30 YEARS AGO

AUGUST 1933
Grand opening of Krauss Dry Goods Store drew a large crowd. During the evening music was furnished by a Mexican string band; piano numbers by Miss Anna Lee Cobb and Merrick Spill; solos by Mrs. C. S. Jackson, Mrs. Ruth Johnson and Miss Marie Hill; a trio by Vergie Poe, Athene Ramsel and Anna Lee Cobb; reading and tap dance by Annette and Janette Tucker, reading, Harold and Gerald Dixon and Miss Gladys Graham.

Queen Theatre installed 200 new seats while the Lyric Theatre was being remodeled. Manager H. J. Hodge announced.

Plans were made by the trustees of the rural schools to transport students to the Winters schools and for school buses to transport each child for $2.00 per month. Two bus lines were made into the Winters High School.

Coach of the Winters Blizzard football team of 1933 was Coach Pratt; stating that he expected the Blizzards to be a real team and expected C. P. Sessions of Wilmett, and Roberts of Winters, to make a good showing. The Blizzards were to defend their previous year Championship of district 13 in the Interscholastic League Class B. section. Line letters were Sullivan, Clift, Inman, Faubion and Benson. Backs were Clay, Townsend and Mullin. New men to play were Northam, Roberts, Lacy, Session, Duncan, Gardner, Vinson, Davis and Underwood. Line prospects were Patterson, McMillan, Grimm, Jennings and Wood.

Sheriff W. A. Holt, requested that cafes, stores and other places where slot machines were operated, must discontinue the machines. There were approximately 50 slot machines in Runnels county.

Electricification of Rural homes began, signing up more than a hundred homes, out of the required 600. A minimum rate of 2.45 and 25 kilowatts were allowed.

Jan and Avonne Brookes, daughters of Mrs. Allie Brookes, were first place winners in an amateur contest held in Cisco. Both girls were talented tap dancers and were students of Mrs. Floyd Sims.

Three Winters students received their degrees in Summer School. Miss Quida Pentecost, B. S. Degree; Mary Strother, bachelor of Arts degree; Ethel Mae Cooke, bachelor of Science degree.

Jess Wetzel completed a deal whereby he purchased the one-half interest of Light Hoover in the Hoover-Wetzel Motor Co., thereby becoming sole owner of the concern.

A new portable air conditioner was installed in the Winters Municipal Hospital. The badly needed equipment was installed

People Should Investigate Before Disposing of "Worthless" Stocks

Babson Park Mass. Every now and again I receive a spate of questions from readers about what to do with old and apparently worthless stock certificates that have been found around the house. How can they be sure, they want to know, whether or not these stocks have any value at all?

Fortunes May Be Uncovered
My first advice to such people is not to let go of such investments for any amount until they check every possible source of information about the companies involved. I remember some years ago that a Wall Street banker asked me if I would help him get some "worthless" stocks from readers of my column for a few pennies per certificate (not per share). Looking into the situation, I found that 49 out of 50 certificates bought by this broker turned out to be actually worthless, BUT one out of every 50 might be worth as much as $1,000. This usually was a certificate needed by a company to dissolve or consolidate without any outstanding obligations or complications.

While I am in no position, of course, to tell my readers exactly what to do in such situations, I still insist that you should not throw away any certificate just because some member of the family or some other "helpful" person says it is valueless. Probably the best bet is to show it to your regular banker. He will know how to go about checking on the current value, if any, of your certificates.

How Values Can Come Back
You will find that lots of your "worthless" certificates that turn up in desk drawers or in your attic represent old mining companies. Maybe they never were any good, or perhaps they were issued by mines that petered out. Some companies didn't have the money to dissolve legally, so perhaps they let some rancher pay the taxes for the right to use the land. And so the company was forgotten after stockholders were told that it had "passed out."

But I can remember, for example, some instances in the 1950's when uranium was found on such lands, with an increase in the operating room but could be moved to other parts of the hospital when necessary.

Two brothers, Ernest and Lawrence Jennings, sons of Dr. and Mrs. T. V. Jennings, who entered the service in February, 1942, were commissioned lieutenants. Apparently taking up the Jennings family tradition as their father, Dr. T. V. Jennings was also a lieutenant in World War I.

has had nearly 100 stockholders who could not be located. It may sound unlikely, but you actually might be one of these stockholders. There must be hundreds of other companies with the same difficulty. And don't forget that such stocks can double or triple in value, and you may not be found to be given your just share in the profits. Don't let that happen to you or your family.

