HOME TOWN Talk

In a recent editorial, the San Angelo Standard-Times called attention to a pronouncement by the U. S. Department of Agriculture...

Winters went on to say that West Texas counties defined population during the last decade, but there are examples of industrial activity that are helping some parts of the area to hold the line...

It is interesting to note that the population of Winters is an example of what the Dept. of Agriculture meant by "not all shifts in the population are running against rural areas..."

Winters' City Council Tuesday night voted to make a counter proposal to the request by Southwestern States Telephone Co. for an increase of rates for telephone service in Winters.

The telephone company originally asked for an increase in rates last June. The first proposal by the company was deferred by the City Council, which asked for additional information which would justify the increase.

Following several meetings between members of the City Council and representatives of the telephone company, the telephone company forwarded to the City a revised request, prior to Tuesday night's action.

The latest proposal by the company would have increased the rates on one-party business phones from the present $8.00 to $10.00. Other types of service rates were readjusted in the latest request by the company.

City Council, in the counter proposal, which will be forwarded to the telephone company, agreed to only a $1 increase on the one-party business phone rate.

The telephone company, in their request for a rate increase, has said that under present rates the company realizes only 4.32 percent return. Their latest proposal would have increased this to 6.73 percent.

In meetings between the City Council and representatives of the telephone company during the past several months, the company has pointed out that state statute provides that such a utility company be allowed a "reasonable" return

Winters Pre-School Round-Up Set For February 19

The annual pre-school clinic for all students planning to attend school for the first time next September has been scheduled for February 19, at 2 p.m., in the school cafeteria.

All parents are urged to attend this meeting if they wish to aid their child in a smooth start in next year's first grade. James B. Nevins, superintendent of schools, said this week. The meeting has been scheduled earlier than usual in order to help verify any six year olds omitted from the current census roll.

Parents who have previously enumerated six year olds will receive a card of invitation. However, those who are omitted or new in this district are urged and invited to attend and bring their children, Supt. Nevins said.

Mrs. Fred Young, Runnels County school nurse, will schedule examinations during the same week, and parents will receive announcements and bulletins that will assist next year's first grade students.

All children who will be six years of age on or before next September 1 are invited to visit the school at this pre-school round-up, and become acquainted with the cafeteria, playgrounds and school rooms for next year.

Eat Chili And Help The Lions Buy Glasses

The annual Winters Lions Club Chili Supper will be held in the school cafeteria, Tuesday, February 12.

Serving will begin at 6 p.m. and continue until everyone has been satisfied.

Money raised at this chili supper will be used to supplement funds allocated by the Winters Lions Club to several projects, among which is the procurement of glasses for children of the community.

Winters' Mayor Makes Report To Lions Club

Cooperation on the part of everyone in Winters has made possible the smooth functioning of the affairs of the City of Winters during the past year, Mayor Harvey D. Jones told members of the Lions Club Tuesday noon.

In the program designed to inform members of the Lions Club of the steady progress of the City of Winters, Mayor Jones said that none of this progress could have been possible without the backing and cooperation of everyone. He gave credit to members of the Club for their assistance and interest in operation of the City's business.

Mayor Jones gave a short report on the City's financial position, and pointed out that Winters is in good condition, financially. He told Lions Club members that tax receipts had been above average, in that about 90 percent had been collected prior to the January 31 penalty deadline. He also said that where in some past occasions, the City had operated a month behind incoming revenues, that at the present time, operations are six months ahead. He reported that the City had "made some money" by investing some of the sinking fund monies.

Regarding accomplishments during the past year, Mayor Jones reported that in the water and sewer department, much work had been done. Installed during the year, he said, were 4,000 feet of 8-inch line, 4,452 feet of 6-inch line, 4,300 feet of 4-inch line, and 14,470 feet of 3-inch line. In addition, 2,000 feet of 6-inch sewer line had been laid.

The municipal light plant is growing, the mayor reported, with additional connections being made constantly. He said that during the month of August, 1962, the light plant had produced more electricity than had ever been produced prior to that time.

Regarding the hospital, Mayor Jones said that it was "almost paying its way," and pointed out that many charity patients are cause for a great deal of loss to the city hospital.

Ten mobile radio units have been installed in City vehicles within the past few months, it was reported, increasing efficiency in the several departments. In addition, it was pointed out that the radios would be a big help during the tornado and storm weather periods, permitting rapid communication in the event of impending disaster.

Mayor Jones said that the sale of water from the City Lake to the Atlas Base and two oil companies will be a great benefit in building toward a bigger and better water supply system. He said that funds received from this sale of water are being set aside with that thought in mind.

Industry On Parade!

Local Products On Display At Bank

Recognizing the importance to the economy and growth of the community of the presence of home industry, and as a salute to those companies contributing, the Winters State Bank Friday and Saturday will put the spotlight on "Made-In-Winters" products.

Samples of the many different items manufactured by local concerns will be exhibited during the two days in the lobby of the bank. The public is being invited to visit the bank lobby Friday and Saturday, and see for themselves just what position these several manufacturing companies, which send their products all over the United States and to some foreign countries, play in the overall economic structure of the community.

The bank lobby will remain open from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. during the two days of the show, even though banking hours will remain the same.

Visitors will be asked to register when they visit the exhibit, and a drawing will be held at the close of each day. People whose names are drawn will receive a $100.00 U. S. Savings Bond. One bond will be given away each day, by the bank. The winning persons do not have to be present at the drawing to be eligible to win the bonds.

