Roger Babson Says—
Rugged Individualism Must Be Kept Alive If Our Civilization Is To Survive

Babson Park, Mass. I have long declared that moral rejuvenation is a "must" if we are to come through the rigors and dangers of the present day and age with our civilization intact. In an effort to specify ways of bringing this about, I have talked with you about religion, ethics, thrift, education, and even a closer attention to land ownership and its responsibilities as possible remedies for today's "moral" problems. At this time I want to discuss the importance of keeping rugged individualism alive in our society.

Trend Against Individualism

Undoubtedly the greatest threat to individualism is the dependence on social groups to bring about "improvements" in today's changing world. For example, politicians and labor leaders want men to be manageable in units. Their goals can be far more easily achieved if individualism can be submerged. It is next to impossible to get a story across to men separately, one at a time; but if ideas and thoughts can be instilled in social groups, objectives can be gained.

Look at the history of the Soviet Union and its successful expansion of Communism—not only within its borders but in many other countries as well. The Soviets developed collective farms chiefly because an independent farmer would think too much as an individual for them to be able to fit him into the Russian program. Even though the Russians and the Chinese leaders are now in open conflict, they still agree that individuality must be stifled for Communist success.

Our History Of Democracy

It is worth while for us to look back occasionally on the sort of past that brought about the democratic way of life for which we have often been willing to lay down our lives. In America's a-borning period, the rugged individual never let his private convictions be smothered by the group judgment of a committee, a board of directors, or even a political party. A man believed that "one with God is a majority." Democracy came from many hours of "cracker-barrel" discussion in country stores where quiet reigned. Thinking requires quiet, and time enough to relax and chew things over.

The change from the Little Red School House to the conformist type of school of today marked the end of a healthy era. A farmer's son in the days of the Little Red School House began his education in the early dawn. His best schooling actually began with his daily chores,—feeding and watering the animals, operating the farm machinery, planting, growing, and harvesting crops. He had to be alert and ingenious enough to meet emergencies. Same reasoning was essential. Out of such a life came honesty, thrift, common sense, industry.

Independence And Health

At schooltime, such a lad was not loaded into a bus and driven to some regional school many miles away. He walked to school, building up his independence and his bodily vigor. Even if he had to face into a blizzard, the very resistance to such a storm gave him strength of will at an early age. Even in his local Red School House his individualism was developed by his having to dig out most of the facts he wanted. The rule of "God helps those who help themselves" was implanted in him right at the start.

At recess and at noon there were healthful diversions,—baseball, tag, run-sheep-run. During the walk home at the end of the school day, he had time to go over in his mind and stash away what he had learned. After supper there was homework, a kind of discipline and refresher that some "educators" now talk of eliminating. He did not have to buck the noise and confusion of radio and TV, indiscriminately distracting the eyes and ears, usually making it impossible to think out problems of the day.

Swinging Back Toward Individualism

The atmosphere of the Little Red School House gave America its greatest men, strong and fearless and very definitely rugged individualists. The pendulum has now swung too far in the other direction, tending to make "softies" of our young citizens. We can't swing back simply by noting these facts. But we can encourage our youngsters to do regular chores, to read more, to think for themselves, and to engage in healthy pursuits such as gardening. I still think gardening—next to the Red School House—is a wonderful character builder.

HEALTH LETTER

Can you get food poisoning from frozen food? If frozen food thaws out, should it be destroyed? Can you refreeze meat that has thawed out?

These questions persist although frozen foods have become an integral part of modern living. But properly stored, handled and prepared, frozen foods will serve you and your family well.

Food poisoning, originating from frozen foods, is a rarity. Processors are careful to prepare and freeze their products at the peak of freshness, insuring that bacteria are at a minimum. The very act of freezing the food suppresses the ability of the bacteria to multiply. Not until food temperatures rise and conditions become favorable to growth of the bacteria do they begin multiplying.

And what about frozen foods that have thawed out...must they be destroyed? Not necessarily. After all, they must be thawed before they can be cooked and eaten. If foods have been thawed only for a short time, they may be safely eaten. The important question is how long have they been thawed out and how high the temperature has been. If the temperature went no higher than 45 degrees, the foods may be maintained at this level safely for several days but should not be refrozen.

Is it ever safe to refreeze meat that has thawed out? Refreezing meat is permissible if the meat was fresh at the original freezing and if it was thawed for only a short period. There may, however, be some degrading of flavor and quality with the second freezing. The risk in refreezing cured or smoked meats is greater. These meats may be slightly spoiled even though there is no discoloration, off-odor or other signs of spoilage. Can you tell about the quality of frozen food simply by looking at it? Loss of quality resulting from improper handling or extended storage is usually indicated by loss of flavor and color. (This is particularly true of vegetables.) Orange juice, as it deteriorates, tends to separate and "settle out" rapidly when reconstituted. Cream sauces appear curdled and the liquid begins to separate.

Hours were longer in summer than in winter as measured by primitive sun-clocks.

TIPS FOR OUTDOORSMEN

by Vern Sanford

By Vern Sanford

George Finn, an Ohio bait processor, says post mortems prove bluegill will eat anything that moves or fits into its mouth.

