HOME TOWN Talk

By R. C. THOMAS

Otherwise qualified citizens who wish to have a voice in choosing their representatives in local, county and state governments this year have only a few days in which to obtain a poll tax receipt in order to become fully qualified. January 31 is the deadline for payment of the poll tax.

In some localities the number of persons qualifying to vote this year is below normal, according to reports. Some attribute this to the fact that there is some confusion on the part of many Texans as to whether a poll tax must be paid this year because of the recent lawsuit attacking this requirement.

Attorney General Waggoner Carr has called attention to the fact that the judges of the Federal District Court hearing the case involving the validity of the Texas poll tax law, have recommended that Texas voters comply with the present law, because the lawsuit is not likely to be decided before the poll tax payment deadline.

The Attorney General has listed the following four rules for obtaining poll tax receipts and exemption certificates to qualify for voting in elections held between Feb. 1, 1966 and Jan. 31, 1967:

—In order to vote in any primary, general or special election for the nomination or election of any State or local officers, or to vote in any election on a question or proposition, persons not exempt from payment of the poll tax must do so by Jan. 31, 1966.

—Persons over 60 years of age on Jan. 1, 1965, are exempt from paying the poll tax.

—Persons who were under 21 on Jan. 1, 1965, but who will be 21 years of age by the election date, or who were not residents of Texas on Jan. 1, 1965, but will be so by election date are not subject to the payment of the poll tax.

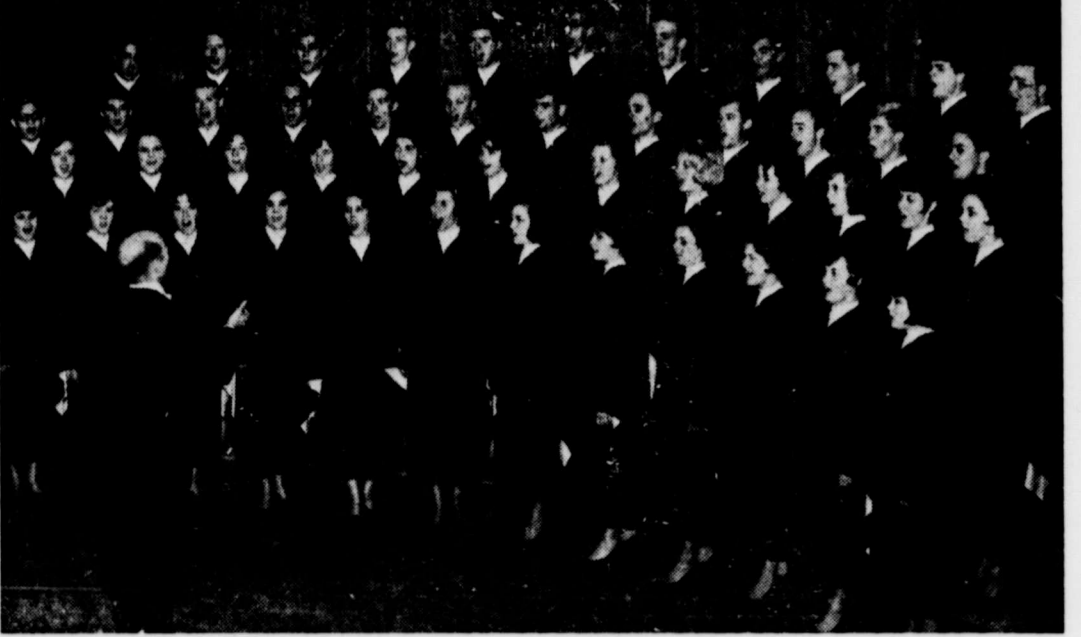

—Persons eligible to register and who have not paid for a poll tax or obtained an exemption certificate to vote in any primary, general or special election for nomination or election of members of the U. S. Congress, may do so by obtaining a special poll tax receipt (issued without payment of the tax) by Jan. 31, 1966. This is a registration certificate and qualifies anyone to vote for Federal offices. The County Tax Collector marks the receipt with the notation "Poll Tax Not Paid."

