HOME TOWN Talk

By R. C. THOMAS

If you are one of the few who have already paid their Poll Taxes, you now have nothing to worry about . . . you can sit back and wait for election day—any election—in which you are otherwise qualified to vote.

But if you are among those who have not got that important Poll Tax receipt, better get a move on, because next Monday is the deadline. After that, if you do not have a receipt, you may as well forget about anyone listening to you when you express your opinion regarding affairs politic; because your opinion won't amount to a hill of beans—you can't make your weight felt at the polls. If there is anyone to whom a politician refuses to listen on an election year it's a person who carries no weight at the polls—politicians like to hear from those who can swing a vote for them; the others don't count.

As of Tuesday afternoon, Deputy Tax Collector Travis Jordan, who has an office on North Main Street, reported that he had issued 280 Poll Tax receipts. This is in addition, of course, to those who got them when they paid their other taxes at the county seat. A third of that 280 paid their poll taxes this week. Jordan says. That's a pretty low count—even for an area as comparatively lightly populated as this. And such a few cannot carry much weight at the polls.

I don't like these cold, precise, perfect people, who in order not to speak wrong, never speak at all and in order not to do wrong, never do anything. — Henry Ward Beecher.

Those advocates of the "let-big - brother-hold-you - hand" way of life, which used to be so foreign to the American way of doing things, press on in their blind claim that the run-of-the-mill people cannot think for themselves, and must have someone in some bureau doing their thinking for them. To a great extent, they're succeeding, too. They believe that the people are being fooled by such slogans as "giant size," "economy size" and etc., and that the average person doesn't have enough sense to realize that one can of beans is bigger than another. So they want everything spelled out for the buyer, on the pretense that he cannot do the separating himself.

One foot in the door is the Act which was pushed over last year on the labeling of cigarette packages with the warning, "Caution: Cigarette smoking may be hazardous to your health." Since the first of the year, the act has been in force, and new stocks of smokes must carry that message.

Most people know of the much-publicized warning that smoking may be a cause of lung cancer and perhaps other diseases. But the knowledge hasn't seemed to make much of a dent in the smoking habit. How many people are going to read and heed the warning message on the cigarette package?

If that is going to become the rule, to put warnings on all items purchased, there are other areas which might be covered. Why not put the warning on all whiskey bottle labels, "Whiskey drinking may cause you to become an alcoholic"? Or on bubble gum wrappers, "Chewing bubble gum may cause your teeth to fall out"; or label each automobile, "Caution: Driving of autos may be dangerous." Why not go whole-hog and label each egg carton with the warning: "Caution: Eggs are high in cholesterol, which may cause coronary thrombosis!"

CAGERS—Coach Frank Hiller's WHS Blizzard basketball team now holds a 5-2 record in district play, after defeating Ballinger 57-53 in a thriller Tuesday night on the home boards. Team members shown circling the coach are, left to right, Johnny Beck, Jerry Alwalt, Alvin Dunn, K e n n y Davis, Paul Jones, Danny Kilough, Larry Hensley, Ronnie Gray, Ronald Boles and Bill Cathey.

She recently showed a lightweight Hereford steer to the reserve championship in the steer division of the Junior Livestock Show in Winters, and received a $100 cash premium from the Chamber of Commerce.

School Census Will End On January 31st

The annual census of all school children for the Winters Independent School District will end Monday, January 31, Robert F. Christian, Superintendent of Schools, said this week.

Registration of all school children is necessary in order to determine state assistance and in setting up grade sections for 1966-67, he said.

Children included in the census are those who will be between the ages of six and 18 on Sept. 1, 1966. This includes all children living in the district whether or not they are enrolled in school at the present time, and any married people between this age.

The census began January 10. Census slips were sent home with each student and parents asked to complete the form for each child in the family.

All parents of children in the age group defined, who have not completed the census form, are asked to drop by the school business office not later than Monday, January 31, so that their children may be enumerated in this school census.

Highway Department To Improve Main St.

The Texas Highway Commission this week announced approval of construction of a street-type section on U. S. Highway 83 through the City of Winters.

The project will extend from the north city limit to the south city limit of Winters, a distance of 1.1 mile. The Commission's order said the work will provide a safer facility.

The action is subject to acceptance by the City of Winters of customary maintenance and construction responsibilities required of local governments by the Texas Highway Department.