"Furthermore," says Finn, "the bluegill is hungry all the time and you don't have to wait for a special lunch period to feed him."

The bluegill, in this instance, takes in all the perch family.

Most of us call 'em perch, but others like the name of bluegill. And still others call 'em bream. But by whatever name, ounce for ounce, there is nothing quite as rewarding for an afternoon of fast and furious pleasure than taking bluegill.

Mainly, the bluegill is a worm fish. Perhaps more of them have been caught on worms than all other baits combined. We used to dig worms in the back yard. Now we buy them put up in ice cream containers. Some fishermen string a whole worm on their hook. Others break the worm into bits and put only a small part on a small hook to be sure and catch the bait stealers.

Now, thanks to scientific breakthroughs, there are methods of preserving natural baits, such as garden worms, crickets, grasshoppers, grubs and grass shrimp. All these are ideal bluegill baits and will help you catch a basket full with very little trouble.

Biologists encourage bluegill fishing. They urge you to take as many as possible and not throw any back. Reason is... impoundment soon can become overrun with them.

Although most of us picture bluegill fishing with a cane pole and a small float, there are other methods that will prove as much or more fun.

For instance, there is nothing better than a flyrod for catching them, especially if you are working from a boat. A light fly-rod or ultra-light spincasting outfit is ideal for tossing the various baits close to the rock banks, which seem to be the best spot to catch bluegill.

I know two fellows in Austin who sometimes forget about their big bass fishing and take out after those fighting bluegills with casting equipment. They fish a great deal on Lake Marble Falls, where there are high rock banks. By casting directly against the rock banks and jiggling the lure a time or two after it hits the water, perch will attack it.

I've seen them bring in perch smaller than the lure they cast. During the course of an afternoon they'll fill a wire basket with bluegill the size of your hand. And who can deny these are not good eating!

Others using spin or casting equipment carry along several of those little plastic bubbles. They are fastened to the line about two feet from the end.

On the terminal there will be one or two small hooks. These can be baited with worms or some of those preserved baits. By casting the bubble near the rocky shore, the bait is sure to attract fish.

Sometimes when fishing in this manner for bluegills you will come up with a crappie or even a big bass.

This type of fishing is especially good on short float trips down some of the streams of Texas. You get a mixed creel on trips of this kind. Many of them however, are various subspecies of perch. Sometimes you get those big goggle-eyed ones.

And don't sell perch short as to their eating qualities. Just scale 'em, clean 'em and toss them into a skillet with plenty of hot grease and let them cook until they are thoroughly brown. This way, on the smaller fish at least, you are not bothered with the bones. You chew them along with the meat.

On the larger ones you can peel off the very delicious flesh and throw the bones away.

Perch fishing isn't just for the kiddies. Grownups find it equally as enjoyable.

The Greeks believed that clouds were the God Apollo's cattle sent out to graze in the meadows of heaven.

The Northern Lights appear in the atmosphere at heights ranging from 50 to 500 miles high.

Walleyes Survive Hatchery Test

Survival of four walleyed pike of an original shipment of 119 planted in the Possum Kingdom Fish Hatchery last July has kept hopes alive that the popular game fish may thrive in Texas.

The predacious pike-perch, provided by the Possum Kingdom Wildlife Association, were received in poor condition and were segregated in a hatchery pond. Two months later only ten of the fish, about five inches long, were found when the tank was drained. They were placed in a pond with an estimated 55,000 redear sunfish.

When the pond was drained this spring, the four surviving pike-perch had grown to ten inches in length and were in excellent condition, having fasted on most of the redear. The walleyes were returned to the pond along with a supply of minnows. Hatchery Superintendent Archie Lee, Jr. says the walleyes will be given another growth check this fall or next spring.

Ultimately, it is hoped the walleyes will reproduce in the hatchery and provide a stocking source for Possum Kingdom Lake. Biologists reportedly were observing the experiment for any bearing it might have on plans for widespread stocking of the sporty fish in Texas.

Spring Quail Like Insects

Research biologists on the Matador Wildlife Management Area near Paducah, after examining crop contents of bobwhite quail, confirmed that insects are a vital part of the birds diet, reports J. Weldon Watson, executive director of the Parks and Wildlife Department.

Insects found in nine quail crops collected in April included 24 ants, 10 grasshoppers, 68 beetles, 20 squash bugs, 1 tarantula, 1 spider, 1 millipede and 1 insect pupa. Plant material made up the remainder of their diet with Texas croton seeds occurring 4,277 times.

Technicians said widespread insect control during spring months on Texas quail ranges will no doubt reduce the number of insects available to quail as well as other wildlife.

Good Idea To Avoid Poison Ivy

Every year many people unnecessarily suffer severe and painful skin irritations because of contact with poison ivy and other related plants.

G. O. Hoffman, Extension range specialist at Texas A&M University points out that poison ivy and poison oak are widespread throughout Texas, particularly along streams and in shady places. He says that all parts of the plants are poisonous, particularly the sap.

Only a small amount of toxin from the blisters on a person is needed to cause inflammation to be transferred from one person to another. Don't be fooled by the idea that burning the plants will serve as a protective measure, for the toxin may also be spread in smoke.