C-C Committees Named During Director Session

Chairmen and members of the several standing committees of the Winters Chamber of Commerce were named at the regular meeting of the board of directors of the organization Tuesday morning. There are nine standing committees.

Streets and Highways: J. W. Bahlman, John Q. McAdams, R. C. Thomas and Harvey Dale Jones. Athletics, Parks and Recreation: E. Z. Moore, F. D. Anderson and Lloyd Gilbert.

Industrial: Homer Hodge, John Q. McAdams. Retail Trade: Don Oakes, Walker Tatum and Bill Robinson. Education, Teacher Appreciation and Fire Prevention: William D. Parish, Bob Loyd, A. W. Libbe.

Agriculture: John Gardner, Ray Alderman, R. R. Walston and Lon McDonald. Membership: Bill Bell. Housing: P. L. Harrison. Public Relations and Personal Contact: James Hinds, Mord Tucker and Loyd Robinson.

John Q. McAdams, who is promoting the industrial exhibit, said that he has invited state officials and bankers from over a wide area to visit Winters and the exhibit during the two days.

Firms participating in the industrial exhibit will include:

Winters Manufacturing Co.—Producers of evaporative air conditioners in sizes to meet the needs of homes, offices, factories, mobile homes; and portable models for many uses. These coolers are shipped to all parts of the country where such products are needed, and shipments are made to overseas distributors. A representative of the company presently is in the Middle East making dealer contacts. This company also builds desks, component parts of audio education booths, metal lockers, and other metal products.

Dry Manufacturing Co.—Makers of louvers, grilles and diffusers, in all sizes and price ranges. These products are shipped to distributors and dealers all over the United States, and are used in the building of homes and business structures. The company has undergone expansion several times within the past five years, and presently is engaged in enlarging again, the main plant and building more warehouse space.

Alderman-Cave Milling & Grain Co.—This milling and feed company is one of the largest producers of livestock feed in the area. The mill is one of the most modern, equipped with push-button machinery, enabling one man at the control desk to move raw grain from any location in the mill block, into the grinding machinery where it is processed into livestock feed. The mill offers custom grinding, besides selling their own brand of standard feed. A fleet of trucks distributes the feed to feeders in a wide area. They also have bulk trucks, designed to fill feed hoppers built in feeding pens.

A. B. Spill Machine Shop—Equipped to handle a wide variety of work in the machining line, Spill Machine Shop can work on the smallest metal objects up to giant oil field and industrial machinery and component parts. In addition, they have built and installed machines which mold metal pulleys, in a variety of shapes and sizes, and other force-molded metal objects. Their products are used by several local manufacturers, as well as being sent to other buyers over a wide area.

Commercial Feeders, Inc.—Though not yet a year old, this company is fast becoming one of the largest of its kind in the area. Taking advantage of the availability of locally-grown grains and locally-raised livestock, the company is providing a facility to combine the two for finishing beef cattle ready for the market. Much expansion has been made since the beginning of the enterprise last summer, and plans are to build yet more livestock feeding pens in the spring.

Sparkle-Lite, Inc.—Using a new and different type of sign material, Sparkle-Lite entered the sign and display field a few short years ago. A small plastic bubble placed in holes in a metal background, reflects the lights behind the background. Entirely novel and new, the plastic bubble is said to be unharmed by hail and wind-storm, unlike long tubes of neon signs. Products of this company have been distributed to a wide area, and nationally advertised.

Kozelsky Cabinet Shop—In a day when automated machinery has stripped the cabinet making business of much of its hand-worked quality, Joe Kozelsky, owner of the shop, still maintains that individual attention to each operation in building of cabinets is the answer to fine woodwork. His mark is seen on a majority of the cabinet work in new homes in this area, where he fits the cabinets to the home. He also does other woodwork, such as desk tops.

Bill Wilson Fiddle Shop—Wilson specializes in rebuilding of string instruments, and repairing instruments. He also makes fiddles and other instruments, and parts for repair. Wilson's shop also is equipped to do gem cutting. Alongside this work, he also does oil painting, and has won awards in art shows in the area.

Pan-American Sales Co.—This company is the distributing branch alongside Winters Manufacturing Co., handling sales of locally-made products, besides other items. The company offices and headquarters were moved to Winters from Wichita Falls last year.

Heart Fund Drive Now Underway

The effort to raise money for the Heart Fund is now underway in Winters and the North Runnels County area, Mrs. W. L. Collins, chairman of the campaign, said this week. The fund drive is being sponsored locally by the VFW and the VFW Auxiliary.

John Gardner is co-chairman of the campaign.

Canvass of the business district should be completed by Saturday, Feb. 9, with the residential drive beginning Monday, Feb. 11, at 5 p.m., it was announced.

In contributing to the Heart Fund contributors may designate if their donations are to go for heart research or to the memorial fund.

Membership dues in the Heart Association are $3.00 per year for medical personnel and $1.00 per year for laymen. This is in addition to any other contributions which residents may make.

There is a need for volunteer workers to help in this drive, it was reported. Volunteers are requested to contact Mrs. Collins or Mr. Gardner.

City Election April 2 For Mayor And Two Aldermen

Winters City Council Tuesday night passed the necessary ordinance providing for an election of a mayor and two Councilmen, and Mayor Harvey D. Jones officially called the election for April 2.

This year, the mayor's two-year term of office expires, along with the two-year terms of two councilmen. Three other councilmen on the city governing body have another year to serve.