Mayor W. M. Hays has stated that the project, as it applies to responsibilities of the City of Winters, has been under study for some time. Further action will be taken by the City Council as soon as specifications and requirements are made known to the City by the Highway Department, he said.

The State Highway Engineer was directed to proceed with plans for the facility. When plans are completed and when the City of Winters has fulfilled requirements, the State Highway Engineer will submit the work for financing consideration by the Commission in the next available program.

County Judge W. H. Rappy said Tuesday afternoon he had received from the Highway Department a contractual agreement for procurement of right of way on Highway 83 from the Taylor County line to the north city limit of the City of Winters, and from the south city limit of Winters to FM 53.

This is the first step to be made in plans to widen Highway 83, the County Judge said, and must be presented to the County Commissioners Court for approval. Under the agreement, the State would pay one-half of the right of way procurement expenses, with Rannels County paying one-half.

Judge Rappy said that plans for widening Highway 83 north of Winters to the Taylor County line call for very little change in the present course of the highway. Only a few curve-lengthening changes would be made, according to the present plans, he indicated. After this is approved, then the matter is again submitted to the State Highway Commission for financing approval.

The section of Highway 83 from FM 53 to Hatchel which has not been improved was included in plans submitted and approved several months ago, Judge Rappy said. The Commissioners Court now is awaiting deed information, to be furnished by the Highway Department, before completion of procuring needed right of way.

The auditor's report showed that thus far in the 1966 season, beginning Oct. 1, 1965, Pan American has had a sales increase of $257,086.00 over the same period of the 1965 season.

Fourth of a Series—Winters' Water Department Revenue Below Total for 1964

Revenue for water sales for fiscal year ending Sept. 30, 1965, was below that for the previous year by a considerable sum, according to figures contained in the annual audit of the City of Winters, report of which was released recently.

The report shows that water sales for the year amounted to $79,927.80, below the $87,564.70 of the previous year.

Reason for the decline in revenue for the Municipal Water Department was explained by officials as being reflected in the drop in sales of raw water for the reporting period. Treated water sales for the year were about the same as the previous year, if not up just a little, it was stated.

Other revenue in the department brought the total to $82,784.94 for the year, including tapping and other fees, leases and rentals and miscellaneous income.

Operating expenses for the year were totaled at $34,005.62. This was below the same expense item for the previous year, which was $37,697.36. Largest sum in the operating expense statement was a for salaries, $13,500.00, below the $14,050.50 for the previous year.

Non-operating income for the department took a jump during the reported fiscal year, according to the report. This income was received as interest on investments during the year. The department had a considerable sum invested during the fiscal

Roger Babson Says—

Price Control Without Law By Congress Deemed Disturbing

Babson Park, Mass. This column has been generally pleased with President Johnson's efforts to unite all elements of the population in the Great Consensus. Businessmen of both major political parties have given the Administration strong support. However, in recent weeks they have become increasingly disturbed by government efforts to control prices and investment without the passage of laws by Congress.

Law vs. Edict

Our Founding Fathers devoted their greatest efforts toward setting up a government of laws, as opposed to a government of men. They had had first-hand knowledge of the oppression which a power across the seas imposed on men in America, without their consent. Hence, the popular cry of those days: "No taxation, without representation!"

Our Constitution was drawn with the clear intent of separating the powers and functions of the legislative, executive, and judicial branches of the government. Safeguards were set up to prevent the executive from

Frances Gaby Circle Met In Daniel Home Tuesday Morning

The Frances Gaby Circle of The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church met Tuesday morning at 9:30 in the home of Mrs. Alma Daniel with nine members present.

Refreshments of coffee and cookies were served to the ing effect on our current wave of prosperity. In its very effort to prolong the boom, the Administration could be raising a barrier to its future progress. Take a look at the steel industry. Usually a "prince" in good times, its common stocks have long been laggards in the market place. If the pinching of profits through price restrictions should spread through the economy, could recession be far behind?

But, of far greater importance to America are the political aspects of our forsaking the constitutional way of conducting our government. If the executive branch today can use powers granted to it for stockpiling strategic materials to beat back prices, may not some future executive use acts now on the books regulating trade and drugs to limit consumer action even without the threat of war necessity? Regardless of what happens to copper or aluminum prices—or even to the economy—we predict that much discussion of the above will be heard, not only among the citizens, but also in the halls of the next session of Congress.

guests as they arrived. Mrs. H. O. Abbott gave the opening prayer.