Hoffman offers these suggestions for prevention of poisoning by the plant. Take particular care not to come in contact with poison ivy plants. Neither should pets be allowed to run through the plants as the toxin can be transferred on their feet. Do not burn leaves and trash that contain poison ivy plants. Should contact be made with poison ivy, wash the contaminated parts of the body thoroughly with soap and water. Neither should contaminated clothing be worn until it is washed.

With care, ammate will satisfactorily control all growth forms of poison ivy without danger to other plants or the soil. The chemical is also safe for use around animals and humans. For more information on control of the plant, Hoffman suggests contacting your county agent.

WINGATE

Airman First Class James Hardy Bryan has returned to Harmon Air Force Base in Newfoundland after spending two weeks visiting with his mother, Mrs. Ruby A. Bryan, and sister Melva L. Rogers of Eastland and other relatives. He returned to Newfoundland by car. His mother received word of his safe arrival Sunday. The trip was made to Nova Scotia and then an 8 hour ride by ferry. He traveled some 3100 miles, the unusual part of the trip was that not one drop of rain fell on him while in the U. S. Airman Bryan will obtain his release from the Service in July prior to enrolling in college at Austin in September to major in music.

Mrs. John Byrd is on the sick list. Visiting her lately were Mrs. W. L. Phillips, Mrs. D. R. Heitcott, Mrs. J. F. Matthews, Mrs. Ed Kindard and Mrs. Wheat.

Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Cave and her mother Mrs. Kate Hurley, met Nancy Cave Nelson in Alamogordo, for a visit last week Mrs. Caves mother, Mrs. Hurley, spent a night here in the Cave home before the Caves accompanied her to her home in Sulphur Spring.

Mrs. Fred Voss and her son David were visitors in the Edwin Voss home Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Edwin Voss was a guest of Mrs. Annie King this week. Mrs. King is improving.

To All the People of Precinct 3:

I wish to take this opportunity to try to express my gratitude for the fine turnout to vote last Saturday. Words can't express my thanks to all of you who supported me. I am most grateful to each and everyone of you. I will continue to do my very best to try and make you a good commissioner, and to serve all of you in any way that I can. Please feel free to call on me any time you need to. My phone number is PI 3-6105.

These past three years I have enjoyed meeting all of you and making new friends.

State Capital Highlights— Texas' Governor Now Working In New Office Following Remodeling

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

Gov. John Connally has moved into the plushest working quarters ever occupied by any of this state's governors.

Last week workmen put finishing touches to the first overall remodeling of the offices in 76 years. Until now Texas governors have been tending to state business in cramped and poorly arranged offices.

Construction has been under way since last January. Capitol visitors once again are welcome all day in the mirrored and flag-draped gubernatorial reception room.

The governor occupies a large, gold-carpeted, crystal-chandelier-hung office. He also has an adjoining conference room, small kitchen unit and shower cabinet.

Gold carpeting runs throughout the second floor suite. Modern ceilings, lighting and air conditioning have been installed, and the fine old woodwork sanded and refinished to its original state.

Redecoration of the governor's downstairs offices will not be complete for 30 days. Meanwhile, part of his staff will continue to occupy temporary quarters in the Capitol's first floor.

APPOINTMENTS

Mrs. Richard M. Kleberg Jr. of Kingsville and Dr. Hesiquio Rodriguez of Harlingen were named by Governor Connally to six-year terms on the Texas A & I College board of directors. Connally re-appointed John F. Lynch of Houston to a new term on the board.

Mrs. Kleberg and Dr. Rodriguez succeeded J. H. West of Bishop and the late O. E. Van Berg of Mercedes.

SCREW-WORM ERADICATION

The financial fate of the Southwest screw-worm eradication program should be apparent by May 5. That's when the appropriation bill embracing eradication plans is supposed to come out of the agriculture subcommittee of the U. S. House appropriations committee.

Pierce Johnson of Austin, attorney for the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation, says the bill was written to provide $2,500,000 in federal funds, to be matched by local funds. But SWAHRF officials have asked Congress to put up all $5,500,000, since the screw-worm has been eradicated in Texas, and maintenance of a barrier to prevent migration of screw-worm flies from Mexico is an international program.

SOIL CONSERVATION

Planning costs for watersheds on Upper Bosque River, Hondo Creek and Donahoe Creek cost the Texas State Soil Conservation Board $134,938, according to State Auditor C. H. Cavness' report on the past two fiscal years.

Cavness said the Board spent a total of $552,930 on its continuing efforts to conserve state soil resources and reduce effects of flooding in small watersheds.

Legislative appropriations of $572,579 were provided during fiscal 1962 and 1963. Biggest outlay was $215,001 for almost 200 soil conservation districts which the board administers around the state.

Funeral Rites Thursday Here For Mrs. Price

Funeral services were held Thursday at 10 a. m. in the Assembly of God Church for Mrs. J. M. (Dock) Price, 73, who died at her home at 12:30 a. m. Tuesday following a three-year illness. Officiating were the Rev. Bobby James, pastor, and the Rev. Roy Evans of Abilene. Burial was in North-vue Cemetery with Spill Funeral Home in charge.

