HOME TOWN Talk

By R. C. THOMAS

We Americans are really hep to the suggestion that we must go to great lengths to "export" our ideas and philosophies of life and living to help some of the so-called less fortunate countries of the world more nearly approach our own levels of culture, etc. Which is all well and good—if we are prepared to accept the fact that some of those other countries have a few ideas from which we might profit, if we could only bend a little and accept them.

Take for instance the area of postage stamps. During the past few years we have been flooded by countless designs in postage stamps, especially the commemorative stamps. The designs of the basic stamps—the day-by-day regulars—have somehow withstood the rigors of time and have held their own; perhaps because they are nothing elaborate, but simple, expertly-engraved heads and figures, similar to the figures on our coins. But the commemoratives! While some of them could be said to be compliments to their designers, there have been others which have approached and even passed the "modernistic" and "expressionistic" category; some of the Christmas season stamps of the past several years have taken on a gaudy decorative appearance, and one has had to look twice to separate them from some of the fund-raising stamps and trading stamps.

If you ever receive mail from some foreign country, take a moment and make some comparisons. (And we hope we will not be considered unpatriotic to bring up this subject.) There are many exceptions, of course, but there are many foreign which would lay most of our commemoratives in the shade, beauty-wise. And it so happens that some of the real beauties come not from some of the big and rich and powerful countries, but from recently-emerged young nations.

We have been receiving quite a bit of mail recently from "Our Man In Tanzania;" and the stamps he sticks on those letters are something out of this world. They're not gaudy, stick-and-typer types! On the contrary, they are colorful to the point of real beauty; to look at them one would not believe that they came from what we are inclined to call a "backward" and undeveloped country. One stamp, a scene of Dar-Es-Salaam Harbour, is a real beauty, with subtle tones and yet holding the eye. Another, a scene of a Game Park Lodge, another beautifully designed and executed stamp. Murchison Falls, Uganda! A Deep Sea Fishing scene, Tanzania! Another fishing scene against a map of Mafia Island, Tanzania!

Some people accomplish so little that if they stopped doing what they're doing, nobody would ever notice.

Now they've really ripped it! Developed a "make believe" meat, a substitute for red meat and poultry.

Recent developments in the use of spun fibers of soybean protein as a substitute for almost any food with natural fiber texture may bring a problem to farmers and ranchers. The fiber can be treated to imitate such foods as meat, dried fruits, potato chips, nut kernels and many vegetables. Since it has no taste, it may be given any flavor desired, it is said.

If this goes over, food shoppers would be faced with only a couple of problems—get a sack of the stuff, and then buy up little tubes of "flavor"—then if the cook wanted steak, make a steak; or fried chicken, get the fried chicken flavor out. But it would really take an expert to mix up a good hash!

City Council Orders Seal Coating For Five Streets

Several blocks of Winters' streets are receiving a seal coating this week following authorization by the City Council Monday night to spend approximately $2200 on the project.

Officials said this summer's street project is a continuation of the program which has been underway for several years to seal coat some of the city's streets each year.

Streets approved to receive seal coating at this time include:

East Dale: one and one-half blocks, from Grant Street east.

North Grant Street: From East Dale north to Parsonage, one block.

Parsonage Street: One block, from Main Street to North Grant.

Hamilton Street: Two and one-half blocks, from South Main west to the railroad.

Circle Drive: Approximately 1310 feet, in Winterhaven Addition.

BARN BEING BUILT

Contractors have started work on the new City Maintenance Barn in the southeast section of town. Forms were built last week, and concrete floor and foundations were poured this week. It is anticipated that the building proper will begin to go up next week. Contractors expected to complete the project within two weeks after start of installation of the pre-fab steel building.

HOSPITAL WORK

City Council has approved purchase of additional furniture for patient rooms in Winters Municipal Hospital. Officials said that there has been a need, primarily, for chairs in the rooms. Council also approved purchase and installation of three more evaporative air conditioners for the hospital.

By-laws of the Winters Municipal Hospital were studied and approved by the City Council Monday night, as a prerequisite to receiving approval of the hospital for operation under the provisions of the Medicare program which becomes effective July 1.

Council also agreed to call a meeting with architects to consider what can be done about adding on to the present hospital. City officials will begin a long-range study of the possibilities for additions.

In other business, the City Council also authorized the City Secretary to hire a high school boy with a mechanical drawing background to assist in drawing up tax maps for use by the equalization board.

Some of the projects suggested for study include improvement of golf course facilities, a community center building, Little League baseball grounds, picnic and camping area, rodeo arena and more adequate livestock show barns.

It was suggested that the area of the old Winters Lake north of town would be ideal for a camping and picnic ground. If the area were improved, it was pointed out, it would be used by not only local persons but by tourists who want to spend a night and for picnic groups from surrounding towns.

