For Rodeo Next Tuesday

A "barnstorming" publicity tour by Winters rodeo backers will leave next Tuesday morning for a trip to several towns in the area, according to Ralph Lloyd, chairman.

The tour will be for the purpose of advertising the 16th Annual Winters Rodeo next week, June 21, 22 and 23.

Lloyd said the group will meet in front of the Main Drug store and leave about 8:30 Tuesday morning. Everyone who can possibly make the trip to publicize the annual rodeo is invited and urged to be on hand.

Towns to be visited on the tour will be Tuscola, Lawn, Novice, Coleman, Talpa, Ballinger and Bronte.

Gas Tax Refund Forms Available From Co. Agent

C. T. Parker, Jr., Runnels County farm extension agent, said this week that farmers may obtain the official form to apply for refund of Federal tax for gasoline used on the farm, from his office. The County Agent's office is on the third floor of the Court House.

C. T. Parker, Winters Rodeo Announcer, Is Man of Many and Varied Experiences

If there is anything having to do with agriculture, livestock, water problems, or community enterprise in Runnels County, chances are that the man who will handle the microphone during Winters 16th Annual Rodeo, June 21, 22 and 23, has had a hand in it, and more often than not it has been as a result of his individual endeavor.

C. T. Parker, Agricultural Agent for Runnels County, will be the official announcer for this year's annual rodeo in Winters. He will work during all three performances of the event.

Although this duty perhaps is far removed from his usual work, he is not new at the job. He has announced rodeos at Comanche, Meridian, Carthage, Odessa. And he has been the official announcer for the Ft. Worth Stock Show for seven years, besides being called on to act as master of ceremonies for the Wyoming State Cattle Association meeting for the last two years.

Parker was named "Outstanding Citizen for 1960" by the Ballinger Chamber of Commerce last year, in recognition of his participation in many activities. High on the list of accomplishments which earned for him the award from the Ballinger organization was the crop testing done on a county-wide basis in connection with extension service.

He also was responsible for the first work in the county dealing with salt water pollution and efforts to make corrections. From information gathered by him, a map was made showing the location of each well, stream, spring and other water supply that was suspected of being contaminated. This information was turned over to state workers and saved much money and time for the surveys that have been made.

Parker has served as an advisory member of every water board in the county, and has been in front of the work down in the Valley Creek Watershed program. He also worked closely with others in the screwworm extermination program which is now underway.

The county agent was nominated for the USDA Superior Service award in 1959. This is the highest award made to county agents.

Parker has been a speaker before college, high school and other groups on many occasions. He has served in an advisory capacity to the Red Angus Association of America, and was helpful in getting the association started. He has worked on new methods of judging livestock and for a number of years has been in charge of a cattle department at the annual Fort Worth show.

He organized the work for a county-wide Brucellosis testing of all cattle in Runnels County.

BRADSHAW NEWS

"I greet this day with joy and thanksgiving, for it offers me opportunity to begin again." Silent Unity.

"The Praise of the Redeemed" is the subject for next Sunday's Sunday School Lesson. Philip G. Palmer uses Revelation 18:6-7 to comment on the lesson. This scripture is also part of the memory selection for the lesson.

Have you ever stood by the edge of a great waterfall and listened to the roar as it spills into the gorge below? The power and thunder created by the waterfall result from countless billions of tiny drops of water collected in the river and all dropping over the edge of the falls together. By itself, any one of these droplets is neither noisy nor powerful, but together they create an awesome spectacle of energy and sound.

Perhaps this is what John is saying in our verses: That the praise of the servants of God before the throne is great and wonderful because the individuals blend their voices together, and their praise sounds like one great voice. Or, as he puts it, like the sound of many waters.

Religion is a personal matter, but we also know that no man can be truly religious all by himself. It has been said that one cannot get into heaven alone.

And it is clear from reading these verses that in heaven we shall not be alone. This is not the same as saying that we shall be "lost in the crowd," but rather that our voices shall make up some small part of that great song of praise to Him who sits on the throne.

Miss Deanna Ruth Foreman And Jerry Pat Harral United In Double Ring Rites

Double ring wedding rites Friday evening, June 1, united in marriage, Miss Deanna Ruth Foreman and Jerry Pat Harral. The Rev. Carroll Thompson, pastor, officiated at the rites held in the First Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. (Dock) Foreman.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Harral all of Ballinger.

Mrs. Willie Hoover, Organist, and Miss Ann Davidson, soloist, presented the wedding music.