Born Lela Edgar Nov. 20, 1890, in Wood County, she married J. M. Price there Aug. 29, 1908. The family moved to Runnels County Sept. 25, 1920, settling on a farm northeast of Winters. They lived in that area until 1942 when Price retired from farming and they moved to Winters.

Mrs. Price was a member of the Assembly of God Church. Survivors include her husband; one son, Melvin of McFarland, Calif.; five daughters, Mrs. J. J. Peterson of Visalia, Calif.; Mrs. Floyd Holloway of McFarland, Calif.; Mrs. Wayne Goen of Millipitas, Calif.; Mrs. Doyle Branham and Mrs. Iis Simpson, both of Winters; 16 grandchildren; 31 great-grandchildren. Two children preceded her in death.

Palbearers were Everett Cockrell, Mack McGregory, Elmer Peterson, Leonard Wright, Frank Gore, Alvis Waldrop, O. H. Casey and Meri Wright.

Miss Janice Bailey and Phillip Watkins Set June Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd J. Bailey of Ballinger have announced the engagement of their daughter, Janice, to Mr. Phillip Watkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Watkins of Glen Cove.

The wedding will take place June 5, in the First Presbyterian Church U. S., in Ballinger.

Miss Bailey and her fiancé are attending San Angelo College.

MOSQUITO ERADICATION PLANNED

First allotment of federal funds—$174,198—in a five-year, $750,000 program aimed at wiping out the mosquito in Texas was received by State Budget Director Bill Cobb.

Texas State Department of Health will administer the program. The federal government, co-signee of a Pan American Health Organization agreement to stamp out yellow-fever-carrying mosquitoes, is underwriting the plan in a nine-state area, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

Mosquito abatement and education teams now are being organized for assignment in key areas of Texas. Dr. James L. Goddard of the U. S. Public Health Service said the mosquito must be eliminated from the U. S. to prevent its spreading to other western hemisphere nations.

BUILDING BOOM SLACKS

Despite a spring boom in apartment building, issuance of building permits in Texas in March dropped 8 per cent from March, 1963.

UT Bureau of Business Research thinks a slump in non-residential construction accounted for the overall drop.

TOURISM EXPANDING

Two Texas officials predicted tourism in the state is going to start booming.

Governor Connally said tourism will become the "fastest-growing Texas industry." He called the state's new advertising program "one of our soundest investments in the economic and recreational future" of the state.

J. Weldon Watson, executive director of the Parks and Wildlife Department, said the fact that a Texas is President makes Texas more popular with visitors. Many of them want to know "how close such and such a park is to Johnson city," said Watson. He sees tourism and park use as having a "mighty impact" on the Texas economy.

BANKING-LOAN HEARINGS SET

State Banking Board will hear application on May 13 for charter of Peoples State Bank of Marshall; Southwest State Bank of Brownwood; and Expressway Bank and Trust of Dallas. Action is due at that time on applications of Texas State Bank of Abilene and Royal Bank and Trust Company of Dallas.

Savings and Loan Commissioner James O. Gerst set a June 17 hearing on the application for Trinity Valley Savings and Loan Association at Madisonville. Proposed directors are from Midway, Normangee, North Zulch and Buffalo, as well as Madisonville.

TOO SLOW FOR PENSION

Some long-time Harlingen firemen who recently decided they want to participate in the Firemen's pension plan waited too long, according to Attorney General Waggoner Carr.

Carr ruled that the 1957 Firemen's Relief and Pension Fund Act provides that a fireman forfeits his right to participate if he failed to enroll, and the 1963 firemen's pension law covering fully-paid firemen in partvolunteer departments embodies the same terms.

To the People of Winters and Runnels County:

I want to thank you for the fine vote you gave me on May 2.

Thanks,

E. C. GRINDSTAFF

To My Many Friends - "THANKS"

Although I did not quite win in the Democratic Primary for Tax Assessor-Collector, we are proud of the big vote I received.

Thanks to the many that worked and voted for me. I made many friends that I shall remember always. I am glad that I was in the race.

CLYDE SIMMONS

To the people who supported me, and voted for me. I want to express my appreciation and thanks. I am glad and proud that you have that much confidence and faith in me, and no one knows more than I that all of you are the ones that are responsible for me getting in the run-off. I wish I could tell you in words how I feel about it, but since I can't find the words, I will say again THANK YOU. The election for the run-off will be held June 6, and I hope that all of you will continue to support me and vote for me.

To you people who voted for my opponents, I want to thank you for your kindness when I asked you to vote for me.

I have always heard that all is fair in love and war, and have about decided that the same applies to politics, as long as it is honest and no underhand business, so I am taking this way of soliciting your vote in the run-off election which will be held June 6. Having worked with my late husband in the insurance business for many years, and having done other office work, I am qualified to fill the office. I have always felt like any job that is worth doing, is worth doing right, and I believe in putting my best in any job I do. If I am elected, I intend to do just that. I will appreciate it if you will reconsider me, and vote for me in the election June 6.

Mrs. Otis (Myrt) Power

Area Receives More Turkeys

At Jackson wildlife supervisor reports that additional releases of wild turkeys have been made on the Palo Pinto Turkey Restoration Area in Palo Pinto County.

Five gobblers and four hens were trapped in Sutton County and released on the area by E. A. Smith, game trapping and transplanting project leader.

