A DAY TO REMEMBER

Some great battles are almost forgotten, for they were not decisive. But the Battle of San Jacinto was a definite turning point. It marked for our great state the beginning of a new and brighter era.

Those who fought against aggression, on April 21st, 1836, left us a sacred trust. It is for us to safeguard our freedom whether the destructive forces come from without or within-By preserving American ideals we honor the heroes of bygone years whose valor shaped the course of history.

The subject for next Sunday's Sunday School Lesson is Psalms In Worship And Life. The following is by Rhoda C. Edmeston: To beingblood of Abilene gin rereading and studying the Psalms is to enter a sanctuary. The Book of Psalms was the hymnbook of the Jewish Temple. It is for us a book of worship. Its beauty is majestic because of the sheer simplicity and absolute sinalley and white roses cerity of its contents. It registers the thoughts and emotions of men who felt that they were standing before God. These writings deal with many of life's experiences, and in every case they give the impression that the writer felt that he was standing in the presence of God. Because of the deeply devotional character of the Psalms, reading them enriches our devotional life by the magic of coneva Ree was just 2 tagion. ### Into Fence Posts

Did you ever see a wooden fence post burning? The answer is probably yes, but did you check to see if the post had been treated with a preservative?

Tests conducted in Texas and throughout the country during the past 40 years prove that treated posts are resistant to grass and brush fires, points out Extension Forester Bill Smith.

On the other hand, untreated wood posts are quite susceptible to such blazes. Decay, near the ground line, usually begins shortly after such posts have been set and the resultant punky wood makes an excellent point for the kindling action of a fire to get started, he

One railroad concern ran a 2year test on over 2 million posts in a 4-state area, including Texas. Most of the posts were subjected to repeated "burning off" fires during this and prior periods. At the end of two years, 1 out of every 280 untreated wood posts was destroyed by fire while only out of every 5,000 treated ones had to be replaced because of fire damage.

Untreated posts were destroyed Austin visited the past week end by fire at a rate 18 times greater in the home of his parents, Mr. than the treated ones, Smith
