

HOME TOWN Talk

By R. C. THOMAS

A continued and healthy growth for Winters is evidenced in figures released this week by the office of the City Secretary.

According to Vic Sutton, City Secretary, permits have been issued for five new homes in Winters since January 1. Added to this have been permits for remodeling and additions on eight homes and businesses within the city.

Estimated cost of the five new homes is figured at $60,500, while the additions and repairs estimate is $9,250. These figures are conservative, too.

These figures do not include new homes which have been started this year in areas which are not within the city limits, but which make up a reasonable portion of what could be called the metropolitan area. A new addition has been started on the north edge of Winters, with building already in progress on one home, and others to begin soon. This addition, just east of Parkview Addition, is being developed by Winters Lumber Co., but has not been annexed by the City. This will be requested, we understand, after all improvements such as paved streets and utility lines are complete. This one addition will add a fair size chunk to the corporate limits of the City of Winters.

We doubt that there are many cities the size of Winters which can boast of such an increased growth. One of the reasons is that there is a marked confidence in the future of this community.

In looking at the physical size of Winters, many of us tend to forget that there are several areas on the fringes of the city limits which are not included when counts are made. But these areas contribute gently to the growth and welfare of the city. They include many businesses and homes.

For instance, the Hoppe Addition on the western edge, with several homes, is not within the corporate limits of the city; several homes in Sun-lawn Addition on the southwest corner are not included; Reeves Addition to the south is not included, nor are several homes around the edge of the city. Add to this the many businesses on North and South Main Street, and to the west. They all are a substantial part of the city.

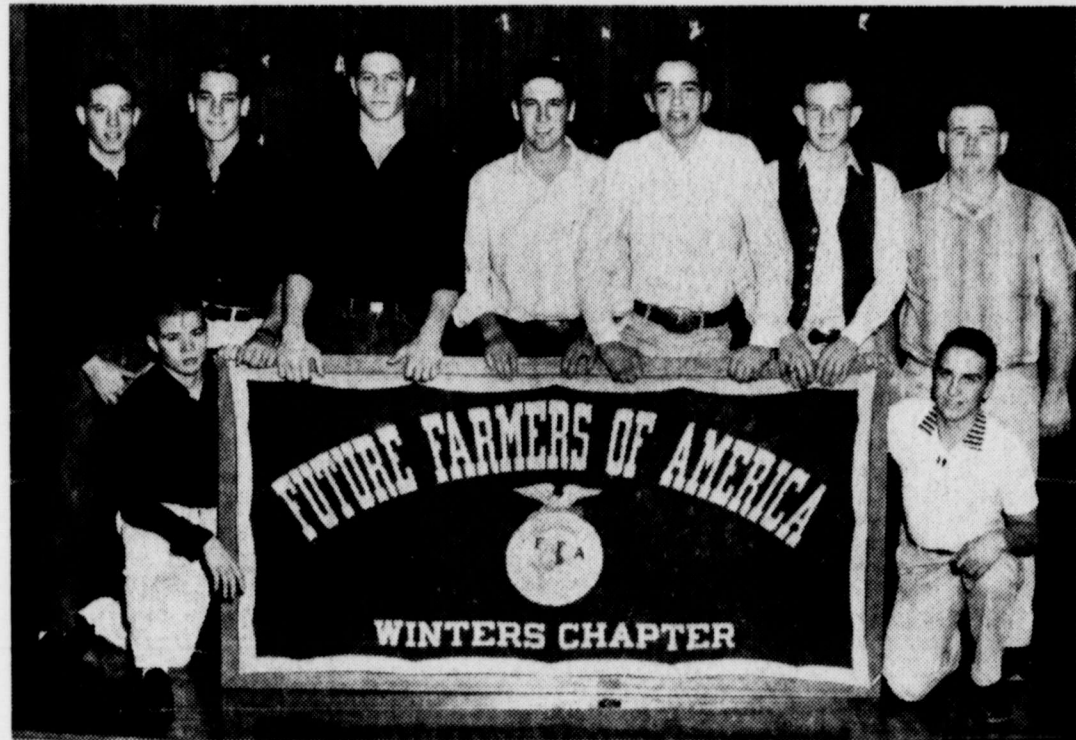

We keep noticing little items in the papers to the effect that "when the United States acquired Texas from Mexico at the end of the Mexican War," and can't help wonder if someone is trying to re-write history just a bit.

Last Sunday was a right nice day, made for getting outdoors, driving around the countryside, golfing, or just plain loafing. But we could not refrain from hoping, all during the day, that it would cloud up and rain. Not only for the moisture it would have brought, but for purely selfish reasons.