Don't Dispose Of Defaulted Bonds
While on this subject, let me warn you not to rush to sell bonds that you hold when they default. The price of the bond may plummet from par to 50 cents or so on the dollar, but I have seen many such bonds climb back up to $1,000 in the course of years. I remember that Sheraton Hotel chain bonds sold at $1,000 before the turn of the century, then they defaulted and fell to around $200 where they remained for years. Long after that, a courageous and imaginative financier named Ernest Henderson showed his faith in the hotel business by buying up these "undesirable" bonds. Since that time they have, of course, been paid off at par.

CARD OF THANKS

Our heavenly Father called our loved one, Bill, to a most beautiful and comforting rest. We know he made many friends with his kindly, sunny attitude, and his deep, fervent faith. We are so glad we had the privilege of knowing him.

In the small way we would try to express our gratitude to each and every one of you who helped in any way in this time of our grief and pain. The knowledge that we had your prayers gave us strength to bear our sorrow.

For each kind word, each smile, the patient presence, sweetest words and for all sympathy that has ministered to the heart of our sorrow and added to the joy of our happiness we say "Thank You" from the bottom of our heart.

We would offer special thanks to Dr. Ryan and his staff, the Nurses and Government Doctors and Nurses, the Churches and Ministers, the Police Force, U.S. W. American Legion members, and all their wives. To Dad, Jim and Wilford and those who were right at the funeral home and to the Pallbearers. To those who gave love and those who offered their home. To the Winters Enterprise and the Ballinger Radio Station. To Dorothy and the use of her car and many other kind acts. To those who showed their homes to relatives, for the food and those who served it, for the flowers, cards, letters, telephone calls, telegrams and visits and the generous gifts of money.

To those who cared for the children and to all who served us in so many ways.

May we, by the Grace of God, even while our hearts are breaking, hurt, grieve and be as kind and generous with others as you have been with us. God forbid that we should at any time if ever we could help one of you.

May God, who rules every thing, and who has been so compassionate in all this, bless each and every one of you.

The children and grandchildren join me in saying thanks to all. Mrs. Fred O. Johnson. 11-4c

Knocks $600 Off Big Aid Bill

last week whacked 600 million off of the Administration's foreign aid program last January.

Then, Clay Report, he sent a Congress agreeing to reduce by an additional 400 million. The 600 million was cut down to a billion dollars. But the House yet to act on it. I cut. Ten Texans in House voted against the aid. The reasons for the slash are varied. Among other things, it reflected dissatisfaction with the federal budget deficit; concern over our gold drainage to foreign countries; and also widespread criticism of foreign aid across the country.

Observers also believe the decisive vote for economy in this instance reflects anger over the President's Civil Rights proposals. It should be noted that in addition to the foreign aid that will be voted this year, there is a substantial carry-out in the pipe line from appropriations previously approved by the Congress. If there were no legislation this year on the subject there would still be enough money available to carry on a huge foreign aid program for 2 or 3 years.

The forthright House action last week, if sustained, should mark a definite trend against many extravagant aid programs abroad. In considering this type of spending, we but need to remind the recipient countries that the public debt of the United States is greater than the public debt of all other nations in the world combined.

Governor's Committee on Education Has Eye On Tuition-Free Colleges

By-Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

Gov. John Connally's Committee on Education Beyond the High School has its eye on tuition-free colleges and "super universities."

Also being looked upon with favor are Texas junior colleges and vocational schools. Committee is searching for a way to meet educational needs in the next decade.

Task is made difficult by the need for 80,000 new junior and senior college graduates by 1974.

The prediction, called "conservative" by committeeman Gifford Johnson, Dallas industrial leader, includes 456,000 four-year college graduates, and 446,000 graduates of two-year schools.

Right now the total enrollment in 23 of the state's four-year colleges and 34 private senior colleges totals 175,100. Junior college enrollment in 25 state junior colleges and 33 private schools is 57,200.

If these students all were to graduate, they would produce about half the number of graduates needed in the next four years. But Johnson said the problem is many won't graduate. There is a big drop-out problem in colleges and an even bigger drop-out problem in the grades below college level.

Johnson stated that only 54 per cent of the students enrolled in the third grade in 1952 graduated from high school in 1962.

What to do about the drop-out problem, which Governor Connally has called "one of the most critical problems of the decade?" Both Johnson and committeeman Tom Stacy of Midland, as well as other members of the committee which is composed of some of the state's most powerful citizens, recommended more and better counseling through all the high school years and college.

"If students aren't encouraged to stay in high school and perform well there, they don't have a chance," Johnson said.

His concept of free colleges and state universities which would admit only the top 15 per cent of high school graduates brought a lot of favorable comment from the committee. But Chairman E. S. Zachry of San Antonio warned all that this was just the preliminary to a preliminary report. Final report to Governor Connally is not due until August, 1964.