A large arrangement of white gladioli centered the altar. Branches of candelabra, entwined with huckleberry and dotted with white pom mums, holding white cathedral tapers, were at each side.

Mr. Foreman gave his daughter in marriage. She wore an original bridal gown of exquisite white bow-know lace over taffeta. The moulded bodice was fashioned with a transparent yoke which formed a scooped neckline edged with jewel Venice lace. Long-fitted sleeves extended to the hands. The full flared floor length skirt was caught at the back with a crushed bustle and cascaded to a sweeping train.

Her bridal veil of silk illusion fell from a matching lace pillbox hat, accented with pearls. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom.

She carried a cascade arrangement of lilies of the valley centered with a white orchid in puffs of maline and love-knotted streamers atop a white Bible.

Miss Barbara Foreman was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaid was Miss Martha Harral, sister of the bridegroom.

Bridal attendant's dresses were pink sheaths designed with fitted bodices, scoop necklines, cap sleeves and lace overskirts. They carried nosegays of large white mums encircled with pom poms.

Tommie Timms was best man and groomsmen were Curtis Jennings, both of Ballinger. Eugene Matthies of Winters, cousin of the bride and Billy Turner of Norton seated guests. Candlelighters were Dale Camp of Farwell Texas, nephew of the bridegroom, and Charles Mathis of Winters, cousin of the bride.

A reception was held in the Sally Odum parlors at the Church.

Miss Shirley Tounget registered guests. Others in the house party were Misses Alice Piel, Grace Ann Parrish, Peggy Belcher, Mrs. Arlis Tounget, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. E. S. Morgan.

For a wedding trip to New Mexico, the bride chose a rose Avondale cotton two-piece dress, a chiffon pillbox hat blending from pink to rose, and other accessories were white. She wore the Orchid corsage from the bridal bouquet.

The bride was a spring graduate of Ballinger High School. The bridegroom is also a graduate of "Live Better Electrically," the advertising slogan says. Modern homemakers know that it's more than a mere slogan — it's a fact. You CAN live better electrically when you buy a Medallion home. Here's why. The man who built that home, the Medallion home, EARNED the privilege of displaying the medallion by observing certain minimum electrical standards in the design and construction of the home, and in the appliances which are a part of the plan for living. It has been called "the Hallmark of Excellence." And it is. So look for the "Live Better Electrically" medallion when you are thinking of buying a new home. Enjoy FLAMELESS electric living!

Debt Ceiling Is Meaningless If Not Followed

By Congressman O. C. Fisher

The Legal Debt Limit is going up to $308 billion, made necessary by the vast increase in non-military spending. It was raised to $300 billion early this year, and it is quite likely there will be another increase next year.

This serves to remind us of our fiscal plight, and it serves to remind us how meaningless a debt ceiling is unless an effort is made to hold annual expenditures within that limit. It would be like a man resolving: "I make only $500 a month and I hereby resolve that I won't spend more than that this month" and then going out and running up bills totalling $600!

The permanent debt limit was fixed at $275 billion in 1957, but there have been six increases since then. Being convinced that with less non-essential spending the debt ceiling could be honored, I have been voting against the increases.

As an indicator of the trend that is making the debt ceiling meaningless, since 1947 annual outlays for non-military purposes have jumped from $17 billion to $40 billion, much of which has been to finance new and expanded welfare programs and experiments in social planning.

Perhaps the current increase in debt limit can serve to arouse the American people to the seriousness of spending money we do not have. We have had deficits in 25 out of the last 32 years. This spending spree is inexcusable, particularly during times of prosperity and nearly-full employment.

It is time we come to grips with the total of Federal expenditures, if the value of the dollar is to be preserved and more inflation avoided.

Recent guests have included Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Davenport, Tom Wallace, Doug Ridge, M. D. Bryant, Mrs. Ila White, the Roger T. Pumphrey and daughters Barbara and Beverly, all of San Angelo; School Supt. and Mrs. Carroll Watkins and daughter, Diana, of Pear Valley; Dr. and Mrs. J. S. King and son and daughter, Kim and Diane, of Brady; Bobby D. Doyal, Larry Lohm, Dale Bloomer and Sue Hodges, of Lohm; and Murray and Sherron Smith Jordan, of Brady.

The Rev. A. W. Holck, pastor of the church, officiated for the single ring ceremony before the altar decorated with candelabra holding white tapers with baskets of white gladioluses on either side.