This makes a total of eight gobblers and 15 hens that have been released on the area and indications are that the birds are thriving.

The Palo Pinto Restoration Area was organized in 1962 by landowners holding over 40,000 acres. The turkey season is closed to allow the birds to increase to shootable surplus.

How's Your Cooling Comfort?

East Texas highways are bordered with a small red bloom that adds color to the landscape. It can also add a minor hazard to driving, according to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

The bloom crimson clover, is abundant this time of year and many deer leave timbered areas especially at night, to graze on the plant along the roadways. Headlights of an automobile blind the animals and they are likely to jump into the pathway of an approaching automobile.

The Parks and Wildlife Department cautions motorists to drive carefully in areas where deer are known to be present.

Funeral Services Wednesday For Deborah Compton

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the First Baptist Church for Deborah Kay Compton, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Compton. The Rev. B. T. Shoemaker, pastor of the church, officiated, and burial was in Northview Cemetery under direction of Spill Funeral Home.

Deborah Kay was injured when struck by an automobile about 7 p. m. Monday evening. She was taken to Winters Municipal Hospital for treatment, and later transferred to Hendrick Memorial Hospital in Abilene, where she died at 2:30 a. m. Tuesday. Floyd Grant, local cotton buyer, was driver of the automobile involved in the accident.

Deborah Kay Compton was born Nov. 20, 1955, in Winters. She attended the First Baptist Church, and was a second-grade pupil in Winters Primary School.

Besides her parents she is survived by a sister, Susan, 11; and grandparents, Mrs. Ernest Compton and Mr. and Mrs. Wade Colburn, all of Winters. Pallbearers were Truitt Smith, Elby Miller, Weldon Brown and Clarence Huckaby.

Drills are believed to be the first rotary tools invented.

Copper was the first metal to be utilized by primitive man.

Parks Aid Is In Tourist Grand Plan

Booming park business, linked as it is with tourism, is having a mighty impact on the Texas economy, J. Weldon Watson, executive director of the Parks and Wildlife Department, told a Federation of Women's Club meeting here today.

"Parks are a great factor in the populace's popular trend to keep in motion," he said. "We are providing places for them to stay, for them to play, for them to visit the state's many historic shrines."

"Now that a Texan is President of the United States, our parks are becoming even more popular. Many of the inquiries from outside Texas want to know how close such and such park is to Johnson City."

Watson described 1964 gains in reducing the gap "between what we have and what we need."

"We have had this past winter a crash program going costing 2,958,610, involving repairs to the old parks and creating three new major park installations," he said. "As the average Texan knows this is good business because every dollar invested in parks is paid back manifold. Frankly, we are one of the few, if not the only state agency, than can claim that distinctive status."

Watson said great emphasis necessarily has to be placed on providing meager facilities. This year alone, he explained, work already accomplished involves fourteen modern shower-restroom combinations, 91 screened shelters, 800 concrete picnic tables, 1,100 grill cookers, 600 garbage units, 110 portable tables, 67 trailer camping sites, 13 miles of water lines, eight miles of underground electric lines and six miles of paved roads.

These improvements, he said, primarily affect Garner State Park, Inks Lake State Park, Huntsville State Park, Lake Corpus Christi State Park and Fort Parker State Park.

Three major projects involving $1,241,965 in new construction, are occupying principal parks attention, Watson explained. They are at Falcon State Park, Lake Whitney State Park and Dam "B" State Park, where groundbreaking ceremonies have just been held.

Combined, these operations involve construction of the usual headquarters and concession facilities plus 13 modern shower-restroom units, 110 screened shelters, 140 trailer camping sites, 500 concrete picnic tables, 800 grill cookers, 400 garbage units, 110 portable tables, 17 miles of water lines, 12 miles of paved roads, and nine miles of underground electric lines.

Watson explained the problem of keeping ahead of the demand. "We enlarged and improved Huntsville State Park, and now it's already running full to capacity on weekends," he said. "It will be the same story late next year when we finish improving the 70 acres at Dam "B" near Jasper."

On February 11, 1854, the Texas Legislature appropriated $17,500 for the erection of a suitable residence and out-buildings for the governor. The present Governor's Mansion was completed in 1855.

Jim Eoff, 87, Died Friday Morning, Funeral Saturday

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at Winters Church of Christ for Jim Eoff, 87, who died at his home at 1 a. m. Friday morning. Willis Jernigan, minister of the church, officiated, and burial was in Fairview Cemetery under direction of Spill Funeral Home.

Mr. Eoff had been in ill health for two months prior to his death.

Born Jan. 8, 1877 in Coryell County near Sugarloaf, he later moved with his parents, the late John and Martha Eoff, to Bell County. On Dec. 9, 1897, he married Sarah H. James at Oenaville, and in 1900 he and his wife moved to Winters. They moved to Coleman in 1904 and in 1905 moved to Merkel where he farmed and operated a store. In 1914 they returned to Coleman and in 1917 they moved to Winters.

Mr. and Mrs. Eoff had celebrated their 66th wedding anniversary last December.

Survivors include his wife; a son, Dr. Dexter Eoff of Ballinger; three grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Myrtle Adcock of Brownwood.