So, whatever your feelings toward the Poll Tax requirements under the present law, whether you are in favor of the poll tax or not, you must have a poll tax receipt in order to exercise your franchise in any election this year, with the exceptions noted above for Federal elections.

Our old friend who tills the soil on Bluff Creek says he wanted to get in on the "name area" contest being conducted by The Abilene Reporter-News, but got his entry figured out too late. He says that this area is about the center of activities in Texas, but because such names as "Heart of Texas," and "Hub of Texas" already had been used, he'd have to go another route. This could be called the "Breadbasket Area," he figured, but that name also has been used all over the country. So . . . he just picked "West Texas WAISTLAND" as his choice. Figures it's just as well he didn't send it in, though.

Federal Money— Wingate School Will Get $3,899.80 In Title I Funds For Education

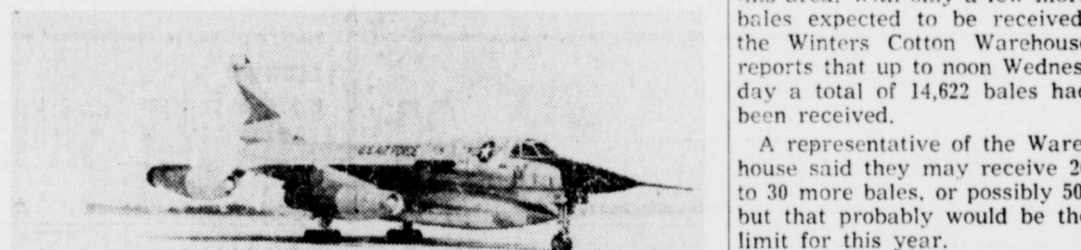

Wingate School has received notification of final approval that application for Title I funds under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965. Total amount of Federal funds allocated to the Wingate School District is $3,899.80, to be used for special programs for educationally deprived children. Plans were submitted for a reading improvement program geared to the needs of the individual students reading problems. Plans are to employ another teacher, Superintendent Jim Williams said, and to spend the Federal money for special reading equipment such as speed readers, reading labs, tape recorders, record players, controlled readers, phonic records and tapes. Plans are for the pupil to receive concentrated individual help with their particular problems or problems in reading, he said. Provisions of Title I of the Education Act (Public Law 89-10) require that the number of pupils from families with an income of less than $2,000 annually, as shown on the 1960 Federal Census, be the basis for allocating funds to each school district.

B-58 HUSTLER—A B-58 deploys its drag chute after touchdown. The B-58 is the world's first supersonic bomber with intercontinental — capabilities. Training flights by Strategic Air Command B-58 Hustler bombers are being flown along a route starting from northeast of Perryton, Okla., to a point near San Angelo.

The Winters area is in the 40-mile wide "supersonic corridor" flown by the aircraft, and the shock waves caused by these planes going at speeds higher than the speed of sound have been felt and heard for several days. An Air Force radar bomb scoring unit will determine the accuracy of simulated bomb drops through the use of radio and radar signals. No bombs are carried on the aircraft on these training missions. In order to reduce the sonic booms over major cities where scoring equipment is located, target selections are made to bypass or to allow deceleration to sub-sonic speeds before reaching these cities.

SONIC BOOM — The above drawing illustrates how the sonic boom is produced by fast-flying aircraft. In the supersonic training flights now being flown by the SAC B-58, the bombers will make a maximum of two runs daily, flying at supersonic speeds up to Mach 2 (1,300

Richard Puckett Named Outstanding Athlete At WHS Sports Banquet

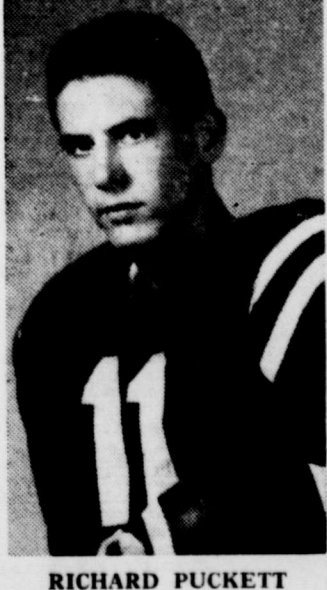

Richard Puckett, who piloted the Winters Blizzards football team during the past season, was named the most outstanding athlete at Winters High School at a banquet honoring the school's football, basketball and track teams in the high school cafeteria Saturday night.