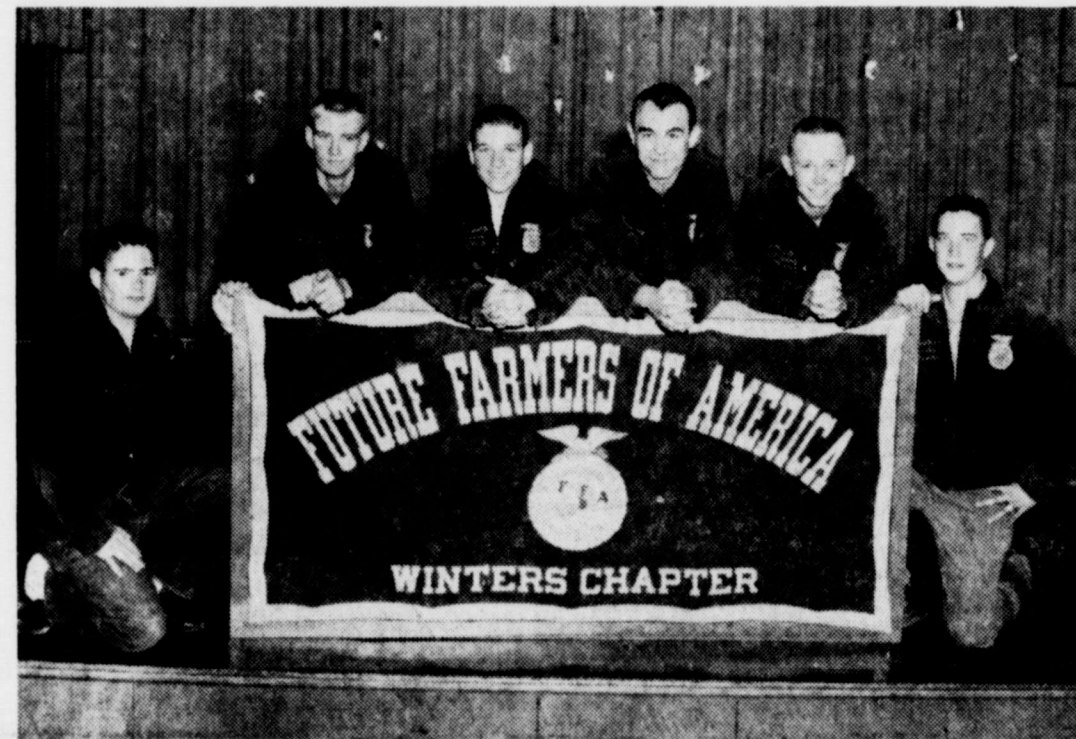

In last week's column of halderdash, rainfall records were quoted. But a typographical error—or just a plain mistake—caused the record to be 0.8 inch of rain on Feb. 3, and 0.9 inch on Feb. 9. So if it had rained 0.9 inch last Sunday, we'd have been right at least once.

Johnny C. Merrill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Merrill, has completed his basic training at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio. Merrill enlisted in the service January 10, and his wife, the former Janice Kile is making her home in Winters.

F. F. A. Week Feb. 15-22

The week of February 15-22 has been designated as FFA Week in Texas by Governor John Connally, and the Winters Chapter of the Future Farmers of America—holding the No. 1 charter in the State—will note the week with a review of work completed within the past few months.

No special programs or events have been planned by the local FFA chapter, according to Lon McDonald, vocational agriculture teacher and advisor of the Winters group.

Upon making the proclamation, Governor Connally pointed out that "the importance of agriculture in our state increases as Texas progresses, and it is vital to our well being that we train skilled farmers and ranchers to provide a plentiful supply of food in years to come."

The Winters FFA chapter long has been recognized throughout the State of Texas as one of the most progressive chapters. In past years, members of the local chapter have shown livestock and participated in events over the region, and have won their share of blue ribbons and awards.

There is a class enrollment of 50 members in the Winters High School FFA chapter, with 55 members on chapter rolls. FFA members are permitted to retain membership in local chapters until they reach the age of 21. There are 19 members in the Greenhand, or first year chapter.

A brief review of activities participated in by the Winters FFA shows that during the past few months, local members have kept busy in area, district and state affairs. With their advisor, Lon McDonald, four local members attended the State FFA convention at Lubbock last July 17, 18 and 19. At that convention, Scotty Belew, senior in Winters High School, received his Lone Star Farmer Degree. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Belew.

Six members and McDonald attended the West Texas Fair in Abilene last fall, showing 30 head of swine and sheep in the livestock show.