POLL TAX CAMPAIGN ON

Governor Connally will kick off the League of Women Voters campaign for repeal of the poll tax with a speech in September 4—the day the women launch a two-month drive for repeal of the tax.

November 5 is the date voters will decide whether to strike the poll tax requirement for voting from the State Constitution.

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, Sen. Ralph Yarborough, Sen. John Tower, congressmen and state legislators are being invited to the September 5 meeting in Austin.

NEW REGIME

Commissioners of the brand-new state agencies were sworn into office as well as the man who will take Attorney General Waggoner Carr's place at the State School Land Board, Judge Wilcox Fox of Taylor.

New commissioners are Lt. Regulator Commissioner Frank Mitchell, and Parks and Wildlife Commissioners, Will Odum of Austin, chairman, J. W. Dellinger of Corpus Christi, and A. W. Montgomery of Johnson City. All three have been trying to meet up with new rules and better commission agendas at the same time.

PARKS BOARD BUYS OUT

State Parks Board had its last meeting last a few days before being replaced by the Parks and Wildlife Commission. But it must not transmit any business which it couldn't get a contract.

Chairman Maurice E. Turner of Huntsville was there, as well as Ed Kilmar of Houston and Max Starcke of Austin. But Reese Martin of Beaumont was out of the state. Outside member Harry Hambs was ill, and J. Carter King of Albany was not available.

Parks planner Elio J. Ulanowski of Texas Tech was on hand to present a model parks system—developed with a $70,000 legislative appropriation. But the board asked him to make his recommendations to the Parks and Wildlife Commission at some later date.

REHABILITATION RECORD SET

J. W. Edgar, Commissioner of Education, claimed a new record for the Texas Vocational Rehabilitation program. He announced that a total of 1,586 disabled men and women were rehabilitated to productive jobs during the year ended on June 30.

Edgar said 366 of these persons had been receiving public assistance payments totaling some $346,000 a year. He figured they now would be self-supporting and would save many thousands of dollars in federal and state assistance funds.

OLD FOLKS ASSURED OF INSURANCE

New law assuring Texans 65 years of age and older the right to purchase health insurance now in effect. First period of enrollment for the cooperative plan will be October 1-31.

All licensed insurance agents in the state are eligible to give details about the plan.

SLOW DRIVING PROHIBITED

Cal Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Department of Public Safety, issued a reminder that the new speed law specifically makes it a violation to drive a vehicle so slowly as to impede traffic. Minimum limits, as well as maximum limits, are being posted on the highways throughout the state.

WILDLIFE

Austin was swarmed full of high school leaders as Art Gen. Waggoner Carr held a conference in town.

The 1,000 young people who attended were told how to prevent juvenile crime and school dropout. It is up to them to put the ideas into effect through high school organizations.

Basically, the solution is in finding things for junior high and high school students to do. Recreations for those who only need to be seen occupied and jobs for those who need to help their families at 14 or 15 were the major recommendations.

POLICE

In a court decision, the State of Texas claimed over 400,000 acres of submerged land in Laguna Madre to become a part of the Pacific States National Reserve.

Filed as a major attraction, the Pacific project was created by Congress and the Texas Legislature agreed to contribute the state's land.

Reserved to the Permanent State Park are the oil and gas wells which may be able to produce water in Laguna Madre.

The National Park Service, with a $1,500,000 appropriation to start, will set the standards of Pacific Island from private owners. Governor Connally, Lt. Regulator Commissioner, Jerry Sautter and Attorney

MOVIES

"THE NUTTY PROFESSOR" GOES DANCING with lovely Stella Stevens in a scene from his new Technicolor comedy, "The Nutty Professor" which shows now through Sunday at the Fiesta Theatre.

"Operation Bikini"

An all-star cast headed by Tab Hunter, Frankie Avalon, Scott Brady, Jim Backus, Gary Crosby, Michael Dante and Jody McCrea is featured in "Operation Bikini" the war action adventure film of the year, showing Friday and Saturday at the State Theatre.

"Play It Cool"

An enchanting, great tune-packed musical, "Play It Cool," will show here at the State theatre Friday and Saturday with the singing star Bobby Vee heading its brilliant cast.

Starred with him are two other great recording stars, singers whose fans number in the millions, the gorgeous Helen Shapiro and Billy Fury, and also Michael Anderson, Jr., and Dennis Price.

The story revolves about a young girl on the search for her lost sweetheart, and her trail takes her through many dazzling night clubs. She finally finds him—and the discovery is highly embarrassing to him because of the circumstances in which he is found.

The film, from a Jack Henry screenplay, is an Allied Artists release directed by Michael Winner for producer David Deutsch. It is a Julian Winkle-Leslie Parkyn production.