The business session was held by Mrs. W. T. Nichols, Circle chairman. The minutes of the previous meeting were read, a report of the treasurer was given and an offering was taken to be used by the Society. Means of securing funds for a Life Membership was discussed. Each one was asked to read the book of Acts in preparation for the Bible Study which is to begin on February 8.

Mrs. C. R. Willey was the leader for a most interesting program on "Do Something—A Call To Commitment." She stressed the fact that Dedication or Commitment is the truth on which the Christian religion is based. She also challenged each one present to a full commitment to Christian principles in all our dealings with others.

Those in attendance were: Mesdames C. R. Willey, W. T. Nichols, B. M. Smith; Pearl Whigham, Gattis Neely, Paul Gerhardt, C. E. Briley, Robert Walker and Mrs. Alma Daniel.

The next Circle meeting will be February 8 in the home of Mrs. Pearl Whigham. The time of this meeting will be 9 a. m.

taking over the inherent power of the legislative. It was the job of the executive to enforce the laws drawn by the Congress—who were the representatives of the people. Except in extreme emergencies, and in ways specifically defined, the executive was not to rule by edict.

Behind Today's Hassle
What is disturbing many today is the Administration's efforts to control prices and investment without explicit congressional legislation. Certainly no one wants inflation. History shows that previous periods of prosperity have been wrecked on the reefs of high prices.

Many now living can recall President Roosevelt's condemnation of copper price hikes in the spring of 1937. They remember that big jumps in the metal were followed by the business downturn later that year. Undoubtedly, it is this fear of what could happen to our current prosperity that is behind present Administration efforts to roll back prices wherever they stick their heads up in basic materials.

In Investment Too
Bulging prices are not the only areas that are disturbing the government planners today.

Our international payments position—the balance between what we owe foreign countries and what they owe us—has run against us again in the third quarter. And fears are rising that the fourth quarter's imbalance may be even worse.

Here again, direct intervention by the executive department of the government seems to appeal to Washington. Recently it stepped in and requested that a big publicly owned Canadian utility postpone its November-planned financing in the U. S. until after the first of 1966—presumably because seasonal forces would make our international financial position stronger in the first quarter of next year. In addition, U. S. corporations with properties abroad are being asked to cut down the size of planned further investments outside this country.

Two Great Dangers
Hasty unilateral action by the executive, without deliberation and consent of Congress, poses two great dangers for our future. The first is political—it is not the American way. The second is economic—the thin, fragile line of public confidence could be cracked, with devastat-

REMEMBER WHEN?

"In the late 1800s families drew lots to see who would wash the dishes. I certainly hope yours doesn't, because there's no need for it. There are so many advantages to the automatic electric dishwasher that I'm sure when you've heard them all you won't be able to argue yourself out of having one. For instance, dishes washed automatically turn out more sanitary than those washed by hand—that's because much hotter water can be used in the machine than on your hands. And the latest dishwashers offer cycles not only for pots and pans but fine china and crystal, also dish breakage is 1/5 that experienced when dishes are done by hand. Best of all, the kitchen stays neat and uncluttered—even after between meal snacks. There are so many advantages to automatic dishwashing, there just isn't room to list them all.

See your electrical appliance dealer and tell your family they can quit drawing lots."

Smart hunters travel light! But they don't overlook the essentials. One of the most essential of essentials is a good compass with the know-how to use it. A topographic map is helpful in deep woods because it shows tote roads, swamps and other details, thus making travel easier. A waterproof case of emergency matches is a very definite must. Handy, too, is some nylon parachute cord. But the essential most hunters forget, or ignore, is a good pair of binoculars. Some hunters feel that a scope is sufficient to do the binocular's job. It isn't. A scope is designed for sighting, not searching. Its one purpose is magnification of a limited area... better sighting for more accurate shooting. And we highly recommend use of a scope. But a scope is not designed for searching an area any more than the binocular is designed for sighting the gun.

Is it the breeze that makes those bushes move? Is that brown spot a deer or a stump? Is that a doe or a buck? How many points on his rack? How many deer are there? Is that hunter across the valley my buddy or someone else?

There's only one sure way to answer such questions and that's by using a good pair of power-packed binoculars. They have many uses and broad coverage.

Too bulky, you say? Not any more!

My hunting companion has a pair that can be hidden in the palm of his hand. They take up very little room in his pocket or hanging inside his shirt. They are only three inches high and weigh but 11 ounces.