In November, the local chapter participated in the district leadership contests in Coleman, entering five teams in six con-

LON McDONALD
... FFA Advisor

Lon McDonald is teacher of vocational agriculture in Winters High School, and as such serves as advisor of the local chapter of the Future Farmers of America. He graduated from Texas Technological College in 1953, with a bachelor of science degree in agricultural education. Following his graduation, he served for about two years in the U. S. Army, as a second lieutenant of infantry. He spent 13 months in Korea. He is a graduate of Merkel High School and prior to coming to Winters, taught in schools in Lamesa, South Taylor, and Girard. He is married and has two children. He is a member of the Church of Christ.

tests. They won first place in junior and senior chapter conducting, second in radio and senior farm skills, third in the FFA Quiz.

The junior and senior conducting teams participated in Area IV contests in Stephenville, winning third place in senior conducting and second in junior chapter conducting.

One of the biggest events during the year for the local FFA chapter, and perhaps for the Winters agricultural community, was the Junior Livestock Show here in January. This year, about 175 head of livestock were shown, and a livestock sale was held following the show.

Winters FFA chapter members showed 50 lambs and 15 swine in the recent Abilene Livestock Show. There, the chapter group placed first in the pen of 15 lambs division, with all breeds represented. The chapter also placed second in the herdsman or neatness award.

During this week, the local FFA boys are exhibiting lambs and hogs in the San Antonio livestock show. They took 48 lambs and 19 hogs to the show, and placed second in the pen of 15 Hampshire lambs division, a chapter participation. Hogs were to be shown Wednesday of this week.

FFA members, in their agriculture classes in Winters High School, study livestock, agronomy, soils, farm mechanics, farm welding, entomology, management. Most of them have livestock projects of one kind or another. Most popular subject is livestock, with the most popular livestock being sheep, swine and beef. There is some interest also in dairy cattle and in poultry.

Statewide, Texas is the largest of the 50 chartered state associations with more than 10 percent of the total FFA membership. Texas has 937 chapters with a membership of about 40,000.

Agriculture is not the sole subject of those students of vocational agriculture and members of FFA. They are taught leadership, the ability to express themselves, "to think on their feet and to move with confidence in a new environment," according to Dr. R. C. Potts, assistant director of Agricultural Instruction at Texas A. and M. University.

Benefit Basketball Game, Seniors vs. Faculty, Scheduled Monday Night

Senior members of the 1963-64 Winters High School basketball team will be given a chance to knock heads with members of the school faculty in a benefit basketball game scheduled here Monday night, Feb. 17. This game will begin at 8 p. m. in the school gymnasium.

There will be two games Monday night. The first game will see the Sophomore footballers tangle with the Junior boys, prior to the classic at 8 p. m.

All proceeds from the game will go to finance a track meet March 7 on the new track north of the stadium. The track was built last year, and this will be the first year of use. Admission to Monday night's games will be 25 cents and 50 cents.

Faculty members expected to play in this headknocker include R. E. (Rovin') Robbins, Lon (Farmer) McDonald, David (Prof) Ledbetter, "Jarin' Jim" Jones, Elgin (Catch'em) Conner, Bill (Slim) Bryant, Jerry (Shorty) Cunningham, Johnny Bob (Lonesome) Smith, and L. G. ## Anson Clinches Crown in District 6-AA; Will Meet Blizzards Here In Final Tilt

The high-riding Anson Tigers, with a perfect score through nine games, have captured the 1964 District 6-AA basketball title, and will play their final game of the season against the Winters High School Blizzards here Friday night, Feb. 14.

Stamford's Bulldogs, a threat all season, lost all chances at a go for the crown a few games back, and will settle for second place in the circuit. Through Tuesday night's games, Haskell was No. 3; with Hamlin and Winters tied for fourth place. Ballinger was in the cellar.

Friday night's final games could make a difference in the standings, perhaps, but for all practical purposes, the season is finished, with Anson on top of the pile.

FRIDAY NIGHT GAMES
Winters added another victory Friday night of last week, clipping Hamlin's Pied Pipers, 62-45, to even the standing 3-5, at that time between the two teams.

Jimmy Adams led the Blizzards with 27 points, with Robert Pearce socking 19 for the losers. Winters also took the B game that night, 45-35.

On the same night, league-leading Anson put the finishing touches on their championship canvas, rolling over the Stamford Bulldogs 87-62.

Also last Friday night, Ballinger took their second win of the season, whipping Haskell 55-48.

1008 Pay Poll Taxes In Local Tax Sub Office

According to Mrs. Bob Hatcher, deputy tax collector in the Winters office of the Runnels County Tax Assessor-Collector, 1008 people paid their poll taxes in the local office prior to the January 31 deadline.

Many people probably paid their poll taxes at the court house in Ballinger and by mail, in addition to those who paid locally, it was explained.

In Runnels County, 3260 people bought their poll tax receipts, with 106 exemptions issued this year, according to Annell Legg, county tax collector. This is slightly below the 3471 who paid their taxes for the last presidential election year, Legg said.