Head coach and athletic director, L. G. Wilson, who served as master of ceremonies at the banquet, made the announcement of the award to the 159-pound Puckett. Coach Wilson also introduced members of the football team who earned letters this past season.

Guest speaker for the occasion, which was sponsored by the Winters Boosters, was Emory Bellard, athletic director and football coach at San Angelo. Bellard directed the speech to the athletes and their dates who made up the majority of the audience. He told the young athletes that they must develop three strong characteristics if they are to be successful in life. They included self discipline, a good sense of values and respect for other people.

The "desire to excel" is the best way to learn these characteristics, Bellard told them. He said the need for self-discipline "is one of the most essential elements necessary in life and no boy can excel without it."

On the topic of need for a good sense of values, he said, "Don't always be against something. Be for something."

RICHARD PUCKETT
... Outstanding

Bellard then urged the underclassmen to get together and decide what they want for next year, set their minds to accomplishing that goal, and said "you'll have an experience you'll never forget." The coaches were presented gifts by the football team's tri-captains, and the cheerleaders were presented gifts for an outstanding job during the season, and an equally outstanding job in decorating the school cafeteria for the banquet. Entertainment during the banquet was provided by a folk singing duo from Abilene Cooper High School.

Roger Babson Says—

Events Pointing To More Power In Unions Headed By Younger Men

Babson Park, Mass. For at least a decade the labor movement has been almost static. Organizing drives have been half-hearted, and their results have been slight. Scandals of various sorts within some of the biggest unions have been widely aired. There has been an underlying incompatibility between the conservative craftunion men of the AFL-CIO and the more ambitious "vertical" unionists that re-entered the Federation after years of separation.

New Vitality Slowly Emerging

Over the past year or so, however, there have been changes brewing beneath the surface. Younger men have been moving ahead in the hierarchy of labor leaders, and they have begun to displace some of the old-timers. In brief, there is a new pulse beating within the body of organized labor. Walter Reuther, who has been holding together his 6,000,000 members of the Industrial Union Department of the AFL-CIO for the past ten years, is getting restless within the confines of the basically unventuresome Federation.

Reuther is beginning to speak once more with a loud voice. He is pointing out that there are still some 15,000,000 unorganized workers who could readily be brought within union bounds. His declared objective is to bring in what he calls the "working poor," even if they have to be given membership

WCS Meeting Held In Church Parlor Tuesday Morning

Mrs. M. E. Leeman presented the program, "The Status of Women in the Church," and discussed the many kinds of service needed in the church and community.

Mrs. Frank Mitchell closed the meeting with prayer.

Members present were Mesdames Gattis Neely, Robert Walker, Roy Crawford, Frank Mitchell, Paul Gerhardt, C. E. Briley, Mack Whigham, Dwain Cannon, M. E. Leeman, George Rosson and Miss Frances Stricklin.

Intelligence and resourcefulness. Leaders, and candidates for union positions, will be trained and educated in bargaining tactics, statistical analyses, oratory and debate, and human psychology.

There will be drives for wages and fringe concessions along a steadily broadening front. Employers in relatively low-wage localities must look for organizing drives even in smaller companies. Concerns already unionized will be confronted with new demands in terms of pay, hours, health and death benefits, vacations, working conditions, and a roster of other items. This does not mean that management need be hit today, or even tomorrow. But it does mean that the trend toward tougher bargaining (look at the New York transit strike), new demands, and more forceful organizing campaigns is already developing.

Exciting news from FRIGIDAIRE ELECTRI-CLEAN OVEN!

From dirty... to clean AUTOMATICALLY

NO MORE MESSY CLEANING

Q. What happens to the dirt?
A. The Electric-clean oven heats up to about 900°. At this temperature oven soil is turned into a loose ash and vapor. The vapor is vented thru a special air purifier.