Mayor W. M. Hays has explained that the City Council several months ago commissioned engineers to study the area of the old Winters Lake with an idea toward making a picnic and camping ground. Plans have been drawn, and engineers were said to have initiated applications for a grant from the Parks & Wildlife Department with which to do the work. Mayor Hays said the Council should have more definite information regarding this project within a few days.

Weaver told the group of about 40 persons attending the meeting Thursday night that there are several ways in which such projects can be financed. He said that on some projects, the community may be able to apply for and receive direct grants; on others, he said, long term loans may be available. He said that this could be done by the City of Winters or by an independent non-profit corporation organized for that purpose. If the City undertook the project, he said, it probably would be feasible to sell revenue bonds. If done by an independent organization, members would build the framework by way of selling memberships, and then apply for grants or loans.

Jones urged all organizational representatives to take back to their respective organizations a report on this first meeting and then come to the second meeting next week with suggestions as to what could be done to make the community grow recreation-wise.

Roger Babson Says—

Confusion In Stock Market Is Cause For Recent Lower Prices

Babson Park, Mass. When 1966 opened, optimism on the stock market was rampant. This column agreed with the bills, freely predicting that the DOW Industrials would climb above 1,000 before the end of 1966. But not many investors are thinking about that magic figure now. Since the spring slump, most of them are asking: "What's gone wrong with the stock market?"

Confusion Compounded
To move ahead strongly, the stock market likes to feel confident and certain. Recently, all has been confusion, particularly among our leaders in Washington . . . political, military, and economic. After working hard to convince the public that it has the correct formula for prosperity without end, we find the Administration split from end to end on what to do next. One official holds that the economy is not overheating, that inflation is a long way off. Another states flatly that the business bulge in the first quarter was "faster than we ought to try to sustain." The Chairman of the Federal Reserve calls for higher taxes to dampen inflation. The Secretary of the Treasury right afterwards warns that a bigger tax bite now might tip over the economic applecart. Confusion also reigns with regard to what we should do in Vietnam.

Patients Die
Our parents had an old saying: Doctors differ and patients die. Another way of putting it was: Too many cooks spoil the broth. That about describes what is going on today - not only in Washington - but also throughout this country and abroad. In South Vietnam, with Communists attacking from within and without, the army is split into factions and the Buddhists are fighting the Catholics.

Amid this terrible confusion in that unhappy country, Vietnam elections are scheduled for late summer. Already anxiety is spreading that, no matter

MODERN EQUIPMENT . . . for better service

The Winters State Bank is constantly purchasing new equipment to expedite the ever increasing volume. Modern bank machinery is necessary if accuracy and speed is to be maintained. They have now installed a "proof machine" which contains a series of adding machines with a master tape. Checks, deposits and other items are distributed in twenty pockets with an adding machine for each then, at the close of each day's business, the total of each pocket may be had by pressing a button and the total of all these separate pockets is given on a master tape. With this machine they can tell at a glance just how much money each teller should have in each of the windows they operate and, if mistakes are made, the machine will so inform the operator by locking and refusing to operate.

It would be difficult to define all the advantages of a proof machine in a bank. The public is invited to see at first hand the operation of this machine. Come in any time and let us show you this equipment.

how the actual voting goes, civil war in South Vietnam may break out. Feeling is that the loser will not abide by the decision of the voters; this seems most likely if a strong military clique comes out the underdog.

Fears Of U. S. Dunkirk
If the South Vietnamese front against Communism should crumble, it is very hard to see how the American military could continue to press the battle against the Viet Cong and against infiltration from the North. We have already had a foretaste of what is likely to happen . . . when riots recently swept South Vietnam. If the situation were a thousand times worse, it seems we would have no choice but to withdraw our men and materials. The results of such a removal would not be simply a battle lost. Americans have lost battles before. We refused to win in Korea; but we were not defeated. But to try and protect a nation against Communist takeover—and then to have to abandon such a country—would certainly be the same as losing a war. Even the "doves" might be stilled; for it is one thing to withdraw as a matter of considered decision, but quite another to lose a war. The "hawks" surely would scream.

Unity Needed
It is not hard to find stacks and stacks of favorable economic facts. Business generally was never bigger or better. Profits, although not racing ahead as fast as last year, are still climbing. Order backlogs are

L. V. Byrd, 51, Died Tuesday, Rites Thursday

Funeral service was held at 3 p. m. Thursday from Spill Memorial Chapel for Loyd Vernon Byrd, 51, who died at 4:15 p. m. Tuesday in Hendrick Memorial Hospital in Abilene following an illness of one month. Officiating was William J. Leach, minister of the 16th and Hickory Street Church of Christ, Abilene. Burial was in the Wingate Cemetery, with graveside services conducted by the Wingate Masonic Lodge. Loyd Vernon Byrd was born May 26, 1914, in Bosque County. At the age of six he came with his parents, Mrs. Ella Byrd and the late Mr. John Byrd to Taylor County, settling in the Shep Community. In 1932 they moved to Runnels County near Wingate and later to Wingate where Mr. Byrd had lived since.