Not much interest is being shown in the "unpaid" poll tax receipts by people of the county, Legg said. His office had issued only one such receipt by Tuesday of this week. No such receipts were issued in the Winters office. Holders of these special receipts or certificates will be permitted to vote in national elections, it has been permitted to vote in local and state elections. Those people who did not pay their poll taxes have until March 6 to obtain "not paid" poll tax receipts or certificates, to qualify for the national elections.

Tax collector Legg pointed out that those people who hold exemptions because of age, will not be required to obtain any other certificate or poll tax receipt.

their sixth game of the season Tuesday night, falling to Haskell 56-53. Jimmy Adams was the game's leading scorer with 21 points, with Joe Thigpen and James Davis netting 15 each for Haskell.

Stamford chalked up another win Tuesday night, rapping Hamlin 62-57, while Anson was chewing up the Bearcats from Ballinger to the tune of 70-28 in a runaway on the Anson floor.

DISTRICT STANDINGS
Anson 9-0
Stamford 6-3
Haskell 4-5
Hamlin 3-6
Winters 3-6

City Election Set For April 7th

Winters Mayor Harvey D. Jones Wednesday officially ordered the regular City election to be held on April 7. State statutes provide for city elections to be held on specific dates, but the mayor must officially order such elections.

Terms of office for three aldermen expire in April of this year, and vacancies must be filled at this regular election. The mayor and two aldermen have another year on their present two-year terms of office.

Completing their regular two-year terms of office as aldermen are W. M. Hays, J. W. Bahlman and R. C. Thomas.

Mayor Jones pointed out that qualified candidates for the office of alderman must obtain necessary filing information and papers from the office of the City Secretary, and must file as candidates on or before March 7, which is 30 days prior to the election. Under the present election laws, the mayor pointed out, each candidate must personally file. Non-candidates cannot file the name of someone else as a candidate for alderman, he said.

With the deadline for filing only about three weeks away, there have been no reports as to who will be candidates for aldermen in this election. Incumbent aldermen whose terms expire have made no official announcement of their intentions.

ELECTRICAL WEEK • FEBRUARY 9-15, 1964 • ELECTRICITY POWERS PROGRESS • NATION

FROM the beginning of time, man has striven to find a source of power to make life more enjoyable; to reduce his work load. Meager ideas have led to the greatest source of energy for turning dreams into reality... electricity. There is virtually nothing that electricity cannot do... faster and cheaper than any other form of energy.

America's growth to the dynamic and industrialized civilization that it is today stems from the country's utilization of electrical power to produce a better way of life, more products, jobs and services.

Electricity powers progress... something to think about during National Electrical Week.

Roger Babson Says— Broad Price Breakthrough May Be Forerunner of New Inflation Wave

Babson Park, Mass. Upturns in selected commodity prices, especially nonferrous metals, are causing concern in some quarters. These could be the first signs of a broad price breakthrough on the upside within a few years. Many are wondering whether this might be the forerunner of a new wave of inflation.

What Is Inflation? No two authorities define inflation in exactly the same way. The economist takes one point of view, the banker another, the manufacturer a third, and so on. But they all boil down to this: Inflation comes when the supply of money exceeds the supply of goods.

Such a situation occurs whenever there is a big enough increase in government or private credit to trigger higher prices and higher wages. It can also occur when there is an increase in the circulation of money, because this has the same effect that more money would have. In very recent years, careful money and credit management by the federal government — especially the Federal Reserve System — has kept inflation pretty much in check. Now that taxes are to be reduced substantially, it will be harder to hold inflation back.

Further Uplift In Prices I forecast that domestic wholesale commodity prices will show further strength in the months just ahead. I base this prediction on the following convictions: (1) Costs are high and will rise further, especially during the first half of 1964; (2) profit margins are unrealistically small in certain instances; (3) demand, which is already heavy, will broaden considerably when the tax cut becomes effective.

But I want to point out too that these plus factors are very nearly offset in many cases by large world supplies of raw materials as well as by strong competitive pressures in individual industries, both in the U. S. and in leading producing nations abroad.

Crop Prices To Firm Also Public spending power could be increased by nearly $6 billion this year, once the tax bill becomes law. At first, this will spur the effort to raise the price level. But later, as the government applies the brakes in the form of higher interest rates and perhaps some credit restrictions, manufacturers will likely have some second thoughts. I forecast we are not now headed for runaway price inflation.

However, in addition to price firming in industrial commodities, I look for a better tone in farm product quotations, though gains there will probably be limited. During the past couple of years we made some good dents in the huge surpluses of agricultural products our government has been holding. This was helped by exports due to crop reverses in Europe. But the U. S. last year also produced more food and feedstuffs than ever before, so the surplus is still a problem. Hence U. S. crop prices can hardly be expected to show great or lasting upturns. What- ever gains over 1963 do occur will result from smaller livestock marketings and heavy purchases of grains for shipment abroad, including those to Russia and her satellites.