Q. How can it clean the racks & drip bowls?
A. Frigidaire uses a special heat-resistant porcelain enamel for both the oven liner and cooking unit drip bowls. The racks get cleaned right along with the rest of the oven.

Q. Is there any hand cleaning left to do?
A. Possibly there will be a small amount of loose ash that may remain after cleaning. This can be whisked out easily.

Q. What about safety features?
A. As soon as the temperature rises above broiling heat, oven double-locks itself. It can not be re-opened until the temperature returns to conventional oven heat. Frigidaire uses extra insulation and its electrical system and high heat process are UL approved.

Q. How expensive is it to operate?
A. This full-size oven cleans itself for about the price of a cup of coffee—much less than the cleaning cost of special chemical oven cleaners.

This unique Frigidaire Range may seem too good to be true. But, true it is and you may see it at your nearest WTU showroom.

State Capital Highlights—

Poll Tax Issue Still In Courts, Voters Must Still Pay Tax To Vote In 1966

By—Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

Deadline for payment of the poll tax — the "ticket to vote" in 1966 elections—is closing in. Democrats, Republicans, liberals and conservatives are emphasizing this in the wind-up of their voter registration drives this week.

All sides apparently are concerned that some of their supporters may fail to qualify. This because of confusion over the federal suit to ban the poll tax. Suit has not been decided.

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr and State Democratic Executive Committee Chairman Will D. Davis issued reminders that federal judges who will rule on it have advised Texans to pay their poll taxes, since they will reach no decision before January 31.

Carr noted these requirements for voter eligibility in 1966:

Those who want to vote in all primary, general or special elections for nomination of candidates (including state and local), or on bond issues, constitutional amendments and other propositions — and who hold no exemptions — must pay the $1.75 poll tax no later than the end of the month.

Persons over 60 must obtain exemption certificates by January 31.

Those turning 21 years of age can secure exemption certificates up to 30 days prior to an election, as can new residents just completing their residential eligibility by election date.

Free poll tax receipts are available through January 31 to qualify voters to cast ballots for federal officers (U.S. senator and congressman only this year). Apparently, 1966 will see lots of political action — and the voter without a poll tax will be on the outside looking in.

GOPS TO RUN SLATE
Texas Republicans will field virtually a full slate of candidates for statewide offices, according to National Committeeman Albert B. Fay. But they have pledged the bulk of their finances to the re-election of Sen. John Tower.

Republican executive committee members recently adopted a 1966 budget of more than $1,500,000. They earmarked 40 per cent for Tower's campaign. Fay said the GOP will stick to its strategy of "selective" filing in local and district races and will invest its money where there's best chance of victory. Republicans see chances to capture Houston, Dallas and Panhandle congressional places and to pick up several state legislative posts.

SUITS FILED
Two would-be candidates for attorney general had to file mandamus suits with the State Supreme Court in an effort to get their names on the May 7 Democratic primary ballot.

SDEC Chairman Davis rejected applications of State Sens. Franklin Spears of San Antonio and Galloway Calhoun of Tyler, maintaining there is a question as to their eligibility.

He cited a constitutional provision that legislators are ineligible to hold offices they created or raised salaries of during elected legislative terms. Pay of the attorney general was raised by Legislature last year from $20,000 to $22,500 annually.

Both claim their senate terms expire before Jan. 1, 1967, when new attorney general's term begins. Davis says the Senators' terms extend until January 10, when next Legislature convenes. Supreme Court set arguments in the Spears case Wednesday (Jan. 19). Spears was elected in 1962. Some feel his case is "easier" than that of Legislature cut all Senate terms short.

WASTE DISPOSAL AGENCY NAMED

Texas State Department of Health was designated by Governor Connally to receive grants for surveys of solid waste disposal practices and problems under the federal act.

State and local governments can secure technical and financial assistance for planning and development of solid waste disposal programs. Up to 50 per cent of survey costs will be paid by grants.

Act seeks to encourage research and development of new and improved methods of economical waste disposal.

BATTLE FRONT INSPECTION

William H. Crook, Southwest Region director of the Office of Economic Opportunity, is making a tour of the state to inspect the success of the War on Poverty.