He was married to Eva Talley March 8, 1941, at Wingate.

He was a member of the Wingate Masonic Lodge, and for the past seven years he had been employed by the Union Texas Petroleum Co., and prior to that he was in the trucking business.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Eva Byrd of Wingate; his mother, Mrs. Ella Byrd of Wingate; a son, Loyd Von Byrd of Wingate; two daughters, Mrs. J. B. Guy Jr. of Winters, and Miss Jan Byrd of Abilene; and a sister, Mrs. Alton Armstrong of Shep.

up, and tilting higher. Autos may be tapering a bit; but steel and other metals are booming, and pointing up. Money is more expensive; but we don't see any business starving for lack of funds.

Why, then, is the stock market out of gear with the business statistics? Because it is always afraid of confusion and uncertainty. It is not today that worries it . . . but tomorrow. Investors are wondering how long business statistics will stay favorable if our leaders cannot make up their minds about the danger of inflation, about taxes, about Vietnam. It is our belief that the DOW would get back on the track toward 1,000 if our leadership would unite. It is time to set the course and call the crew to man their stations.

One trouble with the so-called human race is that it has too many would-be leaders.

Any intelligent people try to get the facts on both sides of an issue. Ignoramuses just shout and howl.

"Inside Daisy Clover"

Natalie Wood, Hollywood's beautiful, much sought-after star, has pretty much been able to pick and choose her own roles for quite some time. Until now, however, there was one type of role she had not been able to play. Her current role in "Inside Daisy Clover," due to show Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the State Theatre, represents the fulfillment of that wish. It is the achievement of a full-scale singing role which she was not able to carry out in "West Side Story" but which she did start in "Gypsy."

bummer to Hollywood stardom. Natalie Wood plays Daisy, the girl from nowhere who becomes a film star at the age of 15, and whose career is washed up before she is 17. Christopher Plummer stars as a sadistic, sardonic film producer. The Technicolor and Panavision picture also stars Ruth Gordon as Natalie's wacky mother, Roddy McDowall who portrays a studio talent scout and Robert Redford a self-idolatrous matinee idol.

"Good Neighbor Sam"
Jack Lemmon returns to the Fiesta Drive-In Theatre Sunday night only.

"Good Neighbor Sam," as a helpful young husband with two "wives" in what Hollywood regards as one of the most hilarious marital romps ever brought to the screen. Involved are Viennese beauty Romy Schneider as the girl next door, and lovely blonde Dorothy Provine as Lemmon's wife.

The setting is a San Francisco suburb and the reason for all the excitement—and there reportedly is an amazing, and hilarious, amount of it—is the fact that Miss Schneider will inherit a multi-million dollar fortune if she is living happily with her husband.

Natalie Wood, as Daisy Clover, has a pensive moment in this scene from "Inside Daisy Clover," which opens on Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday at the State Theatre. The Technicolor - Panavision film, produced by Alan J. Pakula and directed by Robert Mulligan for Warner Bros. release, tells of the discovery, development and eclipse of a teen-age singing sensation in Hollywood in the 1930's.

ROTUNDA, STATE CAPITOL Austin

When you visit the rotunda directly under the dome of the State Capitol in Austin you can see Texas in the past, present and future.

On the stone floor are the seals of Spain, Mexico, France, the Republic of Texas, the Confederacy and the United States. On the walls hang portraits of all Texas heads of state—presidents of the Republic and governors since 1846.

Then, looking some 300 feet straight up, one has an uninterrupted view inside the great dome. You can dream what the future has in store for Texas, as you lift your eyes.

Memories make Texans proud of their heritage. The present, too, is a challenge to continue Texas' great role in the affairs of our Nation. We all want our children to have a secure and safe future.

Chunya Was Once Thriving Gold Mining Town Similar to Klondike

BY BILLY M. PUMPHREY
Chunya, Tanzania—Chunya is my home. A once thriving gold boom town, this small East African town with a population of nearly 3,000 has settled down to an economy based mainly on farm produce. Gold is still found and brought into the still active gold buying office but gone are the days when Chunya was considered the Klondike of Africa.

Today Chunya is dependent on crops of corn, groundnuts, beans, coffee, sugarcane, tobacco, honey, and beeswax. Most produce is consumed by the farmers' families but some of it makes its way to the markets. Small grinding mills are located around the countryside where the produce is brought for grinding.

December through March is the rainy season in this area when Chunya looks like the Africa of movies and pictures—everything is green and plants seem to sprout almost overnight. The other months of the year, however, are almost Texas with their lack of rain. When I arrived here last September, Chunya reminded me more of Texas during the drought of the '50's than Africa. When I returned from the Christmas holidays, however, Chunya had turned green—flowers were blooming everywhere and the grass, where there had been none in November, had to be cut every other week at least.