Pallbearers were Hosea White, Carson Easterly, John D. Easterly, Johnnie Hasty, Homer Stoecker, Mord Tucker, Jim Smith and Roy C. Bledsoe.

Conservation Crop Rotation Pays Off, Says Robert Conner

Conservation crop rotation pays off, says Robert Conner, Conner, who farms in the Drasco Community, is a cooperater with the Runnels Soil Conservation District. He says his objective in crop rotation is to grow his crops in a rotation or sequence where the soil improving crops offset the soil depleting crops. Conner uses high residue producing crops such as small grains and sorghums. These crops have deep penetrating roots which break up plow pans and deposit organic matter deep in the soil. When used as a green manure crop and plowed under, they decompose rapidly. Thus, their nutrients are available to the following crops. Conner maintains a good cover on top of the soil during fall, winter, and spring controls wind and water erosion.

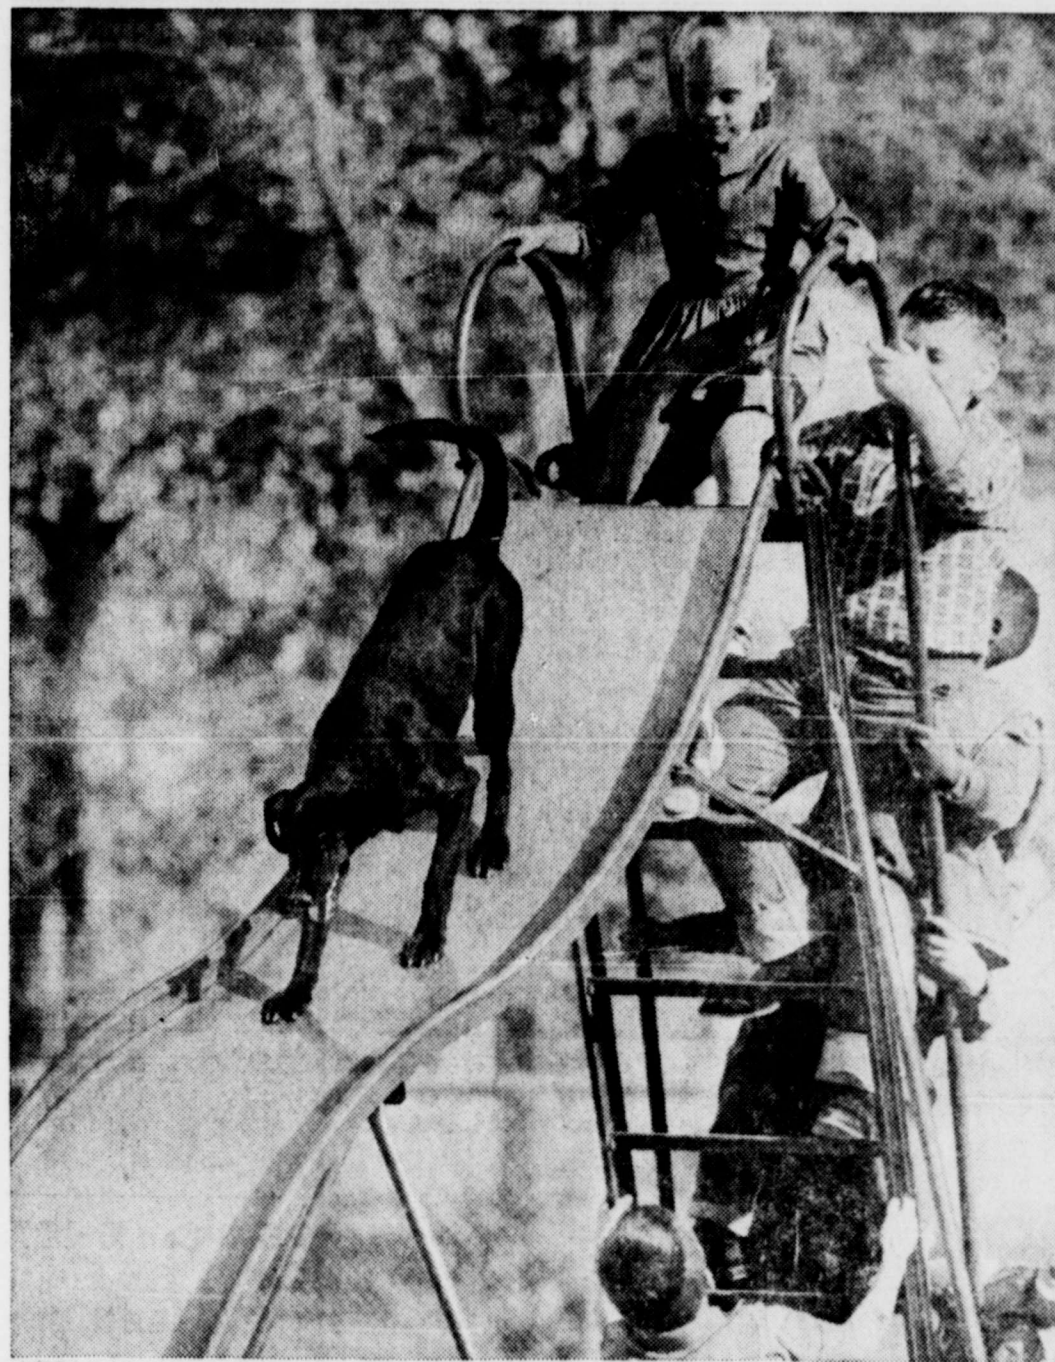

Conner says legumes also are an excellent soil improving crop. They have the ability of taking nitrogen from the air and storing it in the root system. He plans on using 150 acres of peas in his conservation cropping system this year.