Besides the mayor, terms of office for Ralph Lloyd and John Griffin Brown expire in April of this year.

Candidates have until 30 days prior to election date in which to file for office. Application papers may be obtained from the office of the City Secretary, along with instructions on proper procedures in filing as candidates, it was announced.

Girl Scout Cookie Sale In Progress

The annual Girl Scout Cookie Sale began Thursday, Feb. 7, and will continue through Feb. 16.

Mrs. Jerry Ward is serving as Community Cookie Chairman for Winters, and distributed cookies to leaders of troops Wednesday. Leaders, in turn, turned the cookies over to members of the girl scouts, and will supervise the sales.

Goal for Winters has been set at 108 cartons of cookies. Profits of the Annual Cookie

Local troops will retain 5 cents for each box sold by troop members, however. In addition, all girls throughout the 18-county council who sell 48 boxes of cookies are awarded partial camperships to apply on their camp fee at Camp Wood Lake. Last year, a total of $2,156.40 was kept by local troops throughout the council.

Speaker of House Would Be Elected By People Under Proposed Resolution

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

Rep. Will Smith of Beaumont wants the voters of Texas to select the Speaker of the House.

He has introduced a resolution calling for a constitutional amendment to make the position of Speaker an elective office.

If passed by the people it would eliminate much bickering among House members, not only during sessions but between sessions. It would speed up work in the House by enabling the members to get down to business on the opening day of each session. And equally important it would save the State many thousands of dollars as a consequence of the man hours lost.

Frequently serious and bitter personal feuds have developed between members of the House prior to the House's selection of a Speaker as well as by disgruntled groups following the election.

In the end the taxpayer of course is the loser. It has been said that some special sessions have been necessary due to the long delays and the wrangling that has resulted in years past over the Speaker or the speakership.

The Senate does not have this problem since the people elect the Lieutenant Governor to preside over the Upper Chamber. Both jobs are identical, but only in the Senate do the people have a voice.

of Frankston and Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas, each of whom was sponsoring a bill giving Sadler veto power over the Seashore project.

House and Senate subcommittees appointed to study the legislation appeared to be generally sympathetic, and avowed Padre Seashore opponents were in a minority on both groups.

WOMEN'S RIGHTS

More than 200 women marched into a senate committee meeting on "equal rights for women" and cheered committee approval of a constitutional amendment they've battled for through several legislative sessions.

The "equal rights" bill—yet to be passed by the Senate—may run into trouble in the House of Representatives.

Rep. James Cotten of Weatherford—former foe of the amendment—is chairman of the House Constitutional Amendments committee.

GOVERNOR SIGNS FIRST BILL

First bill to be signed by Gov. John Connally was one he'd requested.

It was the bill which appropriates $65,000 for his office; $50,000 for study of higher education needs; and $82,000 for investigation and prosecution by the Attorney General's office.

Governor Connally also made two appointments. He named Austin attorney Robert D. Bullock to the Texas State Historical Survey Committee, and reappointed Mrs. J. S. Abercrombie of Houston to the State Board of Mansion Supervisors.

SOLD ON SCREWORM PROGRAM

Governor Connally met with farm and ranch leaders and told them he's still a strong supporter of the Screwworm Eradication Program, but won't request the legislature to make emergency appropriations until he sees the results of the program's fund drive.

"I am completely sold on the program," Connally said, "and I am confident the livestock industry will raise the remainder of its quota by March 1."

He said requirements for a state contribution to the eradication program will be considered after March 1. "I do not think we will have difficulty in securing state appropriations, if the producers can meet their commitment," the governor predicted.

'MADE IN S.A.' ORDER HIT

The 3rd Court of Civil Appeals in Austin has contradicted the State Highway Commission by declaring that the commission has no authority to enforce a "made in the U. S. A. only" restriction on highway construction materials.

Commission had stated on October 28, 1960, that highway contractors can't use foreign materials for highway construction. This order was challenged by the Texas Association of Steel Importers, Inc., in the 53rd District Court in Austin, which upheld the state order.

Importers appealed to the 3rd Court of Appeals. It ruled, "We believe an order disbarring all imported materials from the market available to highway construction contractors acts to restrict competitive bidding."

Attorney General Waggoner Carr plans to appeal the decision.

Congress' Action Aimed for Radical, Gullible Vote

By Congressman O. C. Fisher

The U. S. Senate has not added any laurels to its crown by killing one month arguing over its rules, all inspired by vote-hungry liberal Senators who are making a big play for the Negro vote, and also to assuage the demands for ADA, CIO-AFL, and other liberal-radical groups. Thus far the move has been an exercise in futility, and is probably doomed to failure.

There are some who believe that is the result desired by sponsors, because in that way they get credit with the radicals for trying, and they are able to keep the issue alive for next year. The tragedy of it is that an entire month has been killed while grave problems face the Nation and the world.

Over in the House, a concerted drive is being waged by the Republican leadership to out-do the Democrats in plugging for so-called civil rights legislation. It is a play for the radical and gullible state may refuse to employ a person solely on the basis of age have been introduced in the senate by Sen. Franklin Spears of San Antonio and in the House by Rep. Will L. Smith of Beaumont.

Bills also provide that no agency of the state or any political subdivision may establish a maximum employment age of less than 65 years.

If the bills pass, it also would be illegal for any individual, firm or association in Texas to refuse to hire, or attempt to fire, anyone up to 65 solely on the basis of age.