Most people who have never stayed in Chunya but only know its history or have passed through it say that it is a real ghost town. This was the description I got from many fellow Peace Corps Volunteers when I told them I was assigned to Chunya. In a way, this is a ghost town. There are several vacant buildings in town including an imposing two-story Barclays (Dominion) — Colonial, Overseas) Bank. Building foundations are also often to be found in weed-covered vacant lots. What these people often fail to see, however, are the many "duka," shops, which Chunya is not isolated from the outside world. Our post office (with 40 private boxes) receives and distributes mail seven days a week and telephone and telegraph service are also available there. Chunya has a bus station and three different bus lines operate daily service between Chunya and Mbeya, our regional seat of government. An airmail letter from America will reach here in about one week. Compare this with a couple of months which it took men to get to this area, some 400 miles inland from the coast, in the late nineteenth century.

A geologist team has recently been making a survey of this area for mineral deposits. It is doubtful that anything new will turn up as several surveys have been made of the area. For Jim, my fellow PC Volunteer, and I, however, there is much at Chunya. It is our home and we wouldn't want to trade it for any place else.

FFA President Spoke To WHS Student Body

In an unscheduled program at Winters High School Tuesday afternoon, Kenneth Graeber of Brenham, State President of the Future Farmers of America, spoke to members of the student body and admonished them to "strive for recognition . . . but recognition with respect." Graeber, who spoke to the Lions Club at noon Tuesday, was accompanied to Winters by Penrose Metcalf of San Angelo, a member of the State Board of Education and a former State Senator.

In an "off the cuff" speech which indicated an attitude and experience level far beyond his years, Graeber told the WHS student body that "Every one of us should be striving to gain recognition if we intend to accomplish something. We should want to be somebody—we should want to be noticed," and "we should strive for recognition with respect, not only the respect of our teachers and our parents, but most important, our own self respect."

The FFA State President, who will enter Texas A&M University next year, told the students that "the question is, how to gain recognition, or how to be noticed. The answer lies in the amount of sacrifice and effort we're willing to put out to better ourselves."

Graeber mentioned the "long-haired beatniks, the speed demons and others who are 'trying to gain a kind of recognition,' and who think the 'world owes them a living.' He told the students they should help themselves to progress in life, and admonished, "If we start depending on other people now, we'll do it all our lives. Let's look for a helping hand, but let's look no farther than the end of our arms, because they're the two best helping hands in the world."

He said that "any weakling can make a decision, but only a strong individual can keep it." Graeber, as State FFA president, is head of a state organization of 37,000 members. He has traveled about 50,000 miles while he has been State president, he said. Pointing out that only a small percentage of FFA students enter agriculture, he said that because of FFA the ones who will go into other careers are "receiving much training which will help them no matter what business they get into."

State Capital Highlights—

State Political Leaders Forecast Hot Senatorial Election Campaign

By—Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

With a lackluster first Democratic primary behind, state political insiders are looking toward the big general election contest for the U. S. Senate—and even to a potentially exciting 1968.

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr, the Democratic Senate nominee, and Republican Sen. John G. Tower have their campaign machinery in gear. Both are ranging widely over the state.

Carr boasts of drawing nearly 80 per cent of the May 7 vote in his race against John R. Willoughby, carrying both liberal and conservative areas and rural and metropolitan counties by lopsided margins.

He cites this as evidence the Democratic party will close ranks behind him in the rough race against Tower next November.

Speculation already has started ed on potential candidates for governor in 1968 if Gov. John Connally steps aside. Lt. Gov. Preston Smith admittedly plans to run for the top job when it opens up. House Speaker Ben Barnes is giving it some thought. Among liberal prospects are U. S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough and State Sen. Franklin Spears who made the attorney general's runoff against Crawford Martin.

Present Martin-Spears race is the only statewide contest on the June 4 runoff ballot. Martin received about 47 per cent of the first primary vote to 37 per cent for Spears and 16 per cent for Galloway Calhoun. Calhoun has endorsed Martin. Both candidates are beefing up their organizations and replenishing financial resources before their final stump tours and appeals. Getting out the vote again is expected to be a real problem, with so few local runoffs.

Governor Connally scored a clean-sweep victory in the May 7 primary and conventions. Not only was he nominated to a third term with 75 per cent of the total vote cast in his race, but his supporters apparently scored overwhelming victory over liberal forces in party conventions.

Only one incumbent was upset. Court of Criminal Appeals Judge W. T. McDonald lost to John F. Onion, San Antonio district judge.

Lieutenant Governor Smith, Railroad Commissioner Byron Tunnell and Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler won hand-down.

Texas' Senate, with no fewer than 10 new faces, will be a more-liberal body than it has been in the past. Lieutenant Governor Smith says it offers the greatest challenge in history to the presiding officer. One-third of the upper house membership now is from metropolitan counties.

House of Representatives, with a minimum of 54 newcomers, will remain moderate or conservative in tone, with Speaker Barnes retaining firm control of the gavel.