Miss Emma Henniger, organist, played traditional wedding music. Maid of honor was Paula Burns and brides maids were Mrs. Everett Rumsey of Miles and Mrs. Richard Hamilton, both of Winters. Joyce Hamilton, niece of the bride was flower girl and Jimmy Rumsey, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Civil War Record Of Texan Selected Best of the Year

Below we are reprinting excerpts from a story appearing recently in the Dallas Morning News because of the interest locally. Mrs. Wilkins is the daughter of Mrs. Karla Melson of Winters.

"The Confederate High Command annually selects a Civil War book as 'Best of Year' and also selects 'Best Record of the year'." This year's award for the best Civil War record was recently presented to Texas-born Marijohn Wilkin of Nashville, Tennessee for her L.P. Album "Ballads of the Blue and Gray." The album was recorded by Columbia Recording Company and the Jordanaires sing an accompaniment to Marijohn.

Among the albums to be considered were two of Tennessee Ernie Ford's as well as two by Frank Warner and others.

The Confederate High Command is a non-profit organization founded some few years ago for the purpose of keeping aglow the memory of the men in the gray who fought in the Civil War.

"It now has members in more than 20 states and several foreign countries, including England, Switzerland, Italy, Austria, Belgium, France, and Australia. Its roster carries such names as Governor Burford Ellington of Tennessee, Dr. Frank Cunningham, renown Southern author of Santa Monica, California and the President of the United States.

"Hitler"

Seventeen years after the double-suicide "love death" of Adolf Hitler and Eva Braun in an underground bunker, researchers have put together the pieces of a shocking picture-puzzle to show the motivation for the Nazi dictator's career of blood and terror.

Dramatized, it comes to the screen of the Fiesta Drive In Theater Thursday, Friday and Saturday as "Hitler," E. Charles Straus' Three Crown production for Allied Artists, with Richard Basehart in the title role.

The film affords an arresting insight behind the panoply and war of Hitler's public life, into the man himself, as it bares the story of his relations with two women.

The first was his half-niece, Geli Raubal, who after an affair with him was found shot to death in what was officially called a suicide.

The second was Eva Braun, the office clerk who became "Queen of Berchtesgaden" as the Fuehrer's mistress, then his wife in a "twilight of the gods" ceremony as the Allies were smashing into his steel-ringed capital. A few hours after the wedding he took her with him in death.

"The Bellboy"

Jerry Lewis, rated as one of the country's top comedians, isn't content to rest on those laurels. He has branched out into three additional—and the three most important—categories of film-making to become one of the few quadruple-threat motion picture men in the business. With the release of the newest Paramount comedy, "The Bellboy," which shows Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the Fiesta Drive In Theatre, fans will have an opportunity to see not only Jerry Lewis, the comedian in the title role, but the work of Jerry Lewis the producer, Jerry Lewis the director, and Jerry Lewis the writer!

To make "The Bellboy," which is based on Jerry's own youthful experiences as bellboy-busboy at summer camp hotels in the East, the star went to Miami Beach and took over the facilities of the fabulous Fontainebleau Hotel where most of the picture was shot. In addition to seeing the luxury resort, people who see "The Bellboy" will also be treated to other points of interest in one of the world's most famous playgrounds.

"The Marriage-Go-Round"

The comedy-romance that rocked Broadway on its heels for half a thousand performances, hits the screen with the same hilarious impact as 20th Century-Fox brings "The Marriage-Go-Round" to the Fiesta Drive In Theatre in CinemaScope DeLuxe Color, opening Tuesday with the year's most sophisticated laugh-makers at the helm: Academy Award winner Susan Hayward, suave James Mason and voluptuous "glamazon" Julie Newmar.

The rollicking film treatment is in the hands of Producer-scenarist Leslie Stevens who staged the play, and has retained the delicious and unconventional humor of the original with a big plus. It's all about a domestic crisis in the household of two college professors, Susan Hayward and James Mason, who deliver lectures on marriage and morals and suddenly find their own in jeopardy at the hands of a beautiful blond Swedish bombshell (Julie Newmar) who wants a "perfect" baby and has selected Mason as the appropriate father!

"Siege of Syracuse"

Riding in on the 'new wave' of Italian film directors, who have been making an ever bigger impression on American audiences, is Pietro Francisci whose latest Eastman color spectacular, "Siege of Syracuse" starring Rossano Brazzi and Tina Louise, shows Friday and Saturday at the State Theatre.

Francisci is a member of a distinguished group of gifted Italians who have been introducing new film fashions and new faces to our American screens.