Senior Play Cast Honored At Party In Baldwin Home

Members of the senior play cast were honored at a party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Buford Baldwin Friday evening following the performance at the High School earlier in the evening.

Charcoal, hamburgers and all the trimmings were served in the back yard at the Baldwin home. A gift was presented Mrs. Richard Bauer for her help in directing the play. The Sting-Rays entertained the group with several songs during the evening.

Those attending were Arnold Thormeyer, Russell Bedford, Pat Winton, Dick Young, Barbara Baldwin, Betty White, Mike Mitchell, Lynda Parks, Judy Kettler, Nicki Eoff, Ricky Boles, Jeanette Lewis, Deanna Kozelsky, Robin Middleton, Louis Simpson, Kathryn Clark, Sherry Kay Stanford, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Bauer and Mary Kay, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Winton and Jodie, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Barnes of Blackwell.

B. R. Hatley Will Work For Area Development

B. R. Hatley, former merchandise sales manager for Lone Star Gas Company's Dallas Division of Distribution, has been named to the newly created post of Assistant Director of Area Development, according to John W. Perryman, Jr., director of area development.

Mr. Hatley, a 17-year Lone Star employee, will be active in industrial and community contact work, Mr. Perryman said.

Formerly of Austin, Mr. Hatley received a bachelor's degree in mathematics from the University of Texas in 1947 following service with the U. S. Navy. Since joining Lone Star he has held several positions with the company's Dallas Division sales organization, and he was chairman of the 1964 Southern Gas Association's convention attendance committee.

Mr. Hatley is married to the former Josephine Rogers of Austin. The couple has four children.

Steve R. Davis Stationed With Army In Germany

SP4 Steve R. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Davis of Route 2, Winters, has been stationed with the U. S. Army in Germany for several months.

He entered the army in May of 1962, and completed a 15-week radio teletype operator course at the Southwestern Signal School in Fort Gordon, Georgia, after basic training at Fort Chaffee, Ark. He was in charge of communications for one segment of "The Big Lift" from the United States to Germany in 1963, and was a color guard in the parade for the late President John F. Kennedy during his last visit to Germany.

Davis graduated from Winters High School in 1956, and attended William Jewel College in Liberty, Mo.

IT'S THE LAW IN TEXAS

To make the Texas Safety Responsibility Law as effective as possible, the 1963 Legislature enacted several amendments. The strengthened law became effective January 1, 1964.

To protect your driver's license and motor vehicle registration, you should know the following facts about this new law:

In any accident in which a person is killed or injured or where there is damage to the property of any one person to an apparent extent of at least $25 or more, the operator of every motor vehicle involved is required within 10 days to report the accident in writing to the Texas Department of Public Safety. If the accident involved death, personal injury or damage to one person's property of at least $100, the accident then comes under the Safety Responsibility Act and its requirements must be met. Accident report forms can be obtained from any law enforcement officer.

The Department of Public Safety is required by the new law to suspend the driver licenses and all motor vehicle registration plates of both the operator and owner of vehicles involved in an accident coming under the Safety Responsibility Law, UNLESS:

Evidence of liability insurance coverage in the minimum amounts of $10,000 where one person was injured or killed, $20,000 where more than one, and $5,000 for property damage is reported to the Department of Public Safety, OR a release signed by damaged or injured persons is filed with the Department of Public Safety. Other evidence of financial responsibility is covered by the new act. In addition, the operator and owner must file proof of financial responsibility for the future and maintain it for five years. # BRADSHAW

"To me the highest thing, after God, is my honor."—Ludwig Van Beethoven.

Susan Oaks of Winters was a visitor at the Methodist Sunday School Sunday morning. She with Patty and Debby Saunders sang Jesus Loves Me, for the special. Kay Orr was at the piano.

Mrs. Bud Busher and Kelly of Abilene were visitors at the morning services at the Drasco Baptist Church.

Visitors at the morning services at the Moro Baptist Church were Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Walters, Joe and Ray of Loop. For the morning special Clyde Reid and Mrs. Calwyn Walters sang, I Would Not Be Denied, with Mrs. J. W. Allmand at the piano. Visitors for the night services were O. H. Hayes and 3 children of Guion, Leon Bagwell of Loop, Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Armstrong of Abilene. Rev. Armstrong delivered the message. For the special Pastor and Mrs. Bob Griffith sang, I Am Satisfied With Jesus, with Mrs. Allmand at the piano.