STAMPS OR CASH

Rep. Milton Schiller of Cameron is circulating a bill to require merchants to give customers a three per cent cash discount if they don't want to accept trading stamps as a shopping "bonus."

vote—a political maneuver. With the blessing of Charlie Halleck, Republican leader in the House, supported by Wm. Miller, National Republican Chairman, Republican Congressional Chairman, Jerry Ford, and other blue-ribbon Republican leaders, they have opened a drive for extremely radical proposals, including an FEPC, a prohibition against literacy tests for voters, and a score of other equally obnoxious provisions. They even propose that Federal funds be channeled into any school district in America to help them segregate.

The Republican effort goes even beyond proposals by the more liberal Democrats. If enacted, the expanded Federal intervention in local affairs, all at the taxpayer's expense, would constitute a severe blow at the rights of the States and local communities to see after their own affairs, subject to existing laws.

It is a sad commentary to note that an estimated one-fourth to one-third of the time of the Congress is now, each year, taken up in agitating for unnecessary and unsound legislation—designed for but one purpose—that of coddling the more gullible voters. And it is estimated that the present

Attorney General, Bobby Kennedy, devotes about one-half of his time to the same purpose. Someone once said that the drunks, the sailors and the United States. But when necessities this sort of irresponsibility, by both political parties, wonder just how long it will hold out!

Long-Billed Cap

One of the biggest problems in duck and goose hunting is the glare from the sun. The solution is a long-billed cap. It will help shield their faces turned to the sun. Incoming ducks and geese most invariably flare away when they catch sight of a face below.

Try wearing a long-billed cap next time you go out on a blind. It will help shield your face when you look up to see the birds. But be sure to dull any of the long visor may have by using the visor cloth either by penknife or a piece of broken

CHEVROLET TRUCK QUALITY

You can see the difference wherever you look

If you believe various makes of trucks are pretty much alike, you aren't doing justice to your pocket-book. There are differences.

A Chevrolet truck welcomes comparison. Look at the little things on it—latches, hinges, stitching in the upholstery. Notice how strong the tailgate is, the rubber encased chains that keep it from sagging.

The body floor is made of select wood to eliminate the rust problem and give you better footing. The lower side panels are double-walled; you might dent the inside but it won't show through.

Chevrolet designs suspension systems to fit your need. The light-duty type is strong on comfort. Another kind for heavier trucks stiffens up as you increase your load and vice versa. Make sense?

If you are going to need a new truck this year, you should look at the quality Chevrolet has to offer. May we bring over a new '63 so you can examine it?

Man Is An Island

foreign beauty to attain international recognition through her performance in "No Man Is An Island."

"Ring-A-Ding Rhythm"
Chubby Checker and teenage singing sensation Helen Shapiro, in her motion picture debut, team up with some of the greatest musical talent alive in "Ring-A-Ding Rhythm," hailed by Hollywood as the biggest jazz jamboree of the year. The Columbia release showing Friday and Saturday at the State Theatre.

No fewer than 27 tuneful numbers, including traditional jazz and pop favorites, are said to crowd the soundtrack. In addition to the king and queen of the jukes, Chubby Checker and Helen Shapiro, the singers and swingers are Gary "U.S." Bonds, John Leyton, Craig Douglas, Gene Vincent, Brook Brothers, Gene McDaniels, Del Shannon, The Paris Sisters and The Dukers of Dixieland.

Pounding out this riot of rhythm are these outstanding bands: Chris Barber and his musicians with Ottillie Patterson; Acker Bilk and His Paramount Jazz Men; Kenny Ball and His Jazz Men; Terry Lightfoot and His New Orleans Jazz Band, The Temperance Seven, and Bobby Wallis and His Storyville Jazz Men.

The Music Man

Bursting at the seams with a breathtaking whirl of high-stepping harmonies, side-splitting shenanigans and rollicking romance, the dazzling Warner Bros. Technicolor presentation of Meredith Willson's "The Music Man"—already acclaimed "the happiest musical ever"—shows Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the State Theatre.

Robert Preston, making his 883rd appearance in the title role, recreates the award-winning characterization which he originated on Broadway. Academy Award-winning actress Shirley Jones, in a return to the musical field in which she made her screen debut, stars opposite Preston. The lavish Warner Bros. presentation was produced and directed by Morton Da Costa, who staged the original production.

In warm and witty words and music, Willson delights audiences with an exuberant account of the fast-talking travelling salesman who storms into an Iowa town early in the century and sets out to sell the townspeople on buying instruments and uniforms for a boys band, promising to instruct the band himself—although he doesn't know a note of music.

His success in warding off the suspicious mayor and charming the prim librarian, who emerges a glowing beauty as she succumbs to him, crowds the screen with thrilling, fun-filled entertainment.

Advises Seeking of Expert Advise When Buying Stocks On Market

There are four different "averages" reported in most newspapers and via radio and TV. They are the Dow-Jones, the Associated Press, the Standard & Poor's, and the New York Times. They all tell about the same story; namely, whether the market went up or down during the day, and approximately how much. They are reported shortly after 3:30 p.m. each day except Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays.