What About Consumer Prices? While wholesale prices of both agricultural and industrial commodities are moving up, what will happen to prices at retail and to living costs? I believe 1964 will see more of the same type of creeping inflation that we have had during the last few years. Heavy total government spending (at all levels) is a big factor in this year-to-year boost in consumer prices and living costs. Waste and inefficiency in both government and private business are also important. Hence I see no early end to the steady decline in the purchasing power of the dollar.

Don't be fooled by talk of government economy. Total spending by public agencies will climb in coming years—even though controls may ease the impact. Inflation is by no means dead. In the early 1970s, if not before, it could be our country's Number One Problem!

WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER:

Tax Cut Bill Adds To Current $10 Billion Deficit

By Congressman O. C. Fisher The tax cut bill, now approved by both the House and Senate, will soon become law, retroactive to January 1. It remains for the House and Senate conferees to iron out some relatively minor differences between the two versions.

The $11.6 billion cut is being made at a time when the current deficit for the present fiscal year (which ends July 1) will be about $10 billion. And the President estimates the deficit during the next fiscal year will be about $5 billion. Last year it was $6.3 billion.

Thus, this year and last year combined adds up to the biggest two-year deficit in our history. Just what the tax cut will do to deficits remains to be seen. In figuring the next deficit at $5 billion, the President speculated that the reduced tax burden will stimulate the economy and bring more money into the treasury; otherwise, the deficit could easily be $10 billion, or even more next year.

We have had six deficit years in a row—totaling $35 billion. And during all that time the Congress has gone along, creating many new federal programs, new and expanded welfare plans, new obligations against the federal treasury. Right now, for example, the Congress is on the verge of approving a new civil rights measure, the cost of which cannot be measured but will cost the taxpayers tens of millions of dollars. It would expand bureaucracy more in one fell swoop than any ten measures that have been enacted during the past twenty years.

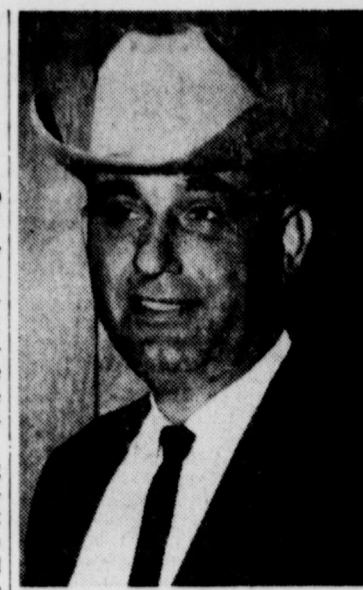

For these reasons I was unable to vote for the tax bill last fall when it passed the House. Unless accompanied by a genuine attempt to reduce non-essential federal spending, this large cut can be extremely harmful to our fiscal stability.

Mrs. Myrt Power Is Candidate For District Clerk

To the Voters of Rannels County:

As a candidate for the office of District Clerk, I am asking for your consideration in the coming elections in May and November of this year.

I have worked for the public since 1946. This has been general office work which included typing, bookkeeping, reports and etc. Most of this time was spent working with my late husband, Otis H. Power, who was the agent for State Farm Insurance Companies from 1948 to August, 1963, at the time he passed away. Due to the policy of the company of hiring young career men, I was unable to get the agency. I am temporarily working in the office until our son, Bobby, can carry on by himself.

I have also been associated with the Retail Merchants Association since 1952. This not only requires typing, reporting, etc., but also requires much information from the records in different offices at the Court House. Because of this, I have some knowledge of the work there and how it is carried on. I am a member of the Seventh Street Baptist Church. I have served as a teacher, Church Clerk, Church Secretary, and Church Treasurer.

I attended Business College several years ago, but I think experience has been my best teacher. I think I am qualified for this office because of my experience of typing, bookkeeping, reporting, and the business experience I have had for the past 17 years. Due to the illness of my husband, I had to make the decisions, and carry on the office alone for the past year.

If I am elected, I will put forth every effort to fill the office as it should be.

I hope to get to see each one of you before May 2, 1964, but in case I do not get to see you, please don't think it was done intentionally. I hope you will consider me, and if you can, I would like your support and vote.

Mrs. Myrt Power

Southside Baptist Group Wins Banner At Youth Rally Sat.

Thirty-nine young people and 8 sponsors of the Southside Baptist Church attended the Rannels Associational Youth Rally held at the First Baptist Church in Ballinger Saturday evening. The Winters group brought back the Banner for the fourth consecutive time this year.