Adolf Hitler (Richard Basehart), in one of his maniacal rages, inflicts physical violence on his niece Geli (Cordula Trantow) with whom he has been carrying on a strange relationship. The scene is from Allied Artists' "Hitler" now showing at the Fiesta Drive In Theatre. The film stars Basehart, Miss Trantow and Maria Emo.

James Mason, as a college professor, is lured by man-trap Julie Newmar in the 20th Century-Fox CinemaScope DeLuxe Color production of the Broadway smash-hit "The Marriage-Go-Round" opening Tuesday at the Fiesta Drive In Theatre with Academy Award winner Susan Hayward.

"Satan Never Sleeps"

Following in the tradition of "The Good Earth," another Pearl S. Buck story has been transferred successfully to the screen in Leo McCarey's epic of faith, courage and beauty, "Satan Never Sleeps." The 20th Century-Fox CinemaScope-DeLuxe Color drama, set in China of today, stars William Holden, France Nuyen and Clifton Webb and shows Sunday and Monday at the State Theatre.

This turbulent story describes the unique relationship between two priests and a young Chinese maiden who takes refuge in their mission. Since these men of the cloth represent freedom and love to the poor villagers of Kwangtung, they are tortured, ridiculed and shamed in attempts to make them forsake their faith.

Director Leo McCarey, who will be remembered for the award-winning "The Bells of St. Mary's" and "Going My Way," has fashioned an authentic, stark human drama of conflict.

Billy Holle and Judy Kettler to Attend Lutheran School

Billy Holle, president-elect of St. John's Luther League, and Judy Kettler, secretary-elect of the league, will attend Leadership Training School next week at Texas Lutheran College. LTS is presented each year by the Youth Department of The American Lutheran Church to train the young people in Church leadership.

Billy Holle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Holle, has served the league as vice-president and will become president of the league in September. He has represented the local league at the last two Conference Conventions, and at the International Convention held last year at Miami Beach, Florida. He is the delegate to the Southern District Luther League Convention to be held at Texas Lutheran College on June 21. Billy likes to take part in the local league activities, especially the play staged each summer.

Another active "League play" participant is Judy Kettler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lilburn Kettler. Judy has served the local league as treasurer and will take over the secretarial duties in September. Judy is a representative to the Student Council at Winters High School, and is vice-president of the Sub-Deb Club. She thinks a leader should be a person capable of holding the attention of the group he leads and able to fulfill his duties as a leader. Billy describes a leader as trustworthy, dependable, and loyal. A leader of the Luther League should strive to better his league for the Church and the people.

BABSON SAYS

"Harness Gravity" May Help
Prevention of Air Crashes

had been going to waste over Niagara Falls for thousands of years. When I was later connected with MIT, I became interested in Sir Isaac Newton and his studies of Gravity. The Babson Institute now has the second largest Newton Gravity Library in the world.

Gravity Research Foundation
When the Gravity Research Foundation was established and endowed at New Boston, New Hampshire, I was glad to help. My first interest was aroused by Harry Vissering of Babson Park, Florida, who flew the first giant dirigible from Berlin to New York. I was then even taught that it was impossible to make heavier-than-air machines fly and not fall to the earth.

I further found that Clarence Birdseye, the discoverer of quick freezing, and Igor Sikorsky, the father of the helicopter, and Dr. Howard Stearns of Simmons College were members of the Board of Trustees. I gladly promised them my help. Up to that time no serious accidents had happened on commercial airlines; then the original idea of the Foundation was to "harness gravity". The present purpose is to make an airplane temporarily float in case of trouble and drop slowly to the ground so the passengers can safely get off.

Different Methods Of Accomplishing This Feat

Most of the studies have thus far been along developing a semi-insulator of gravity which could cover commercial airplanes. This would require the development of some new metal, with the molecules arranged differently than exists in any present metal. I understand that the Gravity Research Foundation will send details of this proposed new metal to anyone who writes them at New Boston, New Hampshire.

A young inventor named Norman Dean, of Washington, D. C., has invented a machine to be put into an automobile which will raise the automobile when the machine is operating. This idea has been discarded under the theory that it is "pulling oneself up by one's bootstraps". Hence the idea has not been adopted by helicopters or individual airplanes. However, there is no objection to this for an emergency purpose. If "Lord Howe's" friend's invention had been such that the engines of the fatal French airplane could have suddenly been used to prevent this anti-gravity fall, it might have saved the lives of the Atlanta people.