What Stocks Are Followed

The D-J has three groups: (1) the Industrials totaling 30 stocks; (2) the Railroads, with 20 stocks; (3) the Utilities, with 15 stocks. The public follows the Industrial Group chiefly, as the movement of the other two groups is small, and usually follows the direction of the Industrials. The 30 Industrials are as follows:

Allied Chemical, Aluminum Co., American Can, American Tel. & Tel., American Tobacco, Anaconda, Bethlehem Steel, Chrysler, Du Pont, Eastman Kodak, General Electric, General Foods, General Motors, Goodyear, Int. Harvester, Int. Nickel, Int. Paper, Johns-Manville, Owens-Ill. Glass, Proctor & Gamble, Sears, Roebuck, Std. Oil of Calif., Std. Oil of N.J., Swift & Co., Texaco, Union Carbide, United Aircraft, U. S. Steel, Westinghouse Electric, Woolworth.

How The Actual Quotations Are "Doctored"

Unfortunately, it seems necessary to add or cut out certain stocks at certain times. Furthermore, stock dividends, stock splits and other changes make adjustments necessary. Also, as these averages go back, the adjustments show up more. For instance, General Electric is quoted today at about 80; going back 10 years it was also quoted at about 80 (not allowing for stock split). This gives the reader no realization that if he had invested $100 in one share of General Electric stock 30 years ago, this one share would since have become worth about $1800.

Importance Of Patience

No one knows what the stock market will do next week or even tomorrow, but my associates may make an intelligent guess as to the market's movement during the next 30 days. The real fortunes which have been made in the stock market have been made by following the long swings, buying when prices were low and selling when high. These long swings vary in length from 5 to 10 years. One complete cycle sometimes takes 20 years.

When the Dow-Jones Industrial Index was started, it consisted of only 12 stocks. The prices of these 12 were added and the total divided by 12. This was simple, and not doctored. It was a real average; but as I mentioned above, the stock dividends, stock splits, etc. made it advisable to change the system. When I began to write this weekly column, the number of stocks, as I remember, was 20; then in 1928, it was increased to 30 stocks. There also were some changes or substitutes. The market was very active, culminating in the panic and collapse of the market in 1929. This was followed by an almost continuous decline through 1930-1931 and the first half of 1932. Then the market turned upward for 4 years.

Here I might remark that after every violent decline and an upward recovery there usually is a second reaction. The big break which came on May 28, 1962 may prove an exception to this rule; but a secondary break from present prices would not be surprising. The market has recovered a little more than half way. Wall Street is divided as to whether we will now see another decline—perhaps lower than the last, or whether another bull market is on the way.

In 1928 the market became so active that a new method of computing the D-J was devised; instead of merely adding the prices of the 30 stocks and dividing by 30, a divisor was developed. The divisor now stands arbitrarily at 2.988. I have never approved of this method, as we now cannot figure a dollar value to the Index. In fact, it truly is no longer an Average but purely an artificial "Index". However, it at least shows which way the market is going compared with the previous day, which suits most people.

Statisticians in brokerage offices will tell you that a one-point change in the Dow-Jones Industrial Index today means a theoretical change of about ten cents in the dollar value of the 30 stocks now covered by this D-J Industrial Average.

The Dow-Jones Bond Average is a true mathematical average of 10 industrial bonds, 10 high-grade railroad bonds, and 10 public utility bonds.

Odd Lots and Short Sales

In concluding this column, I will refer to two other figures given out each day by the New York Stock Exchange. One is the Odd-Lot transactions, and the other is the reported Short Interest. If the Odd-Lot purchases are continuously increasing, it is a bearish sign to me because it means that "little people" are getting into the market and they are generally too late or wrong.

Of course, an increase in the Short Sales should be indicative of important news to those brokers who are closely watching the market. If these short sales are legitimate, it should mean that the "big people" are getting bearish. These should show how the big investors feel, in contrast to the Odd-Lot figures which show how the small buyers feel.

One Personal Word

Finally, let me tell you what my father, a wise investor of Gloucester, Mass., told me many times: "Roger, don't speculate. If you cannot beat the other fellow at your own business, which you should know, don't try to beat him at his."

The above means: Employ an Investment Advisory Organization of long experience under one management or—if you are a small investor with no capital and with savings of only $1000 or $2000 a year—invest in a good Mutual Fund or in the stock of an established insurance company which has a large carefully managed investment surplus and portfolio.

Train Your Dog To Scent

Many hunting dogs hunt more by sight than they do by scent. Often this is due to poor training when a pup.

Such a dog is a poor hunter. Bring your own pup up the right way by doing as many professional trainers do—practice at night when the dog can't use his eyes and must rely on his nose.

When Casting Is Impossible

Every angler has run into a situation where casting was impossible due to overhanging limbs, etc.

Whatever the reason, you can place your bait just about where you want it, by putting the bait in a paper cup, floating the cup on the water, and letting air and water currents carry it toward the spot you have in mind.

When the right place is reached give the line a twitch and the cup will tip over, spilling the bait into the water right where you want it.

When skunks are hanging around camp, they can be chased away by throwing several handfuls of mothballs around the camp area.

ALL BIG THINGS

DON'T HAPPEN IN BIG CITIES

Proud cities of small and medium size are scattered throughout the West Texas Utilities service area, plus some small towns and villages.

But collectively they compose the vital and fast-growing Center of the Southwest, where major business and industrial development is taking place.

For example: a nationally-known packing company has established a lamb processing plant here... an existing manufacturer has developed machinery for a new process which is the heart of the footwear industry... one of America's great business complexes has constructed a major textile-producing factory... a wool scouring plant has been built and expanded... a leading surgical supply company will soon start plant construction... and dozens of other operations are bursting out all over the area.