He is accompanied by Walter Richter, state OEO director appointed by Governor Connally to act as liaison between the federal office and the state in the poverty war.

AG OPINIONS

Attorney General Waggoner Carr has held that:

A court may, without jury intervention, and upon finding a defendant guilty of a misdemeanor, place the defendant on probation if all other requirements of the misdemeanor probation law are met.

Where a commissioner court changes the boundaries of the precincts, to become effective Jan. 1, 1967, the precinct residence requirement for running for county commissioner in the 1966 elections is to be determined with reference to the boundaries as they will exist.

In another opinion, Carr clarified requirements for paying witness fees under the new code of criminal procedure. Legislation has appropriated funds for payment only in felony cases.

APPOINTMENTS

Gov. John Connally named former State Rep. Wayne Gibbons of Breckenridge as an administrative assistant to serve in a new division of state and federal affairs in Washington. Gibbons served Shackelford, Eastland, Palo Pinto, Callahan and Stephens Counties in the Legislature.

Connally also named John McKee of Dallas, Hugo Loewenstern of Amarillo and Dr. John Stockton of Austin to new terms on revived Committee on State and Local Tax Policy.

Dr. Norman Winfrey, Texas State Library director, and Heartsill H. Young, University of Texas assistant library director, were appointed co-chairmen of the 19-member committee for the first Texas Governor's Conference on Libraries, scheduled for March 23.

House Speaker Ben Barnes appointed Reps. Willis J. Whately of Houston, Don W. Cavness of Austin, Jack Crain of Nocona and Dr. Ann Hughes of Dallas and French M. Robertson of Abilene to an interim committee to investigate and study the Housing and Physical Care of Criminally Insane Persons.

Barnes also appointed Reps. Forrest A. Harding of San Angelo, Ace Pichens of Odessa, Ralph Scovins of El Paso, Howard Livarde of Laredo and Billy H. Williamson of Tyler to a committee to study the priority of liens in favor of the state to secure payment of all taxes levied under the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925.

FEDERAL PROJECTS APPROVED

Six new Operation Head Start projects and four program development grants under the Community Action Program of Economic Opportunity Act received the governor's approval.

Head Start projects approved were Lockett Rural High School, Vernon, $7,713; Whitehall ISD, $19,173; Uvalde ISD, $28,145; Detroit School District, $29,744; Snyder Consolidated ISD, $20,478; and Lasara ISD, $26,481. Program development grants went to Community Council of Starr County, Rio Grande City, $20,500; Community Action Inc. of Hays County, San Marcos, $16,877; Shelby County Community Action Program Inc., Center, $22,748; and Palo Pinto Community Service Corp., Mineral Wells, $13,359.

Sen. John Tower announced U.S. Office of Education's approval of projects to provide supplementary educational centers in Alpine, Burleson, Canyon, El Paso, Houston, San Antonio and San Marcos. Amounts of grants are yet to be determined.

AID GIVEN TO STUDY

State Bar of Texas received $5,000 from Houston Endowment, Inc., a philanthropy of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jesse H. Jones. Gift will aid in the Bar's study and revision of the Texas Penal Code.

Funds will be used to employ a part-time director; a number of student assistants who will aid in the research; and a minimum of secretarial services. No target date has yet been set for completing the Penal Code revision. But it probably will be ready for consideration by the 60th Legislature in January, 1967.

SHORT SNORTS

Agriculture Commissioner J. (John) C. White, Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler and Supreme Court Chief Justice Robert W. Calvert announced for re-election.

Governor Connally proclaimed January 21 as Arbor Day in Texas and urged all citizens, especially the public schools, to appropriately observe this occasion.

Henry LeBlanc, Texas Employment Commission's veteran chief of farm placement, retired — after 28 years' service.

Texas Association for Mental Health held meeting here last week and discussed plans for local action toward developing community mental health services, including those designed to prevent serious mental illness.