And believe it or not they are 6 x 25 power with a full field of 420 feet at 1,000 yards. Being six power they bring distant objects close and clear. They have made many a deer hunt a success for him.

In buying binoculars, never go by price. Never look for bargains in binoculars. When a hunter buys binoculars he wants brilliant, full-field glare-less magnification. He won't get it unless he pays for a precision optical instrument. And, whether we like it or not, they cost money.

My hunting companion paid more than 60 bucks for a pair of custom compacts by Bushnell. He says they are the best investment he ever made. He contends that hunting trips cost money—the hunter wants to bring home a deer—so, if binoculars make a big difference (and they very often do), buying a good pair of binoculars is a pretty wise investment after all. Makes sense, doesn't it?

They may very well prove the difference between failure and a truly successful hunt for you.

Big Tax Increase Will Be Needed Next Year For Texas Colleges

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

A substantial tax increase will be needed next year to provide for fastgrowing state college and universities.

Frank Erwin, chairman of the Committee for the Governing Board of Texas Colleges and Universities, estimates that higher education expenditures will go up $100,000,000 for the coming biennium — above the present $432,000,000 budget. That's a hike of nearly 25 per cent.

Some authorities feel that increased expenditures for education will run closer to $170,000,000.

Erwin predicted that college-university enrollments will double by the early 1970's and admitted that the task of providing facilities for all appears virtually hopeless.

Texas, he said, must be as enthusiastic in support of new taxes for education as they were in backing increased appropriations last year.

Other sources said the higher education budget looming next year may reach $650,000,000. In that event about $500,000,000 may have to come from direct taxation.

Should an increase as large as now foreseen become necessary, pressure almost certainly would be renewed to hike the $50 a semester tuition fee required at state institutions. In the past, however, legislators have been quicker to raise taxes than tuitions.

After hearing the sobering story of the financial plight of the colleges, the Coordinating Board for the Texas College and University System settled down to its first meeting of the year.

Board authorized a local election on establishment of a new junior college district to serve the Port Arthur-Nederland-Port Neches area, but postponed until July a decision on a similar institution for Scurry County.

Board members learned that Texas' new $85,000,000 state-supported loan program for college students will be fully operative by next fall.

CANDIDATES FILING

A rash of entries in Democratic primary races for statewide offices indicates there will be plenty of action on the political front this spring after all.

Houston natural gas producer Stanley C. Woods, 43, announced he will take on Gov. John Connally and called for a supporting team of candidates to oppose other major incumbents. State Rep. Bill Hollowell of Grand Saline was scheduled to reveal this week whether he will join Woods' "team" as a candidate for lieutenant governor.

Hillsboro friends paid the filing fee of Secretary of State Crawford C. Martin for attorney general. Whether he gets opposition from State Sens. Franklin Spears of San Antonio and Galloway Calhoun of Tyler is in the hands of the State Supreme Court which has heard arguments on their eligibility to run.

Incumbents Treasurer Jesse James, Comptroller Robert S. Calvert, Agriculture Commissioner John White, Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler, Supreme Court Associate Justice Clyde E. Smith and Court of Criminal Appeals Judge W. T. McDonald are among those who have deposited their hats in the ring. District Judge John F. Onion of San Antonio is opposing McDonald.

Liberals still are looking for a Democratic opponent to run against Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr in the race for U. S. Senator.

State Rep. Paul Haring of Goliad already is actively campaigning for Byron Tunnell's seat on the Railroad Commission.

OIL ALLOWABLE EDGED UP
Texas' oil allowable has been edged up for the second month in a row — to 32.7 per cent of capacity for February.

The percentage factor applied by Railroad Commission adds up to a production ceiling of 3,100,000 barrels a day next month. January allowable of 32.6 per cent permitted slightly less. But it was the most promising start Texas oilmen have enjoyed in eight years.

Commissioners, after setting the allowable, went into conference with an Air Force general to learn what effect the accelerated fighting in Vietnam would have on petroleum demands. Best guess at the moment: not too much.

RECREATION GRANT SET

Texas has established eligibility for a $3,500,000 grant from the Federal Land and Water Conservation Fund for acquisition and development of state and local outdoor recreation areas.

Will Odum, chairman of Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission, said Texas' statewide outdoor recreation plan was approved by the Department of Interior's Bureau of Outdoor Recreation.