Yes, it is very true. All BIG things don't happen in the big cities. Our service area faces GROWTH UNLIMITED, and our own expansion plans are geared to measure and meet the electric service needs of this dynamic area, the CENTER OF THE SOUTHWEST.

Tractor Engine Life Depends On Temperature

Light work and cold weather can take a heavy toll in the form of excessive engine wear on the farm tractor, says Henry O'Neal, extension agricultural engineer. Farm tractors are designed with a large cooling capacity to prevent overheating during hot weather and under heavy loads. This capacity will prevent the tractor from reaching an optimum operating temperature in cold weather under light loads unless shutters or curtains are used over the front of the radiator, he adds.

Cylinder wear at an operating temperature of 40 degrees F. can be as much as 27 times greater than at 180 degrees F. O'Neal explains. Carbon dioxide and water, as combustion products, combine to form a corrosive acid on cylinder walls which removes the protective oil film and corrodes the cylinder walls, he says. Minimum operating temperatures of 140 degrees F. under full load and 160 degrees F. under part load are required to maintain cylinder wall temperatures high enough to prevent the condensation of water in the cylinders. When operating temperatures are kept above these levels, the water remains in a gaseous state and is expelled with the exhaust.

O'Neal also states that fuel consumption and power are affected by operating temperature. Fuel consumption decreases and horsepower increases as the operating temperature nears 180 degrees F.

Use of shutters or curtains can bring the tractor engine to its proper operating temperature very quickly, and excessive wear and fuel consumption avoided, the engineer concludes.

More Money Is Needed In State Worm Program

An additional $1 million is needed by March 1 if the screwworm eradication program in Texas is to be continued, C. T. Parker, Runnels County farm extension agent, said this week.

The program was started last year, aimed at eradicating the screwworm fly and preventing a tremendous loss to livestock raisers in the state each year. The program is being financed by voluntary contributions from stockmen, with some financial help from State and federal agencies.

Parker said that results of the program have been good in the south part of the state, and that there had been some good results locally.

But, the county agent said, if money is not found to carry on the program, it will die, and what has been done thus far toward eradication of the screwworm in livestock will be for naught.

Stockmen wishing to make contributions to this project may do so by leaving their contributions at any of the county banks, or mailing their checks or money orders to the county agent's office.

Parker said he plans to hold a county-wide meeting Feb. 15 to explain the program. The meeting will be in the district courtroom at 2 p.m. on that date.

seen upon entering. In front of the entrance was a heart-shaped baptismal pool. The original entrance was very small but has now been increased. This tomb has a window and the light shines directly on the spot where our Lord may have lain. There is room for 2 more bodies in the tomb but only one place was used, and it had to be made longer. There is a seat at the head and at the foot where the angels could have sat. The tomb is divided into 2 parts — one a place for mourners; the other containing the beds. The wonderful lady who showed us through the garden and tomb presented the ideas but told us that it was up to us to decide — the important thing is that Jesus died but was resurrected and thus made His words come true: "I am the resurrection and the life, he who believeth in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live, and whosoever believeth in Me shall never die." To me, at this particular time, this place, these words and this sweet lovely lady were a special blessing.

In the garden also is a large winepress indicating that the tomb and garden belonged to a rich man and it is believed that this particular spot belonged to Joseph of Arimathea.

Hasan took us to his lovely home for lunch and served us an unusual drink of date syrup and water. After lunch on his balcony, we drove 12 miles northwest of Jerusalem to Emmaus where Jesus appeared to the two disciples, Cleophas and Simon, on the third day after His burial. A lovely Franciscan Church stands on the traditional site of Cleophas' house. There is also a school and convent nearby.

We drove through El Bireh, 10 miles north of Jerusalem which is probably the point from which Joseph and Mary returned to Jerusalem in search of Jesus whom they found in the Temple. (St. Luke 2:44-45)

In the distance we saw Seilun (Shiloh) — the site where the Ark of the Covenant was kept for three centuries.

Jacob's Well is 40 miles north of Jerusalem. Jacob dug the well in his field near Shechem and Joseph lies buried in this same field. At Jacob's Well, Jesus met the Samaritan woman and asked her for a drink of water. (John 4) Greek Orthodox Priest showed us the well and gave us a drink of water from it. It is 125 feet deep. We drove on to the Shechem excavations (Genesis 34), 2 miles east of Nablus. The ruins date back to 1600 B. C.

Mt. Gerizim: This is the holy mountain of the Samaritans. The Jews, after their return from captivity in 538 B. C. refused to consider the Samaritans as Jews because they had intermarried with Gentiles, so the Samaritans built a rival temple to that of Jerusalem. The High Priest showed us the Torah or scroll of sheepskin parchment which is claimed to be 3647 years old, written 13 years after the death of Moses. The Samaritans believe in only the five Books of Moses. The Priest spoke excellent English and was happy to talk to us — he was tall, slender, barefoot, his robe was long, and he had a black beard and a pony tail. Sheep are still sacrificed on Mt. Gerizim. Mt. Ebal is to the right of Mt. Gerizim. There are only 350 Samaritans who now live in Nablus.

We saw Rahah — the birthplace of Samuel and the monument to Samuel in the distance. We saw the Village of Nob where King Saul killed so many people and priests and destroyed the village. The village of Bethel (House of God) where Jacob had the vision of the ladder to heaven. The lands of the tribe of Benjamin are lovely — a valley surrounded by gentle hills — the valley is called the Valley of the Dance from the story in Judges 21. The mountains surrounding this valley were named the "Mountains of Fire" in 1936 when several hundred British soldiers were killed there by Arabs that year.