Plans are underway for a county-wide youth revival to be held in the summer in a central location to be led by the youth of the county.

The youth and the sponsors of the Southside Baptist Church organized a youth choir Sunday after church services. Twenty-eight were present.

Officers were elected and the choir began practicing on Easter music. Plans were made to present special music each Sunday.

Southside Baptists To Have Sweetheart Banquet Friday Night

Annual Sweetheart banquet will be held at the Southside Baptist Church Friday (tonight) at 7:00, it has been announced. The meeting will begin in the chapel and the selection of the Sweetheart and Beau will be made, who will lead the group to the banquet room, then back to the chapel through a huge heart where the program "Through the Years" will be presented.

Leroy McGallion will be master of ceremonies, Dianna Kozelsky, soloist and the Rev. Tom McMillan, missionary home on leave from Africa, will bring the closing message.

Many people are hesitant to give fly fishing a try because they have heard that it is a very complicated sport.

This is a stigma which has haunted the fly rod down through the ages. Where it got started is anyone's guess. But the fly rod never has been quite able to shake it off.

Contrary to what you may have heard, fly fishing is not complicated. In fact, the basic cast can be mastered in a few short minutes of practice.

What makes fly fishing complicated is that most people get started with the wrong kind of tackle. In such an instance, fly fishing can indeed be difficult. Depending on how mismatched the tackle really is, it can be downright impossible.

Unlike spinning or casting, fly fishing depends on balance of tackle and rhythm to get those smooth, delicate-looking casts. The fly rodder is casting the line, not the bait. What is on the business end of the leader is a minor factor, due to the use of almost weightless lures.

The secret, then, is balance. Every bit of the tackle must be balanced together—the rod, reel and line. Basic approach is to choose a rod best suited to your individual needs and later get the reel and line to match that rod.

For general Texas fishing, about an eight-foot fiberglass rod is satisfactory. It is light enough to make casting more pleasant, yet carries enough backbone to whip even the biggest of bass.

The reel is nothing more than a device to hold the line. It plays no part at all in the cast. But the reel should be balanced to the rod. No matter how much the rod-reel combination weighs, if it is properly balanced it will feel like you have no weight in your hands at all.

The line is very important. Stamped on each individual rod is a number which indicates the size of line that rod requires. A line too heavy or too light will not cast properly.

There are basically three types of fly lines—level, double taper and forward taper. To start with, get a level line. It is cheaper and will do the job adequately.

To commence casting, strip some line off the reel and lay it out in front of you, holding your rod at about a 10 o'clock position, or almost straight out.

With a smooth uplift of the rod, bring the line up and back, stopping the rod at about 1 o'clock, or just behind your head. Watch the backcast.

When the line straightens out, come forward smoothly and easily. The line will curl over and lay right out. It may take a little practice, but in a short while you should be casting adequately to catch fish.

Any type of tiny wet fly or topwater bug will do for Texas fishing. Use the basic colors of brown, black and yellow. Sometimes a tiny spinner can be attached forward of the fly to give it more appeal.

Fish the bait slowly along the shoreline as you would fish any other bait with spinning or plug-casting tackle. Usually you catch more fish with a fly rod than by any other method. However, the size of the catch is apt to run smaller.

But this is one advantage of the fly rod. Because it is whippy and light, even a hand-sized perch can cut all sorts of capers on it before being subdued.

Some people even fish with natural bait. They attach a tiny hook on the leader and put on bait like earthworms or insects and fish without any weight at all, or perhaps just a small split-shot sinker to carry it down.

For bass it often pays to graduate to larger baits, maybe a streamer fly about three inches in length or a larger popping bug. Bigger baits discourage many of the smaller perch from hitting. But you're likely to tempt more bass.

The popping bug is one of the most exciting of all baits to use. Cast it out and let it lie idle on the surface for a few seconds, then barely twitch it to simulate a bug which has fallen into the water and is struggling feebly.

But when you do, hold on. The next thing you know there might be a tremendous, heart-skipping splash where a big bass comes boiling belligerently up to kill this morsel of food. And then the fun begins!

Willis Jernigan Attended Cancer Workshop, Angelo

Willis Jernigan, local Church of Christ minister, represented Rannels County at the American Cancer Society's District 4 workshop held in San Angelo on Tuesday, February 11.

Jernigan has been serving for more than a year as Rannels County Chairman for the American Cancer Society and was one of five representatives chosen from the district to attend the Educational Conference of the Society held in San Antonio last summer.

Leaders from seven of the eleven counties in District 4 participated in an all day conference which provided the latest available information on the Society's research, education, and service programs. Special attention was given to the organization and development of the annual April crusade.