Other Work Of The Gravity Research Foundation

The Foundation makes no experiments and has no laboratories of its own; but it is endeavoring to interest scientific departments of colleges in the problem. Up to the present time four colleges have erected monuments near their science building with these words thereon: "This monument has been erected to remind students of the blessings forthcoming when a scientific breakthrough discovers what Gravity is, how it works, and how it may be controlled to prevent airplane accidents."

Another hopeful feature is the offering of Annual Awards of $1,000 for essays on the subject of gravity. Last week awards were made to the following five persons:

Dr. G. M. Clemence of the U. S. Naval Observatory in Washington, D. C.; R. L. Forward of Hughes Laboratory, Malibu, California; D. W. Sciamia, Department of Applied Mathematics and Theoretical Physics, Cambridge, England; F. J. Dyson, The Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton, New Jersey; C. Y. Wang, Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass.
I advise those who travel much in commercial planes to take an interest in this non-profit Foundation about which I am writing this week.

Norton 4-H Clubs
Held Joint Meet
And Heard Reports

Anthony Lange, president of the Norton 4-H Club, presided for a joint meeting of the two clubs June 5, at 8 o'clock.

Patti Gregor led the 4-H motto, pledge and prayer. Gloria Hope read the minutes and gave the girls treasurer's report. Dwaine Lang gave the boys report of the treasury.

The Council report and a report of the Girls District Camp that was held in Brownwood was given by Patti Gregor. Ann Gottschalk also told about the girls camp and Leonard Jansa gave a report on the boys district camp held at Junction.

"Man Enough for the Job," was the title of a film which was the program for the meeting.

Nickie Horton and Myra Minzenmayer conducted the recreation for the meeting and refreshments were served.

School Board Approves Renovations, Employment of Teachers For Next Year

The Winters School Board, at a recent meeting, approved renovation work on the school plant and also the employment of several teachers for the next school year. The board approved adding 420 seats to the school stadium, and made plans to complete replacement of windows in the buildings. Some of this work was begun last summer. The board employed Clifford Cecil Erwin as a high school math and physics teacher; Mrs. Cecil Hambricht, as home economics teacher; and David Ledbetter. Erwin is a graduate of Hardin-Simmons University, and has recently been released from the U. S. Army after serving more than 26 months. He received his bachelor's degree from H-SU in 1959, and has a permanent teacher's certificate. Mrs. Erwin is the former Janice Roberts and they are members of the Baptist Church. Mrs. Hambricht, the new home economics teacher, received her bachelor's degree from North Texas State. She is the former Patricia Petrie of Crews. She and her husband have two children, Brandon and Toni, and are members of the Crews Methodist Church. Ledbetter was a teacher in the Winters schools before being called to the armed services. He will be separated from the service in August and will return to teaching duties in September. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ledbetter of Bradshaw, and a graduate of North Texas State College. He is a member of the Winters Methodist Church. The school board also has accepted resignations from Mrs. Helen Randolph, Mrs. Jeanette Brooks and Homer Bruton.

Clarence P. Alfrey, Winters Builder, Died In Houston

Clarence P. Alfrey, 57, Winters lumberman and home builder, died in the Methodist Hospital in Houston at 1 a.m. Thursday. He suffered a stroke on April 29 in his home here, and was in the Winters Municipal Hospital until May 7, when he was transferred to the Houston hospital. He had undergone surgery twice in Houston, the second last Sunday. Funeral services were tentatively set for Saturday morning in New Braunfels, with burial to be there.

Mr. Alfrey came to Winters in 1957 and organized the Alfrey Lumber Co. He built many homes in the Parkview Addition north of town, several in the Leeman Addition on the west side, all of the homes in the Hoppe Addition on the western edge of Winters, and was in the process of building a substantial addition east of town on the Novice Highway. One house had been built in this newest addition, lots were laid off, and water lines laid. Streets were completed there recently.

He was an active member of the Winters Lions Club, and had been on the board of directors of the Lions; a member of the Chamber of Commerce, and was serving his second term on the board of directors. As a member of the two organizations, he headed several committees during the time he had been in Winters. At the time of his death he was chairman of the Civic and Public Affairs Committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

Clarence P. Alfrey was born in Hillsboro, where he received his education. In 1928 he was married in Dallas to Lilla Beadle, of Brownwood. In 1941 the family moved to New Braunfels where they lived until moving to San Angelo in 1951, later moving to Winters in 1957.

Survivors include his wife; three sons, Dr. C. P. Alfrey Jr., of Houston, Dr. Allen Alfrey, Denver, Colo., and Tommy of the home; one daughter, Jo Ann, a senior at Texas Christian University, Fort Worth; four granddaughters; two sisters, Mrs. Fern King, of Fort Worth, and Mrs. Violet Allred of Lubbock; one brother, Newellen Alfrey of Fort Worth.