The YMCA is a very nice place and has an exciting beginning dating back to 1948 when its history in Jordan began in a tent. The Arab refugees came from Israel by the thousands and the YMCA together with UNICEF, the International Red Cross and the YMCA of the US helped to organize these refugees and give them food and shelter. They also organized schools — Hasan was a teacher in one of these refugee camps of which we saw several. The houses are very small and built close to each other — one camp has 38,000 people in it. The Y in Jordan has grown and is now constructing a large modern building next to the one we stayed in at Jerusalem — the General Secretary is Mr. Labib Nasir, and he met Sgt. Black and Rodney one morning up on the roof when they were about to take some pictures — he warned them not to take any to the south because only a few yards away lay the Jordan soldiers and a short distance from them were the Israeli troops, and they do not like to be photographed (to put it mildly.) He asked where our home was and was pleased to know we were Texans — his brother is an engineer at Kelly AFB. He also had our group go into the new building to see a cave that was discovered when they were laying the foundation for the new building. Several skeletons and some pottery were found in the ancient cave.

The food at the Y was American style, the people were friendly, and the prices were reasonable. The new Y will have a chapel in it and the Evangelical and Reformed Church of America has pledged $20,000 for this chapel which will look up to the Mt. of Olives.

It was with sad hearts that we prepared to leave the Holy City the next morning. This trip held a special meaning for each of us and the experience of trodding on this sacred ground will be a memory that we will never forget. I'd also like to add here that all of the Russian excavations and churches were built before Russia became Communist.

Saturday, 13 October 1962

We drove back by the Dead Sea, crossed the River Jordan in another spot and went on to Damascus where we spent the night and did some shopping. When we reached Damas, we ran into "Charlie" — our guide from Monday's trip.

Our neighbor in the Rami Palace in Damascus was a lawyer from Amman, Jordan. He was cordial to us and we spoke at length with him about Mississippi and then another lawyer friend of his came and asked us why America was selling rockets to Israel. Again we had no answers but he told us if America sold rockets to Israel, then Jordan had no choice but to buy rockets from Russia. He also pointed out that the world looked to America as an example and that sometimes our example was not very good. I could only agree with that statement.

We saw many tattooed Bedouin women — they tattoo their faces to make themselves beautiful and equal to their men. I'm afraid I don't share their version of "beauty" but it was an interesting sight.

Sunday, 14 October 1962

We had a terrible time finding our way out of Damascus because of the Arabic road signs, but finally we got on the Aleppo road. We saw many villages of cone shaped tiny houses along the way. We arrived at the lovely city of Hama — a city with giant waterwheels. We drove past Arab army encampments with their cannon and rocket equipped weapons' carriers.

We arrived in Aleppo late in the evening but could not find a suitable hotel and did not like the atmosphere of the town; so we decided to drive on back to Turkey. We got through Customs without any trouble — they didn't search our car, and we were pleased that we had gotten our "treasures" back into Turkey. About 20 miles down the road, our pleasure came to a halt when two Turk soldiers stopped the car. They were joined by a civilian. They did not check passports but insisted on seeing into

Screwworms Must Go, Say Stockmen

An overflow crowd of key Texas farm and ranch leaders, meeting in Austin on January 28, enthusiastically approved the continuance of the Southwest Screwworm Eradication Program and readied plans to raise the remaining $1 million needed to insure the continuation of the project.

C. G. Scruggs, president, Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation, got a thunderous "yes" when he asked the group if they wanted the project continued.

Nearly 600 representatives from over 175 Texas counties agreed to go back to the individual farmers and ranchers who helped start the program less than a year ago and ask them to raise the balance of their $3 million goal. The group included the chairmen of county animal health committees, extension service workers, vocational agriculture teachers, and representatives of several agricultural and livestock associations.

The eradication program is in danger of being terminated because funds from livestockmen are nearly exhausted and at least 50 percent of the program's cost must come from non-federal sources.

Program officials told the group that the eradication effort has been enhanced by recent cold weather which has reduced the number of screwworm infestations. A good opportunity now exists to overwhelm screwworm flies that survived the cold weather by continued release of sexually sterile flies, they said.

Appearing on the program with President Scruggs, were Dr. F. J. Mulhern, Director of the United States Department of Agriculture's Animal Disease Eradication Division; Dr. R. G. Garrett, executive director, Texas Animal Health Commission; Dr. M. E. Meadows who directs field operations at the Fly-Rearing Plant at Mission; and Mr. Jerry Puckett, Fort Stockton, Treasurer of the Foundation. Also, a panel was led by V. A. "Bill" Clements, foundation vice-president.

Lt. Gov. Preston Smith and Sen. Culp Krueger of El Campo briefly addressed the group assuring them of the State's interest in the eradication program.

Summing up results of the program which began last February, State and Federal officials noted that release of hundreds of millions of sexually sterile screwworm flies during the past 10 months has retarded development of screwworms, confined infestations mainly to the 5-State eradication area and Arizona, and resulted in the lowest number of screwworms east of the Mississippi River in 30 years.

From Steer to Steak Explains Costs

The difference between the price of steak and the price the producer gets for his cattle is due to marketing costs, according to a new publication of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"From Steer to Steak," L-582, states that these marketing costs include all the costs of processing and distribution required to convert the live animal to the salable product. It says these costs can be divided into three groups; marketing livestock, slaughter-wholesaling and retailing.