Jernigan was one of five selected to take part in the presentation of programs and to lead group discussions. He discussed Use of Society Funds in Texas and led the group discussion on Crusade Work with Independent Businesses. He also gave the invocation for the luncheon at the Hotel Cactus at noon.

Money from the Society's funds is spent in six fields, according to information furnished by Jernigan. Cancer Research receives the largest individual portion, with Public Education close behind. These two phases account for more than half of the Cancer dollar spent. The remainder is proportioned in the following order: Professional education, and services; local service to patients; development of program and administration; and campaign.

The goal for 1964, Jernigan said, is to Better Our Best, and asked that those who were willing to help in any way contact him.

Last Minute Filing By Candidates Causes Restlessness In Capital

By—Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

Twenty-eight Democratic and 15 Republican candidates banged through the starting gate before last week's filing deadline in a dramatic beginning to a political year that opened with relative calm.

A ruckus over the would-be U. S. Senate candidacy of McAllen Congressman Joe Kilgore, and Gov. John Connally's last-minute hesitancy about running for reelection, highlighted the filing-deadline spectacular.

Kilgore decided not to run against U. S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough. Connally, acknowledging that he had considered retirement, went ahead and filed for a second term.

Conservative Democrats boiled over the Kilgore incident, said it might result in a second Republican senator from Texas.

Jack Cox, the GOP's 1962 candidate for governor against Connally, was a surprise entry in the Republican senate contest—at five minutes before deadline.

The Republicans fielded a complete slate for state offices (except judicial) and congressional races.

Connally ended up with opposition from liberal Don Yarborough of Houston, Mrs. Johnnie Mae Hackworth of Brenham and Rev. M. T. Banks of Beaumont, a Negro. Republican candidates for Governor are Jack Crichton of Dallas and Harry Diehl of Houston.

Yarborough is opposed by Democrats John Van Cronkrite and Gordon McLendon, both of Dallas, Cox and George Bush of Houston, and Dr. Milton V. Davis and Robert Morris, both of Dallas, are the GOP senatorial candidates.

Here is the complete lineup for other statewide offices:

Lieutenant Governor—preston Smith of Lubbock (incumbent) and Albert Fuentes Jr. of San Antonio, Democrats; and Horace Houston of Dallas, Republican.

Congressman-at-large — Incumbent Joe Pool of Dallas, Bill Elkins of Greenville, Robert W. Baker and Bob Looney, both of Houston, Democrats; and Bill Hayes of Temple, Republican.

Attorney General—Incumbent Waggoner Carr of Lubbock, Democrat; and John Trice, Waco, Republican.

Commissioner of Agriculture — Incumbent John White of Wichita Falls and Millard Shivers, Waco, Democrats; and John B. Armstrong, Kingsville, GOP.

Land Commissioner — Incumbent Jerry Sadler of Grapeland and Fred H. Williams of Dallas, Democrats; and John A. Matthews of Abilene, GOP.

Comptroller — Incumbent Robert S. Calvert of Austin, Democrat; and Dallas Calmes Jr., Houston, GOP.

Treasurer—Incumbent Jesse James, Austin, Democrat; and Fred S. Neumann, Beaumont, Republican.

Railroad Commissioner (full term) — Incumbent Ben Ramsey, San Augustine, Democrat.

Railroad Commissioner (unexpired term)—Incumbent Jim C. Langdon of Austin, and Jesse Owens of Vernon, Democrats; and Don Flanagan, Richardson, GOP.

Supreme Court, Place 2—Sears McGee of Houston and Jack Pope of San Antonio, Democrats; and T. E. Kennerly, Houston, GOP.

Supreme Court, Place 2—Ruel

SANDBAGS FOR SAFETY—The nuclear scientist who designed this "poorman's fallout shelter," says that it will provide protection from fallout. The $30 dwelling, which was modeled after a British World War II shelter, had its first showing in Storrs, Conn.

C. Walker, Cleburne, incumbent, Democrat.

Supreme Court, Place 3—Incumbent Robert W. Hamilton, Midland, Democrat.

Court of Criminal Appeals—Incumbent K. K. Woodley of Austin, Democrat.

Thirteen of Texas' 23 congressmen escaped opposition in their own primaries, but for the first time in history there will be a Republican to deal with in every district come November.

"INSTANT" HOSPITALS

The State Health Department is keeper of some 92 storehouses of medical and treatment supplies (furnished by the federal government) which could be converted into hospitals almost instantly in the event of disaster.

Eleven more "hospitals" are expected to be added to the list this month, and a master plan calls for 450 of these facilities eventually. The State Health Department is directing the Civil Defense Emergency Hospital program, and encourages local authorities to provide the needed storage space.