Saturday afternoon at her home Mrs. Lovey Bailey was hostess to the Martha Sunday School Class of the Bradshaw Baptist Church. The gathering opened with the hymn God Will Take Care of You, lead by Mrs. Barney Gibbs. Mrs. Billie McCasland read the scripture and Mrs. Odas Claxton was in charge of the Bible Quiz. Mrs. Cora Fine said the table grace. Mrs. Erwin Hicks and Vicki Aldredge assisted Mrs. Bailey. The Mothers Day theme was carried out. Plate favors were tiny artificial red roses and the refreshments were white layer cake with cherry and coconut filling. Cherry-Vanilla ice cream and Cranberry punch. Those present other than have been mentioned in the program were Mesdames Wayne Hunt and Joe Saunders.

The Christian's Use of Leisure, is the subject of next Sunday's International Sunday School Lesson. The following has been selected: "Jesus teaches good stewardship of time, the raw material of life. Arnold Bennett wrote, 'You wake up in the morning and your purse is filled with 24 hours of the unmanufactured tissue of the universe of your life.' Time is a gift of God's grace. It comes unmanufactured for us to shape into something useful and satisfying. He gives us time enough to fulfill His purpose in our lives. Someone wrote, 'There is a divine biography written out for every man.' To fit into this biography is to live, really live! The use of leisure time is not something apart from our vocation. Our responsibility to God is as certain on holidays as on workdays, in retirement as when earning a living. Seeking first Christ's Kingdom applies to all of life." The memory selection is: Whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.—1 Corinthians 10:31.

Special days next week are for: Mrs. C. F. Bahlman, Mrs. Weldon Hurley and Finis Bryan the 10th; Kyle Dillard, Beverly Knight the 11th; Connie Lail and Rose Best the 12th; Cecil Wood and Mrs. John Parker the 13th; Mrs. Harold Wilson, Larry Bagwell, Dillard Wood and a wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Odie Ray Faircloth the 14th; Mrs. Mack Wells, Wanda Gerrell and Plem Lail the 15th; Roy Fisher, Mrs. Frank Simpson, Karen Foster, Adron Hale, Eddie Harrison and Mrs. Bud Hicks the 16th.

Renowned for his rugged screen portrayals, Robert Mitchum has one of the most challenging dramatic roles of his career in "Man in the Middle" which shows Friday and Saturday at the State Theatre.

MOVIES

"Hatari!"
Paramount's biggest spectacular of the year, Howard Hawks' "Hatari!" Technicolor adventure film about the men who catch wild African game for zoos and circuses around the world, will be featured at the State Theatre Saturday and Sunday. John Wayne heads a cast of international stars including "Oscar"-winning Red Buttons; Italian beauty Elsa Martinelli; one of Germany's top actors, Hardy Kruger; and French stars Gerard Blain and Michele Girardon. The screenplay was written by Leigh Brackett from an original story by Harry Kurnitz.

"Operation Bikini"
An all-star cast headed by Tab Hunter, Frankie Avalon, Scott Brady, Jim Backus, Gary Crosby, Michael Dante and Jody McCrea is featured in "Operation Bikini" acclaimed as "The war action adventure film of the year", shows Friday and Saturday at the Fiesta Theatre.

"4 For Texas"
The colorful wickedness of Galveston in the 1870's, the stirring action of a full-blown Western, and the bravura talents of Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Anita Ekberg and Ursula Andress are the exciting ingredients of a striking new film, "4 For Texas", which shows Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the State Theatre.

The Warner Bros. release in Technicolor is a tale of dashing adventure, titillating romance and bold villainy. Frank Sinatra, whose "Ocean's 11" for Warner's was a huge success, portrays a gun-man-gambler with verve and a great deal of interest in the ladies. Dean Martin, back to the screen after his hit in "Toys In The Attic", depicts a gambler, gun-man and lover. Though in real life they are close friends, in "4 For Texas" the two are arch-enemies.

"Man in the Middle"
"Man in the Middle" — the Talbot-Pennebaker production released by 20th Century-Fox — has been set to show Friday and Saturday at the State Theatre. Starring in the suspenseful, provocative drama, which is based on a novel by Howard Fast, are Robert Mitchum, France Nuyen and Barry Sullivan, with Trevor Howard in a guest star role.

Robert Mitchum plays the "man in the middle" of the tense drama with France Nuyen, as a Eurasian nurse, intriguing and goading him from one side while Barry Sullivan has compelling reasons for harassing him on the other side. The cause of all the trouble is Keenan Wynn.

"Man in the Middle" takes place toward the end of World War II and therefore has an atmosphere of men in time of war perpetually under the weight of an imminent danger. Yet there is not a single scene or incident of battle shown.

FROM WACO
T-Sgt. and Mrs. Jimmie Wayne Vinson and Lynda of Waco were week end visitors in the J. D. Vinson home.

Winters.
The Wesley Bests were at the Jerry Morgans at Austin for the week end.

Jerry Sneed of Winters had Monday dinner at the Odas Claxtons.

At the Ervin Hicks have been Mrs. Alma Stevens, Mrs. S. W. Wishard, Mrs. Nora Baker and Claude Wishard all of Ovalo, Mrs. F. A. Leeters, the Bobby Hilleys, the J. B. Littles, David Thomas, the K. A. Handleys all of Abilene, the Ronnie Taylors of Hobbs, N. M., the Bud Littles of Winters and Gail McMillan of Tuscola.