The costs involved in the marketing process begin when the animal is sold by the producer. The costs of transportation, sale or handling of the steer must be included in these expenses, the bulletin explains.

The next phase of marketing is slaughtering the animal and wholesaling the carcass. A U.S. Choice grade animal will yield about 59 pounds of carcass beef from every 100 pounds of live weight. Thus the value of the byproduct and carcass determines the price that can be paid for the live animal, the publication says.

The final step in marketing beef is retailing and of the 59 pounds of carcass beef left 12 more is lost in trimming and cutting the meat into retail cuts. This leaves only 47 pounds of the original 100 pounds of live animal and this is not all steak. The retail price for the meat must be at least twice the live steer price to pay for the weight loss and doesn't include the costs involved in marketing, the bulletin says.

All steer is not steak and when marketing costs are added it is easily seen why the price we pay for steak must be considerably higher than the price the producer gets for this product, the bulletin explains.

Winters Girl Scouts Will Sell Cookies February 7-16

"Brownie, Intermediate and Senior Girl Scouts in Winters will soon be participating in the 10th Annual Cookie Sale, sponsored by the Heart of Texas Girl Scout Council, Mrs. Jerry Ward, Girl Scout Cookie Chairman for Winters announced today.

Dates of the sale are February 7-16. The 1963 Council goal is to sell a total of 48,000 boxes of cookies. The quota for Winters is 1296 boxes.

This is a project by and for the Girl Scouts and it affords every Girl Scout an opportunity to assume responsibility while practicing sound business methods. The girls will not only add to their own troop treasury but will aid the council, of which Winters is a member, in bringing better camping to more girls.

Funds for the maintenance and development of camping facilities come almost entirely from this annual sale. Council proceeds from this year's sale will be applied to the cost of the swimming pool constructed last year at the council's established camp, Camp Wood Lake. Proceeds retained in the troops will be used to buy essential material for troop activities.

The Megowen - Educator Food Company, from whom the Girl Scout cookies are bought, has one of the outstanding bakeries in the country. Four different kinds of cookies will be sold this year: assorted sandwich (chocolate and vanilla); assorted vanilla and cinnamon thin; butter nut roundup; and cookie mints. Many friends of Scouting will want to buy cookies by the carton, place them in their deep freeze, and serve them to friends throughout the year.

Troop leaders have been busy for the past month giving training to all girls in sales techniques, the importance of good grooming, and how to handle simple business transactions. Scout officials, as well as parents, think this is indeed citizenship training in practice.

"With the development and maintenance of a first class girls' camp as a goal toward which to work, I am sure the Girl Scouts in Winters will be working hard to sell their share of cookies. We are again asking the support of friends of Girl Scouts," Mrs. Ward continued, "in making this Annual sale the best yet."

The Winters Girl Scout Association is giving a ticket for the State Theatre to each girl selling 24 boxes of cookies during the sale.

are doing for the entire area.

Van Whittenberg, superintendent of the city street department, is handy with the welding torch. During the recent bad weather, when work on the street was next to impossible, and also during his spare time, he has designed and built side rails for the beds in the Winters Municipal Hospital. The goal is to fit each hospital bed with a side safety rail.

Personnel at the hospital have expressed great satisfaction with those bed rails, and the hospital has been saved perhaps several hundred dollars.

Thomas Edison was fired from a job as a young man for sleeping while on duty.

IT'S THE LAW- IN TEXAS

When you are ready to build, you will find that the law helps in many ways to make your home enjoyable and secure.

Have you decided on the type house you want and the amount you want to spend? If so, then let's go into details!

1. Your lot: Junior's school or your church may be nearby, but find out—

(a) Whether they are planning to run a highway through the area or nearby, or make any improvement for which you can be assessed.

(b) What "Covenants" or restrictions run with the land? To protect residents, the plats or asic deeds of some neighborhoods call on you to build a certain size or type of house. Do you want to and can you afford to?

(c) Easements. Either you or your neighbors may need to run pipes, or string wires over each other's land or to share a driveway. Have the abstract checked carefully to disclose any easements.

2. Zoning Ordinances: For your protection the local government frequently zones some areas, for example, for single houses only, for multiple dwellings; for retail stores, for manufacturing, etc.

Unless the local governing body changes its zoning ordinance, no filling station, for instance, can go next to you in a residential area. Neither could you turn your home into a store. In any case, you should find out what your neighborhood zoning rules are.

3. Building Codes: Be certain the plans and construction will meet the requirements of the local building code as to size, location and structure. Municipal ordinances usually impose strict standards for the building, the plumbing and the electrical wiring. In many cases only licensed building tradesmen are permitted to make the installations.

4. Financing: Financing contracts protect both you and the lender. Unless you pay cash, you will use credit to pay for your house, most likely a deed of trust or a land contract. Your installments often include principal, interest, insurance and taxes. Under a land contract the lender holds a title to your house until you pay for it. If you fall behind, the holder can take the house back. With a deed of trust, the lender has a lien which he can foreclose if you default. You may get some of your money back on the principal; but you may also have to make up any loss the lender makes in reselling the house.

Well worked-out contracts can help make your dream house come true. A construction contract or a so-called "earnest-money" agreement or receipt is no job for an amateur. Too many legal details are involved. Your lawyer is trained by education and experience to protect your best interests in contracting and closing real estate deals.

You know what you want. You should be careful to get what you want through careful planning and a properly prepared and executed contract.