Funds will be allocated to the state for sharing among agencies on a city and county level. Included are water improvement districts and river authorities.

Texas' plan may include initial emphasis on development of existing park and recreation areas, particularly those located on lakes and streams.

Parks and Wildlife Department is preparing a manual of instructions for political subdivisions to guide them in making applications to share in the program.

APPOINTMENTS

Governor Connally has appointed John H. Crooker Jr., Houston; William C. Donnell, Marathon; Mrs. Savannah C. Lockety, Troup; and J. L. Huffines, Greenville, to the Board of Regents of the State Senior Colleges. Mrs. Lockety and Huffines are re-appointments. Donnell succeeds Ed Gossett of Dallas and Crooker succeeds Newton Gresham of Houston.

House Speaker Ben Barnes appointed a five-member House committee to study the use of voting machines in elections. Named were Reps. W. H. Miller, Houston; Tony Bonilla, Corpus Christi; Don Garrison, Houston; Glenn Johnson of Temple; and James W. Stroud, Dallas.

Secretary of State Crawford Martin, Attorney General Carr, and Texas Legislative Council Director Robert E. Johnson will serve as ex-officio members. Bexar, Brazoria, Cameron, Dallas, Ector, El Paso, Galveston, Gregg, Harris, Hidalgo, Jefferson, Midland, Nueces, Potter, Randall, Rusk and Tarrant counties using voting machines exclusively in last year's special election.

Lt. Gov. Preston Smith named to the advisory committee on the Commercial Code: Supreme Court Associate Justice James R. Norvell; Tom Arnold of Houston; Prof. Alan R. Bromberg of Dallas; Carroll Cobb of Lubbock; J. Chryss Dougherty of Austin; Stanley Plettman of Beaumont and Prof. Millard H. Ruid of Austin.

To an advisory committee on the Water Code, Smith appointed Judge Joe R. Greenhill of Austin; Victor W. Bouldin of Houston; Joe D. Carter of Austin; Dean Carlton of Dallas; Prof. Cowin W. Johnson of Austin; Neal King of Mission

1965 TRAFFIC FATALITIES UP

An unexpected rash of traffic fatalities in December broke a year-long downward trend in fatal accidents and pushed the 1965 traffic toll to a new high.

Previous record came in 1964 when 3,006 deaths were recorded. But during 1965, total deaths reached 3,018. The December death toll is the highest on record as 345 persons died.

FIRST TEN PROJECTS APPROVED

Texas Highway Commission has approved the first ten projects in Texas to come under the Highway Beautification Act. Those counties with approved projects to screen auto wrecking yards are:

Palo Pinto County, $2,500; Hill County, $5,700; Montgomery County, $3,500; Travis County, $2,500; Bexar County, $3,700; Aransas County, $5,000; Robertson County, $2,000; Dallas County, $3,000; El Paso County, $3,300; and Moore County, $3,300.

Commission also approved the planting of palm trees along a 3.6 mile stretch of U. S. 83 in Hidalgo County and the widening of Loop 249 from 7th Street to U. S. 77 in Harlingen.

In other actions, Commission ordered the construction of payment and a railroad grade separation on State Highway 327 in Hardin County and the construction of two safety rest areas on U. S. 277 in Jones County.

Also, a grade separation was ordered constructed on U. S. 385 in Odessa, the southern segment of a loop around Taylor was given the go-ahead and entrance and exit ramps on U. S. 75 south of Sherman will be constructed.

Finally, the Commission has ordered the construction of a street section on U. S. 83 through Winters and the widening of State Highway 208 from 13th to the north city limits of Snyder.

DRAFT QUOTAS TOLD

State draft boards are scheduled to induct 1,372 single and married men without children during February.

Quota actually is less than January's 1,475 and December's 11,523 and represents Texas' share of national call for 29,400 men. Inductees will be 19-25 years old.

Col. Morris S. Schwartz, State Selective Service Director, emphasized that no married men with children or expected children, will be selected to fill the February call. But he warns that information on unborn children certified to by a doctor should be promptly transmitted to draft boards.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES

Community Mental Health Centers and state financial aid for them are constitutional. So held Attorney General Carr in an opinion requested by Dr. S. H. Frazier, commissioner of Mental Health and Mental Retardation.

In a separate opinion, Carr said the new Code of Criminal Procedure provides for sale, after 30 days, of abandoned or unclaimed personal property seized under search warrants.