APPOINTMENTS

Governor Connally appointed Frank B. Appleman of Fort Worth, a University of Oklahoma law graduate, to the Board of Regents of Texas Woman's University of Denton. He then picked Myrlin O. Johnson of Harlingen to preside over the 107th District Court in Cameron and Willacy counties. Johnson replaces Judge Hawthorne Phillips, who resigned to become Attorney General Waggoner Carr's first assistant.

BUSINESS IMPROVES

The 1963 index of Texas business activity was up 5.4 per cent on the average monthly level over the previous year, according to The University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. Austin, Amarillo and Beaumont showed highest gains. They were followed closely by Corpus Christi, Houston, Fort Worth, Galveston and Waco. No city showed a percentage decline. Bureau predicted that 1964 will be another good year as far as personal income and business activity is concerned if the federal income tax bill now in the Senate is passed.

CIVIL DEFENSE SPACES UP

Texas now has 1,800,000 licensed civil defense shelter spaces of a goal of 1,900,000. CD Regional Director Bill Parker told a conference here.

These seven cities have fully-stocked shelters, Parker said: Abilene, Baytown, Bryan, Big Spring, Denton, Odessa and Tyler.

SHORT SNORTS

The Texas Tourist Development Agency awarded its $250,000 advertising contract to McCann-Erickson, Inc., Houston advertising agency.

Texas Liquor Control Board collections for December amounted to $40,701 as the result of 609 convictions and 77 jail terms for liquor-law violations.

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler ordered a full investigation when he learned that seven oil wells on a state lease in Gregg County had been plugged without his approval.

Texas State Teachers Association president, Mrs. Elizabeth Little of Corpus Christi, said public school teachers in the state this year will receive a salary almost $600 below the national average; teachers group has voted to fight for a salary increase when the 59th Legislature meets.

Governor Connally authorized removal of the three remaining Confederate widows now housed in the Confederate Home for Women in Austin to a "first-class" nursing home, where he said they would receive better treatment and at less expense to the state.

Banks in El Paso and Burkburnett were granted charters by the State Banking Board while application of Jacinto City State Bank was declined, and Governor Connally got a new lighter cast on his damaged right arm, was pronounced in pretty good physical shape, but doctors said it will be six or eight months before he regains full strength.

Excise taxes collected on cigarettes in Texas last month came to $7,300,000, up from $7,200,000 a year ago, despite U. S. Health Service warnings about evils of smoking.

In the course of this comedy, Jerry and Shaughnessy are captured by a horde of die-hard Japanese soldiers who don't know the war is over, and the two conduct the nuttiest deepsea diving expedition the world has ever seen. ### IT'S THE LAW IN TEXAS

Avoid Legal Troubles In Real Estate Transactions

Thinking of buying or building a new home this year? Whether you buy a completed house or simply a lot to build on, how will you know whether you are receiving a good title to the property you purchase? The safest method is to have a title examination made—that is, a careful study of the abstract and other title evidence.

Here are a few of the common sources of trouble in real estate transactions to show why the minor expense of a title examination is justified.

Many persons sign "earnest money contracts" believing that they are more receipts with no serious implications. In reality they may specify, among other things, the kind of title you must accept.

A "warranty deed" from a responsible seller is comforting to have but it is a poor substitute for a careful title examination. A warranty deed does not guarantee a marketable title.

Moreover, serious title defects may not come to light until long after the seller on a warranty deed is dead, has moved to an unknown address, or is bankrupt. Even if he is available, a good title is much better than a law suit.

The fact that the seller has possession of an "abstract" does not mean that he owns the property. An abstract is only a history of a title. Possession of an abstract no more indicates ownership of land than possession of the history of Texas means that you own the state.

Some purchasers of land feel safe because the title is being examined at the time of purchase by an attorney for the mortgage lenders, or because a "mortgage" title insurance policy is being furnished. This seems logical but is a dangerous theory. The "mortgage policy" protects only the lender, and mortgage lenders are sometimes willing to accept less than good record title as security. This is sound business for them because, among other reasons, the chances are that the mortgage will be paid off so that no expense in perfecting the title would ever need be incurred. However, it is risky business for you when you are putting your life savings into the purchase. And, even an "owner's" title insurance policy may not cover every possible defect, or the value of improvements added after purchase.

These are a few of the reasons why a title examination is an important safeguard to you. When it is completed, the attorney gives you a written opinion stating his conclusions as to who owns the land, the defects in or charges against such ownership, and the requirements to be met, if any, to make good record title.

Off - hand this may seem a simple operation. In fact it is not. It requires the interpretation of numerous deeds, mortgages, wills, court decrees and other instruments; the consideration of the order in which transactions and events affecting the title occurred; and the application of statutes and court decisions to the various situations disclosed in the abstract.

(This newsfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)