16th Annual--

(Continued from page 1) tests, limited to 30 bulls and riders, or 10 each night, one go-round, and a $15 entry fee.

There will be no limit to number of entries in the girls' clover-leaf race, with a $15 entry fee. There will be a go-round each night for this event.

Deadline for entries is at noon Thursday, June 21. Rodeo offices will be set up in the Chamber of Commerce building. Officials say that fees for the bronc riding and bull riding events must be in the office by noon Thursday. Entry fees for the other events must be paid prior to each performance, they said.

Fredric Poe of Midland, formerly of Winters, will be the official rodeo secretary. He has been secretary for several years, returning to Winters each summer for the rodeo.

Dr. H. H. McCreight, president of the Round-Up Association, sponsors of the annual rodeo, said that trophy buckles will be presented to winning riders in each event. The boys calf scramble will provide extra thrills for the fans and participating boys. This event is sponsored by the Winters State Bank, and has proved quite popular with the boys in past performances. Boys who wish to take part in the calf scramble are requested to file their entries as early as possible. They can contact Lon McDonald, high school agriculture teacher, or get entry blanks at the chamber of commerce office.

Rodeo Clowns Will Return To Winters With All New Acts

"Stringbean" Jackson and "Willie" Windsor, advertised as two of the liveliest, bravest, wackiest and most brash rodeo clowns in the business, are returning to Winters with brand new acts calculated to keep rodeo fans hilariously happy during the three performances of the Winters 16th Annual Rodeo next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 21, 22 and 23. These two rodeo clowns worked the arena for the three nights of last year's rodeo.

Willie (Jim) Windsor is from Henrietta, and Stringbean (Jack) Jackson is from Wichita Falls. They have worked rodeos all over Texas and in Oklahoma. Windsor puts in 40 hours a week as a pressman for the Wichita Falls Daily Times, and Jackson is a printer in the Times composing room.

Windsor is a former race car driver and boxer, and is active in youth work. Jackson has been clowning since he was 17 years old. At a rodeo in Decatur, he was injured when a prop gun he was using in an act backfired. He received lacerations on the top of his head, and, according to Willie, his only comment was, "Sure hope everybody saw that—don't think I have enough hair to do it again." Windsor and Jackson started rodeoing in the bull-riding events. The riding wasn't making them enough money, they admit, so they started their clown act.

But it hasn't been all a bed of arena sawdust, they admit. An angry bull gets to one of them now and then, while they are trying to protect some fallen rider. In a rodeo in Jacksboro last year one of the bulls tossed Willie 15 feet in the air. He cracked four ribs and received injuries to his pride. He worked the next night in severe pain. And then on a day following another bull got to Stringbean, and dislocated a knee. He was out of action for a spell.

"You get lots of licks," admits Willie. "Don't ever let anybody tell you these bulls aren't mean. You can be hurt and not realize it—until it really begins to hurt the next morning."

Making the folks laugh is just part of the job with the rodeo clowns. Their real chore is keeping the bulls off the riders once they've been thrown. From the grandstand, the job may look easy, but few cowboys would venture to ride a wild Brahma bull without the clowns present.

Both of them still ride bulls now and then, but not in the rodeos where they're clowning. It's too hard on you, they admit.

New acts which will be presented by Stringbean and Willie include "It's a Dud," "Going on a Strike," "Willie's Hot Rod," "Camera Bugs," "Beauty and the Beast," and "Just Clowning A-round."

CARD OF THANKS

We want to take this opportunity to thank everyone for their prayers, letters, cards, the food, and all the kind deeds shown at home and in the fields and to us while we were at the hospital. To the ones that donated blood for Judy we are most grateful. May God bless each of you. The L. Q. Sneed family. Itc.

1962 Wheat Crop In The Barn

Although there are a few fields of wheat in the area left to be cut, the 1962 wheat crop can be considered to be about 90 percent out, according to most sources.

Rains and showers of the past few days have practically stopped any cutting of what is left of the wheat. Buyers expect a few more loads to come in when the weather clears up long enough for combines to get in the fields to finish the cut.

The three grain buyers in Winters, Kimbell Milling Co., Winters Grain Co., and Alderman-Cave Milling & Grain Co., considered the crop for this year to be short because of the cutback in acreage. About 125 cars of wheat were received in Winters this season.