Famed country and western singer Jim Reeves, who makes his motion picture debut in the bright musical bonanza "Kimberley Jim," which shows Friday and Saturday at the State Theatre in color and wide screen through Embassy Pictures release, portrays a happy-go-lucky, gamblin' man from Dixie, trying to strike-it-rich in wide-open boom towns of Kimberley.

★ MOVIES ★

★ "Kimberley Jim," Jim Reeves, one of America's favorite country and western singing stars, makes his motion picture debut in the sparkling new musical bonanza, "Kimberley Jim," which shows Friday and Saturday at the State Theatre in color and wide-screen through Embassy Pictures release.

Reeves, born and raised in Texas and later a resident of the blue-ridge state of Tennessee, achieved his international fame with his recordings such as "Bimbo," "Four Walls," and "He'll Have To Go."

Set in the rip-roaring, honky-tonk era of the early 1900's, "Kimberley Jim" tells the story of a ramblin', gamblin', guitar-strummin' man from Dixie (Jim Reeves), trying to strike-it-rich in the Kimberley diamond region.

"Bunny Lake is Missing" A motion picture that is tense, absorbing and suspenseful in the extreme, Otto Preminger's "Bunny Lake is Missing" is a distinguished addition to the distinguished records of the producer-director as well as of his principal players: Laurence Olivier, Carol Lyness, Keir Dullea and Noel Coward who plays Wilson.

A Columbia release in Panavision, "Bunny Lake is Missing" shows Friday and Saturday at the State Theatre. It is the story of a Scotland Yard investigation, covering a period of less than 24 hours and ranging across London with a breathlessness and a camera-eye that makes the city itself a valuable factor in the over-all entertainment.

"The Yellow Rolls-Royce" Metro-Goldwin-Mayer's "The Yellow Rolls-Royce" is a picture that has everything! Its cast is one of the most outstanding ever brought to the screen, headed by Ingrid Bergman, Rex Harrison, Alain Delon, George C. Scott, Jeanne Moreau, Omar Sharif and Shirley MacLaine, with Art Carney, Wally Cox, Joyce Grenfell, Moira Lister and Edmund Purdon in co-starring roles. Filmed in Panavision and Metrocolor against some of the most opulent interiors and breath-takingly beautiful exteriors ever brought to the screen, its story of the remarkable adventures over a period of years of a magnificent Rolls-Royce and its various owners and occupants takes the viewer from a millionaire peer's estate in England and colorful scenes at the Ascot racetrack through a tour of some of Italy's most famous sites, including Pisa, Naples and Positano, and winds up against a background of Yugoslavian mountains, actually filmed near the border at Klagenfurt, Austria.

off with his head! CRIED ALICE'S QUEEN

The King, the Queen and the executioner were present. Alice and the prisoners, too, of course, but these were all. No jury, no public, no publicity.

No newspaper reporters.

In Alice's Wonderland even applause was "immediately suppressed by the officers of the court."

Not so in America.

In all criminal prosecutions the accused shall enjoy the right of a public trial, says Article the Sixth of the Bill of Rights of the Constitution of the United States.

So people may know, newspapers must report these trials.

This is not freedom of the press. This is responsibility of the press.

Newspapers have no extraordinary rights.

People do.

Men have the right to a public trial and the right to know what happens in courtrooms. These are rights written into the Constitution and affirmed by the Supreme Court in 1829 when Mr. Justice Bagley wrote: "It is one of the essential qualities of a court of justice that its proceedings should be public."

If people are to know the truth the newspaper must report the news.

200 TINKLE - WINTERS, TEXAS

A friend of mine went fishing recently with a buddy who really could hook the big bass. In one morning of angling he tied into at least a half-dozen bass that went over six pounds. However, he didn't land any. He just knew they weighed more than six pounds because he was using six-pound-test line and every one of them broke the line.

Now that's reasoning! Light lines have their places, but certainly not in big bass waters that are full of old tree stumps or lined with moss or lily pads.

Not so long ago there was a tremendous push on light line. It's sporting the fishermen said to tie into a fish on a light rig and light line. Furthermore you can cast a greater distance than they said.

As to distance yes, except in some of our Texas wind. But it's a doubtful sport if you hook a fish and let him get away with the lure still in his mouth.