Jackie Boyce Of Houston To Girls State

Jackie Boyce, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Boyce of Houston, will be the first representative from the James Madison Junior-Senior High School to attend Girls State in Austin. She was named by the faculty from a list of candidates nominated by the students to attend the June Convention.

Jackie is secretary of the Student Council, and cheer leader. She is also a member of Booster Club and a member of bowling and volleyball teams, a member of the school choir, who just recently made their annual tour to Austin, Odessa, El Paso and Carlsbad Cavern.

A junior, Jackie plans to attend Brigham Young University in Salt Lake City to prepare for a career as a research scientist in genetics.

Jackie's mother is the former Jean Butts, daughter of the late H. J. Butts Jr. and Mrs. Butts of Houston, former Winters residents.

suits to force Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler to file their claims in Pecos County. State attorneys called companies "trespassers." Firms charged Sadler reversed the land office policy in refusing their applications.

Jack Ruby's lawyers, seeking to disqualify trial Judge Joe B. Brown, told the Court of Criminal Appeals that Brown performed four judicial acts concerning the convicted slayer of Lee Harvey Oswald after contracting to write a book about the case. If the court disqualifies Brown, Ruby will get a new trial for murder of the presidential assassin. If Brown is found qualified, Ruby will get a sanity hearing in Dallas.

MEDICARE SETUP APPROVED
New procedures for medicare aid to the aged have been approved by the State Board of Public Welfare.

All old age assistance grants will automatically be increased $3 a month beginning in June. This will enable those 65 and older to pay supplementary medical insurance benefits. Old age assistance grants will thus be raised to $100 maximum, with aid to blind increased to $95 top.

A contract will be signed with Blue Cross - Blue Shield to handle payment of medicare deductibles. Separate contract will be signed for dependent children and for the disabled. Beginning date on contracts is July 1.

SHORT SNORTS
Texas Highway Commission approved 1966 Farm-to-Market Road construction projects which involve improvements on 904 miles of FM roads—including 75 per cent school bus routes—at a cost of about $23,000,000. Texas' General Revenue Fund was in the black—more than $23,900,000—at the end of May. R. Henderson Shuffler, who supervises the Texana Collection at the University of Texas, is on leave to help the Texas Tourist Development Agency plan themes for the Texas pavilion at the HemisFair. Highway officials report that dedication of link of Interstate Highway 35E between Waxahachie and Hillsboro opened the multi-lane divided highway almost without interruption from Red River to San Antonio. New Governor's Committee on Public School Education heard guidelines for its three-year study and proposals from Texas State Teachers Association for a pay scale geared to national average at Monday (May 16) meeting here. Parks and Wildlife Department will accept applications for game warden training until June 8. Democratic and Republican state executive committees met in Austin and Dallas respectively this week to canvass primary election results.

CATTLE DIPPING COMPLETED
Dippings of scabies-infected cattle in the Texas Panhandle was completed on April 27, according to Dr. S. B. Walker, executive director of Texas Animal Health Commission. A total of 15,452 head were dipped twice 10 to 14 days apart in an approved manner and solution, while 257 head were dipped once.

Federal quarantine for Castro, Swisher, Briscoe, Lamb, Hale, Floyd, Motley and Randall Counties still is in effect, though cattle from these counties have undergone state and federal inspection.

A request for release of the federal quarantine is being prepared, Dr. Walker said. Requirements for shipments to other states remain the same. Dr. Walker praised cooperation which prevented the six Texas outbreaks from spreading.

AUTO INSURANCE UP FOR REVIEW
On June 15 the State Board of Insurance will hold a public hearing on automobile insurance rates.

Based on evidence presented to the Board at its 1965 hearing, rates were upped an average 113.4 per cent. But a relatively minor change in motor vehicle traffic accident rates for 1965, compared to a dramatic increase in 1964, may mean good news for car owners.

PLANTING EXTENSION GRANTED
Agriculture Commissioner J. C. White extended the cotton planting deadline from May 10 to midnight, May 25, for farmers in 22 counties whose plantings have been washed out or delayed by heavy rains.

These counties include Atascosa, Bee, Bexar, Calhoun, DeWitt, Dimmitt, Frio, Goliad, Jackson, Karnes, Kinney, LaSalle, Live Oak, Maverick, McMullen, Medina, Refugio, Uval-

Rickie Cummings, son of Mr. and Mrs. Buck Cummings, who has been under treatment at Hendrick Memorial Hospital in Abilene for the past 8 weeks, following an accident when his motor scooter was struck by a car.

Rickie will be released to return home in about two weeks, it was reported the first of the week. His legs will be in a cast during the summer months, but it is hoped he will improve in time to enter school in the fall. He enjoys receiving cards and letters and his friends here are asked to send a card to Room 696, Hendrick Memorial Hospital.