Earlier Carr informed Agriculture Commissioner John C. White that labels on economic pesticides must carry either the name and address of the registrant of the product, the manufacturer, or of the person for whom manufactured.

MUSEUM PLAN REVEALED
A $10,000,000 permanent Texas Institute of Living Culture is proposed by Governor Connally as the state's exhibit for the 1968 HemisFair in San Antonio.

Connally will ask the Legislature to appropriate an additional $5,500,000 for the project. He described the exhibit as a kind of super-museum, capable of future growth. It would depict the state's history and culture from the days of the cave man to manned space flights.

COLORFUL PLATES

Purchasers of Texas personalized or prestige license plates will get more for their $10 additional fee this year. Plates will have a reflectorized silver background with up to six green letters or figures.

Social Security Figures Benefits By Machine

The new year introduces another addition to the social security program: the refiguring of benefits by machine. With this new process, social security offers "one-stop shopping" to all future beneficiaries, Floyd B. Ellington, social security district manager in San Angelo, announced today.

Now a worker can visit his social security office shortly before he is 65 and apply for Medicare and for retirement cash benefits at the same time, even if he plans to continue working. The benefit amount is figured out at the time the worker applies. This amount is based on the average of his earnings over his working lifetime in jobs covered by social security, Ellington continued.

If a worker has more earnings after he applies for benefits, he naturally wants them considered to see if they raise his average earnings and his benefit.

Before, the worker had to apply to see if his new earnings made a difference in his average, Ellington added.

Now the worker does not have to ask to have his benefit refigured. Nor does he have to earn a special amount. Any amount of earnings in a year will automatically be considered to see if they increase his average earnings. If the earnings are large enough to increase the benefit, the benefit amount will be increased automatically. If not, the benefit will remain the same.

Automatic refiguring is a great advantage to all those who apply for Medicare at 65, but continue working.

People 65 or over who have never applied for retirement or Medicare benefits should get in touch with the social security office located at 3000 West Harris, San Angelo, or contact a representative when he is in the area — a schedule can be seen on the post office bulletin board.

When the bell rings for lunch, even the best worker will stop his labor.

"Beach Ball,"

The latest entry into the musical swing of motion picture shake-a-rounds is "Beach Ball," which shows Friday and Saturday at the State Theatre. Not only does this merry flick capture the jumping pulse of a wild singing and dancing generation, but it fills the screen with some of the most popular vocal and music-making groups in the country — The Supremes, The Righteous Brothers, The Four Seasons, The Hondells and The Walker Brothers.

Starring Edd Byrnes, Chris Noel and Robert Logan, "Beach Ball" is filled with crazy antics and eye-filling girls in breath-taking bikinis. Filmed in exciting Technicolor, producer Bart Paton and director Lennie Weinrib have made the screen literally come alive with song and dance that mirrors the mobile and active teen set. The Supremes, a lovely and very talented set of female vocalists, are the undisputed queens of the big best-selling record charts. In addition to their appearance in the film, they introduce and sing the title song "Beach Ball."

"Seven Slaves Against The World,"

Slaves rising up against Roman captors, gladiators battling to the death in the arena, and fights and duels, coupled with strength and cunning, are only a few of the thrills which highlight Paramount's "Seven Slaves Against The World," showing Friday and Saturday at the State Theatre.

Filmed on a lavish scale, the Technicolor-Techniscope production stars Gordon Mitchell, Roger Browne and Scilla Gabel in a story that revolves around a Roman tribune who is given command of a slave camp in Asia. He immediately comes into conflict with the deposed commander, over the latter's brutal disciplinary methods. To undermine the new tribune's authority, a rebellion among the slaves is ignited.

"Winter A-Go-Go,"

"Winter A-Go-Go" reportedly an exuberant and entertaining new film set in a ski lodge, shows Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the State Theatre with a cast of beautiful girls and handsome men. A Columbia Pictures release in color, "Winter A-Go-Go" was filmed in Heavenly Valley, on the south shore of Lake Tahoe, a popular winter sports resort with some of the most spectacular scenery this side of Switzerland.

SUPREME — It's the three groovy gals who have become queens of the top record charts all across the country and the word is "supreme" for The Supremes, who appear in Paramount Pictures' surf'n, swing'n and sing'n new film, "Beach Ball," produced in Technicolor and showing Friday and Saturday at the State Theatre.