"Kid Galahad"

Elvis Presley essays his first role as a boxer in "Kid Galahad," showing Sunday only at the State Theatre, through United Artists release. In color by DeLuxe, it is a modern-day drama with music set against the exciting world of prize-fighting, but despite its setting, "Kid Galahad" cannot accurately be described as a fight film. For unlike the stereotyped Hollywood ring yarn, it is not an expose of the fight "game" and its hero is a reluctant boxer who never becomes champion. In fact, he isn't really a very good boxer!

"The Nutty Professor,"

Jerry Lewis' new comedy, "The Nutty Professor," shows now through Sunday at the Fiesta Theatre. It is Jerry's 12th feature since his break with Dean Martin, and in addition to playing the title role, he also directed the filming and wrote the screenplay.

The Nutty Professor is one Julius H. Kelp who teaches Chemistry at a large American university. Professor Kelp is the disgrace of the faculty due to his inept handling of his students and his wild experiments that frequently blow up the Chemistry Laboratory. Kelp, a bumbling, ineffectual type, finally hits upon a chemical potion that transforms him into a handsome, dashing man-about-campus an ivy-league Jock and just like that, perimenter, his pose at embarrassing just when he's about to his lovely Stevens. As can everything works out but there's many the way.

"The Nutty Professor" filmed on location of Arizona State University includes as extras, entire student body.

LABOR DAY—1963

America's strength is its capacity for production. Men and machines, under the enterprise system, have turned out vast quantities of things for defense and for our daily needs. Other nations have also been aided in their fight against aggression.

On Labor Day we honor those who work to produce more and better things. Their remarkable record of progress and higher standard of living were made possible by our free institutions. In other lands we see how the liberties of the people are lost when representative government is overthrown.

Individual freedom is a precious asset which we must ever endeavor to preserve.

ROGER BABSON

Travel Considered One of the Finest Investments For Young Generation

Babson Park, Mass. Last fall in these pages I discussed the bargains available in foreign travel, and I pointed out that the cost of touring was still on the way down while the cost of practically everything else was on the way up. This trend still continues. The reason is, in large part, the bitter competition not only between the air lines and the shipping companies, but also among the various ambitious concerns within those two categories.

Many Buying Travel Bargains

Final figures for 1962 show that Americans shelled out close to $2.9 billion for foreign travel during that year, an impressive gain of 10 percent after the temporary leveling off seen in 1961. Preliminary figures for the first part of 1963 indicate that the curiosity of Americans to visit foreign countries is still growing. The travel pay-later psychology is leading many lower-budget Americans—who would never have dreamed of traveling abroad a few years ago—to give themselves a royal treat "on the cuff."

Jet flights to faraway lands are so fast that nearly all of one's vacation can be spent in romantic climes new to the traveler, instead of on a slow boat getting there. Man-and-wife or entire-family bargain packages are very popular, with the cost often little more than that of a trip to some distant national park or seashore in this country. Visits to neighboring Canada and Mexico are steadily on the increase; but I am more interested at the moment in the tendency of Americans to go farther afield, to cross the open seas for new experiences.

Where People Are Going

The most popular parts of the world for travelers right now are the European and Mediterranean countries. During 1962 about 290,000 Americans visited these areas, while last year the total zoomed to 353,000. There was a somewhat smaller advance from the 238,000 travelers who visited the West Indies and Central and South America during 1961 to the 268,000 who toured there in 1962. Indications are that the same tendencies exist in 1963, and will for some time to come.

I am told by a friend who is interested in hotels, motels, and apartments in the West Indies that the Haitian trouble has done his business more good than harm. True, many people have moved away from the immediate area of Haiti and the Dominican Republic also from the countries closest to Cuba. However, as a result, tourists have concentrated more heavily in other sections of the West Indies. Both the climate and the nearness of these islands make them particularly attractive to Americans, despite local political tensions in Haiti and international tensions in Cuba.

Travel A Wonderful Gift

With world travel such a bargain, now is a perfect time for parents to give their children and—or their grandchildren trips abroad. They will make wonderful new friends whom they never would know otherwise, and will become far more aware of the differences—and the similarities—among the various peoples of the earth. What could be more broadening for young, alert minds than such a wonderful experience? I consider this one of the finest investments that older people can make in the future of their younger heirs.

I have traveled widely myself, having been to most of the important countries on both sides of the Iron Curtain. Never have I taken a trip without coming home with the feeling that I have learned a great deal that I could not possibly have learned any other way. If you want to take a trip yourself, or if you want to give a trip to a relative as a gift, I advise you to deal with a travel agency in or near a city close to where you live. Details will be taken care of for you, whether the trip is to be by ship, plane,