Kenneth Wilson, In Navy 18 Years, Visiting Parents

Chief Radioman Kenneth Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Wilson, arrived in Winters Tuesday for a visit with his parents. It has been about two and a half years since his last visit here.

Wilson is on the staff of Admiral Isman, Commander Fleet Air Wing 1, aboard Sealplane Tender with home port, Okinawa. He has been serving in the U. S. Navy for 18 years on June 1.

In recent months he has been to Viet Nam, Hong Kong, Japan, Philippines, Bangkok, Singapore and practically every where in that section of the world.

He will report to the Naval Air Station Moffett Field, San Francisco, California at the end of his leave here.

Teachers And Employees Get Service Medals

Service medals were presented to teachers and employees of the Winters Independent School District at the final meeting of the Winters Classroom Teachers Association Tuesday evening at the school cafeteria.

Robert Christian, superintendent of schools, made the presentation of service medals to several individuals, on behalf of the School Board.

Mrs. H. H. Henniger, second grade teacher, was presented a 20-year service medal. Mrs. Sam Russell, employed in the school cafeteria, was presented a 15-year service medal.

Receiving 10-year service medals were Mrs. B. T. Shoemaker, high school English teacher; Mrs. Lee Harrison, high school counselor; Mrs. H. M. Nichols, elementary teacher; and James J. Jones, junior high teacher.

Five-year service medals were presented to David Ledbetter, high school history teacher; Mrs. Robert Christian, high school librarian; Mrs. Tommy Russell, primary music teacher; Mrs. Weldon B. Middleton, junior high school secretary; George Beard, elementary school principal; and Mrs. George Beard, junior high school teacher.

Announcement was made that Mrs. Loyd Roberson, high school teacher, is retiring at the end of the school year. She will be presented a gift by the Classroom Teachers Association. She was unable to be present for the meeting.

Officers of the Classroom Teachers Association for the 1966-67 school year were installed by Jake Joyce, high school principal. They include Clifford Hill, president; Elgin Conner, vice president; Mrs. George Beard, treasurer; Mrs. Tommy Russell, recording secretary; Mrs. G. K. Beall, corresponding secretary; Howard Davis, parliamentarian; and Miss Bessie Mae Wheelless, board member.

Superintendent Christian, in presenting the service medals to the teachers and employees, mentioned the history of service awards in the Winters school system, from the date of inauguration in 1957 to 1966.

Members of the school board and their wives were guests at the dinner meeting.

K. E. Tischler Completes Food Service Training

Army Pvt. Kenneth E. Tischler, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe W. Tischler, Route 1, Winters, completed a food service course under the Reserve Enlistment Program at Fort Ord, Calif., May 13.