That is what happens when a six-pound line, or any other line for that matter, gives away when the fish gets into the brush.

Fish are smart. Many times they can throw the lure. But it's easier after they have broken the line. However, at times they cannot disengage themselves from the hook. In that event they finally die with the hook still in their gills or down in their throat.

Several times we've seen a bass, that had broken the line, try to throw the lure from his mouth by lumping into the air. Occasionally it is possible to tie into one of these artful dodgers and get him back. But not often.

A fishing friend once told me of hearing a bass jump under a willow at the edge of the water. He cast several times and got no action. But the bass continued to jump. Finally the angler paddled over to it. By this time the bass had jumped a little too high and one of the hooks on the lure caught a small limb and left the bass dangling there.

My friend said he didn't have the heart to string the bass. He liberated it with the hope that it's experience would not stop it from hitting some other time.

What is the best weight line to use? There is no single answer to this question. It depends upon what you want to catch and the type of water in which you're fishing.

In most cases a 10 pound line is about the lightest that should be used on bass for successful landing. However, makers of spincast reels now generally are loading their equipment with 12 pound test.

New manufacturing processes today make it possible to use line of much greater strength and in smaller diameter. Many lines of 20 pound test now, are no larger than 12 pound test lines just a short time back.

Fishermen who continually "and big bass, however, stick to 115 or 20 pound test line. Especially is this true around impoundments rimmed with lily pads or with dead forests on the bottom.

Sam Welch of Bull Shoals, who has caught more than 400 'unker bass, in addition to thousands of smaller ones, says he always wants a 20 pound test line for bass fishing, especially at night.

Fishermen who prefer the smaller line resort to another method which is helpful. They use a 20-pound test shock leader. This piece of 20-pound monofilament is at least 20 feet long and is attached to the lighter line.

Many fish are lost as they make one last surge. If you are using a shock leader, you have a better chance of "horsing him in" those last few feet.

Then too, your bass may be down only a few feet when it heads for the bramble. If you have 20 feet or more of shock leader, you may be able to maneuver your boat over him and bring him out by main strength.

So far we've been talking about bass. However, speckled trout quite often are taken successfully on 12 or 15 pound test line in the bays and Gulf.

Here again the shock leader idea is very good. This because quite often you catch a heavy jackfish, or some other rough fish, that will give you a tough fight. While you are playing it you're losing good trout-fishing time.

Another advantage of the heavy shock leader, (unless you've attached a light steel leader) is that it won't be cut on shell on the bottom.

DOWN TO THE SEA IT SLIPS—This aerial view shows how close several homes are to a massive landslide that roared down to block a highway near Santa Monica, Calif., and smashed into a refreshment stand on the beach. The slide was triggered by a driving rainstorm, one of many to pelt southern California during the past few weeks.

A salt-water fish, especially a red snapper, will head for a reef or channel as soon as it is caught. Sharp shells then sever the line and the fish is gone. Moral there of course is—use a heavy line and a steel leader.

Whoopers Get Safe Convoy From Sports

The comeback of the Whooping Crane has been marked by wholehearted cooperation of the sportsmen, according to a spokesman for the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge where the rare birds spend their winters.

Migration back and forth between here and the Canadian wilds nesting area 2,500 air miles northward has been particularly respected by the countless thousands of hunters during the fall wildlife harvest season.

The refuge reported to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, it cannot recall any recent case of a Whooper being shot down, even though some of the majestic birds have disappeared. Authorities believe they were the older cranes simply passing on to the Whooper happy habitat as a matter of normal attrition.

The refuge spokesman attributed the hunters' cooperation to broad educational efforts, traceable in part to dramatizing the so-called Whooper Network, or the Whooper Club, created several years ago.

Thus the public interest, plus the increased number of professional wildlife observers, has combined to expand informational facilities about distinctive markings of the big white birds with the seven foot wing spread, the black wing tips, trailing legs and reddish head patch.

On the refuge itself, security is very tight for the 44 Whoopers. Guns are barred within one quarter-mile of the 47,261-acre refuge and refuge staffers maintain constant vigilance.