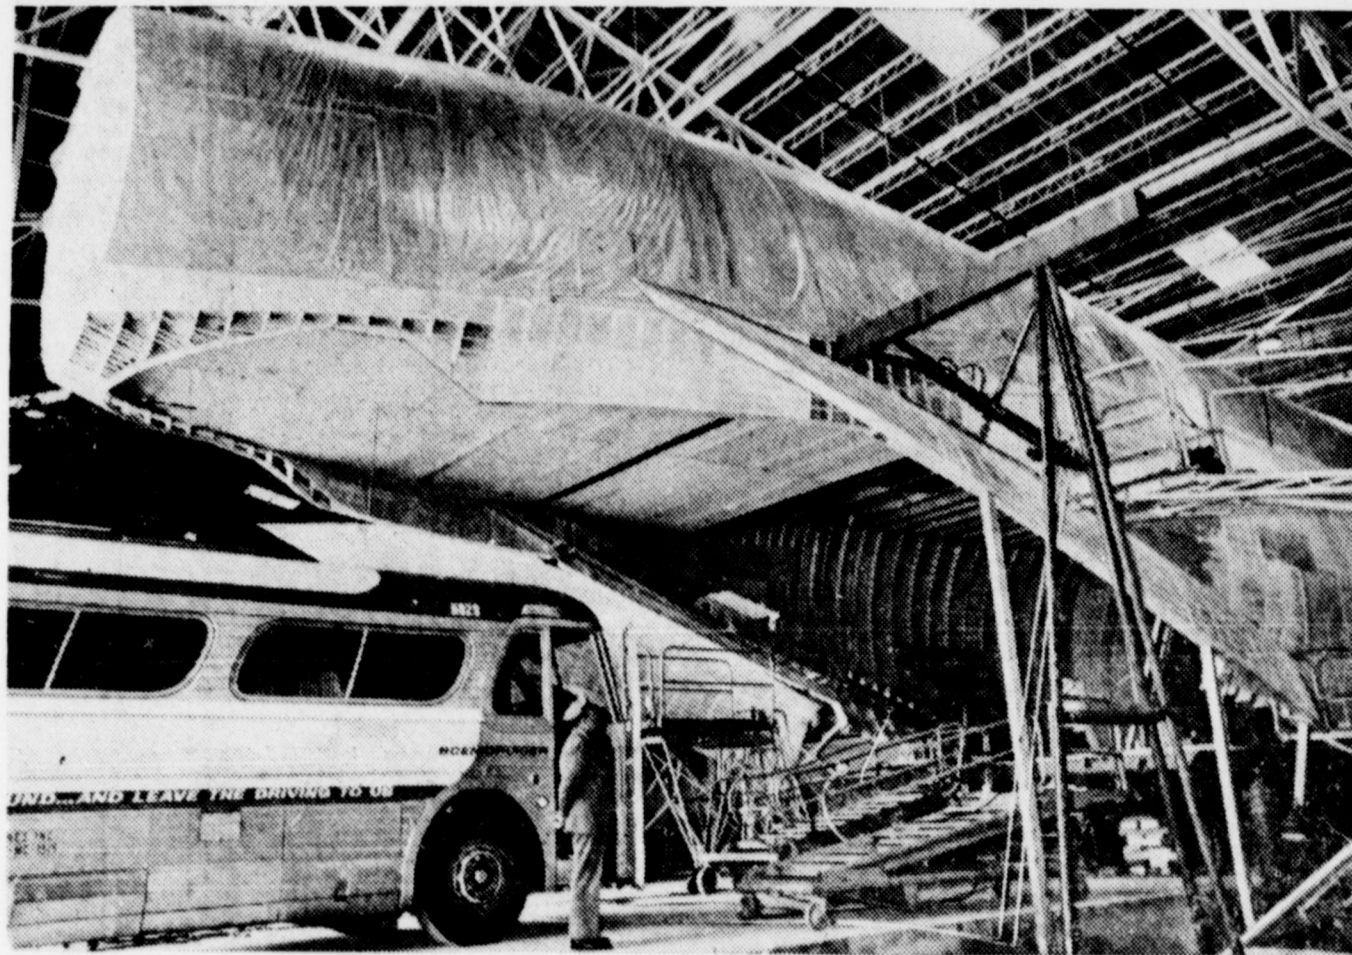

During the eight-week course, Tischler was trained in the preparation and serving of food in military kitchens and in the field. The fifth and sixth weeks were spent obtaining "on-the-job" training in an Army mess hall.

Tischler will return to his Army National Guard unit, Company B of the 141st Infantry's 1st Battalion in Ballinger, at the completion of his six-month tour of duty.

The former Winters High School student was engaged in farming before going on active duty.

FROM MIDLAND

Week end guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Huffman were Misses Celia Harris, Maudie Ruins, Jean Call and Mary Phillips all of Midland.

A HUGE SUCCESS—Bus driver R. C. Marchman takes a close look at a mockup of the Lockheed C5A in Marietta, Ga. The airplane, when completed, will be the world's largest and will be able to hold six buses like the one Marchman drives.

By Vern Sanford

No creature in Texas is shrouded with so many myths and half-truths as the rattlesnake.

This deadly reptile really has more of an overblown reputation than a true case history.

Facts gathered by the Texas Department of Public Health reveal that more Texans die from insect stings than from snakebite.

But this doesn't discourage those who preach the rattlesnake myth. Even though they have no biological proof they continue to tell stories about this much-publicized reptile. Yet many people accept their statements as fact.

Here are just a few of the more common myths credited to the rattler:

1. A mama rattlesnake will swallow her young upon impending danger.

2. By stretching a Manila rope about your camp at night, you're protected since no rattlesnake will crawl over a hair rope.

3. A large rattlesnake can inject more than a teaspoon of venom.

4. Extract the fangs of a rattler and it is harmless forever.

5. Rattlesnake broth is a cure for pneumonia.

There are many other such myths. But this sampling gives you some idea as to what many people have come to accept as truthful about the rattlesnake.

In fact, it has gotten to the point where it is difficult to distinguish myth from fact.

For example, it is common belief that six-foot rattlesnakes are abundant, particularly in South Texas—home of our biggest rattlers. Yet, from an advertisement in Texas Game and Fish Magazine, official publication of the State Parks and Wildlife Commission, a few years back, calling for six-foot rattlers, there was only one answer. And this one just barely made six feet.

Truth is that a rattler over five feet is rare. Many people get generous eyes when they see a big rattler. Many a four-footer has grown to six feet or more.

A lethal dose of venom is about one drop for each 50 pounds of body weight.

Their rattle comes from a jointed string of segments that are interlocked very loosely. Each click of the vibrations is almost heard individually when the tail vibrates slowly. But it becomes almost an incessant hum when the movement is frenzied.

Do not depend on the sound of the rattle to give warning. Some rattlers have been known to remain mute before striking; others might have lost their rattles through some mishap.

A rattler sheds his skin during the active warm-weather season. In winter it hibernates in its den and does not normally shed.

It begins the shed by rubbing its mouth against some object, loosening the lip scale. Then it works the loose skin free from the head and crawls out, leaving the skin turned inside out.

The rattler is a pit-viper, with the heat-detecting pit between eye and nostril.

A rattler has no ears, therefore its strike is directed at a heat source and also at vibrations.

after the story has been told a few times.

One of the greatest fallacies about rattlers is that their true age can be determined by the number of rattles they carry.

Yet a two-year old rattler may have as many rattles as one four years old. So, the number of rattles actually is a very poor indication of age.

Hunting rattlesnakes has become a popular winter pastime throughout Texas. In some places, such as Sweetwater, rattlesnake round-ups are staged annually. They attract contestants from throughout the state, as well as from other states.

Most hunters capture snakes by spraying gasoline into known rattler dens and catching the groggy reptiles after the fumes have driven them into the open.

Favorite weapon is a snare. It is made from a long piece of aluminum tubing with a piece of wire doubled through it, leaving a loop at one end. This loop is dropped over a snake's head and the loose ends at the opposite end are pulled to draw the loop taut.

Some people even eat rattlesnake. Those who have tried it say it is fairly delectable. It tastes something like a cross between chicken and fish.

Most famous member of the Texas rattler family is the Western Diamondback. This snake has a large and heavy body and will average between three and four feet in length. A litter of young, born alive, will average about 12, but ones of 20 or more are not uncommon.

Most notable characteristics of this snake are the diamond-shaped markings along the back and the distinctive black and white rings on the tail, above the rattles.

Its head is broad, flat and triangular. Fangs are about one-half inch long and are recurved, folding flat against the roof of the mouth. This snake can open its mouth until both upper and lower jaws are completely vertical.

Diamondbacks are responsible for more deaths than any other North American snake because they are capable of manufacturing and injecting more toxin.

A rattler sheds his skin during the active warm-weather season. In winter it hibernates in its den and does not normally shed.

It begins the shed by rubbing its mouth against some object, loosening the lip scale. Then it works the loose skin free from the head and crawls out, leaving the skin turned inside out.

138 Children Attend "Mary Poppins Day"

A special "Mary Poppins Day," to inaugurate the summer reading program at the Winters Public Library, was attended by 138 children Tuesday afternoon. Children attending were from pre-school age through the fifth grade.

Mrs. James Colburn, dressed as "Mary Poppins," made a surprise entrance and told the "Mary Poppins" story to the children.

Following the program, children were presented favors of candy and balloons.

Miss Myra Glover, librarian, was assisted in presentation of the program and entertainment by members of the Junior Culture Club, Mmes. Dwan Cannon, Dennis Rodgers, Don Oaks, and B. J. Colburn.

The special program was to call attention to the summer reading program sponsored by the library. Children whose families are already members of the library may enroll. Where families are not enrolled as members, summer enrollment may be made for $1.00. Yearly family membership is $2.00.

The summer reading program will begin June 1 and continue through Sept. 1.

Betty Sue Jernigan Is Complimented At Gift Tea Monday

Betty Sue Jernigan, bride-elect of Jim Shook, was complimented with a gift tea in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Briley Monday evening from 7 to 8:30 o'clock. Mrs. Briley greeted guests and presented the honoree and her mother, Mrs. J. U. Jernigan, and Mrs. Garland Shook.

Mrs. Don Thomas presided at the registry, and Mrs. Earl Dorsett directed guests to the refreshment table.

Orange Blossoms and Oriental white iris in a crystal and antique gold bowl formed the centerpiece for the table laid with white cut-work linen. Mint green ribbon streamers with the names, "Betty and Jim," in gold letters, and white tapers in crystal and gold holders completed the center arrangement.

Mrs. A. S. Henley ladeled mint green punch and Mrs. Kenneth Simpson served bridal cookies, toasted nuts, and green and white mints.

Mike Magee Will Take Special Course At UT

Michael L. Magee, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Magee of Star Route, Blackwell, and a junior student in Winters High School this year, has received an appointment to the Summer Program for Talented High School Students sponsored by the National Science Foundation Summer Training Program in mathematics at the University of Texas.

The University of Texas mathematics program for talented high school students is a six weeks program beginning June 5. The objective of the program is to provide a maximum opportunity for the participants to broaden and deepen their knowledge of mathematics by working problems and doing mathematics.

Participants in the program will be expected to engage seriously in the academic work in order to benefit from the program, but no college credit is given. Thirty students were selected to take part in the program at the University of Texas this summer.

In order to be selected for this special summer program, a student had to be nominated by the outstanding math and science student in their school, and then an examination was given to determine which students would receive the appointments.

Let's see. Who was getting ready to rule the universe just about 20 years ago?

J. L. McWilliams Will Get Degree From Texas A. & M.

James Lee McWilliams of Winters is a candidate to receive a bachelor of science degree in architectural construction at the May 28 commencement at Texas A & M University.

McWilliams is among 907 degree candidates at the University.
